Complaint has been made to the police by a woman bird-lover that robins are being slaughtered by the score all over town at the hands of small boys with air guns. It is said that the guns are being sold more heavily this spring than ever before, and the destruction of song birds within the city limits is likely to become serious in proportions unless something is done to stop the juvenile killers. Chief Kiely has instructed his men to watch for the air-gunners, and every boy detected using one of the weapons will be arrested.

A sporting goods dealer told one of the city officials who interested himself in the matter when he heard the woman's complaint that he is receiving large shipments of air guns almost daily, and that his average sale has been between eight and a dozen a day. Figured on that basis there must be a hundred or more of the weapons in the hands of careless or mischievous boys throughout the city. With so many of the guns in use it is not only dangerous for the birds, but for pedestrians. The guns shoot with considerable force, and a stray shot might inflict painful, or even fatal injury.

The attention of the game wardens has been called to the slaughter of the robins and other protected birds, and the State authorities will probably take a hand in the suppression of the guns.

AUTOISTS ARRESTED.

Machines Owned by W. R. Stanbery and Dr. Herring Unnumbered.

William R. Stanbery's new touring car got him into trouble yesterday. He was arrested for running it without the number required by the State law. In court this morning, Mr. Stanbery explained to Judge Runyon that he had sent for the number, but the registration proceedings were still unfinished. His excuse was accepted.

Dr. G. D. Herring, arrested for the same offense, made a similar explanation to the magistrate in his office yesterday afternoon, and was excused from attending court today.

SHE WASN'T KIDNAPPED

Thrilling Mystery That Fizzled Under Investigation.

TWO KATE FINNS

Cincinnati Authorities Thought Missing Irish Girl Was Clue in a Personal.

On April 11 Chief Kiely received a telegram from the Cincinnati authorities asking him to unravel the mysterious disappearance of Kate Finn, an Irish girl who arrived on the Oceanic in New York the Wednesday before, and who was supposed to have gone to Plainfield with a woman posing as her sister. The telegram said the Finn girl had sisters in Cincinnati, and was expected there. The woman she went away with, the telegram said, could not by any possibility have been a sister. Deep mystery surrounded the case, and a peculiar kidnapping affair seemed to have happened.

The night before the telegram arrived Chief Kiely had noticed a personal in the paper to the effect that "Miss Kate Finn, of Ireland, was visiting her sister on Somerset street." He remembered the personal, and sent Detective McCarthy to sleuth around the borough main street for Kate Finn.

McCarthy found Miss Finn. He also found three bona fide sisters, and an undoubted aunt. Miss Finn was quite certain that she was with her sisters, and had come to the place she set out to reach when she left Ireland. She didn't know anybody, sister or no sister, in Cincinnati.

Chief Kiely telegraphed to Cincinnati as follows:

"Finn girl here. So are three undoubted and bona fide sisters. Miss Finn doesn't know anybody in Cincinnati and wouldn't go there if her fare was paid."

Twenty minutes later he received this:

"Drop Finn case. Mystery cleared up. Another Kate Finn on the same boat with yours. She was lost in New York. She is hustling to Cincinnati as fast as she can travel."

Miss Finn is staying with her aunt, Mrs. William White, of Somerset street. Two of her sisters are the Misses Margaret and Annie Finn.

PLAINFIELD AGAINST JERSEY CITY TOMORROW

Opening Game of the Season on Crescent Oval Eagerly Awaited by the Local Fans, and a Hot Contest is Expected.

Plainfield's baseball season for 1905 will open tomorrow, weather permitting, and so far as the management of the local association is concerned nothing has been left undone toward making it a successful one from the start. In the first place a first-class team has been organized. Captain Driscoll at first, Kiernan at second, Oldring at short and Leonard at third. In the outfield will be Cosgrove, the former Princeton star, "Pete" Oregan, the old favorite, and Connelly. Nearly every man on the team is a strong batsman and fielder and can run bases to perfection. However, too much should not be expected at the first game. After a few contests and the players get warmed up to their work, it is predicted that the locals will be the strongest in the State.

Manager Daab.

Secretary-Treasurer Lines Groo.

Philip Daab has been secured to manage the aggregation.

Assisting Mr. Daab is Lines Groo, of North Plainfield, a thorough baseball man. He with Mr. Daab, is anxious to bring the best attractions here, and one chief desire is to humble Westfield's pride.

The opening game tomorrow will be with the Jersey City Eastern League team, one of the strongest in this section of the country. Manager Murray will present his best lineup and expects a victory, while on the other hand Manager Daab is just as confident of winning. His lineup includes some of the best semi-professional players in the country. Linderman and Lamar will be in the points, with

The game will be called at 3:30 tomorrow afternoon. Seating accommodations have been provided for 1,200 persons. An improvement that will be appreciated this season is that persons on foot will have a separate gate to enter and leave the grounds, while the horses and carriages will use another entrance. This will avoid confusion. The dressing rooms for the players have been completed and other improvements have been made about the stands.

ALL READY FOR CONTESTS ON THE LOCAL LINKS

Park Golf Club Season Starts Tomorrow and the Plainfield Country Club Will Begin Tournaments One Week Later.

The active season at the Park Golf Club will open tomorrow with the first play for the President's and Park Golf Club cups. This competition will continue every Saturday throughout the season, and honors will be awarded on the point system, as formerly. The course is in excellent condition and no doubt here will be a large field of players out for the initial contest.

The season's schedule of events will be announced within a short time and these promise to be as attractive as last year. Team matches will also be arranged.

The Plainfield Country Club has a formal opening tomorrow, although there will be no regular event. During the past two weeks the course has been used to some extent and is has been pronounced to be in good condition. The schedule play will begin probably on Saturday, April 29. Considerable time and attention will be devoted this year to tennis as well golf, and the programme will include among other features a two or three day tournament. The clubhouse has been greatly improved by additions and the establishment of sleeping quarters and many other things have been done which will add to the comfort and convenience of the members.

The active season at the Westfield Golf Club will begin the last of the month and a strong schedule is now in course of preparation.

SAGAMORES' HIT.

Ovation Given Popular Young Musicians at Y. M. C. A. Hall Last Night.

Before a good-sized house, the Sagamore Musical Club, assisted by Fred VanEps, banjo soloist, and Miss Cooper, a reader, played to an appreciatived audience last night at the Y. M. C. A. Hall. That the club is rapidly becoming liked by the people of this city was evidenced by the applause which greeted them each time, to which they politely responded, every selection necessitating an encore. Briggs Bros. appeared in a duet which highly pleased the audience. Miss Cooper, a reader from Westfield, contributed her share of the programme very creditably, rendering some very difficult dramatic recitations.

But the bright star of the evening was Fred VanEps, in his banjo solos. That Mr. VanEps is an artist on his particular instrument is accorded by everyone.

ENSEMBLE'S RECITAL.

Club's Delightful Musicale at Home of Miss Anna O. Marsh, Madison Avenue.

The Ensemble Club gave a delightful recital yesterday afternoon at the home of Miss Anna O. Marsh, in Madison avenue. The programme was composed of selections from Handel, Haydn and Beethoven and each part was preceded by a few remarks about the composer. The opening selection was "The Hallelujah Chorus" by a quartette and was followed by a four-hand arrangement of Handel's celebrated largo with a violin accompaniment by Miss Blossom F. Randolph. The other numbers were quartettes, duos and solos and were greatly appreciated by the guests.

The piano players were Mrs. Miller, Mrs. Probasco, the Misses Huntington, Codington, Horne, Druce, Millar and Marsh.

POINTS FOR THE BUYERS

The best coal mined is sold by Rapp & Cline, of West Third street. It is well screened and full weight is given.

The coal you buy at Boice, Runyon & Co.'s yards will burn free and clear and give the best satisfaction. Place your order now.

George Egel's meat market on Somerset street, is the place for the careful housewife to do her buying. Right meats at right rates.

A. H. Knander, the tinner and sanitary plumber, is always ready to make contracts for work of any size. Entire satisfaction is guaranteed.

The cream, butter and eggs sold at Brokaw's creamery on East Front street, are strictly fresh. An inspection of the creamery is invited.

There are cigars and cigars but none to equal the Nickle Yara, for the money. It is made by M. C. Dobbins, of Park avenue, who handles all smokers' materials.

Mrs. E. B. Hannigan, an expert masseur, is now associated with the parlors of Miss G. Norman, 149 East Fifth street. Their Vibrasage Treatment is very successful.

Much of the young man's dressiness lies in the cravat he wears. Greer & Greenwood, East Front street, have one of the finest, newest assortment of ties to be found in any haberdashery.

If you need electric light wires placed, electric door bells put in or an electric fan connected up, ask Allen B. Laing about it. He's in the business and can tell you something of interest.

If the way to a man's heart is through his stomach, madame, you will have taken a great step toward holding your husband forever if you feed him J. W. VanSickle's meat. His place is on North avenue.

Whether they be permanent or transient, the Hotel Waldorf has accommodations for guests that are superior to many other hostelries. Henry Windham is proprietor and he exercises personal supervision.

There is no better morning drink during hot weather—it will soon be here—than fresh, pure milk. The best milk obtainable anywhere is that sold by William Lindsay & Co. Best for whatever the season may be and for whatever milk is used.

Many people who own a watch that has gone wrong, discard it for the want of letting a jeweler examine it. Very frequently it can be made as good as new. L. Meraller & Son, of Park avenue, are expert watch repairers and they are moderate priced.

Just as a present day sky-scraper is put together bit by bit until it towers high in the air, so is a bank account accumulated. Little by little, dollar by dollar, it keeps growing until finally it reaches surprising proportions. The City National Bank has a savings department that invites your consideration.

For fine spring and summer goods go to Hill & Shupp's stores on West Front street. The firm has just received an attractive line of dress goods of the proper weight and pattern, while in the dry goods line you will find the best in the market at low prices. An attraction at the store is the collection of rare birds, the work of the late Prof. Howlett.

Reduced Rates to Pacific Cost Points.

On account of the Lewis and Clark Exposition, at Portland, Ore., June 1 to October 15, and various conventions to be held in cities on the Pacific Coast during the summer, the Pennsylvania Railroad Company will sell round-trip tickets on specified dates, from all stations on its lines, to San Francisco and Los Angeles, April 9 to September 27; to Portland, Seattle, Tacoma, Victoria, Vancouver, and San Diego, May 22 to September 27, at greatly reduced rates. For dates of sale and specific information concerning rates and routes, consult nearest ticket agent. 4 14 3 f

C. W. McCutchen to Preside.

Charles W. McCutchen will preside and Nelson A. Miller will lead the singing at the Y. M. C. A. meeting on Sunday afternoon.

—The Public Service Corporation is engaged in extending its gas mains in the West End of the city, starting at Grant avenue and West Front street, the mains will be run through Grant avenue and South Second street, taking in all of the numerous side streets. A gas main will also be run in the Pond Machine Tool Works.

AMUSEMENTS.

Jefferson De Angelis, in a great big production of musical comedy called "Fantana" Mr. De Angelis is surrounded by one of the best musical comedy organizations in our land, and is playing to capacity nightly. The attraction at the Princess, 29th street and Broadway is "Frenzied Finance," a timely farce which portrays a bell boy climbing the ladder to riches in the truly Wall street fashion of the day. The Sun says it is uproariously funny. Evenings at 8:30.

Henry W. Savage's "Prince of Pilsen" has long since earned the title of the perennial musical comedy. Backed by a verdict of favor from every city in these United States, and with the British stamp of approval, too, the tuneful Pixley-Luders piece is now in New York for a return engagement. Since "The Prince's" metropolitan debut at the Broadway Theatre, this attraction has played twelve engagements in Greater New York—a pretty fair record. The present company contains many of the original cast, which contributed to the phenomenal success; and includes Jess Dandy, Ivar Anderson, Arthur Donaldson, Louise Willis, Jeannette Bageard and J. Francis Sullivan.

LITERARY.

Contents of the April "The American Boy." The front cover, showing boys shooting at a mark, will prove of fascinating interest to every boy. This number, by reason of its varied and interesting contents, is one of the best yet published: Chapters XI and XII of "For the Mikado," by Kirk Munroe, is full of interest; Chapters II and III of the English school story, "A French Frog and an American Egle," telling about the initiation of new boys into a secret society, are full of fun; "Turkey-egg and Skuck," another school story, with its apt illustrations, will also make the boys laugh.

This tiny commonwealth has come to see the arteries of her political life deliberately poisoned by those who profit most by her large industries. When their names are called in public there is not even spirit and moral sensitiveness enough to answer. Here is all the political rottenness with less excuse than Colorado can offer in its recent stress. Her great possessions were immediately in jeopardy, which can not be said of Rhode Island, New Jersey, or Pennsylvania. If any humbling lesson is to be drawn from the turbulent days in Colorado, it is one which our people, as a whole, should set themselves to learn.—Collier's for April 8.

—You can't lay your finger on a map of the city without covering the place where one or more of our want advertisers live; nor without touching a spot where real estate has been bought and sold through advertising in these columns.

—"The Crisis in the East," will be the subject of the great address to be given by E. T. Colton at the Y. M. C. A. Hall on Sunday afternoon. William D. Murray, of this city, is the chairman of the foreign department committee of which Mr. Colton is one of the secretaries.

MARCH 14, 1905.

Azienza Specialties Co.: Dear Sirs—From a small scratch on the instep of my foot developed an inflamed sore which caused my foot to swell so that I was obliged to cut the shoe, and BLOOD POISON threatened me. I applied Azienza Cream and immediately the pain ceased, and after two applications the swelling was so reduced that I could wear my regular shoe. I am now cured. I endorse it as a great healing and cleansing preparation. J. L. BOLLEN, 255 Van Vorst street, Jersey City, N. J.

FLEET NEAR SAIGON

Rojestvensky's Supply Ship at Franco-Chinese Port.

RUSSIAN ADMIRAL WANTS TO FIGHT

United States Cruiser Raleigh at Labuan to Watch Hostile Fleets Near Cayo, In the Philippines. Squadron Sails Northward.

LONDON, April 14.—A Saigon (Indo-China) dispatch says that Admiral Rojestvensky's hospital ship arrived there Wednesday night to take on board provisions, coal and medicines. She left yesterday at midday to rejoin the main squadron.

It is reported from Tokyo that the Russians are continually re-enforcing the garrison at Vladivostok and that the work of strengthening the fortress is progressing constantly. It is said that the plans of the Russians contemplate a garrison numbering 100,000 men, with 500 guns. Many additional batteries, redoubts, barriers and pits are in course of construction, and enormous stores of ammunition are being accumulated. The Russians, it is said, hope to so equip the fortress that it will be capable of withstanding a long siege.

Admiral Rojestvensky is apparently keenly anxious to meet Admiral Togo and fight it out to a finish.

All the indications are that the commander of the Baltic fleet is making no attempt to conceal his whereabouts and is simply sailing straight ahead in order to do battle with the Japanese at the earliest possible moment. He is keeping to the main trade route and is undoubtedly well aware that he is constantly being sighted and reported by passing vessels.

There has been practically no secrecy since Rojestvensky's arrival in far eastern waters.

The Russian fleet was sighted at noon by the Peninsular and Oriental steamship Nubia, steering north-northeast, about 300 miles northeastward of the Natunas islands, which lie between the Malay peninsula and the west coast of Borneo.

The German collier Hindoo, loaded with 4,200 tons of Cardiff coal for the island of Tanjong Pandan, between Borneo and Sumatra, which was refused clearance papers for Saigon unless her commander gave bonds to deliver her cargo through the British consul there, was released, her captain agreeing to deliver his cargo as stipulated at Saigon.

A Labuan dispatch says that the cruiser Raleigh is at that port, on the north coast of British Borneo, where she was dispatched by Rear Admiral Train to observe the movements of the hostile fleets, and is about to leave for Cuyo, in the Philippines, a point about 400 or 500 miles to the northeast, between Palawan and Panay islands.

It is indicated that the Raleigh's commander obtained information as to what he believed to be the contemplated course of the opposing war vessels and has shaped his course accordingly. It is about a two days' sail to Cuyo.

The battleship Wisconsin and the torpedo boats Decatur, Dale and Bainbridge have left Hongkong for Cavite.

The news at St. Petersburg of the northward movement of Admiral Rojestvensky's fleet and his evident intention to accept battle whenever Admiral Togo chooses to offer it has for the present stilled all activities in the direction of peace, and the foreign dispatches relating to the voyage of the squadron are followed with the most intense interest.

The admiralty volunteers no information regarding Rojestvensky's plans or as to whether his immediate destination is or is not Cape Padarin, on the east coast of Cochin China, but in naval circles the impression prevails that the squadron will continue northward to the straits of Formosa, where, if Admiral Togo does not elect to give battle or is defeated, Admiral Rojestvensky may seize a temporary base in Japanese territory.

Police Commissary Olechevsky, at Odessa, was last night wounded in the chest by a bullet fired from a revolver. His assailant, who was arrested, refused to disclose his identity.

OUR OFFICERS IN THE WAR.

Brigadier General Thomas H. Barry For Duty With Russian Forces.

WASHINGTON, April 14.—Secretary Taft has selected Brigadier General Thomas H. Barry, commanding the department of the gulf at Atlanta, Ga.; Colonel John Van R. Hoff of the medical department at Fort Leavenworth, Kan., and Captain Sydney A. Cloman, Twenty-second infantry, of the general staff, stationed in this city, for duty with the Russian army in Manchuria. Captain Cloman will act as aid to General Barry.

These officers will relieve Major M. M. Macomb of the artillery corps, Captain William V. Judson, corps of engineers, and Colonel Valery Havard of the medical department from further duty with the Russian army. Major Macomb is now with the Russian forces in Manchuria.

Colonel Havard and Captain Judson are on their way to the United States, having left Tokyo recently for San Francisco. The latter two officers were captured by the Japanese army on the retreat of the Russian forces from Mukden. Colonel Havard might easily have escaped with Major Macomb, but Captain Judson was prostrated by sickness at the time, and Colonel Havard remained with him as an act of friendship to see that he was properly treated.

Plainfield, N. J., April 14, 1905.

A physician reports that fresh meat causes spring fever. Guess we won't get spring fever.

The man who believes in steady advertising and distributes his appropriation judiciously throughout the year will meet with greater return than the chap who spends the same amount in two or three big plunges and then lies back to regain his wind. This is no mere theory.—Ex.

Thanks to the Federal Postoffice Department, there is hope that in the near future one will be saved from receiving a lot of worthless stuff when he buys a copy of a Metropolitan Sunday paper. An order has been issued from Washington to enforce the postal laws regarding "illegal enclosures in newspapers" and after September 1 newspapers sent through the mails as second-class matter must not contain extraneous features. In an effort to promote their sales, New York papers, of the yellow type especially, have been working a sort of trading stamp inducement for all that it is worth, departing radically from the purpose of a journal, which is primarily to supply the news of the day. This scheme is perpetrated in the shape of a supplement. Calendars, pictures, card-board spectacles, sheet music, patterns, blocks of postal cards, dishes of soluble paints, and goodness knows what not, have been used to catch the masses. The newspapers of high standard have not been guilty of this offense but they have not suffered materially because of the catch-penny device of the other papers for their readers would not be attracted by such methods.

The Elizabeth Journal, the recognized spokesman for the Republican party in Union County, very wisely takes exception to the Jersey City Journal's declaration that Randolph Perkins has already been selected to succeed Joseph Cross as Senator from Union County. Some kind friend of the Westfielder has evidently been magnifying his political importance in the eyes of the Jersey City paper. Mr. Perkins may be a very nice man but he stands no more show of being nominated for such high office than Jim Martine does being named for President of the United States. When Assemblyman Embree died, the Republicans of the county very naturally and rightfully decided that his official position should descend to another Westfielder and Mr. Perkins wanted it and got it. Mr. Perkins is no doubt aware of the fact that Charles J. Fisk, of this city, will succeed the honored Joseph Cross, if he desires the place. If he does not, some other Plainfielder will. The Elizabeth Journal sums it all up in this fashion: "Our Hudson County contemporary says many nice things about Mr. Perkins, all of which are well deserved, but its positiveness in asserting that it is in order to speak of him as 'Senator Perkins, for a nomination in Union is equivalent to an election,' will amuse the politicians in this county. There is good senatorial material aplenty in the Republican party of Union County, and a number of gentlemen have been honored by a mention, but from present indications, the honor is likely to go to one of Plainfield's favorite sons."

ELIZABETH PYTHIANS PLAN A BIG RALLY

PARADE TO BE A FEATURE OF CELEBRATION NEXT MONTH.

A movement is on foot among the Elizabeth K. of P. lodges of District No. 34, to holding a big Pythian rally in Turn Hall, in that city, the eve of Decoration Day, May 29. Committees from the three K. of P. lodges, Harmony, Olive Branch and Volunteer Lodge are making arrangements

It is expected that there will be more than 1,000 knights from the surrounding counties participating in the event. The rally will be patterned after that which was recently held a Madison Square Garden in New York by the combined K. of P. lodges of Greater New York, an event which had no parallel in the history of the New York knights.

One of the features of the proposed rally will be the parade, which will take place on Monday afternoon, May 29. All the K. of P. companies of the Uniformed Rank from the surrounding counties will form a line of march, probably at Union Square, and march through the principal streets of the city. The parade will also be participated in by the members of the out-of-town lodges and there will be at least 500 men in line. All the State officers of the Knights of Pythias who were elected at the recent convention of the State lodge, will be present and will also take part in the parade. The evening will probably be set aside for the banquet and for the holding of exhibition drills. Handsome prizes for the companies giving the best exhibitions will be awarded and it is expected that there will be seven or eight companies competing.

CHRISTIAN FIELD.

Rev. H. H. Oberly, of Christ church, Elizabeth, will preach in St. Stephen's church, this evening.

Rev. Charles E. Herring, of Watchung avenue, attended the wedding of a relative in New York on Wednesday night.

The Christian Endeavor Society of the Mary E. Wilson Memorial chapel at Watchung, has elected these officers: President, Thomas K. Bolton; vice-president, Ephraim S. Acker; secretary, Francis Bartels; treasurer, Chas. E. Speir; corresponding secretary, Miss Maria Kelm.

The congregation of St. Ladislas church, the Hungarian Catholic Congregation, at Somerville, has purchased from Prof Isaac E. Hasbrouck, four city lots on the north side of Somerset street, between Plum and Prospect streets, in that place, as a site for a new church and rectory.

Mr. and Mrs. George H. Frost and Miss Edith K. West, of Watchung avenue, are now in Washington for a few days prior to their return to Plainfield.

SUBURBAN NEWS.

DUNELLEN AND VICINITY.

In sliding to base in a game between Plainfield High School and Leal's School Wednesday afternoon, Paul Brakeley hurt his hand to such an extent that he may not be able to play tomorrow morning against South Orange High School.

Frank Morris, the Rutgers student, who has been taking the place of Principal Lester Meserell, who is very sick, has been compelled to return to his studies. John Berger, a Rutgers theological student, is filling the vacancy this week.

It is beginning to look as if Dunellen would have no nine this year. Giles, Craig, Matthews and Moynihan, of last year's team, are ready to sign but other players of proper calibre are hard to get.

A special union prayer service will be held at the Presbyterian church tomorrow, which has been set aside as a day of fasting and prayer in all churches of the country.

Whooping cough is spreading among the children of the borough rather more rapidly than mothers like. There are no indications of a real epidemic, however.

Paul Brakeley is becoming one of the star fielders of the Plainfield High School. He is the regular centerfielder on the school team.

The Dunellen Field Club and the Laurels, of Plainfield, will play tomorrow morning on the Madison avenue field.

A chattel mortgage sale will be held at Constable Pierce's home, in the village, next Tuesday afternoon.

Benjamin VanBuskirk has resigned from Levering & Garrigues' force and entered a Plainfield shop.

The family of W. E. Terry moved into their new house, which is all complete, yesterday.

E. P Underwood, of Demarest, was in the borough looking after some property this week.

Joel Giddes has started in business as a hay carter. He has purchased a team for his wagon.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Vance, of Clinton avenue, are the happy parents of a bouncing boy.

William Dana shot three wild ducks on the New Market lake in two days this week.

The building and loan association held a well attended meeting last night.

Miss Alice Pierce will be the hostess of the G. E. Club tonight.

Arbor Day exercises were held in the Dunellen schools today.

LEAL'S BOYS CONTEST FOR SEVERAL PRIZES

ANNUAL FIELD MEET AT THE DRIVING PARK.

Plucky contests marked the track and field meet of the Leal's School boys at the Plainfield Driving Park yesterday afternoon. The events were all interesting, and the attention of the goodly number of spectators, composed mainly of younger people, never flagged.

The contests were held in three classes: Seniors, juniors and subjuniors. Prizes were offered in all the classes, but there was no count for the individual championship of the school.

The seniors competed for a cup offered by E. S. Hooley. It was won by Jere Manning. Edwin Daniel and George Hooley were tied for second place, which carried with it a gold medal offered by Principal John Leal. They will each receive a medal.

The juniors' prize was a stein, offered by Dr. G. W. Endicott. His son, G. W. Endicott, Jr., won it, but waived his claim. Otis Averil, the second man, received it.

Firsts, seconds and thirds in the various events were as follows:

Senior—Hammer throw: Manning, 69 feet 10 inches; Jewett, Lawrence. Shot-put: Lawrence, 34 feet 4 inches; Jewett, Manning. 100-yard-dash: Hooley, 15 4-5 sec.; Daniel, Lawrence. 220 yard-dash: Hooley, 23 sec.; Daniel, Glenny. Running high jump: Jewett, 4 feet 11 inches; Perkins, Daniel. Half-mile run: Glenny, 2 minutes 28 seconds; Manning, Glenny. Running broad jump: Lawrence, 17 feet 1 inch; Daniel, Glenny. Quarter-mile run: Hooley, 1 minute 2 3-5 seconds; Daniel, Manning. Pole vault: Manning, 7 feet 8 inches; Jewett, Perkins. Mile run: Glenny, 10 minutes 4-5 seconds; Manning, Daniel. Bicycle race: Howard, Glenny, Underhill.

Junior—High jump: Endicott, 4 feet 8½ inches; Averil, Martin. 100-yard-dash: Painter, 11 3-5 sec. 220-yard-dash: Endicott, 26 2-5 seconds.; Painter, Averil. 440-yard run: Averil, 1 minute 13 seconds; Endicott, Painter.

Sub-junior—Running broad jump: C. Lawrence, 12 feet 8 inches; Depew, Tilleston. 50-yard dash: Depew, 6 4-5 seconds; C. Lawrence, Tilleston. 100-yard dash: C. Lawrence, 13 1-5 seconds; Depew, Brown. 220-yard dash: Lawrence, 31 3 5 seconds; Depew, Brown.

Count of points was kept in the senior events. The competitors totalled up as follows: Manning, 18; Hooley and Daniel, 15; Jewett, 14.

The officials were: Timer, Damont; judge, Robbie; field judges, Curtis, Saffern; scorer, Underhill.

FOUR INDICTMENTS.

Beef Trust Men Arrested at Chicago.

ASSISTED FISH TO FLEE TO CANADA

Attorney Weissenbach, One of the Men Held, Declares It Was at His Instance That Witness Returned to United States.

CHICAGO, April 14.—Four indictments have been returned by the federal grand jury in connection with the investigation of the beef trust against George D. Williams, Seth S. Cusey, Leo Joseph and Attorney Joseph Weissenbach. The charge against them is for interfering with the serving of a subpoena on a witness, E. B. Fish.

The four men were arrested and taken to the federal court, where they were released in bonds of $1,000 cash, signed by the American Surety company.

Three of the men are employees of Schwarzschild & Sulzberger, meat packers, and one is an attorney for that corporation.

It is charged that the four men obstructed and impeded Deputy Marshal A. A. Bach in efforts to serve a subpoena on Edwin B. Fish, a clerk employed by Schwarzschild & Sulzberger. Fish recently returned from Canada.

Joseph Weissenbach is attorney for Schwarschild & Sulzberger, S. S. Cusey is traffic manager for the company, and George D. Hopkins is auditor for the company.

Leo S. Joseph is employed in the provision department of the concern.

The indictment alleges that a subpoena was issued for Fish on March 3, that this subpoena was given to Bach for service and that the four men had arranged for the departure of Fish from the United States to Canada and assisted him in leaving the jurisdiction of the court.

Attorney Weissenbach, who was for several years an assistant to Governor Deneen when the latter was state attorney in Chicago, declares that it was at his instance that Fish returned from Canada and agreed to go before the grand jury. This is not denied by the government officers. Weissenbach also declares that he has never seen or spoken to Hopkins, has never spoken to Cusey concerning Fish and asserts that Joseph was never in any manner interested in the affair.

Cause of High Price of Beef.

CHICAGO, April 14.—Prices of beef have advanced in every important market of the United States. The consumer is paying the advance price, which to him represents several cents per pound over what he paid up to ten days ago. Swift & Co., Armour and Nelson Morris state that no beef has been supplied to the retail markets of Chicago or to any other market of the country during the last month and a half except with a loss. This is due to the fact that the breeders of stock and the handlers of range cattle have been holding back on supply until the grass of the range becomes nourishing.

Grover Company Held Blameless.

BROCKTON, Mass., April 14.—The R. B. Grover company and its agents were declared to be blameless for the explosion which destroyed its shoe factory here on March 20 and caused the death of fifty-seven persons by the finding of Judge Fred M. Bixby, just made public. Judge Bixby finds that Spriggins' death was due to burns from the fire which followed the explosion of the boiler. The explosion is held to be due to a defect which could not have been discovered.

No Clemency For Rudolph.

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., April 14.—At a conference here between Governor Folk and the attorneys of William Rudolph, sentenced to be hanged next Monday at Union, Mo., for the murder of Detective Schumacher, the governor announced that he would not commute Rudolph's sentence to life imprisonment as requested in a petition signed by 200 persons in St. Louis. The petition for clemency was presented to the governor by Rudolph's mother.

Venezuelan Case Closed For Present.

WASHINGTON, April 14.—The Venezuelan case is a closed incident so far as Secretary Taft, who has charge of foreign relations during the absence of Secretary Hay, is concerned unless President Roosevelt decides to take it up while he is away on his vacation. This is not thought probable.

Greeks Took Vengeance For Melas.

SALONIKA, April 14.—Later reports from Zagorikcham, near Klissura, which was attacked by a Greek band and burned, say that over 100 Bulgarians were killed. The Greeks afterward executed thirty prisoners on the spot where the Greek leader Melas was killed last October.

Knight of the Golden Eagle Dead.

LEWISTON, Me., April 14.—Dr. William D. Small, supreme high priest of the national lodge, Knights of the Golden Eagle, is dead at his home here, aged forty-one years. He was a former president of the Maine Academy of Medicine and Science.

Joseph Jefferson Again Ill.

ATLANTA, Ga., April 14.—A special from St. Augustine, Fla., says that Joseph Jefferson, the actor, is ill again at his home in Miami and that physicians have been summoned from St. Augustine to attend him.

HAIRHEALTH SAVED HIS POSITION—Kept Him Looking Young.

Thousands lose their positions because gray hairs make them look old. High class Hair Grower dressing for men and women. Not a dye.

Gentlemen—At 40 my hair was gray. A R. R. friend lost his job because gray hair made him look old. Profiting by his experience I used Hay's Hairhealth, and have the same dark brown hair that I had at 21. Hold my position, though younger men, whose only fault was gray hair, have been dismissed. I thank you for my position.—R. R. Conductor.

Large 50c. bottles, druggists'. Take nothing without signature Philo Hay Spec. Co.

Free Soap Offer Good for 25c. Cake HARFINA SOAP.

Sign this, take to any of following druggists and get 50c. bottle Hairhealth and 25c. cake Harfina Soap, medicated, both for 50c.; regular price 75c.; or sent by Philo Hay Co., Newark, N. J., prepaid, for 60c. and this adv. Free soap not given by druggist without this entire adv. and 50c. for Hairhealth.

An Ideal Location

Rosedale and Linden Park Cemeteries

LARGEST IN THE STATE

LINDEN, N. J.

Beautiful and Accessible

2 Miles from Elizabeth, 7 Miles from Newark,

14 MILES FROM NEW YORK

On Main Line Pennsylvania Railroad

Why Lots in These Cemeteries commend themselves to Heads of Families and Investors

BECAUSE of the $1,000,000 Trust Fund provided for by the Trustees in each Cemetery, the income from which will keep the properties perpetually beautiful at NO EXPENSE TO LOT OWNERS.

BECAUSE such a guarantee, not found in any other cemetery, assures lot owners that the grounds WILL BE MAINTAINED PERMANENTLY AS BEAUTIFUL PARKS AFTER THE INCOME FROM THE SALE OF LOTS HAS BEEN EXHAUSTED.

LOTS SHOULD BE PURCHASED NOW

BECAUSE MORE ADVANTAGES ARE OFFERED TO LOT BUYERS in a new Modern Park Cemetery than in those established many years and, in most cases, no provision made for perpetual care without extra expense to lot owners. THERE ARE A GREATER NUMBER OF IDEAL LOCATIONS TO SELECT FROM, PRICES OF LOTS ARE ALWAYS LOWER AND TERMS MORE ADVANTAGEOUS.

BECAUSE life is most uncertain and EVERY ONE SHOULD ANTICIPATE THE INEVITABLE BY MAKING A CHOICE NOW OF A FINAL RESTING PLACE.

LOTS WILL PROVE A GOOD INVESTMENT

BECAUSE they are sure to increase in value and can be purchased NOW at the INITIAL or LOWEST PRICE and upon the most ADVANTAGEOUS TERMS.

BECAUSE the properties are ACCESSIBLE TO 4,000,000 PEOPLE, and considering the RAPID GROWTH OF GREATER NEW YORK and its TRIBUTARY CITIES and TOWNS, it is only a question of a SHORT TIME when LOTS in ROSEDALE and LINDEN PARK will EQUAL IN VALUE those of our MOST NOTED cemeteries.

FOR INFORMATION concerning lots in these beautiful Park Cemeteries, and FREE transportation to prospective lot buyers, apply at once to any LEADING UNDERTAKER or offices of the Associations:

PROPOSALS FOR PAINTING.

Pursuant to a resolution adopted by the Board of Education of the City of Plainfield, N. J., at a meeting held April 3, 1905, notice is hereby given that the Board of Education will meet on April 17, 1905, at 7:45 p. m., at the Board room in the Stillman School, corner of West Fifth street and Arlington avenue, in the City of Plainfield, at which time and place said Board of Education will receive sealed proposals for painting the exterior and some interior work at the Franklin School.

Particulars may be had at the office of the Board, in the Stillman School, West Fifth street and Arlington avenue.

All proposals to be endorsed "Proposals for Painting," and addressed to the Secretary of the Board, and left with him at the office of the Board, on or before the hour and time mentioned for such meeting to be held.

On receipt of the bids or proposals, the Board will immediately proceed to unseal the same and publicly announce the contents in the presence of the parties bidding, or their agents, provided such parties or their agents choose to be then and there present, and also to make proper record of the prices and terms upon the minutes of the Board.

The Board reserves the right to reject any or all bids.

JEFFERSON BANQUET

Mayor Dunne's Victory In Chicago Celebrated.

BRYAN SPOKE ON THOMAS JEFFERSON

Chief Magistrate Held Forth on "Two Elections and Their Lessons"—Blow Struck at Giant Monopolies.

CHICAGO, April 14.—Subjects of national significance to the Democratic party were discussed by several leading orators of the party at a Jefferson club banquet held at the Sherman House last night in commemoration of the birthday of Thomas Jefferson. The dinner in a measure resolved itself into a jollification over the recent election of Mayor Edward F. Dunne, who is a director of the club. The mayor was among the speakers who responded to toasts. All the speakers referred to municipal ownership and to Mayor Dunne's election on a municipal ownership platform.

William Jennings Bryan and George Fred Williams were the principal speakers from out of town. Mr. Bryan spoke on "Thomas Jefferson," and his remarks were greeted with unstinted applause.

Mr. Williams took for his theme "Equal Rights to All and Special Privileges to None." He was warmly welcomed by the banqueters.

Mayor Dunne spoke on "Municipal Ownership." After a lengthy discussion of this subject Mayor Dunne ended his remarks by appealing to the Democratic party to incorporate a municipal ownership plank in the platform to be adopted at the next national convention of the party.

Mayor Dunne spoke to the toast, "Two Elections and Their Lesson." He said in part:

"The Democratic party won in the spring election because its platform plainly, clearly and truthfully declared for principles which were for the best interest of the people. It lost last fall because its platform was a compromise and because the people believed that it dealt in platitudes rather than principles.

"The results of these two elections should teach the lesson to the men who stand high in the councils of Democracy that evasion, insincerity and retrogression should have no place in the platforms of the Democratic party. The party must take and hold to advanced positions. It must keep pace with the march of events. It must declare against monopoly in any and all forms, against special privileges in every guise.

"Jefferson in his lifetime stood for equal rights to all and special privileges to none, and if Jefferson were in the flesh today he would be standing against special privileges given to great corporations, which money is contributed by private capitalists that have seized and taken possession of the railroads, the telegraph and the express transportation of the nation, of the telephones, electric light plants, waterworks, gas plants and street car systems of our city.

"Private corporations have seized and taken possession of these means of transportation and the conveyance of information, light and power, all of them monopolies requiring the use of public property. By possession of these monopolies they have been despoiling and plundering the people of this country.

"The people have at last awoke to the fact that such monopolies are unfair, iniquitous and dangerous to the republic. The blow struck in Chicago will be followed by blows of like character throughout the United States. It will also be followed, in my humble judgment, if the Democratic party is wise and prudent and incorporates in its next platform a ringing declaration in favor of government ownership of interstate railroads, telegraphs and express transportation by a decisive victory in favor of the common people of the country.

"Aggressive Democracy is in the saddle, and if it remains agressive it will carry the country. If the Democratic platform contains one plank in favor of the government ownership of railways, telegraphs and express companies and another in favor of the abolition of the protective tariff I have no doubt that it will win.

"If the protective tariff be abolished and the government takes possession of the means of transportation, of conveyance, of freight, express packages and information every dangerous trust in America will die a natural death in five years."

Admiral Schwartz Dead.

ST. PETERSBURG, April 14.—Admiral Schwartz, who assisted on board the frigate Niagara in laying the first Atlantic cable in 1857, is dead. Admiral Schwartz, who was the author of several books on technical subjects, visited America several times. He was first sent to the United States in 1856 by the Russian government to watch the construction of a steam frigate.

Called Upon Roosevelt to Intervene.

CONCORD, N. H., April 14.—The department of New Hampshire, Grand Army of the Republic, just before the close of its annual encampment adopted resolutions deploring the war between Russia and Japan. The resolutions called upon President Roosevelt to intervene in the interests of peace and indorsed the principle of international arbitration.

SPORTING NEWS.

DIAMOND DUST.

Amos Rusie, considered by some baseball critics to be the best pitcher that ever stood before a batsman, is working in an Indianapolis lumber yard, loading planks on drays for $1.50 a day. Since his retirement from baseball several years ago, Rusie has earned a living at digging ditches and driving trucks. He has lost all of the magnificent physique that made him a diamond hero years ago, and has given up all hope of bettering himself. Amos got $4,000 in 1894 for pitching less than 50 games for the New York Nationals. He was in his prime then, and his friends advised him to save his money. But the big pitcher, fond of good fellowship, refused to listen to reason, and proceeded to blow his money in, treating a horde of flatterers and supposed friends. What Rusie did not spend in this manner, he loaned to Tom, Dick and Harry, always leaving town at the end of a season in debt. Today, in actual want, Rusie would find few of his boon companions of days gone by who would raise a finger to help him. His pitiable condition should be a warning to other young players who come into baseball with empty pockets, find money easily and fail to appreciate its worth.

TENNIS.

Providing the weather is favorable there will be a formal opening of the tennis season at the Park Golf Club on Saturday. The courts have been put in good condition and the increased number of players in the club at present will revive the interest in the game.

No More "Car Ahead."

The Public Service Corporation has made an order that a run once begun must be completed, so that passengers will not have to take the car ahead. There has been considerable grumbling by the public over the necessity of changing cars, particularly when the lines have been blocked by deep snow.

SEASON'S SCHEDULE FOR P. H. S. BALL TEAM

HEAVY LIST OF GAMES FOR LOCAL SCHOOL BOYS.

Manager Lapsley, of the Plainfield High School baseball team, has now every date filled on his schedule. The team finally chosen to fill the two open dates is Newark H. S. The P. H. S. team visits Newark on May 17, while that team comes here to play a return game May 31. The final date of the Leal's-P. H. S. series has been set for June 3, while the only other change has been in playing Rutgers Preparatory School at New Brunswick in the morning instead of the afternoon. Printed schedules were yesterday distributed on Crescent Oval at the Leal's-P. H. S. game to all those holding season tickets. The revised schedule is as follows:

April 12, p. m., Leal's School at Plainfield; April 15, a. m., South Orange H. S. at Plainfield; April 19, p. m., Pingry School at Elizabeth; April 22, a. m., Newark Academy at Plainfield; April 24, p. m., "Camp Bowser" at Plainfield; April 29, a. m., Morris H. S. at Plainfield; May 3, p. m., Leal's School at Plainfield; May 6, p. m., Cranford H. S. at Cranford; May 10, p. m., Blair Hall at Plainfield; May 13, a. m., Rutgers Prep. School at New Brunswick; May 17, p. m., Newark H. S. at Newark; May 19, p. m., Rutgers Prep. School at Plainfield; May 23, p. m., Cranford H. S. at Plainfield; May 27, p. m., South Orange H. S. at South Orange; May 31, p. m., Newark H. S. at Plainfield; June 3, a. m., Leal's School at Plainfield; June 7, p. m., Montclair H. S. at Plainfield; June 10, a. m., Pingry School at Plainfield.

—Warmer weather means a large selection of fresh vegetables at Neuman Brothers'. For tomorrow they will have fancy asparagus, green and wax beans, green peas, squashes, spinach, beet greens, celery, tomatoes, cucumbers and beets.

OBSERVE ARBOR DAY IN LOCAL SCHOOLS

EXERCISES IN THE CITY AND IN THE BOROUGH TODAY.

In accordance with a proclamation of Governor Stokes that Friday, April 14, should be known as Arbor Day, all the public schools of the city and borough today held special exercises. At the city High School, a programme made up of recitations and songs was rendered. The speaker of the morning at the school was Miss Julia Scribner, who spoke on birds.

The programme was as follows: Bryant's Forest Hymn, Newell Kirkner; "The Tree" (Jones Very), Sadie Coyle; "The Old Apple Tree," written by Jessie Maclay, read by Eleanor VanTyle; "Our Friends the Birds," Ines Tellbe; "The White Jonquil," written by Louise Klein, read by Elizabeth Pound; "A Chipmunk," Vida B. Whitney; "The Little Bird," written by Jessie Maclay, read by Kate Huntington; "Talk on Birds," by Miss Julia Scribner; "Sweet and Low," song by school; "Farewell to the Forest," song by the school.

At the Bryant School too, a fine prorgamme was arranged, which the pupils enjoyed immensely. The following was the programme: Song by the school, "We Sow the Seeds and Scatter;" readings from Bible; song by school, "The Blessed Maple Tree;" recitation by pupils Sixth grade, "The Wood Notes of the Veerie;" song by school, "Farewell to Forest;" composition, "The Origin and Need of Arbor Day," Schuyler Line; song by school, "Thou Art Like and Unto a Flower;" recitation, "Keep on Growing," Edna Johnson; reading, "The Legend of the Willow," Walter Scribner; song, "First Violet;" recitation, "Keep Planting;" song by school, "A Winter Lullaby."

All the other schools in city and borough celebrated the day with proper exercises in the chapel and at the Lincoln School the programmes were arranged in the class room because of a lack of a chapel.

At the borough High School an exceedingly fine programme was given. The platform and chapel was prettily decorated with greens and palms and the pupils entered with enthusiasm into the songs, recitations and instrumental music, specially arranged for the occasion.

The borough high school pupils planted a tree this afternoon.

JOHN GOODWIN LOSES AGAIN ON APPEAL

CONVICTION IN BOROUGH RECORDER'S COURT IS AFFIRMED.

Justice Pitney, of the Supreme Court, has affirmed the decision of the lower court in the verdict of conviction in the case of the Mayor and Council of North Plainfield against John Goodwin, charged with violating the borough ordinance in preventing the removal of obstructions from the highway, when Street Commissioner Barry ordered that the street be cleared. The trouble in question occurred near the Grove street bridge and in front of the Christian church, while Charles Sebring was attempting to move a house from the city into the borough.

The decision of the Supreme Court puts the costs of the appeal on the defendant.

PROBATION OFFICERS NOW HAVE NO HOME

QUARTERS IN NEW COURT HOUSE NOT READY FOR THEM.

Thinking that their new quarters in the Union County Court House would be ready for occupancy April 1 or soon thereafter, Mrs. Emily M. Williamson and Major Charles W. Irwin, Union County's probation officers, moved from their office in the Hersh building, in Elizabeth, on that date and since then have been without a place where they can look after the three hundred probationers under their charge. It was thought that the furnishing of the new building would have been completed, and therefore in order to save expenses the headquarters of the probation officers were moved out of the Hersh building.

None of the offenders under the probation officer's care could report last week, owing to the lack of suitable accommodations. Major Irwin secured permission from Judge Vail to use the Supreme Court room, and all those under his charge will report there, as was customary at the Hersh headquarters. Should any of the offenders fail to report when required, he is generally arrested and dealt with by a higher tribunal than the probationary court.

Other county officers who had expected to be in their new suites in the Court House have as yet been unable to locate there, the furnishing being incomplete. The only official established there is the Sheriff.

SOCIETY NOTES.

Miss Madeline Reed, of Myrtle avenue, has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. Madeline Mack, of Somerville.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis deLacey Hyde, of Mountain avenue, entertained the Bridge Whist Club, of which they are members, last night. There were twenty-four guests, and after the play refreshments were served.

Mrs. George T. Rogers, of Myrtle avenue, gave a dinner yesterday for the women members of the bridal party who will attend Miss Isabel Milne at her marriage to Allen B. Laing on Thursday night, April 27.

Announcement is made of the engagement of Miss Elizabeth C. C. Fisk, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Pliny Fisk, of Rutherford avenue, Prospect Hill and William S. Rogers, of the John A. Roebling's Sons Company, Trenton. The wedding, the date for which has not yet been set, will be an event of interest to society circles in New York, Trenton, Philadelphia and other cities. Miss Fisk is a niece of the late Harvey Fisk, a New York banker, whose widow died a week ago. She is one of the prettiest girls in Trenton, with winsome manners and a striking personality. Mr. Rogers is also well known in social circles. He came here several years ago from the West.

St. Bernard Strayed.

A thoroughbred St. Bernard dog belonging to Matthew C. Stewart, of Belvidere avenue, followed the young son of Timothy Murphy, of South Second street, home two weeks ago. Mr. Stewart reported the loss of the animal to the police, and when Mr. Murphy told the officers yesterday that he had a big stray dog at his house, Mr. Stewart's missing pet was returned to its proper home.

A "Grandmother's" Supper.

Under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society, a "Grandmother's" supper was given in Monroe Avenue church last evening from 6 until 8 o'clock. It was largely attended, over 100 persons being served. During the evening old-fashioned songs were sung and candy of "grandmother's time" was sold from a table presided over by the Misses Brower.

Little Boy Killed.

Eight-year-old Edward Daley, of Elizabeth, was instantly killed by a Pennsylvania express near Caldwell place, in that city, while returning home from school Tuesday. He was so terribly mangled that had it not been for his three companions it might have been impossible to have learned his identity.

Funeral of Russel Brown.

The funeral of Russel Brown, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. James Brown, of Stone street, was held from the parents' home yesterday afternoon, with Rev. J. O. McKelvey in charge. Interment was made in the Methodist cemetery.

Euchre Play.

Miss Frances Cory, of the Stillman building, entertained the Fortnightly Whist Club at her home last night, it being the last meeting for the season. Miss Elizabeth White won the prize for the women and Percy S. Dayton the one for the men.

Organizing Church Club.

The men of the All Souls' Unitarian church met at Truell Inn last night, to further plans for the organization of a church club.

Seventeenth Annual Meeting at their rooms, 109 Park avenue.

Dues and interest received from 7 to 9 p. m.

The 97 Series will be open for subscription.

At 7:15 the polls will be open for the election of officers and directors.

At 8:15 the annual meeting will be held. The following amendments to the Constitution will be presented for action.

Add Art. 23, Contingent Fund:

Section 1. A contingent fund shall be established for the protection of the Association in case of unusual losses occurring, as in the disposal of property acquired by foreclosure. This fund shall consist: First, of the sum of one-half of one per cent deducted from the value of withdrawing shares. Second, of the difference between the book value and the withdrawal value of shares withdrawn previous to the 36th payment. Third, of the sum of one-twentieth of one per cent of the amount invested on Bond and Mortgage to be added to said fund previous to each semi-annual distribution of profits.

Section 2. The Board of Managemen' shall have power to suspend from time to time the action of any part of this article when in their judgment the contingent fund has acquired sufficient volume.

Also amend Article XV. Add:

Section 2. After the value of a share is computed in accordance with Section 1 of this article, if a profit has accrued, there shall be deducted from such value, one-half of one per cent., which amount shall be credited to the Contingent Fund. The balance shall be paid as the true withdrawal value of the shares.

Members are specially requested to attend the meeting.

S. R. STRUTHERS,
Secretary.

ESTABLISHED MAY 10, 1887 — PLAINFIELD, N. J., SATURDAY, APRIL 15, 1905. — TWO CENTS A COPY—$5 A YEAR.

TAX BUDGET PRESENTED

Exclusive of State, County and School $69,500 is Wanted.

SOME INCREASES

Fire Department Gets $29,200—Police, $20,000—Library, $4,700—Lights, $13,800.

The tax ordinance setting forth the amount of money needed to run the city for the coming year, was introduced by Mr. Tolles at the meeting of the Common Council, adopted on first and second readings and ordered advertised. The amount needed for the general fund, which is exclusive of school, library, county, State and police, is $49,500. Besides this sum there is $20,000 for the police department. For streets, including street sprinkling and storm sewer work, the sum of $29,200 is asked, an increase of $4,200 over last year. The amount determined upon for lights is $13,800,

COUNCILMAN R. I. TOLLES,
Chairman of the Common Council's Finance Committee, which made up annual budget.

an increase of $300 over last year. The principal on sewer bonds, $4,000 is the same, as is also the amount for the interest on the sewer obligation, $6,400. For the poor department $6,500 is asked, an increase of $600. Included in this is $1,000 for the care of the indigent poor at the hospital, the contract for which has already been made.

The Public Library and Reading Room receives $4,700, an increase of $100 over last year, and the fire department $25,000, an increase of $1,200. The rest of the budget includes $3,700 for the interest on the issue of school bonds, $700 for the principal on the bonds for the purchase of the garbage plant and the dog tax for the year is made $2. The Board of Assessors will be asked to assess according to these amounts. It is the opinion of Mr. Tolles that the tax rate for the coming year will not be increased materially, if at all.

PUBLIC INSPECTION OF COURT HOUSE

OPEN FOR THAT PURPOSE THREE DAYS AND EVENINGS.

At a date to be announced later, the new Union County Court House at Elizabeth, is to be thrown open for inspection three days and three evenings, to afford citizens from all parts of the county an opportunity to inspect it.

It has been decided that no formal invitations will be issued.

There will be no formal dedicatory ceremonies of any kind, and the building, which is now being furnished, will be occupied by various county officers as soon as their respective quarters are in readiness, which it is expected will be within the next two weeks.

Order Sale Under Martin Act.

Collector Robert L. Lee presented a list of delinquents who have failed to pay their taxes during the past two years, and the matter was referred to the finance committee at the Common Council meeting last night. Later a resolution was adopted authorizing the city to sell the property in question under the provisions of the Martin act.

His Hand in Danger.

A. B. Tappen, of South Plainfield, who is well known in this city, is in danger of losing part of his hand through blood-poisoning. The member became affected several weeks ago and despite every precaution has continued to grow worse. It is thought the trouble had its origin in a scratch from a rusty nail.

KEELY IS GIVEN SPRINKLING CONTRACT

COMMON COUNCIL ENDS TROUBLE OVER MUNICIPAL WORK.

John E. Keely was awarded the contract for street sprinkling at the adjourned meeting of the Common Council, last night, after the contract was approved by the corporation counsel, signed by Mr. Keely and his bond for $1,000 was approved by Mr. Marsh. Mr. Keely's bondsmen are Armstrong Mulford and Charles H. Hand.

According to the terms of the contract Mr. Keely is engaged to sprinkle the streets from May 15 to October 15, for $667 a month, that sum to be paid monthly. The city reserves the right to employ the full equipment, sixteen horses, and agrees to pay $3.50 for a team of two horses when the sprinkling is done by the day, as the street committee may decide.

It is said that there was a misunderstanding between the street committee and Mr. Keely, it being the opinion of the committee that according to the first contract Mr. Keely could charge the city the full amount from the time he began to sprinkle. This brought the corporation counsel into the matter and he drafted another contract which gives the committee discretionary power in the matter of sprinkling.

The contract, bonds and sureties were all presented, approved and the perplexing question is now settled.

"MR. BOB" PRESENTED BY BOROUGH SCHOOL PUPILS

MEMBERS OF THE JUNIOR CLASS GIVE CREDITABLE PERFORMANCE.

Before an audience of admiring friends, pupils of the Junior class of the North Plainfield High School presented the comedy, "Mr. Bob," in the High School building, last night. It has a laughable basis and in the hands of the competent cast, every situation was brought out to its full value. The presentation was in every way a commendable one and the work of the young artists was frequently applauded.

The comedy is in two acts and the characters were taken by the following pupils: Miss Florence White, Miss Mary Clark, Miss Mary Robley, Miss Marion Overton, Jack Peacock, Frank Webster and Lawrence Milne. They were selected by Miss Helen F. Stahlberger, one of the faculty, who had charge of the coaching and who is entitled to credit for the dramatic ability displayed. Each of the young men and women exhibited an easy stage presence and their actions were devoid of the stiffness that generally characterizes an amateur playlet.

The proceeds for the affair will be used to defray the expenses of the reception given the Senior class by the Juniors, following Commencement time. William Burtis, Jack Peacock and Frank Webster comprised the committee which had direct charge.

Military Tournament.

The ninth annual tournament of the Military Athletic League will be given at Madison Square Garden, New York, the week beginning Monday, May 8. The military programme will include all the attractive features that each year has increased the popularity of the Military Show and made it a feature of public interest. The athletic committee, of which Captain John J. Dixon is chairman, has, under instructions from the board of governors of the league, established the following standards for the athletic events: 100-yard run, 11¼ seconds; 220-yard run, 26 seconds; 440-yard run, 59 seconds; 880-yard run, 2 minutes, 15 seconds; 1 mile run, 5 minutes; and 1-mile bicycle, 2 minutes, 35 seconds.

Stationary Engineers Meet.

At the meeting of Safety Association, No. 12, National Association of Stationary Engineers, of this city, held last night, the association entertained Past President McMoran, chief engineer of the Newark Evening News. There was a large attendance of stationary engineers, both from this city and other associations. The question of education among engineer was ably discussed by Mr. McMoran and representatives from the Scranton School. After the regular routine, the members enjoyed a smoker.

SCHANZ LOSES LICENSE

By a Vote of 6 to 5 An Excise Muddle is Ended.

MR. TYLER'S MOTION

His Plan to Refuse Application Supported on Vote by Bullock, Daniel, Hibbard, Murphy and Wilson.

Charles Schanz, who has had considerable trouble in securing a renewal of his saloon license for the building on Park avenue, owned by Mr. Silbert, was refused a license at the meeting of the Common Council, last night, and his fee, $1,000, was returned to him. Mr. Tyler, chairman of the police committee, introduced the matter by moving that Mr. Schanz's license be refused. He made no explanation in offering the motion. Mr. Gleak immediately offered a motion that the license be granted.

The vote stood six to five for refusal, Councilmen Bullock, Hibbard, Murphy, Tyler, Wilson and Daniel voting in the affirmative, and Councilmen Gleak, Higham, Charles C. Randolph, Frank DeW. Randolph and Tolles voting against Mr. Tyler's motion.

Then the question of returning the $1,000 license fee to Mr. Schanz arose, and Mr. Tyler moved that the sum be refunded. Councilmen Gleak, Charles C. Randolph and Frank DeW. Randolph voted no, while Councilmen Bullock, Hibbard, Murphy, Higham, Tyler, Wilson, Tolles and Daniel supported the motion.

This action settles a matter that has been under consideration since March. It was Mr. Schanz's proposition to erect an iron gate at the entrance to the driveway adjoining the building he proposed to occupy at No. 216, if granted a transfer from No. 136, which is to be torn down, but he met opposition on the part of the property-owners nearby who objected to having the driveway closed. The matter got into the courts and at the solicitation of Mr. Schanz the Common Council petitioned to have a writ of certiorari set aside which had been obtained by Mrs. Mary G. Hetfield, owner of adjoining property.

Corporation Counsel Marsh reported on the settlement of this matter, stating that while the defendant in the action paid the costs, the city was re-imbursed by Mr. Schanz's counsel. Mr. Marsh's report was filed.

OBJECT TO LUMBER YARD ORDINANCE

OWNERS OF CLOSED YARD PETITION COMMON COUNCIL.

In a lengthy communication, George S. Clay, Esq., of East Seventh street, representing the Guion estate, asked the Common Council, last night, not to adopt the ordinance which proposes to prohibit the establishment of lumber yards within a certain radius. The objection to this is that it would affect the yard formerly occupied by DeWitt C. Ivins and owned by the estate. Mr. Clay stated that this is one of the oldest yards in the city, and he cited other buildings in the city of a more dangerous character and where the insurance rate is higher than that on lumber yards. He added that insurance companies do not consider lumber yards a hazardous risk as compared to many other kinds of buildings and if the ordinance is adopted it would be a great damage to the property in question. The matter was referred to the fire and building committee and will be reported on later.

Arlington Avenue Trolley Service.

Mr. Higham, of the public affairs committee, at the Common Council meeting last night, stated that he had had correspondence with Col. Hine, of the Public Service Corporation, as to placing another trolley car on the Arlington Avenue line, and that he had been informed that commencing May 1 the request will be granted, giving that line a fifteen minute service.

MEET WAS A FIZZLE

Only One Outside Association Team at Y. M. C. A. Last Night.

SEVEN WOULDN'T COME

Contest Boiled Down to Dual One Between Plainfield and Newark —Locals Swamped.

Of the nine organizations represented in the organization, only two took part in the inter-association gymnastic meet at the Y. M. C. A. last night. When the meet was decided upon at a meeting of the Physical Directors' Association of Northern New Jersey it was expected that Newark, Jersey City, Montclair, Orange, Morristown, New Brunswick, Passaic and Summit would join with Plainfield in a contest for the State championship. Newark's team was the only one that turned up at the gymnasium, besides Plainfield.

In the dual meet into which the affair degenerated through the circumstances in force, Newark took practically everything. Plainfield had a little look-in through Walter McNaughton, who was third in two of the three events. The latter carded were work on parallel bars, horizontal bar and side.

Four men teams competed. In the horizontal bar work, E. Kettner, of Newark, was first; G. H. Ketcham, of Newark, was second, and Walter McNaughton, Plainfield, third. On the sidehorse, Ketcham was first; F. Prosch, Newark, second; D. C. Long, Newark, third. On the parallel bars, Ketcham was first; Prosch, second; McNaughton, third.

Considerable disappointment, to describe his feelings mildly, is felt by Physical Director Henckel, over the fizzling of the meet. His feelings are shared by the members of the team. The officials who accompanied the Newark team were just as disappointed.

"What those fellows need," said one of them to a reporter, after the meet, "is a roast and then a boost."

No word of explanation or regret was received from the non-appearing associations. They simply abstained from entering their teams. The entries closed Tuesday, and when Mr. Henckel saw that Newark was the only association entered, he understood then that the meet was not to be more than a dual affair.

The Physical Directors' Association held a similar meet in Montclair last year. All the associations took part.

Plainfield's Baseball Team.

The local baseball season will open this afternoon on Crescent Oval at 3:30 o'clock, with a contest between Plainfield and Jersey City. The fans are very enthusiastic over the event and undoubtedly there will be a big crowd at the oval. The teams are in fine condition and the score should be a close one. Every arrangement has been made for a large crowd. The oval can be reached conveniently by the Arlington avenue trolley line and the Public Service Corporation has promised to give good service.

In the picture of the local team published today will be seen many familiar faces who are sure to be favorites here this season. It will be the first time that Linderman and Lemar will officiate as a battery for a Plainfield team and their work, as well as that of the rest of the team will be watched with unusual interest. The infield, composed of Driscoll, Kiernan, Oldring and Leonard, is looked upon as a perfect stone wall, while the outfielders, Cregan, Cosgrove and Connolly, are considered very fast. If Jersey City wins today the team will have to play their best ball from start to finish, as the locals are determined to chalk up their first victory.

There will be luncheon served at the noon adjournment of the quarterly meeting and the business of the session will be completed in the afternoon. The work of temperance throughout New Jersey within the past three months will be gone over.

DETECTIVE SERVES LAST OF "BOXING" SUBPOENAS

SOMERVILLE SAYS DISTINCTION WAS MADE IN GIVING THEM OUT.

After playing a game of "hide-and-seek" for two days with several of the desired witnesses, County Detective George Totten today finished serving subpoenas in the borough "boxing" case. The number of summonses will reach nearly sixty and it took three days to complete the job. Some of these wanted learned of the fact late Wednesday and managed to keep out of Totten's way until this morning when they were finally rounded up.

Somerville has sent up the cry that distinction has been made in serving the subpoenas and that half a dozen or more Plainfielders who occupied conspicuous places in Saengerbund Hall the night the affair took place, will not have to testify before the Grand Jury. There is said to be dissatisfaction on this account but it is probably without reason as few of importance were missed.

The probing is to be conducted by Prosecutor Reger who will have two other important matters for his consideration during the term—the murder cases of George Wood and Jacob Flomerfelt. Wood has not yet been indicted for the murder of George Williams and this affair will be given attention directly after the "boxing" match is disposed of.

HURDY-GURDY FANDANGO RECALLED HIS CIRCUS DAYS

EQUINE TAN-BARK VETERAN ENTHUSED BY ITS MUSIC.

His circus days recalled by the jingling of a hurdy-gurdy close beside him, a handsome horse owned by Cormack Caulfield, the well known mason, gave a wonderful exhibition of equine intelligence on North avenue, Thursday afternoon.

The animal originally came to Plainfield with a circus and was one of several used in a ring act, during which they gave a lively step to band music, described on the programmes as a "cake-walk." This particular horse met with an accident that forced its retirement from the glare and glitter of the gasolene torches in the "big top" and was sold by the proprietor to Caulfield. Since then it has been leading a prosaic life between the shafts of the mason's wagon but the old days have always lingered in its memory and the sound of music causes it to arch its neck and step nimbly about.

It was standing on North avenue yesterday afternoon when a street piano started in action directly in front of him, grinding out a Spanish air used by nearly every circus band in the country. The first notes had barely roiled out when the ex-circus horse took his cue and began his cake-walk, forgetting for the time being that it was acting very much out of the ordinary so far as the ethics of mason-wagon horses go. The unusual sight attracted a large crowd and the shouts and applause caused the animal to redouble its efforts and the dance was really remarkable. It kept its feet in action until the piano stopped and the spectators could plainly see a look of regret in its eyes when it realized that it was only on the street and not in the tanbark ring.

SEEK BURGLARS.

Insurance Company Sleuths Here in Hunt for Bernardsville Crackmen.

Three of the detectives in the employ of the Fidelity and Casualty Company, of New York, were in this city Thursday and yesterday seeking clues to the whereabouts of the gang of "yeggmen" who cracked the safe of the Bernardsville bank Wednesday night. There is no particular reason to believe that the criminals are or were in the city, but the Fidelity Company, which insured the Bernardsville bank against burglary and will have to make good the loss sustained, are scouring the country in all directions for the crackmen.

The detectives aren't very certain that they will land their men, or are even on their track. The police say they got no clues here.

NEW APARTMENT HOUSE

Handsome Big Structure is Planned for the East End.

BY IRA L. LA RUE

To be on Cottage Place—Purchase of 161 Feet of Land for Site.

The East End is to have a modern apartment house, the first of its kind. Ira L. LaRue, the real estate broker, is having plans for the structure drawn.

The house is to be built on Cottage place, just west of Washington street. He has purchased 161 feet of land there for the purpose.

The house is to be one of the handsomest of its kind in the city. It will be built of cement building blocks, like the kind used in the new building of VanZandt & Voorhees, on Park avenue.

It will contain eight apartments, of eight rooms each. The building blocks look like brownstone, and the structure, in its general effect, will be striking.

The appearance of the house will be especially attractive in the neighborhood selected. Cottage place has never been known for its aesthetic ensemble, and property owners will receive the news of Mr. LaRue's plans with a lot of pleasure.

It is expected that the house will be ready for occupancy early in the fall, if not sooner.

TOM HANNA NAMED BY THE COUNTY COMMITTEE

ACTION ON CENSUS SUPERVISORS NOMINATIONS—FIVE ENUMERATORS HERE.

The four supervisors of the State census in this county were named by the Republican County Committee at its meeting in Elizabeth last night. Thomas Hanna, of this city, was awarded the Plainfield plum. The supervisors will be appointed on the committee's recommendation, by the Secretary of State.

The supervisors will have the naming of the enumerators, through the Secretary of State. Mr. Hanna will name the men recommended by the city committee. As there will be an enumerator for every 4,000 people, estimated, Plainfield will be entitled to about five census takers.

Little else besides routine business, apart from the nomination of the supervisors, was done by the committee. The outing committee reported the signing of the contracts covering the steamer and the grove.

Minor Business of Council.

In accordance with the custom of the Common Council resolutions offered by Mr. Tolles at the meeting last night, fixing the appropriation for light for the coming year at $13,800, and approving the Board of Health's request for an appropriation of $4,500 for the coming year, were adopted. Mr. Tolles also offered a resolution appropriating $100 to Winfield Scott Post, No. 73, G. A. R., for the observance of Memorial Day. This was adopted.

Corporation Notice.

Notice is hereby given that an ordinance, entitled "An Ordinance to lay out and widen Park avenue from the southeasterly side line of West Second street to the northwesterly side of the right-of-way of the Central Railroad Company of New Jersey," a copy of which is subjoined to this ordinance, has been introduced before the Common Council, read the second time and ordered engrossed preparatory to its third reading, and that it is the intention of the Common Council to adopt such ordinance at the regular meeting of the Common Council to be held in the Council Chamber, No. 149 North avenue, in the City of Plainfield, N. J., at 8 o'clock p. m., on Monday, the first day of May, A. D., nineteen hundred and five, at which time and place, prior to the adoption of said ordinance, said ordinance will be considered by the Common Council, and all persons interested may be heard before the Common Council with reference to the proposed ordinance.

By order of the Common Council.

JAMES T. MacMURRAY, City Clerk.

Dated: Plainfield, N. J., April 3, 1905.

AN ORDINANCE

to Lay Out and Widen Park Avenue From the Southeasterly Side Line of West Second Street to the Northwesterly Line of the Right-of-way of the Central Railroad Company of New Jersey.

Whereas, The Common Council have judged and hereby do judge that the public good requires that Park avenue should be widened on the southwesterly side thereof between the points named in the title to this ordinance, therefore

The Inhabitants of the City of Plainfield, by their Common Council, do enact as follows:

Section 1. That Park avenue in the City of Plainfield from the southeasterly side line of West Second street to the northwesterly line of the right-of-way of the Central Railroad Company of New Jersey, be laid out and widened on the southwesterly side of the center line of said avenue so that southwesterly of said center line it shall be of the uniform width of thirty-six and sixty-two one hundredths feet from said center line, which said center line begins at an iron monument in the intersection of the center lines of Park avenue and West Second street, as the same are now laid out and opened, and runs from said point in a southeasterly direction in a straight line to an iron manhole head, marked, in the intersection of the center lines of Park avenue and West Fourth street.

The lands, real estate and appurtenances to be taken for the widening of said Park avenue include all that part of the several properties now or formerly of the Plainfield Trust Company, Charles W. McCutchen, Rachel R. Boice, Anna E. Boice and Sarah R. Runyon which lies between the southwesterly side line of said avenue as now laid out and opened and a parallel line with the center line of said avenue and distant therefrom thirty-six and sixty-two one hundredths feet in a southwesterly direction.

Section 2. That the building line on said portion of said street shall be forty-one and sixty-two one hundredths feet from said center line.

Section 3. That the curb line shall be twenty-four and sixty-two one hundredths feet from said center line, making the sidewalk twelve feet wide and leaving for areas a width of five feet.

Said center, curb, side and building lines are delineated on a certain map made by H. C. VanEmburgh, C. E., entitled "Map showing proposed laying out and widening of Park avenue, from the southeasterly side line of West Second street to the northwesterly line of the right-of-way of the Central Railroad Company of New Jersey, Feb. 1905," to which map reference is hereby made for greater certainty.

The lands, real estate and appurtenances to be taken and the lines of the proposed street as the same is hereinabove ordered to be laid out and widened are shown on said map on file with the City Clerk, hereinabove referred to and made a part hereof.

A Young Cook
The Gas Range has revolutionized cooking. The girl who takes her first lessons in the culinary art to-day experiences few of the failures that characterized her mother's first attempts. She can regulate the heat of her Gas Range without trouble. She is free from the old discomforts of coal-hod and ashes. She can prepare a three course dinner in one-third the time formerly consumed. We sell Ranges from $9.50 to $15.00. $2.00 down and $2.00 a month; Connections Free.

SNAP SHOTS.

The "time-controlled damper adjuster" is a machine for which an application for letters patent is pending, by Walter F. Cawtherne, paying teller of Union County Trust Company, and Henry M. Lummis, both of Elizabeth, the inventors. Mr. Lummis is a patent attorney and has charge of the matter personally. The application consists, in the main, of an alarm clock and a combination of levers and a weight which operate as follows: Upon retiring at night, the householder who is fortunate or unfortunate enough to be without servants, banks his heater as usual, then simply winds the clock and latches the weight by a simple motion of the hand, the clock being adjusted at an hour somewhat earlier than that at which the family desire to arise. When the former hour arrives, the machine operates automatically to reverse the several positions of the dampers and drafts and cause the fire to spring up and heat the house to a comfortable temperature by the time the family is awake. A feature of the machine is that it in no wise interferes with the now existing automatic safety shut off appliances of the different heaters now in use, and consequently there is absolutely no danger of overheating. Another feature is its universal applicability. It may be attached in ten minutes to any form of stove or heater in use and will work with equal efficiency anywhere.

AMUSEMENTS.

Ordinarily it is a hard matter for the average theatre to secure a proper attraction for Holy Week. In the olden days actors accepted half salary, and the magnates walked gloomily around shaking their heads and deploring the existence of such a week. These conditions however have materially changed, and a good play acted by a good company, can pile up results during Holy Week, as at any other time. The engagement of Charles Hawtrey in "A Message From Mars," means only "another two-dollar show for a dollar" at the Grand Opera House, and from advance inquiries, it would seem that the Holy Week attraction will draw the usual crowded houses.

JOURNALISTIC OPINION.

Tribute to Mr. Krebs.

It is with regret that the people of Somerville learn that they are to lose the services of Prof. Krebs as Principal of their public schools. This applies alike to those who have children of school age and those who have not. During his residence here he has not only proved himself an educator of the first rank, but has made himself popular with the masses on account of his genial personal qualities. North Plainfield is to be congratulated on securing so successful an instructor and so desirable a citizen.—Somerville Unionist-Gazette.

ELIZABETH P. O. DELAY.

No Work on New Building Until 1907.

Because of the failure of the last omnibus public building bill, the citizens of Elizabeth must wait a long time before they see any work done on their public building, or before the drawings for the building can even be commenced by the supervising architect.

This state of affairs has been brought about because of the fact that while Senator Kean secured an appropriation for the building, with a limit of $300,000 more than a year ago, it was soon found that the amount was not sufficient to buy a suitable site and build the building.

The National Capital.

Every American is proud of the nation's Capitol and in Washington wonderful and beautiful as it is the tourist finds a city than which no other is more interesting or grand. The great public buildings massive in their structure and imposing in appearance are gold mines of interest and curiosity. The city which is now blossoming in its bright spring garb is most perfect in its arrangement and its finely kept streets, its innumerable parks and pleasure places offer no end of amusement and instruction to the tourist and traveler. Much time can be profitably spent visiting the Treasury Building, the Congressional Library, Washington Monument, the Pension Building, Cochran Art Gallery, Smithsonian Institute, Public Printing Office and the like, while the side trips to Mt. Vernon, Georgetown and the National Cemetery are productive and valuable and interesting sights. Every American should visit the Capitol City and an opportunity to enjoy such a trip is offered by the New Jersey Central's popular spring excursion to Washington on April 18, 1905, when the rate including hotel and other expenses is $12. The trip is made on the famous Royal Limited trains and the intervening country traversed is unsurpassed from a scenic standpoint. The tickets include stop-over privileges at Baltimore and Philadelphia, both of which places have many historic interests. The New Jersey Central has issued an itinerary of the trip, which is sent free to any applicant by C. M. Burt, G. P. A., New York city.

FAREWELL TO TEXAS

President En Route to Colorado Springs.

CHILDREN PRESENT A "BIG STICK."

Speeches at Texline and Clayton. Mayor of Trinidad Introduced Roosevelt as the "Greatest Man In the World."

TRINIDAD, Colo., April 15.—Seven thousand persons, including 2,000 school children waving small flags, greeted President Roosevelt as he passed through here en route to the Colorado hunting camp. The station platform had been roped off, and fifty special officers kept the crowd in order. A number of rough riders and other veterans acted as a guard of honor to the president.

President Roosevelt was introduced by Mayor H. B. Brown as "the greatest man in the world." The president talked five minutes, warmly greeting the old soldiers. Turning to the children, the president told them how glad he was to see them, "for you know I am as great on children as I am on irrigation, and you know what my views are on irrigation." The remainder of his talk was on irrigation.

The pulling out of his train interrupted the president's speech. As the train moved away the crowd broke through the ropes, climbing on his car, and he shook hands with many. The train left Trinidad at 1:45 o'clock after a stay of only seven minutes. The president's train was preceded by a pilot train, track walkers were placed at all curves, and other precautions were taken by the Colorado and Southern Railroad company to insure the president's safety.

At Texline President Roosevelt said goodby to Texas yesterday, speaking as follows:

"I want to say goodby to all the good people of Texas; also I want to say that I appreciate to the limit the kindness with which I have been treated in Texas. It has been to me the greatest pleasure to go through this great state. Two years ago I went to the Pacific slope. I have been north, south, east and west in this great country of ours, and while there are slight differences between the people in one place and those in another the fundamental thing that strikes me wherever I go is that down at the bottom the average American is a pretty decent fellow."

At Clayton, N. M., the president spoke as follows:

"It is a great pleasure to me to be back in New Mexico and to pass through Clayton. Right from this neighborhood some fifteen of your citizens came into my regiment. Several of them were wounded. I have the feeling for them that one naturally has for the men with whom he has been thrown in one of the intimate relations of life. I am particularly pleased to see you all here. I am glad to see a first class exhibit of New Mexico's children. You do not know what a pleasure it is to me to get out into this western country that I have known so well, where I have ranched in other days and from which I drew the men with whom I went to Santiago when the war with Spain broke out. I follow your career with the greatest possible interest. When I get out here, where I see the big plains, it makes me feel as if I was at home again."

Pueblo citizens to the number of 5,000 greeted President Roosevelt on his arrival at the Union station there. When the special was first sighted a mighty cheer went up, and it continued until President Roosevelt appeared on the rear platform and addressed the crowd. His speech was interrupted by the presentation of a "big stick," the gift of school children. Later the special pulled out over the Colorado and Southern railroad for Colorado Springs.

Deep Snow Awaits Roosevelt.

NEWCASTLE, Colo., April 15.—With the snow two feet deep in every direction from the camp and from three to five feet deep in the hills and with the snowstorm still continuing, it is possible that President Roosevelt will be compelled to delay his hunt here or content himself with smaller game than the grizzlies he has planned to kill. For a week now the snow has fallen day after day. Not twenty-four hours have passed without a storm. All that prevents the roads and trails from being absolutely impassable is the warm weather that has intervened and to a great extent melted the snow.

Only Eighty Desertions From Fleet.

WASHINGTON, April 15.—In view of recent publications to the effect that there have been heavy desertions from the North Atlantic fleet, now in Florida waters, an official statement has been issued by the chief of staff to the effect that on the 8th inst. the total number of absentees from the ships was eighty, which is only a trifle more than 1 per cent of the personnel of the fleet.

Set Harry Allen Free.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., April 15.—Harry Allen, who was arrested in Bloomsburg on Thursday on suspicion of being implicated in the murder of Mrs. George W. Payne at her home in Tioga county, Pa., has been released and has returned to his home. A letter from Mr. Payne to the detectives stated that Allen was in no way connected with the crime.

Albanians Threaten Massacre.

SALONIKA, April 15.—The Albanians are threatening a general massacre of Christians at Prizrend, Ipek and Diakora. The Albanians are furious because of the thwarting of an attempt to lynch a prisoner suspected of murdering an Albanian.

PORTER SUCCESSFUL

Body of Admiral Paul Jones Found at Paris.

AMBASSADOR'S SEARCH REWARDED

Remains Are Unquestionably Those of Famous Sailor—Are In Good State of Preservation—Will Be Brought to Washington.

PARIS, April 15. — The remarkable search which Ambassador Porter has conducted for the body of Paul Jones has been crowned with complete success by the discovery of the body and its identification by the highest French medical experts as unquestionably that of the famous American admiral.

Ambassador Porter has cabled to Washington, announcing the successful results of his long and difficult search. The body is in a good state of preservation.

As was anticipated, no uniform, decoration or sword were found, as all such articles had been accounted for after the burial.

The coffin is shaped like a mummy coffin, which coffins were common at that period, widening from the feet to the shoulders with a round top fitting over the head.

The coffin was taken to the Medical school, where Drs. Capitan and Papillaut, distinguished professors of the School of Anthropology and recognized authorities on such investigations, were charged with making a thorough examination for the purpose of identification. To facilitate this the ambassador furnished them with portraits and medallions, two busts by Houdin and authentic descriptions of the color of the admiral's hair and the height and measurement of his body. After the most minute examination the following facts were fully substantiated:

Length of body, five feet seven inches, the admiral's exact height. The size and shape of the head agree with several peculiarities identical with the head of the admiral. Hair, dark brown, the same as the admiral's; in places slightly gray, indicating a person of his age, forty-five years. The hair is long, reaching below the shoulders, and is combed back and gathered in a clasp at the back of the neck. The face is clean shaved, all corresponding exactly with the descriptions, portraits and busts of the admiral. The linen is in good condition. One article bears an initial, either "J" or an inverted "P."

The body was carefully packed. The limbs were wrapped in tinfoil, presumably for sea transportation, as indicated in a letter of the admiral's nearest friend and a pallbearer at his funeral, Colonel Blackden, who said:

"His body was put in a leaden coffin, so that in case the United States, which he had so faithfully served, should claim his remains they might be more easily removed."

Finding that all the internal organs were singularly well preserved, the doctors made an autopsy, which showed distinct proofs of the disease from which the admiral is known to have died. The identification was pronounced complete in every particular.

Care has been taken to keep the body in its present state of preservation. It will be placed in a handsome casket and deposited in the receiving vault of the American church on the Avenue de l'Alma until the ambassador can learn the opinion of the government concerning the most appropriate means of transporting it to the United States and giving a fitting sepulcher to the body of the illustrious sailor whose place of burial has so long remained a mystery.

The remains of John Paul Jones are to be taken to Washington and interred in the National cemetery at Arlington, and the transfer will be made the occasion of an interesting demonstration.

Mr. Moody, former secretary of the navy, made an official announcement that if the body was found the government would send a battleship to France to convey it to this country. In case it is decided to send an American squadron to European waters this summer the body may be brought home on the flagship of the squadron.

What Will the Boys Do?

NEW YORK, April 15.—J. A. Bailey, manager of the Barnum & Bailey circus, announced last night "that the street parades will be omitted this year." The fact that the show is now too big to give street processions, the knowledge that the limit of cars railroads are willing to handle has been reached and the time required to place in position the apparatus used in various features have been factors in forcing this conclusion.

Earthquake In Oudh.

LONDON, April 15.—A dispatch from Lucknow says that a second earthquake has wrecked Sultanpur, province of Oudh, and Kulu, province of Punjab, and that there has been great loss of life.

Accidental Gas Poisoning.

BOSTON, April 15.—Charles L. Huckel, chief clerk in the Boston pension office, has been found dead at his home, Dorchester district, here. Death was due to accidental gas poisoning.

Steamer Destroyed at Norfolk.

NORFOLK, Va., April 15.—The steamer Haven Belle of the Norfolk and Southern railroad is reported here to have been destroyed by fire at her wharf at Edenton, N. C.

Explosion on Battleship Iowa.

PENSACOLA, Fla., April 15.—It is reported here that two guns exploded on the battleship Iowa last night. Rumors of loss of life and damage cannot be verified.

Plainfield, N. J., April 15, 1905.

Pennsylvania's Legislature has voted $30,000 for a statue of Senator Quay. This is monumental brass.

Today's store advertisements may tell of bargains which may not be duplicated in a whole year—if at all. Somebody will profit by a quick reading of the ads. It might just as well be you.

William F. Arnold's gradual recovery from a critical illness is viewed with much joy by his fellow-townsmen. He is a valuable citizen and thanks are due to a kind Providence for sparing his life.

That the circus, as we and our parents and grandparents have known it, is gradually passing away is to be seen in the decision of Barnum & Bailey to abandon all street parades. Today the "three-ring show" is transformed into a vaudeville performance on a gigantic scale and it will not be long before pink-lemonade, peanuts and all else that has gone to make it so fascinating to young and old alike will be cut out.

TO GO TO LABRADOR.

Women to Help Dr. Grenfell and Carnegie Helping, Too.

When Dr. Wilfred T. Grenfell, the English physician, who is known as the "missionary of the deep-sea fishermen," and who lectured here recently, goes back to Labrador next month he will take with him on the yacht Strathcona two young women who have done Settlement work for several years, about $60,000 contributed by the larger cities, and an encouraging contribution from Andrew Carnegie for the establishment of loan libraries along the coast of Labrador.

Inspecting Roads.

Elijah C. Hutchinson, State road commissioner, and Robert A. Meeker, of this city, State supervisor of roads, have begun an inspection of the macadam roads in Mercer County. The roads were built under the State aid law and are viewed for the purpose of ascertaining what repairs are needed. Under the new road law the State may withhold aid from those counties which fail to properly repair the roads already built. Commissioner Hutchinson will inspect the roads in every county in the State. Yesterday in company with Supervisor Meeker, he went through Morris County. Essex, Monmouth, Middlesex, Burlington and Cape May Counties have already been viewed.

The Colonel Escaped.

Colonel Edwin Hine, general manager of the Public Service Corporation, heard an ominous cracking of the ceiling in his office at Newark Thursday afternoon, and sprang from his desk just in time to avoid a large section of the plaster falling on him. The plaster is supposed to have been weakened by the constant vibration of the building, as the offices are over the trolley terminal. A heavy safe was recently placed in the office room above that occupied by Colonel Hine. This, too, is thought to have contributed to the breaking of the plaster. Metal ceilings will be placed in the building.

A Missionary Tea.

The Woman's Association, of the Congregational church, will hold a missionary tea at the residence of Mrs. Frank A. Weeks, No. 835 West Seventh street, on Tuesday afternoon, April 18 at 3 o'clock. Rev. Dr. Chambers, who returns to Turkey in May, will be the speaker of the afternoon. Miss Waterbury will direct the musical programme. The Lenten envelopes will then be received.

Week-End Laxity.

William Phibin, an Englishman, was arrested yesterday for drunkenness. He explained in the city court this morning that he usually slipped his sobriety moorings "week-ends," and drank a little more gin than he generally did. Judge Runyon forgave him and suspended sentence.

WHITTIER, 7; LEALS, 6; ON HOPE COMMON

MARTIN STRUCK OUT THREE PRIVATE SCHOOL BATTERS.

The Whittier School team, winners of last year's championship in the city junior league, scored its first victory of the season yesterday by defeating the Leal School team on Hope Common. The Whittier boys showed up well in the initial contest. Martin struck out six opposing batsmen, Harding three, while Curtis struck out four. This was the lineup and score by innings:

Whittier—Elliott, rf; Smalley, 2b; Rittenhouse, lf; Westphal, cf; Randolph, ss; Harding, p; Loizeaux, c; Woodhull, 3b; Martin, 1b-p.

Leals—Manning, c; Curtis, p; VanDeventer, 3b; Underhill, ss; Gough, 3b; Davidge, lf; Endicott, 1b; Waring, rf; Valiant, rf; Hoy, cf.

CHRISTIAN FIELD.

Rev. D. M. Sterns will meet the Union Bible class on Tuesday afternoon at the Y. M. C. A. Hall.

The current number of St. Stephen's Messenger contains an excellent picture of the former rector, S. P. Simpson.

Mrs. Sergeant Haskell and Frank Eaton, of Morristown, will give an entertainment in the Monroe Avenue church on Thursday night, May 11.

Fred H. Martin, who was formerly assistant pastor of the Presbyterian church at Dover, is now doing religious work at Flemington for a time.

Rev. Percy R Ferris, who is well known here, has resigned the pastorate of the Baptist church at Perth Amboy to accept a charge in New York State.

Mrs. Osgood, who has been a missionary in China for a number of years, has returned to her home in New Haven after spending part of the week with Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Dayton, of East Sixth street.

The organ of St. Stephen's church has been rebuilt and put in first class condition. It is of some interest to note that this organ was installed in 1887, and in November of that year Dr. Messiter, organist of Trinity church, New York, gave a recital on the then new instrument.

E. T. Colton will speak and Miss Mildred Till will sing at the Y. M. C. A. men's meeting tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock. Mr. Colton, who is associated with John R. Mott as one of the secretaries of the foreign department of the Y. M. C. A., is said to make a stronger presentation of the foreign work than even Mr. Mott, who has been called the most influential young man of this generation. Miss Mildred Till, contralto, of the Rock Concert Co., and a chorus of mixed voices will assist. Charles W. McCutcheon will preside. The late D. L. Moody greatly enjoyed the singing of Miss Till.

Mrs. J. P. Emmons' Niece Wed

The many friends of Miss Evelyn Staat, daughter of Mrs. Elizabeth Staat, of Chicago, and niece of Mrs. John P. Emmons, of Prospect place, will be interested to learn of her recent marriage to J. Frederick Wolff, vice president of the L. Wolff Manufacturing Company and member of the Union League and Chicago Athletic Clubs. The wedding took place in Chicago and was a quiet one, only members of the respective families being present at the ceremony, after which the bride and groom left for Hot Springs, Va., for a stay of three weeks, preparatory to a tour of Europe.

Buried, Still Unidentified.

Still unidentified, the body of the man found dead, with his head and chest crushed in, alongside the track near the Central railroad tanks at Greenbrook Thursday morning, was buried yesterday afternoon by the Dunellen authorities. It was interred at South Plainfield.

County Medical Society Elects.

These officers have been elected by the Somerset County Medical Society: President, Dr. A. L. Stillwell; vice-president, Dr. J. Harvey Buchanan; secretary, Dr. W. Long; treasurer, Dr. Thomas H. Flyn; reporter, Dr. A. H. Dundon; censor, Dr. J. P. Hecht.

Col. Tyler to Speak.

Col. Mason W. Tyler has been secured to make an address before the Board of trade on Thursday night, May 4 The committee in charge will provide other entertaining features.

Ladies' Night.

The Brotherhood of the First M. E. church will hold a ladies' night April 28 Henry A. McGee will finish his lecture on "Around the World." The Symphony Club will play.

Minister Refuses Call.

SUBURBAN NEWS.

DUNELLEN AND VICINITY.

Letters addressed to Henry Mullner, Mrs. Ira Mullner and Dr. Benton remain uncalled for at the postoffice. Dr. Benton is the name of a physician who conducted a sanitarium for a short time here about two and a half years ago. No one here knows to where he went after leaving the borough.

The funeral of the man found dead near the Central tracks at Greenbrook was held yesterday afternoon. He was buried in South Plainfield. The body was not identified.

John Osborne, the five-year-old son of Mrs. Frances Osborne, is recovering from a very severe illness. He has been confined to bed for two months.

Principal Lester Meseroll continues to recover from his severe illness. It is believed that he will return to his duties at the school in two weeks.

Mrs. Rebecca Swackhamer has planned a two months' visit to a brother in Joliet, Ill. She will leave for the West next Thursday.

Mrs. Charles S. Day is the director of the reorganized ladies' orchestra, which flourished through the social season a year ago.

C. George Harrison has assumed charge of the New Brunswick office of the International Correspondence Schools.

The final meeting for the season was held by the Card Club yesterday afternoon. Mrs. J. Newton Apgar was the hostess.

The past few days of good weather has advanced the planting of crops a good deal.

Mrs. Charles Dodwell has been visiting friends in Manasquan for a few days.

A union prayer service is being held in the Presbyterian church this afternoon.

Mrs. Mary Coriell has moved into her new house on Front street.

Mrs. Josephine Terry has had her house redecorated and painted.

James Manning is having a new slate roof put on his house.

'PLAINS AND FANWOOD.

"Revivals and Church Life" will be the topic of Rev. T. Meore-Smith's sermon at the Baptist church tomorrow morning. In the evening, "The Secret of the Optimistic Life" will be the topic. Services at the usual hours: Sunday-school, 9:30 a. m.; morning preaching, 10:45; B. Y. P. U., 7:15 p. m., followed at 7:45 by the evening preaching service.

The local bowling team and the Saengerbunds roll the third of their series of five games on Lee's alleys Monday night. The 'Plains team has taken the two games played. The Saengerbunds will be out Monday night with the strongest team they can get and will try hard to down the locals so as to still have a show for the series.

Arbor Day exercises were held yesterday afternoon at the public school at 1:30. An informal programme of music and recitations was enjoyed by the members and friends, after which the annual event of planting the class tree was held. At the close of the exercises school was dismissed for the day.

It is here at last. The local baseball season opens today with the game between the P. A. C. team and the Jersey City Eastern League team at Crescent Oval. Game will begin at 3:30.

Suckers are reported running in Green brook. Hardly a night passes but what several "gigging" parties are out. Several large catches have been made by the local sportsmen.

The pulpit at the Methodist church tomorrow will be occupied by a supply, no regular pastor being named by the conference, which closed its meetings at Newark on Monday.

George Miller, who has been seriously ill with pneumonia for the past two weeks, is convalescent and will soon be able to go out again.

Several road work bills were paid and other business of a routine nature transacted at the Township Committee meeting held last night.

Judge Clark, who has been spending several days with his son, George A. Clark, at Finderne, returned home yesterday.

The weekly study meeting of the Bible class was held last night in the class rooms of the Methodist church.

Tomorrow being Palm Sunday, special services will be held at All Saints' Episcopal church.

John Kelly, of Plainfield, has taken a position with Benjamin Millett.

SOUTH PLAINFIELD.

Randolph Morris, who has been a victim of consumption for some time, is confined to his bed most of the time.

The Junior Christian Endeavor Society will meet at 4 o'clock this afternoon at the Baptist church.

The usual public worship will be held at the Baptist church, tomorrow morning and evening.

Rev. J. A. Cubberley spent yesterday making pastoral calls in Piscataway.

M. C. McClellan, of Newark, visited William Hamilton yesterday.

John Geary went to New York in search of farm help yesterday.

Miss Caffry, of Elizabeth, is visiting Mrs. Patrick Kane.

Large crops of oats are being sown by Piscataway farmers.

OBSERVED ARBOR DAY.

Pupils of Borough School Give Special Exercises of Songs and Recitations.

Special exercises in honor of Arbor Day were observed by the upper and lower grades of the Somerset street school, yesterday. There were class songs and recitations and other pleasing features. In the primary department those who took part were Ernest Mants, Allen Diman, Flora Krusse, Margery Chandler, Clarence Smalley, Myrtle Darling, Margery Burtis, Joseph Kirch, Edna Stewart, Madeline Blair, Iola Schenck, Ashley Burner, Amanda Matthews and LeRoy Taynor, with recitations, and Ruth Weinberger and Myrtle Darling with piano solos.

In the High School the participants wer Ethel Webster, Leah Wightman, Robin Hamilton, Laura Woolston, Bessie and Florence Wyckoff.

Reproved Julia.

Julia Pinctow was arranged in the city court this morning on a charge of unladylike conduct preferred by Lizzie Marianack, a cousin. Julia's husband beat her last week, and Julia thought Lizzie's talebearing was responsible for the thrashing. She called Lizzie a name that Lizzie, being a lady and a self-respecting woman, Judge, your honor, couldn't think of standing for. Counseller William Newcorn, who appeared for Lizzie, told Judge Runyon that his client would be satisfied if Julia was reproved and warned not to offend again. Julia got the reproof.

Wants Belieview Ave. Improved.

Realizing the wretched condition of Belieview avenue, extending from Park avenue to Hillside Cemetery, Alex. Gilbert, president of the Hillside Cemetery Association, petitioned the Common Council last night for some relief. He stated that the association was willing to pay half the expense for the work of macadamizing this road, if the city would stand for the other half. The matter was refered.

Attending Mr. Lunger's Funeral.

GIANTS HOIST PENNANT.

New York Crowd of 40,000 Saw Boston's Defeat.

NEW YORK, April 15.—In the presence of a record breaking attendance, the turnstiles showing that over 40,000 persons had visited the grounds, the National league champions easily defeated the visiting Boston team by a score of 10 to 1 at the Polo grounds in the opening game of the 1905 season.

Prior to the game the two teams took part in an automobile parade through the city, and when they returned to the grounds they were greeted with tumultuous cheers. Many floral pieces were presented to Manager McGraw and the individual members of the New York team, all of whom took part in the hoisting of the championship pennant.

The game was rather one sided, as McGinnity had perfect control, while Wilhelm and Young were hit pretty freely. Donlin got the credit of making the first home run of the local season, and the star fielding play of the game was a one handed catch of a low drive from Tenny's bat by Dahlen.

Favorites All Beaten.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., April 15.—Early Boy was the medium of a coup in the betting ring at Montgomery park, winning the Denie handicap, the fourth race on the card, in a canter from Rough and Tumble. Bondage, favorite, could never get up, and he finished third. Early Boy opened at eights and tens and was backed down to 5 to 2. Not a single favorite passed under the wire first.

Columbia Defeated Yale.

NEW YORK, April 15.—At the Columbia university aquatic carnival, held in the Columbia gymnasium pool last night, Columbia easily defeated Yale in the 1,000 feet relay race. Trubenbach led in the final relay by over twenty-five feet. The intercollegiate championship water polo game was also won by Columbia, the score being 1 goal to 0.

Princeton Won Wrestling Contest.

PRINCETON, N. J., April 15.—The Princeton wrestling team defeated the University of Pennsylvania here last night in a dual match, winning five out of seven contests. The Pennsylvania wrestlers won the featherweight bout and were awarded the welterweight event on points.

Exhibition Game at Newark, N. J.

NEWARK, N. J., April 15.—In an exhibition game here the Newark team of the Eastern league defeated the A. J. and G. team of the New York State league by a score of 8 to 0.

High Chancellor at Oakland.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 15.—High Chancellor, at 9 to 5, won the seven furlong handicap at Oakland. Two other favorites won.

Higgins Examining Tax Measures.

ALBANY, N. Y., April 15.—Governor Higgins said last night that he would not take any action on the mortgage or the stock transfer tax bills at present. He is examining both measures very carefully. He said that he had heard nothing concerning a report that an effort was being made by some of the New York city representatives in the legislature to have the mortgage tax bill sent back for amendment. He said that the matter had not been suggested to him.

England's Tribute to Choate.

LONDON, April 15.—"Farewell! Rejoice! He goes back to his home with his duty well and nobly done, taking the universal respect and admiration of a kindred nation and his own." Thus concluded Lord Chancellor Halsbury's tribute in parting with American Ambassador Choate, who was banqueted here last night.

Civic Strife at Havana.

HAVANA, April 15.—Great excitement has been caused in political circles here over the forcible seizure by six Nationalist congressmen of papers covering fifty allegations of improper acts by Havana councilmen and city officials.

Edward to Visit Algiers.

ALGIERS, April 15.—The prefect of this city has been formally notified that King Edward will visit Algiers, and he has telegraphed to Paris asking for instructions. King Edward and Queen Alexandra will leave Palma, Majorca, tomorrow.

COST OF GAS.

Manager Doane Said Gas Cost 48 Cents Per 1,000 Feet to Produce.

NEW YORK, April 15.—Commissioner Oakley of the department of water supply, gas and electricity, Deputy Commissioner Frank Goodwin and Secretary Blake were the first of the so called "political" witnesses to appear before the legislative gas investigating committee.

Vice President and General Manager Doane of the New Amsterdam Gaslight company testified that an agency agreement for the manufacture and delivery of gas exists between the Northern Union and the Central Union Gas companies. The Central Union delivered in 1904 413,000,000 cubic feet at 37 cents a thousand feet.

Deducting interest on the bonded debt and a reserve amount of $151,739.30 held for depreciation, the actual cost of gas production, the witness said, is 48 cents a thousand feet. This estimate is based on the full payment for "labor," materials, buildings, legal expenses, bad and doubtful debts and taxes.

He also said the cost of production had been growing gradually less during the past few years. A few years ago, he declared, the cost of production and distribution was 52 cents.

EXPECT ERUPTION.

Sisson, Cal., Fears Bursting of Mount Shasta.

REDDING, Cal., April 15.—Anxiety exists among the inhabitants of Sisson and other towns near Mount Shasta over the strange actions of the snow capped mountain. For several days distant rumblings have been heard and the snow is melting fast and volcanic ashes and mud begin to ooze through the surface of the earth at the edge of Sisson.

The flow gradually increased until it poured forth in several places like thick paint. The report comes from the other side of Mount Shasta that the McCloud Railway company's railroad track suddenly sunk in two places and that a similar flow of volcanic mud is noticeable. While the mountain itself shows no visible eruption, these phenomena cause alarm. Eleven years ago similar conditions existed for a time, causing much fear.

JOSEPH JEFFERSON DYING.

Aged Actor Lies Critically Ill at Palm Beach.

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla., April 15.—Joseph Jefferson lies critically ill at his winter residence at Palm Beach. His condition, as reported by his physician, Dr. R. B. Potter, is little if any improved. He is surrounded by his family, and they are prepared to expect death at any minute.

Three weeks ago Mr. Jefferson visited ex-President Cleveland at Hobe sound, where he caught cold, and upon his return to Palm Beach was forced to take his bed. He convalesced and was up after a few days' confinement, when on Monday he was seized with a relapse.

Dr. S. G. Worley was called from St. Augustine, but returned Thursday, when Mr. Jefferson showed some improvement.

Enormous New Pacific Liner.

NEW YORK, April 15.—The Dakota is in port from Newport News. She is the second of the gigantic vessels constructed by the Eastern Shipbuilding company of New London, Conn., for the Great Northern Steamship company. The dimensions of the Dakota are: Length over all, 630 feet; extreme beam, 72½ feet; depth from upper navigating bridge to bottom of the keel, 88 feet 4 inches. When fully laden the displacement of the Dakota is 33,000 tons, and with her full cargo (and she has a gross tonnage of 20,718 tons) she can make fifteen knots even in heavy seas. She starts for Seattle in about two weeks.

Louis Otto Bergh at Yale.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., April 15.—The annual speaking for the Ten Eyck prize at Yale took place last night. The prize was awarded to Louis Otto Bergh of New York, whose subject was "1904 In Colorado." The prize is the income of a fund of $2,600. The other speakers in the competition were Harry Beal of Oneonta, N. Y., "Tenement House Reform;" Crawford Greene of Providence, R. I., "Tenement House Reform;" Chester B. Van Tassel of Brooklyn, "Mazzini," and Arthur Leonard Westcott of Oneonta, N. Y., "Sam Houston."

Staats Zeitung Celebration.

NEW YORK, April 15.—The German musicians will assemble in the City Hall park tomorrow to serenade the New York Staats Zeitung on the occasion of its seventieth anniversary. A monster German band will play in front of the Staats Zeitung building, which will be elaborately draped with bunting and American flags. The music will be rendered by a band of nearly a hundred of the best German musicians in Greater New York.

Stole $1,000 From Wells, Fargo & Co.

CLEVELAND, O., April 15.—A warrant has been issued for the arrest of Thomas Bradley, twenty-three years of age, who is charged with stealing a package containing $1,000 in currency from a Wells Fargo express wagon here. Bradley was employed as an assistant on the wagon. He recently came here from Cambridge, Mass.

Sultan Receives American Banker.

CONSTANTINOPLE, April 15.—Sultan Abdul Hamid received in audience Anthony J. Drexel of Philadelphia, who was presented by Minister Leishman.

Cholera at Baku.

BAKU, April 15.—Three cases of cholera, one of which resulted fatally, have occurred here.

An Ideal Location
Rosedale and Linden Park Cemeteries

LARGEST IN THE STATE
LINDEN, N. J.
Beautiful and Accessible
2 Miles from Elizabeth, 7 Miles from Newark,
14 MILES FROM NEW YORK
On Main Line Pennsylvania Railroad
Why Lots in These Cemeteries commend themselves to Heads of Families and Investors
BECAUSE of the $1,000,000 Trust Fund provided for by the Trustees in each Cemetery, the income from which will keep the properties perpetually beautiful at NO EXPENSE TO LOT OWNERS.
BECAUSE such a guarantee, not found in any other cemetery, assures lot owners that the grounds WILL BE MAINTAINED PERMANENTLY AS BEAUTIFUL PARKS AFTER THE INCOME FROM THE SALE OF LOTS HAS BEEN EXHAUSTED.
LOTS SHOULD BE PURCHASED NOW
BECAUSE MORE ADVANTAGES ARE OFFERED TO LOT BUYERS in a new Modern Park Cemetery than in those established many years and, in most cases, no provision made for perpetual care without extra expense to lot owners. THERE ARE A GREATER NUMBER OF IDEAL LOCATIONS TO SELECT FROM, PRICES OF LOTS ARE ALWAYS LOWER AND TERMS MORE ADVANTAGEOUS.
BECAUSE life is most uncertain and EVERY ONE SHOULD ANTICIPATE THE INEVITABLE BY MAKING A CHOICE NOW OF A FINAL RESTING PLACE.
LOTS WILL PROVE A GOOD INVESTMENT
BECAUSE they are sure to increase in value and can be purchased NOW at the INITIAL or LOWEST PRICE and upon the most ADVANTAGEOUS TERMS.
BECAUSE the properties are ACCESSIBLE TO 4,000,000 PEOPLE, and considering the RAPID GROWTH OF GREATER NEW YORK and its TRIBUTARY CITIES and TOWNS, it is only a question of a SHORT TIME when LOTS in ROSEDALE and LINDEN PARK will EQUAL IN VALUE those of our MOST NOTED cemeteries.

MODES OF SPRING.

A New Skirt Model—Some Leading Ideas In Waists.

The newest spring skirt is a resurrection of one that was a novelty a dozen years ago—the bell or umbrella skirt. It is very slightly eased in at the waist, with the fullness set into plaits behind and falling in folds at the feet, where the skirt measures about eight yards.

In waists there are three leading ideas—the carefully draped bodice which is tucked across the upper part of the figure, the crossover blouse bodice above a well boned high corselet belt and the jacket, by which the Frenchwoman means any of the highly decorative variations of the Louis XV. coat.

These Louis coats are very useful, as they permit the wearing of one jacket with different skirts, provided there is an affinity between the two.

The Louis coat may be of brocade, volle, taffeta or lace. It may be close fitting, with shaped basque, or it may be blouse, with a deep belt and full basque.

Sleeves have reversed the order of arrangement. The puff has mounted from wrist to shoulder, all fullness coming once more from the armhole. This fullness in some instances is so great that whalebone epaulets are used to support the fullness. Elbow sleeves are used for all except tailor made and morning gowns.

The gown in the picture is of chine silk of a pale mode color, flowered over with thistles. The skirt is gathered three times down its length and falls full at the feet in a deep ruffle. The attractive little coat is laid in folds about the figure and shirrs across the shoulders, forming a ruffle over the tucked sleeves. About the neck and down the front is a trimming of embroidery motifs edged with lace. These are mounted over pale green velvet, which also forms the girdle and cuff, both of which are fastened with large jade buttons.

ATTRACTIVE STYLES.

Fashions For the Wee Folk—How to Make a Lawn Skirt.

Pongee coats for the little tots are made up in the quaintest kind of fashion and are both practical and smart. They are cool and clean.

Smocking done in three points is an inexpensive trimming for a two-year-old infant's morning dress.

Tucks on the skirts of grownup gowns are larger and in groups of two or three. A simple way to make a white lawn skirt is in three ruffles. Each ruffle has at the bottom two rather large tucks. The depth of the flounces are regulated by the height of the wearer.

Corset covers with several lace trimmed ruffles hold out the thin waists beautifully.

Amethysts are in vogue now and come in all sorts of attractive settings.

ANGLAISE BRODERIE WAIST.

Very stunning are belt buckles and necklace cards set in amethysts to a dull silver design.

All over anglaise broderie makes a fetching waist seen in the cut. A ruffle of the broderie put on to form a vest effect in front widens out over the shoulders into a very deep ruffle. The sleeves put in the [illegible] and there meet a deep cuff in the cross of the [illegible]

Kate Bonnet

The Romance of a Pirate's Daughter

By FRANK R. STOCKTON

Copyright, 1902, by D. Appleton & Co., New York.

CHAPTER XXII.

WISE MR. DELAPLAINE.

EARLY in the next forenoon Kate and her companions prepared to make another visit to the town. Naturally she wanted to be with her father as much as possible and to exert upon him such influences as might make him forget, in a degree, the so-called glories of his pirate life and return with her and her uncle to Spanish Town, where, she believed, this misguided man might yet surrender himself to the rural joys of other days. Nay, more, he and she might hope for still further happiness in a Jamaica home, for Madam Bonnet would not be there.

As she came up from below, impatient to depart, Kate noticed, getting over the side, a gentleman who had just arrived in a small boat. He was tall and good-looking, and very handsomely attired in a rich suit such as was worn at that day by French and Spanish noblemen. A sword with an elaborate hilt was by his side, and on his head a high cocked hat. There was fine lace at his wrists and bosom, and he wore silk stockings, and silver buckles on his shoes.

Kate started at meeting here a stranger, and in such an elaborate attire. She had read of the rich dress of men of rank in Europe, but her eyes had never fallen upon such a costume. The gentleman advanced quickly towards her, holding out his hand. She shrank back. "What did it mean?"

Then in a second she saw her father's face. This fine gentleman, this dignified and graceful man, was indeed Stede Bonnet.

He had been so thoroughly ashamed of his mean attire on the preceding day that he had determined not again to meet his daughter and Mr. Delaplaine in such vulgar guise. So, from the resources of the storehouses he had drawn forth a superb suit of clothes sent westward for the governor of one of the French colonies. He excused himself for taking it from Blackbeard's treasure house, not only on account of the demands of the emergency, but because he himself had taken it before from a merchantman.

"Father!" cried Kate, "what has happened to you? I never saw such a fine gentleman."

Bonnet smiled with complacency, and removed his cocked hat.

"I always endeavor, my dear," said he, "to dress myself according to my station. Yesterday, not expecting to see you, I was in a sad plight. I would have preferred you to meet me in my naval uniform, but as that is now, to say the least, inconvenient, and as I reside on shore in the capacity of a merchant or business man, I attire myself to suit my present condition. Ah! my good brother-in-law, I am glad to see you. I may remark," he added, graciously shaking hands with Dame Charter, "that I left my faithful Scotchman in our storehouse in the town, it being necessary for some one to attend to our possessions there. Otherwise I should have brought him with me, my good Dame Charter, for I am sure you would have found his company acceptable. He is a faithful man and an honest one, although I am bound to say that if he were less of a Presbyterian and more of a man of the world his conversation might sometimes be more agreeable."

After a time Maj. Bonnet proposed a row upon the harbor—he had brought a large boat, with four oarsmen, for this purpose. Mr. Delaplaine objected a little to this, fearing the presence of so many pirate vessels, but Bonnet loftily set aside such puerile objections.

"I am the business representative of the great Blackbeard," he said, "the most powerful pirate in the world. You are safer here than in any other port on the American coast."

When they were out upon the water, moving against the gentle breeze, Bonnet disclosed the object of his excursion. "I am going to take you," said he, "to visit some of the noted pirate ships which are anchored in this harbor. There are vessels here which are quite famous, and commanded by renowned Brethren of the Coast. I think you will all be greatly interested in these, and under my convoy you need fear no danger."

Dame Charter and Kate screamed in their fright, and Mr. Delaplaine turned pale. "Visit pirate ships!" he cried. "Rather I would have supposed that you would keep away from them as far as you could. For myself, I would have them a hundred miles distant if it were possible."

Bonnet laughed loftily. "It will be visits of ceremony that we shall pay, and with all due ceremony shall we be received. Pull out to that vessel!" he said to the oarsmen. Then, turning to the others, he remarked: "That sloop is the Dripping Blade, commanded by Capt. Sorby, whose name strikes terror throughout the Spanish Main. Ay! and in other parts of the ocean, I can assure you, for he has sailed northward nearly as far as I have, but he has not yet rivaled me. I know him, having done business with him on shore. He is a most portentous person, as you will soon see."

"Oh, father!" cried Kate, "don't take us there; it will kill us just to look upon such dreadful pirates. I pray you turn the boat!"

"Oh! If Dickory were here," gasped Dame Charter, "he would turn the boat himself; he would never allow me to be taken among those awful wretches."

Mr. Delaplaine said nothing. It was too late to expostulate, but he trembled as he sat.

"I cannot turn back, my dear," said Bonnet, "even if I would, for the great Sorby is now on deck, and looking at us as we approach."

As the boat drew up by the side of the Dripping Blade the renowned Sorby looked down over the side. He was a red-headed man; his long hair and beard dyed yellow in some places by the sun. He was grievous to look upon, and like to create in the mind of an imaginative person the image of a sun-burned devil on a holiday.

"Good-day to you! Good-day, Sir Bonnet," cried the pirate captain; "come on board, come on board, all of you, wife, daughter, father, if such they be! We'll let down ladder and I shall feast you finely."

"Nay, nay, good Capt. Sorby," replied Bonnet, with courteous dignity, "my family and I have just stopped to pay you our respects. They have all heard of your great prowess, for I have told them. They may never have a chance again to look upon another of your fame."

"Heaven grant it!" said Dame Charter in her heart. "If I get out of this I stay upon dry land forever."

Every pirate face on board that ill-conditioned sloop now glared over her rail, their eyes fixed upon the goodly company in the little boat, their horrid hair and beards stained and matted—it would have been hard to tell by what.

"Oh, father, father!" panted Kate, "please row away. What if they should now jump down upon us?"

"Good-day, good-day, my brave Capt. Sorby," said Bonnet, "we must e'en row away; we have other craft to visit, but would first do honor to you and your bold crew."

Capt. Sorby lifted high his great bespattered hat, and every grinning demon of the crew waved hat or rag or pail or cutlass and set up a discordant yell in honor of their departing visitors.

"Oh! go not to another, father," pleaded Kate, her pale face in tears; "visit no more of them, I pray you!"

"Ay, truly, keep away from them," said Mr. Delaplaine. "I am no coward, but I vow to you that I shall die of fright if I come close to another of those floating hells."

"There are other ships whose captains I know," said Bonnet, "and where you would have been well received; but if your nerves are not strong enough for the courtesies I have to offer, we will return to the Belinda."

When safe again on board their vessel, after the sudden termination of their projected tour of calls on pirates, Kate took her father aside and entered into earnest conversation with him, while Mr. Delaplaine, much ruffled in his temper although in general of a most mild disposition, said aside to Dame Charter: "He is as mad as a March hare. What other parent on this earth would convey his fair young daughter into the society of these vile beasts, which in his eyes are valiant heroes? We must get him back with us, Dame Charter, we must get him back. And if he cannot be constrained by love and goodwill to a decent and a Christian life, we must shut him up. And if his daughter weeps and raves we must e'en stiffen our determination and shut him up. It shall be my purpose now to hasten the return of the brig. There's room enough for all, and he and the Scotchman must go back with us. The governor shall deal with him; and, whether it be on my estate or behind strong bars, he shall spend the rest of his days upon the island of Jamaica, and so know the sea no more."

FLEET IS OFF CUYOS

Rojestvensky Shifts His Helm For the Philippines.

EIGHTY MILES SOUTH OF MINDORO

Arrival of Hospital Ship Orel at the Franco-Chinese Port of Saigon Confirmed by St. Petersburg Dispatch.

LONDON, April 15.—An authoritative dispatch from Berlin says that the Russian fleet is at the Cuyos islands, part of the Philippines, taking on coal preparatory to finishing the voyage to Vladivostok.

Manila reports that Rear Admiral Train of the American Asiatic fleet has received a dispatch from Saigon saying that Rojestvensky's hospital ship, which yesterday put in at that point, had many wounded aboard.

This would indicate that a battle has been fought.

Admiral Rojestvensky's squadron is believed by the intelligence division of the German navy department to be lying off the Cuyos islands, eighty miles south of Mindoro, Philippine Islands, recoaling and preparing for the last stage of its long voyage.

Although these islands belong to the United States, they have fine anchorages outside the three mile limit, with hard bottom at twenty to twenty-five fathoms.

The Cuyos islands lie tactically in such a position that the approaches can easily be watched by the Russian scouts.

Three cruisers, it was added, had been detached, presumably for a diversion on the coasts of Japan, probably in the hope of calling off Admiral Togo in pursuit.

St. Petersburg admiralty's advices from Saigon do not mention any wounded men being on board the Russian hospital ship Orel, which arrived there. She probably has sick sailors on board.

It is understood that the Orel has left Saigon to rejoin Admiral Rojestvensky's squadron.

Novel Punishment For Clado.

ST. PETERSBURG, April 15.—Grand Duke Alexis, high admiral of the Russian navy, has issued an order severely censuring Captain Clado, formerly chief tactitian on the staff of Vice Admiral Rojestvensky, for his criticisms of the navy and at the same time, in order to "give him an opportunity to repair his faults," appointing Captain Clado to "special service in connection with the equipment and command of vessels navigating rivers in the theater of the war."

Russians Raid Japanese Railroad.

ST. PETERSBURG, April 15.—Russian troops have successfully raided the railroad in the direction of Kaiyuan, about twenty miles north of Tie pass, Manchuria. A dispatch from General Linevitch dated April 13 to Emperor Nicholas says, "Our cavalry April 9 destroyed the railroad and wires near Yakutzu and between Kaiyuan and Changtu, and April 10 the cavalry cut the telegraph line near Kaiyuan."

A Record Bequest.

CHICAGO, April 15.—Benjamin Ferguson, the lately deceased lumber merchant of Chicago, has bequeathed to the Art Institute of Chicago the income from an estate valued at $1,000,000. The fund is to be used for the erection and maintenance of statuary and monuments in the parks, along the boulevards and in other public places in Chicago, "commemorating worthy men or women of America or important events of American history." William M. R. French, director of the Art institute, said, "I think this is the largest bequest of its kind ever made."

State Prison For Eight Years.

BOSTON, April 15.—Charles M. Reed, the veteran lawyer, who pleaded guilty to the embezzlement of $7,800 from the Samuel Cushing estate, of which he was trustee, has been sentenced to state prison for a term of not more than eight nor less than six years. The prisoner, who is seventy years old and for thirty-five years a prominent member of the Massachusetts bar, has, according to Assistant District Attorney Sughrues' statement in court, embezzled over $90,000 from estates in his charge during the past twenty-five years.

Wealthy Oswego Man Dead.

OSWEGO, N. Y., April 15.—Alinson S. Page, a wealthy resident of this city, is dead here, aged eighty years. Mr. Page suffered a nervous collapse several weeks ago. He served four terms as mayor of Oswego, was a member of the assembly from Oswego county in 1876 and was prominent in business and financial circles in this part of the state. He was born June 30, 1825, at Providence, N. Y.

More Indictments Coming.

CHICAGO, April 15.—More indictments, it was rumored last night, will be voted by the federal grand jury which is investigating the business transactions of meat packers.

Architect Hodges a Suicide.

BALTIMORE, April 15.—Robert Hodges, an architect and nephew of former Mayor James B. Hodges, has committed suicide here. Ill health is assigned as the cause.

Britain and China Agree on Tibet.

PEKING, April 15.—Negotiations between Great Britain and China have resulted in an agreement on the Tibet convention, Great Britain accepting some modifications.

J. B. DUKE, CONVERT TO THE AUTOMOBILE

ORDERED STABLEMEN TO USE BLOODED HORSES FOR ORDINARY DRAFT WORK.

James B. Duke, of Raritan, known as the Tobacco King, who last season had such an aversion to automobiles that he contemplated excluding them from his big estate at Raritan, has himself become such an automobile enthusiast this season that he has purchased one thirty-horsepower Pope-Toledo and two big Mercedes machines, and now makes flying trips over the country that promise to make him liable to the speed laws of the State.

Last Sunday Mr. Duke, accompanied by his brother Benjamin and a number of guests from New York City, made a trip from his mansion to Princeton and return in less than two hours.

Since Mr. Duke has acquired the automobile habit he has lost his love for his large stable of fine carriage horses and costly vehicles.

During the last week he has caused a sensation among his employes by issuing orders for a number of his stablemen to use his blooded horses for ordinary draft work about the farm.

The coachmen look with disfavor on the advent of the automobile and the new order of things, but there is not a sufficient number of them to organize a strike.

Auto as Aid to Realty Man.

Wm. Jeffery, the local real estate specialist, has purchased an up-to-date Cadillac automobile to be used in his business. The machine is of the touring type and is intended specifically to carry parties to Mr. Jeffery's suburban real estate holdings.

Slept With His Stockings on to Cure His Rheumatism.

Arthur Perry, of E. Atlman's store, was attacked with an acute form of sciatic rheumatism. Luckily he had a friend who made a wise suggestion. He told him to put Volta powder in his stockings and wear them day and night. He did it. On the morning of the second day the pain was nearly gone, and three days later it had vanished completely. He says he hopes to spread the tidings so that other may be as lucky as he. Volta Powder is sold by L. W. Randolph, 143 West Front street, John P. Powers, Somerset street and Craig place, and other best drug stores. Sent by mail for $1.00 by the American Volta Co., 13 Astor place, New York city.

COMBINATION WAGON FOR BOROUGH FIREMEN

NORTH PLAINFIELD COUNCIL MAY ORDER CHEMICAL AND HOSE VEHICLE.

The fire committee of the North Plainfield Common Council met last night, to consult with the representative of a company which manufactures combination chemical and hose wagons, similar to the one owned by the city. The committee contemplates using one of these machines in place of the hose carts now in use, as suggested by Mayor Smalley at the last Council meeting. They cost $2,500 each but something could be realized from the sale of the old vehicles.

No definite action was taken but another meeting will be held soon.

GOOD TALENT SECURED.

"Billy" Redmond and Assistants Coming to Band Concert Fair.

Ben LaVere, who is fast completing all arrangements for the band concert's benefit fair to be held in Saengerbund Hall, beginning April 25, received word from "Billy" Redmond yesterday, that he has a splendid array of talent coming. A musical programme will be a feature of the fair every night, new faces appearing each time. Redmond will give several solos and he will be assisted by George Offerman, William Corcoran, Theodore Morse and other well known vaudeville artists.

In addition to these features, Mr. LaVere has arranged for several prize bowling matches to take place on the Saengerbund alleys and in other ways make the fair exceed last year's in point of success.

Suit Dropped.

Counsellor S. S. Swackhamer, lawyer for Dr. G. D. Herring, stated this morning that the suit brought by F. H. Smith and Charles H. Hand against the osteopathist, for two months' rent, which has been fought through two or three courts for six months, had been dropped by the plaintiffs. A trial of right of property involved in office furniture attached in the suit was to have been tried next week in Elizabeth.

Wants Legislature Reconvened.

A resolution is before the Jersey City Board of Trade calling on Governor Stokes to convene an extra session of the Legislature in the interest of equal taxation. The resolution was presented by Henry V. Condict, an equal tax champion, at the regular session of the board of directors. It was not seconded, but was laid over to be discussed at a meeting April 18

Colored Girl Arrested.

Kenlaes Curtis, of Netherwood, had Lucy Bartel, col-ored, 16 years old, arraigned before Judge Runyon in the city court this morning, for hitting his young son. Lucy's story brought out the fact that the boy called her names and annoyed her in others ways, and the court suspended sentence.

The Roman Catholic and Episcopal churches will observe Palm Sunday tomorrow. Palms will be distributed at the 8:30 mass at St. Mary's and at St. Joseph's as well.

Marconnier Social.

The social held at Marconnier chapel last night was largely attended and a considerable sum was realized.

EARLY MORNING SINGERS FINED BY RECORDER DOUD

COST THREE MEN $5 EACH TO WARBLE ON SOMERSET STREET.

Charged by Marshals Emmons and Pope with drunkenness and disorderly conduct on Somerset street at 2:15 yesterday morning, Frank Hicks, Richard Higgins and Charles Schmidt were fined $5 each by Recorder Doud, last night. All three protested innocence but the officers were positive of the violation and added that the disturbance had been going on in Burns' saloon to such an extent that they would have arrested the proprietor had they been able to get the proper warrant. The men were arrested after they left the place and were roaming along with voices uplifted in ribald song.

In passing sentence, Recorder Doud remarked that the plea of their lawyer, William G. DeMesa, was all that saved them from a much heavier sentence. He also stated emphatically that "It may cost more to sell beer in Plainfield but it costs more to sober up in the borough."

SOCIETY NOTES.

The 97 Series will be open for subscription.

At 7:15 the polls will be open for the election of officers and directors.

At 8:15 the annual meeting will be held. The following amendments to the Constitution will be presented for action.

Add Art. 23, Contingent Fund:

Section 1. A contingent fund shall be established for the protection of the Association in case of unusual losses occurring, as in the disposal of property acquired by foreclosure. This fund shall consist: First, of the sum of one-half of one per cent deducted from the value of withdrawing shares. Second, of the difference between the book value and the withdrawal value of shares withdrawn previous to the 36th payment. Third, of the sum of one-twentieth of one per cent of the amount invested on Bond and Mortgage to be added to said fund previous to each semi-annual distribution of profits.

Section 2. The Board of Management shall have power to suspend from time to time the action of any part of this article when in their judgment the contingent fund has acquired sufficient volume.

Also amend Article XV. Add:

Section 2. After the value of a share is computed in accordance with Section 1 of this article, if a profit has accrued, there shall be deducted from such value, one-half of one per cent., which amount shall be credited to the Contingent Fund. The balance shall be paid as the true withdrawal value of the shares.

Members are specially requested to attend the meeting.

"Bob" Davis Sees Local Team Wallop the Visitors in Good Shape, Score Being 7 to 1.

BIG CROWD AT OVAL

Team Work a Feature of Plainfield's Play—Mayor Buckle Pitches First Ball—The Story by Innings.

(By the official scorer, Charley Dixon.)

The opening of the local baseball season on Saturday under the auspices of the Plainfield Baseball Association, was a great success. Fandom, from the smallest boy, who likes to view the game from the branch of a tree, to the more pretentious crank who prefers a particular seat on the grandstand, gave nothing but praise for the management and the strong team that will represent the city this season. Despite the chilly air, tinged with frost, fully one thousand lovers of the game wended their way to Crescent Oval. Included in the crowd were to be found a number of city and borough officials, while all the way from Hudson county, came that noble chief, "Bob" Davis, and his coterie of friends.

Just before the game started Mayor James F. Buckle walked to the pitcher's box, from which position he threw the first ball, amid the applause of the crowd. The ball did not go over the plate, but "Pete" Lamar was there to catch it. After His Honor's performance, Lee Johnson stepped out on the diamond and on behalf of the Timbo Social Club presented Mr. Buckle with a handsome bouquet of flowers, which he accepted gracefully.

Manager Daab selected the Jersey City Club for the opening attraction with a view to making his team play the best ball and that his hopes were realized is shown by the score of 7 to 1. It was a narrow escape from a good coat of whitewash for the Hudson County leaguers, and there was nothing but gloom in their camp. Every member of the local team played gilt-edge ball and they received the support of the crowd, which was unusually large for such a cold day.

Linderman cleverly fooled his opponents, allowing them but four hits, while Pfanmiller was touched for eleven singles and a double. But one error was charged each team. Reliable "Pete" Lamar worked like the veteran that he is behind the rubber, and he was a terror to base-runners. As for the infield, it was perfection. Captain Driscoll on first sustained his reputation by taking care of everything coming his way, while "Babe" Oldring, at second, "Happy" Kiernan at short and "Mike" Leonard at third,

NEW PASTORS GREETED

Rev. A. C. McCrea at First M. E. and Dr. Parsons at Grace.

HEARTY RECEPTIONS

Both Divines Make Favorable Impressions on Their Large Congregations.

Large congregations attended the services at the First M. E. chuch, yesterday, when the new pastor, Rev. A. C. McCrea, occupied the pulpit for the first time. He was cordially received by everyone, and at the close of the services he was surrounded by the members and friends of the congregation. Mr. McCrea has an attractive personality, is a strong and impressive preacher and is destined to be a successful pastor of the local church.

In the morning Mr. McCrea's sermon was appropriate to Palm Sunday, dwelling on the kingliness of Christ. His text was taken from a portion of the nineteenth verse of the twelfth chapter of John: "Behold, the World Has Gone After Him." The preacher dwelt upon the right of Christ to rule the world and of His spiritual life, and if He has this right to rule, he believed that all should be loyal to Him and give our love and tribute to Him. He also referred to the triumphal entry of Christ into Jerusalem and how He was worshipped and loved by many. He hoped that all would receive Christ into their hearts and homes and pay the homage due Him.

During the service the choir sang "The Palms," appropriate to the day, it has been arranged by the officers of the church to give Pastor McCrea and his wife a reception in Vincent chapel on Friday night, April 28, when all will be given an opportunity to meet them. The pastor and his family will take possession of the parsonage on Thursday, Dr. Snodgrass and his family leaving it the day before.

DR. PARSONS TAKES CHARGE.

The pulpit of Grace M. E. church was also occupied by a new pastor, the incumbent being Rev. Dr. Charles Wesley Parsons, at present residing at Newark, but who came East from the First M. E. church, Minneapolis, Minn. As a clergyman, he has had wide experience and is a man of exceptional ability. He at once impressed the congregation favorably through his forceful manner and convincing way of speaking.

In the morning, Dr. Parsons devoted the time usually allotted for sermon to a talk, outlining the duties of the pastor and the attitude of the congregation in church work. At night he delivered an excellent sermon, dwelling on the relationship of God and His people.

Following both services, Dr. Parsons greeted all the members of the church and a formal reception will be held later. He has made arrangements to move here from Newark on Wednesday or Thursday.

"Nigger's" Last Game.

A spaniel belonging to Frank Parsons, of East Front street, was killed by an automobile at the corner of Washington and Front streets Saturday afternoon. "Nigger," a dog, liked to run at autos, and when a big red machine flashed into view down the block he ran out to play the old game. "Nigger" miscalculated a little, and the front of the machine hit him squarely. He died of internal hurts in the road, feebly wagging his tail whenever sympathetic passers-by spoke to him, until the end. The Parsons grieved over "Nigger's" death, the womenfolk shedding tears of tribute to his kindly nature and faithfulness.

Transportation C. K.

The Public Service Corporation performed satisfactory service on Saturday in taking care of the baseball crowd. Going to the oval the cars were operated on a fifteen minute schedule, and after the game a sufficient number of cars were waiting to bring the people to town.

Company K Banquet Tonight.

The annual banquet of Co. K will be given at Tracii Inn tonight. Among the speakers will be James E. Martine and several prominent State militia officers.

Racores Club Meeting.

The Racores Club will meet with Mrs. J. E. Tracy, 440 West Eighth street, tomorrow at 10 o'clock.

FR. BOGAN IN CHARGE

New Pastor at St. Mary's Addresses His Parishoners.

LARGE CONGREGATIONS

Great Welcome Extended to the Priest, Church Being Thronged at Five Masses.

Large congregations, moved by a very manifest spirit of cordiality, greeted Rev. Father Bernard Bogan, successor of Rev. Father Andrew M. Egan, as rector of St. Mary's church, at all the masses yesterday, when he assumed formal charge of the parish for the first time.

At each of the masses Father Bogan made the announcement of his appointment by the bishop. His pulpit presence and delivery produced a pleasing impression, and his personality made itself felt as one of the most winning with which the members of St. Mary's have ever come into contact in a parish head.

The size of the congregations was marked. Yesterday was Palm Sunday, and with Father Bogan's first appearance in the pulpit as a feature of the day there were practically no stay-at-homes.

At the Children's mass, 9:30 o'clock, the church was crowded to its limits. Special benches along the outside of the sanctuary rail were needed to seat all the worshippers. There were five masses—6:30, 7:30, 8:30, 9:30, and 10:30 o'clock a. m. Father Bogan preached at the 10:30 mass, the most important of the day. He spoke to a congregation that filled the church.

His announcement preceded the sermon. It was as follows:

"My dear brethren,

"In assuming the duties of pastor of St. Mary's parish, I assure you it is with the deep realization of the responsibility that comes with my position. To the priesthood is applied, by the dominant spirit of Catholicity, the words of our Divine Lord—'You have not chosen me, but I have chosen you.' Commissioned by Christ, through the right line of the episcopacy, to 'go and teach,' the priest enters upon his work, and is unquestionably welcomed to his pastorate, as a delegate presenting the credentials of the sacrament of Holy Orders. With delegated jurisdiction and sacerdotal faculties for the proper exercise of spiritual power, through the medium of authority—his bishop—his confidence in his flock, and their trust in him, depend not upon personal qualifications but upon the fact of his priesthood.

"This it is that brings the sense of responsibility to the position I have been sent to fill in St. Mary's parish.

"Vain indeed would be that authority were it ever wielded for aught save the greater glory of God and the edification of a neighbor—to bring souls for whom God's Eternal Son gave up his life, nearer to the Divine Ideal in their living, and creating a standard of citizenship, whose moral excellence would impress all fair minded thoughtful people. This has been the spirit of my remarks to the four different congregations that have crowded this edifice before this mass today. You know wherein I put my trust in you and whence comes your confidence in me. So evident has the spirit of Catholic Christianity in your co-operation with my precedessors that I enter upon my work with reasonable hope of following at least in modest distance the standard of excellence that proceeds me.

"In my labors among you I am fortunate in the fellowship of Father Delehanty and Father Frederici. In the former you have found a zealous priest whose heart is already yours and whom I hope we may keep until permanent honors may come to him."

Father Bogan's theme for his sermon was the authority of the church as it applies to pastoral appointments. The priest, he pointed out, is sent by the constituted authority of the diocese, and the appointment is sufficient credential; the question of loyalty and acceptation on the part of the people is not one to be decided by them—the pastor is sent and they, as faithful members of the church, must accept him who is sent, with no thought of "calling" or rejecting parish heads.

At the 10:30 o'clock mass the ceremony of blessing the palms was gone through. The blessing was followed by a solemn palm procession by the chancel choir and Fathers Delehanty and Frederici, the assistant parish priests. Father Frederici celebrated the mass.

During the day a number of parish members called on Father Bogan at the rectory, to welcome him. In the

COMMUTER HIT BY AN ENGINE

Joseph M. Hawkins Struck by Local Train at North Avenue Station.

SERIOUSLY HURT

Thrown Twenty Feet—Picked Up Unconscious and Taken to Hospital—Woman on Scene Faints.

Joseph M. Hawkins, of 435 East Seventh street, where he lives with his mother and sister, was struck and dangerously hurt by a local train at the North Avenue depot at 6:57 o'clock this morning. He is at Muhlenberg Hospital, in a precarious condition.

Stories of the accident disagree. The railroad people say that Hawkins walked up the track facing the engine, and was hit because he was too absent-minded to notice the train. Onlookers say that the train, coming in close on the heels of a B. and O. flyer, which Hawkins and a number of other commuters tried to board, ran him down because the engineer pulled into the station at a fast clip, without ringing or whistling.

Hawkins, in company with most of the others waiting for the 6:57, were in the station waiting room when a B. and O. train slowed up outside to allow a mailbag to be dropped. The commuters ran out and tried to board the train. They were waved away by the conductor and brakeman, and the train went on almost without pausing. Just as the last car cleared the station the local rode in on the other track, bearing down on a number of the commuters who had but cleared the rails after their failure to catch the flyer. All of them stepped free but Hawkins.

Some of the commuters say that the engineer on the local, although he must have seen the people on the tracks, made no effort to warn them. Whether he did or not, Hawkins was hit squarely by the front of the engine. He was struck on the right side, and whirled through the air for about twenty feet. He landed clear of the track.

Excitement was high among the commuters when the accident occurred. One woman fainted, and the rest of them turned their heads away and screamed.

Hawkins was picked up unconscious. He was carried into the waiting room, and a call for the ambulance was sent in at once. His head and face were cut but his other injuries appeared to be internal. He recovered consciousness before the ambulance arrived.

At the hospital this noon the doctors said the full extent of Hawkins' hurts were unknown, and couldn't be ascertained until examination had been made. They said the examination might be made this afternoon, if he seemed strong enough to stand it. It was to be feared, they said, that his injuries were serious. He was conscious at the time, and resting quietly.

Hawkins is well known around this city and the suburbs through recent connection with the N. Y. and N. J. Telephone Company as collector. He is at present in the employ of the American Banknote Company, of New York. He is a prominent worker in the Park Avenue Baptist church.

WINTER'S BLAST HITS PLAINFIELD

SNOW YESTERDAY AND TODAY GIVES SPRING A SETBACK.

The return of winter's chilling blast yesterday, accompanied by good sized snow flurries and low temperature, is a disappointment to the women who want to wear Easter week bonnets and gowns. Yesterday and today the temperature has been only six and eight degrees above freezing and the weather observers are not surprised at the presence of snow again today.

At 2:10 this afternoon it was still snowing hard. On April 7, 1896, 1 7-10 inches of snow fell, and on April 5, 1898, 2 6-10 inches descended, and literally spring was on the toboggan.

Michael Sabino Missing.

George Sabino, 804 North avenue, reported to the police this morning that his brother, Michael, eighteen years old, has been missing since Friday.

HOSPITAL LOST BEQUEST

Court Upheld Codicil Retracting Lydia Colton's Legacy.

CAVEAT HAD BEEN FILED

Children's Home Got $1,000—Decision Handed Down by Judge Schenck.

A decision of the Somerset County Orphans' Court before Judge Schenck at Somerville, Saturday, following the admission of the will of the late Lydia Colton, of North Plainfield, upholds a codicil she made retracting a $3,000 legacy to Muhlenberg Hospital.

The original document made the bequest but it was taken back in one of two codicil but the court decided that Miss Colton was in her right mind when she made it and that she had the privilege of leaving her money as she wished and to change her mind at any time she pleased.

There were numerous bequests made in the will among them being $1,000 to a church at Kinderhook, N. Y., $1,000 to the Children's Home Association, $3,000 to Mrs. Kate Curried, of Dunellen and others to relatives and friends. The estate is quite a valuable one.

BATCH OF OFFENDERS BEFORE THE CITY JUDGE

FIGHTERS, CRAP SHOOTERS AND D. AND D.'S IN POLICE DRAGNET.

Fred Waldron and Arthur Anderson were fined $5 each for fighting in a Front street trolley car last night, while drunk. Officer Vanderweg was called on the car by the conductor, to quell the disturbers.

Charles Williams, eldest of the old offenders, received his usual dose for the usual jag. Charles will remain sober for the next sixty days in the county jail.

Howard Stewart, John Scrap, Harry Stewart, Joseph Cashin and Harry Morrison were fined $5 each for shooting craps in a wagon on Center street yesterday morning. Patrolmen Higgins raided the game.

Daniel Enright, arrested for drunkenness and disorder, was released under suspended sentence.

Frank Drake will be arraigned tomorrow morning for threatening and cursing Doorman O'Gorman. Drake has been arrested several times, and doesn't like the cops.

BEER WAGON WRECKED IN EXCITING RUNAWAY

TWO MEN THROWN OUT AND HYDRANT SMASHED.

While Peter Trainer, driver, and Peter Blaich, helper, were lifting a box of beer from one of the delivery wagons belonging to Mrs. Lena Heerster, owner of a North Plainfield bottling works, on Cottage place, early Saturday night, the team took fright and bolted. Trainor and Blaich were thrown and the wheels rolled over Blaich's legs. He wasn't hurt worth mentioning. Trainer was bruised.

At Richmond street and North avenue one of the front wheels hit a fire hydrant. The hydrant was smashed, and the wagon broke in two. At Second street the horses ran the pole into a tree, and Officer Nicholas Myers held them. The wagon was badly wrecked.

Thrown From Car.

A Polish maidservant, who said she was employed by David L. Thompson, 18 Rockview terrace, was thrown from a Front street trolley car, near Liberty street, last night, and painfully injured. It is alleged that the car started suddenly while she was in the act of alighting from the platform. She was taken to the home of M. A. Higgins, where Dr. Lufburrow attended her. A carriage from the place where she is employed took her home.

Miss Cole's Birthday Party.

In honor of the thirteenth anniversary of her birthday, Miss Edna Cole, of West Second street, entertained twenty-five of her young friends, Saturday evening. The guests enjoyed musical selections and parlor games after which supper was served.

MRS. HANNAH E. NELSON DEAD

Principal Heir of the C. L. Fair Estate Passes Away Suddenly.

FORTUNE CAME TO HER

Obtained Half a Million Under Settlement of Estate of Her Daughter—Was Seventy-Five Years Old.

Mrs. Hannah E. Nelson, mother of the late Mrs. Charles L. Fair and her principal heir, died at her home in New Market at 1 o'clock this morning, after practically but two days' illness. Though she had been under the care of physicians for the past three years her strength had been steadily gaining and she made several shopping trips to this city last week. She was taken with a weak spell after one of them last Saturday and sank steadily until the end. Her condition was noted in time to summon relatives and her immediate family with one exception was present at the time death came.

Mrs. Nelson was seventy-five years old and was a native of New Market. She was twice married, her first husband being William Smith, the father of Mrs. Fair. Many years ago he suddenly disappeared from New Market and was never afterward heard from. It was reported that he was dead and in course of time Mrs. Smith married again, her second husband being Abram Nelson, now deceased.

In her early life Mrs. Nelson had a hard struggle to maintain her large family and for a long time she was employed as a bushel woman in Dunham's clothing factory, then an important industry at New Market. Her daughter Caroline went West where she met and married Charles L. Fair, son of Senator Fair, the California millionaire, and brother to Mrs. Herman Oelrichs and Mrs. W. K. Vanderbilt. Carrie Smith, as she was always known in New Market, was a strikingly beautiful girl and one who always held her family in the highest esteem. With the riches at her command, she placed her mother in comfortable circumstances, established her brothers in business and provided for the education of her nephews and nieces. She frequently visited her girlhood home and spent a week there just previous to her European trip which ended fatally, she and her husband being killed in an automobile accident near Paris.

A legal dispute arose over the division of the Fair estate, Mr. Fair's relatives claiming that he survived the longest and that his effects belonged to them. Mrs. Fair's people advanced the claim that she had lived the longest, which would have caused her husband's estate to become her's and then revert to them. The case dragged along for a year or more and was finally settled by a compromise. By its terms Mrs. Nelson received about half a million dollars while her children received amounts varying from $60,000 to $200,000.

The surviving relatives are two daughters, Mrs. George Bonnell, of Union; Mrs. Laura Leonard, of Caldwell, and three sons, Charles Smith, of Boulder, Col., Abram G. Nelson, and William B. Smith, of New Market. Mrs. George Whitley, of West Fifth street, who was the favorite niece of Mrs. Fair, is a grand-daughter, her mother having been Mabel Smith.

Charles Smith was the only member of the family away when Mrs. Nelson breathed her last. He has been apprised of her death by telegraph and arrangements for the funeral will not be made until it is known when he can reach New Market.

PAID LAST RESPECTS TO FORMER PATROLMAN

LOCAL DELEGATIONS ATTEND FUNERAL OF LATE GEORGE W. LUNGER.

In the Methodist church at East Whitehouse, Saturday afternoon, funeral services were conducted over the body of George W. Lunger, for seven years a member of the local police force, who died last week after nearly two years illness. They were in charge of Rev. S. B. Booker, pastor of the church, and were attended by a large gathering of relatives and friends, including delegations from the city police department and Perseverance Lodge, No. 74, K. of P. Both of these contributed large floral pieces, the one from the patrolmen being an immense pillow.

The interment was made in the Whitehouse cemetery, where the Pythian burial service was conducted by Chancellor Commander Elmer D. Cutting. The pall bearers were Doorman Thomas McCue and Patrolmen Morris Higgins and Nicholas Myers, from the policemen, and Elmer D. Cutting, Thomas M. Muir and Thomas Osment from Perseverance Lodge. Sergeant Christian Frederickson, Patrolman Arthur McGinley, Patrolman Andrew Haffron and Asa D. Pope acted as flower bearers entering and leaving the church.

This Church Free of Debt.

Yesterday morning, Elder Robert Clark, Jr., representing the Consistory of Trinity Reformed church, read a carefully prepared detailed statement to the congregation, giving the receipts and expenditures for the fiscal year ending April 1. The receipts were between $5,000 and $6,000, and after all bills are paid the church starts its fiscal year with a small balance in the treasury. As regards benevolent contributions Mr. Clark stated that Trinity church and is auxiliaries were doing finely, having contributed $1,615 to foreign and domestic missions during the past year.

Bringing Chadwick Goods East.

The Mrs. Cassie L. Chadwick collection of art treasures and curios, recently purchased by Abram G. Nelson, of New Market, for $35,000, are now being brought to New York. They will be placed on exhibition in the Knickerbocker Art Galleries on West Thirtieth street, in which Mr. Nelson has a half interest after which they will be sold at auction.

Leals, 0; Rutgers, 12.

The Leal's School baseball team met its second defeat on Saturday, when a Rutgers aggregation at New Brunswick, shut them out 12 to 0. Errors on the part of Leal's boys cost them the game.

Miss Leary's Advent.

Jerome W. Leary, proprietor of the Hotel Iroquois, is being showered with congratulations. Yesterday morning Mrs. Leary presented him with a ten pound daughter.

Union Good Friday Service.

The Good Friday Union service will be held at the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church, and various pastors of the city will take part as usual.

—The T. A. B. Society will hold a dance on Easter Monday night.

—Wintry blasts fill the air but spring arrivals of vegetables at Neuman Brothers' continue as usual. Tomorrow's specials include fancy asparagus, green and wax beans, green peas, tomatoes and extra nice strawberries.

$3,200 OFFERING AT CRESCENT AVE. CHURCH

LARGE COLLECTION YESTERDAY FOR CHAPELS' WORK.

The annual offering at the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church for the support of Bethel, Hope and Warren chapels, was made yesterday morning when $3,200 was subscribed. The Session asks for $5,000 and this amount will undoubtedly be raised by gifts and pledges within a short time.

The total cost of carrying on the chapel work amounts to $7,000 and it is the hope of the Session that the year may be started with no deficit.

Obituary.

Mrs. Hannah E. Nelson, mother of the late Mrs. Charles L. Fair and her principal heir, died at her home in New Market at 1 o'clock this morning, after practically but two days' illness. Though she had been under the care of physicians for the past three years her strength had been steadily gaining and she made several shopping trips to this city last week. She was taken with a weak spell after one of them last Saturday and sank steadily until the end. Her condition was noted in time to summon relatives and her immediate family with one exception was present at the time death came.

Mrs. Nelson was seventy-five years old and was a native of New Market. She was twice married, her first husband being William Smith, the father of Mrs. Fair. Many years ago he suddenly disappeared from New Market and was never afterward heard from. It was reported that he was dead and in course of time Mrs. Smith married again, her second husband being Abram Nelson, now deceased.

In her early life Mrs. Nelson had a hard struggle to maintain her large family and for a long time she was employed as a bushel woman in Dunham's clothing factory, then an important industry at New Market. Her daughter Caroline went West where she met and married Charles L. Fair, son of Senator Fair, the California millionaire, and brother to Mrs. Herman Oelrichs and Mrs. W. K. Vanderbilt. Carrie Smith, as she was always known in New Market, was a strikingly beautiful girl and one who always held her family in the highest esteem. With the riches at her command, she placed her mother in comfortable circumstances, established her brothers in business and provided for the education of her nephews and nieces. She frequently visited her girlhood home and spent a week there just previous to her European trip which ended fatally, she and her husband being killed in an automobile accident near Paris.

A legal dispute arose over the division of the Fair estate, Mr. Fair's relatives claiming that he survived the longest and that his effects belonged to them. Mrs. Fair's people advanced the claim that she had lived the longest, which would have caused her husband's estate to become her's and then revert to them. The case dragged along for a year or more and was finally settled by a compromise. By its terms Mrs. Nelson received about half a million dollars while her children received amounts varying from $60,000 to $200,000.

The surviving relatives are two daughters, Mrs. George Bonnell, of Union; Mrs. Laura Leonard, of Caldwell, and three sons, Charles Smith, of Boulder, Col., Abram G. Nelson, and William B. Smith, of New Market. Mrs. George Whitley, of West Fifth street, who was the favorite niece of Mrs. Fair, is a grand-daughter, her mother having been Mabel Smith.

Charles Smith was the only member of the family away when Mrs. Nelson breathed her last. He has been apprised of her death by telegraph and arrangements for the funeral will not be made until it is known when he can reach New Market.

Hobokens, 5; Manhattans, 0.

The Hobokens defeated the Manhattans at Olympic field, New York, yesterday, by a score of 5 to 0. Fenzo and Lamar formed the battery for Hoboken and Waller and Cotter were in the points for Manhattan. Waller was touched for twelve hits.

Pups With the Chicks.

The two mastiff pups that George Giebelhouse, of West Front street, thought were stolen from his place late last week, and so reported to the police, were found the day after their disappearance under an incubator in his chicken house.

POINTS FOR THE BUYERS

Despatch and carefulness mark the work of Henry J. Wierenga, truckman, North avenue. No contract is too big for him to tackle.

Charles Conover & Co., of Elmwood place, have received a large stock of the new wall-papers, foreign and domestic make. An early inspection is advisable.

Besides selling jewelry and silverware that will always give entire satisfaction, J. Hervey Doane is an expert optician and examinations are made free.

Artistic workmanship distinguishes the painting and decorating done by Woolston & Buckle, North avenue. The firm's reputation was built on the finest of fine work.

No woman need bake herself red in the face, and tie herself to the house while the oven does its work, preparing cake, as long as W. W. Warnock is in business. His cake is the right kind. West Front street.

Fine china sets off a dinner table as no amount of decoration can. J. W. Gavett, West Front street, has the finest assortment of artistic china in the city. Prices range in a way to debar nobody from purchasing at Gavett's on the score of purse slimness.

Roth & Co., the East Front street butchers, have the reputation for selling the very best meats, as well as game in season. Every customer is a satisfied one and if you trade with this firm you will get the best in the market. Telephone orders promptly attended to and quick deliveries are made.

The H. E. Gayle Hardware Company carry everything in the hardware line, of the best make and guaranteed to give satisfaction. Builders' materials are also to be had, as well as a full line of kitchen utensils, including carving sets and granite ware. Farming and garden implements a specialty.

The young man in search of new spring finery, or the necessary replenishments of his wardrobe, need not go to New York. As long as Harry Werner, West Front street, is in business, such a trip is foolishness and a waste of time. He carries a stock that is up-to-the-minute and his prices are even a little better than those in most New York stores.

M. Weinberger, the West Front street clothier, is showing the latest styles in spring and summer suits, top coats, hats, men's furnishings, and this is the time to make your selection. A well conducted custom tailoring department is also a feature at this store and if the ready-to wear suits do not please, you can quickly have a suit made to your order.

LITERARY.

Gelett Burgess's novelette, which opens the May number of The Smart Set, will surprise his admirers, for in "The Vistonists" he has entered an entirely new field and produced a story which is not only timely but powerful and absorbingly interesting. He has gone to London for the locale of this tale. The heroine is a young girl who, through force of circumstances, becomes a member of a society of socialists who call themselves "vistonists." Her adventures are wonderfuly exciting and the tragic denouement is unforeseen. This novelette will win new laurels for Mr. Burgess.

—Public Service Corporation is seeking to enter Elizabeth with its trans-State trolley line, through Rahway avenue, after an unsuccessful effort to secure perpetual franchises from Council for the route through Summer street.

—Charles G. Frene, who was employed by the late George Williams at his grocery in Watchung, and who figured in the incidents in connection with the murder of his employer, has left the employ of Mrs Williams to engage in business for himself.

Miss Frances Cuthbertson and Mrs. Nelson Encons, of Philadelphia, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Runyon, of West Fourth street.

ROJESTVENSKY'S AIM
Russia's Hope Rests Upon Victory In Far East.

HEAVY FIRING HEARD OFF NATUNAS

Czar's Naval Chief Pressing Forward With Pluck and Determination to Defeat the Japs or Perish With His Squadron.

LONDON, April 17.—The eyes of the world are centered on Vice Admiral Rojestvensky and his fleet, and gradually something like genuine enthusiasm has been aroused by the Russian admiral's hardihood in sailing straight forward for a combat with the Japanese.

There are many naval experts who do not believe that Vice Admiral Togo will accept the challenge. In their opinion the Japanese will be too prudent in such a crisis to risk the destruction of their fleet.

A Hongkong dispatch reports heavy firing at sea 150 miles north of the Natunas islands.

The North German Lloyd steamship Prinz Heinrich has reported that she had sighted eighteen vessels of the Russian Pacific squadron in Kamrach bay, Cochin China, about 200 miles northeast of Saigon. The steamer did not sight any Japanese warships.

The seven Dutch cruisers reported at Rhio have returned to Batavia.

St. Petersburg dispatches this morning say that Admiral Rojestvensky is steaming toward the island of Formosa with the intention of giving battle to the Japanese.

The admiral's last dispatch was singularly laconic and eloquent. He wired:

"I will not telegraph again before the battle. If I am beaten, you will learn it through Togo. If I defeat him, I will announce it to you."

The message is accepted there as meaning that the Russian admiral seeks victory or death.

The Russian admiralty would not be surprised to learn of skirmishing between scout ships at any moment, and the inauguration of torpedo boat warfare soon is expected. Naval experts express the opinion that Togo was taken completely by surprise when Rojestvensky suddenly appeared at the entrance of the China sea and is now concentrating his widely scattered fleet near the Pescadores, where it is believed the first big sea fight will occur.

Almost a state of siege exists in the Narva quarter at St. Petersburg owing to the suspension of the Putiloff Iron works. Soldiers are stationed inside the works, and Cossacks and police swarm in the surrounding streets. The appearance of the district resembles the scenes witnessed during the disturbances last January.

At Tokyo 30,000 employees of the arsenal paraded in celebration of the fall of Mukden. They visited the palace and cheered the emperor and afterward went to the war and navy departments and cheered the ministers and their staffs.

The Japanese navy department has proclaimed defense zones surrounding the Pescadores, the island of Okinawa in the Loochoo group and the islands of Oshima and Emi, off the province of Osumi. The usual navigation restrictions apply.

Serious disturbances of an anti-semitic character, in which soldiers of the garrison joined, have occurred at Chelyabinsk.

In Orenburg a number of houses have been sacked. Troops have been sent there to restore order.

The following official announcement has been made at Tokyo:

"The force advancing north from Singking, driving the enemy before them, has occupied Yingecheng, thirty-eight miles north of Singking.

"A detachment of the same force, co-operating with cavalry, has also occupied Pachiatzu.

"The enemy's force near Pachiatzu consisted of seven sotnias of cavalry and one battery of artillery.

"They first retreated toward Yingecheng and then came back to Pachiatzu. Finding it occupied, they were thrown into confusion and retreated in great disorder to Tieling pass."

A Sipinghai report says that captured Japanese spies place the numbers of the Japanese army at 400,000 and that the losses at the battle of Mukden are already replaced by drafts from home battalions. Lieutenant Komayasi, one of the spies, calculates that the Japanese losses at Mukden were over 100,000.

Canal Commissioners Confer.

WASHINGTON, April 17.—An all day meeting of the executive committee of the Panama canal commission was held here to discuss the various phases of the canal work, particularly those relating to the duties of the engineer members of the commission. A member of the executive committee said that, while many subjects were under consideration, not much in the way of real news had been developed.

Italy's Thanks to Morgan.

ROME, April 17.—J. Pierpont Morgan of New York was recieved here by Foreign Minister Tittoni, who renewed in the name of his government his thanks for Mr. Morgan's generosity in returning the Ascoli cape. The minister also expressed the high appreciation of the Italian people for the course pursued by Mr. Morgan.

Fell Into Acid Vat.

NEW YORK, April 17.—While alone in the chemical works in Brooklyn where he was employed Theodore Vangrofsk in some manner fell into one of the vats which was partially filled with acid. His lifeless body was found several hours later.

FATHER BOGAN IN CHARGE

afternoon the new rector conducted the Sunday-school service for older children, and went into the meetings of the Immaculate Conception Society, League of the Sacred Heart, and the Temperance Cadets.

With masses, announcements, sermon, visits to the various organizations and calls from his new parishioners, Father Bogan had a busy and a tiring day. But by night time he had met most of his parishioners, young and old, and won their friendship and sympathies. As he frankly told those who came to greet him, he had spent so pleasant a time in the Rahway parish that he regretted leaving it, but he confessed a high appreciation of the honor involved in the appointment to St. Mary's, and the pleasure was increased by the warmth of his welcome.

OBITUARY.

Mrs. Elizabeth Place.

Mrs. Elizabeth Place, wife of Former Mayor Charles Place, of the borough, died Saturday after a long illness. She leaves a married daughter, a resident of Fishkill, N. Y., and Walter Place, who lives in Boston. The body was taken to Newburgh, N. Y., yesterday, where interment was made today.

Mrs. August Krohne.

Mrs. August Krohne, of Jersey City Heights, who lived in this city ten years ago, died yesterday morning after a lingering illness. She is survived by a husband, and five children: Mete, Augusta, Frieda, Charles and August. She was forty-two years old. Mrs. Krohne was a sister-in-law of Mrs. Charles Duvier, of West Fifth street, to whom word of the death was wired a few minutes after it occurred. Mrs. Duvier went to Jersey City Heights as soon as the message was received. Mrs. Krohne was well known in German-American circles here. She will be buried tomorrow afternoon in Jersey City. The funeral will be held at 2 o'clock from the home, 1973 Boulevard. A number of local friends of the family are expected to attend it.

SOCIETY NOTES.

Several local society people will attend the dance to be held at the Middlebrook Country Club, Bound Brook, on April 25.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis H. Borsum, of Woodland avenue, tendered a dinner to a party of friends at their home, Saturday night.

Mrs. Henry P. Talmadge, of Netherwood, gave a luncheon on Friday at Sherry's, New York, for her daughter, Miss Helen Dunbar Talmadge, whose marriage to Daniel Runkle, of West Eighth street, will take place Wednesday, April 26, in the Crescent avenue Presbyterian church.

PERSONAL.

Mr. and Mrs. Owen Smith, formerly of this city, but now of New York, have returned after a visit here.

Miss Minnie Brokaw, of this city, has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Brokaw, of Harlingen.

Prof. Stiles has resigned his position as teacher at Leal's School to accept a similar position in Massachusetts.

Rev. W. C. O'Donnell and family, of Jersey City, who have been visiting relatives here, have returned home.

Charles H. Frost, of Watchung avenue, business manager and part owner of the Courier-News, returns on Thursday from a two weeks' vacation in Canada.

REAL ESTATE ITEMS.

The property of the Isaac Scribner estate in North Plainfield, has been sold by Nelson Y. Dungan, special master, to Lemuel A. Tunison, of Mt. Horeb, for $1,500.

—The large plate glass in the door of Woolston & Buckle's store in North avenue, was broken this morning by the wind blowing the door shut.

PARK GOLF CLUB PLAYERS BEGIN REGULAR SEASON

POINTS SCORED IN THE TWO COMPETITIONS FOR CUPS.

Under the most favorable circumstances the Park Golf Club began its active season on Saturday with play for the President's and Park Golf Club cups, weekly competitions, the former a scratch event, and the latter handicap play. The course was in the pink of condition, it being possible to use all of the putting greens, something unusual for this time of the year.

The course was well filled with players throughout the afternoon, although the number of entries in the two competitions were not so large. Charles B. Morse scored the first three points for the President's cup with the good score of 95, while J. B. Betts finished second with a 98, followed closely by Rev. J. O. McKelvey with a 99, giving him one point. For the other cup, Mr. McKelvey received the first three points, with a gross score of 108. Charles B. Morse won the two points with a score of 110 and S. St. John McCutchen secured the one remaining point with a score of 112.

The best scores returned for the two cups are as follows:

Charles B. Morse, 110, 15—95; J. B. Betts, 127, 29—98; Rev. J. O. McKelvey, 108, 9—99; Charles W McCutcheon, 118, 15—103; S. St. John McCutchen, 112, 9—103.

The regular play at the Plainfield Country Club will not begin until Saturday, April 29, but a large number of players were on the course Saturday, and some good scores were made.

PERSONAL.

Dr. Richard Meidenke, of Watchung, is in Pittsburg on business.

Miss Barbara Peacock, of this city, has been visiting her former home at Rahway.

Mrs. Theodore Marsh, of Hartford, Conn., has returned home after a visit with local friends.

500 DOLLARS

is a fairly large amount of money. How to get it is a question, and how to take care of it after you do get it is another. The way to get it is to save, and deposit a certain sum each month. By allowing the interest to compound semi-annually, the principle is surprisingly increased. We take care of the large and small deposits and pay 3½ per cent. interest.

SUBURBAN NEWS.

DUNELLEN AND VICINITY.

The Presbytery of Elizabeth will begin a two-days' stated session in the Presbyterian church of the borough tomorrow morning. The meeting will be an important one, and clergymen from all over the Presbytery will attend. The feature of the opening service, which will begin at 11 o'clock a. m., will be a sermon by Rev. Dr. I. Aistyne Blauvelt, the retiring moderator. Tomorrow night a highly interesting open meeting will be held, at which Rev. Dr. John Dixon, secretary of the Board of Home Missions, will speak. His address will be followed by one from Dr. Woodbridge O. Johnson, of Ceres, on mission work in the foreign field. The general public may attend the meetings.

Peter Wunderlicht was taken to the county jail at New Brunswick Saturday morning by Constable C. Wesley Blaine, under sentence of ninety days. He was sentenced at a hearing held before Justice VanMinden, Constable Blaine appearing as complainant. Wunderlicht tried to force a quarrel on the constable, for whom he worked at one time, on Thursday night. It is alleged that he made threats of arson and murder, and resisted when Blaine attempted to take him into custody. In sentencing him the justice scored the prisoner roundly.

An Italian giving his name as Antonio Frigeli was painfully injured in a jump from a fast-moving Trenton car on North avenue Saturday morning. Fearing that the car would not stop in Dunellen, he sprang from the platform at the corner of Washington avenue. He fell on his face, and slid along the roadway for a dozen feet. He was dazed and his hands and face were badly scraped and bruised. His hurts were dressed in Dr. Brakeley's office.

M. L. Archibald, of New York, has ordered the buildings and grounds of the Close farm, near Lincoln, which he recently purchased, repaired and renovated for use as a summer residence. The place comprises 150 acres.

Plans for a concert to be given in May were discussed by the Sunshine Society, of Holy Innocents' church, Saturday afternoon. The programme to be presented will be mainly professional.

Henry VanNuis, formerly bartender at the Hotel Nelson, is presiding over the bar at Thomas Brantingham's place on Park avenue, South Plainfield.

Friendship Circle will meet on April 26 at the home of Mrs. Mary Squier.

Michael Moynihan is captain and manager of the Levering & Garrigues team.

Mrs. Mary Squier has returned from a stay with relatives at Wickatunk.

Miss Mellie Maitland has returned from a visit to friends in Newark.

Miss Ethel Case, of Phillipsburg, is visiting Miss Edna Vail.

'PLAINS AND FANWOOD.

It may have been cold but the cranks enjoyed seeing the P. A. C. team defeat the Jersey City Eastern League team at Crescent Oval Saturday afternoon. The opinion of the local cranks favors Manager Daab's team in that series with Westfield. Well the season opened although it could have been a more ideal baseball day.

The Suburban team rolled a match game Saturday night against one of the crack Jersey City bowling teams. The Suburbans were in poor form, the visitors taking two straight games from them very handily. A return game will be played before the regular season closes.

Fred Coverly has sold his hotel business on Jerusalem road to James McLoughlin, who recently sold "The Maples," on South avenue, to a New York party.

Mr. and Mrs. William A. Gere and children, of Brooklyn, have been spending Saturday and Sunday with Mr. Gere's sister, Mrs. Thomas M. Paff, Jr.

Yesterday was most too cold for baseball, only a few of the local followers donned overcoats and journeyed to the game at Elizabethport.

The Epworth League held an interesting weekly meeting last night at the Methodist church. Miss Nellie Hollingsworth led the meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Duncan Munroe have been entertaining Mr. Munroe's sister, Miss Kate Munroe, of Washington street, over Sunday.

Special music was rendered and floral displays made at all the churches yesterday in honor of Palm Sunday.

Mrs. Orbie Price, of Plainfield, has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Hull, of Front street.

That little snow squall which passed through town yesterday morning was only a gentle reminder of the past.

Miss Elsie Cook led an interesting meeting of the B. Y. P. U. held in the church parlors last night.

Miss Evelyn Buckley, of South avenue, spent Saturday and Sunday with her aunt, Miss Susie Pares.

SOUTH PLAINFIELD.

Adelbert B. Tappen went to Amboy today with his doctor to have a consultation with an Amboy physician regarding his right hand which has been gathered and swollen for some time.

William Dayton, a farmer of Piscataway township, is the owner of a young pig born with three legs. This is probably due to the high price of meat.

Miss Emma Faulks visited her sister, Mrs. Harry Tappen, in Plainfield, yesterday.

Mrs. Joseph Eckert and family visited Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Thorne yesterday.

Peter Johnson has been indisposed a few days on account of illness.

GLIMPSE OF HOLLAND AT LOCAL CASINO

WOMEN OF GRACE CHURCH UNDERTAKE THE ENTERPRISE.

Holland in miniature and in all its glory will be seen at the Casino on Saturday, May 6, when the Grace Church Lenten Sewing Class holds its annual affair, which this year takes the form of a Dutch fete. A May pole dance in the afternoon and a first class vaudeville show at night are not the only attractions, for the women of the parish interested in the event have planned to outdo all former efforts and will have unusual things to please the patrons.

Miss VanBoskerok has charge of the silhouette booth and others have been selected to take charge of this and that attraction. A Dutch garden and kitchen, with all the women in the quaint costumes of Queen Wilhemnal's country, will be a feature. Refreshments will be served at small cost.

Among those who are interested in the success of the enterprise, which is undertaken for the benefit of Grace church chapel, are Mrs. Timpson, Mrs. Barnhart, Mrs. Delafield, Mrs. Gilbert, Mrs. Wood, Mrs. Rogers, Mrs. Wilson, Mrs. Drayton and Miss VanBoskerok.

CHRISTIAN FIELD.

Rev. D. M. Stearns will meet the Union Bible class at the Y. M. C. A. hall tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

Rev. Dr. J. A. Chambliss, of the First Baptist church, who has been south, will return home this week and occupy his pulpit on Sunday.

The Sunday-schools of Hope, Warren and Bethel chapels will unite on Easter Sunday with the Crescent Avenue church Sunday-school for the annual union service.

The Reading Circle and Women's Home Missionary Society of the First M. E. church will have a joint meeting at the home of Mrs. James W. Hackson, 118 Crescent avenue, tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock. This meeting will take the place of the missionary society's meeting on May 2, at which time the Elizabeth District annual meeting will be held at Westfield.

ORMONDE'S RIGHT

Carter Handicap at Aqueduct Won by Paget Colt.

ROSEBEN SECOND, LITTLE EM THIRD

Auspicious Opening For Great Stable—Rapid Water Led For a Time, but Weakened—Floral King a Disappointment.

NEW YORK, April 17.—Sydney Paget's four-year-old chestnut colt Ormonde's Right, ridden by William Davis, won the Carter handicap at the opening of the racing season at Aqueduct track from seventeen competitors, carrying 110 pounds and running the seven furlongs in 1:26 4-5, or one-fifth of a second faster than Beldame won the stake last year. Ormonde's Right, coupled with Goldsmith, was at 4½ to 1.

David Johnson's four-year-old gelding Roseben, 113 pounds, was second, beaten by three parts of a length, both the first and second horses finishing to the right of the center of the track. Over on the rail was William Lakeland's four-year-old chestnut mare Little Em, third, separated from the first two by a gap of daylight estimated at five lengths.

Close upon the heels of Little Em followed E. E. Smathers' four-year-old gelding Rapid Water after swerving all over the track and intimidating if not actually impeding several of those behind him. Then came the three-year-olds Bohemia and Sinister, with Emperor of India next. The great disappointment of the race was Floral King, who finished far in the rear after having been crowded out by the rush of several horses from the outside.

The stake was worth $8,320, or $7,220 net, to the winner and marked an auspicious commencement for the great stable trained by A. J. Joyner, who declared before the race to his friends that if Ormonde's Right would run up to his work he would win. The horse wore a muzzle, ample evidence in itself that he is a racer of savage temper, as is recalled by several of his failures last year owing to his erratic conduct during races.

Ormonde's Right was somewhat lucky in winning, because the moment the barrier was released the orange jacket and white cap was always very near the pacemaker, whether that pacemaker was Roseben, Orthodox or Rapid Water, for all were at or near the front for the first five furlongs. A quarter of a mile from the finish the most prominent horse was Rapid Water, but shortly after his backers began to shout lustily that he would win he swerved badly to the right and then ran across to the inside rail.

Then it was that Ormonde's Right became the most formidable foe to Roseben. Fuller, on David Johnson's horse, was whipping and riding to his very best ability, but it was plain that he could not live with Ormonde's Right, and though that horse evinced a desire to bear out a little at the finish it did not approach interference, and Mr. Paget's colors were first past the post, Roseben second, beaten three parts of a length. Little Em was a fair third.

Cincinnati Beaten by Pittsburg.

CINCINNATI, April 17.—The game between Cincinnati and Pittsburg was begun in a snow flurry, with more than 7,000 persons in the stands. Overall, the local team's California pitcher, made his National league debut and lasted only two innings. Chech, who succeeded him, was effective, the runs made off him being due to errors. Wagner was injured in a collision with Clarke in the eighth inning, but continued in the game. Score, 9 to 4.

Altrock Held St. Louis Safe.

CHICAGO, April 17. — Chicago defeated St. Louis here by a score of 5 to 0. The game was fast and errorless. Chicago bunched their hits in the fifth inning, knocking out two three base hits. Altrock was master of the situation and held St. Louis safe. A one handed catch by Wallace of F. Jones' high fly was the feature of the game.

Errors Lost Game to St. Louis.

ST. LOUIS, April 17.—Errors by the home team at critical points lost the game here, the Chicago Nationals winning, 4 to 3. The weather was extremely cold, which accounts for the ragged fielding done by both teams.

Boston Defeated Newark.

NEWARK, N. J., April 17.—The Boston American league defeated the Newark team of the Eastern league in an exhibition game here 6 to 5 after eleven hard fought innings.

Affiliation Plan Rejected.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., April 17.—The proposed plan of affiliation with the Amalgamated Society of Carpenters, an English organization, submitted by the organization after an overwhelming vote in its favor, has been rejected by the Carpenters and Joiners of America by a vote of almost 3 to 1.

Riza Pasha Lost His Guns.

CONSTANTINOPLE, April 17.—News received from Sanaa, Arabia, says that the situation there is precarious, necessitating a new relief expedition owing to General Riza Pasha, aid-de-camp to the sultan, having lost all his guns and stores in recently fighting his way into Sanaa.

Condition of Senator Platt.

WASHINGTON, Conn., April 17.—There was little change in the condition of Senator O. H. Platt, his attending physician stating last night that the patient was resting as comfortably as possible and that he was encouraged at the manner in which he held his strength.

Corporation Notice.

Notice is hereby given that the following Ordinance has been introduced before the Common Council, read the second time and ordered engrossed preparatory to its third reading, and that it is the intention of the Council to adopt the same.

J. T. MACMURRAY, City Clerk.
Plainfield, N. J., April 14, 1905.

AN ORDINANCE

for the Assessment of Taxes for the Year 1905.

The Inhabitants of the City of Plainfield, by their Common Council, do enact as follows:

Section 1. That pursuant to the statutes and ordinances and resolutions in such cases made and provided, there shall be assessed and raised by tax for the year nineteen hundred and five, for the general purposes of said City, exclusive of School, Library, Poor, Fire and State and County taxes, the sum of Forty-Nine Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($49,500), (This sum includes the sum of Twenty-Nine Thousand Two Hundred Dollars ($29,200), to be raised by general tax for street improvements); for the expense for said year for lighting the public streets and places in said City, as ascertained and determined by resolution of the Common Council and certified to the Assessors of said City, the sum of Thirteen Thousand Eight Hundred Dollars ($13,800); for the principal of such sewer bonds (except obligations payable out of assessments and temporary obligations) as may mature during the ensuing fiscal year, under and by virtue of the Act of the Legislature, entitled "An Act to provide for drainage and sewerage in cities in this State," approved April 7, 1890, and the several amendments thereof and supplements thereto, and proceedings had and taken thereunder in said City, and principal of sewer note maturing during said year under Chapter 33, P. L. 1893, being a supplement to said Act, the sum of Four Thousand Dollars ($4,000); for interest on the obligations of the City issued under said last mentioned Acts, the sum of Six Thousand Four Hundred Dollars ($6,400); for the support of the City Poor, the sum of Six Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($6,500), (included in the last named sum is the sum of One Thousand Dollars for the purpose of supporting and maintaining such indigent patients as may be sent to Muhlenberg Hospital by order of the City Physician, Overseer of the Poor, or other proper authority of the City, pursuant to Chapter LXXVI, P. L. 1886, payable December 31, 1905, pursuant to the contract between said Muhlenberg Hospital and the City); for the maintenance of the Public Library and Reading Room, the sum of Four Thousand Seven Hundred Dollars ($4,700); for the maintenance of a Fire Department, to be under the control and government of said City, the sum of Twenty-Five Thousand Dollars ($25,000); for interest on School Bonds authorized under City Ordinance, to fall due during the said year, the sum of Thirty-Seven Hundred Dollars ($3,700); for principal falling due May 2nd, 1905, of bond issued for purchase of land for garbage disposal purposes under Chapter XL of the laws of 1895 and supplement thereto, Seven Hundred Dollars ($700); and in addition to the foregoing, a license fee of Two Dollars ($2) to be paid by the owner of every dog within the City of Plainfield.

An Ideal Location

Rosedale and Linden Park Cemeteries

LARGEST IN THE STATE
LINDEN, N. J.

Beautiful and Accessible

2 Miles from Elizabeth, 7 Miles from Newark,
14 MILES FROM NEW YORK
On Main Line Pennsylvania Railroad

Why Lots in these Cemeteries commend themselves to Heads of Families and Investors

BECAUSE of the $1,000,000 Trust Fund provided for by the Trustees in each Cemetery, the income from which will keep the properties perpetually beautiful at NO EXPENSE TO LOT OWNERS.

BECAUSE such a guarantee, not found in any other cemetery, assures lot owners that the grounds WILL BE MAINTAINED PERMANENTLY AS BEAUTIFUL PARKS AFTER THE INCOME FROM THE SALE OF LOTS HAS BEEN EXHAUSTED.

LOTS SHOULD BE PURCHASED NOW

BECAUSE MORE ADVANTAGES ARE OFFERED TO LOT BUYERS in a new Modern Park Cemetery than in those established many years and, in most cases, no provision made for perpetual care without extra expense to lot owners. THERE ARE A GREATER NUMBER OF IDEAL LOCATIONS TO SELECT FROM, PRICES OF LOTS ARE ALWAYS LOWER AND TERMS MORE ADVANTAGEOUS.

BECAUSE life is most uncertain and EVERY ONE SHOULD ANTICIPATE THE INEVITABLE BY MAKING A CHOICE NOW OF A FINAL RESTING PLACE.

LOTS WILL PROVE A GOOD INVESTMENT

BECAUSE they are sure to increase in value and can be purchased NOW at the INITIAL, or LOWEST PRICE and upon the most ADVANTAGEOUS TERMS.

BECAUSE the properties are ACCESSIBLE TO 4,000,000 PEOPLE, and considering the RAPID GROWTH OF GREATER NEW YORK and its TRIBUTARY CITIES and TOWNS, it is only a question of a SHORT TIME when LOTS in ROSEDALE and LINDEN PARK will EQUAL IN VALUE those of our MOST NOTED cemeteries.

FOR INFORMATION concerning lots in these beautiful Park Cemeteries, and FREE transportation to prospective lot buyers, apply at once to any LEADING UNDERTAKER or offices of the Associations:

SAD DEATHS AT PHILADELPHIA.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Heck, Jr., Found Dead From Asphyxiation.

PHILADELPHIA, April 17.—Louis Heck, Jr., musical director of Keith's Chestnut Street theater, and his wife, known on the vaudeville stage as May Belle Eckert, were found asphyxiated by gas in the bedroom of their flat at Carlisle and Lombard streets, this city. Two burners of a chandelier in the room were turned on. Whether the couple had deliberately planned to end their lives together or whether their death was an accident has not yet been definitely determined, but the coroner last night was inclined to believe they died through accident.

The finding of the bodies was attended by rather sad circumstances. T. W. Eckert of San Francisco, the father of the dead woman, and his wife who are on the vaudeville stage and who had completed an engagement in New York and were to appear in Washington next week, had planned to dine last evening with his daughter and her husband. They were to have been met at the Pennsylvania railroad station on their arrival from New York by Mr. and Mrs. Heck. Failing to meet them at the station, Mr. and Mrs. Eckert went to the house, and the finding of the bodies of the daughter and son-in-law followed. Mrs. Heck's body was found lying on a couch. The body of the husband was on the floor in a sitting posture, with the head resting on the body of the wife. The coroner's physician said Mrs. Heck had been dead about sixteen hours.

Mr. and Mrs. Heck were married about five years ago and were much devoted to one another. They were well known in vaudeville, having traveled as a musical team under the name of Eckert and Heck.

LABOR RIOT AT LIMOGES.

Haviland China Factory Pillaged and Motor Car Destroyed.

LIMOGES, France, April 17.—The strike of employees in the porcelain industry here is assuming great proportions. Eight thousand strikers, carrying red and black flags, surrounded the leading porcelain factories, breaking windows and doors, the Haviland factory was pillaged and Mr. Haviland's motor car was burned. The rioters plundered a gunsmith's shop and erected street barricades. Many officials have been injured.

A representative of the Haviland concern went to Paris and interviewed the minister of the interior, who ordered re-enforcements of troops to be sent here. In the meantime the strikers exploded a package of cartridges before the house of the manager of the Haviland works without, however, causing much damage.

MISS POSSERN'S BODY.

While Constable Seized Household Goods Girl Drowned Herself.

PHILADELPHIA, April 17.—The mystery surrounding the death of the woman whose body was found in Wissahickon creek, Fairmount park, on Friday, was cleared up when the woman's body was identified as that of Miss Hilda C. Possern by her sister. She had committed suicide by drowning.

The sister said that she and her sister were alone and that the recent action of the war department in giving the sewing work at the Schuylkill arsenal, where they had been employed, to contractors their earnings had been greatly reduced. Their rent fell due, and on Friday a constable seized their household goods. While the constable was in the house Hilda left the place and was not again seen alive.

"People Call Him a Robber."

NEW HAVEN, Conn., April 17.—The Rev. Artemus J. Haynes, pastor of the United Congregational church of this city, preached a sermon here yesterday on the Rockefeller gift, using as a text the words from St. Matthew relating to Christ's casting out the money changers from the temple. In the case of Rockefeller and the Standard Oil company he declared that this was no time to wait for courts, for legislatures and for churches, which could all be bought up, but to trust the moral sense of the plain people, who call Rockefeller a robber.

Girl Murdered by Negroes.

LITTLE FALLS, Minn., April 17.—There is great excitement here over the discovery of the dead body of Annie Kintop in the woods about four miles from this city. The body was entirely stripped of clothing, a handkerchief was tightly twisted about her neck and the head was a mass of bruises. Two negroes were seen in the vicinity of where the body was found, and search is being made for them.

Americans at the Vatican.

ROME, April 17.—Pope Pius X received in the hall of the consistory 150 Americans, including General Jacob S. Smith and wife, Albert Boardman and family of New York, Mrs. M. D. Walsh, E. Dietrich, B. F. Shriver of Baltimore, Miss Kraleigh, Mrs. J. G. Fitzpatrick and family of New York and Miss Emmet of New York.

King Edward at Algiers.

ALGIERS, April 17.—King Edward and Queen Alexandra have arrived here on board the British royal yacht Victoria and Albert. The French and British men-of-war in the harbor saluted the royal yacht, and visits were exchanged with the governor.

Sudden Death at Kingston.

KINGSTON, N. Y., April 17.—A man believed to be H. C. Scriver of New York city was stricken with apoplexy while sitting in the office of the Eagle hotel here and died at the City hospital immediately after being taken there. He was about fifty years of age.

Kate Bonnet.

The Romance of a Pirate's Daughter

By FRANK R. STOCKTON

Copyright, 1902, by D. Appleton & Co., New York.

The captain of the Belinda was very willing to make a profitable voyage back to Jamaica, but his vessel must be well laden before he could do this. Goods enough there were at Belize for that purpose, for Blackbeard's supplies were all for sale, and his chief clerk, Bonnet, had the selling of them. So, all parties being like-minded, the Belinda soon began to take on goods for Kingston.

The very next morning there came a letter from Stede Bonnet to his daughter Kate, in which he told her that it was absolutely impossible for him to return to the humdrum and stupid life of sugar-planting and cattle-raising. Having tasted the glories of a pirate's career, he could never again be contented with plain country pursuits. So he was off and away, the bounding sea beneath him and the brave Jolly Roger floating over his head. He would not tell his dear daughter where he was gone or what he intended to do, for she would be happier if she did not know. He sent her his warmest love, and desired to be most kindly remembered to her uncle and to Dame Charter. He would make it his business that a correspondence should be maintained between him and his dear Kate, and he hoped from time to time to send her presents which would help her to know how constantly he loved her.

Kate had never fainted in her life, but when she had finished this letter she went down flat on her back.

Leaving his niece to the good offices of Dame Charter, Mr. Delaplaine, breathing hotly, went ashore, accompanied by the captain. When they reached the storehouse they found it locked, with the key in the custody of a shop-keeper near by. They soon heard what had happened to Blackbeard's business agent. He had gone off in a piratical vessel, which had sailed for somewhere, in the middle of the night; and, moreover, it was believed that the Scotchman who worked for him had gone with him, for he had been seen running towards the water, and afterward taking his place among the oarsmen in a boat which went out to the departing vessel.

"May that unholy vessel be sunk as soon as it reaches the open sea!" was the deadly desire which came from the heart of Mr. Delaplaine. But the wish had not formed itself into words before the good merchant recanted. "I totally forgot that faithful Scotchman," he sighed.

CHAPTER XXIII.

DICKORY STRETCHES HIS LEGS.

THERE were jolly times on board the swift ship Revenge as she sped through the straits of Florida on her way up the Atlantic coast. The skies were bright, the wind was fair, and the warm waters of the gulf stream helped to carry her bravely on her way. But young Dickory Charter ate so little, tossed about so much in his berth, turned so pale and spoke so seldom, that the bold Capt. Blackbeard declared that he should have some medicine.

"I shall not let my fine lieutenant suffer for want of drugs," he cried, "and when I reach Charles Town I shall send ashore a boat and procure some; and if the citizens disturb or interfere with my brave fellows, I'll bombard the town. There will be medicine to take on one side or the other, I swear." And loud and ready were the oaths he swore.

A pirate who carries with him an intended son-in-law is not likely, if he be of Blackbeard's turn of mind, to suffer all his family plans to be ruined for the want of a few drugs.

An island with palm trees slowly rose on the horizon, and off this island it was that, after a good deal of tacking and close-hauling, the Revenge lay to to take in water, far better water than that which had been brought from Belize.

"Do you want to go ashore in the boat, boy?" said Blackbeard, really mindful of the health of this projected member of his family. "It may help your appetite to use your legs."

Dickory did not care to go anywhere, but he had hardly said so when a revulsion of feeling came upon him, and turning away so that his face might not be noticed, he said he thought the land air might do him good. While the men were at work carrying their pails from the well-known spring to the water barrels in the boat, Dickory strolled about to view the scenery, for it could never have been expected that a first lieutenant in uniform should help to carry water. At first the scenery did not appear to be very interesting, and Dickory wandered slowly from here to there, then sat down under a tree. Presently he rose and went to another tree, a little farther away from the boat and the men at the spring. Here he quietly took off his shoes and his stockings, and, having nothing else to do, made a little bundle of them, listlessly tying them to his belt; then he rose and walked away somewhat briskier, but not in the direction of the boat. He did not hurry, but even stopped sometimes to look at things, but he still walked a little briskly, and always away from the boat. He had been so used, this child of outdoor life, to going about the world barefooted, that it was no wonder that he walked briskly, being relieved of his encumbering shoes and stockings.

After a time he heard a shout behind him, and turning saw three men of the boat's crew upon a little eminence calling to him. Then he moved more quickly, always away from the boat, and with his head turned he saw the men running towards him, and their shouts became louder and wilder. Then he set off on a good run, and presently heard a pistol shot. This he knew was to frighten him and make him stop, but he ran faster and soon turned the corner of a bit of woods. Then he was away at the top of his speed, making for a jungle of foliage not a quarter of a mile before him. Shouts he heard, and more shots, but he caught sight of no pursuers. Urged on even as they were by the fear of returning to the ship without Dickory, they could not expect to match, in their heavy boots, the stag-like speed of this barefooted bounder.

After a time Dickory stopped running, for his path, always straight away, so far as he could judge, from the landing-place, became very difficult. In the forest there were streams, sometimes narrow and sometimes wide, and how deep he knew not, so that now he jumped, now he walked on fallen trees.

HIS BODY HELD.

Another Chapter Opened In Miller 520 Per Cent Swindle.

NEW YORK, April 17.—By the discovery of the body of Edward Schlesinger in a vault in Ostend, Belgium, where it was being held for the non-payment of physicians' bills, and the subsequent discovery that $170,000 in cash and securities that had belonged to Schlesinger had been taken from a safe deposit box in Brussels by his relatives, another interesting chapter in the 520 per cent Miller syndicate is given to the world.

This latest feature in the story of the gigantic swindle of 1899 will be told in the United States district court next Friday, when Solomon Schlesinger, the dead man's brother, and Esther S. Blake, his mother, will appear before Judge Thomas in New York on an order to show cause why they should not turn over all moneys and securities recently obtained from Belgium to the depositors who lost their money in the Miller syndicate.

This action is brought through John B. Lord, trustee in bankruptcy of the Miller syndicate, and most of the work of tracing Schlesinger and finding the fortune was done by T. Ellett Hodskin, a lawyer of 20 Nassau street, who has been at work on the case as Mr. Lord's counsel for more than four years.

The story of Schlesinger's flight, as it is told in the many affidavits in the case, reads like fiction. Edward Schlesinger was a partner of William F. Miller in the enterprise by which hundreds of persons were swindled. On the morning of Nov. 24, 1899, when the Miller syndicate collapsed, Schlesinger disappeared with a handbag which was said to contain $150,000 of the syndicate's money and $25,000 belonging to William F. Miller. It was said Schlesinger had fled to Europe, and detectives could not find him. Miller, the head of the concern, after a long trial, was convicted and sentenced to a long term in prison, and last February his sentence was commuted by Governor Higgins. Robert A. Ammon, who acted as attorney for the concern, is still in prison.

LABOR AND THE TRUSTS.

Bishop of Buffalo Says War Will Be the Outcome.

WATERTOWN, N. Y., April 17.—Bishop Joseph Berry of Buffalo, presiding officer of the northern New York conference of the Methodist Episcopal church, in session here, preached the conference sermon yesterday, in the course of which he said:

"In our country there are two great armies fighting for supremacy, the army of the trusts on one side and the army of labor on the other. This is bringing about industrial, commercial and social conditions which will certainly throw us into a war unless some one steps in to prevent it. The trusts are crying for monopoly and oppression of labor and more money. The unions are crying death to monopoly, drive out the trusts, more wages and shorter hours. Both are fighting for the same thing—'self.'"

Negro Killed Marshal of Pretoria.

ALBANY, Ga., April 17.—John Manier, marshal of Pretoria, Ga., was shot and almost instantly killed late at night by Pete Thomas, a negro. Thomas had been creating some disorder, his conduct finally becoming such that the officer approached him with the intention of placing him under arrest. When ordered to throw up his hands Thomas replied by shooting. The negro was wounded and captured later. He made the statement to the officer who arrested him that Manier was the sixth man whose life he had taken.

Snow and Cold In the South.

CHARLOTTE, N. C., April 17.—News from the North Carolina trucking belt is that the decided fall in temperature has alarmed growers. The weather bureau predicts frost, and if the wind subsides it is likely to prove true. The bean crop will likely suffer most, while the strawberry crop, which is just beginning to be picked, will not be injured much save to delay ripening to some extent. A lively fall of snow for a few minutes is reported from Mooresville, thirty miles north of this city.

Head-on Collision at Tonawanda.

NORTH TONAWANDA, N. Y., April 17.—In a head-on collision between two freight trains on the Erie railroad Herbert Wrigley of Buffalo and W. L. Brown of West Philadelphia were killed. Wrigley was a fireman on one train and Brown the fireman on the other. They were killed instantly. Engineers W. J. Kelley and T. T. Ellis jumped and thus saved their own lives, though Kelley suffered a fracture of his left leg and Ellis hurt his right hand.

Master Plumber Killed at Watertown

WATERTOWN, N. Y., April 17.—Benjamin G. Sutton, aged forty-five, a master plumber, is dead, and William H. Richards, a contractor, is in a critical condition in the hospital here as the result of the collapse of a scaffolding upon which the men were working at the height of fifty feet Saturday. David Kitts, who was on the staging, escaped with only slight injuries.

Veteran Fireman Dead at Catskill.

CATSKILL, N. Y., April 17.—Thomas F. Botsford, aged fifty-seven years, a member of the village board of trustees and prominent in the Knights of Pythias, is dead here. Mr. Botsford had been a member of the volunteer firemen for thirty-five years.

LONDON, April 17.—Maxine Elliott on arriving in London was chagrined to find that the scenery for her play had been accidentally left behind in New York. This will compel her to postpone her opening here till April 25.

KILLED GAME BEFORE MAKING CAMP

Usual Luck of President Holds Good In Colorado Mountains—His Rifle Good For Six Hundred Pounds of "Bar" Meat.

NEWCASTLE, Colo., April 17.—The president and his hunting party reached here on Saturday.

When the train pulled into the depot the president, dressed in his shooting clothes of heavy tan duck, greeted the people from the rear platform. He was cheered wildly. After a speech was made and conventionalities had been observed the president gave personal supervision to his hunting outfit. The horse selected for the president to ride to camp was white and is said to be one of the surest footed mountain climbers in Colorado, but it is not noted for speed.

Before starting the president announced that he was not going to struggle hand to hand with a grizzly bear or strangle any mountain lions with bare hands. He does not expect to bag a record breaking amount of game and will feel satisfied if he gets one bear during the whole hunt. His rapid firing rifle was exhibited with great pride as a protection he will constantly keep between himself and danger.

With his usual luck the president killed his first bear before he got to his camp. When fifteen miles out from the hunting camp the dogs struck a bear trail, and the president insisted upon going after bruin.

Within half an hour the dogs had overtaken the bear. The president dismounted and, after waiting in order to avoid hitting the dogs, pumped several shots into the badly fagged bear, killing him.

It was a cinnamon bear, weighing about 600 pounds. Goff skinned the animal, and the party finally succeeded in reaching camp about 5 o'clock.

A parade had been planned at Newcastle, but it did not take place. It had been arranged to form a procession, led by a miners' brass band, a caged bear and the president's party on horseback. This pageant was to pass through the village streets and into the hills, where the bear was to be turned loose and given a start of thirty minutes.

The State Humane society broke up the plans on the ground that the bear might return to the village and harm children, as it had been caged so long that it was vicious. After the humane society had interfered the captors of the bear tried to sell it to the president's guides, but they said they would take their game wild, as domesticated animals had no attractions for the president.

There is a telephone about four miles from the president's camp, but the owner has discouraged its use as a means of sending out news of the hunt. Secretary Loeb and other members of the president's party, who have headquarters at the Hotel Colorado, took a long horseback ride, visiting Devereaux ranch, west of Glenwood. They also swam in the hot springs pool, with icy rain falling on their heads and snow falling heavily on the surrounding mountain tops.

Volunteers Get Out Dynamite.

WAMPUM, Pa., April 17. — Volunteers at a fire here at the risk of their lives removed a large quantity of dynamite stored in the rear of Stiglitz's store, which was burned. Had it exploded many lives would have been lost. The flames started in Stiglitz & Wechsler's pants factory, a wooden building, and was caused, it is believed, by the explosion of a gasoline stove. A strong wind soon spread the flames to Stiglitz's general store, the residence of Mr. Wechsler and some tenement houses, all of which were destroyed. The loss will reach $60,000.

Roosevelt to Go to Ocean Grove.

NEW YORK, April 17.—With the president of the United States as the chief guest and leading educators from all sections of the United States among the speakers, the next general session of the National Educational association, which will be held in Asbury Park and Ocean Grove, N. J., July 3 to 7, promises to be the most notable in the association's history. President Roosevelt will be the principal speaker on the last day.

Celebrates at 105 Years.

UTICA, N. Y., April 17. — Hiram Cronk of the town of Ava, the only survivor of the war of 1812, will celebrate his one hundred and fifth birthday on Wednesday, April 19. The aged veteran lives with his daughter, Mrs. Sarah A. Rowley, on a farm on the outskirts of Ava. He enjoys splendid health for a man of such years, and his faculties are as keen as those of many people half his age.

William Livsey Dead at Detroit.

DETROIT, Mich., April 17.—William Livsey, who served three terms as state treasurer of Pennsylvania, is dead here from apoplexy after six weeks' illness, aged seventy-two years. He came to Detroit from Pittsburg five years ago to be near his only son. Mr. Livsey was born in England and was a veteran of the Crimean war and also served in the Union army during the civil war.

James I. Raymond Ill at Stamford.

STAMFORD, Conn., April 17. — James I. Raymond, a prominent New York business man, is lying dangerously ill at his home here. He suffered an attack of appendicitis a short time ago and underwent an operation which left him in a critical condition.

SPORTING NEWS.

DIAMOND DUST.

The Y. M. C. A. baseball candidates will hold an organization meeting tomorrow night.

Jimmie Montross has signed to pitch this season for the Peekskill, N. Y., team, where he expects to make good.

The Rahway Field Club will open its regular season Saturday, with the Clifton A. C., of Newark. The Rahwegians are scheduled to play here Saturday, July 8

Westfield will open its baseball season Saturday with the Seventh Regiment team. The other dates announced are April 29, Summit; May 6, Matawan; May 18, New York Colored Giants.

The Morristown-Chatham Athletic Association, of Morristown, has filed articles of incorporation at Trenton. The association is a member of the newly organized Lackawanna Baseball League.

The Athletic Association, of High Bridge, has been organized for the season, and Manager Devlin is now hustling to get his team signed. The Philadelphia Giants are scheduled to play at High Bridge, August 8.

Charles A. Dixon, official scorer for the Plainfield Baseball Association, and Walter C. Dobbins, of The Daily Press, have the score-card privilege at Crescent Oval, this season. It is an attractive eight page pamphlet, the title cover of which was sketched by Mr. Dixon. The aim will be to publish the correct batting order at each game through the season.

N. P. H. S. WINS.

Defeats Somerville High School by Score of 6 to 4 on Saturday.

The North Plainfield High School baseball team began its season Saturday at Somerville by defeating the crack Somerville High School team by the score of 6 to 4. The game was won by the steady batting of the borough boys and Peacock's superb pitching. In the nine innings he struck out ten of the Somerville batters and allowed but four hits. Van Arsdale's batting was a feature, he making three hits out of four times at bat. Webster, Cullom and Captain Jackson excelled in the field for the borough team.

At the annual conference of the Y. M. C. A. committees held at the association building Saturday night, Secretary Manning spoke on the shop meetings that are held in different plants every noon; Physical Director Henckel spoke of the work in his department; Boys' Secretary Robbie reported on his department and the membership work; G. M. Rittenhouse reported on the Sunday afternoon meetings; W. D. Murray spoke on the trade paper, "Association Men;" Stephen Caboone spoke on the aid extended to foreign mission work; State Secretary E. W. Hearne spoke on foreign work; and E. T. Colton, one of the foreign secretaries, spoke on the same subject.

PERSONAL.

Harry Benton, of Bayone, visited friends here over Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Theodore Mantz, of Richmond street, is ill with a severe attack of the grip.

Mrs. A. F. Baker, of West Fourth street, who has been very ill, is slightly improved.

Miss Flora Campbell of Woodbridge, is visiting Miss Anna Smalley, of Manning avenue. She is a teacher in the public school at Woodbridge.

Will Attend Meeting of Classis.

Rev. Dr. Cornelius Schenck, pastor of Trinity Reformed church, and Rev. G. H. Sneegas, pastor of the German Reformed church, on Craig place, will attend the spring meeting of the Classis of Newark, to be held at Brookdale on Wednesday. Elders Philip Bach and A. L. Force will accompany their pastors as delegates, elected by the Consistory of their respective churches.

"Feet Washing" Needless.

Rev. Dr. E. E. Jackson, pastor of Mount Olive Baptist church, delivered a strong sermon last night, on the needlessness of "feet washing" as the beginning of religious gain. The pastor was pointed in his remarks and in all probability were aimed at a colored sect which recently located in the city and called for "feet washing" as a basis of faith.

Eighty-Two Deaths at This Fire.

Through an overheated lamp the large incubator at the home of Horace J. Martin, on Marion avenue, was set on fire Saturday night, destroying the apparatus and killing eighty-two little chicks. Only a short time before Mr. Martin's son visited the incubator and everything was apparently all right.

Removing Small Building.

A force of men began work this morning, tearing down the building at Somerset street and Craig place but up recently by Dr. Pittis. As much of the material as can be used will be kept by Dr. Pittis for other building operations which he has in contemplation.

An Easter Service.

An informal Easter service of the primary department was held at the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church, under the direction of the superintendent, W. D. Murray. Simple exercises were arranged for the children and Mr. Murray gave a talk.

Somerset Grand Jury Tomorrow.

The April term of the Somerset County Court will open at Somerville tomorrow. It will be one of the most important sessions of recent years.

HYDE DENIES.

Vice President Admits Repaying $12,000 and $61,446 Conditionally.

NEW YORK, April 17.—Over his signature and in a letter addressed to Henry C. Frick, chairman of the investigating committee of seven of the Equitable Life Assurance society, James Hazen Hyde has absolutely denied that he had made restitution of $122,000 as his share of the profits of various syndicates of which he had been a member with others of the board of directors of the Equitable.

No denial is made by Mr. Hyde that he has paid into the Equitable's exchequer $12,000, the amount of the disbursement for the banquet of Jules Cambon, former ambassador from France to the United States. As the banquet was for the purpose of influencing certain legislation, the expense was charged to the Equitable's "advertising account." When the storm broke between the Alexander and Hyde factions the Cambon dinner became ammunition for the anti-Hyde forces, although it was pointed out that there were five members of the Alexander family at the dinner to the then French ambassador and that each of James W. Alexander's relatives had personal friends at the board.

In addition to the $12,000 Mr. Hyde admits that he has given his personal check for $61,446 into the keeping of the Equitable society's cashier, Mr. Murray, until the question is decided whether the Equitable is entitled to the money or whether it is the rightful property of Mr. Hyde.

Mr. Frick, interviewed in Boston last night, refused to discuss the letter addressed to him by Vice President James H. Hyde.

A PEACE CONFERENCE.

Senator Chandler Says, "Slavery Is Ended, Why Not War?"

WASHINGTON, April 17.—Senator Chandler of New Hampshire presided and was the principal speaker at a peace conference held under the auspices of the Washington branch of the Green Acre Fellowship association. Mr. Chandler was rather pessimistic in regard to the prospects of international peace. He discussed the question in its various aspects and in conclusion said:

"My life has not been spent where there was universal agreement. I have been used to differences of opinion such as are to be found in political societies such as rule the states of mankind more than international councils and Green Acres.

"It is through struggle and argument and controversy that the world moves on. When I began I was pessimistic, but I am not hopeless. I have learned too much to disbelieve in the future. In my lifetime I saw slavery destroyed and Cuba and the Philippines freed. The labors of good men and women to put an end to war may not be fruitless. It is not more hopeless than the growth of humanity. If slavery was abolished in the nineteenth century, why should not war be abolished in the twentieth century?"

Bail For Mrs. Chadwick.

CINCINNATI, April 17.—Mrs. Cassie L. Chadwick, who has been convicted and sentenced to prison for ten years on procuring money by false pretenses, was admitted to bail in the sum of $5,000. United States Circuit Court Judge Lurton, after consultation with the other judges of the circuit, granted the application for bail pending appeal proceedings, which are to come up next October before the United States circuit court of appeals. Judge Wing, counsel for Mrs. Chadwick, said it was not yet certain whether the amount of the bond could be secured by Mrs. Chadwick, nor could he tell how soon the papers in the appeal could be filed.

Had a $5,000 Check to Cash.

TRENTON, N. J., April 17.—The police here are looking for a man who came to Trenton several days ago and representing himself as Max Miller of Tyrone, Pa., and a man of means. The stranger exhibited two bank books and claimed to have $11,000 on deposit in Tyrone. He presented a check bearing the name of Max Miller for $5,000 to the First National bank here and asked to have it cashed. The bank refused and would only take the check for collection. The bank has received word that the real Max Miller had not been out of Tyrone and asking that the stranger be arrested. Meanwhile the man had decamped.

Young Man Shot by Negroes.

COVINGTON, Ga., April 17.—News was received here of a tragedy near Broughton, a station on the Central railroad east of Covington. Kelsey Cranford, white, twenty-two years old, accompanied by his younger brother, Walter, while walking along the public road was fired upon by four unknown negroes. Twelve shots were fired. The elder Cranford was killed outright, and Walter Cranford received the contents of one load of buckshot in his left arm. He outran the assassins and gave the alarm.

Ambassador White at Quirinal.

ROME, April 17.—Henry White, the new American ambassador to Rome, was received in audience by King Victor Emmanuel at the Quirinal and presented his letters of credence. After the presentation King Victor Emmanuel engaged Mr. White in a cordial conversation which lasted half an hour.

GRAND JURY IS INVESTIGATING

North Plainfield Fistic Battle Aired at Somerville Today.

THE JUDGE'S CHARGE

Prominent Men of City and Borough Tell What They Know of the Athletic Entertainment in Saengerbund Hall.

Somerset County's grand jury today spent its time in investigating the facts concerning the "musical and athletic entertainment" which took place in North Plainfield some weeks ago and a large number of witnesses, including officials of the city and borough told their version of the boxing bout affair which was held in Saengerbund Hall by the "Shamrock Social Club," a mushroom organization.

Justice Garretson charged the grand jury that if the statute relative to prize fights had been violated, not only those promoting the fistic battle but every man witnessing it could be indicted and severely punished. The law in question says:

"That every person who shall be engaged in any fight or combat, with fists, commonly denominated prize fighting, whether such fight or combat be for money or any other valuable thing, or merely to test the skill of the combatants, and every person who shall be aiding, abetting or assisting in any way, or any person who shall be present at any such fight, shall be deemed guilty of a high misdemeanor and on conviction shall be punishable by imprisonment for two years or by a fine not exceeding $500, or both."

As soon as the grand jury retired for its work, the investigation was commenced and among the first witnesses were Plainfield newspaper men who had witnessed the bout and reported it for their papers. They had been subpoenaed to tell what they knew. Among the others who responded to the subpoenaes served by Detective Totten at the instigation of Prosecutor Griggs and his successor Prosecutor Reger were Mayor Newton B. Smalley, of North Plainfield, who issued the permit; Mayor James F. Buckle, of this city; Chief of the Fire Department Howard Woolston, of North Plainfield; Chief of the Fire Department T. O. Deane, of this city; Chief Marshal George Weiss, of North Plainfield; E. W. Westcott, Factory Inspector Andrew McCardell, Peter Deeley, E. P. T. Smith, Frank Denckla, Edward Terry, Jerome W. Leary, Dr. Lawrence Mundy J. B. McClintock, Clarence Teel, George Gaddis, David J. Carney, Peter A. Emmons and George Carroll, of Elizabeth.

There were several others who witnessed the fight but they did not respond to the subpoenas and what action the grand jury will take in their case is not known.

WEST 4TH STREET, SITE FOR CARNIVAL

DETAILS OF WEEK'S FAIR ARE BEING ARRRNGED.

Plans for the carnival and fair to be held May 18-20 for the benefit of Muhlenberg Hospital are progressing satisfactorily under the direction of W. S. Miller, who has been engaged to take full charge. A full description of the affair will be given within a few days, explaining the arrangement of the booths, tents and other details.

It has been decided to hold the show at West Fourth street and Darrow avenue on the old circus grounds. This is an ideal place for the carnival as it can easily be reached by trolley and there is plenty of space. The members of the Women's Auxiliary to the Board of Governors of Muhlenberg Hospital, will take a prominent part in the carnival and there is every reason to believe that it will be an overwhelming success.

It is proposed to have all of the local merchants and trades represented, making it a distinctly local affair, and thus giving everyone an opportunity to do what he can for the hospital.

200 TREES MAKE TROUBLE

Question As to Whether They Encroach on the Sidewalk.

THE ISSUE DODGED

Chairman Schneider Raises a Point That Compels Dunellen Council to Hold a Special Meeting.

Two hundred trees, all on one property, were reported as encroaching on the sidewalk of the Dunellen main street at a special meeting of the Dunellen Council last night. The problem involved in the legal question that grows out of the encroachment was too great for the Council to solve, and the body appealed to the law and ordinance committee to straighten out the matter with the advice of the corporation counsel.

The trees, sturdy young ones, planted not very long ago, stand in a row on the property of William Sanford, on North avenue. They stretch for about a quarter of a mile along the main thoroughfare.

Councilman Schneider, chairman of the street committee, discovered the encroachment by accident in taking a general survey of the sidewalk situation at the beginning of the new fiscal year. He reported to the Council that the trees, on careful investigation, were found to lie two feet inside the sidewalk line, which is set twelve feet from the curb.

He said he called the attention of Mr. Sanford to the encroachment, but the latter insisted that his trees were in their proper places. He told Mr. Schneider that there could hardly be any doubt of that, because he hired an engineer to survey the place before placing the trees, and he planted them where the surveyor put stakes as a guide for the purpose.

Mr. Schneider said he asked the engineer about it and the latter said he put the stakes where Mr. Sanford told him to drive them.

Mr. Schneider appealed to the Council to tell him whether Mr. Sanford had any right to keep his trees where they were. The Council found the question too much. The members want the borough to have all the sidewalk to which she is entitled, but they don't know whether tree rights are paramount to sidewalk rights or not.

After struggling with the question for a time, the members dodged the issue by referring it to the law and ordinance committee for investigation. Corporation Counsel J. Brewster Willis, of New Brunswick, is expected to work the question out. The Council will act on his advice.

In the meantime the trees hold their ground, and dig their roots deeper for a firmer grip on the sidewalk subsoil.

MRS. TIFFANY'S PAPER ON SOCIAL SCIENCE

READ BEFORE THE MONDAY AFTERNOON CLUB YESTERDAY.

"Modern Social Science," was the title of a paper of unusual interest presented at the meeting of the Monday Afternoon Club, held at the Casino, yesterday, by Mrs. Dexter O. Tiffany.

It was well received and a number of club members discussed the paper informally afterward.

The annual entertainment of the club will be held at the Casino on Thursday night, April 27, when a elaborate programme will be presented. The annual election of officers will take place on Monday afternoon, May 1.

Back at Work.

Wilson S. Frederick, of Dunellen, who lay in Muhlenberg Hospital for a year suffering from terrible injuries sustained in the Westfield wreck, and whose life was saved by a remarkable skin-grafting operation, returned to work at his old post in the United States Express Company's office in New York yesterday for the first time in twenty-six months. Mr. Frederick looks healthy and walks with only a slight stiffness. He does not need even a cane.

CO. K BOYS' BANQUET

Fourth Annual Feast is Held at Truell Inn.

J. E. MARTINE SPEAKS

Jolly Good Time and a Splendid Menu—Capt. Martin Toastmaster.

The successes of Co. K during the past four years of its existence were happily recalled at the annual banquet held at Truell Inn, last night, when the active members, honorary members and guests joined in the festivities of the occasion. After enjoying a dinner that was declared to be par excellent, the rest of the evening was devoted to speech-making.

Seated at the head table in the commodious dining-rooms, were Captain W. B. Martin, of Co K; James E. Martine, Freeholder E. K. Adams, of Cranford; L. B. Woolston, Captain John M. Wherley, of Co. M, Somerville; Lieut. John P. Mosher, Stanley Mosher, Freeholder William A. Westphal, Lieus. W. Kempton Browning, Collector Robert L. Lee, W. R. Coddington, county attorney and Major Nelson Y. Dungan. The members of the company were seated at numerous small tables.

Captain W. B. Martin.

At the outset Captain Martin reviewed the history of the organization from its inception, February 27, 1901. With considerable pride he said that last year the percentage of attendance was 76 and this year it was 86.7 per cent., all of which he added was due to the good work of the men. He stated that in 1903 the company stood first in rifle practice, and after dropping back to fourth place, last year, was this year in first position again. He paid the company the compliment that it is one of the most efficient in the State and in good condition as to department, rifle practice and financial standing. At the recent inspection of the company, Gen. Gillmore said that Co. K was one of the best drilled of any in the State.

Captain Martin, acting as toastmaster, then introduced the speakers of the evening, the first of which was W. R. Coddington. He said that he was glad to get better acquainted with the company and learn that its members stand so well. He added that while monuments are speechless and trophies are useless it is the patriotism in the heart that counts and in this respect he felt sure that every member of the company would respond as one man to the call of duty.

Collector Robert L. Lee, as an honorary member, expressed his pleasure in being present and congratulted the company on its fine showing. He said that he was glad to be able to deduct from each man's tax bill $1, but he said that the State should be thanked for that.

Major Nelson Y. Dungan was the next speaker. He began by saying that as a result of last year's banquet he had learned that a member of the National Guard must be very circumspect. At that time a little entertainment was magnified by the press and called forth much criticism. A few days ago, he said, an innocent entertainment was provided in North Plainfield and the papers magnified it by calling it a prize-fight and the affair is now bothering the county authorities. If the newspapermen were not here, added Major Dungan, in an amusing manner, I might feel free to speak.

Continuing, Major Dungan remarked that he was gratified to learn of the attainments of Co. K and said that it made him feel proud of the organization. Not since the Spanish-American War had the term tin soldier been applied to the State militia and he said that the National Government at Washington thought so well of the militia after that war that through the Dick bill it had been made a part

JUDGE GARRETSON CHARGES GRAND JURY

CALLS ATTENTION PARTICULARLY TO WILLIAMS MURDER CASE.

In delivering his charge to the Somerset County Grand Jury, this morning, Judge Garretson spoke on other matters beside the North Plainfield boxing investigation. He informed the jurors that the most important case that would have to be considered by them was the murder of George Williams, the Watchung grocer, for which George Wood has been arrested. He recited the case from start to finish and said the details would be given by witnesses later.

He also spoke of the shooting at Raritan of John Stevenson, a former Plainfielder, for which Charles Kisciouack is being held. Stevenson, while intoxicated, attempted to enter Kisconack's saloon in Raritan at 3 o'clock in the morning and was mistaken by the proprietor for a burglar. He was shot and badly injured and will be brought before the jurors on a stretcher.

Of the Supreme Court cases, there are only two of interest to Plainfielders. The first is that of Justus H. Cooley against James B. Wilson, trustee, and is to be heard by the court without a jury. The other is the suit brought by William Barry, in behalf of his son, Francis Barry, against Frederick C. Hippi, Jr., of East Orange. The latter, while running an automobile on Somerset street, knocked the Barry boy down and injured him severely. The plaintiff is represented by Craig A. Marsh and the case will be called tomorrow.

North Plainfield is represented on the Grand Jury by Justus H. Cooley and J. Worth Codington.

CRESCENT AVE. MUSIC

Quartette Choir to be Re-Engaged With Some Changes.

The arrangements for music at the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church for the year ends May 1, and is now known that the quartette choir will be practically the same as last year. The quartette will continue under the leadership of Rhys Thomas, choirmaster. Miss Carroll, the favorite contralto, will continue, as will also the bass, Mr. Grienert, of New York. Miss Davis, whose voice has been appreciated, has accepted a more attractive position in Brooklyn. Her position will be taken by Miss Sims, of Newark.

Arthur G. Drake, who was obliged to give up his position as organist, owing to eye trouble, will later on go to the Second Reformed church, New Brunswick. He will be succeeded by William P. Dunn, a freshman at Princeton, who has already won attention from the congregation by his masterly playing. Mr. Dunn is a grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Solomon Dunn, of Park avenue.

LICENSES GRANTED.

Somerset Court Renews Liquor Privileges in North Plainfield.

When the Somerset County Court opened today one of the most important matters transacted was the granting of licenses to sell liquor and those favorably acted upon in North Plainfield were the renewal of Charles Jensen's for the Arlington Hotel and for Adolph Bohren and the New Jersey Bottling Company for wholesale privileges.

In addition to these renewals, Hugo Maul and Henry Pedefleus were given licenses in North Plainfield township.

Promotion for Mr. Hammann.

Frank E. Hamman, of East Seventh street, for some time chief clerk in the passenger department of the Lehigh Valley railroad, has been appointed assistant general passenger agent of the company. The promotion is one that has been won by merit alone, Mr. Hammann having been regarded as one of the most faithful and conscientious employes at the New York offices of the big line. He will enter upon his new duties at once.

MORTGAGE ON HIS AUTO

"Mayor Bill" Smith to Lose $900 Devil Wagon.

SALE WAS POSTPONED

Bubble will be Sold by Constable Next Week—Attempted Secrecy.

"Millionaire Bill" Smith has been running a mortgaged auto. Since October last Andrew Wilson, with whom Smith was associated in the defunct Plainfield Auto Garage, has had a lien on the Oldsmobile tonneau car in which the New Market celebrity has been wont to tift over the countryside.

Worse than that, Smith stands a good show to lose the auto entirely. Wilson has foreclosed on it, and the machine will be offered for sale under a constable's hammer. The sale was to have been held yesterday, but on account of the death of Mrs. Hannah Nelson, Smith's mother, the sale was postponed. It will probably be held next week.

The machine was worth, when new, $900. Smith borrowed $450 on it. The loan was made just about the time Wilson and Smith launched the garage concern.

An effort was made by Constable Pierce, who has the sale in charge, to keep the matter quiet. He refused all information regarding the identity of the owner of the automobile. A notice of the sale, posted in Dunellen, did not give the name of the automobile's owner. R. P. F. VonMinden, lawyer for Smith, refused to give out any information regarding the case when questioned by a reporter this morning.

NOT SAFE AND SANE SAYS ALVAH A. CLARK

SOMERSET'S DEMOCRATIC LEADER DOES NOT FAVOR MUNICIPAL OWNERSHIP.

In discussing municipal ownership of public utilities with a reporter, former Congressman Alvah A. Clark, the Democratic leader of Somerset County, declared that he regarded it as ideal, but that he thought it afforded opportunities for public plunder. Asked what he thought of the question being made a permanent issue of the Democratic party, Mr. Clark expressed himself as follows:

"Municipal ownership is Utopian. Public ownership would be an open chance for public plunder. So long as universal suffrage prevails no public enterprise is created without brains and money. If successful financially, its creators are rewarded for their venture. If the powers which give authority to create by appropriate legislation control those to whom power is given under our system of government, what hope would there be for more beneficial management by the public at large whereby good results would be derived by the public generally?

"It does not seem to me safe and sane as a dominant issue for the Democratic party."

K. T. ELECTION.

LIQUOR LICENSE FEE IS DOUBLED

Somerset County Court Increases North Plainfield Rate to $700.

GENERAL RAISE MADE

Throughout the County the Fees Are Advanced—An Agreeable Surprise in Borough.

Agreeable surprise was caused today by the announcement of the Somerset County Court that the liquor license fee in North Plainfield will be increased to $700, an advance of $350 per year. This action is the result of the recommendation of the last grand jury which considered the relationship between drunken brawls and the saloons in the borough.

A year or so ago the North Plainfield Council took up the subject of increasing the liquor license fee and when Plainfield raised its retail fee to $1,000 a year, renewed efforts were made to make the borough rate more proportionate. Corporation Counsel Charles A. Reed presented the matter to the Somerset County Court but the matter lingered. Finally several representative citizens of the borough got on the grand jury and they succeeded in convincing their fellows that an increase in the rate would be for the best interests of the borough.

Justice Garretson, who was on the bench with Judge Lewis H. Schenck, made the announcement of the raise in rates this morning when the April term of the court was commenced. His remarks preceded his charge to the grand jury.

The $700 rate applies to all hotels in North Plainfield, there being no strictly saloon licenses. At the same time the rates throughout the county for hostelries were increased proportionately. In Raritan it will be $300, in Somerville $350 and in Bound Brook $325. In all other places throughout the townships the fee will be $250. In Raritan and Bound Brook the saloon license fee will be $350.

PRESBYTERY IN SESSION

Sixty Ministers Attending Meeting at Dunellen Today.

PLAINFIELDERS THERE

Rev. W. B. Hamilton Chosen Moderator—Sermon by Rev. A. D. Blauvelt.

Presbyterian clergymen from all over Somerset and Union counties met at the Dunellen Presbyterian church this morning, when the semi-annual session of the Elizabeth Presbytery, which embraces the two counties, opened. The meeting will continue all through the day and tomorrow.

About sixty clergymen and delegates were present. Among those in attendance were Rev. J. O. McKelvey, Rev. L. R. Howard, Rev. Dr. J. S. Zelie, Rev. F. D. Tilden, Stephen Cahoone, William H. Shotwell and Rev. Edward Love, of this city.

The session opened at 11 o'clock. Rev. William B. Hamilton, of Elizabeth, was moderator. Rev. J. T. Reeve, of Basking Ridge, was temporary clerk, and Rev. J. T. Kerr, of Elizabeth, acted as stated clerk in place of Rev. Samuel Parry, who is detained at home by illness.

The feature of the opening session, which was brief, was a sermon by the retiring moderator, Rev. A. I. Blauvelt. He spoke on "The Call to God."

A report was received on the Synodical home missions, and a recommendation that the churches of the Presbytery take up an offering on Easter Sunday for the benefit of a proposed Hungarian church in Perth Amboy followed it.

Lunch was served at the church by the women of the charge. The dinner was in charge of Mrs. Charles Mattis, Mrs. Morris and Mrs. M. L. Barick, assisted by Mrs. Lewis Schneider, Mrs. Arthur Gaston, Mrs. Silas Naylor, Mrs. C. S. Voorhees. The tables were presided over by Mrs. W. W. Casselberry, Mrs. A. A. Lake, Mrs. Josephine Dunham, Mrs. S. D. Stryker, Mrs. E. Pennock, and Mrs. W. J. Hamilton. The waitresses were the Misses Emma Craig, Josephine Dealaman, Jeanette Lake, Elizabeth Dunham, Janie Churchill and Eva Schneider. The tea table was presided over by Ms. P. Henry and Mrs. Emma Marlow. Mrs. A. A. Lake and Mrs. W. J. Hamilton constituted a reception committee.

At the session this afternoon a report on the new manual and rules will be made by the committee in charge, on which Rev. J. O. McKelvey, of this city, is serving. The principal change suggested is four meetings a year instead of two. Tonight, at a public meeting, Dr. Woodbridge O. Johnson, medical missionary in India, and Rev. Dr. John Dixon, of Trenton, will speak on mission work. The latter represents the Board of Home Missions.

ANODYNE WON THE OZONE.

Handzarra, Favorite, at Aqueduct, Captured Handicap.

NEW YORK, April 18.—Anodyne, at 15 to 1, won the Ozone selling stakes at Aqueduct, defeating Just, 20 to 1, by a short head. The race was at four furlongs, and Anodyne ran it in the fast time of 47 seconds. Leonard Joe Hayman, the heavily played favorite, was never a factor, finishing a bad fourth. Just made the running to the final eighth, where Anodyne moved up.

Handzarra, the favorite, scored an easy victory in the five furlong handicap. Three favorites won. Summaries:

First Race.—Speedway, first; Society Bud, second; Edna Jackson, third.

Second Race.—Head Dance, first; Delcanta, second; Virgo, third.

Third Race.—Handzarra, first; Rosetint, second; New York, third.

Fourth Race.—Anodyne, first; Just, second; Dr. Heard, third.

Fifth Race.—Red Knight, first; Whorler, second; Florizel, third.

Sixth Race.—Keator, first; Drone, second; Billy Roche, third.

Champion Sands Defeated Gould.

TUXEDO PARK, N. Y., April 18.—In the final round for the gold racket championship in court tennis at the Tuxedo Tennis and Racket club Charles E. Sands, the national champion, of the New York Racket and Tennis club, defeated Jay Gould of Georgian court, Lakewood, by a score of 3 sets to 1. Mr. Sands thus wins outright the magnificent gold racket trophy given by T. Suffern Tailer and full title to the national amateur championship of the United Sttaes in court tennis.

Defeat of the Wrenns a Surprise.

NEW YORK, April 18.—Places in the finals of the indoor lawn tennis tournament on the courts of the St. Nicholas rink were won here by Holcombe Ward and Beals C. Wright, the national champions, and Wylie C. Grant and E. B. Dewhurst. The surprising feature of the play was the defeat of Bob Wrenn and his brother, George Wrenn, at the hands of Grant and his partner from the University of Pennsylvania.

Memphis Stakes Won by Reddick.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., April 18.—The Memphis stakes at Montgomery park for two-year-olds at five furlongs furnished an exciting race among James Reddick, Klingsor, Lady Navarre and George Leiper. The horses finished as named, and only heads apart separated them.

Britt-White Mill Postponed.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 18.—The Yosemite club was refused a permit to hold a fight during April. This means that the fight between Jimmy Britt and Jabez White, scheduled for April, will not take place on the date previously fixed.

Joe Colson at St. Louis.

ST. LOUIS, April 18.—Six evenly balanced fields drew a large crowd to the fair grounds. Foley landed Joe Colson a winner in the two-year-old event at 12 to 1. Our Lillie, favorite, won the second race.

Possart Popular Victory.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 18.—Possart won a popular victory here when he romped home in the fourth race, passing the judges' stand five lengths in front of his field.

Georgia Peach Crop Killed.

GAINESVILLE, Ga., April 18.—Almost the entire peach crop in northeast Georgia has been killed by the freeze. Growers state that there will not be enough peaches grown for a single shipment. Vegetation of all kinds was hurt. The thermometer registered 29 degrees and ice was half an inch thick.

Folk Says Dry Law For County Also.

ST LOUIS, April 18.—A telegram from Governor Folk was received by Sheriff Herpel of St. Louis county saying that the law closing saloons, barber shops and cigar stores in the city must be enforced in the county also.

George W. Purvis Killed by Train.

BINGHAMTON, N. Y., April 18.—George W. Purvis of this city, fifty-five years old, was struck and instantly killed by a Delaware and Hudson passenger train at Bainbridge.

READY FOR ACTION

Japanese Fleet Waiting to Attack Rojestvensky.

TOGO'S TARS EAGER FOR A FIGHT

Russian Squadron, Protected by Scouting Cruisers, at Work in Kamranh Bay—Japan to Protest Action of France.

LONDON, April 18.—A special report from Singapore says that the Russian cruisers Dmitri Donskoi and Rion were seen scouting outside the bay, while a tug was seen bringing colliers alongside of warships, which were coaling, and that many boats were transferring provisions to Russian vessels.

The Japanese government is silent as to its intentions, but it is expected that it will make immediate representations to France as to its allowing the Russian fleet to occupy the neutral waters of Kamranh bay beyond twenty-four hours.

The Japanese fleet, except its scouts, is reported north of Hongkong. Admiral Togo has six battleships and eight first class cruisers ready for action, besides twelve converted merchantmen, which are used for scouting duty.

Captain Osawa, a member of Prince Arisugawa's suit, who witnessed the various actions at Port Arthur, states that the Japanese are raising all the Russian ships sunk in the harbor there. He said that Admiral Togo's fleet was eager to meet the Russians.

The first authentic news of an actual blow struck by either of the hostile fleets in the far east comes in a dispatch from the French port of Saigon, saying that the Japanese recently captured a large number of Rojestvensky's colliers off the coast of Cochin China.

Dispatches from several sources indicate that Admiral Rojestvensky may have temporarily at least divided his force, although naval men in St. Petersburg do not believe he has.

A Saigon dispatch says a number of Russian warships are still in Kamranh bay, 200 miles northeast of that place, where they are revictualing, and a portion of the Russian squadron has been reported at Turan bay, about 350 miles north of Kamranh bay.

Since leaving Europe Admiral Rojestvensky has only lost eight men by disease out of the 18,000 he had with him.

In St. Petersburg the attitude of the working classes is becoming daily more pronounced, and the middle classes of the city are thoroughly alarmed, reports declaring that the workingmen have decided to inaugurate an era of pillage and incendiarism on May 2, the third day of the Easter celebration. Even the symbols denoting houses that are to be pillaged are reported to have been determined.

A policeman was killed on Monday by a crowd of sailors attached to the Fourth squadron, which is being made ready for departure for the far east. The policeman ordered the crowd to disperse and on its refusal drew a revolver and wounded two of the sailors, but was beaten to death while vainly trying to defend himself with his saber.

Freight traffic on the Transcaucasus railroad has been suspended owing to a strike. The situation there is serious.

Drowned In Y. M. C. A. Pool.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., April 18.—Clarence H. Barnes, sixteen years old, son of Charles H. Barnes, was found drowned here in the swimming pool of the Young Men's Christian association. The boy was a member of a high school gymnastic class. He left the class before the others and went into the swimming tank, where he paddled around. It is believed that he tried to dive while alone in the tank and that he was stunned by striking in the shallow end of the pool.

Fire at Lawrence, Mass.

LAWRENCE, Mass., April 18.—The lives of ten persons were imperiled last night by a fire that, originating in the basement of the Ordway block, a four story structure on Essex street, worked up into the first floor and cut off escape by the usual exits of tenants on the floors above. Several thrilling rescues were made by the firemen; loss, $15,000.

Kingdon Gould Hurt at Polo.

LAKEWOOD, N. J., April 18.—Kingdon Gould, son of George J. Gould, is nursing a painful but not serious wound as a result of a mixup in the Rockaway-Lakewood polo game at Georgian court. Had the blow been half an inch lower young Gould might have lost the sight of the eye. As it was, he was so badly hurt that he retired from the game.

Japan Would Welcome Taft.

WASHINGTON, April 18.—In a recent conversation with Secretary Taft it is understood that Mr. Takahira, the Japanese minister, expressed the hope that the secretary on his trip to the Philippines would find it possible to stop in Japan and assured him he would receive a hearty welcome.

New Professor For Yale.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., April 18.—At a special meeting of the Yale corporation Charles Montague Bakewell, Ph. D., associate professor of philosophy in the University of California, was elected to a professorship in the department of philosophy at Yale.

Pension Examiners Resign.

WASHINGTON, April 18.—Several of the ten pension examiners against whom Commissioner Warner has preferred charges have handed in their resignations. If they are exonerated in the report reinstatement will be sought.

CHICAGO'S STRIKE

Mayor Dunne Finds Task as Mediator a Hard One.

SERIOUS RIOT HELD UP TRAFFIC.

Nonunion Men on Their Way Home Followed and Beaten by Strike Sympathizers—Henry Auten May Die.

CHICAGO, April 18.—After a conference held in his office with representatives of the Teamsters' union Mayor Dunne announced that he had about given up hope of settling the Montgomery Ward & Co. strike.

"I will hold conferences again today," said the mayor, "with representatives of both sides, but I have no idea at the present time that anything will result from the meetings. Both sides to the controversy seem determined to hold their ground, and there is nothing more that I can do. This settling of a big strike is a larger undertaking than I thought it would prove."

The conferences later developed nothing new. There were numerous disturbances in the streets and around freight houses.

Several nonunion men on their way home were followed and beaten by strike sympathizers. Henry Auten was beaten so severely with brass knuckles that he may die.

The most serious disturbance of the day occurred at the intersection of State and Madison streets. A mob numbering 2,000 persons gathered about a State street cable car in which James Jackson and Moses Flood, colored, who had driven a wagon to Montgomery Ward & Co.'s store, were riding. The two men, under guard of the police, had delivered a load of cheese to Montgomery Ward & Co., and after returning to the place from which they started had boarded the car to return to their homes. They had ridden three squares when a crowd gathered around the car and several strikers boarded it and attacked the negroes. Stones and sticks were hurled at the car, and in a twinkling every window in it was smashed. Two policemen rushed into the car, and in order to protect the colored men from the crowd arrested them. A riot call was sent to central police station, and it took twenty officers thirty minutes to drive away the crowd and open the strets again to traffic.

Senator to Press Claims on Mexico.

SIOUX CITY, Ia., April 18.—John M. Thurston, former United States senator from Nebraska, has been retained to press claims for indemnity on account of the massacre of several Americans by Yaqui Indians in Sonora, Mexico. The claims aggregate $450,000, $100,000 each for the four men killed—J. K. McKenzie, Dr. Robert McCoy, Chicago; Walter Stubinger, Kewanee, Ill., and H. H. Call, Sioux City—and $25,000 each for the terrible experience of the two survivors, C. E. Terrington, Salem, O., and H. E. Miller, Los Angeles, Cal.

McKinley Statue Taken Away.

LOGANSPORT, Ind., April 18.—In broad daylight C. D. Billman, a sculptor, removed from its pedestal in City park an heroic statue to William McKinley which had been erected by citizens as a memorial to the martyred president. Billman alleges that the statue had not been paid for. Taking advantage of the absence of all city officers at a municipal league meeting, Billman backed a wagon against the base of the monument and, with block and tackle, transferred the monument to the back yard of his home.

Extension of Time In Hooker Case.

ALBANY, N. Y., April 18.—The assembly last night granted to its judiciary committee the third extension of time for the completion of its investigation into the accusations connecting Supreme Court Justice Warren B. Hooker with the alleged postoffice irregularities at Fredonia and Dunkirk. A resolution presented by the committee extended the time for report from Wednesday until Thursday of next week.

Corn and Cotton Killed by Frost.

AMERICUS, Ga., April 18.—A killing frost covered this entire section, doing immense damage to truck farms and field crops. A great deal of young corn and cotton is reported killed and the entire crop stunted. All varieties of vegetables were more or less injured, the more tender plants being killed outright. Thin ice was visible in low, damp places.

Mandate In Securities Case.

WASHINGTON, April 18.—The mandate of the supreme court in the Northern Securities case directing the United States court for the district of New Jersey to dismiss the bill filed by Edward H. Harriman and others to restrain the ratable distribution of the Great Northern and Northern Pacific shares held by the Securities company was issued.

Potato Crop Ruined.

CHARLOTTE, N. C., April 18.—A special from Newbern, N. C., says: "The frost has worked great damage to all truck crops in this vicinity. Reports from Craven, Carteret, Pamplico, Jones and Onslow are to the effect that the potato crop is ruined and that peas and beans are killed except where protected."

Barbadian Coolies For Canal.

COLON, April 18. — Four hundred West Indian contract laborers, mostly Barbadians, have arrived here and were sent to the Culebra district of the canal route.

LOEB AWAITS COURIER.

Secretary's Official Party Enjoy Life at Hotel Colorado.

GLENWOOD SPRINGS, Colo., April 18.—Before President Roosevelt penetrates the wilds so far that communication with the outside world will be next to impossible Secretary Loeb, with the aid of a courier, daily expected from the camp, will get in the president's trail and visit him in the mountains. The visit will be to take up with the president a number of important affairs that have come to the headquarters since Saturday. There are a number of commissions to be signed as well as some departmental business that has been forwarded for attention.

Many invitations have come to Secretary Loeb and members of the official party staying at the Hotel Colorado to take excursions into the surrounding region in order to view sights of interest. All of these have been declined or postponed until the arrival of the first courier from the president. Secretary Loeb expects to return to the president's camp with the courier, and he may spend the night in camp. Horseback rides, bathing in the hot water pool, tennis and mountain climbing have occupied the party.

During the week it is planned to take an excursion down the valley over the Colorado Midland railroad to see some private irrigation projects. A locomotive will be attached to the private car Rocket, in which the trip will be made.

A mile from the Hotel Colorado a photographer, who said he represented a syndicate that sold pictures to newspapers, has attached a wire to a telegraph line which runs through a wild, mountainous country and then attached a telegraph instrument to the wire, using a stump as a table. An assistant then posed for a picture, which, it is said, shows how news is obtained from the president's camp.

There are no telegraph wires within miles of the original camp of the party so far as known to the president's party at Colorado Springs. The hunters intend to roam over a large area, covering probably 150 miles, before the hunt is concluded.

M'GOVERN ESCAPED.

Former Pugilist Gave Keeper the Slip at Stamford Sanitarium.

STAMFORD, Conn., April 18.—Terry McGovern, the pugilist, who was brought to the Stamford Hall sanitarium Sunday night, escaped from a keeper yesterday while taking a walk on the grounds of the institution. McGovern broke away from the attendant and dashed in a northeasterly direction toward Glenbrook. The keeper followed McGovern, but was unable to overtake him. Word was sent immediately to the sanitarium and a hunt was made for McGovern, but without success. Aside from notifying the police, a watch was kept at the railroad stations at Glenbrook and Sound Beach in the belief that McGovern would board a train for New York.

The fact that McGovern escaped from the sanitarium was not made public until an hour and a half after he disappeared, as it was thought that he would soon be found.

McGovern had expressed a desire to go to New York, but it was believed that he had become reconciled to staying, as he said no more about it. After playing tennis for a time he suggested a walk and was put in charge of one of the regular keepers. The keeper and McGovern had been gone but a few minutes when the former ran back to the sanitarium and told of Terry's escape.

McGovern, according to the sanitarium physicians, is suffering from nervous, mental and physical exhaustion, and it was expected that he would stay here several months.

Gravedigger as Shaw's Coachman.

WASHINGTON, April 18. — The recent employment by the government of an alleged gravedigger as coachman to Secretary of the Treasury Shaw under certification from the civil service commission has resulted in the issuance of a statement by Commissioner Cooley. The statement defends his employment and shows that the alleged gravedigger was for many years coachman to the superintendent of the Government Hospital For the Insane.

Joseph Jefferson Very Low.

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla., April 18.—The condition of Joseph Jefferson, the veteran actor, has undergone a change for the worse, and last night the outlook for his recovery was not so hopeful. Physicians have been in constant attendance at his bedside and report him as very weak. In response to an inquiry last night as to Mr. Jefferson's condition Dr. Potter said, "Mr. Jefferson is very low."

Railway Strike In Italy.

ROME, April 18.—The strike situation is less acute. The government has been able to operate regular trains. Complete order prevails everywhere. A party of American tourists in order to make sure of reaching Naples in time for their steamer had to hire all the available motor cars to convey them thither.

Plot Against Alfonso.

MADRID, April 18.—Two officers of the garrison at Barcelona are under arrest charged with conspiring against the state. It is said that they had secured adherence of the army to their plot, with several prominent generals. The arrest of a number of Republican leaders who are said to be implicated is imminent.

William Dean Howells Home.

NEW YORK, April 18. — William Dean Howells, the author, and Mrs Howells arrived from Europe on the steamer Moltke. The Moltke also brought seventy tourists returning from a trip to the orient.

FOUR NEWSBOYS DIE

Indianapolis Masonic Temple Scene of Fatal Panic.

CRUSH OF CHILDREN AT FREE SHOW

It Is Said That One of the Boys Shouted "Fire!" Causing a Stampede In Which Mass of Boys Trampled on One Another.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., April 18.—Frenzied by a false alarm of fire, several hundred newsboys struggling to obtain free tickets to a show by a patent medicine advertising company stampeded in a narrow stairway in the Masonic temple last night, crushing the life out of four boys and probably fatally injuring several other children.

Long before the time appointed for the distribution of free tickets the stairs of the Masonic temple, at the southwest corner of Washington street and Capitol avenue, were crowded with a pushing, yelling crowd of children, mostly newsboys, each anxious to be first to receive a pass. When the distribution began the excitement became more intense, and the efforts of several policemen to maintain order were unavailing.

It is alleged by a witness that one of the boys in an endeavor to hasten the exit of those who had received passes shouted "fire." Immediately those at the top of the stairs faced about and madly began to force a way to the bottom of the steps. Shrieks and physical encounters followed, and those at the top became so closely entangled that the mass of boys fell, clinging to each other, on the struggling mass of youths at the bottom of the stairs.

Policemen from the central station responded to a riot call and began to extricate the smothering boys. Four boys were dead when uncovered. The boys fought desperately to get free, and dozens were injured by the first crush or were hurt by the subsequent scramble for air.

An immense crowd of people, attracted by the wild shouts, jostled about the mass of boys and hampered the work of the ambulance corps.

The dead were sent to a morgue for identification. The severely injured were sent to a hospital, while many who suffered slight injuries were sent home.

Japanese Pupils Caused a Revolt.

OMAHA, Neb., April 18.—Three hundred pupils of Lowell school, in South Omaha, revolted as the result of the presence of two Japanese boys in the school. The Japanese boys are sons of packing house strike breakers who came here during the strike a year ago. The presence of the boys in the school has caused trouble for some time and culminated in revolt when a large number of the larger pupils lined up and refused to permit others to enter school for the regular sessions. A force of police was called, and order was not restored until a hundred pupils had been sent home.

Wireless Mystery Puzzles Manila.

MANILA, April 18.—The cruiser Rainbow, the flagship of the Philippine squadron, received a wireless telegram from some point estimated at about sixty miles off the entrance of Manila bay as follows: "Is there any one inside with a wireless apparatus?" The following answer was returned, "Do you wish to communicate?" No reply was made to the question, and the torpedo boat destroyers Dale and Decatur were sent to investigate. They returned to port without having solved the mysterious message.

Fatal Accident at Lake Hopatcong.

LAKE HOPATCONG, N. J., April 18.—August Oellrich, thirty-three years old, a coachman employed by Mrs. Charles O. Brown of Landing, was killed and Joseph Sandol, an employee of the American Forcite Powder works, was injured in an automobile accident near here. An automobile bearing two men frightened the horse Oellrich drove, and Oellrich and Sandol were thrown out heavily. The former died within an hour.

Sheriff Seized Water Power Plant.

SARATOGA, N. Y., April 18.—Deputy Sheriff Curtis, representing Sheriff Kavanaugh of Saratoga county, levied on the property of the Hudson River Water Power company at Spier Falls, against which the National Contracting company of New York recently secured judgment for over half a million dollars for the construction of a dam there.

Boston Vessel a Total Loss.

GLOUCESTER, Mass., April 18.—The Boston schooner Albert H. Harding, from Pigeon Cove for Boston, is ashore at Pigeon Cove and will probably be a total loss. The crew is safe.

Nixon Torpedo Boats For Russia.

SEVASTOPOL, April 18. — Several torpedo boats which Lewis Nixon of New York has been setting up here have been completed and shipped to Vladivostok.

Frost In Georgia.

COLUMBUS, Ga., April 18.—There is considerable frost here and in this section, and a good deal of young cotton has been killed. Young vegetables also were killed.

Two Fatally Burned at Bristol.

BRISTOL, Va., April 18. — Mark Wistlers and a laborer named Burgess were fatally burned in a fire that destroyed a big boarding house at Cranberry, N. C.

Mrs. Danz Must Hang.

PHILADELPHIA, April 18.—The supreme court by a vote of 4 to 3 decided that Mrs. Catharine Danz must hang for the murder of her husband.

Plainfield, N. J., April 18, 1905.

Nature emulating the trusts—peach crop blighted by cold wave. Now that ice is to be higher and meat dearer too, we can only hope that our credit will not take a drop.

The knockers are at work. Read this from the Elizabeth Journal: "Referring to the outlook for the senatorial nomination an exchange says that Assemblyman Coyne is in the hands of his friends. Well, handsful of coin help along amazingly in the time of a campaign."

North Plainfield may well rejoice in the announcement that the Somerset county court has increased the license fee in that borough to $700. Adjoining as it does the city of Plainfield, it is absurd to exact but $350 from the saloon men for licenses in the borough when the rate here is $1,000, and the court's action shows that it was convinced that the present rate is out of all proportion to what it should be.

"Advertising Suggestions," published in the interest of a Boston shoe manufacturing company, has this to say to the shoe retailer: "Spasmodic advertising does not pay. To advertise when business is dull, but discontinue advertising when business is good, is not as foolish as vice versa, but foolish enough. The wise advertiser regularly makes a certain appropriation, and uses it in continuous advertising. He stands pat and stays put." The hint is too valuable to be construed as applying only to the shoe trade. Regular advertising begets regular customers.—Ex.

The "short day" law is illegal, the Supreme Court of the United States having so decreed in a case which was taken up from New York. The main point at issue in the case of Lockner against the State of New York was whether the law had any right to interfere in contracts made between individuals where freedom of action of this sort was desired. The Court of Appeals declared the labor law to be constitutional and found Lockner guilty of having transgressed it. The effect of the decision of the upper court which reverses the lower court is that no State can limit a day's work to ten hours and a week's work to sixty hours.

of the regular army.

Referring to the real duties of a soldier, he said that the heart-breaking time comes when he has to leave home, mother, wife, sister and one's best girl to answer the call of duty. When the Government wanted men in a hurry in the last war, the militia responded, fully seventy per cent. of the National Guard answering the call. He congratulated Co. K on the completion of its fourth year and paid deserving tribute to Captain Martin, who in 1901 won the Whimbleton cup, making him champion shot of the United States. Concluding he said that he hoped that when Captain Martin is promoted to a colonelcy, Co. K would still be in first place.

L. B. Woolston was then called upon, and stated this his first duty was to apologize for the absence of Mayor Buckle, who being very tired, was unable to attend. He said that there was no need of having two "Jims" present and had decided that Jim Martine would fill the bill. Mr. Woolston spoke of his early connection with Co. E, under the leadership of Gen. Madison Drake, in 1873, and how he helped to organize the company. He dwelt briefly on the company's trip to Washington after the Grant election to the Presidency, and how all the members were provided with red blankets, which afterward got Gen. Drake into trouble.

It happened while the company was the guest of the 8th Regiment in New York, that Gen. Drake was arrested, it being learned that the red blankets had not been paid for. He expressed his admiration for the local company and congratulated it upon its fine standing.

Freeholder Westphal said that he was glad to be present and as a citizen was proud of the company. "Everything that's good comes from Plainfield," said Mr. Westphal, "but our next sheriff is coming from Cranford." This called forth much applause for Freeholder Adams.

Captain Martin said that while Co. K is second to none in th State it was not the only company, and he called upon Captain Wherly, of Co. M, Somerville, to prove his statement. Captain Wherly expressed his feelings of fraternal interest in the local organization, stating that he helped to form it and muster it into service and he felt sure that he had the good will of every member. He was confident that the battalion, of which Cos. K and M are members is the best in the State. He added that inasmuch as New Jersey is to have a rifle team in the National shoot at Sea Girt this year, he hoped that Co. K would be represented.

Upon the introduction of James E. Martine as the next speaker, three rousing cheers were given and wild applause followed. After expressing appreciation of the words of Captain Martin in referring to him as the Democratic candidate for Congress during the last election, Mr. Martine gave an eloquent talk. He said that he was in no sense a military man, that he knows as little about military affairs as about Heaven, and that is little. "While your company has attained such excellence, I pray God the time may come, when our country will need no armed forces to settle its differences," said Mr. Martine. "But to safe-guard our Republic a well-organized militia evidently is necessary and God speed your organization. On principle I am opposed to a large standing army, believing it is prejudicial to a free government, but I am proud of our militia. The ruling powers, and I hope that I may not be court-marshalled for saying so, prevented our company from going to Washington to participate in the ceremonies attendant upon the inauguration of our President. The powers said nay and denied the boys the privilege they desired which would have cost our State nothing."

Mr. Martine then referred to the possibility of drafting 8,000,000 men if necessary to defend the country's interests and under such conditions he said that there was no telling what our country might accomplish. He paid just tribute to Marquis De-Lafayette and Rochambeau for their assistance in averting starvation among the New Jersey troops during the Revolution when New Jersey's lot was a terrible one. He spoke of the true patriotism of this State through its history and believed it to be the duty of every citizen to perpetuate the glorious Republic until time immemorial. In conclusion Mr. Martine recited that impressive writing of Longfellow, "Sail on O Ship of State," amid the hearty applause of everyone.

The other speakers included Lieut. John P. Mosher, Sergeant Pearsall, who spoke for the ranks, and at the close Mr. Martine moved that a vote of thanks be given to Mrs. Truell for the excellent dinner provided and the superb service. In connection with this vote, which was a standing one, Mr. Woolston spoke of Mrs. Truell's patriotism, how she helped to nurse wounded soldiers during the Civil War.

The banquet came to an end with a short speech by Sergeant Littell, who told how he won his gold medal for fine marksmanship, by persistence and good coaching on the part of Captain Martin.

SUBURBAN NEWS.

DUNELLEN AND VICINITY.

Work on the installation of the gas mains, the franchise for which was granted at the last meeting of the Borough Council, will be started very shortly, and rushed to a conclusion at the fastest rate possible. Report to this effect was made at the special meeting of the Council, last night, by S. K. Campbell, of Plainfield, superintendent of the gas department of the P. S. C. for this district. Mr. Campbell told the Council that the material was ordered, and coming rapidly. There are about five miles of pipe to lay in all, and it is calculated that the contract will require six weeks to finish. The Councilmen learned from Mr. Campbell that cement, and not lead, as they were told by Col. Hine, will be used in sealing the joints of the mains. The question interested the Council, because the quality of the jointing material will decide, as it is bad or good, whether the mains will leak or not into the soil. Leakage of gas into the earth will result in the speedy death of trees and vegetation in the neighborhood of the mains. Cement, Superintendent Campbell explained, makes a more perfect joint than lead, and absolutely closes the connections. Col. Hine did not intend to mislead the Councilmen, but simply was not thoroughly posted on the materials that strictly modern methods in gas-main installation demand. As the company is liable for all damage it does to trees or vegetation, the citizens may be reasonably certain that the corporation will take all precautions to keep their gas in its proper place. There is no danger of primary damage to trees in laying the mains, because they will be placed six feet from the curb line, far enough to keep the digging out of the tree zone. Two mains will be laid through North avenue, both on the south side of the trolley track, and single mains through the cross streets. It was first proposed by the company to run the chief feed main through the center of North avenue, but the street committee had the plan changed to keep the street clear for possible sewer laying in the future. A number of routine matters were disposed of by the Council. The clerk was instructed to send a copy of the resolution passed at the previous meeting authorizing taxes to the amount of $3,100 for borough expenses during the year to the assessor. The resolution will be the assessor's authority for proceeding with the collection. The clerk reported that the collector's bond had been filed since the last meeting. Chairman Schneider, of the street committee, reported that the scraper was hard at work and the streets would soon be in proper springtime trim.

The contract for raising the borough hall, and repainting and plastering it, was awarded to Rimmer, Apgar & Cossen, of Plainfield, by the Borough Council last night, at a special meeting called for the purpose of considering the bids. J. N. Apgar, of the borough, is a member of the firm. The bid was for $282. It was found that the moving of the structure, which the Council hoped to include in the work of renovation, brought the contract to too high a figure. There were two other bidders: F. H. Gise, of the borough, and George Hummer, of Plainfield. Work on the contract will be commenced at once.

Manager Moynihan, of the L. & G. team, is booking games, and preparing the schedule of a busy season. He is talking up a shop league, to include L. & G., the Aluminum works, Pond's, Potter's and Scott's. He sees chances ahead for the organization of the combination.

The Council, [at its meeting last night, authorized the street committee to advertise for bids on the macadamizing of Dunellen avenue, between Jackson and Jefferson avenues. The bids will be considered at the next meeting.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES.

The usual large crowd will accompany the P. H. S. nine to Elizabeth on Wednesday, when the High School boys will cross bats with the team of Pingry School in the first of two games. This team has in former years proved a stumbling block in the way of the locals. Last year the Elizabeth team was barely beaten, the score being 1 to 0. The following fellows will compose the P. H. S. team: Pitchers, Burt and Smith; catcher, Davis; first base, Deane; second base, Thompson; short stop, Craig; third base, Conway; left field, Banks; centre field, Brakeley; right field, Freeman. From present indications the game will be a corker.

Mrs. Edmund W. Pack, of Park avenue, is confined to her home by illness.

THE MOQUI PUEBLOS

INDIAN TRIBE THAT TRACES ANCESTRY TO JAPANESE.

Army Officer Tells of His Visit to This Picturesque and Interesting Race —Romance of Nee-ta and No-Ko-Mo.

The Moqui Pueblo Indians of Arizona are, perhaps, the only aboriginal inhabitants of our broad land who have retained unimpaired the customs and practices of their medieval ancestry. The origin of these strange people, it is claimed, can be traced through the Aztec tribes of Mexico, from which people they came as a colony centuries ago, back to involuntary emigrants borne to the western shores of America by drifting junks from the coast of Japan. If these tracings are true, as they seem to be, the ancient customs of the "Flowery Kingdom" may possibly be more faithfully preserved on the arid plains of America than within the home land itself.

Possibly a glimpse at some of these customs may not be without interest. At the request of the Moquis, an officer of the army visited them a few years ago to witness an issue of annuity goods, and while on that duty was the guest of the "governador" in his home on the summit of a great, flat-topped butte. Soon after the officer's arrival, Nee-ta, a little maiden daughter of the family, began to grind corn for the evening meal, crushing the grains between the stones of a metate, or house mill. When the meal was ground the mother placed it in a wooden bowl and moistened it with water. Then spreading a thin coat of dough upon a hot stone, she permitted it to bake, after which she twisted it into a roll, like a cigar. The good mother had her mouth full of water, and as the baking proceeded thinned the dough from time to time by ejecting a small stream into it from her mouth.

When sufficient meal for the baking had been ground, Nee-ta's task for the time was over, but she continued, nevertheless, to grind. The father and his host had come in meanwhile for the evening meal, but Nee-ta paid scant attention to their coming, and with downcast face busied herself with her grinding.

A little vessel containing a thin, sweet syrup, extracted from the roasted leaves of the mescal plant, was set on the floor in the middle of the room by the side of another vessel containing rolls of the corn just cooked. The "governador" and his guest seated themselves on the floor, and the host, bidding the officer follow his example, seized one of the rolls and, after dipping it in the syrup, threw his head far back and dropped the dripping mass into his open mouth.

In the meantime the mother had recalled that, in following the customs of her people, she herself had once ground after her task was done, as her daughter was now doing, to convey the information she was too bashful to give directly, that she was in love and had picked out the man she wanted for a husband. At last Nee-ta confided to her mother, who had sat down beside her, that her affection for Nō-ko-mo, a young Moqui who lived near by, had prompted her persistent grinding.

When the evening meal had been dispatched the kind mother hastened to the home of No-ko-mo's parents with a handful of the meal her daughter had ground. Nee-ta waited anxiously to learn how the gift would be received, knowing that if it was refused her grinding had been in vain. Fortunately the mother of the young man hastened to accept the gift, and with gracious words asserted that no such properly ground meal had ever before left a metate. A scant wedding ceremony soon followed, and No-ko-mo hastened home directly thereafter with his bride.

On the following morning Nee-ta, who, in common with other Moqui maidens, had previously worn her hair in immense coils, one on each side of her head, appeared with her dark tresses tied in a knot at the back of her head, to indicate that she was now a married woman.

No-ko-mo's father had built his home according to the customs of his people, upon a first story of stone masonry, to serve as a fortress in case of need, with here and there a hole left, through which a spear might be thrust or an arrow discharged. A ladder rested against the wall, reaching to a broad landing on top, from which a doorway led into the family living room that had been erected upon the fortress. And now No-ko-mo quickly went to work to add still another story with a landing, on top of the room occupied by his father. In the end the building, like many others in the Pueblos, presented a terraced front towards the rising sun. In the third story of this building No-ko-mo and his bride eventually made their home.

An Ideal Location
Rosedale and Linden Park Cemeteries

LARGEST IN THE STATE
LINDEN, N. J.
Beautiful and Accessible
2 Miles from Elizabeth, 7 Miles from Newark,
14 MILES FROM NEW YORK
On Main Line Pennsylvania Railroad

Why Lots in These Cemeteries commend themselves to Heads of Families and Investors

BECAUSE of the $1,000,000 Trust Fund provided for by the Trustees in each Cemetery, the income from which will keep the properties perpetually beautiful at NO EXPENSE TO LOT OWNERS.

BECAUSE such a guarantee, not found in any other cemetery, assures lot owners that the grounds WILL BE MAINTAINED PERMANENTLY AS BEAUTIFUL PARKS AFTER THE INCOME FROM THE SALE OF LOTS HAS BEEN EXHAUSTED.

LOTS SHOULD BE PURCHASED NOW

BECAUSE MORE ADVANTAGES ARE OFFERED TO LOT BUYERS in a new Modern Park Cemetery than in those established many years and, in most cases, no provision made for perpetual care without extra expense to lot owners. THERE ARE A GREATER NUMBER OF IDEAL LOCATIONS TO SELECT FROM, PRICES OF LOTS ARE ALWAYS LOWER AND TERMS MORE ADVANTAGEOUS.

BECAUSE life is most uncertain and EVERY ONE SHOULD ANTICIPATE THE INEVITABLE BY MAKING A CHOICE NOW OF A FINAL RESTING PLACE.

LOTS WILL PROVE A GOOD INVESTMENT

BECAUSE they are sure to increase in value and can be purchased NOW at the INITIAL or LOWEST PRICE and upon the most ADVANTAGEOUS TERMS.

BECAUSE the properties are ACCESSIBLE TO 4,000,000 PEOPLE, and considering the RAPID GROWTH OF GREATER NEW YORK and its TRIBUTARY CITIES and TOWNS, it is only a question of a SHORT TIME when LOTS in ROSEDALE and LINDEN PARK will EQUAL IN VALUE those of our MOST NOTED cemeteries.

FOR INFORMATION concerning lots in these beautiful Park Cemeteries, and FREE transportation to prospective lot buyers, apply at once to any LEADING UNDERTAKER or offices of the Associations:

MODEL WIVES AND MOTHERS

Sometimes the World Is Inclined to Exaggerate Their Goodness.

"Ah, she was such a good woman!" they said of Mrs. Blank when she died.

"Model wife and mother!" put in another enthusiastic friend.

And I thought over that quite a bit. Was she such a success as wife and mother?

Her two sons, it is true, were now honored members of the community, but they had certainly had a wild and foolish youth. At one time it was even whispered that the youngest— Well, boys will be boys! And yet it was strange, considering that he had such a good home and such a good mother.

"Was his mother aware of what he was going through?"

"Oh, dear, no. She hadn't even an idea that such troubles existed in the world! She was a saintly woman. It would never have done to tell her anything about it. She never suspected a thing. Arthur would have died rather than confide in her anything more intense than his progress in his studies and his work. Oh, dear, no! He fought it out alone. It was the same thing with her daughter Alice. At sixteen she knew more about the world than her mother ever did.

"Alice used to go to the mother of one of her friends for advice. She was a rather frivolous, worldly minded woman and entirely without Mrs. Blank's saintly character and spiritual nature."

"Did the children love their mother?"

"Oh, yes, indeed; they had the greatest respect and admiration for her—much the same feeling they had for the beautiful bit of porcelain china in the parlor which was meant to look at, but never for use."

"And her husband?"

"Oh, well, he had such a model home that whenever he wanted to put his feet up on a chair or do anything disgraceful like that after a hard day's work he used to go to the club. Oh, no; he never smoked at home! You couldn't associate anything so vulgar as smoke with Mrs. Blank's gentle, refined nature. Why, she was as dainty and pure minded as a flower. Mr. Blank was not fit to be her husband. He was made of much coarser clay. Why, he used to read the sporting page and go occasionally to a boxing match! Of course he never told her these things, but once she came in suddenly and found him reading a dreadful large typed account of a prize fight in a paper, and, my dear, it almost killed her. She wasn't herself for days afterward."

Ah, yes, she was a wonderful soul, a model wife and mother!

And yet of the inner life of her husband and her children, of their likes, dislikes, struggles and inward cries for help, this model wife and mother knew not one blessed thing.

How to Decorate the Otherwise Unattractive Top Floor Hallway.

In most houses the top hall is not very attractive.

Why not furnish it as the picture suggests? The walls may be papered in plain color or painted. The frieze will be of nursery rhyme pictures, which may be obtained at any interior decorator's or cut from magazines and framed in passe partout. If there are enough, paste them continuously. Some long poster pictures framed simply in green wood hang on the walls, and an old lounge is neatly covered with an art cretonne slip, or it may be re upholstered with the assistance of fine tacks and a long upholsterer's needle threaded with twine. The floor is pretty stained green, and the matting may be of the inexpensive Japanese kind, green and white. Thus the approach to the children's nursery or to their bedrooms can be made attractive and the house will be beautified at the same time.

The Romance of a Pirate's Daughter

By FRANK R. STOCKTON

Copyright, 1902, by D. Appleton & Co., New York.

CHAPTER XXIV.

A GIRL WHO LAUGHED.

IT WAS towards nightfall of the day on which Dickory had escaped from the pirates at the spring that he found himself on a piece of high ground in an open place in the forest, and here he determined to spend the night. With his dirk he cut a quantity of palmetto leaves and made himself a very comfortable bed, on which he was soon asleep, fearing no pirates.

In the morning he rose early from his green couch, ate the few biscuits which were left in his pockets, and, putting on his shoes and stockings, started forth upon what might have been supposed to be an aimless tramp.

But it was not aimless. Dickory had a most wholesome dread of that indomitable apostle of cruelty and wickedness, the pirate Blackbeard. He believed that it would be quite possible for that savage being to tie up his beard in tails, to blacken his face with powder, to hang more pistols from his belt and around his neck, and swear that the Revenge should never leave her anchorage until her first lieutenant had been captured and brought back to her. So he had an aim, and that was to get away as far as possible from the spot where he had landed on the island.

With his shoes on he traveled more easily, although not so swiftly, and after an hour of very rough walking he heard a sound which made him stop instantly and listen. At first he thought it might be the wind in the trees, but soon his practiced ear told him that it was the sound of the surf upon the beach. Without the slightest hesitation, he made his way as quickly as possible towards the sound of the sea.

In less than half an hour he found himself upon a stretch of sand which extended from the forest to the sea, and upon which the waves were throwing themselves in long, crested lines. With a cry of joy he ran out upon the beach, and with outstretched arms he welcomed the sea as if it had been an old and well-tried friend.

But Dickory thought of no enemy. He pressed on along the beach. The walking was so much better now that he made good progress, and the sun had not reached its zenith when he found himself on the shore of a small stream which came down from some higher land in the interior and here poured itself into the sea. He walked some distance by this stream, in order to get some water which might be free from brackishness, and then, with very little trouble, he crossed it. Before him was a knoll of moderate height, and covered with foliage. Mounting this, he found that he had an extended view over the interior of the island. In the background there stretched a wide savanna, and at the distance of about half a mile he saw, very near a little cluster of trees, a thin column of smoke. His eyes rounded and he stared and stared. He now perceived, from behind the leaves, the end of a thatched roof.

"People!" Dickory exclaimed, and his heart beat fast with joy. Why his heart should be joyful he could not have told himself except that there was no earthly reason to believe that the persons who were making that fire near that thatched-roof house were pirates. To go to this house, whatever it might be, to take his chances there instead of remaining alone in the wide forest, was our young man's instant determination.

After a brisk walk, which was somewhat longer than he had supposed it would be, Dickory reached the house behind the trees. At a short distance burned the fire whose smoke he had seen. Over the fire hung an iron pot. Oh, blessed pot! A gentle breeze blew from the fire towards Dickory, and from the heavenly odor which was borne upon it he knew that something good to eat was cooking in that pot.

A man came quickly from behind the house. He was tall, with a beard a little gray, and his scanty attire was of the most nondescript fashion. With amazement upon his face, he spoke to Dickory in English.

"What, sir," he cried, "has a man-of-war touched at this island?"

Dickory could not help smiling, for the man's countenance told him how he had been utterly astounded, and even stupefied, by the sight of a gentleman in naval uniform in the interior of that island, an almost desert region.

"No man-of-war has touched here," said Dickory, "and I don't belong to one. I wear these clothes because I am compelled to do so, having no others. Yesterday afternoon I escaped from some pirates who stopped for water, and since leaving them I have made my way to this spot."

The man stepped forth quickly and stretched out his hand.

"Bless you! Bless you!" he cried. "You are the first human being, other than my family, that I have seen for two years."

A little girl now came from behind the house, and when her eyes fell upon Dickory and his cocked hat she screamed with terror and ran indoors. A woman appeared at the door, evidently the man's wife. She had a pleasant face, but her clothes riveted Dickory's attention. It would be impossible to describe them even if one were gazing upon them. It will be enough to say they covered her. Her amazement more than equaled that of her husband; she stood and stared, but could not speak.

"From the spring at the end of the island," cried the man, "to this house since yesterday afternoon! I have always supposed that no one could get here from the spring by land. I call that way impassable. You are safe here, sir, I am sure. Pirates would not follow very far through those forests and morasses; they would be afraid they would never get back to their ship. But I will find out for certain if you have reason, sir, to fear pursuit by boat or otherwise."

The man was now called away, and when he returned he said to Dickory: "Fear nothing, sir; your ship is no longer at the anchorage by the spring. She has sailed away, wisely concluding, I suppose, that pursuit of you would be folly, and even madness."

During the meal Dickory briefly told his story, confining it to a mere statement of his escape from the pirates.

"Blackbeard!" exclaimed the man. "Truly you did well to get away from him, no matter into what forests you plunged or upon what desert island you lost yourself. At any moment he might have turned upon you and cut you to pieces to amuse himself. I have heard the most horrible stories of Blackbeard."

"He treated me very well," said Dickory, "but I know from his own words that he reserved me for a most horrible fate."

"What!" exclaimed the man, "and he told you? He is indeed a demon!"

"Yes," said Dickory, "he said over and over again that he was going to take me to England to marry me to his daughter."

At this the wife could not refrain from a smile. "Matrimony is not generally considered a horrible fate," said she; "perhaps his daughter may be a most comely and estimable young person. Girls do not always resemble their fathers."

"Now tell me your story, I pray you," said Dickory. "But first, I would like very much to know how you found out that Blackbeard's ship was not at her anchorage?"

"That's a simple thing," said the man. "Of course you did not observe, for you could not, that from its eastern point where lies the spring, this island stretches in a long curve to the south, reaching northward again about this spot. Consequently, there is a little bay to the east of us, across which we can see the anchoring ground of such ships as may stop here for water. Your way around the land curve of the island was a long one, but the distance straight across the bay is but a few miles. Upon a hill not far from here there is a very tall tree, which overtops all the other trees, and to the upper branches of this tree my daughter, who is a great climber, frequently ascends with a small glass, and is thus able to report if there is a vessel at the anchorage."

"What!" exclaimed Dickory, "that little girl?"

"Oh, no!" said the man; "it is my other daughter, who is a grown young woman."

"She is not here now," said the mother. And this piece of unnecessary information was given in tones which might indicate that the young lady had stepped around to visit a neighbor.

"It is important," said the man, "that I should know if vessels have anchored here, for if they be merchantmen I sometimes do business with them."

"Business!" said Dickory. "That sounds extremely odd. Pray tell me how you came to be here."

"My name is Mander," said the other, "and about two years ago I was on my way from England to Barbadoes, where, with my wife and two girls, I expected to settle. We were captured by a pirate ship and marooned upon this island. I will say, to the pirate captain's credit, that he was a good sort of man considering his profession. He sailed across the bay on purpose to find a suitable place to land us, and he left with us some necessary articles, such as axes and tools, some kitchen utensils, and a gun with some ammunition. Then he sailed away, leaving us here, and here we have since lived. Under the circumstances, we have no right to complain, for had we been taken by an ordinary pirate it is likely that our bones would now be lying at the bottom of the ocean.

"Here I have worked hard and have made myself a home, such as it is. There are wild cattle upon the distant savannas, and I trap game and birds, cultivate the soil to a certain extent, and if we had clothes I might say we would be in better circumstances than many a respectable family in England. Sometimes when a merchantman anchors here and I have hides or anything else which we can barter for things we need, I row over the bay in a canoe which I have made, and have thus very much bettered our condition. But in no case have I been able to provide my family with suitable clothes."

LIMOGES RIOTS CONTINUE.

Troops Open Fire on Workmen Who Had Erected Street Barricades.

LIMOGES, April 18.—Disturbances incident to the strike of workmen employed in the porcelain industry were more serious last evening. Strikers demanded the release of those of their comrades who were arrested Sunday night and on being refused attempted to force their way into the prison.

Mounted troops arrived at the scene, but the strikers tore down the fences in the vicinity, erected barricades and raised red and black flags. The cavalry charged several times, but the horses fell among wire and rope entanglements. The police commissary called on the strikers to disperse, and the response was a volley of stones. A number of soldiers were hurt.

The troops then fired blank cartridges, followed by ball, killing one, mortally injuring another and wounding several of the strikers. Further charges by the cavalry were successful, the crowd retreating into side streets, from whence they showered stones and other missiles on the troops. A large number of arrests were made.

JAMES RHODDA ARRESTED.

Has Confessed Graft in Issuing Miners Certificates.

HAZLETON, Pa., April 18.—James Rhodda of upper Lehigh, a member of the miners' examining board, who is charged with fraud in connection with granting of certificates of competency to mine workers, has been arrested here on a warrant sworn out by District President Dettrey of the United Mine Workers of America. Rhodda waived a hearing and entered bail in $500 for court.

His arrest followed a confession he made to the mine workers that he and his colleagues on the examining board had issued certificates to hundreds of applicants without regard to their qualification and that they had received various sums of money for issuing the papers.

District President Dettrey says there have been 350 accidents, 100 resulting fatally, in the district during the last twelve months, and officials of the Mine Workers' union declare that the promiscuous sale of certificates to incompetent miners is the principal cause of the accidents.

LIKE A FRENCH DUEL.

Affray With Swords at Havana Ends Without Much Bloodshed.

HAVANA, April 18.—One of the results of the seizure by six Nationalist congressmen of papers in the case of alleged improper acts by Nationalist councilmen and officials of the city of Havana was a duel with swords here between Congressmen Carlos Mendieta and Armando Andre, a government employee, who had written a letter to a newspaper strongly condemnatory of Mendieta and the other congressmen concerned in the seizure of the papers.

Mendieta inflicted a trifling wound on his opponent's arm, and the honor of both the duelists was thereupon considered to have been satisfied.

The Fusionist members of congress at a meeting appointed a committee to explain to President Palma the reasons for the seizure of the papers.

Old Soldier Commits Suicide.

CHELSEA, Mass., April 18.—John P. Jensen, a civil war veteran under indictment on forty counts for alleged larceny from the Soldiers' home in this city, killed himself by shooting with a revolver. Many articles, it is said, had been stolen from the home.

SPORTING NEWS.

DIAMOND DUST.

The three C's in the outfield form a great combination which can't be beat.

Merity handled the indicator with entire satisfaction, showing no partiality.

Frank Burke's Elizabeth Stars will be the attraction at Crescent Oval on Saturday.

Captain Driscoll is up to his old tricks of taking care of everything in his territory.

Captain Driscoll was highly elated over the victory and he lives in Jersey City, too.

"Pete" Oregan, the yeast man from Peekskill, was roundly applauded for his fine showing.

Westfield will open on Saturday with the Seventh Regiment team. A cinch for Westfield.

Oldring is a veritable "Rube" in appearance, but he is right at home at second and at the bat.

Mrs. Daab, wife of Manager Daab, and the latter's brother, of Hoboken, were interested spectators at the game.

Cosgrove in center field, fully justified the expectation of his friends and the lead the hitting with three timely singles.

Roy Phillips was in the box office and he received the cash and gave out tickets with his accustomed quickness and accuracy.

Great card in beating the former Eastern League champions. Now for a successive line of victories, including Westfield.

It was an auspicious opening. Had the day been of the mid-summer variety the attendance would have been twice as large.

There was no "knocking" and this encouraged the team and the management. A more satisfied crowd never gathered at the oval.

Manager Daab and Lines Groo will visit Crescent Oval today for the purpose of planning for more bleachers and other improvements.

"Pete" Oregan says that he had about decided to give up baseball, but the temptation to play in Plainfield this season was too great.

The "sporting editor" of Westfield Standard who made a comparison of the Westfield and Plainfield teams last week, will have to revise his opinions.

It was Linderman's third game this season, but he had all the twists and benders and Manager Murray's aggregation could do nothing with him. He was superbly caught by "Pete" Lamar, who was a terror to base runners.

What has become of Manager Malien? Large quantities of "hot air" seems to be escaping from his summer headquarters, but isn't it about time that something was heard directly from the only and original "Hot air?"

Charlie Denman and "Red" Waller did not "wear the smile that won't come off." They were thinking of the coming series. Besides "Red" remarked that if he could arrange matters he might return to Bridgeport this season. Jersey City is after him, too.

Almost any country tailor—even a washerwoman—can clean and press baseball uniforms, but when it comes to the matter of "doing up" a first-class team, with a bunch of "cast-offs," just think it over or else wait for the answer at Crescent Oval the latter part of May.

The Westfield Standard says that Paddy Cotter could never catch a train in replying to a fan's remarks that he is the smartest catcher that ever stood behind the rubber in Westfield. Last season the Westfield sports thought him the best ever and they never got tired of praising his play. "Al." Farmer, a steady, conscientious player, will be all right with the fickle Westfield crowd until he goes lame in the feet or splits a hand and then they will clamor for a change.

Lines Groo, secretary and treasurer of the Plainfield Baseball Association, has been "in the game" for thirty years, having commenced playing professional ball at the age of seventeen. He enjoys the distinction of brining out many noted players, including Michael J. Kelly, known under the cognomen of "King Kelly," one of the greatest all around players that ever stepped on the diamond. Mr. Groo has taken up his residence here and will devote his spare time winter and summer to furthering the the interests of the game and trusts that the public will be satisfied with the work of the management.

F. M. Murphy, manager of the Sterling baseball team, would like to arrange dates with neighboring teams.

CLOSED PORTALS.

The Red Men of Union County have decided to take part in the 125th anniversary celebration of the Battle of Elizabethtown to be observed in an elaborate manner at Elizabeth on June 6, and the local tribes have received invitations to join the others in the county. There will be a parade in which various lodges will participate.

In the City Court.

Frank Drake, who was arrested yesterday for threatening to do up Doorman O'German at police headquarters, was fined $5. Garret Wilson, charged with disorderly conduct by his landlady, was released under suspended sentence. John Morecraft, old offender, charged with helpless drunkeness, surprised Judge Runyon by offering to take the pledge; he was released with that understanding. David McLernon, drunk and disorderly, was fined $3. Mrs. Mary Eskesen and Kate Barry, charged with quarreling and using abusive language by Mrs. Aleck McGuiggan, were released under suspended sentence. Each side talked for an hour, and put all the blame on the other side. The magistrate couldn't winnow the stories.

Crucifixion Illustrated.

An exhibition of stereopticon views representing scenes of the Crucifixion was given at the parish house of the Church of the Heavenly Rest last night. The slides were operated by Rev. Mr. Walker. The choir sang eleven hymns appropriate to the scenes.

A Sunday-school concert is being arranged for Sunday night, April 30, at the Congregational church.

The Junior Christian Endeavor Society of the Congregational church will meet Thursday afternoon at 3:45 o'clock.

The concert being arranged by Clifford Braider, organist of the First Presbyterian church, will be given on Thursday night, May 11.

The Home Mission Circle of the Park Avenue Baptist church will meet this afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. S. Pray, 235 East Sixth street.

Rev. Dr. W. C. Snodgrass and family will move to Perth Amboy, tomorrow, where Dr. Snodgrass will become pastor of the M. E. church.

Miss Reeve, of Newark, will address the Girls' Club, of the Congregational church tomorrow afternoon at 5 o'clock. Supper will be served at 6:30.

"Table Talks of Christ," will be the subject of a talk to be given at the First Presbyterian church Thursday night by the pastor, Rev. C. E. Herring.

On account of the Good Friday service at the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church, the Christian Endeavor Society meeting at the Park Avenue Baptist church will be omitted.

The total value of the boxes of useful articles sent to various mission fields by the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church, during the past year, is $584.53. This work has been in charge of the Women's Home Missionary Society.

Rev. Robert Chambers, of Turkey, will speak at a missionary tea to be held this afternoon at the home of Mrs. F. A. Weeks, 825 West Seventh street, under the auspices of the Women's Association of the Congregational church.

Rev. William Montgomery Downy, whose resignation as rector of the Church of the Holy Cross, will take effect June 1, has decided to retire from active pastoral duties for the present. He and Mrs. Downy will make their home on Long Island during the summer.

The men and women of the Park Avenue Baptist church joined in a cottage prayer meeting at the home of Mrs. Walter H. Freeman, 1008 South avenue, last night. A similar meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. G. F. Oydyke, 210 West Eighth street, Thursday night.

Rev. Edward Love, of East Ninth street, is in charge of a movement to establish a house of worship at Garwood, and an effort is now being made to raise $7,000 with which to build a chapel in that place. Although a good sized town Garwood has no church, but for several years a Sunday-school and lately a church service has been conducted in a store.

Commencing Monday, April 24, special meetings will be held at the Park Avenue Baptist church, under the leadership of Rev. Dr. W. J. Swatfield, pastor of the Lexington Avenue Baptist church, New York. He will remain here until Friday, April 28, when Rev. A. E. Finn, pastor of the church, will take charge. Services will be held every night at 8 o'clock and there will be special music.

Wins Athletic Honors.

At the annual inter-class track meet of Brown University, held April 12, Arthur L. Denton, of this city, carried off the honors for his class, 1908. Denton received first in the high jump, 5 feet, 7 inches; third in the broad jump 19 feet 4 inches and first in the pole vault 10 feet 1 inch. Denton is in training and hopes to compete in several more track meets.

Brush Heap Fire Spread.

A burning brush heap back of J. W. Gavett's store spread to a fence this morning and threatened an outbuilding. The fire department, summoned by telephone, nipped the blaze before much damage was done.

J. M. Hawkins Recovering.

J. M. Hawkins, struck by a train at the North Avenue depot yesterday, was reported as improving at the hospital at noon today. The chances of death through severe internal injuries are regarded as lessened.

Trolley Hit Horse.

A horse attached to one of Swift & Co.'s fat wagons was hit by a trolley car on Richmond street at 10 o'clock this forenoon. It was not badly hurt.

GYM IMPROVEMENTS.

New Lockers and Apparatus for Y. M. C. A. Physical Department.

Improvements of general character in the gymnasium were decided on by the physical work committee of the Y. M. C. A. last night. Twenty-five new lockers will be placed in the basement, and the baths are to be put in first-class condition.

With the money made through the circus held two weeks ago, amounting to $90, new parallel bars will be purchased and the horizontal bar will be repaired. If money enough can be made available the association will purchase a steel bar.

GYM MEMBERS SUP.

Business Men's Class of Y. M. C. A. Hold Annual Affair.

The Business Men's class of the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium held its annual supper at the association building last night. It was attended by practically the entire class. The small hall, where the tables were laid, was prettily decorated, and the tables presented a highly attractive appearance.

Speeches were made by Dr. N. H. Prebasco, Rev. A. E. Finn, and Dr. E. Rushmore. They spoke in praise of the physical work department.

Volunteers Want Pay.

In place of the tax exemption, taken from them by the recent ruling of the Supreme Court, the Dunellen volunteer firemen want $12 a year from the borough. Their exemption amounted to about $13 annually. The company is allied with the State organization in its effort to get a salary bill for volunteers through the Legislature, but the Dunellen men are thinking of petitioning their own Council for independent action.

Rev. Mr. Ashley Returned.

Before the New Jersey Conference of the A. M. E. Zion church closed at Atlantic City last night, the appointments for ministers were announced and Bishop Arnett has returned Rev. H. C. Ashely to the local A. M. E. congregation. Mr. and Mrs. Edwin B. Maynard, Mrs. Josephine Till, Mrs. Sarah E. Reilly, Theodore Hopper and Rev. Mr. Ashley attended the conference.

Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Struthers, of West Front street, will remain in Plainfield during the summer months. Mr. Struthers intends erecting a small cottage on his lot on Plainfield avenue, just outside the city limits, and there spend the summer.

FALLING GIRDER DEALS DEATH

Fatally Crushes John Kennedy, of Dunellen, in Accident at Newark.

TWO OTHERS HURT

Charles Wyhuskey Battling for Life in Hospital, and Walter Blair Suffering From Cuts and Bruises —Employes of Jersey Central.

One Dunellen man was killed and two others hurt, one dangerously, as the result of the fall of a fifteen-ton girder at a bridge the Central railroad is constructing on a branch line in Newark, at noontime yesterday. The dead man is John Kennedy, fifty-two years old. The injured are Charles Wyhuskey, who had an arm and a leg broken, and Walter Blair, who was bruised and cut. Wyhuskey is in St. James' Hospital, Newark, and the doctors are not sure that he escaped internal injuries of serious character. Blair was not badly hurt, and was able to return to his home near New Market a couple of hours after the accident.

The accident occurred at one of a string of bridges the road is building on what is known as the merchants' or Feigenspan branch, a spur that runs to the Feigenspan Brewery, Newark. The bridge crosses Sobalk street. It is located between the old Plank Road and the canal, a little north of the East Ferry street station on the Elizabethport-Newark branch.

Kennedy, Wyhuskey and Blair were all members of the gang constructing the bridge. Just before noon orders were given to lower one of the big spans into place. An iron chain, held taut by a steam derrick, was fastened around the steel girder, and the three men went in among the false work beneath the span to knock down the temporary wooden structure on the concrete pier for which there was no further use.

Without any warning the chair that held the span broke suddenly, and the steel girder, seventy feet long and ten feet wide, crashed down on the false work. Kennedy was pinned by one corner of the girder, and Wyhuskey was caught by the crushed false work, Blair was struck by flying chunks of wood and debris.

Kennedy was so badly hurt that there was never any hope for him after the girder caught him. The corner of the steel mass tore through his side, and laid open the stomach and abdomen in a sickening manner. He died three hours later in St. James' Hospital, Newark, to where the three men were carried with all possible speed.

Wyhuskey's left arm and left leg were broken, and it is feared that he sustained internal injuries that may make his recovery doubtful. The fractures are compound.

Blair was taken to the hospital with the others, but examination disclosed no more serious injuries in his case than cuts and contusions. He went home on the train, stopping in Dunellen's central section long enough to tell of the accident.

Kennedy's body was brought to Dunellen last night.

He is survived by a widow, and three children. The latter are Stephen, William and Lily, all grown. He was one of the borough's most highly respected citizens, and his tragic death has spread a tinge of sadness over the whole place. He was a member of the Methodist church choir and of the Junior Order United American Mechanics.

Test Police Law.

The constitutionality of the bill passed at the last session of the Legislature, under which commissioners to govern the police departments in cities of less than 100,000 population have been appointed in Bayonne, Orange, Passaic, Paterson and Camden, similar appointments being in contemplation in other places, is to be attacked in the courts by the local Democratic organization.

Knight of the Key.

"Fritz" Harding, chief junior plate passer at Clevely's restaurant, has resigned to become a telegrapher in the employ of the Central railroad. He studied the code and key tapping during his spare time, and took the test at the railroad office in Jersey City last week. He passed with honors, and was placed on the staff at once.

PREPARING TO RETURN TO CHILDREN'S HOME

IMPROVEMENTS TO THE INSTITUTION PRACTICALLY COMPLETED.

The improvements at the Children's Home practically being completed, it is the purpose of the association to move back to the commodious quarters about May 1. The handsome and well-appointed dormitory which has been made possible through the benefactions of friends, will be greatly appreciated. It will accommodate many more children and provides separate quarters for the treatment of the children when ill, as well as comfortable rooms for the matron and her assistants.

The many improvements made about the Home on Jackson avenue establishes the institution as one of the best in the State and will make it possible for the association to carry on its work with greater success than ever.

Mrs. Kimball, as president of the association, is planning for an informal opening of the Home after possession is taken and at that time all friends will be invited to inspect the new and improved quarters. While the changes have been underway the association has cared for the children in the old Nurses' Home on Muhlenberg place and the work has been allowed to continue with good success.

JURY NOW CONSIDERING BOXING INVESTIGATION

MATTER RESTS WHILE TESTIMONY IS BEING SIFTED.

After examining twenty or more witnesses, the Somerset County Grand Jury adjourned hearing in the North Plainfield boxing investigation, yesterday afternoon, and probably nothing further will be heard from it until the usual report to the court is made. Speculation as rife as to whether indictments will be returned but there was nothing in the questioning by the jurors to verify opinion either way. There were still ten or more of those subpoenaed in waiting when adjournment was taken. The witness fees paid in all by Sheriff Cooper amounted to about $20.

This morning the jury began considering the Williams murder case. Practically the same witnesses who appeared at Coroner Toms' inquest have been called and the testimony of each will be taken. Several alienists will also testify to the condition of George Wood, the man accused of the crime, as the claim has been advanced that he is mentally irresponsible. If an indictment is found, his case will probably be the first to come before the court at this term.

Begins His Pastorate.

Rev. F. E. Whiteside, formerly of this city, will begin his pastorage at the East Norwich, L. I. M. E. church, to which he was appointed by the recent meeting of the New York East M. E. Conference at Waterbury, Conn., next Sunday. The East Norwich is a suburb of Oyster Bay, where President Roosevelt's home is situated. It is, like most of the Long Island towns and villages a summer resort to a certain extent. The appointment is regarded as a good one in the Conference.

Building Five Houses.

William Jeffery, the local real estate specialist, has begun the erection of five houses in the vicinity of West Fourth street, Rock and Rushmore avenues, for clients. Building operations are booming in that section and in the event of the proposed Piscataway township school being located there, many more houses will go up. The electric system will be extended there within a short time.

Acknowledge Donations.

The furnishing committee of the Children's Home acknowledges the receipt of twenty dollars from the Sabbath-school of the Seventh-Day Baptist church for the establishment of a bed at the Home, and ten dollars from the infant department of the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church towards another bed to be completed later.

—The Plainfield High School will present "The Rivals" at the Casino on Saturday night, May 13.

BOLD DAYLIGHT ROBBERY

Thieves Ransack T. R. VanZandt's Home This Morning.

FAMILY ALL AWAY

Discovery Made at Noon—The Chief and Force Now Making Investigation.

Thieves gained entrance to the home of T. R. VanZandt on Madison avenue, this morning, and ransacked nearly every room, getting away with a large amount of jewelry, silverware and other valuables.

The members of the family had been absent since 8:30 and the robbery was not discovered until Mr. VanZandt went home for lunch early this afternoon. He was attracted by a hole in the front glass door and on entering the hall found everything topsy-turvy. A hurried examination showed the same condition of affairs in the rooms on both upper and lower floors.

The police were apprised of the affair and Chief Kiely and Detective McCarthy are now conducting a personal investigation. As yet they have gained no clue as the neighbors noticed no strangers about the place during the morning.

The VanZandt residence is located near many others and the thieves had to stand in plain view in order to get the glass out.

FEAST OF PASSOVER BEGINS AT SUNSET

SERVICES IN THE SYNAGOGUE OF THE CHILDREN OF ISRAEL.

Today at sunset the Hebrew feast of Pesach, or Passover, will begin. In the local synagogue, the Congregation of the Children of Israel, will observe the feast as usual. The festival lasts seven days, during which unleavened bread (matzos) is eaten. The orthodox Jews celebrate an extra day. The festival is to commemorate the deliverance of the children of Israel from Egyptian bondage under Pharoah.

The orthodox Jews will celebrate the first, second, seventh and eighth days as holidays, although there will be special services every day during the feast.

The orthodox Jews will at different periods of each day hold services in their homes. Those who keep the Passover strictly do not take anything that is leavened (chometz) for seven days. This includes beer, candy, bread, cake and spirituous liquors.

Today the head of the house gathers together all chometz, which is burned the following morning. It is also customary for a firstborn to fast on the day before Passover, in memory of the miraculous redemption of the firstborn children of the Israelites and the destruction of the firstborn of the Egyptians.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH RAISED $20,000 IN YEAR

ANNUAL MEETING OF THE CONGREGATION LAST NIGHT.

Encouraging reports of the past year's work from a financial point of view and the election of trustees, occupied the attention of the congregation of the First Baptist church at the annual parish meeting, held last night. L. V. F. Randolph presided at the meeting.

The report of Alex Gilbert, treasurer, showed that the total receipts for the year amounted to about $20,000, and in addition the board of trustees presented a very full and comprehensive report in detail of the financial situation. There is no church deficit and the condition is gratifying spiritually as well as financially. Plans are now underway to increase the revenue from members of the church and congregation.

L. V. F. Randolph and C. B. Leonard were re-elected trustees to succeed themselves. The election was unanimous. Their terms are for three years.

LIMOGES STRIKE IS WATCHED HERE

Edwin Haviland, of East Second Street, for 50 Years Agent of China Factory.

PLAINFIELDER CONSUL

Rev. Mr. Griffin Has Represented American Government at That City for Many Years.

The French government at a Cabinet meeting held at the Elysee Palace yesterday was occupied with the Limoges strike and resolved to accept the interpellations in the Chamber for immediate discussion.

The condition at Limoges has a local interest inasmuch as Edwin Haviland, of East Second street, was the American agent of the Haviland factory for fifty years, and Rev. Walter T. Griffin, of Watchung avenue, is the American consul at Limoges. Mr. Haviland recently retired as agent for the firm owing to advanced age, but still takes a deep interest in its business.

The strike riots at Limoges are developing international features, as the Haviland factory, employing six thousand persons, of which Theodore and Charles Haviland, Americans, are the chief proprietors, is the centre of the disorder.

Accordingly the American Ambassador, General Porter, is taking active steps to insure the protection of American interests against violence and to secure an adjustment between the proprietors of the factory and the workmen.

At M. Delcasse's request, General Porter used his good offices with the Messrs. Haviland. The latter, however, maintained that the workmen were no justified in demanding the discharge of the foreman of the factory, and therefore, his efforts to effect a reconciliation were unsuccessful.

PLAINFIELD TEAM READY FOR STARS

ELIZABETH NINE SCHEDULED FOR SATURDAY AT OVAL.

The Elizabeth Stars, one of the best baseball teams in the State, will have its first clash with the Plainfield team at Crescent Oval Saturday afternoon, and a battle royal is expected. Manager Frank Burke has heard all about last Saturday's game on the oval and he proposes to prepare himself for a hard fight. He will select "Flick" Luyster or Duke to do the pitching and either one can be depended upon to deliver the goods, while with Poole behind the bat that position will be well taken care of. Stallings will cover first base, Foster will be on second, Flynn at short and Curley at third, all well-known players of ability. In the outfield will be Berthwhistle, Finn and Middleton, fast fielders and good stickers.

Manager Daab will present his same lineup to oppose the Stars and there is every reason to believe that his players will turn the trick as they did in the initial contest. Now that local fandom has had the opportunity to see the locals against an Eastern League attraction, it has a good idea of their ability and has confidence in the team to win out.

The Stars will be accompanied by a large crowd of rooters and they will make things lively at one end of the stand. The local fans are anxious for the contest and the indications are that with a warm day, the attendance will far exceed that of last Saturday. The game will be called at 3:30 o'clock. In providing more bleacher seats better accommodations will be planned for the horses, carriages and automobiles.

The lineup for Saturday's game will be as follows:

Plainfield—Cosgrove, cf; Oldring, 2b; Kiernan, ss; Leonard, 3b; Driscoll, 1b; Oregan, lf; Connelly, rf; Lamar, c; Linderman or Beisel, p.

Stars—Berthwhistle, cf; Foster, 2b; Flynn, ss; Curley, 3b; Stallings, 1b; Finn, lf; Middleton, rf; Poole, c; Luyster or Duke, p.

Party for Miss Weeks.

Mrs. Frank A. Weeks, of West Seventh street, will give her daughter, Miss Martine Weeks, an Easter party on Tuesday afternoon, April 25, from 3 to 5 o'clock. About thirty young people have received invitations to the affair.

HOME FOR ORPHANS

Dr. Coles Improving His Gift to Newark Institution.

AT MOUNTAINSIDE

Alterations Being Made and Building Will be Ready for Occupancy June 1.

Having purchased the property known as the Fowler farm, at Mountainside, Dr. J. Ackerman Coles, of Scotch Plains, has ordered the building of a large extension to the former residence in order to make it large enough for the Newark Orphan Home. The well known philanthropist will give the place to the Home officials to enable them to carry on their good work. He secured possession of it nearly a year ago but when he made known his intentions it was found that numerous alterations would have to be made which would entail an expense the Home believed it could not meet. The doctor at once had the plans drawn and is now bearing the cost, the work to be completed by June 1.

The property until recently has been occupied by St. George Rathbone, the writer, and is an ideal place for an institution of this nature. It is situated upon a knoll, surrounded by large and spacious lawns, shade trees in abundance and spring water.

A short time ago, Dr. Coles also paid off the mortgage on the Newark Fresh Air Home, situated on the road leading from Westfield to Mountainside.

TO STAY AS HEAD OF COUNTY COMMITTEE

JACOB SHURTS' CHANGE OF MIND MAY STOP FACTIONAL FIGHT IN SOMERSET.

After three unsuccessful attempts to have his resignation as chairman of the Somerset County Democratic Committee accepted, Jacob Shurts announced last night at Somerville that at the behest of many leaders from different sections of the county, among whom Senator Childs, of the State committee, was the most prominent, he has decided to reconsider his resignation and continue as chairman of the county committee.

Mr. Shurts explained that he was in ill health several months ago, when he resigned, but that he was much better now and in compliance with the request of county leaders would continue as the party's head.

Three meetings of the committee have been called since Shurts resigned on January 14 last, for the purpose of accepting his resignation and electing his successor. At each of these meetings bitter factional controversies arose, and at the last meeting, held two weeks ago, the remarks of members of factions favoring the election of Major Nelson Y. Dungan and John A. Frech became so personal that some members of the committee abruptly left the meeting declaring they would have nothing more to do with the matter.

Mr. Shurts's decision to retain the chairmanship is considered by those in a position to know the situation as the only means of preventing the party from having a factional fight on its hands next fall.

Series of Lecture Readings.

A series of lecture-readings will be given in this city by Mrs. Helen Weil, of Cambridge, Mass., as follows: Monday, April 24, "Pippa Passes," at Mrs. D. H. Rowland's; Thursday, April 27, "Pompilia," at Mrs. J. Kirtland Myers'; Monday, April 30, "A Blot in the 'Scutcheon," at Mrs. George P. Mellick's. The lectures will be given at 11 o'clock in the morning. Referring to Mrs. Weil, the Washington Post, says: "The Russian Embassy was thronged yesterday morning with prominent residents from official and private circles to listen to a reading by Mrs. Helen Weil, of Cambridge, Mass. The subject was Stephen Phillips's 'Paolo and Francesca,' the story of whose tragic love was told with a depth of expression and artistic conception that marks Mrs. Weil first among her profession."

Free Oratorio.

A musical Lenten service will be given at the First Baptist church tomorrow night when the choir will render Stainer's "Crucifixion" and other suitable selections. No cards of admission will be required. E. J. Fitzhugh will conduct the choir and Howard Case will preside at the organ.

PLAINFIELD TWINS ARE GRIEVING

Their Pretty French Nurse in Prison for Grand Larceny.

DRINK, HER RUIN

Downfall of Refined Young Woman Employed As a Nurse by W. B. Smith, of Washington Avenue.

Refusing to be comforted, their chubby faces stained with tears, William Benjamin and Wilmina Benjina Smith, twins, of two years, both in North Plainfield, are mourning in their handsome home, at No. 68 West Sixty-ninth street, New York, for the French nurse who has been their constant companion almost since their birth, and whom they have not seen for two weeks.

On the verge of collapse in a Tombs prison cell, awaiting sentence today on an indictment for grand larceny, to which she pleaded guilty, is Emily Leutner. She is a refined and accomplished young woman, born and educated in Paris, and speaks three languages. She had been governess in one home for nine years before she entered the employ of William B. Smith, who formerly lived on Washington avenue, in the borough, president of a half dozen companies, with a downtown office at No. 14 Church street, soon after the birth of the Smith twins in the borough. Afternoon visitors to Central Park around the West Seventy-second street entrance have seen Emily Leutner and her remarkably pretty young charges, who, dressed exactly alike, have been much admired. So constant has been her attendance upon them that their first words were lisped in French and their English has a piquant accent.

A few months ago, when Mrs. Smith found a black flask hidden in the nursery, the nurse was instantly dismissed, but was reinstated before she had left the house, upon her promise never to drink again and because her devotion to the twins and their love for her.

The end came two weeks ago, when Mrs. Smith, her suspicions again aroused, searched Emily's belongings in the fear of finding a bottle. Instead she found a pawn-ticket for a pearl-set locket belonging to one of the children. It had been pawned for $3. Fowler, the butler, was dispatched for a policeman, and Emily was arrested. She confessed that she had previously pawned two pins. Arraigned in the West Side Court, she was held for the Grand Jury, indicted, pleaded guilty in General Sessions and will be sentenced by Judge Foster today.

"I know I did wrong and that I should be punished," sobbed the young woman in the Tombs yesterday. "But I am not a thief and I did not mean to steal. My wages would have been due in a few days, and then I meant to take the things out.

"After I pawned the pins the nursery was moved upstairs, and I could not find the tickets, and did not dare tell. If I were a thief, there were Mrs. Smith's diamonds on the dresser, there was a $5,000 pearl necklace. It was to get the drink only and the drops from the druggist, so it would not be on my breath."

For several days last week the prisoner was under the care of the Tombs physician, threatened with nervous prostration. An effort will be made today to save her from a prison term and a suspended sentence, under conditions which will involve a complete mastery of the drink habit. She had perfected plans for a visit to her home in France next June.

Attachment on House.

In the attachment proceedings of Currin & Conover, grocers, of Somerset street, against Carrie S. Wheeler, the house and lot owned by the latter on West Third street, near Lee place, is set for sale at the sheriff's office this afternoon. I. P. Runyon is counsel for the grocers and C. M. Dolliver is auditor.

Miss Raybert Entertains.

Miss Etta Raybert, of North avenue, entertained some of the members of the choir from Trinity Reformed church, last night. There was an informal programme of vocal and instrumental music, after which refreshments were served.

MISSIONARY TEA AT MRS. F. A. WEEKS'

REV. DR. CHAMBERS TALKS TO CONGREGATIONAL WOMEN'S ASSOCIATION.

Under the auspices of the Women's Association, of the Congregational church, a missionary tea was held at the home of Mrs. Frank A. Weeks, of West Seventh street, yesterday afternoon. In addition to an interesting address by Rev. Dr. Robert Chambers, of Turkey, there were soprano solos by Miss Etta Raybert: contralto solos by Mrs. Stephen H. Tugwell and piano solos by Miss Alberta Waterbury.

Dr. Chambers talked in a general way of the progress being made along missionary lines in Turkey. The Congregational church has special interests in Ainpabe, Turkey, and Dr. Chambers related incidents of that work.

Mrs. Charles L. Goodrich, as president of the Women's Association, presided at the affair. After the address and the musicale, tea was served and a social time followed. Mrs. William McIntosh and Mrs. John V. Beekman poured tea and they were assisted by the members of the recently-organized Girl's Club, of the church. The table decorations comprised yellow jonquils. There were seventy persons present and about $70, representing the Lenten offering for missions, was received.

CENTRAL FOREMAN ACCUSED OF "GRAFT"

LABORER DECLARES IT COST HIM MONEY TO KEEP HIS JOB.

Charles Tilton, a former well known Dunellen resident, now foreman of the Jersey Central working force at the Elizabethport shops, secured a non-suit in the District Court, yesterday, in a suit brought by Alexander Techinsky to recover money which he alleged he paid over as "graft" to Tilton.

Techinsky, who was getting $1.35 a day in the shops, testified that he paid $2 and $3 each month last summer to keep his job, giving Tilton in all $12. He was threatened with discharge if he failed to "divvy up," he declared.

Tilton denied the charges, and intimated that he was the victim of a blackmailing scheme. He said that he had discharge Techinsky last March because he had refused to work at nights without an advance in wages.

New summons have been issued and the case will be re-opened Monday.

EXEMPTS ELECT.

Former North Plainfield Firemen Complete Their First Year as Organization.

The North Plainfield Exempt Firemen's Association held its first annual meeting, last night, at which the following officers were elected: President, Charles Keller; first vice president, J. J. Stahl; second vice president, A. D. Pope; secretary, David Bodine; collector, William Debele; treasurer, J. M. Higgins; trustees, William Ricketts and William Mills.

In its one year of existence, the association has prospered in many ways and at the present time is exceptionally strong. Its club rooms at Somerset street and Manning avenue are finely fitted up and the social features are the means of keeping the members interested at all times.

Postoffice Case.

The United States Grand Jury, sitting at Trenton yesterday, examined Postmaster Bird, Chief of Police Kiely and Postoffice Inspector Cortelyou in relation to the charge of abstracting money from the mails against Letter-Carrier Frank Clarkson. Clarkson, who is in the Hudson county jail, has admitted his guilt, and the examination was brief. If indicted and convicted he is liable to imprisonment for from one year to five.

J. M. Hawkins Will Recover.

Joseph M. Hawkins, who was struck by a local passenger train at the North Avenue station, Monday morning sustaining severe injuries, was declared today by Dr. G. W. Endicott, the attending physician, to have passed the danger point. His recovery is now only a matter of a short time.

TOM LAWSON ASKS NEWSPAPERS' AID

HAS SPENT $700,000 IN HIS FIGHT AGAINST TRUSTS.

Thomas Lawson, millionaire, author, broker, etc., has sent the following communication to The Daily Press:

"To the Press of America and Europe:

"'The 'system' has Lawson of Boston just where it wants him—short up to his ears of Amalgamated and Steel Preferred. They'll now break him. Good-by, Tom, good-by!' The expense of carrying on my 'Frenzied Finance' campaign, which has now been running ten months, has averaged $70,000 a month, but I regret to say that owing to the above misfortune I will be compelled to cut it to $30,000.

"In arriving at this decision my friends and enemies will know I now realize that while my spirit is willing my bank account is weak.

"Trusting that the ever-generous sports of the press will bear in mind that I toed the mark and asked no favors while I lasted, and that it is now their turn to come to the front with that of which they have no overplus—free space—I implore them to allow me to remain,

"Very truly and sincerely their busted co-worker,

"Thomas W. Lawson."

POINTS FOR THE BUYERS

This is a good time to put in your supply of coal, and TenEyck & Harris, will sell you the best at low prices.

Herman Hansen is a house builder in the strictest sense of the word. If you have your plans out for a home let him give you an estimate.

Because it's chilly, don't start the furnace fire going again. Order some grate wood from John Mebus; it will serve the purpose just as well.

Dudley Miller, the Park avenue druggist, is making a special drive on his celebrated malt extract. Try it and you will use no other kind.

In order to better show his big display of Easter flowers, Charles L. Stanley, has rented the store at 138 North avenue. Better see them before placing orders.

H. A. Weber, the Liberty street grocer, has some big specials on this week. A trial order will be sufficient to convince you that it is economical to buy at his store.

Open a bank account at the Dime Savings Institution and whenever you have any spare money deposit it there. You will be surprised to learn how rapidly the pile will grow.

Charles Vail, the Park avenue jeweler, besides carrying a stock of jewelry and silverware of exceptional value, is now making a specialty of rimless glasses. They look good and you see good and the prices are right.

April has given Plainfield such a lot of cold and disagreeable weather that many residents are suffering from grip. If you are one of the unfortunates, ask John P. Powers, the druggist, for that famous grip remedy he is selling.

S. Scheuer & Co., the West Front street grocers, are probably among the largest purveyors of groceries in the State. The firm buys in wholesale quantities and is able to give its patrons the benefit of low prices, and besides it is not mean about giving trading stamps. All the good at this store are the best and the firm guarantees entire satisfaction.

Easter Tour to Old Point Comfort, Richmond and Washington.

PROPOSALS FOR COAL.

Pursuant to a resolution adopted by the Board of Education of the City of Plainfield, N. J., at a meeting held April 3, 1905, notice is hereby given that the Board of Education will meet on Monday evening, April 24, 1905, at 7:45, at the Board room in the Stillman School, corner West Fifth street and Arlington avenue, in the City of Plainfield, at which time and place said Board of Education will receive sealed proposals for furnishing five hundred tons, (more or less), of the best coal, such as Upper Lehigh, Honeybrook, Nottingham, Highland, or Lodo Coal, in the different sizes, including buckwheat size. The quantity required of each size can be obtained from the clerk of the Board, office of the Board of Education. Parties bidding will be required to specify the shippers of the coal in their bids. All coal to be thoroughly screened over a sieve suitable to free the coal of all dust and small particles of coal, and to be acceptable to the Committee on Fuel, or their representative, and placed in the coal bins within the public school buildings without any extra charge for handling or trimming the coal in the bins, and to be delivered at such time as the Board may direct. Bids to specify whether short or long tons. Payment for all coal contracted for to be made after July 1, 1905. All proposals to be endorsed "Proposals for Coal," and addressed to the Committee on Fuel and left at the office of the Board of Education, at or before the hour mentioned for such meeting to be held.

Upon receipt of the bids or proposals, the Board will immediately proceed to unseal the same and publicly announce the contents in the presence of the parties bidding, or their agents, provided such parties or their agents choose to be then and there present, and also to make proper record of the prices and terms upon the minutes of the Board.

The Board reserves the right to reject any or all bids.

For the Committee on Fuel,
F. B. CLARK, Clerk of the Board.

ARVERNE STAKES TO PREEN.

Crown Prince Won the Handicap at Aqueduct.

NEW YORK, April 19.—Preen, a third choice, scored an easy victory in the Arverne stakes at the Aqueduct track. Preen took the lead in the first furlong and was never headed, winning by one and a half lengths. Hildebrand and W. Davis both claimed foul against the winner, but the claim was not allowed.

The handicap was won easily by the favorite, Crown Prince, with eight lengths to spare. Five favorites won.

Gold Coin, winner of the first race, was bid up to $3,000, an advance of $1,800 over his entered selling price. M. L. Hayman was the buyer. Summaries:

First Race.—Gold Coin, first; Phyllis, second; Bantam, third.

Second Race.—Crown Prince, first; Kehailan, second; High Wind, third.

Third Race.—Orly II, first; Uncle Urigh, second; Gold Dome, third.

Fourth Race.—Preen, first; Santa Catalina, second; Czarapline, third.

Fifth Race.—Merrick, first; Nellie Burns, second; Rickey, third.

Sixth Race.—Gallant, first; Black Prince, second; Goldsmith, third.

Sensation on Memphis Track.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., April 19.—Backed down from 25 to 1 to 8 to 1, Captain Brown's bay colt Broadcloth, ridden by J. Martin, furnished one of the biggest sensations of the meeting by winning the Arkansas handicap at Montgomery park from Jake Sanders, the odds on favorite. Aubuchon, who had the mount on the favorite, protested to the judges that Sanders was interfered with, but the judges refused to allow the protest.

Ward and White Won Finals.

NEW YORK, April 19.—Holcombe Ward and Beals C. Wright, the national doubles lawn tennis champions, won the final match at the indoor tournament on the courts of the St. Nicholas rink here. They defeated W. C. Grant and E. B. Dewhurst in three straight sets by the score of 6—3, 6—2, 6—2.

Crusados Won In Last Jump.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 19.—The day proved to be a good one for favorites, which won all but the second race at Oakland. Considerable interest was attached to the fourth race, which was participated in by a quartet of fast horses. Crusados won the race in the last jump, finishing in a spectacular manner.

Pretension at St. Louis.

ST. LOUIS, April 19.—Pretension, Pat Civill's bay gelding, with an impost of 122 pounds, won the feature at the American Jockey club's meeting after a heartbreaking struggle with Bill Woodward throughout the entire six furlongs. Aden, heavily played at 10 to 7 to win, was left at the post.

Yale Kicking Contest.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., April 19.—At the annual Yale kicking contest, open to all football men of the university, the first prize for punting was won by Paul L. Veeder of Chicago. The drop kicking contest was won by Herman F. Zimowski of New Haven. Cups were awarded to the winners.

Five Favorites Beaten.

ST. LOUIS, April 19.—Fantail, Mayor Graham, Jim A. Long, Pinkerton and Amberita were beaten favorites at the fair grounds.

Family Cat Saved Them.

MONTCLAIR, N. J., April 19.—A big pet cat saved the lives of the members of the family of Joseph H. Tryon of Bloomfield. Four members of the family and their guest were asleep in their home when Mr. Tryon was awakened by Toby, the cat, scratching at his face. The animal was persistent, and finally Mr. Tryon arose to find smoke pouring from the kitchen. All escaped, and the fire was extinguished with little loss.

Asylum Attendants Not Guilty.

NEWARK, N. J., April 19.—The jury in the case of the four state asylum attendants accused of the murder of Patrick Corrigan, an inmate of the asylum, last night returned a verdict of not guilty in the case of each of the men, and the court immediately ordered their discharge from custody.

Steamer Fast In the Ice.

DEATH FOR KALEIEFF

Assassin of Grand Duke Sergius Secretly Condemned.

PRINCESS SHOT AT GENERAL TREPOFF

Russian Women of High Rank, Converts to Terrorism, Attempt Life of St. Petersburg's Governor, but Design Failed.

MOSCOW, April 19.—The assassin of the Grand Duke Sergius has been tried by the supreme court here and sentenced to death. The trial was secret.

The only persons present through the trial were members of the entourage of the late Grand Duke Sergius and counsel, of whom two were assigned the accused assassin, Kaleieff. The prisoner's mother was not admitted, but remained in the corridor. Senator Deier presided. Senator Shcheglovitoff, procurator general of the department of cassation, was the senate prosecutor. When Kaleieff was arraigned he replied: "I am not a criminal, and you are not my judges. I am your prisoner. We have a civil war. I am a prisoner of war, not a criminal."

Twelve witnesses were examined. Prior to passing sentence the president asked Kaleieff if he would repeat the crime if he were given his liberty. He replied, "Without doubt I would repeat it if ordered by the revolutionary committee, to which I am attached."

When sentence of death was passed Kaleieff shouted, "Execute your judgment as openly as I have acted before the eyes of all."

The date of execution has not been specified.

The identity of Kaleieff was established through the discovery of a photograph belonging to Savinkoff, who had been his comrade both at the university and in exile. When Kaleieff was charged with his identity he admitted it, saying immediately, "Savinkoff has been arrested."

The police later thought they had captured Savinkoff, and so announced publicly, but it turns out that the man held under that name was another and that Savinkoff, to whom Kaleieff evidently had confided his intention of killing Grand Duke Sergius, is still safe abroad.

Alfred Henry McCullough, the man killed March 11 by the accidental explosion of a bomb at the Hotel Bristol, whose real name was Bauman, was one of the chiefs of the terrorists, having charge of the manufacture of bombs. Kaleieff, who killed Grand Duke Sergius, also belonged to the same group.

After Bauman's death his duties devolved upon Mlle. Leontieff (daughter of General Leontieff, who recently was appointed governor of Yakutsk, eastern Siberia), who became a convert to terrorism during her stay at Lucerne, Switzerland.

Perhaps the most romantic feature of the incident is the fact that Mlle. Leontieff converted two nieces of Governor General Trepoff, Mlle. Trepoff and Princess Denisheff, to the doctrine of assassination and that after the arrest of her mentor Mlle. Trepoff actually attempted the life of her uncle, firing two shots at him, both of which missed. Thereupon the two girls became panic stricken and attempted suicide, Mlle. Trepoff throwing herself under a train and Princess Denisheff shooting herself. Neither of them succeeded in their design.

Action Against H. S. Taylor.

TRENTON, N. J., April 19.—Mrs. Cornelia R. Kroehl of Asbury Park, by her next friend, Agnes P. H. Siegnorter of Yonkers, N. Y., who is her daughter, has filed in the court of chancery a bill to compel H. S. Taylor, husband of Mrs. Kroehl's housekeeper, to return the power of attorney which Mrs. Kroehl alleges was got from her while she was of unsound mind and under which authority Taylor is alleged to be wasting Mrs. Kroehl's property. Mrs. Kroehl is the mother of George F. Kroehl, the president of the defunct First National bank of Asbury Park. She is seventy-five years old.

Kaiser Praised Our Foreign Policy.

WASHINGTON, April 19.—Charles Page Bryan, American minister to Portugal, has reported to the state department the recent visit at Lisbon of the emperor of Germany, with whom Mr. Bryan had an interview. The emperor spoke in terms of high praise of the foreign policy of the United States and expressed his warmest admiration for the splendid qualities of President Roosevelt, to whom he charged Mr. Bryan to convey his warmest regards.

Mrs. Dubois Elected.

WASHINGTON, April 19.—Mrs. Fred T. Dubois, wife of Senator Dubois of Idaho, was elected president of the National Society of Children of the American Revolution, which has opened its annual meeting here. Mrs. Dubois succeeds Mrs. Burrows, the wife of Senator Burrows of Michigan, who because of ill health and for other reasons is unable to serve longer as president.

Meningitis Kills Five In Tenement.

NEW YORK, April 19.—Five children dead and three dying is the record of the ravages of cerebro spinal meningitis in a brick tenement on Little West Twelfth street. These victims belong to the families of Mrs. David Darder and Mrs. James Frawley.

Mrs. Roosevelt at Mount Vernon.

WASHINGTON, April 19.—Mrs. Roosevelt and the members of the family now in the city paid a visit to Mount Vernon. They made the trip on the Dolphin and were accompanied by some friends of the Roosevelt children who are visiting the White House.

FORMOSA CABLE CUT

Japanese Flotilla Reported Off Sampaloc Point.

TOKYO RESENTS CONDUCT OF FRANCE

French Aid to Russian Fleet May Call Britain's Assistance For Japan In Terms of Their Treaty of Alliance.

LONDON, April 19.—A Singapore dispatch this morning says that Russian agents have cut the cable between Fuchau and Formosa.

A dispatch from Manila says, "Sixteen Japanese cruisers and torpedo boat destroyers have been seen scouting off Sampaloc point."

A Manila special dispatch says that three war vessels were sighted at Batangas at 4 o'clock this morning. Their nationality is unknown.

Discussing the presence of Russian warships at Kamranh bay, the press of Tokyo declares that the use of the island of Madagascar by the Russian squadron was a direct and prolonged violation of the principle of neutrality, but on account of the distance Japan in that instance simply lodged a protest.

They, however, insist that Russia is now using Kamranh bay as a base for action against Japan and says she intends to use it as the point for effecting a junction with the remaining division of the squadron.

If the use of Kamranh bay is continued Japan must regard its neutrality as completely ignored, and Japan will not be obliged to respect its neutrality.

Violations of neutrality in distant ports are not important, but when close to the zone of war it is impossible to view them with the same leniency.

The newspapers further declare that France is lending the Russians efficient assistance, thus actually joining issue with Russia against Japan, and that it is now necessary for Japan to notify Great Britain and obtain her cooperation according to the terms of the Anglo-Japanese alliance.

"Protests," the papers assert, "are unavailing. The time for action has come."

A Paris dispatch says that the French government has taken every precaution to secure the observance of neutrality in French waters in Indo-China.

At St. Petersburg a mounted police squad attempted to suppress a demonstration of employees of the Putiloff Iron works after they had attended the funeral of a victim of a crane accident. A conflict ensued, the workmen firing revolvers and the police using the flats of their swords. Many were injured and arrested.

Lieutenant Leontieff, an officer of the aristocratic Preobraiensky regiment and brother of Mlle. Leontieff, who was arrested for connection with a terrorist plot, has been buried at St. Petersburg. Leontieff was asked by his brother officers to resign after the arrest of his sister and thereupon committed suicide. Grand Duke Michael Alexandrovitch attended the funeral.

THE REAL MRS. HOCH.

Katherine Von Palo Claims to Be the Original Wife.

CHICAGO, April 19.—A claim to be the original Mrs. Johann Hoch was made by Mrs. Katherine von Palo of Wisconsin. She identified Hoch at the county jail as the man who married her in Germany in 1875 and twice deserted her. The woman says Hoch's real name is Karl von Palo. Before a word was said when the woman confronted him at the jail Hoch threw up his hands, crying:

"Gott in himmel! She is a fraud!"

"Comé here, Karl," said Mrs. Von Palo in German. "You are my husband. Come here."

Hoch shrugged his shoulders, turned about and walked away.

"That is the man who married me in Germany thirty years ago," said the woman. "We were young and happy then. Karl was twenty-two and I was nineteen. I loved him, and I believe I could love him again. Ach, my poor Karl!"

Three Wounded at Washington.

WASHINGTON, April 19.—Three persons are seriously wounded, one of them, it is believed, fatally, as the result of a shooting and an attempt at self destruction which occurred here. The injured are Rutledge Robinson, aged sixty-two, an inmate of the Soldiers' home; Kate Norbeck, single, aged twenty-eight, and Frank Jones, white, aged fifty-two years.

Death to Mosquitoes.

ITHACA, N. Y., April 19.—The local health department has begun a war upon mosquitoes to prevent if possible a repetition of the malaria epidemic here last year. Experts have been engaged to treat breeding spots on swamp lands with oil, and every citizen has been called upon to kill mosquitoes seen flying about their houses or dooryards.

James I. Raymond Dead.

STAMFORD, Conn., April 19.—James I. Raymond, head of the house of A. A. Vantine & Co. of New York, who was operated upon for appendicitis last Saturday night, died at his home here last night. Mr. Raymond's condition somewhat improved, and it was believed he would recover, but a relapse came last night, and he died suddenly.

HAD BIG BEAR'S HIDE

Courier From President Comes Through Deep Snow.

LOEB GONE OUT FOR CONFERENCE.

Hunting So Far Enjoyable and Successful, but Snowstorm Holds Party to Their Original Camping Ground.

GLENWOOD SPRINGS, Colo., April 19.—Dispatches from President Roosevelt's hunting camp on the Charles Penny ranch, twenty-three miles southwest of Newcastle, reached Secretary Loeb last night. Elmer Chapman, the courier selected to bear messages between the president and his secretary, has arrived over the Colorado Midland railroad at Glenwood Springs.

It was learned from him that the president's hunting trip so far has been successful, for strapped across Chapman's saddle was a fresh bearskin which was brought out by the courier. Chapman said that this pelt was the only one that had been taken, but he would not say the animal had been brought down by the president's gun. It was taken for granted that this was the case, for otherwise it was not believed the skin would have been sent to Glenwood Springs.

Representatives of newspapers at Newcastle at once prepared to accompany the courier to Mr. Loeb's headquarters. The president's party has not yet shifted camp from the place where it was first located.

A fresh trail had been found, and the hunters had taken it up before Chapman's departure for Newcastle. Because of the heavy snow east of the camp it is not likely it will be changed for several days. The indications are that plenty of sport will be found in the present surroundings.

The courier remained here overnight, and Secretary Loeb has accompanied him to Newcastle, and together they will ride to the hunting camp. He has a number of matters to lay before the president, and his signature is needed to important documents.

Follows Roosevelt's Example.

CITY OF MEXICO, April 19.—President Diaz and a party of friends left here last night on a special train for Paruque Station, on the Cuernavaca branch of the Mexican Central, where they will begin a week's deer hunt in the mountains. The president is in excellent health and counts on a week of good sport.

HISSES FOR HYDE.

General Agents of Equitable Uphold Alexander.

NEW YORK, April 19.—After a meeting in which James H. Hyde, in the face of pronounced hostility and without a single supporter, defended himself and assailed his enemies, the general agents of the Equitable Life Assurance society in session at the Hotel Savoy unanimously passed a resolution upholding President James W. Alexander against the young millionaire and calling for mutualization.

James Hazen Hyde was hissed when he got up to make a speech at the meeting. When the hissing quieted down he turned to the crowd and said:

"I consider that the greatest compliment that you could pay me, for the man who led you in your hisses is not considered a good man at all. If I have done wrong, kick me out. If Mr. Alexander or Mr. Tarbell have done wrong, kick them out. That is what you are here for. You are to decide."

Mr. Hyde then left the meeting, saying as he left the elevator:

"If they want me they can send for me. They know where to find me."

Mr. Hyde looked much perturbed, although he would not give his reason for leaving.

Want Paul Jones' Body.

ANNAPOLIS, Md., April 19.—Commander Charles J. Badger, U. S. N., acting superintendent of the Naval academy in the absence of Captain W. H. Brownson, superintendent, has expressed the hope that the plan to give the remains of Paul Jones a final resting place in the Naval academy may be consummated and said that this is, in his opinion, the most appropriate place in the country for the last resting place for the body of the father of the American navy.

Vanderbilt's Grandson Dead.

STAMFORD, Conn., April 19.—Oakley Barker, a grandson of Commodore Cornelius Vanderbilt, died suddenly last night of heart disease in his apartments in the Carlton hotel. He was fifty years old, and his wife and only child are on the Atlantic, having sailed for New York from Europe Saturday. He was the son of Smith Barker and Catherine Vanderbilt.

Shot Hit the Wrong Man.

CHICAGO, April 19.—Shooting during the present strike occurred for the first time here when a clerk in the Atlantic hotel fired two shots at a union picket who had entered the hotel. The shots missed the picket, and one of them struck Walter Klager in the thigh. The clerk was arrested.

Plainfield, N. J., April 19, 1905.

Not since the Christmas holiday rush have the stores been so densely thronged as they were last week and will be during the remainder of this week. Extraordinary Easter advertising has brought the extraordinary crowds of Easter shoppers from all parts of the city and its suburbs and concentrated them in the one square mile where the retailers are clustered. The practically unanimous response of the purchasing public to the appeals of the merchants who believe in publicity is the highest kind of a tribute to the drawing power of the advertising columns of the daily newspapers. —Ex.

Mayor Berry's attempt to fasten a police commission on Elizabeth is not meeting with all the success planned for it. Proceedings have been begun before Justice Fort to oust the appointees of the Mayor and lawyers now express confidence in the ability to defeat the aims of the Legislature's measure. The new law was not made in the interests of good government. It was only of the many acts of the law-makers having partisan political purposes as their object. The Common Councils of cities normally Democratic, but which received Republican mayors with the Roosevelt tidal wave, would be robbed of the right to run the police department, although as the chosen representatives of the people in the various wards they are the proper ones to exercise that function. The act in question centralizes the control of this important branch of government in one man. It needs no argument to bring the conviction that this is too much power to invest in a mayor, especially when the object of the law is solely partisan. Be he Democrat or Republican, he could work great harm to a municipality were he so minded. There is no cause for belief that Plainfield will be afflicted with such a commission, even should the efforts in Elizabeth to defeat the act be futile. The people can trust in Mayor Buckle not to follow Mayor Berry's example. His valuable experience as a councilman and as mayor, it can safely be said, have brought to him the conviction that Plainfield does not need a police commission. The Common Council can and should be trusted, as it has been in the past, to administer the affairs of so important a part of the municipal machinery to the best interests of the people.

MR. PIKE ANSWERS REV. PHIL A. PARSONS

DECLARES THAT HIS ARRAIGNMENT IS UNSOUND.

Objection is taken by Noah W. Pike to the sermon preached by Rev. Phil A. Parsons, pastor of the Christian church, on "Why Christianity is Ineffective." The minister gave his reasons for the alleged condition and referred particularly to this city. Mr. Pike has sent the following letter for publication:

Editor, The Daily Press:

We have before us your article in the April 10th number, by one Rev. Phil A. Parsons, arraigning generally the inconsistency of religious order, church spirit, and commercialism of ministry: We make this endorsement at once, upon the article in question—Flaw in the indictment: No jurisdiction of the presenter.

To illustrate the facts as they are: We find that we have different fields of religious effort, and laborers in the field. If they were corn fields in different degrees of natural advancement, we could not condemn the laborer and his corn as no good, because his product had not taken on the tassels and full ears like his neighbor's well plowed and harrowed fields. No more can the laborer in the vineyard of Christian progress judge of its fruitage without being the master of the harvest, who has already told us there would be "some thirty, some sixty and some a hundred fold." He is the authority for this degree of difference, and the same authority further illustrations in figure the conception of that seed which is ultimately the destiny at his divine purpose. He tells us the plowman and harrower prepare the fields, but there is an anticipation of obstacles, hinderances; first where the seed has fallen in stony places, or one that heareth the word and anon with joy receiveth it, but through persecution and tribulation he is offended, there being no root in himself. Another as one receiveth seed among thorns he heareth the word, but riches choke it and he becometh unfruitful, etc. We have always faced the miscarriage of Christian works and always will. Yet the evidence of the laborer is still apparent whether he preach of envy, strife or of good will, or commercialism.

Notwithstanding every way says Paul Christ is preached.

There may be a foundation for indictment of our local religious system and its condition from a false conception of Christian truth and based upon ethical discipline, as one self righteously makes the measure and standard of his own field of operations. But he must face the censor of true Christianity and its constitutional broadness and liberty including its wide charity for the miscarriage of Christian works. Noah W. Pike.

Hope that a baseball nine will be organized in the borough has almost fled from the hearts of those interested in the game. The chance that a nine will be gotten together grows slimmer every day. The chance that a nine will be gotten together grows slimmer every day. New Market has her team in shape, and regards the start of the season with equanimity and pleasant anticipations. The combination is working into championship form, and players and manager are eager for the fray.

The junior ball team is ready for games and the Greter Plainfield championship in its class. Arthur Bogardus is captain of the combination, and William Giddes manages it. Manager Giddes has a pitching staff of three expert, if youthful, twirlers: Albert Conklin, Arthur Bogardus and John Logan. Howard Giles is backstop. The team averages sixteen years in age. It will open the season with a game against the Bound Brook Laurels next week.

While digging in his garden early Monday evening, Thomas Sheehan ruptured a blood vessel in his leg. Dr. Platt stopped the flow. Mr. Sheehan didn't know he had burst the vessel until his wife, looking down, saw the blood oozing through his trousers leg.

The contract for the raising of the borough hall, authorized at the special meeting of the Council Monday night, has been signed by Borough Clerk DeGroff and J. Newton Apgar, acting for Rimmer, Apgar & Cozzens, the contractors.

The women of the Presbyterian church are earning a reputation for themselves as good providers through the Presbytery meeting. The visiting clergymen are lavish in their praises of the lunches and suppers the women spread.

The specifications for the macadamizing of Dunellen avenue between Jackson and Jefferson avenues are in the hands of Councilman John Moynihan, at whose home they may be seen by those interested in the matter.

Garretson & Gray's new stone crusher, which is fed by the gravity railroad, started yesterday. The start was smooth, and the railroad promises to be as much of a success as the firm and the constructors hoped.

There are twenty-eight members of the fire company in good and regular standing, according to the current report of the secretary, just made public. The full strength of the company is forty men.

Lester Meseroll is slowly recovering his full health. He is not yet able to go to the school afoot, however, making the journey to and from his office in a carriage.

Nelson Brothers are painting the new Coriell house on Front street.

Ziba Osmun is running a handsome new stage.

'PLAINS AND FANWOOD.

Mr. and Mrs. William Gere and children, who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Thomas M. Paff, Jr., have returned to their home in Brooklyn.

Mrs Frank Putnam and children, of East Second street, have been visiting Mrs. Putnam's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Fronts, of Westfield avenue.

"Jimmy" Montross, who was in the box for the local ball team last season, will be given a try out in the Hudson River League this season.

By defeating the Saengerbund team in the game rolled Monday night, the local bowlers won the deciding game of the series.

Harry Flannery has taken a position in the draughting room of a large electrical company at Schenectady, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Gray, of East Front street, have been entertaining relatives from Newark.

Gypsies have pitched their tents for a short stay in Washington Valley near the "Back Pond."

John Falvey, who has been spending several days at his home at Dover, has returned.

Judge Clark has returned from a visit of several days with relatives at Finderne.

The churches are arranging for special Easter services for Sunday morning.

George Baldwin, of Rahway, has been visiting old friends in town.

SOUTH PLAINFIELD.

It is said that several new houses are soon to be built on the settlement at New Era, on the road to New Market.

Miss Matilda Nevius, who has been residing several months at Dunellen, has returned to her home here.

Melville Brown, of Brooklyn, is visiting his cousin, Philip Smith.

Embley Ryno expects to make his home in Plainfield soon.

Miss Irene Miller is visiting her aunt in Easton.

REAL ESTATE ITEMS.

Benjamin A. Starr, Jr., a former resident of North Plainfield, but now of New York, has leased through the Mulford real estate agency the residence at Berkely avenue and Denmark road, and will soon take possession.

EVANS MAKES COMPLAINT.

Steamer Oteri Disregarded Sylph's Signals and Refused Aid.

WASHINGTON, April 19.—Captain Evans, commander of the Sylph, President Roosevelt's yacht, has reported to the navy department here respecting the accident to his ship as follows:

"Shortly after dark on the night of the mishap to the Sylph a steamer, which I have since been informed is the Oteri of the United Fruit company of Baltimore, passed by. I made distress signals to her, and she headed in passing within fifty yards of the Sylph. I asked for assistance, telling the captain I was disabled. He refused to assist me, did not even slow down and passed out of sight. I was entirely helpless, and the Oteri knew it. I beg that the department take further action in this matter."

Of the accident Captain Evans says that the Sylph had passed Diamond shoal light vessel and was going at full speed under forced draft when he heard one of the force say to Chief Machinist Mate Frank Weber that they had lost their water below. Weber went below, and a little later Fireman Caddin told the captain the condenser was "red hot." Captain Evans says he was inclined to go below and order the fires either banked or hauled, but decided not to do so, as he did not wish to interfere with the chief machinist's mate, whom he saw below trying to get water to the boilers. The Sylph's boilers, he added, quite often had lost their water, but never before with a seriously bad effect. Subsequently he heard two quick reports and promptly hoisted signals and formed a bucket line. A slight fire below was quickly extinguished. Thomas F. Murphy, machinist's mate, first class, was burned seriously about the arms, also internally, and John Dalton, seaman, who was assisting in firing because of a shortage in the force, was slightly burned.

A GRAVE MATTER.

Much Trouble at Washington Over Secretary Shaw's Coachman.

WASHINGTON, April 19.—Instead of the gravedigger, originally assigned to him by the civil service commission, for a coachman Secretary Shaw is to have his first choice, Robert Sheppard, to whom the commission had objected because of the presentation by Sheppard of letters from political supporters. The matter has been satisfactorily adjusted during a visit which Civil Service Commissioner Colley paid to the secretary.

The following statement was given out after the conference:

"Secretary Shaw refused to discuss the gravedigger coachman affair further than to say that he was not responsible for the incident being made public. The gravedigger himself says that Commissioner Cooley is mistaken and that it is his brother who was coachman for the superintendent of the insane hospital and that he has never been coachman for any one.

"The secretary says there is no quarrel between him and the commission over the incident, and he is sure the commission will gladly favor an executive order giving him an experienced coachman, a man of suitable character and one who knows the streets and numbers of the city. He recognizes that no civil service examination will discover such a man."

Hotel Recluse Dead at Kingston.

KINGSTON, N. Y., April 19.—H. N. Lansing, graduate of Rutgers college, class of 1880, is dead here after leading the life of a recluse in the hotel where he boarded for three years. He had lived in Kingston five years. He was liberally supplied with money, which he spent free, but where he came from is unknown. When taken suddenly ill last fall he placed a sealed envelope in the hotel safe containing names of people to be notified in case anything happened. These names are Joseph Hover, lawyer, New York city; H. S. Bell, 168 South Pearl street, Albany, N. Y., and Corporal P. A. Gallo, Fort Totten, N. Y.

Demands Divorce For Extravagance.

CHICAGO, April 19.—Mrs. Emma Given Dennis Bryan Brady of Pasadena, Cal., formerly a wealthy and prominent Michigan woman, has been called a second time to defend a divorce suit in Chicago. Her husband, J. E. Brady, charges her with cruelty and demands a judicial separation. Brady in his bill declares his wife's extravagance has made him bankrupt. He asks the custody of his son, Jasper Ewing Brady, eight years old. Mrs. Brady was formerly the wife of Charles N. Bryan of Chicago, from whom she obtained a divorce and $33,333 alimony.

Fate of Tax Bills With Higgins.

ALBANY, N. Y., April 19.—The two revenue tax bills, made party measures and passed side by side by the two houses of the legislature in succession, have parted company. By virtue of a concurrent resolution of the legislature the mortgage tax bill has been recalled from Governor Higgins, and it will probably be returned to him by a like process, thus giving him ten more days exclusive of Sunday in which to consider the bill. The stock transfer tax bill will be signed or vetoed by the governor some time before midnight today, when the ten days' limit will expire.

Receivers For Boston Ubero Company

BOSTON, April 19.—Judge Francis C. Lowell in the United States district court last night appointed Hugh W. Ogden of the law firm of Whipple, Sears & Ogden and Attorney Jeremiah Smith, Jr., of this city receivers for the Boston Ubero company. The petitioners were members of the committee recently appointed by the stockholders to investigate the affairs of the Ubero Plantation company.

CAPTAIN SLEIGHT HAS TRAINED COW.

It Nudges Him to Promptness at Mealtime and Drags Boys' Sleds Up Steep Hills.

Poughkeepsie, N. Y.—Mark Twain's educated frog and Pike county's hoop snakes are discounted by Capt. Ike Sleight's trained cow, which is attracting attention to and earning fame for Sleightsburg, a little hamlet near Kingston. The cow is Capt. Sleight's faithful companion and follows him through the village wherever he goes, from snowy morn to frosty eve. She would crowd through the door of the village store if the opening was wide enough.

When the captain takes a trip to the dock on the Hudson the faithful cow is sure to be close behind, and no gift of turnips or apples will tempt it to leave before he does. The cow can tell the time of day for the captain and he attributes his freedom from indigestion to the regularity with which the cow nudges him to promptness at meal times.

This intelligent cow's latest accomplishment has earned for the captain the favor of the whole juvenile population of Sleightsburg and clinched still further the cow's reputation for sagacity and cleverness. While following the captain up one of Sleightsburg's steep hills the cow noticed the weary children dragging their sleds up the slippery incline. She frisked and snorted and pranced around until she made the captain understand that she had a message for him, which, being translated, informed him that she would pull the children up if they would tie their sleds to her tail. The experiment was tried. The Pied Piper of Hamelin was not followed by a happier juvenile procession than that which trailed behind Capt. Ike Sleight and his trained cow. So successful was the scheme that if the sleighing does not soon wear out Capt. Ike fears that he will have to get a new tail for his cow.

ENDS LIFE IN THEATER.

Pathetic Ballad Picturing Scenes in Country Farmhouse Moves Young Man to Suicide.

Chicago.—Suicide in the balcony of a crowded theater was the method of death chosen by a young man, who shot and killed himself at the Chicago opera house during a vaudeville performance.

The young man shot himself in the head. Death was instantaneous and the body fell into the lap of a woman occupying an adjoining seat. She and several women fainted, but were quickly revived.

When the sound of the shot was heard many women screamed and left their seats, but ushers soon quieted the excitement. No one was allowed to leave the balcony. The orchestra struck up a lively tune and aided in averting a panic. The body was removed to the county morgue, nothing being found to indicate the identity of the suicide.

The man shot himself during the singing of a pathetic song picturing scenes in a country farmhouse. He had listened attentively and had applauded. At the third encore he stood up, hesitated a moment and then, quickly drawing a revolver, shot himself dead.

Refuses to Wear Clothes.

Menominee, Mich.—A pitiable and strange case is that of James Egan, for the past eight or nine years an inmate at the Menominee county poorhouse. Mentally deficient from birth, as he grew older it was impossible to keep clothes on him, he insisting in tearing them from his body. This trait still adheres to him, and because of it it is necessary to keep him in a small hut at the rear of the main building. Repeated attempts have been made to clothe him. On one occasion heavy canvas was securely sewed around his form, but he finally succeeded in making a small hole in it and tearing the canvas to shreds. He is aged about 50, and apparently will live for years. It is said that he has never been ill a day.

Man Barks Like a Dog.

Hammond, Ind.—Snapping and barking like a dog, Fred Reiger, of Hegewisch, is laboring under the delusion that he has hydrophobia. The sufferer imagines that he was bitten by a dog belonging to Fred Johnson, who died from rabies two months ago. Since the death of his friend Reiger has run from every dog that chanced to come near him. Several days ago he became violent, and would growl at anyone who approached him. Physicians declare that he will die of pneumonia unless his hallucination is dispelled.

An Ideal Location
Rosedale and Linden Park Cemeteries

LARGEST IN THE STATE
LINDEN, N. J.
Beautiful and Accessible
2 Miles from Elizabeth, 7 Miles from Newark,
14 MILES FROM NEW YORK
On Main Line Pennsylvania Railroad
Why Lots in these Cemeteries commend themselves to Heads of Families and Investors
BECAUSE of the $1,000,000 Trust Fund provided for by the Trustees in each Cemetery, the income from which will keep the properties perpetually beautiful at NO EXPENSE TO LOT OWNERS.
BECAUSE such a guarantee, not found in any other cemetery, assures lot owners that the grounds WILL BE MAINTAINED PERMANENTLY AS BEAUTIFUL PARKS AFTER THE INCOME FROM THE SALE OF LOTS HAS BEEN EXHAUSTED.
LOTS SHOULD BE PURCHASED NOW
BECAUSE MORE ADVANTAGES ARE OFFERED TO LOT BUYERS in a new Modern Park Cemetery than in those established many years and, in most cases, no provision made for perpetual care without extra expense to lot owners. THERE ARE A GREATER NUMBER OF IDEAL LOCATIONS TO SELECT FROM, PRICES OF LOTS ARE ALWAYS LOWER AND TERMS MORE ADVANTAGEOUS.
BECAUSE life is most uncertain and EVERY ONE SHOULD ANTICIPATE THE INEVITABLE BY MAKING A CHOICE NOW OF A FINAL RESTING PLACE.
LOTS WILL PROVE A GOOD INVESTMENT
BECAUSE they are sure to increase in value and can be purchased NOW at the INITIAL or LOWEST PRICE and upon the most ADVANTAGEOUS TERMS.
BECAUSE the properties are ACCESSIBLE TO 4,000,000 PEOPLE, and considering the RAPID GROWTH OF GREATER NEW YORK and its TRIBUTARY CITIES and TOWNS, it is only a question of a SHORT TIME when LOTS in ROSEDALE and LINDEN PARK will EQUAL IN VALUE those of our MOST NOTED cemeteries.
FOR INFORMATION concerning lots in these beautiful Park Cemeteries, and FREE transportation to prospective lot buyers, apply at once to any LEADING UNDERTAKER or offices of the Associations:

Feminine Snapshots

Do Mothers Train Their Children to Be Savages?

A bachelor of observation is authority for the statement that no more than half the mothers in civilization bring up their children properly. Does a mother slap, cuff or jerk the tender little beings confided to her care? Does she use abusive language to them? Does she break her promises to them? Does she scare them into fits by telling them the policeman or the big, bad man will come and carry them off if they do not obey her? Does she ever tell them a lie? Does she allow their sweet little bodies to become untidy? Then that woman is not fit to have children, no matter who or what she is, declares the bachelor. Boys learn rudeness and violence from their own mothers. How can they be other than ill bred, destructive young savages? Little girls hear their mothers tell petty falsehoods; they hear her scold violently; they see her rude, impolite and untidy in her own family circle. How, then, can these little girls become sweet tempered, sincere, neat and high bred women? Are the sons of Quaker mothers ever found among the gangs of young street ruffians? I am reporting still the opinions of the wise bachelor. So fully convinced is he of the truth of all this that he is sure it would be a step forward for the race if the training of little children were taken out of the hands of their mothers and given to women who have made a scientific study of it. The scientific rearing of children is quite compatible with love and tenderness, with good manners, good temper and good morals. So says the bachelor.

Don't let us put on airs, not any of us. It is quite possible if we could trace our distinguished family back only two or three removes that we would come upon a grandfather who picked his teeth with a fork.

Nothing will wake the women of Russia to the need of their sex participating in public affairs like the inhuman war against Japan, with grand dukes driving woman's best beloved to be slaughtered for a quarrel whose cause they do not know. Not long since the women of Moscow sent to Empress Alix a petition begging her to try to stop the war. It is one of the most pathetic documents on record. "Oh, sovereign," it said, "mothers whose hearts are breaking cannot remain silent. Our best forces are perishing."

The Russian revolutionist party in its manifesto to the emperor made demand for a "universal equal and secret ballot for male and female citizens." Put that down to the credit of the Russian revolutionists.

Italy has a woman orchestra leader of distinction. Her name is Pamira Orso. Recently she led the orchestra during a great performance of the opera "Ernani" at Livorno.

I don't know who wrote the story or I would give her credit. I am sure it was a woman. Once a gentleman and his wife spent considerable time studying American Indian life and customs. During a walk they saw an Indian chief's family "moving." The chief himself stalked ahead, majestic as an eagle. He was an exceedingly chesty chief. He stuck up his chin and threw out his breast as if he owned the universe. "See how splendidly that chief carries himself," said the gentleman. "Yes," replied the lady "and see how splendidly his wife carries that stove!"

In the vast and varied field of industrial electricity are many openings for women. From the running of an electrical engine to the manufacture of electrical instruments there is employment for the woman who has qualified herself to do it.

Have you noted recently the number of alleged wise men who feel a call to lay down the law as to the proper sphere and duties of women? Such would be authorities on women folk are plentiful as grand dukes in Russia. How many years, pray, have these men been women that they should know all about it? Let them wait till they themselves have been women awhile before taking it on themselves to instruct the feminine sex as to what its sphere is. Stupendous is the conceit of the masculine being!

One of the most promising signs of the times is the sight of young, wealthy and beautiful women on every hand turning from the empty pleasures of fashion and society to take on themselves solid, useful work for the ignorant and unfortunate. Never before were so many rich women engaged in real philanthropic work, not mere ostentatious charity. Early these have discovered that no lasting happiness can be found outside of useful work.

Note.—Professor James H. Tufts of the co-ed University of Chicago asks his class in ethics the following pertinent questions: "Do you tell white lies?" "Do you tell harmless lies to landladies and entree stories?" "Do you hand your fate to the gentleman after he has passed you without recognition?" Do you?

The Romance of a Pirate's Daughter

By FRANK R. STOCKTON

Copyright, 1902, by D. Appleton & Co., New York.

"Why did you not get some of these merchant ships to carry you away?" asked Dickory.

The man shook his head. "There is no place," he said sadly, "to which I can in reason ask a ship to carry me and my family. We have no money, no property whatever. In any other place I would be far poorer than I am here. My children are not uneducated; my wife and I have done our best for them in that respect, and we have some books with us. So, as you see, it would be rash in me to leave a home which, rude as it is, shelters and supports my family, to go as paupers and strangers to some other land."

The wife heaved a sigh. "But poor Lucilla!" she said. "It is dreadful that she should be forced to grow up here."

"Lucilla?" asked Dickory.

"Yes, sir," she said, "my eldest daughter. But she is not here now."

Dickory thought that it was somewhat odd that he should be again informed of a fact which he knew very well, but he made no remarks upon the subject.

Still wearing his cocked hat—for he had nothing else with which to shield his head from the sun—and with his uniform coat on, for he had not yet an opportunity of ripping from it the letter he carried, and this he would not part from—Dickory roamed about the little settlement. Mander was an industrious and thrifty man. His garden, his buildings, and his surroundings showed that.

Walking past a clump of low bushes, Dickory was startled by a laugh—a hearty laugh—the laugh of a girl. Looking quickly around, he saw, peering above the tops of the bushes, the face of the girl who had laughed.

"It is too funny!" she said, as his eyes fell upon her. "I never saw anything so funny in all my life. A man in regimentals in this weather and upon a desert island. You look as if you had marched farther than your army, and that you had lost it in the forest."

Dickory smiled. "You ought not to laugh at me," he said, "for these clothes are really a great misfortune. If I could change them for something cool I should be more than delighted."

"Instead of that awful hat I can make you one of long grass. Do you see the one I have on? Isn't that a good hat? I have one nearly finished which I am making for my father; you may have that."

He accepted instantly the offer of the hat.

"You seem to know all about me," he said; "did you hear me tell my story"

"Every word of it," said she, "and it is the queerest story I ever heard. Think of a pirate carrying a man away to marry him to his daughter!"

"But why don't you come from behind that bush and talk to me?"

"I can't do it," said she, "I am dressed funnier than you are. Now I am going to make your hat." And in an instant she had departed.

Dickory now strolled on, and when he returned he seated himself in the shade near the house. His heavy coat and waistcoat lay upon the ground beside him, with the cocked hat placed upon them. As he leaned back against the tree and inhaled the fragrant breeze which came to him from the forest, Dickory was a more cheerful young man than he had been for many days. He thought of this himself, and wondered how a man, carrying with him his sentence of a lifelong misery, could lean against a tree and take pleasure in anything, be it a hospitable welcome, a sense of freedom from danger, a fragrant breeze, or the face of a pretty girl behind a bush. But these things did please him; he could not help it. And when presently came Mrs. Mander, bringing him a light grass hat fresh from the manufacturer's hands, he took it and put it on with more evident pleasure than the occasion seemed to demand.

"Your daughter is truly an artist," said Dickory.

"She does many things well," said the mother, "because necessity compels her and all of us to learn to work in various ways."

A little later Mander joined Dickory. "I am sorry, sir," said he, "that I am not able to present you to my daughter Lucilla. It is a great grief to us that her attire compels her to deny herself other company than that of her family. I really believe, sir, that it is Lucilla's deprivations on this island which form at present my principal discontent with my situation. But we all enjoy good health, we have enough to eat, and shelter over us, and should not complain."

As soon as he was at liberty to do so, Dickory walked by the hedge of low bushes, and there, above it, was the bright face, with the pretty grass hat.

"I was waiting for you," said she. "I wanted to see how that hat fitted, and I think it does nicely. And I wanted to tell you that I have been looking out for ships, but have not seen one. I don't mean by that that I want you to go away almost as soon as you have come, but of course, if a merchant ship should anchor here, it would be dreadful for you not to know."

"I am not sure," said Dickory gallantly, "that I am in a hurry for a ship. It is truly very pleasant here."

"What makes it pleasant?" said the girl.

Dickory hesitated for a moment. "The breeze from the forest," said he.

She laughed. "It is charming," she said, "but there are so many places where there is just as good a breeze, or perhaps better. How I would like to go to some one of them! To me this island is lonely and doleful. Every time I look over the sea for a ship I hope that one will come that can carry us away."

"Then," said Dickory, "I wish a ship would come to-morrow and take us all away together."

She shook her head. "As my father told you," said she, "we have no place to go to."

CHAPTER XXV.
LUCILLA'S SHIP.

S SOON as Dickory had left off his cocked hat and his gold-embroidered coat, the little girl Lena had ceased to be afraid of him, and the next morning she came to him, seated lonely—for this was a busy household—and asked him if he would like to take a walk.

It was about the middle of the afternoon, and Lena had dropped asleep beneath the tree where Dickory and her parents were conversing, when suddenly there rushed upon the little group a most surprising figure. At the first flash of thought Dickory supposed that a boy from the skies had dropped among them, but in an instant he recognized the face he had seen above the bushes. It was Lucilla, the daughter of the house! Upon her head was a little straw hat, and she wore a loose tunic and a pair of sailor's trousers, which had been cut off and were short enough to show that her feet and ankles were bare. Around her waist she had a belt of skins, from which dangled a string of crimson sea-beans. Her eyes were wide open, her face was pale, and she was trembling with excitement.

"What do you think!" she cried, not caring who was there or who might look at her. "There's a ship at the spring, and there's a boat rowing across the bay. A boat with four men in it!"

All started to their feet.

"A boat," cried Mander, "with four men in it? Run, my dear, to the cave; press into its depths as far as you can. There is nothing there to be afraid of, and no matter how frightened you are, press into its most distant depths. You sir, will remain with me, or would you rather escape? If it is a pirate ship, it may be Blackbeard who has returned."

"Not so," cried Lucilla, "it is a merchant vessel, and they are making straight for the mouth of our stream."

"I will stay here with you," said Dickory, "and stand by you, unless I may help your family seek the cave you speak of."

"No, no," said Mander, "they don't need you, and if you will do so we will go down to the beach and meet these men; that will be better than to have them search for us. They will know that people live here, for my canoe is drawn up on the beach."

"Is this safe?" cried Dickory; "would it not be better for you to go with your family and hide with them? I will meet the men in the boat."

"No, no," said Mander; "if their vessel is no pirate, I do not fear them. But I will not have them here."

Now, after Mander had embraced his family, they hurried away in tears, the girl Lucilla casting not one glance at Dickory. Impressed by the impulse that it was the proper thing to do, Dickory put on his coat and waistcoat and clapped upon his head his high cocked hat. Then he rapidly followed Mander to the beach, which they reached before the boat touched the sand.

GAS BUOY EXPLODED.

Fatal Accident on Canadian Steamer at Kingston.

KINGSTON, Ont., April 19.—A gas buoy in process of filling on board the government steamer Scout exploded here, killing one and injuring four of her crew. Two of the injured probably will die.

Fred Mullin of Welland county was killed instantly, being decapitated by splinters from the broken buoy; Captain W. Allison's groin and thighs were torn by pieces of iron and will die; Clifford Tessier of Cornwall was terribly burned, and his condition is critical; Sam Delaney of Prescott, a deckhand of the tug Reserve, was cut and burned, and William Winters of Kingston was badly burned.

The force of the explosion smashed the windows in all the houses and factories in the vicinity of the drydock where the boat was fitting out for the lighthouse service this summer. The explosion was followed by a fire which destroyed the upper works and damaged the hull of the Scout.

Captain Allison is so badly injured that it has been impossible to get a statment from him in regard to the cause of the accident. It is known that the men were engaged in filling a buoy with gas when the big tank exploded, sending a blinding sheet of deadly white flame over the boat and hurling splinters from the broken buoy in all directions. The drydock shed was wrecked. The explosion was plainly heard across the river at Cape Vincent, N. Y.

SHOT BESSIE DAVIS.

Actor Edward Smedes Tried to Kill the Girl and Then Himself.

PHILADELPHIA, April 19.—Because she intended leaving the theatrical company of which both were members Edward Smedes shot Bessie Helen Davis at a theatrical hotel where they were both staying, inflicting a probably fatal wound near the heart, and then attempted to kill himself. The bullet flattened against his skull, and he was not badly hurt. The couple were members of the chorus in "The Schoolgirl" company, of which Edna May is the star. The woman is known on the stage as Bessie Dale. She is twenty-three years old, and her home is in Hebron, Neb. Smedes' home, it is believed, is in Vicksburg, Miss.

The shooting occurred shortly after noon. Other guests at the hotel heard a pistol shot, and immediately after Miss Davis ran screaming down the stairs and fell unconscious into the arms of a servant. A policeman who was passing the hotel ran into the place, and when Smedes saw him he turned the weapon upon himself. The wounded couple were taken to a hospital, where it was found the young woman's injury is likely to prove fatal. Smedes is guarded in the hospital by two policemen.

Fire In Slate Quarry.

GRANVILLE, N. Y., April 19.—Fire in Edwards' slate quarry, near here, has temporarily put forty men out of employment. The machinery of the company is practically ruined, entailing a loss of $12,000. The origin of the fire is unknown.

Receiver For Telephone Company.

TRENTON, N. J., April 19.—Edwin Robert Walker of this city has been appointed receiver for the State Telephone company by Vice Chancellor Bergen. The application was made last week by J. Pratt Cramer.

DRUG MIXERS DINNER

Annual Feast of P. R. D. A. Held at Hotel Iroquois.

ODD MENU CARDS

Dinner Starts at 10:30, After the Shops Closed—New Officers Chosen for the Year.

Pills and elixirs and the sundry other things relevant to human ills were forgotten by the druggists of the city last night around the dinner table. With one exception, every druggist in town attended the annual feast of the Plainfield Retail Druggists' Association, and bade defiance to colic and dyspepsia with the gay abandon of those who always have all sorts of panaceas right at hand.

Following the dinner the members held their annual meeting and election.

The affair was a late one. It was 10:30 o'clock before the diners sat down, because the dinner was held until the members had closed up shop for the day. Adjournment was not taken until 10:30.

The dinner was held at the Hotel Iroquois. Proprietor Leary spread a most delectable array of culinary achievements, which were listed on an oddly decorated card. From the top and bottom of the latter mortars and pestles and skulls and crossbones stared at the diners. The table was prettily decorated with cut flowers.

There was no speechmaking, but plenty of general conversation. After the dinner had found its proper berth and settled in it somewhat comfortably, the meeting was opened. The business was transacted in as brief time as possible, and little besides the election was done. The officers chosen are:

President, B. J. Schreiner; vice president, C. M. Nagle; secretary and treasurer, D. S. Miller.

The committee in charge of the dinner comprised Charles H. Hall, L. W. Randolph and B. J. Schreiner.

PASTORS SELECTED FOR GOOD FRIDAY SERVICE

LOCAL CONGREGATIONS WILL UNITE AT CRESCENT AVENUE CHURCH.

The customary union Good Friday service will be held in the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church on Friday night at 7:45 o'clock. The committee, of which Rev. Dr. J. S. Zelie is the chairman, has completed the programme which will include remarks on the seven words from the cross. Dr. Zelie will have charge, assisted by Rev. W. H. Neilson and Rev. A. C. McCrea. The addresses and topics will be as follows:

First word, "Father, forgive them, for they know not what they do," Rev. E. M. Rodman, rector emeritus of Grace Episcopal church.

Second word, "Verily, I say unto thee, today shalt thou be with me in Paradise," Rev. Charles E. Herring, of the First Presbyterian church.

Third word, "Woman, behold thy son; son, behold thy mother," Rev. George E. Mooney, of Monroe Avenue Methodist church.

Fourth word, "My God, my God, why hast Thou forsaken me?" Rev. Charles L. Goodrich, of the Congregational church.

Fifth word, "I thirst," Rev. Dr. C. Schenck, of Trinity Reformed church.

Sixth word, "It is finished," Rev. Dr. Hamilton, of this city, retired professor of Hamilton College.

Seventh word, "Father, into Thy hands I commend my spirit," Rev. A. E. Finn, of the Park Avenue Baptist church.

PERSONAL.

Mrs. Newton Jenkins, of East Sixth street, who has been visiting her son, Harry Jenkins, at Bethlehem, Pa., has returned home.

The Misses Anna M. Molloy, of Glenside Park; Miss M. A. Walsh and a party of friends from New York, spent Sunday in this city.

Mrs. Robert T. Johnston and daughter, of Taunton, Mass., are visiting Mrs. Johnston's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Truell, of Park avenue.

Alfred W. Dunavan, of L. W. Randolph's drug store, is detained at home by a severe illness. He was taken on Monday with severe pains in the head.

Ames Stites, a conductor on the main trolley line of the Public Service Corporation, is able to be out again after a severe illness of several weeks. Mrs. Stites is now critically ill at her home in West Front street.

Reports of Flourishing Condition of Presbytery Read at Meeting—The Business.

Reports of one kind or another and discussion on the proposed new rules and manual occupied the greater part of the afternoon session of the Elizabeth Presbytery, which opened its semi-annual meeting in the Dunellen Presbyterian church yesterday morning.

Most of the time was given to the consideration of the new rules, which came up one by one for discussion. The most important one, that increasing the number of sessions from two to four yearly, was adopted. No action on the others was taken, consideration of the changes being shut off and laid over until this morning, to give the usual routine of the first day some part in the session.

Rev. W. T. Stuchell, of Rahway, delivered the "narrative" of the year in the Presbytery. His figures show that the Presbytery comprises a membership of 18,555, a gain of 360 during the twelve month. His lists included the names of churches where the gain has been twelve or over. The Second church, of Rahway, led the list with a gain of fifty-eight. Bethel church, the colored branch of the Crescent Avenue church, this city, was in the list with a gain of twenty. There are thirty-three churches and seven chapels in the Presbytery.

In a period devoted to what the Presbytery calls "free conversation" pastors so moved reported on the work of their charges during the year. Rev. Dr. J. S. Zelie told of Crescent Avenue church's activities; Rev. J. O. McKelvey outlined those of Warren chapel; and Rev. F. D. Tilden reported on Bethel chapel.

Dr. Mott, of Elizabeth, brought the need of a $35,000 addition to the endowment fund of Bloomfield Theological Seminary, where the German, Hungarian and Italian theological students are prepared for work among their fellow countrymen. He asked the Presbytery to raise $2,500. He was authorized to take charge of its collection.

Rev. James B. Ferguson, who recently left a Rochester charge to become pastor of the Greystone church, Elizabeth, was received by the Presbytery. Arrangements were made for his installation next Tuesday.

It was voted to hold the next meeting in October, at the Lower Valley church, near Califon, Hunterdon County.

The session was adjourned for supper at 6 o'clock. The women of the church repeated their culinary success of the noon hour.

A public meeting was held in the evening. Dr. Woodbridge O. Strong, medical missionary in Corea, spoke on the work in that country and Japan. He urged an increase in contributions to foreign missionising. The average total of contribution per congregation during the past year, he said, was thirty-four cents. The women of the churches, he said, contributed the bulk of effort in upbuilding the foreign work.

Rev. John Dixon, of Trenton, secretary of the Home Missionary Board, spoke on work in Porto Rico.

A quartette composed of Miss Edith Boice, soprano; Miss Edna Baldwin, alto; M. L. Barick, tenor; D. W. Lappan, Jr., bass. Mrs. Robert Humpston sang a solo.

Most of the morning session today was occupied with a discussion of changes in the organization's manual among them being one to hold meetings in January, April, June and October in the future. These commissioners to the General Assembly of the Church were chosen: Ministerial, Rev. J. T. Reeve, Rev. George T. Green; alternates, Rev. Albert M. Wirth and Rev. Henry McGilvray; lay, Ira B. Bull, of Westfield, and S. Clark Lann, of Union; alternates, A. A. Lake, of Dunellen, and W. P. Stevenson, of Roselle. Resolutions thanking the Dunellen people for their hospitality were passed and then luncheon was served. In June a meeting will be held to admit the Hungarian Presbyterian Church of Perth Amboy. A short session will be held this afternoon.

SPORTING NEWS.

DIAMOND DUST.

Another match, the result of which may influence the standing of the schools in the baseball championship of the city will be played today between the Leal's school and the North Plainfield High School nine. Judging from the showing of these teams in the games which each have played thus far, the match looks to be a close one. The borough boys look to Peacock as their mainstay in the box with Webster behind the bat. Leal's battery will be Jewett or Manning, pitcher, and Glenny catcher.

Although no special excursion will be run this year, a good crowd will accompany the P. H. S. team this afternoon to Elizabeth to witness the Pingry-P. H. S. game. The prospects for a victory for the local team is very bright and the following team will represent the Plainfield boys in the contest; pitchers, Burt and Smith; catcher, Davis; first base, Deane, second base; Thompson, third base; Conway, short-stop; Craig, left field, Banks, center field; Brakely, right field, Freeman. The result of this series is likely to decide the county scholastic championship.

TENNIS.

The members of the Cedar Brook Tennis Club will meet Friday night to plan for the coming season. The club has leased its courts on East Seventh street for another year, and an attractive schedule of matches will be prepared.

Dr. and Mrs. A. S. Fritts, who were recently married, have been spending several days in town prior to going to Binghamton, N. Y., where the doctor will practice.

ONE THIEF IS CAUGHT

Elizabeth Cop Arrests Man on Suspicion of Doing Job.

$300 WORTH TAKEN

Daylight Burglars Posed As Telephone Inspectors—Description of the Men.

Clues to the identity of the thieves who broke into the house of T. H. VanZandt, of Madison avenue, while the family were away yesterday morning, as told exclusively by The Daily Press yesterday, were obtained by the police yesterday afternoon. Neighbors say two men, who posed as telephone inspectors, went into the houses on the block early yesterday morning, and those two, the police believe, committed the theft. A man was arrested in Elizabethport yesterday afternoon who is held on suspicion of being one of the thieves.

The two suspects appeared on the block shortly before 9 o'clock. They both looked like Germans. One is described as dark and heavy, and about twenty-four years old. He wore a dark suit. The other appeared to be several years younger, and weighed a good deal less. The heavy man carried a satchel.

Nearly $300 worth of stuff was stolen. The haul includes a lot of silver spoons, chain and locket, gold-mounted spectacles, stick pins, rings and a bracelet.

A reward of fifty dollars has been offred for the recovery of the goods. The man captured in Elizabethport describes himself as John Dewan, of 315 Elm street, Conshohocken, Pa. He was caught while fleeing, with a younger man, from Officer O'Brien, of the Elizabeth force. He broke his leg in a fall, and is now in the Elizabeth General Hospital, where Chief Kiely will look his over, with a servant who spoke to the "telephone repairers."

O'Brien spotted the two men near the Elizabethport station of the Central railroad early in the afternoon. As soon as they saw he was watching them they broke into a run up the tracks of the Newark branch of the railroad. O'Brien gave chase. The younger man kept ahead, but the other caught his foot in a switch and snapped his leg, and his capture followed.

PROBING GIRDER FALL

Newark Police Starts Investigation of Fatal Accident.

BROKEN CHAIN FOUND

Charles Wyhuskey, Most Severely Injured, is Resting Easily in Hospital and Will Recover.

Believing that the seriousness of the affair demands it, the police of the Third Precinct, Newark, have commenced an investigation into the falling girder accident on the New Jersey Central bridge over Sobalk street, Tuesday, which resulted in the death of John Kennedy and injury of Charles Wyhuskey and Walter Blair, all of Dunellen. Their efforts, as yet, have been limited to hearing the stories of those who witnessed the accident and ascertaining what caused the massive piece of steel to drop.

Detective-Sergeant Wrigging obtained possession late yesterday afternoon of a piece of the chair, which, it is declared, parted when the heavy iron beam was raised. It is rusty on all sides and there are two clean breaks in it. It has three links, one much smaller than the others. The detective was unable to find this chain when he first went to the scene of the accident, and it was not until after repeated inquiries had been made that he found it on the wrecking car which had been engaged in raising the beam. Both the police and the prosecutor's men are continuing their inquiries today. Captain Corbitt said he was desirous of learning exactly how the men were safe-guarded and what precautions were taken to guard against such an accident as happened.

Charles Wyhuskey, the most severely hurt of the two injured, is resting comfortably in St. Michael's Hospital, Newark. At first his recovery was doubted but he has gained rapidly, though it will be many weeks before he can leave the institution.

CHURCHES WILL MOURN

Gloom of the Crucifixion Will Shroud Services Tomorrow.

CATHOLIC OBSERVANCE

Mark With Solemn Ritual Darkest Day in Church Calendar—Holy Thursday.

All denominations will observe tomorrow, Good Friday, with special services. Every church, either by services of their own, or in union with others, will mark the most solemn fast of the church year.

The day has more significance for the Roman Catholic than any other churchman; and it is more, ecclesiastically and theologically, to the Episcopalian, than to any of the other Protestants. These two, through their churches, will go into spiritual sackcloth and ashes, and meditate on the tragedy of Calvary to the exclusion of everything else.

The other church members will observe the fast with an annual union service, in which most of the Protestant clergy of the city will take part.

In the Catholic churches tomorrow mourning signs will mark the gloom and sorrow belonging to the day set aside in memory of a Saviour's agonizing death. The altar and sanctuary will be denuded of every trapping and decoration, and the blessed sacrament—the body and blood of the Lord—will be taken from the church to typify the Saviour's death.

In the Episcopal and Roman churches services are held today, called Holy Thursday in the church calendar, that, in a way, are preliminary to the Good Friday observance.

At St. Mary's R. C. church this morning there was a solemn mass, followed by procession to the repository. Tonight the musical rendition of the Tenebrae service will be given. The Tenebrae was given last night, and will be repeated tomorrow night, with the traditional sermon on the Passion, which will be preached by Father Delahanty. Tomorrow morning there will be a mass at 8:30 o'clock, followed by the adoration of the cross. On Saturday—Holy Saturday—service will begin at St. Mary's at 6:30 o'clock in the morning. It will be unusually long.

The Tenebrae service to be given at St. Mary's is the musical rendition of the Lamentations of Jeremiah.

Solemn mass was said at St. Joseph's R. C. church this morning, at 7:30 o'clock. It was followed by a procession to the repository, where the blessed sacrament will repose all day. Mass will be said tomorrow morning at the same hour as today. The mass will be pre-sanctified. After the mass will begin the adoration of the cross, which will continue through the day. In the evening there will be a sermon on the Passion, at 8 o'clock.

At Grace P. E. church there was celebration of the communion this morning at 10 o'clock, and a service preparatory to Easter communion will be held at 8 o'clock tonight. Tomorrow the services will be as follows: 7 a. m., ante-communion; 9, children's service; 10, morning service, litany and sermon; 12 to 3, Passion service, meditation of the words of the cross; 5, evensong.

An early celebration of the communion was held at St. Stephen's P. E. church this morning, and this afternoon, at 4 o'clock, evensong will be held. Tomorrow the services will be: Pre-anaphora service at 10 o'clock; Agony service from 12 until 3 o'clock; evenson service at 8 o'clock, with a sermon by Rev. E. G. Bowers, of Christ church, Elizabeth.

The choir of the Church of the Holy Cross, under the direction of J. Edmund Skiff, will render "The Man of Nazareth," by Rogers; Gounod's "By Babylon's Wave," and the tenor solo from Stainer's "Crucifixion," "King Ever Glorious," at a special service to be held at the church tomorrow night. The soloists will be Miss Laura Geeswein, soprano; Fred'k J. Pope, baritone, and Horatio Renek, solo tenor of St. James' Episcopal church, New York.

The evangelical churches will unite in a service at the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church tomorrow night. As usual there will be seven addresses, by local clergymen, on the seven words from the cross. The service will begin at 7:45 o'clock.

Nineteenth Concert.

The nineteenth concert of the Y. M. C. A. orchestra will be given on Monday evening, April 24, at 8:15 o'clock. The orchestra will be assisted by a chorus of thirty-five voices who will give choruses from "Belshazzar." Eva Wells, the talented child soloist, will sing.

VERDICT FOR BARRY LAD

Jury Awards $400 as Damages for Injuries Received.

ACCIDENT IN BOROUGH

Case Before Somerset County Court—Defendant Lives in Orange.

After remaining out two hours, a jury in the Somerset County Court this afternoon, awarded William Barry, of North Plainfield, a verdict for $700 in his suit against Frederick C. Hinni, Jr, of East Orange, in behalf of his son, Francis Barry, a minor. The plaintiff asked $10,000. The case began yesterday morning and was continued until noon today, both sides producing a large number of witnesses. The greater part of this morning's session was devoted to the summing up and counsel in each instance presented many arguments.

The case is the aftermath of an accident on Somerset street early last September, in which young Barry was knocked down and run over by Hinni's automobile. In his opening address to the court, Craig A. Marsh, counsel for the plaintiff, said that Hinni was in charge of it and that it was going at a high rate of speed. The boy was run over and had four ribs broken beside sustaining internal hurts. The machine was stopped and a man said to be Hinni, took the boy to a nearby house and left without giving his name. The borough police traced the auto to Orange and there learned the number of the auto and the owner's name.

PLAINFIELDERS CONCERNED IN FRAUD CASE AT TRENTON

DEFENDANT FURNISHES RECORD BAIL IN CIVIL SUIT.

Counsellor Winfield S. Angleman, of this city, was the plaintiff's lawyer in the suit before the Supreme Court at Trenton, yesterday, in which the highest bail ever fixed in a civil case in New Jersey was paced. It had to be furnished through bondsmen by Thomas R. Allen, a Trenton real estate dealer, through a charge of fraud preferred against him by Peter Schlicker, the well known packer, who formerly conducted a market on West Front street. The plaintiff declared he had purchased $20,860 worth of State Telephone bonds from Allen, the latter knowing them to be worthless, and sued to recover that sum. The law requires bail double the amount of the claim in a case of this kind making it necessary for the defendant to put up $41,720.

When arrested, Allen claimed he was not a party to the transaction and produced an agreement by Schlicker and Richard H. Page, who is said to be an agent of Allen's, wherein he traded a farm in Hunterdon county for the bonds. Schlicker is the head of the Trenton Abbattoir Company and the preliminary legal details in the case were arranged by William H. Sweeney, also of this city, who is employed by the concern.

MISS BARLOW'S DINNER.

In Honor of Approaching Nuptials of Young Couple.

Miss Sophia Barlow, of Prospect place, gave a charming dinner last night for the maid-of-honor and bridesmaids chosen for the approaching marriage of Miss Isabel Milne and Allen B. Laing, Thursday night, April 27. Covers were laid for ten. The decorations were pink, the table being garnished with a large center piece of maiden-hair ferns and flowers, while the favors were small baskets filled with bon-bons and tied with pink ribbons.

Tonight Percy Long, of Grove street, who will be Mr. Laing's best man, will entertain the entire bridal party and other guests to the number of eighteen.

Y. M. C. A. Trip to Washington.

Kenneth Robbie, boys' secretary of the Y. M. C. A., has completed arrangements for the annual Easter trip to Washington, starting on Monday and returning home on Thursday, April 27.

P. C. C.'s Tennis Schedule.

The tennis committee of the Plainfield Country Club has issued its schedule for the season. It will be published in full tomorrow.

TO ESTABLISH MANUAL TRAINING

Course to be Introduced in Plainfield School System This Fall.

FOR HIGHER GRADES

Cooking, Sewing, Wood-work, Carpentering and Cabinet Work to be Features of the Instruction.

Manual training for the higher grades will be established in the city schools at the beginning of the next school year, for the first time in the history of Plainfield's educational sysem. Superintendent Maxson made the announcement of the innovation to a Daily Press reporter this morning.

Cooking, sewing and woodwork will be added to the curriculum. The girls will be taught cooking and needlework in the Whittier school building and the boys will be taught carpentering and cabinet work in the new high school.

It is the approaching completion of the high school that brings the plans for the additions to the curriculum to a point where positive announcement of their inauguration may be made. For several years the school board has been favorable to the establishment of manual training in the schools, but lack of room has prevented its installation. When the new high school was being planned the architect was told to provide space for manual work, and when the new structure goes into use there will be all the room needed for the desired additions to the educational course.

For a number of years the lower grade pupils have been taught work in paper-folding, weaving and basketwork, but this is the first time that industrial work has been assigned to the higher grades. If the educational benefits prove to be all that is hoped for, the course will be broadened and enlarged.

CHADWICK GOODS ON VIEW IN NEW YORK

ABRAM NELSON ARRANGES FOR PUBLIC EXHIBITION OF HIS PURCHASE.

The household possessions of Mrs. Cassie L. Chadwick, representing a money value of nearly $150,000, purchased by Abram Nelson, of New Market, a half-brother of the late Mrs. Charles L. Fair, will be placed on public exhibition in the show rooms of the Knickerbocker Art Galleries, in West 29th street, New York, tomorrow, preparatory to the opening of a public sale, beginning on Tuesday next.

The chattels, which fill the show rooms from floor to ceiling, show the whims of the Cleveland woman. The entire lot was sold in Cleveland by the receiver, and shipped to New York in six freight cars, to be resold by the purchaser, Abram Nelson.

One item is a Marie Antoinette commode, a replica of the one on exhibition in Versailles. Mrs. Chadwick paid $3,000 for it in Paris, but it was held for duty in the Cleveland custom house, where the receiver found it, together with a large consignment of other importations.

Another is a huge flagon of delicately carved ivory. It is cut from a solid section of a mastedon's tusk and cost Mrs. Chadwick 5,000 francs in Paris.

Much of the goods was found packed away in the Chadwick house. One bedroom was filled with Persian silk rugs, pictures, bric-a-brac and furniture. The searchers also found a number of Kirmensbah carpets, fur rugs and rich wearing apparel buried in a coal bin.

A dusty corner of the stable yielded up a painting, "A Haarlem Fruit Vender," for which Mrs. Chadwick paid several thousand dollars. A crate which had never been opened was found to contain 1,500 pieces of sterling silver and expensive cut glassware. Mrs. Chadwick did not have a goblet or water glass in her house that cost less than $5 and most of them cost $25 each.

In the collection are three "perpetual motion" clocks, each of them being the original and only existing one of its pattern. Three ball clocks, with massive carving, belonging to the collection. All were imported, and the smallest is seven feet high.

Topping the whole exhibit is the big $8,000 pipe organ which was set up in the Chadwick home and upon which Dr. Chadwick accompanied his daughter. Another load of property is in transit, including a Panhard touring car and an electric cab.

EASTER IN THE SCHOOLS.

Programmes to be Rendered Tomorrow in City and Borough.

Preparations have been completed by all the schools in the city and borough to hold elaborate exercises tomorrow for the Eastern season. Fine programmes have been arranged in most every school to consist chiefly of singing and recitations.

At the Plainfield High School the programme will for the most part consist of musical selections to be rendered by the school as a whole. After these exercises are finished, the pupils all over the city will enjoy their Easter vacation which will last until Monday, May 1.

Rising Sun Co. Blocked.

Owing to differences existing with Charles W. McCutchen, owner of the building, Charles Schanz, the former tenant and the Rising Sun Brewing Company, the company was not allowed to remove the bar fixtures from the place today. It is understood that Mr. Schanz is indebted to Mr. McCutchen for rent, but does not think he should pay inasmuch as he failed to get a license. The brewing company holds a chattel mortgage on the fixtures, and Mr. McCutcheon wants to get possession of his property.

Presbytery Closes.

The Elizabeth Presbytery closed its semi-annual session in the Dunellen Presbyterian church, yesterday. The last luncheon was a delightful affair with Dr. W. B. Hamilton acting as toastmaster. Rev. J. O. McKelvey, of Warren chapel, made one of the most humorous of the addresses.

Horses Hurt Trees.

For tieing his horse to a tree, Joseph Kadesh, of Grove street, a junkman, is being sued for damages in Justice Hand's court by the tree's owner, Daniel Dugan, of East Seventh street. The horse nibbled at the bark.

LOCAL D. A. R. WANTS COURT HOUSE SAVED

CONTINENTAL CHAPTER'S PROTEST TO SOMERSET COUNTY FREEHOLDERS.

The executive board of Continental Chapter of the D. A. R., of this city, at a meeting held yesterday at the home of First Vice Regent Mrs. David Prescott Hall registered a protest to the Somerset County Freeholders against the destruction of the historic Court House at Somerville.

The members also decided to postpone the entertainment planned for this spring, until early autumn, in view of the large number of events of local interest already arranged for May. The delegate from Continental Chapter to the Continental Congress, D. A. R., Miss Addie Dietrich, is now in Washington, and will bring a report to the chapter on her return. Miss Dietrich was instructed to vote for Mrs. Donald McLean as President-General.

Closet Blaze in Two-Family House.

Fire started in a closet on the second floor of the house at 221 Stebbins place, occupied by the families of William Waller and Robert Waller, at 5:30 last evening and caused $25 damage. The closet and some clothing Wm it sneffred from the flames before the arrival of the department in response to an alarm from box 47. Two extinguishers sufficed to stop the trouble.

Sunday-School Officers.

These officers were chosen last night by the First Presbyterian Sunday-school: Superintendent, I. B. Hill; first assistant, LeRoy Gates; second assistant, Miss Jennie Abbott; treasurer, Freeman Shotwell; secretary, Frank Haseltine; assistant, Edgar George, Jr.

Mrs. Johnson Surprised.

Mrs. J. Johnson, of Duer street, was given a surprise house-warming by members of the Hope chapel Ladies' Aid Society, last night. Thirty were present and several hours were passed delightfully with vocal and instrumental music and other features.

POINTS FOR THE BUYERS

Thorp's foot relief is now a standard remedy and one trial will convince you of its merits.

"Express" means something. Hoagland's express lives up to the meaning of the word. It is real express service.

I. N. Wyckoff, the West Front street painter and paper-hanger, is ready to make contracts for work in his line.

At Harper's, Park avenue, all the leading magazines are kept in stock. Place your order and they will be delivered at your home if you wish it.

Spring is the time of the year when people, as well as nature, take on a new garb. S. Hirsch, the Watchung avenue tailor, is ready with his spring styles.

William Hand & Sons, of East Front street, contracts to do all kinds of trucking and moving of furniture to all parts of the country. Only expert men are employed.

Visitors welcome at Woman's Exchange to see Easter display. Attractive fancy articles—Mexican drawn work, hand-painted china, burnt wood, etc. 502 Watchung avenue.

The phonograph is now recognized as a foe to dull care. It is companionship itself. Harry K. Lister, of North avenue, has both phonographs and graphophones in every style.

Skill of the highest grade, and materials of the finest quality, have made the reputation of Brown & Brown, dyers and cleaners, West Second street, as marked as it is.

R. W. Barnes, of Park avenue, makes a specialty of all kinds of fancy crackers, cheeses, dried fruits and prepared sausage. If you need any of these articles, just telephone him.

Peck says your business is his business—if it has to deal with buying dry goods. If you buy your goods at Peck's, West Front street, you will be glad his business got your business. Square deal store.

The man who write the milk-and-water jokes for the comic papers find no inspiration in Marchant Bros., North avenue. Their milk is pretty nearly cream. Their service is without peer in the milk trade.

Every account is a sacred and well-guarded trust with the Plainfield Trust Company. Depositors, especially women depositors, find the institution not only a safe and liberal banking house, but a pleasant place in which to transact business.

Save yourself a lot of trouble in securing a new residence by looking over the lists of E. M. French & Co. They buy, sell and rent property or act as agents and through their wide experience can "fill the bill." This firm also handles the best lines of fire insurance.

A. M. Griffen, of East Front street, makes a specialty of housefurnishing goods. His line of cooking utensils is the best and the general line of hardware, moulders' and machinists' tools is always complete. The plumbing and tinning department is first-class and all work is promptly attended to.

The samples of mission furniture at Woodhull & Martin's store is attracting considerable attention both as to quality and the price. If you need any furniture inspect this stock before purchasing elsewhere. The home-made cooking department is still a feature at the store and the patronage is constantly increasing. Don't forget the sale of other furniture, including porch rockers, as well as lawn mowers and refrigerators.

Easter Tour to Old Point Comfort, Richmond and Washington.

SUMMARY OF SHOOT BETWEEN COS. K AND L

PLAINFELDERS MADE 55 POINTS IN THE CONTEST.

"The Signal-Enterprise" of Princeton and Hightstown has this to say about the recent shoot at Princeton between teams from Co. K, of this city, and Co. L, of Princeton: "The shoot between Co K and Co L, which was held on the Mergerum range, resulted in a decisive victory for the visitors, the Plainfield men succeeding in making a score of 693 points to the local company's 638, thus winning by 55 points. The good shooting of the visitors was evident on all the ranges, while the home boys lost most of their chances of winning on the 500 and 800 yards ranges. The fine marksmanship of Captain Martin, Littell and Herr, of Co. K, was the feature of the contest, as these men all succeeded in running up high scores. On the 800 yard range Captain Martin's expert marksmanship was clearly demonstrated, scoring forty-seven points of a possible fifty on that range." The following is the summary of the shoot:

Co. K.	200 yds	500 yds	800 yds	Totals

Saturday evening the members of the company entertained the visiting team in the armory in a very hospitable manner. During the festivities several solos and speeches were well rendered by members of both companies, and thus an enjoyable evening was spent. A return match between the two companies will no doubt take place on Saturday, April 29, on the Somerville range.

AMUSEMENTS.

Majestic Theatre, New York. How is Keller's performance to be described? It would be utterly impossible to point out its merits no matter what care might be used in elaborating details. About the only thing that can be asserted of him, in justice, is to say that he is the greatest in the world in his line. Keller stands preeminent in the domain of mechanical appliances while the same may be said of him in the realm of mathametical sciences. His Levitation of Princess Karnac. His cabinet trick, growing of real roses of a pot of sand, Valadon's crystal ladder, his drum that can't be beaten and well I'm—!!! These latter are truly marvelous. Next week he will furnish the Majestic Theatre patrons an entirely new programme.

In reply to inquiries we have pleasure in announcing that Ely's Liquid Cream Balm is like the solid preparation of that admirable remedy in that it cleanses and heals membranes affected by nasal catarrh. There is no drying or sneezing. The Liquid Cream Balm is adapted to use by patients who have trouble in inhaling through the nose and prefer spraying. The price, including spraying tube, is 75 cents. Sold by druggists or mailed by Ely Brothers, 56 Warren street, New York.

SPORTING NEWS.

DIAMOND DUST.

Isn't it about time someone treated out a mascot for the baseball team. With such an auspicious opening the players deserve one.

The result of Saturday's game between Westfield and the Seventh Regiment team at Westfield will be awaited with interest.

In view of the fact that Phil. Smith is pitching this season for the Y. M. C. A. team, there is little likelihood of there being a team at Dunellen, unless a good pitcher is secured. Smith pitched great ball for the Dunellen team last year.

"Rube" Oldring has a good record in the four times that he has faced "Red" Waller. Last year he batted against him three times and again last Saturday. In these games he was at the bat sixteen times, made twelve safe hits, two sacrifice hits, one fly and one bunt. Last Sunday in four times at bat "Rube" made three hits. He believes that Waller is pie for him.

Manager Daub and Linen Groo visited Crescent Oval yesterday for the purpose of planning for more "bleacher" seats. Their idea is to add a sufficient number of seats to accommodate about 1,500 patrons. On Saturday the bleachers were fully tested and many were obliged to stand up. As the weath er warms up no doubt the oval will be tested to its capacity at every game.

With the brightest prospects of any minor P. H. S. team in recent year, the "Scrubs," the second team of the High School will open the season tomorrow with Leal's second team on Hope Common. The "Scrubs" will be run on a far more liberal management than in former years and it is the purpose of those in charge to play the strongest of the second class High School teams in the State. Arrangements are now pending for games to be played with Somerville H. S., Westfield H. S., and North Plainfield H. S. At a meeting held Monday night at the Y. M. C. A., the plan of organizing a minor league was abandoned, but to make the games for the juvenile championship intersting, Mr. Robbie, boys' secretary of the Y. M. C. A., has offered a pennant to the team which wins two of the three games which have been arranged between the "Scrubs" and Whittier School nine. The "Scrub" line-up tomorrow will be: Pitchers, Bogart and Fountain; catchers, Jahn and Leggett; 1b, Collier, captain; 2b, Rockwell; 3b, Russell; ss, VanDeventer; lf, Rugen; cf, Walsh; rf, Palmer or Loiseaux.

A Summer Outing.
Asbury Park and Ocean Grove the twin seaside cities of New Jersey are by far the most popular outing places on the coast. There is no objectionable feature to detract from their attractiveness and the abundance of genuine enjoyment which is to be found there is limited only by the tourists ability to find it. There are exceptional bathing facilities, broad walks at the ocean edge, picturesque drives in every direction. A social atmosphere, wholesome and enjoyable, and entertainment the like of which no other shore resort provides. The municipality provides daily concerts and at the mammoth casino there is a series of entertainment by the best talent in the land. The National Educational Association has chosen Asbury Park and Ocean Grove as the meeting place for 1905, and from appearances it will be the most interesting convention ever held by the Association. The New Jersey Central is the popular line between New York and Asbury Park having both an all rail and boat line to the resort. If you are interested in the sea shore cities drop a postal to C. M. Burt, G. P. A., New Jersey Central, New York City, for Educational Folder No. 1, it's free for the asking.

Washington.
April 24 is the date on which will be run the next personally-conducted tour of the Pennsylvania Railroad to Washington. This tour will cover a period of three days, affording ample time to visit all the principal points of interest at the National Capital, including the Congressional Library and the new Corcoran Art Gallery. Rate, covering railroad transportation for the round trip and hotel accommodations, $14.50 or $13 from New York, $13 or $10.50 from Trenton, and proportionate rates from other points, according to hotel selected. Rates cover accommodations at hotel for two days. Special side trip to Mount Vernon. All tickets good for ten days, with special hotel rates after expiration of hotel coupon. A similar tour will be run on May 18. For itineraries full information apply to ticket agents; C. Studds, Eastern Passenger Agent, 263 Fifth avenue, New York; or address Geo. W. JAPANESE PROTEST

Cabinet at Tokyo Sends Hot Message to Paris.

ROJESTVENSKY'S PATROL IRRITATES

Land Operations Indicate Intention of Marquis Oyama to Interpose a Force Between Harbin and Vladivostok.

LONDON, April 20.—The Japanese cabinet has sent a strong and notly worded protest to France regarding her violations of international law in aiding Russian war operations in the far east.

A special from Tokyo says:

"At a conference of the elder statesmen and the principal cabinet ministers a strongly worded protest was sent to France regarding its frequent violations of neutrality in providing shelter for and rendering assistance to Russia's Baltic fleet at Madagascar and now at Kamranh bay. No answer has as yet been received from the French authorities."

Although not reported directly, it is believed that the Russian second Pacific squadron continues the occupation of Kamranh bay or some other port of Annam, where it is expected to remain until joined by the third Pacific squadron.

The report that Admiral Rojestvensky is maintaining a patrol and examining neutral shipping off Kamranh bay increases the irritation toward France for permitting the use of that port as a base of operations.

Harbin dispatches say that there was a determined attempt during the night to cut the railroad between Harbin and Vladivostok, a formidable body of Chinese bandits making an attack near the station of Imyanpo, a hundred miles east of Harbin. After a desperate fight which lasted several hours the bandits were driven off and dispersed.

Many smaller companies of Chinese bandits are roving in the rear of the Russian army, but disappear when pursued. It is thought probable that they are Manchurians, who scatter to their villages when they find themselves in danger.

There are indications that the Japanese are planning to thrust northeastward and interpose a force between Harbin and Vladivostok.

A report from Manchurian headquarters says:

"A Japanese force advanced toward Tunghua, fifty miles east of Hsincheng, and has occupied that place. The enemy retreated to the north."

Watchman Charged With Arson.

HIGHTSTOWN, N. J., April 20.—W. H. Clouser, who for three years has served as night watchman of this village, has been arrested and committed to jail on three charges of arson. It is alleged he set fire to the stables of the chief of the fire department, destroying three valuable horses; that he fired the hay press of the mayor of the village and also fired the stable of the local hotel.

Joseph Jefferson's Condition.

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla., April 20.—Joseph Jefferson is reported to be improving. He is still very weak and his condition critical. At a late hour the statement was made that Mr. Jefferson was much better and would survive the night. He took a grape fruit and asked that he be given some soup.

"RESIGN OR WE QUIT"

Equitable General Agents' Ultimatum to Hyde.

TERMED A MENACE TO THE SOCIETY

Young Vice President Says, "Impertinent and Ridiculous; I Will Not Resign"—Storm Raged High at Savoy Convention.

NEW YORK, April 20.—After four hours of stormy discussion the managers and general agents of the Equitable Life Assurance society assembled in convention at the Hotel Savoy here passed resolutions condemning James Hazen Hyde, the society's vice president, and demanding his resignation.

The resolution is said to be much more drastic in tone than the one which was abandoned at the former meeting. It is said to attack Mr. Hyde personally as well as on account of his business transactions. He is termed a menace to the welfare of the society. Only seventeen votes were cast against this resolution.

Accompanying the demand for Mr. Hyde's resignation is a well accepted rumor that if he refused to resign, as it is said he will do, the general agents who voted for the resolution will leave the Equitable society and take with them so much of their business as they can control.

While no authoritative confirmation could be had when the convention adjourned, it was said also that a committee of five had been dispatched to the Equitable building to present the resolution to Mr. Hyde.

The meeting was an exceedingly stormy one. Three or four people were trying to talk at once most of the time. The Hyde forces were in the most hopeless minority. The men from the west and southwest dwelt at great length on the sentiment of the public in the sections whence they came and pointed out that the situation was such that it could not be fully realized in the east, where different conditions prevailed. The Hyde men tried hard to pacify the radical element by asking for proof of Mr. Hyde's alleged wrongdoing.

This argument was met with the display of newspaper clippings.

When the meeting adjourned it was in wild disorder.

Three of the members of the committee to wait on Mr. Hyde were Joseph Bowes of Baltimore, W. J. Roddey of South Carolina and Frank C. Levy of New Orleans.

Mr. Hyde made the following statement:

"I have not seen the committee, and I have not seen the resolutions, but I consider them impertinent, extraordinary, insulting and most preposterous. I have no intention of resigning."

Asks Receivership For Equitable.

NEW ORLEANS, April 20.—Edgar M. Cahn, an attorney, has filed suit in the civil courts here on behalf of himself and other policy holders of the Equitable Life Assurance society asking for a receivership under the Louisiana law and for accounting of the company's affairs in view of the New York situation.

Hospital Apprentice Commended.

WASHINGTON, April 20.—The secretary of the navy has written a letter to James H. Holden, hospital apprentice, first class, on the cruiser Cleveland, commending him for his act of bravery in rushing to the rescue of Past Assistant Surgeon Holcomb of the cruiser Cleveland when a blacksmith aboard ship who was said to have become suddenly insane had seized the surgeon and with a razor attempted to kill him.

Combine to Defeat Bait Act.

ST. JOHN'S, N. F., April 20.—Dispatches from St. Pierre, Miquelon, indicate that the French fishermen are trying to arrange a combine with American fishermen in an effort to defeat the Newfoundland bait act now in force against both the French and American fishermen. The St. Pierre fishermen are planning to erect bait freezers to induce the Americans to make that place their headquarters.

Sons of Revolution at Annapolis.

ANNAPOLIS, Md., April 20.—The delegates of the triennial convention of the Sons of the Revolution now in session at Washington have visited Annapolis in a body and held a business session in the old senate chamber of the statehouse. They were welcomed by Governor Warfield and at the conclusion of their business session lunched at Carvel hall.

Senator Platt's Condition.

WASHINGTON, Conn., April 20.—Senator O. H. Platt suffered a chill last night, and his physician, Dr. W. J. Ford, stated that there was a return of the bronchial trouble in the patient's right side. "The chill," Dr. Ford said, "has given a serious aspect to the situation. Senator Platt's condition is critical. There is a fair chance that he will pull through."

Carnegie's Gift to Goodwill Farm.

WATERVILLE, Me., April 20.—It is announced that Andrew Carnegie will give $15,000 to Goodwill farm at Hinckley for a library provided a similar sum is raised as an endowment.

LEGEND, A LONG SHOT, WON.

Lady Valentine, Favorite at Aqueduct, Beaten In Close Race.

NEW YORK, April 20.—Legend, a long shot, proved a surprise in the Rose stakes at Aqueduct by defeating the heavily played favorite, Lady Valentine. Legend and Lady Valentine ran close together almost all the way, Legend gaining the decision in the final stride by a short head. Monte Carlo and Kiamesha were the winning favorites, the other events going to long shots. Summaries:

First Race.—Burnett, first; Superior Boy, second; Tangier, third.

Second Race.—Race King, first; Jerry C., second; Workman, third.

Third Race.—Monte Carlo, first; Casline, second; Tommy Waddell, third.

Fourth Race.—Legend, first; Lady Valentine, second; Society Bud, third.

Fifth Race.—Toi San, first; Ouatas, second; Wyefield, third.

Sixth Race.—Kiamesha, first; Suffice second; Ishmailian, third.

F. Lorz Won Marathon Race.

BOSTON, April 20.—F. Lorz of the Mohawk Athletic club, New York, won the ninth annual Marathon road race of twenty-five miles, held under the auspices of the Boston Athletic association. Lorz's time was 2 hours 38 minutes 25 2-5 seconds, 9 minutes 1 4-5 seconds behind the record established in 1901 by J. J. Caffrey of Hamilton, Ont. L. Marks of the Pastime Athletic club, New York, was second and R. Fowler of the Cambridge Gymnasium association third.

West Pointers Won.

WEST POINT, N. Y., April 20.—The New York university in a match game here scored their first run in the eighth inning. Wilson was hit by pitcher, Halpin singled, and both advanced a base on a passed ball. Halsey bunted and Wilson and Halpin scored on Hanlon's poor throw to third. Halsey scored the other run shortly afterward on Hanlon's throw to third, which hit him and bounded out of reach of the third baseman. West Point won by a score of 11 to 3.

Athlana Was a Shade Ahead.

ST. LOUIS, April 20.—The feature of the racing at the American Jockey club track was the finish between Athlana and Miss Marconi in the third event. Athlana, little thought of, at 4 to 1, and Miss Marconi, heavily played at 4 to 5, were off together and remained side by side into the stretch, where they shook off the rest of the field and fought it out neck and neck. The jockey on Athlana lifted his mount at the wire and passed under a shade ahead of the favorite.

Bookmakers Lost Money.

ST. LOUIS, April 20.—Bookmakers lost money at the fair grounds race track, as the public successfully backed four winners. Beginning with the first, when the public refused the bookmakers' choice, Sir Carter, and backed Wounded Knee into favoritism at post time, through almost the entire card the form players were on top.

Glen Echo Won Handicap.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., April 20.—Captain S. S. Brown's three-year-old bay colt Glen Echo, the favorite, galloped away with the Peabody handicap, the stake offering for the closing day's sport at Montgomery park. The race was at a mile and an eighth, with $1,500 added money and a valuable silver cup given by Colonel R. B. Snowden.

Boston Rider Won.

REVERE, Mass., April 20.—Louis Mettling of Boston easily won the opening race at the Revere cycle track. He defeated William Stinson and Harry Caldwell in a twenty-five mile motor paced race behind small motors. The time was 39 minutes 55 3-5 seconds.

New Athletic Field For Exeter.

EXETER, N. H., April 20.—Announcement was made here that C. V. McAlpine and Dr. D. H. McAlpine of New York, graduates of Phillips-Exeter academy, had signified their intention of giving the school a new athletic field to cost $15,000.

Bobby Walthour's Victory.

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., April 20.—Bobby Walthour easily defeated James Moran and Nat Butler in a thirty mile motor paced race at the Charles river track. Moran finished second. The time was 44 minutes 14 3-5 seconds.

Close Game Won by Princeton.

PRINCETON, N. J., April 20.—Princeton won an exciting game from Lafayette here in the eleventh inning, the score being 3 to 2. Bryan scored the winning run.

Dr. Leggo at San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 20.—Dr. Leggo won the handicap at a mile and an eighth, being one of two favorites to win.

A CARNEGIE ROMANCE

Ironmaster's Favorite Niece Weds Family Coachman.

SAID TO HAVE ELOPED A YEAR AGO

Financier Gives Forth Signed Statement That Couple and Baby Daughter on Arrival From Europe Were Welcomed by Family.

NEW YORK, April 0.—It has just been learned here that Nancy Carnegie favorite niece of Andrew Carnegie has been married to James Hever, formerly her mother's coachman, for more than a year, but the marriage has been kept a secret. When Mr. and Mrs. Hever arrived from Europe they were entertained by the ex-ironmaster at his Fifth avenue home. Mr. Carnegie has admitted the marriage in the following signed statement:

"Our niece Nancy was married more than a year ago to Mr. Hever and is very happy. We received her and her husband upon arrival from Europe at our house. Her sister and two brothers came to New York to welcome the couple. My wife was on the pier to greet them, as were the others.

"Mr. Hever is not rich, but he is a sober, moral, well doing man, and the family would much rather have such a husband for Nancy than a worthless duke.

"There is no truth whatever in the report that the family is unreconciled."

Thomas M. Carnegie, the father of Mrs. Hever, was associated with Andrew Carnegie in the steel and coke business. He died several years ago, leaving a fortune well up in the millions. His widow is one of the best known women in Pittsburg. She manages her own business affairs and is an enthusiast over outdoor sports.

The young woman grew up very pretty and winsome. She had many admirers among the financially solid youth of Pittsburg, but showed none of them any favoritism. On her visits to New York she moved in the best society.

It is believed it was from Fernandina that Nancy Carnegie and James Hever eloped last spring. Whether or not the coachman had made formal application to marry the daughter of his employer has not been ascertained. On this point Mr. Carnegie is silent. Nor is it known where the marriage took place.

It is supposed that the couple went to Europe just after the marriage ceremony and remained away until the present time.

The news of the marriage was a great surprise to all but the Carnegie family and a few most intimate friends both here and in Pittsburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Hever's daughter, it was said, has been christened Florence Retta in honor of Mrs. Frederick C. Perkins and Mrs. Oliver G. Ricketson, the sisters of Mrs. Hever's mother. Mrs. Thomas Carnegie was formerly Miss Lucy Coleman.

From the family home in Pittsburg it was denied that Mrs. Hever's mother was unreconciled to her marriage.

Threw Child Over High Viaduct.

CINCINNATI, O., April 20.—Loretta Krekeler, aged nine years, was thrown from the Liberty street viaduct here to the ground, eighty-three feet below. The girl may die. Charles Finch was later arrested. The girl and her six-year-old brother, who was a witness to the assault, said Finch, who was stupefied with cocaine, was the man concerned. Finch said he knew nothing about throwing the girl over the viaduct. He said a colored man gave him a drug, and he had not remembered anything after taking some of the cocaine.

Would Hamper Kitchener.

CALCUTTA, April 20.—Friction has arisen between Lord Kitchener of Khartum and Major General Elles, military member of the governor general's council, whose anomalous position enables him to thwart the commander in chief's plans, and Lord Kitchener threatens to resign unless General Elles' duties are restricted to the administrative and spending departments and he (Lord Kitchener) is given a voice in the council or placed in closer relation with the Indian government.

Strike Held Up Italian Deputies.

ROME, April 20.—The government's railway bill was carried by a large majority in the chamber of deputies, Republicans and Socialists voting in the negative. The strike interfering with travel, those members of the chamber of deputies who wished to return to their homes were, through the influence of Premier Fortis, provided with a special train to Civita Vacchia, sixty miles from Rome, from whence two warships conveyed them to Naples and Genoa.

Boy Drowned to Death.

MIDDLETOWN, N. Y., April 20.—Charles Groton, the ten-year-old son of Mrs. Glennie Mitter of Hurleyville, was dragged to his death by a rapidly moving wagon. In some way he got too near the passing vehicle, and his foot was caught in one of the wheels.

Frost Hurt Peach Crop Badly.

ATLANTA, Ga., April 20.—After a trip through north Georgia State Entomologist R. I. Smith said, "There is no doubt about the fact that 85 per cent of the peach crop north of Atlanta is a total loss as the result of the recent cold weather.

Miners Returned to Work.

CALUMET, Mich., April 20.—Strikers at the Wolverene mine returned today after being out several weeks. The men gained concessions. Only 100 trammers struck, but they prevented 400 other underground employees working.

The questions will be furnished by the donor of the cup, who will select two members of the club (not competitors) to act with him in reading the the answers and in awarding the cup. No public announcement will be made of the percentage of competitors, except in the case of the winner, the competition to take place in the dining room of the club, at 9 a. m., May 20th.

Women's Handicap Cup—Open to active, associate and junior associate members. 18 holes, handicap, medal play, open all day. Associate and junior associate members must play in the morning.

Women's Clock Golf Cup—Open to all members. To be played for on Saturday afternoons during May and June. The players returning the three lowest scores to receive three, two and one points respectively, the player scoring the greatest number of points to receive the cup.

All semi-finals and finals in match play competitions must be played on the day scheduled or the player must default unless permission for change of day is received from the golf committee.

Resolutions of Condolence.

At a meeting of the Vestry of the Church of the Holy Cross, held April 10th, the resignation of the Rector, Rev. W. Montgomery Downey, was accepted, and the following resolutions unanimously passed:

WHEREAS, Our Rector, the Rev. W. Montgomery Downey, has tendered his resignation as Rector of the Church of the Holy Cross, North Plainfield, N. J., and has urged the acceptance thereof by us, therefore be it

Resolved, That we, the Wardens and Vestrymen of the Parish of the Church of the Holy Cross, of North Plainfield, N. J., do at his urgent request accept with deep regret the resignation of our Rector, Rev. W. Montgomery Downey, and we express our sorrow that the cordial relations existing between him and the Parish are to be severed, and be it further

Resolved, That we hereby extend to him, this, our tribute of affection for him as a friend, and our appreciation of the effective work done in the Parish under his ministry, and wish him Godspeed and success in whatever the new field of labor may be upon which he is to enter, and assure him that wherever his lot may be cast the friendships which he has formed in the parish will not cease because of his removal from our midst.

Fine Work of Local Team's Twirlers Brought Victory.

SOME GOOD BATTING

Smith and Burt Stars in the Box—Banks, Craig and Conroy Fine at the Bat.

Spurred on by the cheers of a large band of rooters, the P. H. S. nine at Elizabeth yesterday afternoon, administered a complete coat of whitewash to the Pingry School crack team. The score was 6 to 0.

In the opening of the game Burt, of P. H. S., faced Rollinson, of Pingry, in the box. So steady was Burts' work that in the five innings in which he was in the box, not a hit was secured off his delivery and but one man reached third base. It was by far Burts' best exhibition this year.

In the sixth inning Smith went in to pitch for the locals and Pingry could not find him for more than two hits. The High School boys started things a-rolling in the second inning when two clean hits coupled with some errors gave the P. H. S. team three runs, and what proved to be the game. In the sixth inning two more runs earned by consistent hitting swelling the total of runs to five and in the sixth inning the last nail was driven into the box of victory for P. H. S. The batting of Banks, Craig and Conway contributed a large part of the victory.

The boys lined up as follows:

LIQUOR DEALERS ACTIVE.

Minister and State Association Arrayed Against Application.

The State Retail Liquor Dealers' Association made its first appearance in Middlesex County license case, Tuesday morning, and opposed the granting of an application to Edward H. Carney, of Dunellen and Aaron Gross, of Sand Hills. The Rev. S. K. Doolittle, of Dunellen, also appeared in court in opposition to the Carney application. This application was denied, and the Gross application granted. The appearance of the liquor dealers' association was a surprise.

Mrs. William H. Voorhees, of Brooklyn, is spending a few days at the home of her niece, Miss Grace Johnson, of Duer street.

SUBURBAN NEWS.

DUNELLEN AND VICINITY.

Charles Wybuskey, one of the three men caught by the falling girder in Newark Tuesday, is still in the Newark hospital. While the doctors, up to last night, had not deemed him strong enough to stand a thorough examination, they began to look for his recovery. Internal injuries may complicate his case, but his condition yesterday was so much improved that he is expected to pull through in as short a time as may reasonably be expected. Mrs. Wybuskey saw him at the institution yesterday, and reported, when she returned home, that he was much better. Walter Blair, who suffered only minor hurts and the effects of the shock, was scarcely any the worse for the accident yesterday.

The funeral of John Kennedy, killed by the falling bridge girder in Newark Tuesday, will be held tomorrow afternoon. A service will begin at the house at 1:30 o'clock, and at the Methodist church at 2 o'clock. Rev. S. K. Doolittle will conduct the service. Interment will be made at Somerville.

Mrs. T. C. Bodine, on account of her removal to Plainfield, has severed her long connection with the Presbyterian Sunday-school, of which she was a highly valued worker as teacher in the primary department. Mrs. Bodine was the leading worker in the local W. C. T. U.

The first real test of the gravity railroad at the G. and G. crusher came yesterday. On Tuesday, when the railroad started, it ran for only an hour, but it ran the full work-day yesterday. There were no hitches or breakdowns.

The monthly meeting and supper of the Ladies' Aid Society, of the Seventh-Day Baptist church was held yesterday, at the home of James B. Dunham. The supper was served from 6 to 8 o'clock.

Two excellent pictures of the new gravity railroad at the Garretson & Gray crusher were taken Monday by Abner Corieli, Jr.

The work on the First Baptist church is very nearly completed. The inside graining and decorating is being finished.

Rev. H. N. Jordan has recovered from his brief attack of illness.

Miss Elsie Peters has returned from a visit to relatives in Cranford.

One of W. G. Runyon's horses is sick.

The boys of the high school are endeavoring to organize an athletic association for the purpose of creating an interest in sports at the school, especially baseball, which has practically been dead at the school for several years past. The boys are meeting with encouraging success with the petition which is being circulated among their friends for financial support.

The P. A. U. team will play the Stars, of Elizabethport, at Crescent Oval, Saturday afternoon. Manager Denman's team will open the season at Recreation Park with the Seventh Regiment team, of New York.

The Junior League, of the Methodist church, held one of its interesting weekly gatherings in the class room of the church yesterday afternoon.

The Suburban bowling team will go to Elizabethport tonight to roll a return game with the Edward A. Clark team.

Twilight Council, Jr., O. U. A. M., meets tonight in the library rooms.

Miss Susie Parse was the guest yesterday, of friends in Plainfield.

REFORMED CHURCH CLASSIS SESSION

MEETING OF NEWARK CLASSIS AT BROOKDALE YESTERDAY.

Yesterday, in the historic stone church at Brookdale, (formerly Stone House Plains) the Classis of Newark held its annual spring session. Rev. Dr. Vance, of Newark, was elected president. Much routine business was transacted at both the morning and afternoon sessions. The women of the church provided a substantial dinner in the Sunday-school room to which all did justice, and they were given a hearty vote of thanks for the excellent dinner provided. Rev. W. E. Bogardus is pastor of the church, which was erected in 1802.

Rev. Dr. Schenck and the people of Trinity Reformed church were congratulated on the fact that the church had recently celebrated its twenty-fifth anniversary. Dr. Bishop, as chairman of a committee presented resolutions eulogizing Dr. Schenck and commending his zeal and earnestness as a minister of the Gospel. Dr. Schenck fittingly replied, thanking Dr. Bishop and Classis for their congratulations and words of cheer. Rev. C. H. Schneegas, pastor of the German Reformed church on Craig place, was elected a member of the Classis, resigning from the Presbytery of Long Island.

Fractured His Arm.

Fred Wheaton, employed as a farmhand for "Pop" Ulrick, of Union Village, sustained a fracture of his arm this afternoon, while trying to prevent his horse from running away on Somerset street. The animal was frightened by a trolley car.

Entertained Her Friends.

Miss Lena Kuenlin, of West Front street, entertained a few friends at her home yesterday, they being invited to meet her guests, Mrs. Armstrong and Mrs. Alderdice, of Brooklyn.

N. P. H. S., 10; Leals, 1.

The North Plainfield High School team defeated Leal's team yesterday by a score of 10 to 1. Leal's boys scored their only run on an error.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR.

Prayer Meeting Topic For the Week Beginning April 23.

By REV. S. H. DOYLE.

Topic.—The power of His resurrection.—Rom. vi, 3-13; Phil. iii, 10. (Easter meeting.)

The resurrection of Christ was "a glorious manifestation of divine power. In his salutation to the Romans (i, 4) the apostle Paul says of Christ that He was "declared to be the Son of God, with power, according to the spirit of holiness, by the resurrection from the dead." And Paul desired to know Him and the power of His resurrection. The resurrection of Christ was not only a manifestation of divine power, but that resurrection inevitably became a great power in the life of Christ's church and of His people.

Christ's resurrection is a power as a testimonial. It was God's crowning testimony that Jesus of Nazareth was His Son and that the gospel was the power of God unto salvation. An unrisen Christ would have meant a vain faith. "If Christ be not risen, then is our preaching vain, and your faith is also vain." But a risen Christ means an established faith against which even the gates of hell cannot prevail. Therefore "thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory" over all doubt and opposition, for "Christ is risen from the dead."

Christ's resurrection is a power as a symbol. It symbolizes spiritual resurrection and stimulates it. Man is dead in trespasses and in sins. Christ's resurrection from the dead is a type of man's resurrection from spiritual death. "We are buried with Him by baptism into death; that, like as Christ was raised up from the dead by the glory of the Father, even so we also should walk in newness of life." "Let not, therefore, sin reign in your mortal body, that ye should obey it in the lusts thereof; neither yield ye your members as instruments of unrighteousness unto sin, but yield yourselves unto God, as those that are alive from the dead, and your members as instruments of righteousness unto God."

Christ's resurrection is a power as an assurance. "It is the center of our most cherished hopes, the evidence of our immortality and the earnest of the resurrection of the body." "Now is Christ risen from the dead and become the first fruits of them that slept." Christ the first fruits, and after Him those that are His. Blessed hope! It is not all of life to live nor all of death to die. With the setting of life's sun the star of immortality rises to dispel the darkness of the tomb.

Christ's resurrection is a power as a comfort. Paul used the fact of a future life with Christ after His second coming as a comfort for the Thessalonians concerning their departed loved ones. At such times we may apply the same balm to our wounded hearts. He is risen. He lives. Our loved ones, gone, live with Him, and this joy awaits all who live a life of faith and service in Him. "Wherefore comfort one another with these words."

BIBLE READINGS.

Job xix, 26, 27; Ps. xvii, 15; Isa. xxvi, 19; Dan. xii, 1-3; Matt. xxii, 31, 32. Luke xiv, 1-14; John xi, 19-27; Rom. vi, 1-11; I Cor. xv, 12-220; I Pet. i, 1-9.

An Ardent Endeavorer.

Rev. William Patterson, D. D., the pastor of Bethany Presbyterian church, Philadelphia, often spoken of as "John Wanamaker's church" by reason of the large part the merchant prince had in its establishment, is a long time Christian Endeavor enthusiast and a preacher of Christian Endeavor principles for many years. Dr. Patterson is much in demand at Christian Endeavor conventions and not infrequently has been a speaker at the monster international gatherings.

REV. WILLIAM PATTERSON, D. D.

Forward.

I for one feel that we should put aside dress parades and frills and furbelows and get into what some one calls "downright, upright, outright, all right business" during these months ahead. Our enlistment in the ranks calls for this. Christian Endeavor is not a playground, nor is it a comfortable place in which to dream, nor yet a gently flowing stream on which we may drift. It is a battlefield; it is a sphere for toil and sacrifice. Larger unions, increased membership, better service, more Quiet Hour Comrades and Tenth Legioners—the common words have already turned into music. Let them sing for us the battle hymn to the melody of which we shall march forward to a splendid victory.—Rev. Edwin Forrest Hallenbeck, D. D., in Christian Endeavor World.

Endeavor In the Navy Yard.

For ten years Hollond Memorial Endeavorers, Philadelphia, have been holding services in shine and shade in the barracks at League Island navy yard, on the ships, and in the camps Sundays and Thursdays without an omission. They have spent $100 a year in car fare alone. They have distributed great quantities of good literature. It has been a splendid service, most thoroughly enjoyed and greatly blessed.

The Spirit of the Leaders.

It ought to be known to Endeavorers everywhere that on the recent trip in the interest of the World's Union work Dr. Clark and Mr. Shaw paid their own traveling expenses. Every penny of more than $7,000 which they raised for the foreign work will go directly to the object for which given.

EPWORTH LEAGUE.

April 23: "The Power of His Resurrection"—Rom. vi, 3-13; Phil. iii, 10.

By REV. WALTER J. YATES, Ph. D.

Selection for Easter.

"That I may know Him and the power of His resurrection!"

That is the aspiration of Paul before which all other ambitions are forgotten. He thinks of Christ in the flesh as learning obedience through the things which He suffered, but now that He has accomplished redemption is seated at the right hand of God on high in a different mode of existence.

The earthly life of suffering has led to the glorified life above through resurrection. The one is the result of the other. Christ has found the secret of living. Man can live the God life here on this earth. One has done so. He has found the way to endure pain and privation. More than that, he has discovered that these are not fatal to happiness, but that the path of life leads through the midst of tribulation. Even death itself cannot keep the soul from its intended possessions. Death has been endured and it cannot extinguish life. Rather it is the gateway into larger existence.

Other men have died, but none as this Christ died. Other men have come back to consciousness after they had passed into the realm called death, but none ever came as this Christ has come. For them it meant only a few years of the same old earthly life and a final sleep, with no awakening here. This man has known to the full all there is in death and then has appeared among men with transcendent power of unending existence. He has penetrated the mystery that has held all men lifelong in bondage to fear. Death is not the end. Life lies the other side, and that life larger and fuller and freer.

This fullness of life which the Christ has found on the other side the grave and which He now lives at the right hand of the Father He calls upon all his followers to share now with Him.

Baptism, according to the notion of Paul, is the assuming of this new life and a dying to the old desires and aims of mere worldly living. We have in the baptismal washing done away with all the old and have risen with Christ into the new realm. Life has changed its meaning for us. We are no more to obey the lusts of the flesh, but to bring all powers under obedience to Christ, as He brought all His powers into subjection to the Father Eternal.

This is transformation indeed. It is not visionary, though based on vision. Others had testified that Jesus had died and most surely risen from the dead. If true, this carried with it the most tremendous consequences of any fact the world ever had proclaimed to it. It was revolutionary of all life and religion. It made a different world for men to live in, and they could no longer go on doing as they had done before. None saw this more clearly than Saul of Tarsus, but he had not seen the risen Christ. No man's word could make this credible to his mind. Whoever declared it was worse than any other deceiver, for he was unsettling the foundations of the world and overturning all its settled facts.

One day, mind filled with the wild impossibility of such a thing and soul stirred to resentment of the attempts of men like Stephen to throw religion into new channels, he saw the Christ. His own eyes beheld. Vision, do you call it? Why, yes, to be sure it was vision. That means eyesight, but not illusion, not hallucination. No matter what any other man of the company saw or did not see, he knew to his dying day what he saw at that time and place. He knew that Christ was living.

That fact changed all the currents of his life. No other explanation of the subsequent career of Paul is possible. No soberer man ever gave testimony among men. No man ever backed up his knowledge more persistently or consistently. He becomes the great witness to the whole non-Jewish world of the fact of supreme importance to every man—that Jesus Christ was dead and is now alive, nevermore to die.

Eyesight is not enough to establish such an incident. To that must be added insight or spiritual vision which penetrates below the surface and finds the essence of things. Whoever had this power in greater measure than he except that same one who now becomes his Master?

Have you seen the sight yourself?

You may know the certainty that He has risen if you will. This shall be Easter indeed to you if in your inmost soul you do cry "that I may know Him and the power of His resurrection and the fellowship of His sufferings."

Its Own Best Evidence.

Biblical truth, shining in its own light and made living by the power of the Holy Spirit, is itself its own best evidence. Historic and other arguments are of great service in the refutation of objections and in certain lines of defense, but the truth itself, and that alone, is likely to produce conviction and persuasion.—Sunday School Times.

An Ideal Location
Rosedale and Linden Park Cemeteries

LARGEST IN THE STATE
LINDEN, N. J.
Beautiful and Accessible
2 Miles from Elizabeth, 7 Miles from Newark,
14 MILES FROM NEW YORK
On Main Line Pennsylvania Railroad
Why Lots in These Cemeteries commend themselves to Heads of Families and Investors
BECAUSE of the $1,000,000 Trust Fund provided for by the Trustees in each Cemetery, the income from which will keep the properties perpetually beautiful at NO EXPENSE TO LOT OWNERS.
BECAUSE such a guarantee, not found in any other cemetery, assures lot owners that the grounds WILL BE MAINTAINED PERMANENTLY AS BEAUTIFUL PARKS AFTER THE INCOME FROM THE SALE OF LOTS HAS BEEN EXHAUSTED.
LOTS SHOULD BE PURCHASED NOW
BECAUSE MORE ADVANTAGES ARE OFFERED TO LOT BUYERS in a new Modern Park Cemetery than in those established many years and, in most cases, no provision made for perpetual care without extra expense to lot owners. THERE ARE A GREATER NUMBER OF IDEAL LOCATIONS TO SELECT FROM, PRICES OF LOTS ARE ALWAYS LOWER AND TERMS MORE ADVANTAGEOUS.
BECAUSE life is most uncertain and EVERY ONE SHOULD ANTICIPATE THE INEVITABLE BY MAKING A CHOICE NOW OF A FINAL RESTING PLACE.
LOTS WILL PROVE A GOOD INVESTMENT
BECAUSE they are sure to increase in value and can be purchased NOW at the INITIAL, or LOWEST PRICE and upon the most ADVANTAGEOUS TERMS.
BECAUSE the properties are ACCESSIBLE TO 4,000,000 PEOPLE, and considering the RAPID GROWTH OF GREATER NEW YORK and its TRIBUTARY CITIES and TOWNS, it is only a question of a SHORT TIME when LOTS in ROSEDALE and LINDEN PARK will EQUAL IN VALUE those of our MOST NOTED cemeteries.
FOR INFORMATION concerning lots in these beautiful Park Cemeteries, and FREE transportation to prospective lot buyers, apply at once to any LEADING UNDERTAKER or offices of the Associations:

SPRING HOUSE CLEANING.

System and a Regular Programme Make It Easier.

To begin, take one room at a time, commencing with the top floor. Remove from it all that is movable—bric-a-brac, draperies, curtains, bedclothes, chairs and table. So far as possible, give everything a royal old sunning and airing, even to the bed mattresses. Lay papers or a large cloth upon the ground in the yard, then carry your mattress out and lay it thereon. Let the warm sun beat upon it all day. This has a purifying and cleansing effect on a mattress upon which human bodies have been sleeping all winter. Pillows may be fastened by a corner with clothespins and hung from lines.

Hang upon the line in the yard and fasten thereto with pins rugs and all the draperies that are not to be washed. Bedquilts, comfortables and blankets that do not need washing should also hang in the sunshine. Then if a girl or woman wants some physical culture that will give her fine lung power and noble biceps let her take an ordinary beater, such as is used for whipping the dust out of heavy garments, and go at those articles upon the lines with a will.

The clothing beater is an invaluable implement in a household. It can be bought in any shop that keeps house furnishing goods. It consists of a long, limber bamboo doubled over into an oval or round loop at one end. The loop is crossed with interwoven slats of bamboo, the whole constituting a light, flexible implement that when applied to any textile fabric or rug makes the dust fly out in clouds.

House Cleaning Programme.

Take down the smaller pictures and clean them. The ones that cannot be moved cover with paper. Cover all heavy, immovable articles in the same way. Next sweep the floor. Tie a cloth over the end of a broom and wipe the walls till they fairly shine. Next whiten the ceiling if it needs it and wash all windows and woodwork.

A word concerning window washing: Soap and wash powder leave a smear upon the glass. Use clear, warm water, to which has been added just two or three drops of kerosene, not more. Kerosene is eminently cleansing, yet if too much of it is used it, too, leaves a smear because of its oily nature. Have plenty of clean, soft rags. After the washing and drying of the windows is finished polish with a good sized piece of chamois leather, which should be in every household. It can be washed like a cloth when it becomes soiled. It and the drop of kerosene in the wash water make the windows shine like crystal. Be particular to get window sills and casings pure and clean inside and out.

Last of all, the floor. For cleaning a floor nothing better than a scrubbing brush, washing powder and plenty of clean, warm water has ever been devised. To use the scrubbing brush it is not necessary either to get down upon one's knees. The woman who has kept her back as limber as all women can and should do can stoop to scrub a floor with far less fatigue than she can do it upon her knees, rubbing the skin off them and getting her skirts wet in the dirty water. After the floor has been scrubbed with the brush it should be thoroughly wiped with a cloth and clean rinse water. Those who have tried it say that if a little turpentine is added to this rinsing water it will leave a fresh, fragrant odor in the room.

For work like house cleaning one's skirts should be quite short and scant.

Renovating Carpets.

Cleaning heavy carpets is a man's work rather than a woman's unless she be one of these new women who have developed more muscle and athletic strength than the old time woman considered "ladylike." After the men have shaken a carpet thoroughly they should hang it upon a line and beat it with sticks till every particle of dust is out of it. Thereafter it should hang in the full sunlight for a whole day to get the microbes out of it and life giving radiant matter into it. Kitchen carpets will be much improved by hanging in the rain, several rains indeed, and being allowed to dry upon the line.

Woman's work in renovating a carpet begins after it has been shaken and beaten and tacked upon the floor again. Then let the woman take a pail of warm water into which some liquid ammonia has been poured in the proportion of a teaspoonful of ammonia to a gallon of water. Let her dip a clean cloth into the ammoniated water, wring it out well and wash that carpet all over. This will brighten the carpet till it looks like new. The water should be changed frequently.

Kate Bonnet

The Romance of a Pirate's Daughter

By FRANK R. STOCKTON

Copyright, 1902, by D. Appleton & Co., New York.

When the man in the stern of the boat, which was now almost within hailing distance, saw the two figures run down upon the beach, he spoke to the oarsmen and they all stopped and looked around. The stop was occasioned by the sight of Dickory in his uniform; and this, under the circumstances, was enough to stop any boat's crew. Then they fell to again and pulled ashore. When the boat was beached one of its occupants, a roughly dressed man, sprang ashore and walked cautiously towards Mander; then he gave a great shout.

"Heigho, heigho!" he cried, "and Mander, this is you!"

Then there was great hand-shaking and many words.

"Excuse me, sir," said the man, raising his hat to Dickory, "it is now more than two years since I have seen my friend here, when he was marooned by pirates. We were all on the same merchantman, but the pirate took me along, being short of hands. I got away at last, sir" (all the time addressing Dickory instead of Mander, this being respect to his rank), "and shipping on board that brig, sir, I begged it of the captain that he would drop anchor here and take in water, although I cannot say it was needed, and give me a chance to land and see if my old friend be yet alive. I knew the spot, having well noted it when Mander and his family were marooned."

"This is a great day for your friend and his family. But you must not lift your hat to me, for I am no officer."

For a long time, at least it seemed so to Dickory, who wanted to run to the cave and tell the good news, they all stood together on the sands and talked and shook hands and laughed and were truly thankful, the men who had come in the boat as much so as those who were found on the island. It was agreed, and there was no discussion on this point, that the Mander family should be carried away in the brig, which was an English vessel bound for Jamaica, but the happy Mander would not ask any of the boat's crew to visit him at his home. Instead, he besought them to return to their vessel and bring back some clothes for women, if any such should be included in her cargo.

"My family," said he "are not in fit condition to venture themselves among well-clad people. They are, indeed, more like savages than am I myself."

"I doubt," said Mander's friend, "if the ship carries goods of that description, but perhaps the captain might let you have a bale of cotton cloth, although I suppose—" and here he looked a little embarrassed.

"Oh, we can buy it," cried Dickory, taking some pieces of gold from his pocket, being coin which Blackbeard had furnished him, swearing that his first lieutenant could not feel like a true officer without money in his pocket; "take this and fetch the cloth if nothing better can be had."

"Thank you," cried Mander; "my wife and daughters can soon fashion it into shape."

When Mander and Dickory reached the house they did not stop, but hurried on towards the cave, both of them together, for each thought only of the great joy they were taking with them.

"Come out! Come out!" shouted Mander, as he ran, and before they reached the cave its shuddering inmates had hurried into the light. When the cries and the tears and the embraces were over, Lucilla first looked at Dickory. She started, her face flushed, and she was about to draw back; then she stopped, and advancing held out her hand.

"It cannot be helped," she said; "anyway, you have seen me before, and I suppose it doesn't matter. I'm a sailor boy, and have to own up to it. I did hope you would think of me as a young lady, but we are all so happy now that that doesn't matter. Oh, father!" she cried, "it can't be; we are not fit to be saved; we must perish here in our wretched rags."

"Not so," cried Dickory, with a bow; "I've already bought you a gown, and I hope it is pink."

As they all hurried away, the tale of the hoped-for clothes was told; and although Mrs. Mander wondered how gowns were to be made while a merchantman waited, she said nothing of her doubts, and they all ran gleefully. Lucilla and Dickory being the fleetest led the others, and Dickory said: "Now that I have seen you thus, I shall be almost sorry if that ship can furnish you with common clothes, what you wear becomes you so."

"Oho!" cried Lucilla, "that's fine flattery, sir; but I am glad you said it, for that speech has made me feel more like a woman than I have felt since I first put on this sailor's toggery."

In the afternoon the boat returned, Mander and Dickory watching on the beach. When it grounded, Davids, Mander's friend, jumped on shore, bearing in his arms a pile of great coarse sacks. These he threw upon the sand and, handing to Dickory the gold pieces he had given him, said: "The captain sends word that he has no time to look over any goods to give or to sell, but he sends these sacks, out of which the women can fashion themselves gowns, and so come aboard. Then the ship shall be searched for stuffs which will suit their purposes and which they can make at their leisure."

It was towards the close of the afternoon that all of the Mander family and Dickory came down to the boat which was waiting for them.

"Do you know," said Dickory, as he and Lucilla stood together on the sand, "that in that gown of gray, with the white sleeves, and the red cord around your waist, you please me better than even you did when you wore your sailor garb?"

"And what matters it, sir, whether I please you or not?"

CHAPTER XXVI.
CAPTAIN ICHABOD.

KATE BONNET was indeed in a sad case. She had sailed from Kingston with high hopes and a gay heart, and before she left she had written to Master Newcombe to express her joy that her father had given up his unlawful calling and to say how she was going to sail after him, fold him in her forgiving arms, and bring him back to Jamaica, where she and her uncle would see to it that his past sins were forgiven on account of his irresponsible mind, and where, for the rest of his life, he would tread the paths of peace and probity. In this letter she had not yielded to the earnest entreaty which was really the object and soul of Master Newcombe's epistle. Many kind things she said to so kind a friend, but to his offer to make her the queen of his life she made no answer. She knew she was his very queen, but she would not yet consent to be invested with the royal robes and with the crown.

And when she had reached Belize, how proudly happy she had been! She had seen her father, no longer an outlaw, honest though in mean condition, earning his bread by honorable labor. Then, with a still greater pride, she had seen him clad as a noble gentleman and bearing himself with dignity and high complacence. What a figure he would have made among the fine folks who were her uncle's friends in Kingston and in Spanish Town!

But all this was over now. With his own hand he had told her that once again she was a pirate's daughter. She went below to her cabin, where, with wet cheeks, Dame Charter attended her.

Mr. Delaplaine was angry, intensely angry. Such a shameful, wicked trick had never before been played upon a loving daughter. There were no words in which to express his most justifiable wrath. Again he went to the town to learn more, but there was nothing more to learn except that some people said they had reason to believe that Bonnet had gone to follow Blackbeard. From things they had heard they supposed that the vessel which had sailed away in the night had gone to offer herself as a consort to the Revenge; to rob and burn in the company of that notorious ship.

There was no satisfaction in this news for the heart of the good merchant, and when he returned to the brig and sought his niece's cabin he had no words with which to cheer her. All he could do was to tell her the little he had learned and to listen to her supplications.

Mr. Delaplaine sat brooding on the deck. The righteous anger kindled by the conduct of his brother-in-law, and his grief for the poor stricken women, sobbing in the cabin, combined together to throw him into the most dolorous state of mind, which was aggravated by the knowledge that he could do nothing except to wait until the Belinda sailed back to Jamaica and to go to Jamaica in her.

As the unhappy merchant sat thus, his face buried in his hands, a small boat came alongside and a passenger

"I HAVE COME, SIR, TO SEE YOU," HE SAID; "I AM CAPTAIN ICHABOD OF THE SLOOP RESTLESS."

mounted to the deck. This person, after asking a few questions, approached Mr. Delaplaine.

APPEAL TO GOMPERS.

Labor Interests of Porto Rico Ask Aid to Secure Higher Wages.

WASHINGTON, April 20.—President Gompers, representing the American Federation of Labor, has been appealed to by the labor interests of Porto Rico for support in their effort to secure an increase of wages, which has resulted in conflicts with the police authorities of the island. The appeal came from Santiago Iglesias, the local organizer of the Federation of Labor in Porto Rico, who sent two cablegrams to President Gompers, as follows:

"Ten thousand strikers want financial solidarity."

"Pacific meetings of thousands of workers being destroyed by the police. Sixty workers wounded by shooting and beating. Fourteen thousand strikers asked increased wages. Your solidarity should cause great benefit."

In the absence of President Gompers from the city Frank Morrison, the secretary of the federation, probably will bring the matter to the attention of the war department with a view if possible to an amelioration of existing conditions and the protection of the labor interests.

The federation has a large number of unions in Porto Rico, the members of many of which are engaged in agriculture.

In Defense of Judge Hooker.

ALBANY, N. Y., April 20.—Arguments for the defense of Supreme Court Justice Warren B. Hooker were presented here before the assembly judiciary committee, which has for several weeks been investigating Justice Hooker's conduct in connection with the postoffices at Fredonia and Dunkirk. The arguments were made by Judge William N. Goodrich of Brooklyn and Lewis B. Carr of Albany of counsel for Justice Hooker. Judge Goodrich devoted his arguments to the constitutional aspects of the question, while Mr. Carr discussed the various acts which have been the subject of criticism.

Rough Trip For Loeb.

GLENWOOD SPRINGS, Colo., April 20.—With President Roosevelt and Secretary Loeb in camp twenty miles from the nearest telegraph office, no news of the hunt has come out of the woods. Mr. Loeb is expected here today and will bring information of the luck that has attended the president's hunt for big game. The president keeps a personal diary, and correspondents await the return of the secretary with much impatience. Storms of snow, hail and rain surged about the mountains in the direction of the east divide nearly all day, and Mr. Loeb will have a rough, uncomfortable trip.

Patriots' Day at Boston.

BOSTON, April 20.—The one hundred and thirtieth anniversary of the battle of Lexington was observed throughout Massachusetts as a public holiday, although the principal celebrations were confined to the territory immediately surrounding this city. Exercises were held under the auspices of patriotic and historical societies in this city, Concord and Lexington.

To Celebrate Conversion.

Many Christian workers here will be interested in the announcement of the twenty-third anniversary of the conversion of S. H. Hadley which will be celebrated at the Old Jerry McAuley Water Street Mission, 316 Water street, New York, Sunday night, April 23, at 7:30 o'clock. It will be twenty-three years ago that Mr. Hadley was dying in a saloon and was brought out by the way of the police station to Jerry McAuley's Mission. He says that from that day he has never known the desire to drink. A number of Plainfielders have received postal cards bearing a photograph of Mr. Hadley and the announcement of the celebration.

Captured Yellow Ferret.

One of the employes at Hedden's livery on East Fourth street, assisted by a dog, captured a yellow ferret at the stables last night. He is unusually large and apparently very old. His color is one of the most peculiar features, the usual color being a grayish-brown. Pink eyes is another strange feature. Mr. Hedden has been losing many chickens of late and he believes this animal has been responsible for it.

WOOD INDICTED BY GRAND JURY

Pleads Not Guilty to Murder of George Williams and Trial is Set.

SWACKHAMER COUNSEL

Overthrow of Insanity Theory Leaves Authorities in Doubt as to What Line of Defense Will be Advanced.

Pronounced by alienists to be in the full possession of his senses, George H. Wood, of New York, was yesterday indicted by the Somerset County Grand Jury for the murder of Grocer George Williams near Mount Horeb on February 2, and was at once brought before Judge Garretson. He pleaded not guilty to the indictment and informed the court that he was without funds to employ counsel. Former Assemblyman S. S. Swackhamer, of this city, was assigned to him at the expense of the county and trial was set down for May 15.

Swackhamer was originally engaged by George Bird, also of this city, to assist him in looking after Wood's affairs directly after he was arrested, the first engagement being made by Mrs. Wood. Since then the former assemblyman has been in constant communication with the accused man and evidently has a line of defense prepared. It had been thought up to the time the alienists rendered their report that insanity would be the plea but the declaration that he is sane will make a different stand necessary. What it will be none of the authorities have the least suspicion, neither have they been able to discover a motive for the crime.

Detectives have been at work since Wood was first arrested and they believe they have sufficient evidence to break down Wood's strange story of his wanderings in this city and elsewhere and his alleged lapse of memory during the time in which the murder was committed.

The trial will undoubtedly prove to be one of the most interesting ever conducted in the State, through the peculiar state of affairs surrounding the crime. It has attracted attention throughout the East and criminologists everywhere are watching every step with interest.

SANG "THE CRUCIFXION."

Sir John Stainer's Composition Rendered by Choir.

Stainer's beautiful cantata, "The Crucifixion," being a meditation on the sacred Passion of the Holy Redeemer, was sung at the First Baptist church, last night by the choir, under the direction of E. J. Fitzhugh. The choir was assisted by Miss Jessie Utter, pianist, and Miss Florence Wohlfert, violin, while Howard Case presided at the organ. The solo parts were taken by Miss Luella C. Harris, soprano; Mrs. F. M. Ward, contralto; George H. Smith, tenor, and William Holmes, baritone.

The programme opened with a prelude—organ, violin and piano—"Ave Maria," Gounod, in which the instrumentation was perfect. Then the choir sang Gounod's "By Babylon's Wave," by way of introduction to the recitative parts which followed, including "I Sought the Lord," Stevenson, by Mrs. F. M. Ward and chorus, and "The Story of the Cross."

This was followed by "The Crucifixion," in which the soloists took the principal parts, assisted by the chorus. Interspersing the cantata were several hymns appropriate to Holy Week sung by the congregation.

Won't be Grand Marshal.

Former Governor Foster M. Voorhees has declined to be the grand marshal of the parade to be held at Elizabeth on Thursday, June 8, on which day the 125th anniversary of the battle of Elizabethtown is to be celebrated. An effort will be made to induce him to reconsider his action. If this is unsuccessful another attempt will be made to obtain General J. Madison Drake for the position.

Thoughts of Summer.

The Y. M. C. A. boys' State camp will again be conducted at Wawayanda this year. It will open on June 29, conducting two sections of two weeks each, and will close on July 27. Plainfield, as usual, will send a large delegation.

WAR ON GRAFTERS AT CRESCENT OVAL

ENLARGING BLEACHERS TO ACCOMMODATE 1,500 MORE PEOPLE.

In order to keep the "grafters" out of Crescent Oval the management has decided to erect a wire fence from the bleacher seats on the left of the diamond to the left field territory. Last Saturday there were at least twenty-five or thirty persons who entered the grounds from the lower end of the field and paid nothing to see the game. The management have provided complimentary tickets to those entitled to have them and it proposes to charge all others.

Bleacher seats will be extended on either side of the diamond so that at least 1,500 persons can be accommodated. The work is to be finished in a week. Better police arrangements have been made and hereafter the oval will properly be looked after in this respect.

FORMAL OPENING OF COUNTRY CLUBHOUSE

GREENS READY APRIL 29 AND TEES ON MAY 6.

The members of the Plainfield Country Club have been notified that the clubhouse will be opened for the season tomorrow. It is planned to have music on Saturday nights and on holidays throughout the season. The announcement as to dances will be made later. All applications for bed rooms may be made to the house clerk.

The Greens committee hope to have the summer greens ready for use on April 29, and the new tees by May 6. All players are directed to refrain from playing on tees and greens which are not in commission. The 13th, 14th and 15th holes are now opened for play, with temporary tees and greens. The complete list of officers and committees for the year are as follows:

President, George P. Mellick; vice president, Ernest R. Ackerman; secretary, Leighton Calkins; treasurer, Stuart H. Patterson; Greens committee, Elliot T. Barrows, chairman; Leighton Calkins; house committee, Lewis G. Timpson, chairman; L. E. Waring, T. D. Wilson, Mrs. T. M. Day, Jr., Miss Mary Holly, Mrs. Lewis G. Timpson, Miss Maude Van Boskerck; Golf committee, T. R. Van Boskerck, chairman; E. E. Iremonger, W. L. Glenney, Robert Abbott, C. B. Morgan, J. Whitney Baker; tennis committee, T. M. Day, Jr., chairman; Owen H. Fleming, A. D. Beers, F. W. Goddard, Miss Kisie Burke, Miss Sarah Schuyler and Miss Mary K. Whiton.

The large increase in the membership of the Plainfield Country Club is another sign for a promising and successful season. At a meeting of the executive board held Wednesday night these persons were elected, all but a very few being new members, the exceptions being transfers from one class of membership to another:

John Valiant, Leonard Waldo, J. W. Kirkner, Christie P. Hamilton, J. L. Watson, Charles A. Rice, William D. Riggs, Edwin S. Hooley, Charles B. Andrews, Frederic W. Butler, E. W. Bulkley, G. G. Davidge, Edward C. Patterson, P. C. Langdon, Draper C. Bartlett, John Valiant, Jr., Mrs. W. L. Lockwood, Gerdon Stuart, Margaret Goddard, Lawrence M. Mead, Albert Norris, Mrs. Allen Cowperthwait, Mrs. Christie P. Hamilton, Miss Mary E. Valiant, Mrs. John Valiant, Mrs. W. H. Murray, Mrs. Howard W. Beebe, Miss Ruth M. Waldo, Miss Anne H. Waldo, Mrs. Leonard Waldo, Mrs. Mason W. Tyler, Mrs. Stuart H. Paterson, Mrs. H. D. Hibbard, Mrs. Charles A. Rice, Mrs. Gertrude C. Munger, Mrs. F. H. Andrews, Mrs. J. Otis Averill, Norman W. Averill, Mrs. Samuel Huntington, Mrs. A. B. Davies, Miss Helen H. Hooley, Miss Mabel B. Hooley, Mrs. Edwin S. Hooley, Mrs. A. H. Atterbury, Mrs. J. B. Yerkes, Mrs. Chas. A. Reed, Miss Madeline Reed, Mrs. W. B Wadsworth, Mrs. Annette P. Smith, Mrs. Eugene H. Hatch, Mrs. Orville T. Waring, Miss Eleanor G. Waring.

Patrick Casey, of West Third street, is out again after nine weeks confinement to the house by an injury to his foot.

SERVANT COULDN'T IDENTIFY SUSPECT

SUPPOSED ROBBER IN ELIZABETH HOSPITAL NOT RECOGNIZED.

As far as the local police are concerned, John Duan, the suspicious character captured by the Elizabeth police Wednesday afternoon, and held for investigation as the possible leader of the two robbers who cleaned up all the loose silverware in the T. K. VanZandt house Wednesday morning, is an ex-suspect. Chief Kiely took Delia Henegan, servant in the family of Leighton Calkins, a neighbor of Mr. VanZandts, to whom the two "telephone repairers" spoke, to the Elizabeth hospital where Duan lay with a broken leg, yesterday, and the expected identification, on which Chief Tenney, of Elizabeth, counted, fizzled out.

After looking the man over carefully, the girl said she couldn't recognize him as one of the two suspects. She couldn's see much of a resemblance, even in general outline.

Chief Kiely wasn't disappointed. When he heard the time the men were spotted in Elizabethport he felt it was highly improbable that they were the ones he was after. It isn't at all likely, he holds, that the robbers would have stayed in this neighborhood for four hours after the crime.

Chief Tenney isn't so undisturbed over the fizzle. He is not satisfied that the failure to identify Duan is final. The man lay bundled up in bed clothes, and his face was paler than usual, when the girl looked him over. Chief Tenney thinks the identification may be established when the man is able to stand before Miss Henegan in his street clothes

WANTED SOME COPS.

West End Man Thought Son Was in Danger and Sent for the Police.

Oscar Pierson, 1018 West Front street, telephoned to police headquarters at 10:30 o'clock last night. He said that three men had tried to murder his son, and cops were needed at once.

Officer Higgins and Doorman O'Gorman were sent to West Front street in the hurry-up wagon at racing speed. Pierson told them Fred Hand, of Leland avenue, and two of his men, had tried to kill his boy.

Higgins went to Hand's house. Hand said young Pierson was caught peeping into his house, and he put him off the place. He said he didn't want him around there.

Pierson told the officers that he would appear before Judge Runyon in the city court this morning and make a complaint. He failed to appear.

Young Pierson is said to be paying attention to Hand's daughter, to which the girl's father objects.

Plainfield vs. Elizabeth Tomorrow.

There will be a large crowd of fans at the baseball game on Crescent Oval tomorrow afternoon when the locals will meet the Elizabeth Stars. The contest will be called at 3:30 o'clock sharp. Last Saturday there was hardly enough seating accommodations for the bleacherites but it is the intention of the management to provide seats for all who attend the game. The lineup for tomorrow's game will be as follows: Plainfield—Cosgrove, cf; Oidring, 2b; Kiernan, ss; Leonard, 3b; Driscoll, 1b; Creagan, lf; Connelly, rf; Lamar, c; Lunderman or Beisel, p. Stars—Bertwhistle, cf; Foster, 2b; Flynn, ss; Curley, 3b; Stallings, 1b; Finn, lf; Middleton, rf; Poole, c; Luyster or Duke p.

New Organist at Holy Cross.

Mrs. William Odell, of Tarrytown, N. Y., has been engaged as organist for the Church of the Holy Cross to succeed J. Edmund Skiff, who resigned to accept a similar position at the First M. E. church. He practically takes all of his choir with him. Mrs. Odell enters upon her new duties on Sunday, May 7. Among the members of the present choir who will remain at the church are the Misses Mabel Smith, May Smith, Laura Leivers and Henry P. Williams.

Union Good Friday Services.

Union Good Friday services will be held at the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church tonight at 7:45, when the various pastors of the churches will speak on the seven words from the cross.

Enlarging His House.

Estimates are now being made from plans for the erection of an addition to the residence of A. H. Atterbury, on West Seventh street, to be used as a library.

PUPILS CELEBRATE DAY

Easter Observed in Schools of City and Borough.

FORMAL EXERCISES

Irving School Children Have An Exceptional Programme—At High School.

Filled with the Easter spirit, all the schools in the city and borough celebrated the feast with more or less elaborate exercises, today. In many cases the assembly rooms were prettily decorated with greens and palms and appreciative audiences listened to the selections, consisting mostly of singing, which was enthusiastically entered into by the pupils.

At the city High School an appropriate programme was arranged by Principal Travell, consisting solely of music. Some difficult selections were rendered in excellent style by the pupils, who showed the results of careful and hard practice. "The Risen King," a lengthy cantata in four parts, was well received while among the other selections were "God Hath Appointed a Day," "At Easter Time," "Let the Earth be Joyful," "Break Forth into Joy," by Barnaby, and "See Now the Altar." Leonard Lewis renderdd "Blossoms in the Meadow," to which he was forced to respond. Four of the faculty, Messrs. Benedict and Cuming and Messrs. Lewis and Howe, sang "Mary Magdaline" very pleasingly.

The Easter exercises at the Bryant School were also held this morning with a number of the children's parents as an audience. The exercises were simple and every number on the programme was rendered by the pupils. The list of selections in detail are as follows:

Singing by school, "Jerusalem;" scripture reading; singing by school, "Weep no More;" "Crown the Victor's Brow," Edward Ford, Russel Stewart, Arthur Lewis; singing by school, "Christ Has Risen;" "Blossoms in the Meadow," Lyle Smith, Leonard Lewis; singing by school, "They Chime in Silver Notes;" solo, "Easter Day," Jesse Smith; singing by school, "Jesus, King of Heaven;" solo and chorus, "I Am Glad," Lavina Fulner; singing by school, "Hosanna;" duet, "Easter Lilies Fair," Arthur and Leonard Lewis; "Hark the Song," two part song, ten boys; singing by school, "He Arose."

Lack of a chapel in which to meet as a whole, made it necessary for the pupils of the Lincoln School to assemble in their several rooms where special programmes were rendered under the directions of the teachers in charge.

Being adverse to rendering Easter exercises on Good Friday, Miss Noel Bullock, principal of the Franklin School, arranged her Easter programme for yesterday afternoon. Several solos were included in the list of selections. The programme rendered: "He Arose," school; "They Chime in Silver Notes," school; "I Am Glad," solo, Miss McCormick, chorus, school; "Hosanna," school; "Easter Day," solo, Master Ulrich, chorus, school; "Jesus, King of Heaven," school; "Jerusalem," school; "Hark the Song," ten pupils from older classes; "Christ Has Risen," school; "Crown the Victor's Brow," solo, Miss Mann, chorus, school; "Sing the Story," school; "Easter Lilies Fair," duet, Masters Titsworth and Martin, chorus, school; "Weep No More," school.

As was the way in most of the schools, Miss Humpstone made up an elaborate musical programme for her pupils in the Washington School. Several recitations were rendered by the pupils who thoroughly enjoyed the exercises.

As is usually the case, Miss Petrie arranged a most elaborate programme for the Irving School children. All the work was simple but interesting. The following songs were given: Opening chorus, "He Arose," given by the entire school; chorus, "Rejoice and Sing," by pupils of 6th grade; "Hosanna," chorus by the school; solo, "With All Nature Let Us Sing," by Helen Davenport; song, "Wake Vale and Hill," school; duet, "Easter Lilies," by Violet Jones and Mildren Lane, accompanied by Emma Grannatt, Valeria Cozzens, Grace Squier and May Stafford; solo, "King of Kings," by Violet Jones, accompanied by pupils of 6th grade.

The morning classes of the kindergarten and First Garde A, from the annex, were present and sang two of their spring songs.

The singing was varied by most excellent and appropriate remarks by FORCE DECREASED BY GYMNASIUM EXERCISE

GERMAN HORSE TURNS ON COPS AND CRIPPLES ONE.

Some torn ligaments and a discontented frame of mind have come to Patrolman Dennis O'Keefe from the newly established gymnasium exercises through which the cops must go three times a week at the Y. M. C. A. Also an indefinite period of idleness.

O'Keefe crippled his left arm badly in doing a gymnastic stunt with the bluecoat class two weeks ago, and he hasn't been able to report for duty since.

It happened while the class was jumping the German horse. Until the cops came into the gym class the horse was quiet and well-behaved. It had never kicked, or jumped, or developed any malign tendencies, and the gymnasium leaders regarded it as thoroughly broken, and entirely safe for a lady to handle, it properly cind. When the cops began to use it, the long-suffering horse seemed to grow restive. Still, it stood everything they did with it, and Physical Director Henckel thought it would do more than grouch in sullen inactivity.

But there came an afternoon when the horse could stand it no longer. The cops did everything to which a German horse in a well-ordered gymnasium is unaccustomed. They shied away from him on the jump; they kicked him in going over; and did sundry other things not countenanced in Turn Vereins in either the Fatherland and the Step-Fatherland. When, to crown all its sufferings, Chief Kiely sat down on it, the horse rebelled. It was too much to bear.

Vanderweg is allowed to go over its back unassailed, but when O'Keefe, next in order, came at it the horse turned on him. Accounts of what happened thereafter differ.

O'Keefe says the horse bucked, kicked, and bit; immediately after which, he alleges, it jumped on him. The other men say the horse merely got in O'Keefe's way and tripped him up. Anyway, O'Keefe hit the hardwood floor, with his left arm doubled up under him.

The ligaments of the arm were pulled in all directions, and the officer hasn't been able to use it since and doesn't know when he will. The cops now go over the horse with ladders, and only after a committee on safety has inspected nine restraining ropes and chains.

Good Production Certain.

The first full rehearsal of the "Mikado" at the Casino, Wednesday night, was satisfactory to Conductor Holmes in every way and the production bids fair to exceed the ones he has given in previous years. Howard Lewis will be the Mikado, William Taliamy, "Nanki Poo" and William N. Runyon does himself proud as "Ko-Ko." Others in the cast are "Pooh Bah," R. Wilson Derby; "Pish Tush," Fred J. Pope; "Nee Ban," Elmer D. Cutting; "Yum Yum," Mrs. E. D. Young; "Pitti Sing," Miss Anna Daley; "Peep Bo," Miss Ada Dunham; "Katisha," Mrs. Fernando M. Ward.

New Jail for Somerset.

The Somerset County Board of Freeholders has decided to build a new jail yet this season and plans are soon to be decided upon. It is hoped to have the preliminaries arranged and the work started so that the building may be ready in the fall. The complete plans for the new court house have not yet been completed and it is not now generally believed that any work will be done on it this year, although the contracts will be given out.

Heptasophs Parade.

District Deputy J. V. M. Vanderhoef and twelve other members of Protective Conclave, Independent Order Heptasophs, took part in the big parade held by the united conclaves of New Jersey in Newark last night. He also made a speech at the banquet which followed in the auditorium.

Minstrels Before Perseverance.

Following the regular business meeting of Perseverance lodge, No. 74, K. of P., tonight, the members will enjoy a short period of minstrelsy. An "all star" cast has been gathered by Bertram C. Firstbrook and a full "first part" will be given by well known local amateurs.

H. G. RUNKLE SUES TOM LAWSON

Plainfielder Seeks An Accounting for $386,000 in Boston Court.

MINING INVESTMENT

Money Contributed to Buy Properties in New Mexico and Arizona—Where Has It Gone?

A bill in equity has been filed in the Superior Court in Boston by H. G. Runkle, of West Eighth street, this city, against Thomas W. Lawson, Albert G. Burrage and C. B. Burrage asking that an accounting be ordered for $386,125 which, Mr. Runkle asserts, was contributed by various people toward a syndicate formed to acquire mining properties in New Mexico and Arizona.

Mr. Runkle, who is a director of the City National Bank and is rated as one of the wealthiest men in Plainfield, asserts that he subscribed through C. H. Dickey, who withheld information as to the location of the mines, but said that the enterprise was to be managed by A. G. Burrage. He alleges that he was led to subscribe because of the connection of the defendants with the enterprise and his belief that Burrage was to manage it.

The companies organized by the defendants or those who were associated with them in the syndicate were the Oxide Copper Company, the Angang Copper Company, the Arimax Copper Company and the Table Mountain Copper Company. Mr. Runkle asserts that the money contributed was eventually used to buy the properties and form the companies.

Y. M. C. A. TRIP ITINERARY.

All Plans Complete for Washington Outing.

Kenneth Robbie, boys' secretary of the Y. M. C. A., has all arrangements completed for the Easter educational trip to Washington. His party will include Edgar Freeman, Fred Smith, Otto Mueck, Jr., Emil Mueck, William Briggs, Carl Strong, Lee Manning, Morris Timpson, LeRoy Woodhull, F. T. To Allot Pews.

The seating committee of the Congregational church, which, with an auxiliary committee of three, will have charge of the allotment of seats under the new pew renting system, will meet to take action on the allotments Sunday morning. The committee met Wednesday night, but no action was taken.

May Close Jail.

Freeholder O'Neil has notified the Board of Freeholders that the health inspector threatens to close up the Middlesex county jail at New Brunswick because its condition is unsanitary.

Agriculture Board Room.

The Union County Board of Agriculture is to have a handsome room for its meetings, on the top floor of the new Court House at Elizabeth.

ALL NEW MARKET AT MRS. NELSON'S FUNERAL

PREACHER EULOGIZES HER CHARACTER —HER LAWYERS PRESENT.

Mrs. Hannah E. Nelson, of New Market, mother of the late Mrs. Charles L. Fair, and who came into notoriety through the fight for the Fair millions after the death of her daughter and son-in-law in an automobile accident in France, was buried yesterday afternoon. The funeral service was held at the home of her son, A. G. Nelson, in New Market, at 3 o'clock.

Very nearly the whole village attended the service. The funeral cortege was large, the family providing twenty coaches for the use of all the friends and neighbors who desired to follow the body to the graveside. There were elaborate floral tributes.

The service was conducted by Rev. Frank Fletcher, pastor of the First Baptist church, New Market. He preached on the kindliness of the dead woman's character, her neighborliness, her womanly and Christian virtues.

The body was interred in the South Plainfield cemetery. The bearers were Frank Leonard, Caleb Leonard, Edward Leffler, Theodore Leffler, John Bunnell and George T. Whitley. The first five are grandsons, and Mr. Whitley is the husband of a granddaughter.

Charles Smith, of Boulder, Col., a son of Mrs. Nelson, was unable to attend the funeral on account of illness, but wired a message to the house.

Among those who attended were both members of the law firm of Chandler & Beekman, New York, who fought the celebrated will case for the Nelsons in the California and French courts. They will be in charge of the probation of Mrs. Nelson's will. It is expected that the instrument will be filed in ten days. The amount secured by the heirs of Mrs. Fair in the compromise that ended the will contest has been a matter of speculation and interest to the neighbors of Mrs. Nelson ever since the legal battle ended. They expect to have their curiosity partly satisfied when the Nelson will is probated, and the filing of the instrument is awaited with keen expectancy in New Market and Dunellen.

Mrs. Julia Ward Howe Here.

Mrs. Julia Ward Howe will arrive here today to spend Easter with her daughter, Mrs. David P. Hall, of Madison avenue. The occasion will be in the nature of a family reunion as Mrs. Hall's son and family will visit her home at the same time, making four generations. Mrs. Charles H. Ward, of New York, will give a reception on Monday in honor of Mrs. Howe.

Factories Counted.

Census Enumerator John Case, who is getting industrial figures for the State census from Plainfield and neighboring places, has practically completed his task. He has one or two places in Rahway still to get, but all the rest of his district has been cleaned up.

TROLLEY EXTENSION COMPLETED JUNE 1

STRAIGHT ROUTE TO THE PLAINFIELD DRIVING PARK.

It is the intention of the Public Service Corporation to extend the Arlington avenue trolley line from its present terminus to the Plainfield Driving Park by June 1 and to South Plainfield by July 1. The line will pass the Plainfield Country Club, something very much desired by the members, who have been obliged to walk a distance of half a mile from the end of the trolley line to the clubhouse.

With the extension of the line there will be an improved service. Commencing May 1 the corporation will place a second car on the Arlington avenue line thus giving the patrons a fifteen minute service. This the residents along the line have been anxious for, as under the present schedule a person is able to walk the entire distance while waiting for a car.

With the attractions at Crescent Oval, the Plainfield Driving Park and Plainfield Country Club, the travel should be heavy on the Arlington avenue line this season, and it will be necessary for the company to use extra cars most of the time to comfortably carry the people.

AMUSEMENTS.

The Manhattan Theatre, New York, is closed during Holy Week, but on Easter Moday, April 24, will reopen with the production by Manager Harrison Grey Fiske of "The Proud Laird," a comedy—in a satirical vein—by Charles Cartwright and Cosmo Hamilton. Mr. Cartwright's impersonations of Kleschna, in "Leah Kleschna," has won for him the favor of New York playgoers, and his work as a dramatist will be viewed, doubtless, with deep interest. Mr. Hamilton is already well known on this side by virue of his writings. "The Proud Laird" is described as "a canny comedy." This phrase expresses the qualities of the play briefly and accurately. The fact that in the course of the action a clever American girl is plunged suddenly into Scotch traditions and prejudices indicates that the possibilities for comedy are abundant; and that the humor is of the "canny" sort may go without saying. Among the well-known players engaged for the production are Robert Loraine, Dorothy Donnelly, Edmund D. Lyons, H. Hassard Short, Ida Vernon, J. H. Bunny and W. H. Denny.

CHRISTIAN FIELD.

Rev. Dr. J. A. Chambliss, of the First Baptist church, is expected to arrive home today or tomorrow from the south, where he has been spending several days.

Rev. A. C. McCrea, the new pastor of the First M. E. church, has assumed the editorship of the weekly bulletin.

The Elizabeth District annual meeting of the M. E. church will be held at Westfield on Monday, May 2. The local churches will be represented.

Most of the Friday night prayer-meetings in the various Protestant churches will be omitted this week on account of the Union Good Friday services at the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church.

The regular communion service at the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church will be held on Sunday, May 1. Those desiring to confer with the pastor with regard to entering the church at that time are requested to send their names to him.

Rev. Dr. W. J. Swaffield, of the Lexington Avenue Baptist church, New York, who will assist in the special services to be held at the Park Avenue Baptist church, commencing on Monday night, is a talented preacher and an earnest worker. He has preached in the local Baptist churches before and always had large congregations.

The Somerset County Grand Jury made its returns to the court at Somerville last night. Regarding the "musical and athletic entertainment" in North Plainfield which stirred that community, it is understood that the Grand Jury's report says:

The decision of the Supreme Court of the United States that compulsory vaccination is not a violation of the personal rights of an individual as guaranteed by the Constitution, will be of interest not only in this State but in Pennsylvania, Massachusetts and other States where a bitter fight against the practice has been carried on for several years. This decision of the final court of appeal in this country is in the best interests of the people and is particularly gratifying to health boards which have insisted on resorting to vaccination as a small pox preventive.

During the last few days there has been a lull in the candidate-making business in the Republican party in this county, not a single man being trotted out for either shrievalty or senatorial honors. But the lists are already large and if these now in the paddock keep in condition until the real political racing starts there will be an exciting time next fall. That man from Cranford, Freeholder Emmer K. Adams, is a hustler and will out-distance all others in the shrievalty event unless somebody gets a hustle on. Captain Robert B. Kirkland, of Elizabeth, William H. Wright, of Rahway, and Dr. A. M. Lawrence, of Summit, are striving to land the same prize. As for the senatorial job, Elizabeth and Westfield are backing favorites to some extent at least. Assemblyman Edward C. Coyne, the Republican county chairman, it is said, would not be adverse to getting into harness and Assemblyman Perkins believes that he has a fighting chance. These two men will have to smother their ambitions for the senatorial berth is going to be filled by a Plainfielder or there will be another hot old time. There is a strong effort on foot here to convince former Mayor Charles Joel Fisk that he can harmonize all factions by accepting a nomination. Should he refuse, either Ernest R. Ackerman or City Judge William N. Runyon will be the likely man for the place.

THE FORUM.

The following copies of letters sent to the editor of a weekly in the borough, which attacked the North Plainfield Board of Health, were received several days ago. Their publication at this time is due to their being mislaid:

17 Myrtle avenue,
Plainfield, N. J.,
April 17th, 1905.

Mr. H. W. Webb, Editor,
North Plainfield Weekly Review,
North Plainfield, N. J.

Dear Sir:

My attention is called to an editorial in your issue of the eighth instant, entitled "A Limit to Patience," in which an attack is made upon the present secretary of the Berad of Health of North Plainfield.

As a member of the Board of Health, permit me to say that the attack is entirely unwarranted by the facts, that the action of the secretary has the approval of the Board, and that to the best of my knowledge the statements contained in your editorial, so far as they refer to the action of the Board, are without foundation or are inaccurate.

Yours truly,
J. O. Osgood.

17 Myrtle avenue,
Plainfield, N. J.,
April 17th, 1905.

Mr. H. W. Webb, Editor,
North Plainfield Weekly Review,
North Plainfield, N. J.

Dear Sir:

I have today received sample copies of your issues of the 8th and 15th inst., in which are communications in regard to the milk supply of North Plainfield signed "D. H. S." and "Victim," charging that the milk furnished to the borough is not of satisfactory quality in many cases, and that the Berad of Health is derelict in not guarding properly the interests of the community.

Will you kindly say to the people who wrote these articles that if they will take pains to call the attention of the Board of Health to specific instances of the kind to which they refer they will confer a favor upon the members of the Board and will probably find that the Beard has sufficient authority to do what is necessary to correct the evil, notwithstanding the fact that it has changed its secretary and has lost its old inspector.

Yours truly,
J. O. Osgood.

SUBURBAN NEWS.

SOUTH PLAINFIELD.

The electric lights in the village did not give very satisfactory service last night. The light in front of F. La Tourette's place did not appear, while others seemed dim and ineffective.

The Ladies' Aid Society at the business meeting yesterday elected officers and transacted other matters of business that came before it.

The schools of Plainfield closed today for the spring recess, giving the several pupils from here a week's vacation.

The New Market seconds played the South Plainfield ball team this morning on the latter's grounds.

The weekly meeting of the P. O. S. of A. was held last night in the lodge rooms.

Suburban News on Page Three.

PUPILS' CELEBRATIONS

William D. Murray, superintendent of Crescent Avenue Sunday-school; Rev. L. R. Howard, pastor of Hope chapel; Superintendent H. M. Maxson and Rev. George Mooney, pastor of Monroe Avenue M. E. church, Charles L. Lewis conducted the singing.

The pupils of the fifth grade presented their teacher, Miss Fletcher, with a beautiful fern. This was an Easter gift, and was to complete surprise. The though as well as the fern was highly appreciated.

GOES TO SUPREME COURT.

Justice Garretson Declines to Decide Somerset Case.

Through Judge Garretson declining to render a decision in the matter, an application made by property owners along the Neshanic road in Somerset County to have the appointment of the commissioners to assess benefits for the improvement of that highway, set aside, has been referred to the Supreme Court. Argument was made before Judge Garretson this week but he declared it was a question of too much importance in the State for him to consider and passed it to the higher body.

The grounds stated for the setting aside of those appointed were that the act of 1895, under which the petition for the improvement was filed with the Board of Freeholders, has been superseded by the act of 1903, which provides that all property owners who had applied for the improvement of public roads should not be required to pay the ten per cent. toward the construction of macadamized roads. The statute of 1903 requires that all roads in course of construction should be completed as near as possible under the provisions of that act.

Gun Club Shoot.

The Independent Gun Club will hold an all day shoot on the Maple avenue grounds, Monday. There will be fifteen events, all open sweepstakes with one exception, which will be a club event. There will be a number of out of town shooters present.

CITY JOTTINGS.

—Greer & Greenwood, the East Front street men's furnishers, will soon put a horse and wagon in commission to collect and delivery laundry.

—Mrs. George Lunger, widow of the ex-patrolman who was buried in Whitehouse last Saturday, has sent a letter to Chief Kiely thanking the force for their tribute to the memory of their old comrade.

—The man who said coffee is America's national drink is right. It is used by all classes and the fresh roasted Java and Mocha and Old Government Java sold by Neuman Brothers if it is for a king.

—William Davidson, the young man from Philadelphia, who recently had his arm crushed while stealing a ride on a coal train, has so far recovered to be able to be about the hospital. He will return to his home within a short time.

CHRISTIAN FIELD.

Isaac B. Hill, the newly elected superintendent of the First Presbyterian church Sunday-school, will assume his new position on Sunday for the first.

Edson O. Martin will sing Shelley's "Resurrection" song at the Y. M. C. A. meeting on Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock. William Schott, the talented blind pianist, of Newark, will be assisted by Frank Lesser, violinist.

The Hope chapel Boys' Club, which recently conducted a successful "ladies night," will give another on June 3. Walter Firstbrook and Frank Rimmer are preparing the programme, which will include a dramatic sketch.

Dinner to Groom.

Percy Long, of Grove street, gave a dinner last night for the members of the bridal party who will participate in the wedding of Miss Isabel Milne and Allen B. Laing, on Thursday night, April 27. In addiion to the members of the party there were other guests, covers being laid for eighteen.

Pastor Favorably Received.

Commenting on the first appearance of Rev. E. R. Diffendorfer at the M. E. church, Rahway, last Sunday, the Rahway Democrat says that he "preached an able, touching and eloquent sermon." Mr. Diffendorfer formerly occupied the pulpit at Grace M. E. church, North Plainfield.

Grads. Visit School.

David Pond, of Princeton, Alden Moore, Erwin Leland, Harold Fenno and Harold Nomer, all of Williamr, who are home spending the Easter vacation, visited the H. S. this morning.

J. M. Hawkins Better.

Joseph M. Hawkins is rapidly recovering from injuries received at the North Avenue station a few days ago and his physician thinks he will be able to return home soon.

Municipal Dates.

The Common Council will hold its next meeting on Monday night, May 1.

The next meeting of the Board of Health will be held Tuesday, May 2.

SALESMEN WANTED

For several really high-grade specialty salesmen—the kind no salary offer would ordinarily interest—we have very attractive openings. We know of men who are earning from $3,000 to $5,000 annually, simply selling to dealers for a large and well known manufacturer a well advertised staple. To any successful salesman who is now selling a general line and who can handle a profitable and attractive side line, an excellent proposition will also be made.

Are You Ready for Easter

We Are. We've been preparing for weeks and now invite you to make your selections from the most complete assortment of Easter and Confirmation Necessities ever shown in Plainfield. The stocks principally interested include the Undermuslins, White Dress Goods and Waistings, Gloves, Ladies' Neckwear, Ribbons, Silks and Dress Goods, Fancy Wash Goods, Men's Wear, etc., etc.

All the other departments such as Furniture, Carpets, Housefurnishings, etc., have made special preparations and are in position to offer Easter Specials of unusual interest.

IN WHITE GOODS

Almost everything imaginable. The weaves and designs this season are exquisite. Many styles of Waistings shown this year for the first time.

INDIA LINEN PERSIAN LAWN
SILK MULL FRENCH LAWN
DOTTED SWISS

All in unusual abundance and variety.

LACES and EMBROIDERIES play a leading part in the Spring styles, and a more complete line than ours is hard to find. It is not uncommon to hear our customers say—"What a wonderful variety of styles and patterns."

ABOUT RIBBONS and NECKWEAR

Care was given to each and every detail in the preparation of our EASTER RIBBONS and NECKWEAR STOCK and as a result a general surprise awaits all who come these next few days.

Suggestions of Easter are the—

Messaline Taffetas
Satin Taffetas
Liberty Satins
Moires
Persian and Dresden Ribbons, etc.

Neckwear of every description and hand made Girdles in large assortment.

THE NEW DEPARTMENT

Not a new department to the store, but a new department in management. This is the SILKS and DRESS GOODS DEPT. Under the direction of a thoroughly competent Dress Goods Salesman from the metropolis this department has increased to almost wonderful proportions, and as a result many lines not shown elsewhere in the city may be found on the shelves of this department. Knowing that many are not acquainted with this fact, we offer the following special inducements to visitors this week.

52-inch Black Sicilian, ... 59c
45-inch Black Brilliantine, ... 45c
28-inch China Silk, ... 50c
38-inch All-wool Henrietta 49c
All-Silk Peau de Sole 92½c
36-inch Guaranteed Taffeta 92½c

GLOVES FOR EASTER.

50c—Ladies' Silk and Lisle Gloves in tan and grey.
50c to 1.25—Ladies' Double Tip Black Silk Gloves.
1.00 and 1.25—Ladies' Kid Gloves with latest French stitching in various shades of tan, brown, grey, beaver, also black and white.
25c—Children's Lisle Gloves in grey, tan and black.
1.25—Ladies' Trefousse Suede Gloves in shades of tan, brown, mode, grey, white and black.
1.98—Silk Lined Automobile Gloves in black, white and tan.
1.75—The "Marvel" Kid Wash Gloves in black and white.

FOR MEN

"SPLENDID" is a term well applied to our Easter line of Neckwear. The very latest productions in the very best colors and designs say all that is necessary. The usual prices—25c and 50c, but a little better quality than usual.

SHIRTS—Arrived last Friday—Put on sale Saturday and as a result we were obliged to re-order many more numbers for this week. Better come early next Saturday to get the pick of this new lot.

SPECIAL—A large assortment of our regular 1.25 SHIRTS for 98c.

COLLARS—The popular Corliss Coon Brand in all the newest styles. A regular 15c Collar for 13c; two for 25c.

FANCY HALF HOSE in great variety at Popular Prices.

STOCK TRANSFER BILL NOW A NEW YORK LAW

GOVERNOR HIGGINS HAS SIGNED MEASURE FOUGHT BY THE EXCHANGE.

Governor Higgins, of New York, signed the Stock Transfer Tax bill Wednesday evening, less than six hours before it would become a law unsigned. This measure has been bitterly opposed by the New York Consolidated Exchange, of which former Mayor L. V. F. Randolph, of this city, is president and of which a number of Plainfielders are members. He also signed at the same time the companion bill intended to guard against the counterfeiting of the stamps necessary to be affixed to stock sales.

The bill imposes a stamp tax of 2 cents on each $100, our fraction thereof, par value of corporation stock securities, domestic or foreign, transferred within that State after June 1, 1905.

LITERARY.

There is a most attractive outdoor air about the May number of Scribner's Magazine. It has a charming colored cover; a drawing, "Flowers of May," by Sarah S. Stilwell, reproduced in colors; a description of Salvini's Tuscan farm in a wild region of Italy; "The Awakening of the Trees," written and illustrated by Frank French; a glimpse of the Grand Canyon of the Colorado, by Benjamin Brooks, with a wonderful series of Eimendorf's pictures; "Breaking Trail," by Frank E. Schoonover, giving an account of a winter trip in Canada, with the author's pictures reproduced in tint, and Edward B. Child's description of the great marble quarries in Vermont, with a series of his own striking pictures. There are also outdoor poems—"To a Mountain Lake," by Martha G. D. Bianchi; "Amid the Orchards," by Mary Findlater; "When We Twa Walked in Arcady," by Caroline Duer; and "The Desert," by Ingersoll Condert, with decorations by Haskell.

Mischievous Boys' Work.

The police have been much disturbed of late regarding several miscreant acts in the vicinity of East Fourth street, between Park avenue and Sycamore street. Besides stealing a number of choice fowl belonging to Frank Hedden, the gang has almost ruined a number of fine elm trees by chopping them with hatchets. They were discovered bleeding profusely and it is doubtful whether they can be saved. The property owners have wired each tree in an attempt to stop the flow. The police are at work on the case and hope to make several arrests.

Home for Easter.

Among the young men who have returned home to spend the Easter vacation are Harold C. Fenno, 1906, Harold Nomer, 1906, Erwin B. Leland, 1906, all of Williams College. Nomer and Fenno visited the H. S. yesterday morning.

John Dunham, of West Front street, has returned from a several days' visit with Newark friends.

Thomas Sheridan, of West Second street, left yesterday for Panama, where he has secured a position in the government service in connection with the canal work.

SPORTING NEWS.

DIAMOND DUST.

The Clinton Avenue Baseball Club will play Hope chapel on Clinton avenue grounds Saturday afternoon.

The Front Street A. C. was defeated yesterday afternoon by the North Avenue Newsboys' team by a score of 10 to 8.

In speaking about the opening of the baseball season in this city the Hoboken Inquirer has this among other things to say: "Plainfield has the reputation of being one of the best ball towns in New Jersey, likewise the most critical, and to give satisfaction it is necessary to furnish the very best ball playing and attractions possible to present. This season the Plainfield baseball fans will have the pleasure of seeing the strongest semi-professional teams in the country. A schedule of rare excellence has been prepared and close and exciting contests will be the rule."

ROD AND GUN.

The members of the Plainfield Gun Club are meeting with considerable success at their new grounds on East Second street. Every week private matches are held and the tournament now on is attracting much attention. The revival of interest in shooting here is due to the efforts of this club.

POINTS FOR THE BUYERS

Ike Richards, of Somerset street, pays the highest prices for second-hand clothing. He also sells cheap.

T. H. Laury, the contractor, is ready to estimate on all kinds of building. He guarantees satisfaction.

The Union Market, 81 Somerset street, is headquarters for the best cuts of meat, fresh or salt. Prompt delivery.

Bock beer is still in. Adolph Bohren, Greenbrook road, handles the celebrated Krueger bock in bottles for the retail trade.

Fruit lore. Alex Lusardi, West Front street, is posted on it as far as it applies to selling the proper goods at proper prices.

Good electrical work pays; the cheap kind is always costly in the end. William H. Pope, of North avenue, does nothing but the best.

If you can't afford a new Easter suit, have your best old one cleaned and pressed. If H. Solomon, Somerset street, does the work it will look like a new suit.

Eggerding's cigars have won a name for themselves that many unscrupulous dealers have tried to steal. However, the place to get them is at Eggerding's Park avenue store only.

Perhaps at J. Canepare's Somerset street delicatessen you can find just the thing you want for supper. Imported French, German, Swiss and Italian cheeses are a specialty.

If you own a house and live in it, don't greet the summer brightness with a dingy coat of paint on the boards or bricks. Let J. C. Hansen, East Front street, paint them anew.

Old things to wear, if they be not torn nor worn, may be made to play the part of new creations by the application of a little dye. G. O. Keller, Park avenue, is the dyer to entrust the work with.

Of course you will have a new spring suit, but make certain when you don it that you have good shoes. The "Serests," sold by A. E. & A. L. Giddes, Madison avenue and Front street, is the best make of shoes for old and young.

Levy Brothers, the West Front street dry goods merchants, have a desirable line of spring and summer goods on sale, including the latest patterns and finest textures in dress goods. The millinery department is a great feature of this store.

During all this week and continuing next week, I. H. Beehm, the West Front street dry goods merchant, will have an especially elaborate display in the millinery department. An invitation is extended all women in Plainfield and vicinity to view it. Miss Daly is in charge and she will be pleased to greet all old and new faces.

REAL ESTATE ITEMS.

Building Inspector Deane has issued a permit to Mrs. Mary Bodine for the erection of a house on East Second street, near Richmond, to cost about $4,000.

Rev. Mr. Finn to Address Men.

Rev. A. E. Finn, pastor of the Park Avenue Baptist church, will address the Y. M. C. A. meeting on Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock. William Sobst, the blind pianist, of Newark, and Frank Lesser, violinist, who recently gave a concert at the Y. M. C. A. Hall, will furnish instrumental music. There will also be good vocal music.

Mrs. S. H. Tugwell, of the New Madison, has returned home after an extended absence from the city.

D. P. HALL TO TALK ON FEDERAL CONSTITUTION

BEFORE EQUAL SUFFRAGE LEAGUE ON MONDAY.

The lecture on "The Origin and Nature of the Federal Constitution" by a Plainfielder, David Prescott Hall, of the New York bar, is awaited with interest. It will be given at Truell Inn on Monday afternoon, April 24, at 4 o'clock, by invitation of the Equal Suffrage League. It is substantially the same as that delivered before the Monday Afternoon Club a few years ago.

The women of this city, like their sisters elsewhere, are becoming rapidly interested in the study of political questions. Hence Mr. Hall has kindly consented to repeat this address, which he has carefully revised and brought thoroughly up to date.

As a student of history and a lawyer thoroughly versed in the principles of the law, he is especially well posted to speak on the subject chosen, while he believes it to be very important that the intelligent women of the country everywhere, should understand the system of government under which they live, and the principles on which it rests. Now that women enjoy municipal suffrage in many of the cities of New York State, it would certainly seem to be time for those of New Jersey to prepare themselves for duties which may come to them, before very long, who can tell how soon!

In view of this real need, Mr. Hall has prepared a series of talks on the elementary principles of law, in addition to his paper on the constitution of the latter, the Plainfield Press said:

"Mr. Hall's remarks were eloquent and well chosen." As a member of the State Charities Aid Association, he has done valuable work. Mr. Hall is also a member of the New York Bar Association and an honorary member of the Monday Afternoon Club of this city.

GOLF CLUB RULES FOR COMING SEASON

POSTING OF SCORES AND SERVICES OF CADDIES.

In all stroke competitions, players must return attested score cards, whether the cards are complete or not, and whether or not the round is finished (unless a player is unexpectedly called away). Anyone who enters and plays but fails to deposit his attested card in the score-card box when he finishes, shall be ineligible to play in the next succeeding medal play event, or in any of them if there are several scheduled for the same day.

When players finish they may post their scores on the large score sheet; and except in the case of winners no public announcement will be made by the committee of scores not thus posted on the score sheet. The record, however, will be made up only from the attested score cards deposited in the box.

Balls found by a player or by his caddy shall belong to such player. Balls found on the club property by a caddy when not engaged in caddying, or by an employe, shall belong to the club and shall be delivered to the house clerk. Any caddy or employe who keeps or sells a golf ball found by him on the club property shall be discharged. Caddies must be engaged by card from the caddy master. Players will be preferred in the order in which their names are received by the caddy master. Under no circumstances shall caddies be reserved by players in advance, except that a player who has a caddy in the morning may reserve the same caddy for the afternoon. In all club events, whether at match play or at medal play, players must start at the first tee. Entries for all competitions must be made before starting.

WANTS ALIMONY.

Rev. Mr. Buckle's Wife Seeks Support From Husband.

In an application for permanent alimony filed in court, Mrs. Sallie M. Buckle, wife of the Rev. Dr. George Buckle, formerly pastor of the Greystone Presbyterian church, of Elizabeth, who has lately taken a charge at Clover Hill, Hunterdon County, charges her husband with great cruelty, and tells of her allegation that he has been guilty of immoral conduct.

Mrs. Buckle is now living at 56 Aster place, Newark. She is a woman of refinement, and is evidently in sore straights. She is broken down in health and is unable to work, and claims that in order to live for the last few weeks she has been obliged to sell all of her personal belongings. These she says are now all gone, and that unless she gets immediate relief she will suffer for the essentials of life.

UNITED CONGREGATIONS MOURNED

Pastors and People Gathered Together to Observe Christ's Death on the Cross.

REMARKABLE SERVICE

Revs. Zelie, Stevenson, Schenck, Rodman, Herring, Neilson, McCrea, Mooney, Hamilton, Finn and Goodrich Take Part.

Many city churches united in a Good Friday service at the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church, last night, according to the annual custom. The attendnce was very large and the service an impressive one. Rev. Dr. J. S. Zelie was in charge of the programme, and led in the recital of the general confession, followed by the Lord's Prayer. Rev. E. Vicars Stevenson, rector of Grace church, conducted the responsive reading, ending with the Gloria and an anthem by the quartette choir. Rev. W. C. Neilson read the Scripture selection, which preceded the singing of a hymn, "Beneath the Cross of Jesus."

Rev. Erskine M. Rodman, rector-emeritus of Grace church, was the first speaker on the meditations on the seven words from the cross, being assigned the first word, "Father, forgive them; for they know not what they do." He spoke of Christ's compassion for the throng about Calvary, despite His intense suffering, and he urged all to learn the lesson of forgiveness. He said that by having a forgiving spirit all would be forgiven.

The second word, "Verily, I say unto thee, today shalt thou be with me in Paradise," was assigned to Rev. Charles E. Herring, of the First Presbyterian church. He said that the thief was conscious of his need and that to become a Christian a person must be conscious of his sins. He referred to the heroism of the thief, he alone having the courage to call upon Christ for help. He was remembered and his prayer was quickly answered by being assurred that that very day he would be with Christ in Paradise.

Rev. George Mooney, of the Monroe Avenue church, spoke on the third word, "Behold thy son; behold thy mother." He said that the words exemplified the devout worship of the mother of God. When the heart is breaking and earth cannot satisfy that aching void, then is is Christ alone can satisfy. He told of the incident regarding the assassination of President Garfield, how his mother upon learning of the shooting exclaimed, "My God, who could have done this to my baby!" He used the illustration to show that while President Garfield was a full grown man his mother still retained that intense love of babyhood for him and thus it was with Christ's mother.

Rev. Dr. E. J. Hamilton, of this city, retired, spoke on the fourth word, "My God, My God, why has thou forsaken me?" He pictured the scenes of the ninth hour when earth was covered with darkness and for three hours Christ hung on the cross in silent agony. He said that Christ was lifted up that all might look to Him. He was expected to die for the sinful world, yet he could not understand the magnitude of the sacrifice. Yet in that awful darkness that was light and immortality that has never ceased to exist.

"I Thirst," the fifth word, was the subject upon which Rev. Dr. Cornelius Schenck, of Trinity Reformed church, spoke. He said that when Christ knew that all things were accomplished and His relations were fully established with His Father, he exclaimed those pathetic words which must have been the result of intense suffering. It was a verification of the words that Christ came not to be ministered unto, but to minister. Dr. Schenck said that the words "I thirst" showed that Christ was thoroughly human and yet entirely divine. He had sufferings and was subject to physical pain the same as others. He added that His followers may quench that thirst through care for the afflicted, helping the fallen and giving a cup of water in His name.

Rev. Charles L. Goodrich, pastor of the Congregational church, spoke briefly on the sixth word, "It is finished," saying that Christ realized

MINSTRELSY SCORES AT PYTHIAN GATHERING

"ALL STAR" CAST APPLAUDED BY MEMBERS AND FRIENDS.

Black face amateur minstrelsy of the type that has been prevalent locally for several years, again scored a big "hit," last night, when an "all star" troupe presented a show before the members and friends of Perseverance lodge, No. 74, K. of P. There were twelve men in the proverbial circle and the performance ran smoothly from start to finish, every member receiving one or more encores.

Alexander Muir acted as interlocutor and the chief fun-makers were Bertram C. Firstbrook, Leonce Texier, Harry Blimm and Thomas M. Muir, all of whom have appeared in other productions at Hope chapel and the Casino. Each one had a new crop of jokes and a song, both serving to upbuoid their reputations as end men. There were numerous other soloists, the complete number being as follows: "Mamma's Boy," Alexander Muir; "Sweet Adeline," Elmer D. Cutting; "Give My Regards to Broadway," B. C. Firstbrook; "Shame on You," George Pope; "An Old Sweetheart of Mine," Jack Todd; "Alexander," with buck and wing dancing, Tony Lusardi and Ira C. Bowers; "Tammany," Harry Blimm; "Yankee Doodle Boy," Thomas M. Muir; "In the Valley of the Shenandoah," Leonce Teixer. Edward Clark presided at the piano and made an excellent accompanist.

The show was arranged and directly in charge of B. C. Firstbrook and Thomas Muir, and is to be repeated at the Pythian demonstration in Knights of Columbus Hall next Thursday night.

FOURTEEN HOUSES TO BE ERECTED

BUILDING BOOM IN THE SOUTH END OF THE CITY.

There is a healthy boom in real estate in the vicinity of Marion avenue, between Moffett and South End avenues, which bids fair to result in plenty of building during the summer. W. H. Mahaffey, of 448 Broadway, New York, who sometime ago purchased considerable property in that section, has just sold fourteen lots on Marion avenue, between Moffett and South End avenues to Slayback Brothers, of Upper Montclair, who have had the same staked out and surveyed and will erect fourteen modern dwellings.

Mr. Mahaffey owns eight additional lots, including property on Florence avenue, and he proposes to build several houses. The dwellings will cost between $7,000 and $8,000 each.

To Nominate Minister.

Rev. Dr. Linn E. Wheeler, pastor of the First Baptist church, New Brunswick, is to be nominated for Mayor in the fall by the labor men of the town. Dr. Wheeler has won the hearts of the union men by his interest in them and their organizations.

Exhibit of Paintings.

Mrs. Edwin W. Conklin and Mrs. Edward C. Perkins have sent out invitations for an exhibition of paintings by Jonas Lie on Tuesday, April 25, afternoon and evening, at the Babcock building. Tea will be served at 4 o'clock.

CONVENTION OF DIOCESE

To be Held in This City on May 9 and 10.

PROGRAMME ARRANGED

Clerical and Lay Delegates of Episcopal Churches to be Entertained by Local Parishes.

The one hundred and seventh annual convention of the Diocese of New Jersey will be held in this city on Tuesday and Wednesday, May 9 and 10, with three sessions each day. It was through the efforts of Rev. E. Vicars Stevenson, rector and the vestry of Grace church, as well as the other members of the Plainfield Clerious that the convention, which met in Elizabeth, last year, decided to come to Plainfield in May.

This being one of the oldest and most influential dioceses in the United States, the importance of the gathering is apparent. Bishop Doane, father of Rt. Rev. William Doane, of the diocese of Albany, and the late Monsigner Doane, of Newark, was at one time Bishop of this cure. Dr. John Scarborough now holds the office.

GRACE CHURCH,
where convention will be held.

On Tuesday morning, May 9, there will be a service at Grace church, after which lunch will be served at the Casino. The business sessions of the convention will be held at the Casino Tuesday afternoon as well as on Wednesday, and the visiting delegates will be entertained there at dinner and supper.

The convention is expected to be the largest in the history of the diocese and there will be delegates from all of the churches, including many prominent clergymen.

The entertainment of the visiting clergy and laity will be shared by the people of the several Episcopal churches in the city and borough, including Grace church, the Church of the Holy Cross, St. Stephen's church, the Church of the Heavenly Rest and Grace church mission.

CHURCH CONCERT.

Well-Known Singer and Violinist on Programme.

The music committee of the First Presbyterian church, announce a concert to be given at the church Thursday night, May 11. The artists will be Miss Marie Hortense Sheldon, of New York, soprano; Miss Grace J. Carroll, contralto; Miss Florence Wohlfert, violinist; Paul F. Handel, of Orange, tenor; William Holmes, baritone; the Euterpean Glee Club.

None of the soloists need an introduction to the music-loving people of Plainfield. Miss Sheldon has been heard in concert work here and was a great favorite in musicales in the Waldorf, New York, during the past season. Miss Carroll is the favorite contralto of the Crescent Avenue church and Mr. Handel sang very acceptably at the Seventh-Day Baptist church a few weeks ago. The names of Miss Wohlfert, Mr. Holmes and the ever popular Euterpean Glee Club, need only be mentioned, as their work in Plainfield is fully appreciated by all those who know good music.

Mr. Hyde's Investment.

Francis DeLacey Hyde's extensive improvements in the borough are now well underway. He owns about eight lots in the vicinity of Jackson avenue and his plans are to erect a number of handsome residences. The total cost of the improvements are now decided upon will aggregate about $45,000 and they will make that part of the borough one of the most attractive, competing with the West End of the town.

Broke Alarm Box.

William Kelly, a Washington School pupil, was arraigned before Judge Runyon in the city court this morning for breaking the glass front of a keyless fire alarm box. Sentence was suspended.

FORM CEMENT BLOCK CO.

Dr. O. L. Jenkins Head of a $100,000 Mfg. Concern.

TO BUILD A PLANT

W. R. Codington, J. Worth Coddington, J. D. Loizeaux and Kitchen and Long Are Directors.

As a direct result of the increasing local demand for cement blocks for building purposes, well known Plainfield men yesterday formed a company which will manufacture them in the city. The organization is to be known as the Cement Block Company and its capital stock is placed at $100,000. Dr. O. L. Jenkins was made president and the following directors were named: W. R. Codington, J. Worth Coddington, Dr. Jenkins, J. D. Loizeaux and Messrs. Kitchen and Long.

The blocks are made from cement, machinery being used to cut them the proper sizes. This will necessitate a factory building and the company has already taken steps to have one erected. It will probably be located in the West End, two suitable sites now being considered. The number of hands to be employed will depend upon the demand for the blocks but there will be at least twenty-five at the start. This will include mixers, cutters and teamsters.

The blocks now coming into the city are made at Siegfried, Pa., and it is claimed that they reduce the cost of building, where brick is considered, about fifty per cent. They also save the cost of painting and from present indications will soon come into general use. The first time they were seen in the city was when they were brought into use in the erection of the Voorhees & VanZandt building, not yet completed, on Park avenue.

GOOD VOCALISTS AT THE BAND CONCERT FAIR

JACK DRISLANE AND THEODORE MORSE AMONG THOSE TO APPEAR.

With all plans already fully completed, the second annual fair for the benefit of summer band concerts will open in Saengerbund hall Tuesday night. It will continue for a week and from present indications will far surpass last year's effort in several respects.

The arrangements have been perfected by Ben LaVere who has had the assistance of several of New York's big publishing houses. They have given him his selection of their best singers and they will appear at intervals during the week. On the opening night, the vocalist will be Jack Drislane, the composer of "Thats What the Brass Band Played" and "Don't You See My Heart Beats All For You", reigning successes, by request he will sing, "She Waits By The Deep Blue Sea" and "Keep A Little Cozy Corner In Your Heart For Me", both with illustrations. Other singers on various nights will be Theordore Morse, author of "Blue Bell", Billy Corcoran and George Offerman.

The downstairs part of the hall will be turned into a restaurant and a prize competition will be conducted on the bowling alleys. There are to be other features but Manager LaVere refuses to let the sale of intoxicating liquor be one of them, this being strictly prohibited. The Plainfield baseball team has been invited to attend and will be present in a body after next Saturday's game.

HANGED SELF FROM RAFTER.

David Amerman's Act Attributed to Insanity.

When Mrs. Carrie Kettering, a housekeeper for Rev. Frederick Koechli, entered a woodshed in the rear of the Koechli residence at Somerville at an early hour Thursday morning she almost ran against the dead body of a man hanging from a rafter. She ran screaming into the house and summoned Mr. Koechli, who found the dead man to be his neighbor, David Amerman, an old and respected citizen of the town.

From Mr. McCutchen's Greenhouse.

The floral decorations for the Easter service tomorrow at the First Baptist church are from the greenhouse of Charles W. McCutchen, of Rockview avenue.

To Straighten Club's Tangle.

The predicament of the Elizabeth Democratic Club regarding its plurality of presidents seems to be well on the way of an amicable settlement.

ON THE DIAMOND TODAY

Games Scheduled in Plainfield and Rest of Union Co.

STRONG ATTRACTIONS

Plainfield Against Elizabeth; Westfield Against Seventh Regiment and Rahway vs. Clifton Field.

The Plainfield Baseball Association will play its second game of the season this afternoon on Crescent Oval, with the Elizabeth Stars for its opponents. The game will be called at 3:30. The oval can be reached quickly by the Arlington avenue trolley.

The Westfield Baseball Association will open its baseball season this afternoon at Recreation Park with its old-time rivals, the Seventh Regiment team, of New York. Assemblyman Randolph Perkins will open the game by throwing the first ball over the plate.

The Clinton Avenue Baseball Club opens the season this afternoon on its own grounds with a local amateur team. The game will be called at 3:30.

The Rahway Field Club will open the season today with the Clifton Field Club, of Newark. The Rahwegians will have a stronger team than ever this season, including Primrose, the first baseman of the Crescents, of Philadelphia; Jones, of the Kingston Hudson River League team. Paul Mertens will not be able to pitch this season, owing to a recent illness, but Maurer and Wolf will be used as bormen, with Ray Potter as catcher.

ANDERSON'S HEIRS LOSE BENEFIT MONEY

VICE CHANCELLOR DECIDES INTERESTING POINT IN MRS. BURKE'S FAVOR.

Whether James Anderson was his own beneficiary under the assignment of a death benefit policy in the Catholic Benevolent Legion, or his wife, who died before he did, was the interesting question decided by Vice Chancellor Emery yesterday.

Anderson was a member of the local branch of the order. On the books of the society his wife was named as beneficiary. She died in 1903 and he died a year later. At his death his wife's mother, Mrs. Bridget Burke, of West Fourth street, claimed the $1,000 under the by-law of the Legion, which says that the money shall go to the heirs-at-law of the beneficiary in the event of the latter's death before the claim becomes due. James Anderson, of New Brunswick, father of the dead man and administrator of the estate, claimed the money under the same by-law, on the grounds that Anderson himself, in surviving his wife, became her heir-at-law.

Suit was begun over the money about a year ago in the Chancery Court, William Newcorn appearing for the Andersons, and John P. Owens for the Burkes. The case was argued last December.

In a decision handed down yesterday Vice-Chancellor Emery awarded the money to Mr. Owens' clients.

Store Concerts.

Concerts will be held at Hill & Shupp's department store, West Front street, this afternoon and evening, at 2 and 8 o'clock. The programme will be renderd by an orchestra. The numbers will include both popular and higher grades of music.

Arranging for Carnival.

W. S. Miller, who is in charge of the arrangements for the carnival and fair to be held here, May 18-20, will be in Plainfield today to further details for the affair.

To Represent Ministers.

Rev. Dr. Zelie will represent the Plainfield Ministers Association at the installation of Rev. Dr. McCrea as pastor of the First M. E. church.

Coal Company Change.

George O. Stevens will shortly retire from the Consumers Coal Company to engage in the coal business as an independent dealer.

Father Miller at Cathedral.

Rev. Father Miller, of St. Joseph's church, assisted Bishop McFaul in Holy Thursday services at Trenton cathedral.

New Pastor.

Rev. Mr. Loris, of Newark, has accepted a call to the German Lutheran church.

The Hope chapel Boys' Club has organized a ball team with Frank Rimmer as manager, and Harry Ramsberger, as captain. The first practice will be held today.

SCHOOLS GET $25,615

That Amount Apportioned as Plainfield's Share of Fund.

WHOLE RESERVE FUND

County Receives $146,511.20—How it is Divided Among the Various Districts.

The amount apportioned by the State Board of Education to Union County this year is $146,511.20, and of this sum $25,615.79 goes to Plainfield. It is made up of the following items: Amount apportioned to Union County from State appropriation of $200,000, $10,123 02; amount apportioned to Union County from State appropriation of $1,015,802.31, $47,735.86; amount apportioned to Union County from ninety per cent. of State school tax, $79,787.19; amount apportioned to Union County from reserve fund by State Board of Education, $8,865.23; total amount apportioned from State school tax, $88,652.32.

The following is the apportionment for next year: Clark, $311.55; Cranford, $7,322.91; Elizabeth, $59,181.47; Fanwood, $2,496.80; Garwood, $653 07; Linden, $2,111.85; Mountainside, $533.35; New Providence Township, $979.02; Plainfield, $25,615.79; Rahway, $13,599.01; Roselle, $4,289.57; Roselle Park, $4,200 58; Springfield, $2,458.46; Summit, $7,849.66; Union, $4,687.35; Westfield, $9,406.77.

Elizabeth will receive $2,613.68 more than was received last year. The sum of $8,865.23 is the reserve fund, which the State Board of Education may take from Union County and give to any other county. Through the efforts of B. F. Campbell, who is a member of the State Board of Education from this district, Union County has secured the whole reserve fund. But for this, the city and county would have to raise $8,865.23 more than they do.

Jeffery Branching Out.

Wm. Jeffery, the well known local real estate specialist, continues to branch out and will shortly remove to more open and commodious quarters. He has leased the entire Marcus Sibbers building at 136 Park avenue and will take possession June 1. His present offices are in the Vanderbeek building, where he has been located for more than two years. In that time Mr. Jeffery has built up a large business and the continued increase has made this important change necessary.

Rendered "The Man of Nazareth."

Under the direction of J. Edmund Skiff, organist and choirmaster, the choir of the Church of the Holy Cross rendered "The Man of Nazareth" and other selections at a Good Friday service held last night. Assisting Mr. Skiff was Vincent Sokol, pianist. The soloists were Horatio Reach, tenor, from St. James church, New York; Miss Bertha vanN. Willis, Miss Laura Geeswein, and Miss Mabelle Smith, sopranos; Fred J. Pope and Carlos C. Gallup, bases.

Arranging for Elks Outing

Walter G. Walsh, Jr., of Newark, district passenger agent for the New Jersey Central, was in the city yesterday, making arrangements with the local Elks for their trip to the Grand Lodge convention at Buffalo, which begins July 10. The Plainfield delegation will accompany the Newark lodge, which is to conduct an excursion, going all the way by special train. It will be composed of Pullmans, one of which will be for the wives of members.

Swackhamer on "Life."

S. S. Swackhamer, Esq., will speak before the Men's Association, of Trinity Reformed church, on Thursday night, April 27, on the subject of "Life." It will be "ladies' night," and all women will be made welcome. A year ago last February Mr. Swackhamer addressed the association on the subject of "Thirst for Personal Gain."

Flomerfelt Case May Go Over.

The Somerset courts have as yet made no disposition of the Flomerfelt case, which is to be tried over again. It is rumored that it is to be put off until the fall term of court, but no definite action has been taken. The court at the present time is busy with the cases brought about by Grand Jury indictments.

Church Club Dinner.

Arrangements are being completed by the Men's Club, of Grace church, for a dinner to be given at the Casino on Monday night, May 8.

G. O. P. Gubernatorial Candidate.

Senator Wakelee, of Bergen County, is being boomed for a gubernatorial nomination. His friends want him to succeed Governor Stokes.

EASTER DAY PROGRAMS

Order of Services in the Local Churches Tomorrow.

ELABORATE MUSIC

Great Feast in the Church Calendar to be Commemorated Generally.

In keeping with the recent orders of the Pope, the music at St. Joseph's R. C. church tomorrow will be wholly ecclisiary; no women will sing in the choir. A number of extra singers will augment the chorus, the full strength being forty voices. Two services will be held: Low mass at 8:30 o'clock a. m., and full high mass at 10:30 o'clock. At the latter service Stehle's prize mass will be sung. A processional, "Christ the Lord is Risen," will precede the mass, and a recessional, "Holy God, we Praise Thy Name," will be sung after it.

At the Congregational church the following anthems will be sung in the morning: "He is Risen," Marse; "Hosanna," Granier; "I Am He That Liveth," King; "Resurrection," Shelley. In the afternoon the Sunday-school and evening services will be combined at 2:45 o'clock.

Special music will be rendered at the Church of the Heavenly Rest tomorrow at both morning and evening services under the direction of G. T. Dunham, organist. Morning service, anthem, "Awake up my Glory," Barnby; processional hymn 112, from Lyra Davidica; Lord's Prayer, Bruce Steane; Gloria in Excelsis, Steane; Te Deum, Dressler; Benedictus, D. At Grace P. E. church the day's music will be as follows: Morning, processional, "Come Ye Faithful;" Venite, Humphreys; Psalter, special Psalms; Te Deum, Schnecker; Jubilate, Rathbun; Credo, Stainer; introit, hymn 121, "Alleluia," Alleluia; Kyrie Eleison, Cruickshank; Gloria Tibi, Cruickshank; Credo, Best; hymn 112, "Jesus Christ is Risen Today;" offertory, "Sing Hallelujah Forth:" Sursum Corda, Cruickshank; Sanctus, Cruickshank; Agnus Dei, Cruickshank; Gloria in Excelsis, Old Chant; Psalm 117; recessional, hymn 396. "Ten Thousand Times Ten Thousand." Afternoon, children's carol service, Easter carols; the full choir will lead the singing. solos will be sung by Norman Finch and eight or nine of the young women. Evening, processional, hymn 110, "Come Ye Faithful;" confession, intoned; Psalter, special Psalms; Magnificat, Maker; Nunc Dimittis, Maker; hymn 118; anthem, "Sing Ye Faithful;" recessional, hymn 396, "Ten Thousand Times Ten Thousand." The solo work at the services will be divided between William Tallamy, tenor, and Harold Kemp, bass.

The music at Holy Cross P. E. church will be as follows: Morning, processional, hymn 121; "Christ Our Passover," Scotilling; Gloria, Tallis; Te Deum, Farmer-Havens; Jubilate in C, Buck; hymn No. 115; Kyre, Eyre; Gloria Tibi, Eyre; hymn 112; offertory, "Christ the Lord is Risen," Buck; response, "All things Come to Thee;" Sursum Corda, Eyre; Sanctus, Eyre; hymn 231; Gloria in Excelsis, Old Chant; Nunc Dimittis; recessional, hymn 110; evening, processional, hymn 121; Gloria, Tallis; Magnificat, Owst; Nunc Dimittis, Owst; anthem, "Awake! Thou that Sleepest;" hymn 114; offertory, "I know that My Redeemer Liveth," Handel, Miss Willis; hymnn 535.

The music at the full high celebration at St. Mary's R. C. church tomorrow morning will be as follows: Processional, Easter hymn by Weigand (chancel choir); Vidi Aquam, Pecher.; Kyrie, Gloria in Excelsis, from the mass of Zangi; Veni Creator, Werner, chancel choir; Credo, Arens, offertory, "Alleluia," Lambillotte; Sanctus, Benedictus, Agnus Dei, from mass of Arens; recessional, "Holy God," chancel choir; March Triumphale, De La Tombee. The quartette will be Miss Annie Daley, soprano; Miss Elizabeth Day, alto; Albert Matthews, tenor, and Joseph O'Keefe, bass. Miss Mary Smith will preside at the organ.

An elaborate programme has been prepared for the Easter observance at Trinity Reformed church. It will commence with the sunrise service to start at 6:30, with Frederick H. An-

POINTS FOR THE BUYERS

There is sold at Brokaw's creamery on East Front street, the best milk, cream, butter and eggs. Mr. Brokaw invites inspection.

When you purchase coal of Rugg & Cline, of West Third street, you are sure to get the very best quality and at the lowest prices.

A. H. Enander, the sanitary plumber and tinner, can always be depended upon to do the best work. Remember this when giving a contract.

If you are fond of music and in need of an instrument, see the display at S. Frucht's West Front street store. Low prices prevail at all times of the year.

Boice, Runyon & Co., of Park avenue, sell the best quality of coal, the kind that always gives entire satisfaction. It is well screened and burns free and clear.

The Easter dinner will be elaborate, of course. When the list of needed supplies is prepared, let W. W. Dunn, the Park grocer, have it. He will fill it satisfactorily.

Eggs are plentiful at Easter time and good meat is plentiful at Smalley Brothers' North avenue market all the time. They believe in giving the best for the lowest market price.

After the new suit has been tried on and found a perfect fit, drop in at James R. Blair's and get a nobby spring hat or tie. He has a large variety of each to make selections from.

The final arrival of spring means garden digging and Worth & Marsh, the Somerset street hardware dealers, have the necessary implements. They carry a full line of garden tools at all prices as well as a general line of hardware.

It is well worth the time to visit Shirley & Johnson's store in the Babcock building at any period of the year, but more so than ever at the present season. Their display of carpets, rugs, mattings and shades is without equal in the city. Better get in orders at once before the rush is on.

Hill & Shupp, the dry goods merchants, are displaying a very fine line of summer dress goods, as well as dry goods. The housefurnishing goods department is one of the best in the State and includes everything necessary in the home and at prices that are sure to please you. The firm is also showing one of the best lines of carpets of the latest patterns.

TENNIS SCHEDULE.

Season's Play on Country Club Courts.

The tennis committee of the Plainfield Country Club of which Thomas M. Day, Jr., is chairman, has just announced its schedule for the season and it is is one of the best ever prepared. The tennis play will commence on May 13 with men's doubles. The play will continue on May 20 at 3 p. m.

The schedule follows:

May 13 and 20, 3 p. m., men's doubles; May 27, 29 and 30, mixed doubles tournament of the East Jersey Lawn Tennis Association, cups presented by the association. June 15 to 17, 2:30 p. m., women's handicap singles; June 27, 10 a. m., boys' singles. Cup presented by Henry L. Hall. Boys under 15 years are eligible. July 4, 10 a. m., senior mixed doubles. July 6, 10 a. m., girls' singles. Cup presented by Henry L. Hall. Girls under 18 years are eligible. September 5, 10 a. m., junior mixed doubles. Cups presented by Henry L. Hall. Boys and girls under 18 years are eligible. September 7 to 9, 2:30 p. m., women's singles for Club Championship. Cup presented by Henry A. McGee. September 9 and 16, 3 p. m., men's singles for Club Championship. Cup presented by George P. Mellick.

Other events will be arranged by the committee. Cups will be offered as prizes by the club in events where cups have not been presented. All matches are scratch unless specifically stated to be handicaps. Entries should be made not later than 6 p. m., on the day preceding each tournament, in the women's and girls' events to Miss Schuyler, 316 East Seventh street, and in the men's, boys' and mixed doubles events to T. M. Day, Jr., 740 Carlton avenue. An entrance fee of fifty cents per head is charged in the men's events and the senior mixed doubles.

Junior associate members shall at all times be required to give up the tennis courts if they are needed for other members. Associate members shall be required to give up tennis courts on Saturday afternoons and on legal holidays if they are needed for active members.

The tennis committee is comprised of the following persons: George P. Mellick, president of the club, ex-officio; Thomas M. Day, Jr., chairman; Frederick W. Goddard, Owen H. Fleming, Albert D. Beers, Miss Sarah E. Schuyler, Miss Mary K. Whiton and Miss Elsie Burke.

AMUSEMENTS.

Art is assuredly the Belasco watchward, and Mrs. Leslie Carter at the Belasco Theatre, New York, is exemplifying its fullest meaning by her wonderful performance of "Adrea." In the impressive Belasco tragedy, vivid in its dramatic moments and sterling in its literary worth, she has scaled artistic heights that overshadow even the lasting memories of her Zaza and Du Barry. Triumphs all these have been, but of the widest difference in quality; and now that Mrs. Carter as Adrea has entered that most difficult field of artistic endeavor, classic tragedy, earning by virtue of her subtle graces and her magnetic powers the praises of the most conservative and exacting critics, she may well consider her present achievement the crowning effort of a career which, though compassed within so few years, has risen to eminence on the solid principles of true dramatic art. The critics themselves have set the example of speaking with enthusiasm of her great attainments and her stirring achievements, until she now stands alone among the great artists of the English-speaking stage. The public, quick to appreciate the mark of genius, continue to fill the Belasco Theatre with audiences that defy its capacity.

CITY JOTTINGS.

—Frank Vanderhoff, of West Front street, has given up his position with Fred Endress, and has opened a meat market in the West End.

—Employes of the Public Service Corporation are repairing the trolley tracks on Watchung avenue, between Second and Front streets.

—A programme of unusual interest may be expected at the nineteenth concert of the Y. M. C. A. orchestra to be held on Monday evening. Particulars will be found in the advertising column.

Lodge Secretaries Wanted.

There is no time like the present to arrange for the summer outing of your lodge, society or Sunday-school, and whether it be for sea shore, lake or mountain resort, the New Jersey Central can arrange details for you. Take the matter up with Walter C. Walsh, Jr., D. P. A., Broad Street Station, Newark. He will meet your committe and handle every detail to your entire satisfaction. Drop him a postal or phone. 4 8 10 eod o 4

Governor Says Courts Must Settle Equitable Tangle.

THINKS SITUATION IS UNFORTUNATE

Special Committee of Assurance Society's Agents Wait Upon New York's Chief Executive, Following Visit to Hendricks.

ALBANY, N. Y., April 22.—The crisis in the affairs of the Equitable Life assurance society was laid before Governor Higgins at the executive chamber by the committee of thirty-five of the managing agents of the society, which earlier in the day at Syracuse had made the same appeal, for mutualization of the society, to Superintendent Francis Hendricks of the state insurance department. The views of the agents were presented to the governor by Joseph Bowes, manager for the Equitable at Baltimore, as chief spokesman, and he was seconded by Edward A. Woods of Pittsburg, Archibald C. Haynes of New York and Reginald T. Naist of London. The agents also presented to the governor the resolutions adopted earlier in the week by the agents' convention in New York city.

Governor Higgins made very evident his appreciation of the great seriousness of the situation in the Equitable society. His reply to the speeches was heard with an attention which it is no exaggeration to describe as strained, and when he concluded there was a burst of applause.

"I realize fully," the governor began, "that this is a very serious talk. I realize fully that the policy holders of this company have been led to believe that it was mutual in its character. I would be glad to do anything within reason that I could do to bring about mutualization. But I desire to call to your attention the fact that difficulties that arise between citizens in the state of New York—very fortunately—I would say, rather than unfortunately—cannot be settled by the governor nor by the legislature. Those questions of difference have to be settled in this state by the courts.

"There are a few attorneys that are not at the present time retained by the Equitable, and I have taken occasion to consult some of them in relation to this unfortunate—very unfortunate—situation, I feeling that it was not only unfortunate for the policy holders, but unfortunate for the state of New York that this situation could exist under our insurance law. I realize that it is not only unfortunate for the Equitable, but it is unfortunate for all insurance interests in this country and particularly in the state of New York.

"However, there are those in the legal profession who are inclined to believe that you cannot by act of the legislature compel the stockholders of the Equitable Life Assurance society to accept mutualization in its broadest lines without their consent. That I give you simply as an opinion as it comes to me.

"I cannot tell you what the legislature of the state of New York will do. For the short period that I have held this office I have endeavored to separate the executive department so far as possible from the legislative and the judicial. I have left it to the legislature to determine what acts it would send to me, only recommending by public message, and have then taken my time to consider the propositions that it has presented to me for my approval or disapproval. I do not feel at the present moment that I can assure you as to whether the time will come in the immediate future when it will seem to me wise to communicate with the legislature and ask it to pass any particular bill in reference to the Equitable Life, but I can say to you this with the utmost frankness and sincerity that at all times I shall be interested more largely in the interests of the policy holders of the Equitable Life Assurance society than in the interests of any other person or party connected with it. And if I come to the conclusion that I can further the interests of those policy holders—if I should come to that conclusion—you can rest assured that no act will be left undone by me that will bring about better conditions for that society."

Mr. Bowes told the governor that the committee represented managers and agents from all over the world, some of whom had "grown gray in the service of the Equitable, men intensely loyal to the society, men not only large policy holders, but whose whole earnings for ten, fifteen and twenty years are bound up with the present conditions and future welfare of the society." He believed the agents were closer than any one else could be to the great body of policy holders, and he assured the governor that a condition of things existed in the society as a result of which "our policy holders are in a state of utmost apprehension and alarm and one which, if continued, will result in not only disaster to the managers and agents, but, what is of far more importance, the ultimate damage of this great company and all that that means to hundreds of thousands of policy holders throughout the world."

After referring to the sentimental attachment for the name of Hyde, which, he said, had induced the old officers to stifle personal ambition and consent to the elevation of James H. Hyde to the vice presidency, Mr. Bowes declared futile the compromise involved in the amended charter adopted by the directors, and he concluded: "We appeal to you and to the legislature. We appeal to you to use the great power of your office to promote the movement for the amendment of the charter so as to secure immediate and complete mutualization of the society. Our appeal is made in the name of the policy holders, officers, managers and agents of this company throughout the entire world."

HENDRICKS TO AGENTS.

State Superintendent of Insurance Says He Will Probe Thoroughly.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., April 22.—Preferably mutualization, the turning over of substantial control to the policy holders, or some other remedy to relieve the embarrassing situation in the affairs of the Equitable Life Assurance society was the burden of the request made of Superintendent of Insurance Francis Hendricks by the committee of general agents who laid their wishes before him here. About forty of the members of the special committee of seventy-two appointed at the meeting of general agents recently held in New York were present at the conference held at noon in Superintendent Hendricks' office at the State bank of Syracuse, of which he is president. In his reply Mr. Hendricks said:

"As far as the mutualization of the company is concerned I have already expressed myself very clearly. I am very much in favor of that outcome. I am not sure, however, that you can obtain the relief desired by legislation. Of course I speak to you as superintendent of insurance. You know I have no control over the legislature and cannot say what that body would do. The question has got to be determined by the courts. If Judge Maddox decides that I have no power to put in force the amended charter an appeal will be made either to the court of appeals or the United States courts.

"I will assure you, though, that whether legislation is feasible or not I'm heartily in favor of mutualization. And I will tell you, too, that before we get through the examination the insurance department will disclose if there are dummy directors. I will find that out absolutely. You can rely on this. When we get done we will tell you the true condition of that society. I can't tell you how long it will be, whether days, weeks or months, but it will be thoroughly done. In the meantime the Frick committee has asked questions of the officers which will take them thirty or forty days to answer."

After the conference the agents generally expressed satisfaction at the reception accorded them by Mr. Hendricks.

Receiver Asked For Equitable.

CHICAGO, April 22.—A bill for the appointment of a receiver for the Equitable Life Assurance Society of the United States and seeking an accounting has been filed in the United States circuit court here by Attorney D. J. Schuyler. The petition is filed in the name of Abraham Sitron and others, policy holders in the society. They declare their interests are being dissipated by the officers and directors of the society. President James W. Alexander and Vice President James H. Hyde are specially charged with misappropriation of funds and mismanagement.

Kite Used For Aerial Photography.

WASHINGTON, April 22.—A board of army officers, among whom was General A. W. Greeley, the chief signal officer, went to the Indian Head proving grounds to conduct experiments by which a camera suspended in the air by means of a kite may be controlled and operated by an electric device operated by a person standing on the ground. It is claimed that photographs of the surrounding country for a distance of ten or twelve miles may be taken in this way. Army officers are watching the developments with considerable interest in view of the possibility of the use of the camera for purposes of photographing an enemy's troops and defenses in actual warfare.

Treasury's Oldest Employee.

WASHINGTON, April 22.—William W. Dean, the oldest employee in the treasury department and, so far as known, in the entire government service, celebrated his ninety-fourth birthday by working as usual at his desk in the internal revenue bureau. Mr. Dean has been a treasury clerk since 1865, when he was appointed by William P. Fessenden. He has not missed a day for years, and his career is a standing refutation of the Osler theory. He is a native of central New York and was educated at Hamilton and Union colleges.

Lightning Hit Luna Park Tower.

NEW YORK, April 22.—The worst thunderstorm that has ever visited Coney Island struck the place during Friday afternoon. Luna park suffered worse than any other place. Lightning hit the immense electric tower and tore off eight of its columns. Fred Thompson, one of the firm of Thompson & Dundy, the proprietors of the park, was stunned by the shock.

Secretary Hay Fully Recovered.

GENOA, Italy, April 22.—Secretary Hay left Genoa for Bad Nauheim, Grand Duchy of Hesse, Germany, by way of Milan. He contemplates stopping a night at Lucerne. The secretary is in the best of spirits, declaring that the air of Italy has been most efficacious, and he feels that he has fully recovered his health.

Italian Railway Strike Fails.

ROME, April 22.—The senate passed the government's railway bill. The strikers' committee of agitation has officially decided to stop the railway strike. Many employees have already returned to work, and the railway service has been practically resumed as it was before the strike.

Vesuvius More Active.

NAPLES, April 22.—The eruption of Mount Vesuvius is increasing, and frequent explosions are heard. Streams of lava are running down the mountain, and the crater is emitting smoke, ashes and redhot stone.

FLEET ORDERED OUT

Rojestvensky's Stay In French Waters Cut Short.

JAPAN IN A RESENTFUL MOOD.

Direct Violation of Neutrality Laws Claimed by Long Stay of Russian Ships In Kamranh Bay—French Foreign Minister to Resign.

PARIS, April 22.—A telegram received here from St. Petersburg and understood to be of official origin says:

"The Russian admiralty has notified Admiral Rojestvensky of the grave danger to peace which will be entailed if the stay of his squadron off the coast of Anam is prolonged, contrary to the laws of neutrality. No doubt is entertained that the admiral will carry out the formal instructions sent to him."

Dr. Motono, in the course of an interview, said his request was that France should observe neutrality by adopting all the necessary measures for preventing Admiral Rojestvensky's squadron from remaining any longer in French territorial waters and Kamranh bay. The minister added that the Russian ships were quite inside French waters and not outside of them.

Japan's representation has had the effect of bringing the Franco-Japanese incident to the front rank of public attention. The leading newspapers here adopt the government view that Foreign Minister Delcasse's assurances calm the situation.

Deputy de Lanessan (Radical Republican), the former minister of marine and at one time governor of Indo-China, says in the Siecle:

"We cannot ignore the fact that the Japanese people are greatly excited by the war and that public opinion may drive the Tokyo cabinet to take extreme action. We therefore insist that the Rouvier ministry rapidly adopt steps in conformity with the interests of France and the maintenance of peace. All France agrees that the government has the duty of protecting French neutrality and thus preserving the world's peace."

The Humanite (Socialist) says:

"If the impending naval battle occurs in Indo-Chinese waters and the Russian squadron seeks refuge in our ports, then France may be suddenly dragged into a conflict in spite of herself which would mean war. The government which through feebleness or blindness permitted such a catastrophe to occur would bear one of the most terrible responsibilities history has known."

Foreign Minister Delcasse has announced his desire to resign. At the close of the session of the council of ministers in the Elysee several members of the cabinet conferred with M. Delcasse on the situation. Efforts are under way to induce him to reconsider his intention to retire.

It is now admitted in spite of the denials of M. Delcasse's intimate friends that he is dissatisfied and would prefer to hand in his resignation. This intention appears to have been entirely due to the parliamentary discussion over Morocco.

Socialist opposition to M. Delcasse on both the Morocco and Indo-China controversies is very strong.

JAPANESE AGGRIEVED.

Resentment Against France Over Kamranh Bay Affair Grows.

TOKYO, April 22.—The Japanese regard the Kamranh bay incident with growing feelings of resentment and bitterness toward France. It is popularly believed that the Russian fleet is still at Kamranh bay and is making the freest possible use of the port.

The demands for strong action on the part of Japan are daily growing louder. Political parties and other organizations are passing resolutions condemning France's alleged violation of neutrality, and it is now proposed to hold a great popular demonstration.

The Nichi Nichi asserts that the evidence is conclusive that Admiral Rojestvensky is using Kamranh bay as an actual naval base for belligerent action.

The Jiji discusses France's historical attitude on the question of neutrality and insists that the use of Kamranh bay enhances Admiral Rojestvensky's fighting capacity and offers facilities for warlike preparations. If from the complication grave consequences result to Russia, France will be responsible.

A former cabinet minister, discussing the incident, said:

"We are keenly anxious to avoid involving others, but we are bound to protect our rights. If France gives Russia the use of Kamranh bay, why cannot England allow us to use Hongkong?"

Russian Squadron Has Sailed.

ST. PETERSBURG, April 22.—Reports are current here that the Russian second Pacific squadron has already left Kamranh bay and is on the way to Vladivostok. But the government will proceed with action on the Japanese protest as if the squadron had not continued its voyage. A special service was held in the admiralty church to offer prayers for the safety of the squadron and its successful arrival at Vladivostok.

Russian Cruiser Must Disarm.

Saigon, French Cochin China, April 22.—Orders have been given for the disarmament of the Russian cruiser Diana, which took refuge under one of the coast forts in August, 1904. She has undergone important repairs to essential portions of her machinery, which now will be handed over to the French authorities here.

LINDEN, N. J.

Beautiful and Accessible

2 Miles from Elizabeth, 7 Miles from Newark,
14 MILES FROM NEW YORK
On Main Line Pennsylvania Railroad

Why Lots in Those Cemeteries commend themselves to Heads of Families and Investors

BECAUSE of the $1,000,000 Trust Fund provided for by the Trustees in each Cemetery, the income from which will keep the properties perpetually beautiful at NO EXPENSE TO LOT OWNERS.

BECAUSE such a guarantee, not found in any other cemetery, assures lot owners that the grounds WILL BE MAINTAINED PERMANENTLY AS BEAUTIFUL PARKS AFTER THE INCOME FROM THE SALE OF LOTS HAS BEEN EXHAUSTED.

LOTS SHOULD BE PURCHASED NOW

BECAUSE MORE ADVANTAGES ARE OFFERED TO LOT BUYERS in a new Modern Park Cemetery than in those established many years and, in most cases, no provision made for perpetual care without extra expense to lot owners. THERE ARE A GREATER NUMBER OF IDEAL LOCATIONS TO SELECT FROM, PRICES OF LOTS ARE ALWAYS LOWER AND TERMS MORE ADVANTAGEOUS.

BECAUSE life is most uncertain and EVERY ONE SHOULD ANTICIPATE THE INEVITABLE BY MAKING A CHOICE NOW OF A FINAL RESTING PLACE.

LOTS WILL PROVE A GOOD INVESTMENT

BECAUSE they are sure to increase in value and can be purchased NOW at the INITIAL or LOWEST PRICE and upon the most ADVANTAGEOUS TERMS.

BECAUSE the properties are ACCESSIBLE TO 4,000,000 PEOPLE, and considering the RAPID GROWTH OF GREATER NEW YORK and its TRIBUTARY CITIES and TOWNS, it is only a question of a SHORT TIME when LOTS in ROSEDALE and LINDEN PARK will EQUAL IN VALUE those of our MOST NOTED cemeteries.

Plainfield, N. J., April 22, 1905

Plainfield's team should present the Elizabeth aggregation with an Easter present today. A goose-egg would be appropriate.

The shallow man says "keep my name out of the paper when I make an ass out of myself and pile on all the sweet little adjectives you can find in Noah Webster when I do my bare duty."

"It was as clean a knock-out as I have ever seen administered."—Reported testimony of star witness before the Somerset Grand Jury. The investigation got about as pretty a one as we have ever heard of.

WILL TALK ON JAPANESE FLOWER ARRANGEMENT

MISS AVERILL TO EXPLAIN THE ART FOR LOCAL BENEFIT.

Miss Mary Averill, sister of J. Otis Averill, of this city, will give a demonstrated talk on Japanese flower arrangement at the residence of Mrs. Howard C. Tracy, 1551 Prospect avenue, Wednesday morning, May 10, at 10:30, and also at 3 o'clock in the afternoon. It will be for the benefit of the Woman's Exchange.

As a result of her work and study the Japanese government has conferred upon Miss Averill three degrees. No people equal the Japanese in their line composition and it is with great pride that the Japanese professor, the honorable Mrs. Kaiobkneal, sends Miss Averill to the western countries to teach them something of the art which Japan has in the evolution of her civilization carried so very far beyond any other country.

THEODORE VANHORN DIED LAST NIGHT

PNEUMONIA WAS THE CAUSE OF HIS DEATH.

Theodore F. VanHorn, of Lafayette place, died last night. About a week ago he suffered a relapse from pneumonia but recovered sufficiently to go out a week ago today. Yesterday afternoon he was taken worse.

Mr. VanHorn was about fifty five years old and was born at Vienna, Warren county. He lived here a number of years, being engaged in the oil business. Prior to that he was in the livery business in Ohio. He is survived by a son, Irving VanHorn, a daughter, who lives in Newark, two brothers, one superintendent of schools at Belvidere, and the other living at Morristown; a sister living at Knoxville, Iowa. Amos H. Van Horn, of Newark, was a cousin.

Just Hear the Judge's Laugh.

The coming production of the "Mikado," to be given in the Casino, May 4 and 5, promises to be the best entertainment, both musically and dramatically, that Plainfield has had since Music Hall's palmiest days. Judge Runyon will have the audience on his "little list," as he is, without doubt, the funniest "Ko-Ko" that Plainfielders have seen, his being an original interpretation. "Mikado" Lewis has his "object all sublime," and "makes the punishment fit the crime." To the three little maids, "everything is a source of fun," life is a joke that's just begun. "Nanke Pooh" Talisny sings very sweetly as the wandering minstrel. "Pooh Bah" Derby (Lord High Everything Else) has all the municipal offices rolled into one, and is not in the habit of saying "How do do, little girls," to any one under the rank of a Plainfield Trust Company director. "Katisha" Ward's "right elbow has a fascination that few can resist." Albeit she is "just a teeny weeney wee bit bloodthirsty." "Pish Tush" Pope says, "I am right, and you are right, and all is right as right can be." Seats and librettos are on sale at Armstrong's.

is a fairly large amount of money. How to get it is a question, and how to take care of it after you do get it is another. The way to get it is to save, and deposit a certain sum each month. By allowing the interest to compound semi-annually, the principle is surprisingly increased. We take care of the large and small deposits and pay 3½ per cent. interest.

SUBURBAN NEWS.

DUNELLEN AND VICINITY.

An entertainment will be given by the Sunshine Society, of Holy Innocents' church, on May 2, in Friendship Hall, for the benefit of the church treasury. The principal attraction will be Miss Augusta Grimm, dramatic and humorous reciter. The Ladies' Orchestra will play and Miss Etta Raybert, of Plainfield, will sing, supported by the choir.

The grade of the roadway at Dunellen and Washington avenues is being changed to prevent overflows and puddles after heavy rains. The street scrapings are being dumped there as fill-in.

Constable Oliver, of Bound Brook, has been appointed head of the county farm at Dayton. The former manager left suddenly. He is supposed to have gone back to his home town in Canada.

The Levering & Garrigues men are agitating for a Saturday half-holiday. A petition is being prepared for presentation to the management. Favorable action on it is probable.

Thomas Sheenan is confined to the house, suffering from the after effects of the bursting of the blood vessel in his leg last Monday night.

Dr. W. J. Nelson, who returned from Silver City, N. M., last week much improved in health, will resume practice.

Mrs. Mary E. Martin, who has been ill all winter, has recovered so far as to go on. Dr. Brakeley has been attending her.

The goods of C. T. Haines, sold under attachment in favor of Mrs. S. C. Fisher, on Wednesday, brought $106.

The Ladies' Aid Society, of the Presbyterian church, is arranging an entertainment. The date has not been set.

Frank Brosbart is arranging a dance in Apgar's Hall. It will be held next week or the week after.

The school election will be held in New Market next Thursday afternoon.

The New Market school has been enjoying a week of Easter vacation.

Mrs. Arthur Vail is entertaining friends from Dover, Morris County.

Albert Rajette is having 350 feet of wire fence placed around his grounds.

The L. and G. team will turn out for heavy practice this afternoon.

Easter services will be held in all the churches here tomorrow.

William Giles is trying for the Y. M. C. A. team.

'PLAINS AND FANWOOD.

Following the usual custom of several years past, no Easter vacation will be held at the public school. The scholars will enjoy the week during the summer, as the local school generally holds commencement exercises one week earlier than the schools in neighboring towns.

The Aeolian ball team is still unsettled with the baseball season already opened. The team has not decided whether to play at Garwood, disband or play all their games away from home. Several meetings have been held but the question is still unsettled.

It is hoped that the High School boys will be successful in their efforts to organize an athletic association in the school. Clean sport, such as baseball and football, fostered under a school association, would be a good thing for both the school and town.

With the Stars, of Elizabethport, playing the P. A. C. team at Crescent Oval, and the Seventh Regiment-Westfield game at Recreation Park, the local cranks have two good attractions for this afternoon. Game will be called at 3:30.

The Hartford Insurance team, of New York, and the Suburban bowlers roll a match game tonight on the latter's alleys. The visitors are considered strong and will make the home team roll to take two of the three games.

Tomorrow being Easter Sunday special music will be rendered and sermons appropriate to the day preached at all the churches at the morning services. The hour of morning service at all the local churches is 10:45.

Services tomorrow at the Baptist church will be as usual: Sunday-school, 9:30 a. m.; preaching, 10:45; B. Y. P. U. meeting, 7:15 p. m., followed by the evening sermon, 7:45.

It has been reported that Galvin's Park will reopen this year under new management. This is hardly probable as the present management has a lease of the place for two years yet.

Ground will soon be broken for a new house on South avenue, adjoining the Renand property, the prospective new resident of the borough being a New York party.

Rev. Mr. Bright, of Drew Seminary, will occupy the pulpit at the Methodist church tomorrow, no regular pastor having been assigned to the church yet.

An officer on duty Sundays at the trolley crossing has done much towards curbing the unruly visitors who mingle with us weekly.

The weekly meeting of the Bible study class was held last night in the class rooms of the Methodist church.

Mrs. J. H. Parks has left for a visit of several months with relatives and friends in California.

Miss Sadie Reger is spending Saturday and Sunday with relatives at Morristown.

Nothing has been heard of the borough jail question for some time.

SOUTH PLAINFIELD.

At the Baptist church tomorrow morning, the pastor, Rev. J. A. Cubberley, will speak of "Easter Joys." The evening service also will pertain to lessons from the Resurrection. Easter music will be rendered and flowers and plants will adorn the platform.

A. B. Tappen has had the little finger and part of the palm of his right hand removed on account of the injury and swollen condition of the hand which did not heal.

At the ball game between the New Market and South Plainfield nines, the result was in favor of the local team.

The young vegetables and grass were much refreshed by the shower yesterday afternoon.

John Geary lost a large patch of young lettuce by freezing during the cold spell lately.

CONGREGATIONS MOURNED

that His work given Him to do was completed. He said that while there is an end to suffering and pain from which all might learn the lesson. The end of the strain and overtaxed brain for that sweet rest which alone comes to the faithful ones.

Rev. A. E. Finn, pastor of the Park Avenue Baptist church, spoke earnestly on the seventh word, "Father into thy hands I commend my spirit," which he said had been referred to as the speech of death, though not in any sense one of extinction, but rather immortality. He referred to the perfect trust shown by Christ in God, adding that trusting and doing good is the same, for by doing one the other is possible.

Following silent prayer, Rev. A. C. McCrea, pastor of the First M. E. church offered a short prayer. While the offering was being received for the Children's Home, the choir rendered an appropriate selection, and after the singing of "When I Survey the Wondrous Cross," the benediction was pronounced by Dr. Zelie.

—The Plainfield High School Glee Club will give a concert at the Casino Monday night, June 19.

—The Public Service Corporation is now running a gas main through West Third street and adjoining streets.

—There is a possibility that the presentation of "The Rivals," by the Plainfield High School at the Casino will be postponed from May 13 to a later date, owing to a need of further preparation.

STAFFORD'S

Proceedings of the Union County Board of Chosen Freeholders.

[OFFICIAL.]

Regular meeting of the Board of Chosen Freeholders of the County of Union, N. J., held on Thursday, April 6, 1905, at 2:30 p. m.

Roll-call showed all members present—20.

The minutes of the previous meeting (reading of bills being omitted) were, on motion, approved as read.

PETITIONS, COMMUNICATIONS, ETC.

From John K. English, clerk of the Union County Grand Jury, relative to action taken by the last Grand Jury, as follows:

"Resolved, That we congratulate the citizens of Union County upon the rapid completion of their new and handsome Court House. We deem the architecture stately, its arrangement complete, and its finish artistic and beautiful. It is a fit and enduring home for our courts, and a safe repository for the county records and archives for many years to come. We further congratulate our fellow-citizens that their edifice has been constructed practically within the sum originally allotted, and without the slightest suspicion or taint of jobbery or wrong-doing, so common in public construction. We feel that all may point with pride and satisfaction to this structure as a monument to our county's progress, and to the integrity of our officials."

Passed Feb. 2d, 1905.

(Signed) John K. English,
Clerk of Union County Grand Jury.

On motion of Freeholder King, it was ordered that the communication be received and spread on the minutes in full.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES.

By the County Road Committee, as follows:

To the Board of Chosen Freeholders of Union County:

Gentlemen—Your Committee on County Roads, to whom was referred the application of Elizabeth and Raritan River Street Railway Company for permission to construct a street railroad across St. George avenue, with power, hereby report that we met and considered the matter on the 8th day of March, inst., and decided to grant the application on the terms and conditions stated in writing which we gave to the company, a certificate of which is hereto annexed.

We also submit herewith a copy of the acceptance of the permission by the company.

We recommend the passage of the following resolution:

Resolved, That the action of the Committee on County Roads, upon the application of Elizabeth and Raritan River Street Railway Company for permission to construct a street railroad across St. George avenue, be and the same is hereby ratified and approved.

Respectfully submitted,
(Signed)
Benjamin King,
Henry Krouse,
E. K. Adams,
Charles J. Jensen,
County Road Committee.

Dated April 6, 1905.

With the foregoing report was presented the acceptance by Elizabeth and Raritan River Street Railway Company of permission to construct street railroad on St. George avenue, Roselle, signed by Thos. N. McCarter, president, and attested by Frederick Evans, secretary.

The Committee also presented the following:

"Consent to construction of street railroad across St. George avenue by Elizabeth and Raritan River Street Railroad Company," and which was read as follows:

Whereas, At a meeting of the Board of Chosen Freeholders of the County of Union, held on Thursday the second day of March instant, Elizabeth and Raritan River Street Railway Company made application for permission to construct a double track street railroad across St. George's avenue (a county road), which avenue lies partly at the point of such proposed crossing in the Township of Linden and partly in the Borough of Roselle, and

Whereas, The said application was referred to the subscribers, the committee on county roads of said Board of Chosen Freeholders, with power, and

Whereas, The said committee has met and considered the said application and examined the map annexed thereto, and hereby authorize and permit the said Elizabeth and Raritan River Street Railway Company to construct the proposed street railroad across said avenue, as indicated on said map annexed to said application, on the following terms and conditions:

First—That the top of rails of such railroad shall be laid as nearly as practicable, level with the grade of said avenue at the place of crossing.

Second—That said Elizabeth and Raritan River Street Railway Company shall pave between the rails of each track, and for a space of two feet outside of the outer rails of each track with specification blocks, on a concrete foundation, such pavement to extend from one curb line of said avenue to the other, and said company shall maintain said pavement in good order at all times so as not to obstruct or interfere with the crossing of the tracks by vehicles.

Third—That for the purpose of this consent the curb lines on said avenue at the place of such proposed crossing shall be parallel with the sides of said avenue and 12 feet distant therefrom, but the location of said curb lines may be changed either by said Board of Chosen Freeholders or by the municipal authorities of said township and borough.

Fourth—That whenever a sidewalk or sidewalks shall be laid on either side of said avenue to the place of such proposed crossing, the said company shall, at its own expense, construct and maintain sidewalks across the tracks and for two feet outside of the outer rail of each track of the same material as that used in the construction of the sidewalk near the said tracks by the public authorities or owners of the abutting land, and said company shall maintain the sidewalk hereby required to be laid by it in good condition at all times.

Fifth—That no car shall be run across said avenue at a greater speed than five miles an hour.

Sixth—That said company shall erect and maintain a street light at said crossing from thirty minutes after sunset until thirty minutes before sunrise every night.

Seventh—That said company shall place a 12-inch iron pipe under said tracks in each gutter and maintain the same.

Benjamin King,
Henry Krouse,
E. K. Adams,
Charles J. Jensen,
J. F. Hubbard,
Committee on County Roads.

Dated, March 8, 1905.

Freeholder King moved that the report of the committee be received and resolution therein contained adopted; further, that the consent as read, together with the acceptance be received and filed, all of which was so ordered without dissent.

NEW BUSINESS

By Freeholder Scudder.

Whereas, The District Court of the city of Elizabeth has jurisdiction throughout the County of Union, and parties residing outside the city of Elizabeth bring suits in said court, and suits are brought in said court against parties residing in the county outside of the city of Elizabeth; and

Whereas, On the plans of the new Court House certain rooms in the basement were marked "District Court" with the view that such should be set apart for the use of said court; be it

Resolved, That said rooms be set apart for the use of the District Court of the city of Elizabeth, provided that the county shall not be at the expense of furnishing said rooms with furniture.

Freeholder King moved the adoption of the foregoing preamble and resolution, and after some discussion it was so ordered without dissent, it being understood that such action could be rescinded at any subsequent meeting of the Board, if deemed necessary.

By Freeholder Westphal:

Be it Resolved, That a committee of five be appointed to look into the advisability of building a new bridge over Green brook at West End avenue in the city of Plainfield, in concurrence with Somerset County, and said committee to report back to this Board.

The following copy of a resolution adopted by the Somerset County Board was read:

"Resolved, That it is the sense of the members of this Board that the application for a bridge on Grant avenue in North Plainfield should be favored, provided the Board of Union County unite, and provided the citizens of North Plainfield make the proposed improvements in grading."

March 2, 1905. Adopted.

A true copy.

A. P. Sutphen, Clerk.

On motion of Freeholder Westphal, the resolution as presented by him was adopted without dissent.

The Director appointed as the said committee, Freeholders Westphal, Chandler, Robison, Scudder and Marsh.

By Freeholder Marsh:

"Resolved, That a committee of three be appointed to meet a committee from Middlesex County to estimate cost of building county line bridge near Hazelwood cemetery, Rahway."

On motion of Freeholder Krouse, the resolution was adopted without dissent.

The Director appointed as the said committee, Freeholders Marsh, King and Krouse.

By Freeholder Krouse:

"Resolved, That the bill of the John H. Parker Co. for the sum of $60,115.35, be paid when properly certified to by the architects.

Freeholder Woodruff moved the adoption of the resolution, and on roll call it was unanimously adopted.

By Freeholder Krouse:

Whereas, The new Court House is nearing completion, and it will soon be necessary to have a superintendent or caretaker of the building; therefore, be it

Resolved, That this Board do now go into an election for superintendent of the building, and that the period of his appointment be three years.

On motion of Freeholder Cladek, the resolution was adopted without dissent.

By Freeholder Krouse:

Resolved, That the compensation and salary to be paid to the superintendent of the new Court House, which shall include his own salary, the salary of a matron and for such other help as it is necessary for him to have for the proper care of said building, shall be the sum of thirty-five hundred dollars per year ($3,500.00), and including salary of engineer.

Freeholder King moved the adoption of the resolution, and on roll call it was unanimously adopted.

Freeholder Woodruff, in a brief speech, nominated William H. Huiskamper, of Elizabeth, for superintendent of the new Court House, which was seconded by Freeholder Cladek. On motion of Freeholder King, the nominations were closed.

On the roll being called, he received the unanimous vote of the Board, and the Director declared him elected as superintendent of the new Court House for the term of three (3) years.

Freeholder King said that he was unable to be present at the last meeting, and during his absence the Board had taken up and passed resolution relinquishing control of certain county roads in Rahway. He did not think said roads were in fit condition to turn over to the city of Rahway, and he hoped that the Board could find a way to reconsider its action. Some discussion ensued, but no action was taken.

Freeholder Meisel stated that the Rahway Valley Railroad Co. had laid its tracks across a county road at grade without permission from this Board, and despite a promise made to do no such work without giving due notice of same; the crossing had been left in very bad condition and the work had been done at night, in a heavy storm, thus indicating that said company considered its action of doubtful right, if not unlawful. He felt that some action should be taken to ascertain the rights, if any, of this Board in the matter.

County Attorney Coddington said that he had been assured by Mr. English, attorney for said R. R. Co., that no attempt would be made to lay grade crossings without giving due notice of such intention, but the promise as given had been broken, the tracks laid as stated, and he considered that this Board had been treated in a very discourteous manner. He was of the opinion, however, after consulting with eminent legal authorities, that this Board could not prevent any steam railroad from crossing county roads at grade.

After some further discussion it was ordered that the matter be referred back to the committee and county attorney for further investigation.

On motion of Freeholder King, the Board took a recess of 15 minutes, and upon re-assembling roll call showed all members present except Freeholders Adams who appeared during the reading of bills.

On permission being granted, the Board was addressed by Mr. Edward A. O'Donnell, a plumber doing business in Cranford. He had been granted permission to open the county road in Cranford by J. W. Fink, County Road Inspector, and had sub-let a contract he had on hand requiring the opening of the said county road. The sub-contractor had cut through the telford and macadam instead of boring under same as was his (Mr. O'Donnell's) custom. His attention had been called to the matter by Inspector Fink and he had immediately paid the fine ($50) although the violation of the ordinance had occurred without his knowledge or consent.

Inspector Fink corroborated the statement of Mr. O'Donnell and in view of said statement made by the latter, suggested that his fine be remitted. He stated further, that openings in roads, such as made in the present instance, prevented the said roads from assuming their former conditions for a number of years.

Freeholder King, chairman of the county road committee said that unlawful openings of county roads by plumbers and others had given the committee a great deal of trouble in the past, and on his motion, the matter under consideration was referred to the said committee for investigation.

The following bills, properly audited and approved, were read, and, on roll call, unanimously ordered paid, viz.:

Notable Women

Some Feminine Work In Fields of Philanthropy

The movement which has given the American Indian a chance for his life among the white people was inaugurated by women. Two women, Miss Mary L. Bonney and Mrs. Amelia Stone Quinton, started it. Miss Bonney, a busy teacher in Philadelphia, had long beheld with profound sorrow the ever increasing degradation and consequent gradual extermination of the red men of this country. They were cheated right and left, and they were tempted by all the vices that the white man brought among them. They were simply turned loose on reservations, and supplies were given them from time to time with no particular concern as to whether they lived or died.

Miss Bonney had little time to work personally for the rescue of the red man, but she warmly interested her friend Mrs. Quinton in the matter. That was in 1879. Mrs. Quinton began by preparing and circulating for signatures a petition to congress in behalf of the Indian. The petition really contained the framework of all the civilizing and philanthropic measures from time to time passed by congress to aid the American aborigines.

Year after year Mrs. Quinton memorialized congress till that body enacted the laws suggested by her petitions. Mrs. Quinton and Miss Bonney founded the National Indian association, of which, except during one year when she declined the office, Mrs. Quinton has been president for eighteen years.

American Woman's Work In London

Some years ago Alice Smith, a lovely Philadelphia Quaker girl in London, was married to an Englishman, Hon. Bertrand Russell. Something, perhaps an invisible power, called Mrs. Russell's attention to the deplorable drunkenness among British factory girls. This was actual and no fancy. Mrs. Russell, in order to study conditions, dressed herself as one of the working girls and really labored in the factories at times.

Occasionally, clad in her working garb, she watched where the girls went on receiving their wages on pay day. Once in less than half an hour she saw forty-seven girls go into drinking saloons from their factories. In the saloons of one neighborhood she found 118 women, and fourteen of them had babies in their arms. Girls seemed to glory in getting drunk.

Shocked at such revelations, the Quaker soul of Mrs. Russell began to devise means to check the intemperance of London factory women.

One Russian Hebrew Girl.

Tyna Heiman, a Russian Jewish girl from Kishineff, came to this country to Boston about four years and a half ago. She had some education in Russian, but none at all in English. In her fourteenth year she entered the Boston public schools and was put in the primary department, lowest grade, First Reader. She remained there two days; then her teacher, seeing she was misplaced, promoted her to the third grade, skipping the second. The promotions came so rapidly that Tyna Heiman appeared to be a marvel. In ten months this young Russian Hebrew girl accomplished six years' work of the Boston public school course. Next she took in three years the prescribed four years' instruction of the Boston girls' high school.

Elizabeth Cady Stanton's Granddaughter.

Leader and champion of the 600 women students at Cornell university is Nora Stanton Blatch, the handsome, athletic and gifted granddaughter of the famous champion of woman, Elizabeth Cady Stanton.

Miss Blatch is this year to be graduated from the Cornell course in civil engineering. She is the only woman who has ever finished that course. She is extremely athletic, having swum Cayuga lake, nearly three miles wide. The young lady is one of the best students in her class and stands ready constantly for equal right and opportunity for the feminine sex.

The Romance of a Pirate's Daughter

By FRANK R. STOCKTON

Copyright, 1902, by D. Appleton & Co., New York.

"I have come, sir, to see you," he said. "I am Capt. Ichabod of the sloop Restless."

Mr. Delaplaine looked up in surprise. "That is a pirate ship," said he.

"Yes," said the other, "I'm a pirate."

The newcomer was a tall young man, with long, dark hair and with well-made features and a certain diffidence in his manner which did not befit his calling.

Mr. Delaplaine rose. This was his first private interview with a professional sea-robber, and he did not know exactly how to demean himself; but as his visitor's manner was quiet, and as he came on board alone, it was not to be supposed that his intentions were offensive.

"And you wish to see me, sir?" said he.

"Yes," said Capt. Ichabod, "I thought I'd come over and talk to you. I don't know you, bedad, but I know all about you, and I saw you and your family when you came to town to visit that old fox, bedad, that sugar-planter that Capt. Blackbeard used to call Sir Nightcap. Not a bad joke, either, bedad. I have heard of a good many dirty, mean things that people in my line of business have done, but, bedad, I never did hear of any captain who was dirty and mean to his own family. Fine people, too, who came out to do the right thing by him, after he had been cleaned out, bedad, by one of his 'Brothers of the Coast.' A rare sort of brother, bedad, don't you say so?"

"You are right, sir," said Mr. Delaplaine, "in what you say of the wild conduct of my brother-in-law Bonnet. It pleases me, sir, to know that you condemn it."

"Condemn! I should say so, bedad," answered Capt. Ichabod; "and I came over here to say to you—that is, just to mention, not knowing, of course, what you'd think about it, bedad—that I'm goin' to start on a cruise to-morrow. That is, as soon as I can get in my water and some stores, bedad—water, anyway. And if you and your ladies might happen to fancy it, bedad, I'd be glad to take you along. I've heard that you're in a bad case here, the captain of this brig being unable or quite unwilling to take you where you want to go."

"But where are you going, sir?" in great surprise.

"Anywhere," said Capt. Ichabod, "anywhere you'd like to go. I'm starting out on a cruise, and a cruise with me means anywhere. And my opinion is, sir, that if you want to come up with that crack-brained sugar-planter, you'd better follow Blackbeard; and the best place to find him will be on the Carolina coast; that's his favorite hunting-ground, bedad, and I expect the sugar-planter is with him by this time."

"But will not that be dangerous, sir?" asked Mr. Delaplaine.

"Oh, no," said the other. "I know Blackbeard, and we have played many a game together. You and your family need not have anything to do with it. I'll board the Revenge, and you may wager, bedad, that I'll bring Sir Nightcap back to you by the ear."

"But there's another," said Delaplaine; "there's a young man belonging to my party—"

"Oh, yes, I know," said the other, "the young fellow Blackbeard took away with him. Clapped a cocked hat on him, bedad! That was a good joke! I will bring him, too. One old man, one young man—I'll fetch 'em both. Then I'll take you all where you want to go. That is, as near as I can get to it, bedad. Now, you tell your ladies about this, and I'll have my sloop cleaned up a bit, and as soon as I can get my water on board I'm ready to hoist anchor."

"But look you, sir," exclaimed Mr. Delaplaine, "this is a very important matter, and cannot be decided so quickly."

"Oh, don't mention it, don't mention it," said Capt. Ichabod; "just you tell your ladies all about it, and I'll be ready to sail almost any time to-morrow."

"But, sir—" cried the merchant.

"Very good," said the pirate captain, "you talk it over. I'm going to the town now and I'll row out to you this afternoon and get your instructions."

And with this he got over the side.

Mr. Delaplaine said nothing of this visit, but waited on deck until the captain came on board, and then many were the questions he asked about the pirate Ichabod.

"Well, well!" the captain exclaimed, "that's just like him, he's a rare one. Ichabod is not his name, of course, and I'm told he belongs to a good English family—a younger son, and having taken his inheritance, he invested it in a sloop and turned pirate. He has had some pretty good fortune, I hear, in that line, but it hasn't profited him much, for he is a terrible gambler, and all that he makes by his prizes he loses at cards, so he is nearly always poor. Blackbeard sometimes helps him, so I have heard—which he ought to do, for the old pirate has won bags of money from him—but he is known as a good fellow, and to be trusted. I have heard of his sailing a long way back to Belize to pay a gambling debt he owed, he having captured a merchantman in the meantime."

"Very honorable, indeed," remarked Mr. Delaplaine.

"As pirates go, a white crow," said the other. "Now, sir, if you and your ladies want to go to Blackbeard, and a rare desire is that, I swear, you cannot do better than let Capt. Ichabod take you. You will be safe, and I am sure of that, and there is every reason to think he will find his man."

When Mr. Delaplaine went below with his extraordinary news, Dame Charter turned pale and screamed.

"Sail in a pirate ship?" she cried. "I've seen the men belonging to one of them, and as to going on board and sailing with them, I'd rather die just where I am."

To the good dame's astonishment and that of Mr. Delaplaine, Kate spoke up very promptly. "But you cannot die here, Dame Charter; and if you ever want to see your son again you have got to go to him. Which is also the case with me and my father. And, as there is no other way for us to go, I say, let us accept this man's offer if he be what my uncle thinks he is. After all, it might be as safe for us on board his ship as to be on a merchantman and be captured by pirates, which would be likely enough in those regions where we are obliged to go; and so I say let us see the man, and if he don't frighten us too much let us sail with him and get my father and Dickory."

"It would be a terrible danger, a terrible danger," said Mr. Delaplaine.

"But, uncle," urged Kate, "everything is a terrible danger in the search we're upon; let us then choose a danger that we know something about, and which may serve our needs, rather than one of which we're ignorant and which cannot possibly be of any good to us."

It was actually the fact that the little party in the cabin had not finished talking over this most momentous subject before they were informed that Capt. Ichabod was on deck. Up they went, Dame Charter ready to faint. But she did not do so. When she saw the visitor she thought it could not be the pirate captain, but some one whom he had sent in his place. He was more soberly dressed than when he first came on board, and his manners were even milder. The mind of Kate Bonnet was so worked up by the trouble that had come upon her that she felt very much as she did when she hung over the side of her father's vessel at Bridgetown, ready to drop into the darkness and the water when the signal should sound. She had an object now, as she had had then, and again she must risk everything. On her second look at Capt. Ichabod, which embarrassed him very much, she was ready to trust him.

"Dame Charter," she whispered, "we must do it or never see them again."

So, when they had talked about it for a quarter of an hour, it was agreed that they would sail with Capt. Ichabod.

When the sloop Restless made ready to sail the next day there was a fine flurry in the harbor. Nothing of the kind had ever before happened there. Two ladies and a most respectable old gentleman sailing away under the skull and cross-bones! That was altogether new in the Caribbean sea. To those who talked to him about his quixotic expedition, Capt. Ichabod swore—and at times, as many men knew, he was a great hand at being in earnest—that if he carried not his passengers through their troubles and to a place of safety, the Restless, and all on board of her, should mount to the skies in a thousand bits. Although this alternative would not have been very comforting to said passengers if they had known of it, it came from Capt. Ichabod's heart, and showed what sort of a man he was.

The anchor was weighed, the sails hoisted and, amid shouts and cheers from a dozen small boats containing some of the most terrible and bloody sea-robbers who had ever infested the face of the waters, the Restless sailed away—the only pirate ship which had, perhaps, ever left port followed by blessings and goodwill; goodwill, although the words which expressed it were curses and the men who waved their hats were blasphemers and cutthroats.

Away sailed our gentle and most respectable party, with the Jolly Roger floating boldly high above them. Kate, looking skyward, noticed this and took courage to bewail the fact to Capt. Ichabod.

He smiled. "While we're in sight of my Brethren of the Coast," he said, "our skull and bones must wave, but when we're well out at sea we will run up an English flag, if it please you."

Is It Right?

It is right for you to lose $4.20 that a dealer may make 50 cents more by selling fourteen gallons of ready-for-use paint at $1.50 per gallon, than our agent will make by selling you eight gallons of L. & M., and six gallons of linseed oil, which make fourteen gallons of a better paint, at $1.20 per gallon. Is it right?

BASEBALL SCORES.

Games Played Yesterday in the National and American Leagues.

NEW YORK, April 22.—Rain caused the postponement of the games in which the New York Americans, the Giants and the Brooklyns were scheduled to take part. The Highlanders played three and one-half innings, when they were obliged to stop. The Giants in their game in Philadelphia played but one inning, and the score then was 4 to 2 in favor of the Giants.

The Brooklyns played two and one-half innings. The score then was: Brooklyn, 0; Boston, 0.

Gold Ten Won Rockaway Stakes.

NEW YORK, April 22.—W. Lakeland's Gold Ten won the Rockaway Selling stakes at six furlongs at Aqduct yesterday, defeating Monet in a drive. Gold Ten made all the pace and won by a neck. Irene Lindsey, carrying 124 pounds, easily won the handicap, beating Rosetint by a length. Green Room, winner of the first race, was backed from 4 to 1 to 5 to 2, and the ring suffered a heavy loss. One favorite won.

Fifteen Round Fight In Baltimore.

BALTIMORE, April 22.—After one of the cleanest fights seen in this city in many a day Aurelia Herrera was given the decision over Tommy Daly by Referee O'Hara at the end of the fifteen rounds to which the match was limited. Both fighters did splendid work, but the decision seemed a just one to most of the moderate crowd present.

TRADE CONDITIONS.

Industrial Activity Expanding In Nearly All Lines.

NEW YORK, April 22.—The weekly trade review of R. H. Dun & Co. says:

Erratic weather has tended to make trade reports somewhat irregular, but on the whole the week's results were satisfactory. Industrial activity expands, iron furnaces and steel mills maintaining their good record, textile plants securing larger orders and footwear manufacturers being able to hold full prices without curtailing operations.

Labor controversies are few and cause little inconvenience, while immigration for the last week was more than double that of the corresponding week in 1904. Transporting interests are able to handle the increased business with little congestion, railway earnings thus far reported for April exceeding last year's by 10.2 per cent. Foreign commerce at this port for the last week showed a gain of $2,000,865 in value of merchandise exported, and imports were $3,415,922 larger than in the same week of 1904.

Failures for the week numbered 200 in the United States against 241 last year and 21 in Canada compared with 12 a year ago.

Western receipts of wheat for the week were 1,962,229 bushels against 1,472,385 last year. Arrivals of 2,109,631 bushels of corn exceeded the 1,626,985 last year.

Hooker Investigation Completed.

ALBANY, N. Y., April 22.—After weeks of examining witnesses and argument of counsel the assembly judiciary committee completed its investigation of the conduct of former Representative Warren B. Hooker of Fredonia, now a justice of the supreme court in the Eighth judicial district, in connection with appointments in the Fredonia and Fort Plain postoffices and rental transactions affecting that in the building owned by Justice Hooker and State Tax Commissioner Lester F. Stearns at Dunkirk. The committee in executive session will now draft its report and recommendations for presentation to the assembly on or before next Thursday, when its time limit expires.

Prominent Ohio Democrat Dead.

CLEVELAND, O., April 22.—Major William W. Armstrong, one of the best known of the older residents of this city and prominent in the Democratic party throughout the state, is dead after one day's illness of pneumonia, aged seventy-two years. Major Armstrong held a number of state and municipal offices during his active life and was for a number of years editor of the Cleveland Plain Dealer. He is said to have been the man who suggested the rooster as the emblem of the Democratic party.

Sterling Stuart Is Dead.

NEW YORK, April 22.—Sterling Stuart, son of Ruth McEnery Stuart, who received injuries to his spine by falling from a second story window of his residence in Flushing four weeks ago, is dead.

Jefferson Not as Well.

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla., April 22.—According to latest reports, the condition of Joseph Jefferson is not so favorable. The patient refuses to take food.

Dr. Franklin says:

"Nothing is certain except death and taxes." If so, nothing is more plain than that a man should insure his life.

New York Clothing Co.

M. WEINBERGER, Manager.

202-204 W. Front St., Plainfield.

At the minstrel show before Perseverance Lodge, No. 74, K. of P., last night, End Man Harry Blimm made a distinct individual hit singing a topical song to the air of "Tammany," one of the latest New York successes. The words were written by Edward Clark and are as follows:

In the town of Plainfield, where the millionaires abound,
No one ever likes to see a drunken man around,
So the Council got religion, raised the license high,
And though Buckie called them down, this was their battle cry:

CHORUS:

No more rags, no more jags,
If you drink the booze you must
Ride in club cars just like us.
All the coppers now are free,
They play pinochle with Chief Kielee.

Westfield has a baseball team, they call them Denman's pets,
Paleface Mallen is their chief, ten bones a week he gets;
He always calls the umpire down if things don't come his way,
When his team is losing you will always hear him say:

CHORUS:

Soak it out. Soak it out.
Listen to that bum umpire;
Always knew he was a liar,
He and Denman are a pair,
They can always fill you up with their hot air.

Once a copper caught a thief who stole a pocketbook,
Haled him up to Kiely, who is chief across the brook;
Big Chief Kiely laughed ha, ha, and winked his weather eye,
Telephones McCarty to get busy, on the sly.

CHORUS:

For, said he, "Mac" and me
Only have to drop a hint
To get our names in public print;
When a crook we do arrest
We always have the first page in The Daily Press.

Drake; address by the pastor; carol, "Bright Easter Skies," benediction, postlude.

Easter services will be held at the Park Avenue Baptist church tomorrow morning, afternoon and evening. In the morning the pastor, Rev. A. E. Finn, will preach on "A Resurrected Life." In the evening the Bible school will hold special services. Carols will be sung by the school and there will be songs and recitations by members of the school and primary department. The musical programme for the morning will be as follows: Prelude, "Grand Offertoire," Batiste; anthem, "The Lord is My Strength," Simper, choir; offertory anthem, "Christ Our Passover," Schilling, choir; postlude, "Festiva Fantasia," Tschiroh. In the evening these selections will be given: Anthem, "Now is Christ Risen," choir; offertory anthem, "Hallelujs! Christ is Risen," choir. There will also be special music at the Sunday-school session at 2:45 in the afternoon. D. E. Titsworth, as organist and choirmaster, will be in charge of the musical part of the church services.

Special solos will be rendered by the choir at Grace M. E. church and Dr. Parsons will preach Easter sermons, morning and evening. In the afternoon, the Sunday-school department will conduct its usual programme of carols and recitations.

The musical features at the First Presbyterian church will be in charge of Clifford Braider, the regular organist. Special solos will be sung by the choir composed of Miss Etta Raybert, soprano; Miss Edna Nichell, contralto; Elmer D. Cutting, tenor and R. Wilson Derby, bass. Rev. Dr. Herring will occupy the pulpit and preach sermons morning and evening appropriate to the day.

Special Easter services will be held at the First M. E. church temorrow morning and night, with appropriate music and the pastor, Rev. A. C. McCrea, will preach sermons appropriate to the occasion. In the afternoon the Sunday-school will join in a special service and the pastor will make a short address.

An appropriate Easter programme will be observed at both morning and evening services in the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church. The former will begin at 10:30 and the musical features will include a full chorus choir in charge of Rhys Thomas. The offering will be for the deacons' fund for the relief of the poor. In the evening a service of Easter praise will be given, beginning at 7:45. Dr. Zeile will occupy the pulpit. In the afternoon the Sunday school will unite with those from Hope, Warren and Bethel chapels in the home church, according to the annual custom. There will be a large chorus choir of New York and Plainfield vocalists at the morning service.

Mrs. Hannah Hoagland is visiting her son, Geo. M. Hoagland, of Duer street.

Mrs. Mary Stevens, of Watchung avenue, who has been visiting the Misses Gallagher, of Raritan, has returned home.

GOLF ATTRACTIONS ON LOCAL LINKS TODAY

EVENTS AT COUNTRY CLUB AND PARK GOLF CLUB.

Play for the President's and Park Golf Club cups will be continued on the Park Golf Club course today. This weekly competition began a week ago under favorable auspices and there is every indication that it will be a spirited one throughout the season. Charles B. Morse now leads with three points for the President's cup, while Rev. J. O. McKelvey has an equal number of points for the other cup.

While the clubhouse at the Plainfield Country Club will be opened today for the first, the active season will not begin until Saturday, April 29, when the play for the regular cups will begin.

As yet the announcement of the Westfield schedule has not been made, but it is known to be very strong and will include a number of team matches. The active season has begun at the Middlebrook Country Club, Bound Brook, and a successful time is anticipated. A number of valuables cups have been offered for competition.

Within a short time it is expected that the members of the various clubs will meet and form a golf league, similar to last year, which included the Park Golf Club, the Westfield Golf Club, the Colonia Golf Club and Cranford Club.

The East Jersey Lawn Tennis Association has announced the dates for the four association championship tournaments for the season, the first of which will be held at the Plainfield Country Club on Saturday, Monday and Tuesday, May 27, 29 and 30. There will be mixed doubles.

The next tournament will be held at the Jersey City Golf Club on Saturdays, June 17 and 24, and will include men's singles championship. Men's doubles championship will be held at the Roselle Casino, Saturday, July 1; Monday, July 3 and Tuesday, July 4. The last tournament will be women's singles championship at the Bergen Point Lawn Tennis Club, on Wednesday, September 20 until Saturday, September 23.

In addition to the individual prizes in each of the association championship tournaments, the club championship trophy, now held by the Ideran Outing Club, will be competed for under the same conditions as last year, namely: First place to count five points, and second place two points, the club winning the greatest number of points to hold the cup for one year, the cup to become the permanent property of the club winning it three times, not necessarily in succession.

Besides the four association championship tournaments, the open tournament of this association, for the East Jersey Challenge Cup, will be held at the Elizabeth Town and Country Club, on August 9 to September 4. Roger N. Black is the secretary of the association to whom should be addressed all correspondence concerning the tournaments.

CHRISTIAN FIELD.

Miss Etta Raybert, of the First Presbyterian church choir, will sing at a Dunelien church musical and entertainment on May 2.

Paul J. Loizeaux will preach the gospel of the Grace of God at the hall corner of East Front street and Bank place tomorrow evening at 7:30.

Rev. Dr. J. A. Chambliss, of East Front street, has returned from his southern trip and will occupy his pulpit at the First Baptist chrch tomorrow.

The Cup Bearers' Circle, of King's Daughters, will hold an entertainment at the Park Club on Thursday, May 4, for the benefit of the King's Daughters nurse.

Mr. Montand, a student at the Swedish Luthern seminary, will be in charge of the service of the Swedish Lutheran congregation which meets at the German Lutheran church tomorrow afternoon.

At the birthday sociable held at Maroonnier chapel last week, which was planned by superintendant, Mrs. J. W. Sobenck, over $25 was realized for the chapel treasury, notwithstanding it was a disagreeable stormy night.

Rev. Charles Walton, who was pastor of the M. E. church at Mt. Horeb for three years, and who was recently transferred to Springfield, died a few days ago at his home in the latter place at an advanced age. The funeral services were held yesterday afternoon and a number of friends from this city attended.

Hurley Was Sassy.

Becoming abusive when James K. Arnold, chairman of the borough Council street committee, asked him to move his ice wagon off the crosswalk so that pedestrians could get by, John Hurley, a driver for McDonough Brothers, was arrested by Chief Marshal Weiss, yesterday. Before Judge Doud, last night, two charges were preferred against him, one by Mr. Arnold for obstructing the walk and the other by Weiss for using profane language. Hurley was fined $10 but half of it was afterward remitted.

EASTER DAY IN THE CHURCHES

Splendid Music and Beautiful Decorations in All Church Edifices.

GORGEOUS DISPLAYS

Catholics and Protestants in City and Borough Observe the Great Feast in the Church Calendar.

In all the churches yesterday Easter Day was observed, rich programmes of music and special sermons on the risen Christ marking the beautiful services. In the Catholic and Episcopal churches the feast was commemorated by particularly elaborate services, St. Mary's and St. Joseph's Catholic churches and Grace, Holy Cross, Heavenly Rest and St. Stephen's Episcopal churches all having magnificant celebrations. The Crescent Avenue and First Presbyterian, the First Baptist and Trinity Reformed also had beautiful services, as did the other churches as well.

First Presbyterian Church.

Rev. Dr. C. M. Herring occupied the pulpit at both morning and evening services in the First Presbyterian church and preached appropriate sermons on the subjects: "How Are the Dead Raised Up," and "God Speaking Through the Son." The musical programme was arranged by Organist Clifford Braider and the solos were given by members of the choir, Miss S. Etta Raybert, soprano; Miss Edna Nicholl, contralto; Elmer D. Cutting, tenor, and R. Wilson Derby, baritone. The authems and solos were splendidly rendered.

In the afternoon, the Sunday-school gave the usual Easter programme with former Superintendent E. M. Cave in charge. The scholars sang carols, six children from the primary department gave an exercise and there was an address by Rev. Dr. Green, of Cranford.

First Baptist.

The Easter services at the First Baptist church were largely attended and very interesting. The pulpit platform was covered with lilies, potted plants and flowers from the conservatory of C. W. McCutchen. The morning service included a prelude, violin and organ, Miss Florence Wohlfert and Howard Case, and authems. There was also a sermon by the paster, Rev. Dr. J. A. Chambliss, the service concluding with an organ postlude.

In the afternoon the Sunday-school took part in a special service, the programme being as published on Saturday. Howard Case was at the organ and Miss Florence Wohlfert assisted on the violin. There was an offering for the Netherwood Fresh Air Home. George H. Batchelor, superintendent, was in charge of the programme. Besides a short address by Pastor Chambliss, which greatly interested all, P. Newton Drake, secretary of the school, presented his annual report.

This showed that fifteen members of the school had joined the church during the year. The membership of the main school is 285, of the junior department sixty-one, of the primary department sixty-eight, a total of 427. In addition there are 123 members of the Home Department and fifty-three on the cradle roll. The average attendance for the year was 256 and the largest attendance was on rally day, when 323 persons were present. The smallest attendance was eighty-seven. The receipts from the school for the year were $710.08.

First M. E.

Special music, including anthems by the quartette choir, under the direction of Miss Jessie Utter, organist, and an appropriate discourse by the pastor, Rev. A. C. McCrea, comprised the Easter service at the First M. E. church, yesterday morning. The floral display was very attractive, and included lilies, palms and potted plants. In the afternoon the Sunday-school joined in programme of carols and recitations. James R. Joy, superintendent, was in charge. There were recitations by the following:

Madeline Geier, Jubilee Rowley, Blanche McVoy, Manila Symons, Carol Dunavan, Cora Bender, Howard Hile, Ethel Lynn and Katherine Sminck. There were songs by Edward Crone and Miston Greenleaf; an exercise by Katherine Bingaman, Arthur Slade, Helen Carson and Roger Stewart, of the beginners' department and another exercise by Burnett Deane, Jean Dumont, Edna Mosher, Roy Love, Walter Kennedy, Lawrence Healy, Nellie Cregar, Amelia Geier, and a poem by Earl DeNise, Alice Joy, Cora Bender, Violet Sutton and Douglass Stewart. In addition there was a short address by the pastor. At the evening service there were several anthems by the choir and a sermon by the pastor.

Trinity Reformed Church.

The congregation of Trinity Reformed church was interested in three services during the day, the first of which was held at 6:30 in the morning. It was attended by sixty members and was in charge of Frederic H. Andrews, superintendent of Warren chapel Sunday-school. He made an appropriate address and Horace J. Martin rendered an Easter solo.

At the regular morning service the attendance was very large and an elaborate programme was greatly enjoyed. The pastor, Rev. Dr. Cornelius Sobenck, preached an Easter sermon, "The Pledge of Our Resurrection As Proven by the Resurrection of Christ," and in the musical features, solo parts were rendered by Mrs. M. D. Young, of the choir. The music was exceptionally fine and reflected credit on A. L. Titsworth, the choirmaster and organist.

As is the annual custom at this church, the Sunday-school department had charge of the evening service, Superintendent F. M. Smith presiding. An exceptionally interesting programme had been prepared and it was heard by an audience that occupied every available seat, while many late-comers had to stand. Both departments of the Sunday-school, the junior, over which Mrs. L. R. Schofield presides, and the primary, Mrs. J. M. Tier, superintendent, took part. There were numerous recitations, exercises and carols, the following boys and girls taking part: Primary department, Beatrice Tier, Gretchen VanZandt, Anna Lee, Walter Fisher, Etta Ensuder, Lulu Trewin, Beatrice Bodine, Ruth Ensuder, Lily Schleif, Mila Porter, Pearl Drew, Margaret Hope, Adelaide Cole, Mildred Postner, Anna Vail, Helen Leithensser and Madeline Blair; junior department, Annette Wilson, Ralph Martin, Sadie Duffley, Edith Richards, Helen Wooley, Arthur Martin, Rosamond Rogers, Marion Haffner, Madeline Strader, Clara Flemming and Helen Roberts. Miss Cornelia Miller sang "The Palms" very acceptably. Arthur Titsworth presided at the organ and Miss Lillian A. Force at the piano, while additional accompanying work was done by an orchestra composed of R. W. Barnes and Kenneth Stuart, violins; Walter Sampson, flute, and E. D. Young, cornet. The spirited singing by the Sunday-school under the leadership of W. C. Leek was very much enjoyed. During the exercises, Superintendent F. M. Smith gave his annual report for the Sunday-school as follows: Total enrollment, not including the Home Department with 190, is 759, an increase of forty-five over last year; average attendance 335, an increase of sixteen; average attendance for twenty-three Sundays 350; on eight Sundays the attendance was over 400 and the largest of any was 438. The financial report was: Balance from previous year, $149.59; total collections, $550.28; missionary fund, $311.03; making a total from all sources of $1,010.90; disbursements for supplies, $496.15, for missions, $311.03, leaving a balance of $203.72.

The floral decorations about the pulpit were very pretty, being composed of palms, plants and flowers, arranged by Mrs. VanDyke and others.

Swedish Pilgrim Church.

The Easter services at the Swedish Pilgrim church were simple but were attended by a large congregation. Pastor Lindholm gave a sermon on the subject, "Proof of the Resurrection," and Mrs. Lindholm gave a solo. The singing was assisted by a chorus choir and instrumentalists.

Faith Chapel.

The Easter exercises at Faith chapel yesterday afternoon, under the auspices of the Sunday-school, comprised the singing of carols and recitations by the infant class and the members of Miss Grace Adams' class, recitations by Willie Simons and Miss Marie Viebrock, reading of Scripture and an address by the pastor, Rev. J. W. Musson, and a prayer by Frank Stewart. The chapel was decorated with palms and lilies. There was the regular service in the morning and evening with sermons by the pastor.

Crescent Avenue.

Large congregations were evident at both morning and evening services at

HACKMAN RECOVERS STOLEN RIG HIMSELF

THEN ALLEGED THIEF, POLICE SAY, TOOK A BICYCLE.

Michael Kennedy, a hackman, telephoned to police headquarters at 2 o'clock yesterday morning, that David McLernon and Frank Drake had taken a horse and buggy from his stable and driven, with two friends to a saloon on the outskirts of Westfield. After putting the case up to the police, Mr. Kennedy went out to do a little sleuthing on his own account, and drove to Westfield.

In the shed of the saloon conducted by Daniel Galbraith, of this city, he found his rig. Without telling the men who took it, Mr. Kennedy brought the rig back home. He was satisfied to it get again unharmed, and wouldn't make a complaint.

Chief Kisly heard yesterday morning, several hours after the loss and recovery of the rig, that McLernon, when he discovered the carriage was gone from the shed, rode off on a bicycle belonging to George Woodruff, of Westfield, which stood in the shed. In the afternoon, the Chief says, he heard that McLernon was trying to sell a bicycle in Roselle.

McLernon was an employe of Kennedy. He and the men with him are supposed to have been drunk when they drove off with the horse and carriage.

SOCIETY ENJOYS HUNT CLUB CHASE

NEARLY THIRTY JOINED IN THE RUN 'CROSS COUNTRY.

The Watchung Hunt Club held an enjoyable chase on Saturday, starting at 3:30 o'clock from Washingtonville, with nearly thirty people in the saddle. The hounds were thrown in at the farm of A. D. Phillips and the run along the side of the mountain was a pretty one, displaying fine horsemanship as the difficult passes were made. The pace to Warrenville was rather slow owing to the soft condition of the roads. There was a check at Warrenville and the hounds were again thrown in at J. D. Bornmann's farm.

From there the pace was fast over a good country to Dealaman's farm where another check was made. The hounds were thrown in again at the Cooper farm and from that point to the Barrows farm near Pedeflous, the end of the run, the scent was very fast, but none of the riders were left behind.

After the hunt, the club was entertained at a hot breakfast by Mr. and Mrs. W. deLak. Anderson's new home, "The Wilds."

The club expressed its appreciation of the uniform courtesies shown by the farmers in allowing the riders to travel over their farms. Another run will be held on Saturday, starting from the Plainfield Country Club.

Those who joined in the Saturday's chase were George P. Mellick, Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Cruikshank, Dr. B. VanD. Hedges, C. W. Ismay, C. C. Simpson, Mr. and Mrs. deLa M. Anderson, C. S. Bellows, R. A. Shebbeare, Dr. Knott, Mr. and Mrs. George A. Beaton, Miss Leila Cruickshank, Miss Helen Martin, Miss Elsie Martin, Miss Beaton, Miss Gertrude Noe, Miss Helen Cruickshank, Miss May Holly, of this city; Miss Maude E. Palmer, Miss Gwendolyn Charlewood, Captain Barry, Duncan S. Bulkley and C. B. Freeman, of New York; Leon S. Freeman, S. Harold Freeman and E. E. Schmidt, of Morristown; Mr. and Mrs. Karl Millilken, Chauncey Sayre and Richard Fulcher, of East Orange; Harry A. Bourne and George Gaynor, of Cranford.

Engagements Announced.

The engagement of Miss Abbie E. Knight, of Summit avenue, and Joseph P. Gavin, of Columbia avenue, is announced. Announcement is made of the engagement of Miss E. G. Gillerist, of Brooklyn, and William G. Knight, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Knight, of Summit avenue.

Joins Minstrel Troupe.

Kenneth Stuart, of West Front street, well known as a violinist, has joined Luciers' minstrel troupe as leader of the orchestra. He will join the company at Nashua, N. H., next Monday, for a summer run.

—Delicious Norfolk strawberries are being sold by Neuman Brothers at prices below other local dealers. They are the best the firm has received this spring.

LARGE FIELD OF GOLFERS ON PARK LINKS SATURDAY

INFORMAL OPENING OF COUNTRY CLUB COURSE ALSO ATTRACTS MANY.

Continuation of the weekly competitions for the President's and Park Golf Club cups attracted a large field of golfers to the Park Golf Club Saturday afternoon. The weather was ideal for the game and good scores were the rule. The course is still in the best of condition and is constantly improving.

For the President's cup, S. St. John McCutchen won first honors, Rev. J. O. McKelvey second and Walter G. McNaughton third, and for the Park Golf Club Mr. McCutchen and Mr. McKelvey were tie with a gross score of 104, while Rev. Dr. H. K. Carroll won the remaining point. The best scores returned were as follows:

S. St. John McCutchen, 104, 12—92; Rev. J. O. McKelvey, 104, 11—93; Walter G. McNaughton, 123, 27—96; John L. Watson, 127, 30—97; Rev. Dr. H. K. Carroll, 113, 16—98; J. B. Bette, 129, 30—99; Charles W. McCutchen, 118, 18—100.

An informal opening of the Plainfield Country clubhouse on Saturday attracted many members who spent most of the afternoon playing on the course. With a few exceptions the greens are in fine condition and if the present weather continues all of the greens will be put in use when the active season opens on Saturday. The extensive improvements made about the clubhouse during the year will prove a great convenience to the members and their friends, making possible the entertainment of guests on a larger scale. Provisions have also been made for sleeping quarters and this will be appreciated, especially at times when tournaments are in progress. The tennis courts have also been used during the past week and this feature of the club promises to be unusually successful.

Baptisms at Holy Cross.

At the Saturday even service at the Church of the Holy Cross at 4:30 o'clock, there were three baptisms by the rector, Rev. William Montgomery Downey. The first was that of Louise Stewart Browne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Stewart Browne. The sponsors were the grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stewart Browne and Mrs. Pauline Bodine. The second was Harry Percy Henriques, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Percy Henriques, of New York. The sponsors were Mr. Henriques, the father; William Barlow, the grandfather and Mrs. J. R. Truett, of the borough. The third was Ada Elizabeth Davie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rogers Davie. The sponsors were Mrs. A. M. Henry, a relative, and Miss A. Davie, an aunt.

Central Railroad Announcement.

The New Jersey Central announces that the service on the Sandy Hook route will be resumed on May 1, when the new pier, 81, North river, foot of West Forty-second street, will be put in commission. After May 14 the service will be extended for the summer months and about September 10 it will be reduced. Should it be necessary to withdraw the boats from any cause beyond the control of the company, arrangements will be made to carry passengers by the All Rail Route.

Hired Steam Roller.

Contractor Meeker has engaged the steam roller from the city to finish up the streets on his old contract. The streets gone over so far are Woodland avenue, South avenue and Rock avenue, Albert street, Dunellen avenue and West Seventh street, East Seventh street, East Third street, North avenue, Prospect avenue, Berckman street. Mr. Meeker is ready to start finishing three streets on the new contract, Norwood avenue, Denmark road and Berkeley avenue.

Discharged From Hospital.

William Davison, the young Philadelphian, who recently had his arm amputated at the hospital as the result of an accident on the railroad, and Natha Buentone, the Italian, who was injured recently at the Pond Machine Tool Works, were discharged from the hospital yesterday, cured.

Easter at Garwood.

An Easter service was held at the Garwood Presbyterian chapel last night, the Sunday-school presenting a programme of carols, recitations and addresses by Rev. Edward Love, of this city, and Mr. Krausse, of Cranford. Joseph D. Moon, of the borough, had charge of the music.

DAABSTERS DEFEAT COUNTY SEAT TEAM

Plainfield Bats Out a Victory in Contest With the Elizabeth Stars.

IT WAS TEN TO FOUR

Game on Crescent Oval Witnessed by 1,000 Fans—Linderman Put the Lid On—Other Games in the Vicinity.

After twinkling brightly for five innings at the Plainfield Baseball Association field Saturday afternoon, those changing Stars of Elizabeth faded away to a thin, pale glimmer very suddenly. Thereafter the darkness on the Elizabeth bench increased so rapidly that Frank Burke lit a bicycle lantern to keep track of his players as they slid down the toboggan. They hit the bottom fractionally clutching the attenuated end of 10 to 4. About 1,000 fanatics enjoyed the disaster.

Bingles and bangles contributed jointly to the jolt that jounced the agile combination of Sabbath-breakers into the jumping-off place on the score board. The Plainfield leather-pushers got at Mr. Long with some proper biffs and dumped the ball in inaccessible places when such proceedings were strictly in order for the good of the Plainfield service. Just about that stage little Stars in the infield flickered fitfully and went out, and the bewildered athletes groped haltingly for the ball in the darkness, while the enemy skipped lightly from bag to bag, occassionally and anon denting the gutta percha. Those doused glims made a total of five errors, all rank and all costly.

None of the tallies was made by the sweat of the athletes' bats. Every count was nailed up at the expense of somebody's fielding average. Long, who is the star boxman for the New Londons when he tears holes in his own proper atmosphere, had the Daabsters punching at nothing, chopping punky little swipes, or lifting high ones, until the sixth. Only seven biffs were wrenched from his delivery. Beisel had his first session in the box, and did the proper thing. The Stars got four runs in six innings, but errors were responsible for all the tallies. Two scratch hits and a clean single were the sum total of the damage done to his delivery in that period. In the seventh Daab took the junior twirler out and put Linderman in, but that was simply managerial canniness. Plainfield gouged the lead out of Elizabeth's grip in the sixth, and Herr Daab, who is not noted for taking any unnecessary chances, planted "Lindey" on the lid. He nailed it down; only one hit leaked out.

Up to that sixth inning, which is getting a lot of notoriety this trip, the Stars were all there, and doing about as well as Nurse Burke expected. Plainfield took her chance at the bat with the score 4 to 1 against her. Connelly, first up, scratched his way to first. Duke misbandled Cregan's dirt cutter, and both of them loped a step nearer home on Kiernan's walk down the alley. Leonard banged a single into right field, and Connolly and Cregan beat the ball to the plate. Driscoll plunked one at Duke, and the shortstop gentleman, to be sure rather than sorry, nailed him at first. In the meanwhile Kiernan, from third, and Leonard from second, rippled in. Lamar fanned, and Beisel was nailed, Long to Stallings.

In the next session Oldring singled after Cosgrove was nailed at first, went to second on a pass and scored on Connelly's single; Connelly reached second. Cregan hot an easy one to centerfield. Kiernan, at first, made a bold bluff at trying for second, and Long threw to kill the audacious athlete. Connolly, from a purloined station at third, jumped for home. Stallings threw the ball three miles over Poole's head, and Kiernan followed his playmate in. Leonard died early, Duke to Stallings.

The thing was becoming monotonous, but habit is hard to break and the home athletes counted two more in the next inning on a wierd toss by Flynn. It was hard on the latter because the fling followed a red hot stop, and should have been a double. The counts came with two out; Linderman hit safe, and Cosgrove banged the trouble-maker at Flynn immediately thereafter.

P. H. S., 16; Newark, 2.

Laden with the sting of defeat, the Newark Academy nine returned home with the burden of a severe reverse at the hands of the Plainfield High School boys Saturday. The score was 16 to 2. Play was listless on the part of Newark after the second inning. The locals played the fastest game so far this season. Burt, although wild at times, steadied down with men on base. The entire Plainfield High School batted heavy. Craig, Freeman and Conway doing especially good, the latter getting two two baggers and a three bagger.

The Newark boys secured but three hits off Burt, all being well scattered. Lineup:

"RED" WALLER STRIKES OUT ELEVEN MEN.

The Westfield Baseball Association opened the season at Westfield on Saturday afternoon, minus fuss and feathers, with the Seventh Regiment team, and as was to be expected, won, the score being 9 to 0. The reorganized aggregation that will hold forth at Recreation was well received. Waller and Farmer worked well as a battery, the twirler allowing but three hits, and Farmer distinguished himself by his throwing to bases and at the bat. The rest of the team showed up well. The attendance was quite large.

POINTS FOR THE BUYERS

J. A. Koob, the butcher at Watchung avenue and Second street, carries the best stock of fresh and salt meats and fish.

Dr. E. B. Stowe, of the Babcock building, treats corns, ingrowing toenails and bunions according to the best known method.

Users of wines and liquors enjoy their drinking more when they partake of L. Hoester's goods. And their health remains undisturbed.

This is Easter week—it is not untimely to make that forgotten gift of Easter candy, in appropriate box. H. Mehrtens, East Front street.

V. W. Nash, the coal dealer, remembered his friends last week with a handsome Easter card, calling attention to his superior grade of coal.

George F. Brown, of Somerset street, deals exclusively in the best real estate and insurance. Consult him when you need anything in his line.

E. B. Maynard, the North avenue barber, conducts his shops on strictly sanitary lines. Bear this in mind when you need a hair cut, shave or shampoo.

You will never know the superior quality of the Nickle Yara cigar until you try one. They are made and sold only by M. C. Dobbins, the Park avenue dealer.

Summer is fast approaching and those electric fans will have to be placed. Allen Laing, the North avenue electrician, makes a specialty of this class of work.

The Hotel Waldorf on East Front street has the very best of accommodations for both transient and permanent guests. It is one of the best equipped hostelries in the State.

Why have bother in getting the proper person to do the family wash? The Sanitary Washing Company makes a specialty of family wash and does it at less expense. Drop them a postal.

The City National Bank has exceptionally well arranged safety boxes and deposit vaults for the reception of valuables. The rentals can be made by the year if wanted. The savings department of this bank invites your account.

The Easter suit was shown yesterday, and now it is time to think of other things. How about a watch? If you are without one, L. Moraller & Son, of Park avenue, are showing a large line. They guarantee them in every particular.

Lighter coats and skirts, as befit the change of season, are to be found in a profusion of variety at the Boston Cloak & Fur store, West Front street. A word to the canny buyer: Furs may be had at this time, for next fall and winter, at prices a shade better than you could have had them when the rush was on.

Expert dental work—no matter what the task you set—will be secured at the offices of Dr. D. G. Atwood, West Front street. It is folly to pay attention to the catchpenny calls of "co-operative" and "incorporated" dentists. Trust your teeth to no one not undivided in devotion to science and reputation.

Furniture goes by season pretty much as everything else does. Thoughts now turn to the summer furnishings — wicker chairs, rattan couches and rockers, for indoors, plain wooden or willow chairs, for the porch or summer garden. Powlison & Jones, East Front street, have the selection you want.

The Union Senatorship.

The Jersey City Journal's cock-sure nomination of Assemblyman Randolph Perkins as the coming Senator from Union county is not sustained by the Union county press. It amuses the politicians of the county, according to the Elizabeth Journal, while the Plainfield Press trots out Charles J. Fisk, of that city, as the slated successor to Senator Cross. Perhaps the idea of the political leaders is to further test Mr. Perkins in the Assembly, in which decision they would make no mistake, nor likely have cause for regret, as the new member from Union in his brief term showed qualities most desirable in a legislator. If returned to the House next winter he would doubtless come to the front as one of its most influential members. — Camden Post-Telegram.

George Dafford and family, of West Front street, have been visiting relatives at German Valley.

Mrs. S. S. Swackhamer and family, of Summit avenue, have returned from a visit with relatives at Whitehouse.

George Cook, of East Front street, who recently sprained his ankle, is now able to attend to business again.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Maynard, of North avenue, who were delegates to the A. M. E. conference held at Atlantic City, have returned home.

B. J. Smith, of New York, has rented Mrs. Albert Runyon's house on Mountain avenue and May 1 will take up his residence in the borough.

THE NINE LIVES OF A STORE

"THE ONLY ONE OF A CAT'S NINE LIVES WHICH IT CANNOT AFFORD TO LOSE IS THE NINTH."

1. STORE LOCATION: Important but not vital. Most any poor location may be turned into good one.
2. FIXTURES: Should be "right," but particular kinds are not indispensable.
3. STOCK: Must be up to-date; must have intrinsic worth, aptness to human needs.
4. SALESMANSHIP: Clerks should glow with good nature and know people as well as goods.
5. DELIVERY SYSTEM: Should make the store "near-by" to every home in the city.
6. DIRECTION: One head and many "helping heads," all in perfect accord.
7. RIGHT BUYING: Stock-purchases when prices are "Bearish," and always with local demands in mind.
8. RIGHT-SELLING: Fair profits on most things—losses on some when occasion demands.
9. PUBLICITY: The "keystone of the arch." If not ample, if not intelligent, if not continuous—the store fails.

A Store must be as careful of its ninth life as a cat The other eight lives should not be imperiled, nor impaired; but the Ninth Life should carry the heaviest insurance.

FAMOUS ACTOR DEAD

Joseph Jefferson Passes Away Quietly at Palm Beach.

HAD BEEN UNCONSCIOUS FOR A DAY

Career on the Stage Began In Childhood and Lasted Until Nearly the End of His Seventy-six Years of Life.

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla., April 24.—Joseph Jefferson died at 6:15 last night after being unconscious all day. At his bedside when he died were his wife and two of his sons, Charles B. and Frank Jefferson; Mrs. Nellie Symons, his nurse; Miss Mabel Bingham, Dr. R. B. Potter and his faithful old servant, Carl Kettler.

The remains will leave Palm Beach tonight on a special train for Buzzards Bay, Mass., accompanied by all the members of the family who are here.

The end was not a surprise to his family. Ever since his last sinking spell, which came after a rally on Thursday morning and which was followed by an apparent improvement until Friday, the family has been waiting for the end. Mr. Jefferson's condition Saturday night grew steadily worse, and the family, who had retired, were summoned from their beds, and Dr. Potter was called. The patient's condition continued to grow worse all through the day, and the brief bulletins from the bedside contained no words of encouragement.

The sickness of Mr. Jefferson which ended in his death was contracted, it is believed, while on a recent visit to his son, Charles B. Jefferson, at Hope Sound, a few miles above Palm Beach, where he went to meet his friend, former President Cleveland. It is believed that from a slight indiscretion in his eating there he suffered an attack of indigestion. Since his return to his home this condition grew steadily worse, with slight rallies, until the end.

Joseph Jefferson was born in Philadelphia Feb. 20, 1829, and was looked upon as the dean of the dramatic profession in this country. He first appeared on the stage as a child and during his career has played in a number of foreign countries. His great reputation was made in "Rip Van Winkle," which he played in almost every city in the United States. Of late years he has played but a few weeks of each season, and in almost every one of these short seasons he confined himself to the one character of Rip Van Winkle.

In his retirement he was an enthusiastic angler and derived much pleasure from this sport at his home in Buzzards Bay, Mass. Besides being an actor he was a painter of more than passing ability, and several of his paintings have attracted considerable attention.

Mourning at Buzzards Bay.

BUZZARDS BAY, Mass., April 24.—The progress of Joseph Jefferson's last illness was followed anxiously in this his Cape Cod home, and the announcement of his death was received with genuine sorrow by the townspeople, to whom he had become a familiar figure during fifteen years of summer residence here. The usual spring preparations at the Jefferson summer cottage, at the head of Buttermilk bay, have been in progress for some weeks, it being Mr. Jefferson's custom to take up his residence here about the middle of May. His summer neighbors were former President Grover Cleveland, with whom he enjoyed many fishing excursions down Buzzards bay and along the brooks of Bourne and Sandwich, and General Charles H. Taylor of Boston. His principal pastime, however, was painting. He took deep interest in the affairs of the town. It is understood that interment will be made here.

Son's Boston Engagement Canceled.

BOSTON, April 24.—The news of the death of Joseph Jefferson came as a shock to his son, Thomas Jefferson, who was to have opened an engagement here tonight in the title part of "Rip Van Winkle," the play made famous by his distinguished father. Recent reports from the bedside had encouraged the son to hope for ultimate recovery. The engagement of "Rip Van Winkle" was immediately canceled, and the Boston theater, where Mr. Jefferson was to have appeared, will be dark this week. Thomas Jefferson received many telegrams of sympathy and expressions of condolence from theatrical people in the city.

Dry In St. Louis and Kansas City.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., April 24.—With fewer than half a dozen exceptions saloons in Kansas City, Mo., and Kansas City, Kan., and wine gardens in the suburbs were closed again yesterday. There were a few arrests for direct violations of the Sunday closing law. St. Louis reports that all saloons were closed all day.

Fatal Cave-in at Coal Mine.

PITTSBURG, April 23.—In a cave-in at a coal mine on Herron hill, this city, Thomas Fitzgerald, aged fourteen years, was killed and two men were fatally injured. Recent heavy rains are responsible for the cave-in.

Chile and Peru May Clash.

WASHINGTON, April 24.—The state department has received advices to the effect that there is great danger of a rupture between Chile and Peru growing out of the Tacna-Arica territorial dispute.

Calve and Held at a Bullfight.

SAN SEBASTIAN, Spain, April 24.—Mme. Calve and Anna Held attended a bullfight here. Miss Held fainted at the sight of horses being killed.

SEA FIGHT AWAITED

Future of War and Fate of Empire at Stake.

ROJESTVENSKY LEAVES KAMRANH BAY

Japanese Fleet Expected to Assemble South of Formosa, and Naval Battle Is Likely Near That Point. Liberals See Hope In Defeat.

ST. PETERSBURG, April 24.—Not only the future of the war in the far east, but the fate of the whole programme of internal reform to which Emperor Nicholas stands committed appears to await the issue of the approaching sea battle between Rojestvensky and Togo. The government undoubtedly would be greatly strengthened, at least for the moment, by a victory decisive enough to change the war situation. The Liberals are impatient at the delay and suspicious of every move of the government. They are convinced that if victory comes the bureaucracy, to which the realization of reforms has been consigned by the emperor, will be able, despite the clamor throughout the country, to keep the execution of these reforms in their own hands, which of course in their opinion would mean their eventual dissipation in a labyrinth of endless commissions. Moreover, they believe that the emperor might again be persuaded to listen to the necessity of the old style of repression of the present agitation.

Practically the interior administration is being conducted through a police regime. Already there are everywhere evidences of a return to Von Plehve methods. Domiciliary visits and arrests by scores and hundreds are reported in every part of the empire, and meetings of all classes of the people are forbidden and broken up by the police under the direction of the local governors. Even zemstvo meetings at Vladimir, Elizabethpol, Orel, Tiflis and Livadia have been closed.

Should Rojestvensky be defeated the Liberals believe that the bureaucracy would capitulate and that peace and a constitution would come.

In the meantime the Easter holidays and May day are awaited with extreme anxiety both by the authorities and the public. The Social Democrats and revolutionaries have planned demonstrations on an extensive scale, and undoubtedly many of them are armed with revolvers and bombs, which have been smuggled into the country to fight the police and troops in case they should attempt to interfere with the demonstrations. They seem to have plenty of funds, furnished both from abroad and by wealthy sympathizers in Russia. The wildest stories of plans for blowing up the members of the imperial family, ministers and palaces and of pillage and murder of the nobility and the wealthy are current, especially in aristocratic drawing rooms, and many society people, thoroughly frightened, have already made preparations to go abroad.

Large re-enforcements of troops, and especially of Cossacks, have been brought to St. Petersburg. Arrests and searches of the lodgings of suspects continue. But even General Trepoff, although he is taking every measure of precaution, does not seem to know exactly what to expect. That he anticipates trouble and bloodshed is apparent from the fact that he has notified all manufacturers to guard against incendiarism and through house porters has warned every family that women and children must remain off the streets on May day.

Much relief is expressed by the Russian press with M. Delcasse's decision to remain at the head of the French foreign ministry, as he is regarded here as the firm friend of the Franco-Russian alliance, whose retirement now would be considered a misfortune.

REJOICING AT TOKYO.

Expulsion of Russian Fleet From Kamranh Bay the Cause.

TOKYO, April 24.—The announcement that in response to Japan's representations France has promised the expulsion of the Russian second Pacific squadron from Kamranh bay and affirmed her determination to maintain neutrality is received here with pleasure and has relieved the tension of popular feeling, although it is believed that if Rojestvensky entered Kamranh bay for the purpose of finally preparing for a dash north the purpose was accomplished before he was ordered to leave.

There is also a suspicion that Rojestvensky may simply make a technical removal from French territorial waters by going outside the three mile limit; hence the incident will remain unclosed until the Russians depart from Indo-Chinese waters.

The foreign office in a statement issued says:

"The French government upon receipt of the report that the Baltic squadron had arrived at Kamranh bay instructed the governor general of Indo-China to strictly enforce the rules of French neutrality. Subsequently the Japanese government lodged a protest with France, and the French government issued new special instructions to the governor general for transmittal to the Russians, ordering them to leave French territorial waters as soon as possible. The governor general telegraphed, replying that he had taken the necessary measures according to instructions. The French government simultaneously addressed the Russian government, asking that the admiral be instructed to leave French territorial waters. The Russian government replied that it had already sent such instructions. The French gave assurances that they had taken and would take in the future if necessary, measures to see that neutrality is rigorously respected."

EXCITEMENT AT MANILA.

Japanese Squadron's Near Approach Announced.

LONDON, April 24.—A dispatch from Manila says:

"Vice Admiral Togo's main fleet will assemble south of Formosa on April 25.

"The Japanese consul here has received a long cipher message concerning Kamimura's squadron. The consul says the ships will not enter Manila harbor, but will cruise outside.

"There is great official activity here. The American admiral, the Japanese consul and the general in command have held conferences. The admiral will today confer with Governor General Wright."

A dispatch from Saigon, French Cochin China says the complete Russian fleet left Kamranh bay on April 22 at midday. At night heavy cannonading was heard out at sea. It is supposed the Russian fleet was engaged with a portion of the Japanese squadron.

Before the departure of the squadron Vice Admiral Rojestvensky visited Admiral Jonquieres.

No Russian officer or sailor landed from the fleet in Kamranh bay. They had expected Nebogatoff's detachment of the squadron to arrive at any moment.

The natives were highly pleased with the great rise in the price of provisions owing to the Russians' visit.

Injustice Claimed Toward Russia.

PARIS, April 24.—Some of the newspapers of Paris, commenting upon the expulsion of the Russian second Pacific squadron from French territorial waters in Indo-China, hold that France in seeking to render exact justice to Japan has been unjust to Russia. The Echo de Paris, which is strongly pro-Russian, says that France's insistance upon Rojestvensky's leaving Kamranh bay will have the effect of making him an easy prey to Togo, as the Russian ships, being driven from all points without being able to take on coal, must put to sea with half filled bunkers, being thus crippled at the moment of meeting the enemy. "And this is neutrality," scornfully observes the Echo de Paris.

Russian and French Admirals Meet.

PARIS, April 24.—The minister of colonies officially confirms the report of the departure of the Russian squadron from Kamranh bay. The Russian admiral previous to his departure called on Admiral Jonquieres. The meeting of the two admirals was most cordial. A dispatch from Saigon to the Temps reports that the Russian fleet outside of Kamranh bay opened a heavy cannonading, probably upon Japanese scouts. A private dispatch from Saigon states that Vice Admiral Rojestvensky is suffering from dysentery, but otherwise the officers and men of the fleet are in the best of health.

FORTUNE FOR MRS. GRANT.

Wife of General's Son Profits by Old Friend's Wisdom.

DENVER, April 24.—A check for $250,000 has been sent to Mrs. Fannie Chaffee Grant of San Diego, Cal., wife of Ulysses S. Grant, Jr. This represents an investment made in a large office building here which would have been a total loss but for the active efforts of David H. Moffat, long a partner of Mrs. Grant's father.

Mrs. Grant inherited nearly $1,000,000 from her father, but poor management and the panic of 1893 would have wiped it out and left her penniless if Mr. Moffat had not intervened and after getting control of the property held it and made it valuable.

Mrs. Grant owns other property here, and Mr. Moffat took it all into his own hands when he saw the crash coming. He has so managed that Mrs. Grant has had a comfortable income.

A Quiet Sunday In Camp.

GLENWOOD SPRINGS, Colo., April 24.—President Roosevelt's hunting party, in camp fifteen miles northwest of Newcastle, spent a quiet Sunday. The party had been invited to attend church services at Newcastle, but it was decided that hunting togs would be inharmonious with Easter gowns. After a week in the saddle the sportsmen welcomed the chance to rest. Bear tracks have been sighted in several directions from the present camp, and it is believed by the party that at least one more bear will be bagged before another move of camp is made.

Body of Murdered Woman Found.

MOUNT VERNON, O., April 24.—The body of Miss Miranda Bricker, aged fifty-five years, who had been criminally assaulted and strangled to death, was found in the morning in the rear of the Fairchild home, where she had been employed as housemaid. There were evidences of a terrible struggle on the part of the woman, who had been dragged 500 feet from the place where she was first attacked. Bloodhounds have been sent for to trail the murderer if possible.

Unknown Schooner Sunk.

LONDON, April 24. — The French steamer Racine ran down an unknown schooner in Bristol channel Saturday night. The schooner was cut in two and sank immediately without a trace as to her identity. It is supposed the crew was all drowned.

Austrian Musician Killed.

VIENNA, April 24.—Carl Konizak, a prominent Austrian musician and who was the leader of the Austrian band at the St. Louis exposition last year, was accidentally killed in trying to board a railway train at Baden, near Vienna.

BIG RAILWAY DEAL

Hollins-Zimmerman Syndicate Plans Giant Merger.

A NEW TRANSPORTATION FACTOR.

Company Controlling Great Central Lines Is Gradually Reaching Out, Says Toledo Times—Will Rank With Vanderbilt System.

TOLEDO, O., April 24.—The Times says: "The Hollins-Zimmerman syndicate, in control of the Great Central lines, is gradually acquiring by purchase or lease new lines of railway, and when their gigantic scheme of mergers is completed they will dominate a system which will be one of the most important in the world. It is possible that some of the deals for purchase now under negotiations will fail, notably that of the Louisville and Nashville railway, but if the deal for outright purchase fails a traffic deal providing for through freight and passenger trains between important cities will be concluded. Thus the Great Central people will build up a community of interests system which will take rank with the Harriman, the Hill and the Vanderbilt communities as one of the chief factors in transportation."

The purchase of the Ann Arbor and Detroit Southern by interests closely allied to the Great Central and the merger of these two properties has been related. One of the members of the Hollins-Zimmerman syndicate recently informed a Pere Marquette man "that the Erie railway will eventually be taken over, as Mr. Morgan desires it. We are now figuring on buying the Louisville and Nashville railway, and if we do not buy it outright it will become a member of the group by strong traffic deals."

Some time ago, when the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton railway was rumored sold, President Zimmerman was quoted as saying: "No, the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton has not been sold. We are buying railroads, not selling them." The purchases recently made indicate that Mr. Zimmerman's statement was of more significance than impressed people at the time.

Banker H. B. Hollins was recently in the south, and it is announced on good authority that his mission was to inquire into Louisville and Nashville railway matters. Mr. Hollins is quoted as saying that if the Louisville and Nashville purchase was not concluded traffic deals and through train arrangements would in effect make it a part of the Great Central system.

This Great Central system is being built up by the purchase and merger of old independent lines and by lease of the same.

When the general scheme is worked out the Great Central system will extend from Lake Superior to the gulf of Mexico and from St. Louis to the Atlantic seaboard.

The first step scheduled after the Ann Arbor-Detroit Southern merger is completed will be the closing of the Erie railway deal. The Louisville and Nashville negotiations will then be closed, and the new community of interests will have established itself. Just how the railways in the new group will be operated is unknown. It is said the Louisville and Nashville will be operated separately, just as the Missouri Pacific and the Wabash, both Gould roads, are operated. The Erie railway is also to be operated separately, as is the Ann Arbor-Detroit Southern combination.

No Bail For Mrs. Chadwick.

CLEVELAND, O., April 24.—Bail was not offered for the release of Mrs. Cassie L. Chadwick pending the hearing of her application to the circuit court of appeals, as previously announced would be done. At the conclusion of a conference between former Judge Wing and Mrs. Chadwick the latter stated that it had been decided not to offer bail until after the final hearing of the bankruptcy proceedings against her. This hearing will take place before Referee Remington on May 2.

A "Get-rich-quick" Pair Pinched.

CLEVELAND, O., April 24.—John F. Sullington and wife, accused of operating a "get-rich-quick" concern in Grand Rapids, Mich., have been arrested here. It is alleged that they conducted the United States Detective company in Grand Rapids and victimized many persons, obtaining, it is said, thousands of dollars illegally. They left Grand Rapids, and officers have been following them for a week or more through Michigan, Wisconsin and Ohio.

Easter at the Vatican.

ROME, April 24.—Pope Pius X received many Easter greetings and celebrated mass in the hall of the consistory in the presence of 235 persons, to whom his holiness gave communion. The Americans who were admitted were Martin Maloney and daughter Helen of Philadelphia, Mr. and Mrs. Shriper and family of Baltimore and Mr. and Mrs. Sheehan of New York.

Fire Swept Forest and Field.

HYANNIS, Mass., April 24.—More than 500 acres of forest, meadow and pasture land were burned over by a fire that broke out in the brush near the West Barnstable road, two miles west of this village. No buildings were destroyed, although at one time many were threatened.

Bryan Speaks In Buffalo.

BUFFALO, N. Y., April 24.—William J. Bryan addressed a gathering of men at the Young Men's Christian association on the "Prince of Peace." His lecture was appropriate to Easter day. In the evening Mr. Bryan departed for Wilkesbarre.

PROPOSALS FOR COAL.

Pursuant to a resolution adopted by the Board of Education of the City of Plainfield, N. J., at a meeting held April 3, 1905, notice is hereby given that the Board of Education will meet on Monday evening, April 24, 1905, at 7:45, at the Board room in the Stillman School, corner West Fifth street and Arlington avenue, in the City of Plainfield, at which time and place said Board of Education will receive sealed proposals for furnishing five hundred tons, (more or less), of the best coal, such as Upper Lehigh, Honeybrook, Nottingham, Highland, or Jeddo Coal, in the different sizes, including lump for heating. The quantity required of each size can be obtained from the clerk of the Board, office of the Board of Education. Parties bidding will be required to specify the shippers of the coal in their bids. All coal to be thoroughly screened over a sieve suitable to free the coal of all dust and small particles of coal, and to be acceptable to the Committee on Fuel, or their representative, and placed in the coal bins within the public school buildings without any extra charge for handling or trimming the coal in the bins, and to be delivered at such time as the Board may direct. Bids to specify whether short or long tons. Payment for all coal contracted for to be made after July 1, 1905. All proposals to be endorsed "Proposals for Coal," and addressed to the Committee on Fuel and left at the office of the Board of Education, at or before the hour mentioned for such meeting to be held.

Upon receipt of the bids or proposals, the Board will immediately proceed to unseal the same and publicly announce the contents in the presence of the parties bidding, or their agents, provided such parties or their agents choose to be then and there present, and also to make proper record of the prices and terms upon the minutes of the Board.

The Board reserves the right to reject any or all bids.

For the Committee on Fuel,
F. B. CLARK, Clerk of the Board.

Corporation Notice.

Notice is hereby given that the following Ordinance has been introduced before the Common Council, read the second time and ordered engrossed preparatory to its third reading, and that it is the intention of the Council to adopt the same.

J. T. MACMURRAY, City Clerk.
Plainfield, N. J., April 14, 1905.

AN ORDINANCE

for the Assessment of Taxes for the Year 1905.

The Inhabitants of the City of Plainfield, by their Common Council, do enact as follows:

Section 1. That pursuant to the statutes and ordinances and resolutions in such cases made and provided, there shall be assessed and raised by tax for the year nineteen hundred and five, for the general purposes of said City, exclusive of School, Library, Poor, Fire and State and County taxes, the sum of Forty-Nine Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($49,500), (This sum includes the sum of Twenty-Nine Thousand Two Hundred Dollars ($29,200), to be raised by general tax for street improvements); for the expense for said year for lighting the public streets and places in said City, as ascertained and determined by resolution of the Common Council and certified to the Assessors of said City, the sum of Thirteen Thousand Eight Hundred Dollars ($13,800); for the principal of such sewer bonds (except obligations payable out of assessments and temporary obligations) as may mature during the ensuing fiscal year, under and by virtue of the Act of the Legislature, entitled "An Act to provide for drainage and sewerage in cities in this State," approved April 7, 1890, and the several amendments thereof and supplements thereto, and proceedings had and taken thereunder in said City, and principal of sewer note maturing during said year under Chapter 35, P. L. 1899, being a supplement to said Act, the sum of Four Thousand Dollars ($4,000); for interest on the obligations of the City issued under said last mentioned Acts, the sum of Six Thousand Four Hundred Dollars ($6,400); for the support of the City Poor, the sum of Six Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($6,500), (included in the last named sum is the sum of One Thousand Dollars for the purpose of supporting and maintaining such indigent patients as may be sent to Muhlenberg Hospital by order of the City Physician, Overseer of the Poor, or other proper authority of the City, pursuant to Chapter LXXVI, P. L. 1874, payable December 31, 1905, pursuant to the contract between said Muhlenberg Hospital and the City); for the maintenance of the Public Library and Reading Room, the sum of Four Thousand Seven Hundred Dollars ($4,700); for the maintenance of a Fire Department, together with the control and government of said City, the sum of Twenty-Five Thousand Dollars ($25,000); for interest on School Bonds authorized under City Ordinance, to fall due during the said year, the sum of Thirty-Seven Hundred Dollars ($3,700); for principal falling due May 2nd, 1905, of bond issued for purchase of land for garbage disposal purposes under Chapter XL of the laws of 1895 and supplement thereto, Seven Hundred Dollars ($700); and in addition to the foregoing, a license fee of Two Dollars ($2) to be paid by the owner of every dog within the City of Plainfield.

EASTER IN THE CHURCHES

the Crescent Avenue church and the musical programme was one of the best in years. Rev. Dr. John Sheridan Zelie occupied the pulpit each time and his sermons were inspiring. William P. Dunn presided at the organ and the solo parts were taken by Miss Grace J. Davis, soprano; Miss Grace J. Carrell, contralto; Rhys Thomas, tenor and Herman Greiners, bass. These compose the regular choir and they were assisted by a chorus of Plainfield and New York singers. The floral decorations were composed of lilies, palms and plants grouped before the pulpit and platform.

In the afternoon, the church was the scene of the annual Sunday school rally, the home department and those of Hope, Warren and Bethel chapels taking part. Rev. Dr. Zelie was in charge and assisting in the exercises were Rev. J. O. McKelvey, Rev. F. D. Tilden and Rev. L. R. Howard and Superintendents Henry Cochran, Henry C. Squires, A. W. Duxbury and F. H. Andrews. Dr. Zelie made an address and the scholars sang carols, with piano and organ accompaniment.

Park Avenue Baptist.

The Easter programme at the Park Avenue Baptist church was rendered as published on Saturday, there being several anthems by the chorus choir under the leadership of Robert Lowry. Mrs. Adelbert vonBrakle, presided at the organ. The pastor, Rev. A. E. Finn, preached sermons appropriate to the occasion, morning and evening.

At the Sunday-school session in the afternoon resolutions of regret at the accident, and thankfulness for his recovery, were adopted by the school concerning the recent accident to Joseph M. Hawkins, and George E. Hall took them in person to Mr. Hawkins who is at the hospital.

Last night the Sunday-school presented a special programme consisting of seven carols, an exercise by eighteen Juniors, recitations by Miss Arline Brown, Miss Anna Clark and Miss Florence Smalley sang a solo, the school joining in the chorus. Miss Cora Brokaw also gave a recitation.

The Easter offering for the floating indebtedness was received and to the gratification of all it amounted to $410. The balance to make up $500 will be received soon.

Other recitations were given by Miss Mary Hale, Miss Edith Lowry, Miss Louise Harral and Miss May Kelley. The pianist was Miss Mary Clark. The primary exercises were in charge of Miss Mimira Runyon, superintendent, assisted by Miss Charlotte Tennant. The Easter committee comprised Miss Cora Brokaw, Miss Mimira Runyon, Mrs. W. S. Lowry, Miss Florence G. Hawkins, Miss Nellie Mine, Miss May Clark, G. E. Hall and Aaron D. Thompson, Jr.

St. Joseph's R. C. Church.

With a chorus of forty voices, Stehle's prize mass was sung at the full high celebration in St. Joseph's church yesterday morning. A processional and recessional were features of the musical programme. The service at 10:30 o'clock was the principal one of the day. A low celebration was held at 8:30 o'clock. Mrs. A. M. LaPorte was at the organ and James Baily directed the singing. A Passionist father from the Hoboken retreat was the celebrant; Rev. Father Tyrrell, and Rev. Father Miller, rector of the church, assisted Congregational Church.

The musical progamme at the morning service of the Congregational church included the following anthems: "He is Risen," Marno; "Hosanna," Grainer; "I Am He That Liveth," King; "Resurrection," Shelley. The quartette choir comprised Miss Cornelia Miller, soprano; Miss Jessie Haynes, contralto; J. H. Sanford, tenor, and F. S. Cutter, bass. Mrs. B. S. Barnes was at the organ. Rev. C. L. Goodrich preached.

The Sunday-school held exercises in the afternoon. The children sang Easter carols; Helena Curtis, of the primary department recited; Harold Nemer, a Williams College student, gave a reading; E. C. Martin sang a baritone solo; and Rev. Mr. Goodrich delivered a talk on the Resurrection.

St. Mary's R. C. Church.

Congregations of unusual size filled St. Mary's church at the masses yesterday morning. The full high celebration was a musical feast of striking beauty. Miss Anna Daley, soprano; Miss Elizabeth Day, alto; Albert Matthews, tenor, and Joseph O'Keefe, bass, rendered the quartette and solo parts with verve and finish. Miss Mary Smith directed the music rom her place at the organ. Father Bogan, rector, delivered his first long sermon, on the resurrection.

St. Stephen's P. E. Church.

Three striking musical services marked the day's observance at St. Stephen's P. E. church. The solo parts in the anthems were taken by Miss Emily Lacey, soprano; Miss Christina Sorensen, contralto; and Alfred Lacey, bass. Rev. A. S. Peck, the rector, preached at all the services, on Easter topics. Rev. Robert Larney, rector and canon of Clonfert Cathedral, Galway County, Ireland, was the celebrant at the full high communion service in the morning.

Mt. Zion A. M. E. Church.

Easter exercises were held at the Mt. Zion A. M. E. church, yesterday at the morning, afternoon and evening services. Each child in the Sunday-school received a present. Rev. H. C. Ashley, pastor, was in charge, M. B. Maynard, superintendent of the school, assisted and Alfred White presided at the organ.

Grace P. E. Church.

Traditional beauty marked the music at Grace P. E. church yesterday. As in other years, the morning, carol, and evening service were rich in choral effects. The solo work was divided between William Tallamy, tener, and Harold Kemp, bass. Norman Finch and nine of the young women sang the solo parts in the Sunday-school service. Mrs. W. A. Freeman was at the organ. Rev. E. V. Stevenson, the rector, preached.

Holy Cross Church.

Easter music made the services at Holy Cross church notable to an unusual degree. Miss Bertha VanNuis Willis did the principal solo work. She sang the evening offertory. J. Edmund Skiff, organist and choirmaster, was at the organ.

Church of the Heavenly Rest.

Two elaborate musical services were held at the Church of the Heavenly Rest, yesterday. G. T. Dunham, choirmaster and organist, directed the singing. Congregations of unusual size attended both services.

Christian Church.

The only service at the Christian church, on Grove street, yesterday, was held in the afternoon, when the pastor, Rev. Phil. Parsons, preached an Easter sermon from the text "I Am the Resurrection and the Life." The music was appropriate to the day.

Marconnier Chapel.

At the regular service in Marconnier chapel the members sang carols and Rev. Cornelius Schenck, Ph. D., gave an address The singing was in charge of Horace J. Martin and Miss Hazel Martin acted as accompanist.

Grace M. E.

Rev. Dr. Chas. Wesley Parsons occupied the pulpit morning and evening at Grace M. E. church. At the former he preached an appropriate sermon and in the evening the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was observed. At the Sunday-school session the pupils sang carols and gave recitations under the direction of Miss Mary Steiner, Miss Nettie Banersachs and Miss Mabel Stevens. The decorative features were pretty and were arranged by Andrew Wilson.

At Y. M. C. A.

William Schott, the blind pianist, played at the Y. M. C. A. meeting yesterday. E. C. Martin sang Shelley's Resurrection song. Frank Lesser played the violin. The address was delivered by Rev. A. E. Finn, of the Park Avenue Baptist church. The attendance was large.

Pastor's Reception.

The Scandinavian church, of Elizabeth, which he started two years ago, when he began his work in this city, tendered a reception to Rev. L. T. Lindholm, of the Swedish Pilgrim church, Saturday night. The affair was held at the home of one of the Elizabeth parishioners. Mr. Lindholm will shortly leave his pastorate here, and the congregation presented him with a purse of money as a parting gift. The congregation, starting with three members, now numbers twenty-five.

Gave Bachelor Dinner.

Allen B. Laing, whose marriage to Miss Isabel Milne occurs on Thursday night, gave a bachelor dinner Saturday night for his best man and ushers, at Brown's, Broadway, New York. Those at the dinner included William N. Runyon, Harry McGee, A. L. C. Marsh, Percy Long, Charles Dupee, Ralph T. Willis and William Bueck. Tonight friends of Mr. Laing will give him a dinner at the New York Athletic Club.

'PLAINS AND FANWOOD.

Easter Sunday, marking the closing of the Lenten season, was fittingly observed by all the churches here Sunday morning. Special sermons on the Lord's resurrection were preached, while the floral displays were the finest, the pulpits being banked with palms, potted plants and Easter lilies. At the Baptist church Rev. Moore-Smith preached a strong sermon, taking or his text: "If Christ is Not Risen, Then is Our Preaching in Vain." The musical programmes rendered of carols and anthems were especially fine and enjoyed by the large number who were out.

Children's Easter day exercises were held in the audience rooms of the Baptist church yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock. A pleasing programme of recitations, carols and songs was enjoyed by a large audience. The floral decorations were pretty and helped to add an additional charm to the programme.

The Sunday baseball season at Buffalo, near Rahway, opened yesterday with the game between the Rahway F. C. and the Clifton F. C. From the number of local "cranks" who were missing yesterday afternoon the town was well represented at the game.

Westfield didn't do a thing to the Seventh Regiment team at Recreation Park Saturday afternoon, defeating them by the score of 10 to 0. Manager Burkes' team, the Stars, from Elizabethport, gave the P. A. C. team a much harder game at Crescent Oval.

Frazee Connett increased the township treasury Sunday morning with a donation of $5. This paid for a little fun Frazee had had Saturday night. Judge Clark transacted the legal business necessary to make the transfer.

By defeating the Suburban second team Friday night on Lee's alleys, the Laurels claim the amateur bowling championship of the town and borough.

Miss Nellie Hollingsworth had charge of the weekly meeting of the Epworth League at the Methodist church last night.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew G. Carpenter, of Plainfield, were the guests Sunday of William C. Stanbery, of Mountain avenue.

Burrett H. Shepard, of New York, spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Shepard, at "The Gables."

No meeting of the B. Y. P. U. was held last night owing to the special Easter service held in the afternoon.

The Suburban-Hartford Insurance game scheduled for Saturday night, was postponed one week.

The local bowlers roll a return game with the Bound Brook team on the latter's alleys tonight.

SUNDAY BASEBALL.

National League Teams Play Three Games and American Two.

NEW YORK, April 24.—Professional baseball playing on Sunday was revived in Brooklyn with a National league championship game between the Brooklyn and Boston teams. The contest resulted in another victory for the home team, as the visitors were shut out by the same score as on Saturday—4 to 0. Over 11,000 persons were present, and there was no interference by the police other than their taking the names of the players and the sellers of score cards, which admitted the purchasers to the different stands.

At Chicago in a pitchers' battle the Pittsburg Nationals were shut out by the home team in a very peculiar manner. After two outs in the eighth inning Brown swung at what should have been the third strike. It proved to be a wild pitch, however, and Brown reached second, scoring on Casey's two bagger. An ideal day brought out an immense crowd, the attendance being close to 21,000.

At Cincinnati poor pitching marked the game in which St. Louis defeated Cincinnati 12 to 8, Thielman being the only one of four pitchers to perform well. Attendance, 17,327.

At Chicago a record breaking crowd of 18,616 greeted the Chicago American league team on their return home and witnessed their defeat at the hands of Detroit by the score of 3 to 2. Detroit bunched hits in the ninth inning, scoring two runs.

At St. Louis Howell pitched a great game for St. Louis and finally downed Cleveland in the eleventh inning by a score of 1 to 0. Hess also pitched a fine game, but he weakened in the final inning, and two hits, a base on balls and a wild pitch let in St. Louis' lone tally, with only one man out. Attendance, 18,700.

Crowd at Free Ball Game.

NEW YORK, April 24.—Free holiday baseball as played by the Highlanders and their visitors from the national capital filled American League park Saturday with the biggest, best natured, most typically American crowd that ever entered the pretty inclosure on the banks of the Hudson. All the ill fortune, the mismanagement and general bedevilment of the opening day were forgotten, and 25,000 persons from all walks of life and of varying degrees of prosperity basked in the sunshine and howled over a pretty game cleanly played. The Highlanders won at last by the score of 5 to 3, and all was pronounced as it should be once more.

Famous Horse Sold.

NEW YORK, April 24.—Major Daingerfield, the winner of many famous races and the holder of the three-year-old championship in 1902, was sold to P. J. Dwyer in the Fasig-Tipton auction sale of the horses of William B. Leeds and Andrew Miller at the Acqueduct race track for $3,000. The stakes won by Major Daingerfield in the past four seasons were worth $91,905.

Gould Stable Won Three Blues.

LAKEWOOD, N. J., April 24.—Entries from George J. Gould's stable won three blue ribbons in the Country club's outdoor horse show. Mrs. C. M. Van Heusen of Pittsburg divided honors with the Gould stable, taking three firsts in the classes for harness horses.

Bad Tenement Fire In Boston.

BOSTON, April 24.—One woman was terribly burned while a score of women and children narrowly escaped death in a fire that gutted the tenement house at 24 Billerica street, in the west end section of the city. The fire, which is believed to have been of incendiary origin, started near the front stairway in the hall, shutting off the only means of quick egress from the building, and the draft quickly carried the flames up the areaway to the roof.

Fatal Quarrel Over a Woman.

PORTLAND, Me., April 24.—Edward Hilton, aged sixty years, of East Waterford, shot and killed George Young, forty-five years old, slashed his wife horribly about the head and neck with a knife and then shot and killed himself. The woman, it is thought, will recover. The tragedy is said by the police to have followed a quarrel between the men regarding Mrs. Hilton.

Earthquake In England.

LONDON, April 24.—An earthquake lasting several seconds and occasioning much alarm was felt about 2 o'clock in the morning throughout Derbyshire and Yorkshire and in adjacent districts. There was trifling damage to walls and roofs in some places, and movable articles were severely shaken, but nothing serious is yet reported.

Occupy Fair Space or Forfeit It.

PORTLAND, Ore., April 24.—Colonel Henry E. Dosch, director of exhibits of the Lewis and Clark exposition, has announced that all exhibitors who do not utilize their space by May 1 will forfeit the same. Owing to a disagreement the Igorrote exhibit will not be seen at Portland.

Fire In Central New York Village.

ROME, N. Y., April 24.—Fire in the village of Taberg, near here, destroyed Dooley's hotel and five other buildings, causing a loss of $15,000. At one time the entire main street was threatened, but a favorable change of wind prevented further spread of the flames.

Tibet Commissioner Massacred.

LONDON, April 24.—Special correspondents at Shanghai give an unconfirmed Chinese report to the effect that Fen Chuen, the imperial commissioner to Tibet, with his whole retinue, has been massacred by Tibetans at Batang.

MATCHES IGNITED BY HORSEWHIPPING.

Young Man's Clothes Set on Fire While Doctor Punishes Him for Insulting Wife.

Chicago.—"The Horsewhipping of Stevens," or how Dr. Robert H. Harvey acted as dispenser of justice, incendiary, fireman and Good Samaritan, became a part of the Harrison street police library the other day. It was classified under "true stories stranger than fiction." Leroy Stevens, a young man, appeared at the Harvey home one evening and annoyed Mrs. Harvey. The physician came home, seized Stevens and applied the horsewhip several times. One of the strokes of the lash ignited matches in Stevens' vest pocket and set him on fire.

The fact that his victim's clothing was ablaze was not discovered at once by Dr. Harvey, who stood behind the man applying the lash. Then in his anxiety to save the culprit from being burned to death Dr. Harvey ran to a stable close by where a coachman was cleaning carriages and returning with a hose doused Stevens from head to foot with water.

It is alleged Stevens annoyed several persons and on several occasions it was charged he had insulted Mrs. Harvey. The man made his appearance as a general rule late in the afternoon. The fatal day he went to the rear of Dr. Harvey's residence and summoned Mrs. Harvey to the door.

Just at this point Dr. Harvey, returning from a visit to a patient, turned into the alley. He saw the man and, turning his horse about, stopped just out of view. Taking the whip from his buggy, he crawled along the wall leading into his yard.

All unaware of his danger, Stevens was talking to Mrs. Harvey. She saw her husband approach with the whip, but engaged the prospective victim's attention. Suddenly Stevens felt the lash across his neck. Again and again he was struck. Quaking with fear, his limbs failed him and he was unable to escape.

Dr. Harvey never even looked at his victim as he applied the lash until he saw smoke and a flame and heard Stevens' painful wail.

Efforts to extinguish the flames were unsuccessful until the physician ran to a near-by stable and seized a hose. Finally the fire was extinguished and Stevens, almost unconscious, was taken into the physician's home, where his burns were attended to. Then Stevens was held until a policeman was summoned. In court the prisoner, admitting his guilt, was sentenced to the bridewell for something like 203 days.

BURIED CHILD ALIVE.

Wisconsin Man and His Sister-in-Law Are Held on Awful Charge.

Prairie du Chien, Wis.—William Crawford and his sister-in-law, Frances Crawford, were bound over to the circuit court without bonds the other day on a charge of murder in the first degree. Crawford has a wife and five children, three of whom are young men, while the woman has an 18-year-old son and a husband who is in an insane asylum.

Several children are said to have been born to the accused and each time the offspring is said to have been disposed of without the knowledge of the authorities, the father threatening the lives of any member of the family who dared expose his acts.

On January 10 a baby girl was born to the woman in the two-room hut of the Crawfords, 12 miles above this city, which was occupied by nine persons, the three young men, Crawford, his wife, and two small children, the sister-in-law, and a grandfather.

After the birth of the child the father took it to the barnyard and buried it alive in a manure heap, where officers discovered it after his arrest.

In the hearing a son of Crawford and the son of the woman gave strong testimony. Crawford's wife refused to see him at the jail and wept bitterly as she reviewed her wretched condition during the last ten years.

It has developed that two years ago the body of a child was devoured by the hogs on the Crawford place.

Hitches Girls to His Sleigh.

Odessa.—Onlevski Viestnik, a young and wealthy noble of the Veletz district, drives a victoria or sleigh to which he hitches four peasant girls, the reins being tied to their arms. When he considers it necessary he whips them vigorously. His plows and harrows are also drawn by girls. The local authorities have refused to interfere and the peasants themselves are threatening violence.

An Ideal Location

Rosedale and Linden Park Cemeteries

LARGEST IN THE STATE

LINDEN, N. J.

Beautiful and Accessible

2 Miles from Elizabeth, 7 Miles from Newark, 14 MILES FROM NEW YORK

On Main Line Pennsylvania Railroad

Why Lots in These Cemeteries commend themselves to Heads of Families and Investors

BECAUSE of the $1,000,000 Trust Fund provided for by the Trustees in each Cemetery, the income from which will keep the properties perpetually beautiful at NO EXPENSE TO LOT OWNERS.

BECAUSE such a guarantee, not found in any other cemetery, assures lot owners that the grounds WILL BE MAINTAINED PERMANENTLY AS BEAUTIFUL PARKS AFTER THE INCOME FROM THE SALE OF LOTS HAS BEEN EXHAUSTED.

LOTS SHOULD BE PURCHASED NOW

BECAUSE MORE ADVANTAGES ARE OFFERED TO LOT BUYERS in a new Modern Park Cemetery than in those established many years and, in most cases, no provision made for perpetual care without extra expense to lot owners. THERE ARE A GREATER NUMBER OF IDEAL LOCATIONS TO SELECT FROM, PRICES OF LOTS ARE ALWAYS LOWER AND TERMS MORE ADVANTAGEOUS.

BECAUSE life is most uncertain and EVERY ONE SHOULD ANTICIPATE THE INEVITABLE BY MAKING A CHOICE NOW OF A FINAL RESTING PLACE.

LOTS WILL PROVE A GOOD INVESTMENT

BECAUSE they are sure to increase in value and can be purchased NOW at the INITIAL or LOWEST PRICE and upon the most ADVANTAGEOUS TERMS.

BECAUSE the properties are ACCESSIBLE TO 4,000,000 PEOPLE, and considering the RAPID GROWTH OF GREATER NEW YORK and its TRIBUTARY CITIES and TOWNS, it is only a question of a SHORT TIME when LOTS in ROSEDALE and LINDEN PARK will EQUAL IN VALUE those of our MOST NOTED cemeteries.

FOR INFORMATION concerning lots in these beautiful Park Cemeteries, and FREE transportation to prospective lot buyers, apply at once to any LEADING UNDERTAKER or offices of the Associations:

AZIENZA

826 Second Place, Plainfield, N. J., October 29th, 1904.

Your AZIENZA certainly has wonderful healing properties. My cook had a deep and ugly looking fissure between two toes. It pained and annoyed her greatly. I did not know what it was nor do I now, but with some hesitancy I told her to try AZIENZA. She did so and it gave her instant relief from the pain. I then gave her the box and in a few days she told me that it was entirely healed. I shall not hesitate again to recommend its use for any sore or inflamed part of the skin.

Sincerely yours,
(Mrs. W. M. Jr.) LINA D. SANDFORD.

SPRING FASHIONS.

The Proper Things to Wear Just Before Hot Weather.

The array of beautiful things in the stores now is simply bewildering, not only because there are so many of them, but because the styles are so diverse. We find strictly tailored suits with the seams most perfectly made and pressed or with stitching so close and neat that it becomes an ornament as elegant as it is refined. These suits have coats long and voluminous or wrought into the form of a dress, like the illustration, laid in deep plaits to fit it to the figure and belted in. The design is particularly well adapted to rain coats of cravenette, as, while dressy and handsome, the material is waterproof. And there is something about the cravenette that sets it one peg above covert or cheviot or, in fact, any other of the materials suitable for such wear, for the weave is close and silky and there are always the two colors interwoven, but so closely that it looks all one color until seen near. Black and white make the gray, while the other colors are evolved by the admixture of two threads, each different. Dresses are made of this as well as rain coats, and the material always gives satisfaction. It will wash too.

Tailored suits may also have a blouse waist instead of the coat if preferred. But some of the coats are very stylish and much more dressy than the bloused effects. For those with too slender figures the looser shapes are best, while the woman who has reason to be proud of her figure can revel in the comfort of wearing a fashionable suit which also shows off well her special beauty.

Sleeves vary quite as much as skirts and full suits. The princess shape of gown is in vogue again and is expected to have great popularity. Skirts are made almost circular again for some tastes, and for others there are skirts with one to five flounces. Silks of all kinds, but preferably crisp, strong taffetas, are made with bias bands or flounces, while others are laid in plaits or shirred. The wearer's own fancy governs this.

Very many of the wash frocks, particularly those of linen and the rather thick weaves of cotton, are laid in kilts from top to bottom, which is a little better for the laundry. These are simply hemmed around the bottom. Blouse waists and wide sailor collars are almost always seen with these, sometimes of the same material with braid as trimming and again of heavy white linen.

Cute little sunbonnets are being brought forth by the thousand to wear with these suits. They are most frequently made of pink or blue batiste, with bows and strings of the same. They cost from $2 to $5 at the stores, but any clever woman can make one so easily at a cost of not over 50 cents that I am going to tell them that they can buy the ready made foundation for a trifle and the batiste or mull will be but 15 cents a yard, and two yards are plenty. The rest is easy. Just hem a piece across for the cape, tear the strings from one side to get the selvage and shirr the rest to the foundation. Hem the strings, make a pretty bow of part of the strip, sew that and the strings on, and there you are. These hats are very pretty and dainty alike for women and children. To have one to match each suit is the height of style.

RAIN COAT AND VOILE GOWN.

Sleeves are anything and everything. The leg o' mutton is the favorite for thin and fine goods, but there are so many variations that woman can do about as she pleases and still be in fashion. Many of the thin goods have puffed sleeves coming to the elbow and finished off there with lace. The shirt waist sleeve, with its cuff and few tucks at the top, is often seen, but the leg o' mutton, with the lower portion formed by close tucks to the wrist, is a great favorite. Another plan is to have the sleeve narrow to the wrist and very long, with the superfluous length gathered along the outside of the arm in butterfly style. Collars are high as ever for those who have ugly throats, but those who have pretty necks are forcing the style for gowns without high bands.

A pretty suit in one place showed a ten gored skirt of ecru voile over blue silk. The blouse waist was trimmed with ecru motifs of braid over blue silk. The hat was, of course, straw with a trimming of [illegible] taffeta ribbon, with a few lilies of the valley among the bows.

The Romance of a Pirate's Daughter

By FRANK R. STOCKTON

Copyright, 1903, by D. Appleton & Co., New York.

CHAPTER XXVII.
A PROPOSED PIRACY.

CAPT. ICHABOD was in high feather. He whistled, he sang, and he kept his men cleaning things. All that he could do for the comfort of his passengers he did, even going so far as to drop as many of his "bedads" as possible. Whenever he had an opportunity, and these came frequently, he talked to Mr. Delaplaine, addressing a word or two to Kate if he thought she looked gracious. For the first day or two Dame Charter kept below. She was afraid of the men, and did not even want to look at them if she could help it.

"But the good woman's all wrong," said Capt. Ichabod to Mr. Delaplaine; "my men would not hurt her. They're not the most tremendous kind of pirates, anyway, for I could not afford that sort. I have often thought that I could make more profitable voyages if I had a savager lot of men. I'll tell you, sir, we once tried to board a big Spanish galleon, and the beastly foreigners beat us off, bedad, and we had a hard time of it gettin' away. There are three or four good fellows in the crew, tough old rascals who came with the sloop when I bought her, but most of my men are but poor knaves, and not to be afraid of."

That afternoon Capt. Ichabod found Kate by herself on deck, and he made bold to sit down by her; and before he knew what he was about, he was telling her his whole story. She listened carefully to what he said. He touched but lightly upon his wickednesses, although they were plain enough to any listener of sense, and bemoaned his fearful passion for gaming, which was sure to bring him to misery one day or another.

"When I have staked my vessel and have lost it," said he, "then there will be an end of me."

"But why don't you sell your vessel before you lose it," said Kate, "and become a farmer?"

His eyes brightened. "I never thought of that," said he. "Bedad—excuse me, Miss—some day when I've got a little together and can pay my men I'll sell this sloop and buy a farm, bedad—I beg your pardon, Miss—I'll buy a farm."

Kate smiled, but it was easy to see that Capt. Ichabod was in earnest.

The next day Capt. Ichabod came to Mr. Delaplaine and took him to one side. "I want to speak to you," he said, "about a bit of business."

"You may have noticed, sir, that we are somewhat short of provisions, and the way of it is this. The night before we sailed, hoping to make a bold stroke at the card-table and thereby fit out my vessel in a manner suitable to the entertainment of a gentleman and ladies, I lost every penny I had. I did hope that our provisions would last us a few days longer, but I am disappointed, sir. That cook of mine, who is a soft-hearted fellow, his neck always ready for the heel of a woman, has thrown overboard even the few stores we had left for you, the good Dame Charter having told him they were not fit to eat. And more, sir, even my men are grumbling. So I thought I would speak to you and explain that it would be necessary for us to overhaul a merchantman and replenish our food supply. It can be done very quietly, sir, and I don't think that even the ladies need be disturbed."

Mr. Delaplaine stared in amazement. "Do you mean to say," he exclaimed, "that you want me to consent to your committing piracy for our benefit?"

"Yes, sir," answered the captain, "that's what I suppose you would call it; but that's my business."

"Now, sir, I wish you to know that I am a Christian and a gentleman," said Mr. Delaplaine.

"That's all very true, bedad," said Capt. Ichabod, "but you're also another thing; you're a human being, and you must eat."

"This is terrible," exclaimed the merchant, "that at my time of life I should consent to a felony at sea, and to profit by it. I cannot bear to think of the wickedness and the disgrace of it."

"Most respected sir," said Ichabod, "if the fellows behave themselves properly and don't offer to fight us, then there'll be no wickedness, bedad. I can make a good enough show of men to frighten any ordinary merchant crew so that not a blow need be struck. And that is what I expect to do, sir. I would not have any disturbance before ladies, you may be sure of that, bedad. We bear down upon a vessel; we order her to surrender; we take what we want, and we let her go. Truly, there's no wickedness in that! And as for the disgrace, we can all better bear that than starve."

Mr. Delaplaine looked at the pirate without a word. He could not comprehend how a man with such a frank and honest face could thus avow his dishonest principles. But as he gazed and wondered the thought of a scheme flashed across the mind of the merchant, a thoroughly business-like scheme. This bold young pirate captain might seize upon such supplies as they were in need of, but he, Felix Delaplaine, of Spanish Town, Jamaica, would pay for them. Thus might their necessities be relieved and their consciences kept clean. But he said nothing of this to Ichabod; the pirate might deem such a proceeding unprofessional and interpose some objection. Payment would be the merchant's part of the business, and he would attend to it himself. A look of resignation now came over Mr. Delaplaine's face.

"Captain," said he, "I must yield to your reason; it is absolutely necessary that we shall not starve."

Ichabod's face shone and he held out his hand. "Bedad, sir," he cried, "I honor you as a bold gentleman and a kind one. I will instantly lay my course somewhat to the eastward, and I promise you, sir, it will not be long before we run across some of these merchant fellows. I beg you, sir, speak to your ladies and tell them that there will be no unpleasant commotion; we may draw our swords and make a fierce show, but, bedad, I don't believe there'll be any fighting. We shall want so little—for I would not attempt to take a regular prize with ladies on board—that the fellows will surely deliver what we demand, the quicker to make an end of it."

"If you are perfectly sure," said Mr. Delaplaine, "that you can restrain your men from violence, I would like to be a member of your boarding party; it would be a rare experience for me."

Now Capt. Ichabod fairly shouted with delight.

"Bravo! Bravo!" he exclaimed; "I didn't dream, sir, that you were a man of such a noble spirit. You shall go with us, sir. Your presence will aid greatly in making our hoped-for capture a most orderly affair; no one can look upon you, bedad, without knowing that you are a high-minded and honorable man, and would not take a box or case from anyone if you did not need it. Now, sir, we shall put about, and by good fortune we may soon sight a merchantman. Even if it be but a coastwise trader, it may serve our purpose."

Mr. Delaplaine, with something of a smile upon his sedate face, hurried to Kate, who was upon the quarter-deck.

"My dear, we are about to introduce a little variety into our dull lives. As soon as we can overhaul a merchantman we shall commit a piracy. But don't turn pale; I have arranged it all."

"You!" exclaimed the wide-eyed Kate.

"Yes," said her uncle, and he told his tale.

"And remember this, my dear," he added; "if we cannot pay, we do not eat. I shall be as relentless as the bloody Blackbeard; if they take not my money, I shall swear to Ichabod that we touch not their goods."

"And are you sure," she said, "that there will be no bloodshed?"

"I vouch for that," said he, "for I shall lead the boarding party."

She took him by both hands. "Why," she said, "it need be no more than laying in goods from a storehouse; and I cannot but be glad, dear uncle, for I am so very, very hungry."

The captain came up, excited. "Even now, bedad," he cried, "there are two sails in sight—one far north, and the other to the eastward, beating up this way. This one we shall make for. We have the wind with us, which is a good thing, for the Restless is a bad sailer and has lost many a prize through that fault. And now, miss," he said, addressing Kate, "I shall have to ask your leave to take down that English flag and run up our Jolly Roger. It will be necessary, for if the fellows fear not our long guns, they may change their course and get away from us."

"That will be right," said Kate; "if we're going to be pirates, we might as well be pirates out and out."

Capt. Ichabod glowed with delight. "What a girl this was, and what an uncle!"

DELCASSE TO REMAIN.

French Foreign Minister Withdraws Resignation.

PARIS, April 24.—Yielding to the personal solicitations and representations of President Loubet and the leaders of the government, who declared that his retirement would be a serious national peril at this time, M. Delcasse advised Premier Rouvier that he would reconsider and withdraw his resignation as foreign minister.

This was after strong assurances had been given to Mr. Delcasse that the ministry was united in sympathy with and support of his foreign policy. It was the intention to hold a special cabinet council, at which the united attitude of the ministry upon foreign questions would receive definite expression. However, M. Delcasse's personal conferences with MM. Loubet and Rouvier made such an explicit declaration unnecessary, the proposed council was abandoned, and Premier Rouvier went at 5 p. m. to the Elysee palace, where he announced to M. Loubet that M. Delcasse would remain in the cabinet.

In the course of the conferences between the president and MM. Rouvier and Delcasse the latter said that he would retain the portfolio of foreign affairs only in case the entire cabinet approved of his foreign policy, which he would carry out according to his views. He added that the authority necessary to carry on negotiations with the powers was ineffective if such negotiations led to reserves or divergences among the members of the cabinet.

The purpose of the intended cabinet meeting was to remove every scruple in the mind of the foreign minister concerning the loyalty of the support given to him. The conferences accomplished the same object, showing that there was no divergence of view, and in consequence M. Delcasse finally announced that he would remain.

BIG BREAK IN WHEAT.

The Gates Deal Collapsed and Wild Scenes Followed In Chicago Pit.

CHICAGO, April 24.—Speculators are still excited over what was one of the wildest sessions ever witnessed in the Chicago pit, when the bottom fell out of the daring deal in wheat for May delivery undertaken by John W. Gates and his associates. At one time prices showed a loss of 11½ cents a bushel for the day, the price of the option being driven down in a series of sensational rushes to 98½ cents per bushel. The closing quotation was $1 as against $1.23 a few weeks ago.

Hats were smashed, clothing torn and bodies bruised in the fierce struggle among the traders to sell the grain. The frenzied rush began with the sounding of the signal bell and lasted throughout the session. It was estimated that 1,500,000 bushels were sold by one house alone.

The splendid crop prospect, which forced the July price to a discount of 30 cents under the May price and practically wiped out all demand for flour on the basis of the May price; the perverseness with which supplies of wheat in this and other markets remained liberal and finally the rush to this market from every point of the compass of good wheat which millers could not afford to grind, finally upset the calculations on which Mr. Gates and his friends had entered upon their deal.

Canal Zone Health Report.

WASHINGTON, April 24.—The March health report of Colonel W. C. Corgas, chief sanitary officer of the isthmian canal zone, received here shows a steady improvement in conditions there. There were about 9,000 employees of the commission at the end of the month. The sick in hospitals numbered 153, and the total deaths for the month were only eleven. This is equal to a rate of fourteen per thousand, a rate which Colonel Corgas says would be considered favorable anywhere.

Engineer Killed In Washington.

WASHINGTON, April 24.—Within a minute after leaving the Pennsylvania passenger station with a string of empty coaches a switching engine of the Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington railroad jumped the track on a sharp curve at Maryland avenue and Sixth street southwest, plowed the pavement and sidewalk and, overturning, crushed and scalded almost beyond recognition the engineer.

Another Lace Factory to Be Built.

PHILADELPHIA, April 24.—Joseph H. Bromley was awarded the contract for a $2,000,000 lace factory at Twenty-second street and Lehigh avenue. It will be the largest in the country and give employment to 5,000 operatives. Mr. Bromley was the first to promote the lace industry in Philadelphia and is the principal owner of four similar concerns here.

Body Found Tied to a Tree.

HUNTINGTON, W. Va., April 24.—The body of a well dressed man was found tied to a tree, bound hand and foot, near Big Ugly. A knife blade was thrust through the heart, and the throat was cut. Pinned to the coat was a piece of paper bearing the inscription, "You will bother us no more." The body has not been identified.

Fire In Camden, N. J.

CAMDEN, N. J., April 24.—Fire has destroyed the grain elevator of Sutley & Sons, Sixth street and Ehelton avenue, with a large quantity of grain and several freight cars; loss, $150,000, almost fully covered by insurance. The origin of the fire is unknown.

VICTIM BURIED.

Central Railroad Sends Column for John Kennedy's Bier—Interment at Somerville.

The funeral of John Kennedy, of Dunellen, who was killed in Newark last Tuesday through the fall of a bridge girder while working for the Central Railroad, was held Friday. The service at the Methodist church, which followed a brief service at the house, was largely attended. Rev. S. K. Doolittle officiated.

The floral tributes included a large column from the railroad company. Others were set pieces from the members of the bridge gang of which the dead man had been foreman, and from Rockview Council, D. of L., and William G. Holten Council, Jr. O. U. A. M., of Dunellen, to both of which Mr. Kennedy belonged.

Interment was made at Somerville.

A Belated Announcement.

Married by Rev. Dr. Rhoads at Cranford on November 19 last, Miss Olive Waldron that was, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Waldron, of Arlington avenue, formerly of Chatham street, and James J. Kane, have just announced the fact. Mr. Kane, who is twenty-two, was a boarder at the Waldron home and he and Miss Waldron became attached to each other. There was no parental objection but they did not let anyone into the secret of their marriage until a few days ago. The bride is eighteen years old.

He Sympathizes With Unfortunate Rheumatic Sufferers.

"I suffered from rheumatism for five years," writes Edward Carey, of Allston, Mass. "For six months I was confined to the house, my ankles and feet swollen so that I could not put on either shoes or stockings. I was treated by several of Boston's skilful physicians, but relief was only temporary. One of my friends induced me to try the wonderful Italian powder—Volta. To my astonishment I received immediate relief, which has been permanent. I shall be glad to be the means of inducing other unfortunate sufferers to try it, and hope they will receive the same benefit." Volta Powder is the positive cure for rheumatism in all forms. It is sold by L. W. Randolph, 143 West Front street, John P. Powers, Somerset street and Craig place, and by best drug stores. $1.00 by mail from the American Volta Co., 13 Astor Place, New York city.

DR. CARROLL HOME.

Methodist Worker Back From Long Trip in South America.

Dr. H. K. Carroll, of this city, lay corresponding secretary of the Methodist Missionary Society, is just back from a trip of four months to Central and South America, whence he went at the request of the missionaray society to study religious and other conditions in the republics.

Dr. Carroll traveled more than 15,000 miles, visited practically every coast city of importance, and many interior towns and cities. He accompanied Bishop T. B. Neely, who was assigned by the Methodist General Conference last year to be Bishop Resident in South America, and whose official home is to be in Buenos Ayres.

Appointed Commissioners.

Judge Fort on Saturday appointed Nelson Runyon, Corra N. Williams, of Summit, and William H. Howard, of Rahway, commissioners to judge the benefits and damages in the case of the Summit Water Company and mill owners at Scotch Plains. This is the final step in the case in which the mill owners declared the diversion of the water by the company made it impossible to gain the necessary power from Green brook.

OBITUARY.

William C. Baker.

William C. Baker, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Baker, of Stelle avenue, died yesterday morning at 2 o'clock at Hot Springs, Va., where he had been during the past winter for his health. Mr. Baker was a resident of Plainfield for several years prior to his marriage a few years ago. He was engaged in the insurance business in New York with his father.

Mr. Baker was a prominent member of the Plainfield Country Club and while a resident here took an active part in the various competitions at the club. He was also prominent in local society affairs.

He is survived by a wife, his parents, a sister, Mrs. Howard W. Beebe and a brother, J. Whitney Baker.

George A. Schuck.

George A. Schuck, son of the late John A. and Martha Schuck, died this morning at his home on New street, after a brief illness. He was thirty-nine years old and had lived in Plainfield all his life. He was a machinist by trade and for the past few years had been a foreman at the Pond shop. A widow and several children survive him. Funeral services will be held from St. Mary's church Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock, where a high mass of requiem will be said.

Fritz Risberg.

Fritz Risberg, the four-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Nils. Risberg, of Catalpa avenue, died suddenly yesterday. The funeral has not yet been arranged but will probably be on Wednesday.

S. P. Craig.

Serin P. Craig, a resident of Plainfield for many years, died at his home, 118 Lennox avenue, East Orange, yesterday morning, following an attack of pneumonia. He had been ill some time and was on the road to recovery when he had a relapse. Mr. Craig was a well known travelling salesman. He was a member of Jerusalem Lodge, No. 26, F. and A. M., of this city and was popular here. Mr. Craig married Chief Deane's sister, who with one daughter, Miss Beatrice Deane Craig, survives him.

The funeral services will be held from the late home tomorrow night at 8 o'clock and the interment will be in Hillside Cemetery, this city, on Wednesday.

Funeral of T. F. VanHorn.

The funeral of Theodore F. Van Horn, who died Friday, will be held from the home of Mrs. J. O. Manchester, Lafayette place, at 7:30 tonight. Interment will be made tomorrow at Hope, N. J.

The local Odd Fellows' lodges will be the guests of Westfield Lodge on Wednesday night. All of the past grand officers are expected to attend

SOCIETY EASTER DANCE

Annual Function Attended by Fashionable Folk.

CHARMING GOWNS

Handsome Decorations a Feature of the Affair at Casino—List of Those Participating.

Following the quiet season of Lent, society folk resumed their activity last night at the assembly dance held at the Casino. It was the last of the series given through the winter and spring and was marked by the attendance of a large number of local and out-of-town guests, not a few Plainfielders entertaining a number of guests over Easter for the dance. The decorations were appropriate to the season, Easter lilies predominating in a huge bank of palms, ferns and flowering plants arranged about the stage. The orchestra was seated behind the floral decorations and discoursed one of its most popular programmes, nearly every number being encored.

The usual assembly crowd was present, and in addition there were about twenty-five guests from out-of-town. The social features of the affair were greatly enjoyed until a late hour. From now on there will be many events to engage the attention of society, including several weddings, and altogether the season will be a busy one, until it is time for the annual migration to the seashore and mountain.

The guests:

Mr. and Mrs. Elliott T. Barrows, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Ladd, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Harry L. Hall, Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Cox, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Butler, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Taylor Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Craig A. John Rebman's Funeral.

Funeral services over the remains of John Rebman, who died at the age of eighty-seven years at Smalleytown on Saturday, will be held from his late home at 1 o'clock tomorrow afternoon and an hour later from the Coontown church. He left surviving six children, Mrs. William Ross, of Millington, Mrs. Otto Gunther, of this city, Miss Mary Rebman, of Smalleytown, William Rebman, of Smalleytown, and John and Henry Rebman, of Los Angeles, Cal.

Sociable Thursday Night.

A sociable and entertainment will be held Thursday night in the lecture room of the German Reformed church. A desk will be disposed of.

FELLOW BOARDERS AND COPS ARE AFTER JIMMY

POLE, TWO WATCHES AND A ROLL DISAPPEAR SIMULTANEOUSLY.

A Pole, known to the police and his associates ony as "Jimmy," is wanted by the authorities. "Jimmy" disappeared from a Polish boarding house in Exchange alley yesterday morning, and, according to John Bularo, another boarder, a gold and a silver watch, and a roll of bills disappeared from his, Bularo's, room at about the same time. The police want to ask "Jimmy" if he knows anything about the watches and the cash. Bularo owned the silver timepiece and his room-mate, Frank Sikovo, owned the gold one. The roll was their joint property.

"Jimmy" had been in the boarding house only a few weeks. He said he was in search of work, and went out, presumably to look for it, every day. Yesterday he went to the Pond shop early in the morning. He came back in a short time. He said he had been unsuccessful in the hunt for a job.

A few minutes after that he left the house. Bularo says "Jimmy" was seen to enter the looted room a few minutes before he disappeared.

WESTFIELD AMATEURS SCORE AT Y. M. C. A. HALL

"BELSHAZZAR" SINGERS ASSIST IN ASSOCIATION ORCHESTRA CONCERT.

All the season's records for attendance were broken last night at the Y. M. C. A. Hall, when the association orchestra held its nineteenth concert. The auditorium was filled.

The audience listened to one of the most attractive programmes that the popular musical organization has ever presented. Strength was added to the programme by the appearance of the "Belshazzar," singers who helped make a recent amateur production of the cantata "Belshazzar" a great success in Westfield.

The quartette was made up of Eva Wells, a twelve-year-old soprano of remarkable skill; Mrs. E. P. Waterbury, contralto; Mrs. A. B. Price, contralto; E. P. Wetmore, tenor. Miss Julia Fink was accompanist. They sang chorus parts from the cantata with unusual force and spirit. Miss Wells sang two solos.

The orchestral numbers were well chosen, and splendidly rendered. The range was good, and none of the pieces was too heavy for the enjoyment of the untrained ear. Mr. Bennett, the cornet soloist, scored an individual hit with a solo.

The orchestra played under the direction of C. Kenneth Shupp.

ONE STORY ONLY.

Trust Company Decides to Make This the Limit of New Building.

The plans for the Plainfield Trust Company's new building on Park avenue, are about complete and have been submitted to the building committee for approval. It has been definitely decided to build a one story structure and the interior has been decided upon. There is still one matter yet to be agreed upon and that is the amount of money to be expended upon exterior decorations. This will probably be settled within the coming week and then the matter of awarding contracts will be taken up. As soon as this is done, the actual work of construction will be started at once and pushed rapidly toward completion.

The company desires to occupy its new building by the last of the summer or early fall and all contracts will be given out with a time limit, with this object in view.

Hand Held for Jury.

The difference between Fred Hand, of Leland avenue, and young Albert Pierson, which resulted in the ejection of the youth from the Hand grounds one night last week, and a hurried call by the boy's father for cops to protect the young man from "murder," got into court yesterday. Under a charge of assault made by the youth, Mr. Hand was held for the Grand Jury by Justice Mosher, in the sum of $150. Mr. Hand waived examination. Fred Sanford went on his bond.

Timber Trip.

G. Q. Dolliver, of Fairview avenue, chief tie and timber inspector of the Central Railroad, has returned from a trip to the Virginia timber country for the road.

NEW ENDEAVOR UNION

Plainfield, South Plainfield, New Market, Dunellen in It.

OFFICERS CHOSEN

Fred C. Lounsbury, Jr., Elected President—To Draft Constitution.

In response to an invitation from J. D. DeGroff, of Dunellen, president of the Union County Christian Endeavor Union, the presidents of the local Endeavor Societies, together with other representatives, met at the Y. M. C. A. last night, for the purpose of considering the advisability of organizing a local union comprising the societies in Plainfield and vicinity. There was a good representation from this city, Dunellen, New Market and South Plainfield.

After a discussion of the subject it was decided to organize a union, and these officers were elected: President, Fred. C. Lounsbury, Jr., of the First Presbyterian church; vice president, Miss Galloway, of Warren chapel; secretary, Miss Mildred Green, of the Seventh-Day Baptist church; treasurer, Clarence LaRue, of the Congregational church.

The officers were authorized to draft a constitution and bylaws and to select the heads of the various committees. The meeting was an enthusiastic one and there is every indication that the union will be a success. The meeting adjourned subject to the call of the president.

ARMORY MARK MADE BY CO. K SHOOTERS

FORTY-SEVEN MEN ON THE LIST OF SUCCESSFUL ONES.

Nearly fifty men of Company K have reached the armory qualification mark in marksmanship. The men have shot for the qualification during the time specified for the purpose, between April 10 and 22, under the direction of an army officer. The list comprises forty-seven men, as follows:

Capt. Martin, Lieutenant J. M. Lewis, Lieutenant H. B. Kitchell; Sergeants Peterson, Littell, Pearsall, Randolph, Pearson, Apgar; Corporals Tranchand, Bilyeu, Phillips, Conklin, Goldsack, Niles, Jennings; Privates Manning, Niles, Peterson, Sampson, Vail, Connover, McDonald, DeCamp, Dorman, Ludgate, Weaver, Ford, James Pearsall, Ferris Pearsall, France, Smith, Porst, Richardson, Winter, French, Dayton, Keefoed, Beetham, Scribner, Jordan, Douglass, E. Lunger, Motley, Mosher, Titsworth.

MRS. ODELL TALENTED.

New Music Leader at Holy Cross An Accomplished Woman.

Mrs. Charles F. Odell, who has been engaged to succeed J. Edmund Skiff as organist at the Church of the Holy Cross, is now filling a similar position at St. Mark's Memorial church, Tarrytown, New York. Besides being an accomplished organist and choir-director, she is talented as a vocal trainer of boy voices, having had remarkable success at Tarrytown. She will assume her position at the church the first Sunday in May, but in the meantime she will be busy organizing a choir, made necessary by the fact that Mr. Skiff has arranged to take the present choir to the First M. E. church, where, beginning May 1, he will be the organist and choirmaster.

Dinner to Prospective Groom.

George J. Tobin gave a dinner at the New York Athletic Club, last night, in honor of Allen B. Laing, whose marriage to Miss Isabel Milne will occur on Thursday night. The guests were business associates of Mr. Laing and included Evarts Tracy, William N. Runyon, A. L. C. Marsh, Amos Andrews, Marcus Hoyt and George J. Tobin, from this city, and several from New York, making in all a party of fifteen.

T. F. VanHorn Buried.

The funeral services of Theodore F. VanHorn were held last evening at 7:30 o'clock from the home in Lafayette place. Rev. L. R. Howard, pastor of Hope chapel, officiated. E. E. Runyon sang two hymns. This morning the remains were taken to Hope, Warren County, for interment.

Clothing for Mission Field.

Persons in this city interested in the Labrador Medical Mission, which is conducted by Dr. Wilfred T. Grenfell, have sent him a large box of useful clothing for distribution among the people to whom he ministers.

"NICHOLAS VEDDER" MOURNS "OLD RIP"

Edward Varey, of This Place, Supported Joseph Jefferson in Famous Play.

FRIEND OF EDWARDS

Casino's Manager Chats Interestingly on His Friendship With the Dean of American Actors.

While men and women throughout the country heard with regret of the death of Joseph Jefferson, the veteran actor, which occurred at West Palm Beach Sunday night, it came as a distinct personal loss to two friends in this city, Edwin Varey, himself one of the deans of the profession, and Manz Edwards, the genial manager of the Casino. To both he was a close acquaintance while the former was a member of his company for many years, playing "Nicholas Vedder" to Jefferson's "Rip VanWinkle." Failing health compelled him to quit the part and his retirement was commented upon in a reminiscent vein by many of America's best known critics.

Mr. Varrey has just passed through a long period of sickness and his weakened condition made it impossible for him to be interviewed yesterday, but Manz Edwards was prevailed upon to recall some interesting bits of Mr. Jefferson's life as he knew them. In his career as a theatrical manager, Mr. Edwards has been associated more or less with actors and actresses at the head of the profession and the impersonator of "Rip" was one of them.

"I first became acquainted with Jefferson," said Mr. Edwards, "when his home was at Hoboken, this State, but it was not until I was managing Edwin Booth's tour in 1881 that I saw a great deal of him. The great tragedian and he thought a lot of each other and they never lost an opportunity to meet while on the road. In that year it was our intention to spend some time with him at his plantation in Louisiana as we were going from Memphis to New Orleans but bad weather so delayed us we had to forego the pleasure. Jefferson and I continued to meet at intervals and we had many and many a pleasant chat. When I came to Plainfield I maintained a correspondence with him and at one time, just a short while ago, I all but secure his promise to visit this city and give a lecture or a reading.

"As an actor, Jefferson had few equals while personally, he was genial, whole-souled and a friend worth having. He served an arduous apprenticeship and gained an easy command of that technique which the training of the old school supplied, first becoming a popular actor, then an artist of consummate skill. Everybody knew him as "Rip," but his interpretation of "Golightly" in "Lend Me Five Shillings" and "Bob Acres" in "The Rivals" were impersonations that brought out his versatility. I heartily endorse all that has been said of him in respect to his lovable traits and he well deserved the title 'dean of the profession.'"

Jefferson's last appearance in Plainfield was in the early nineties when he presented "Rip VanWinkle" at Music Hall before an audience which packed the theatre to the doors. Edwin Varrey was with him then and both were accorded an ovation such as the auditorium seldom witnessed. Members of his family are also well known artistically in Plainfield, principally his sons, Thomas and Charles B. Jefferson. The former played here on the night of April 21, 1901, taking his father's part in "Rip VanWinkle," this attraction being the last but one in Music Hall. "Quo Vadis" a few nights later closing its career. Charles Jefferson and Mr. Edwards are close friends and when the former was managing Music Hall he frequently booked the younger Jefferson's attractions, among them "Shadows of a Great City" and "A Dark Secret," the first of the successful tank dramas.

Franklin Won Two Games.

Franklin School defeated Grant Avenue by a score of 7 to 4 this morning on the cricket field. Rogers and Jones were the battery for Franklin. Franklin School also defeated Union A. C. by a score of 12 to 1 with the same battery.

Back to Panama.

J. Stanley Mosher, of West Fifth street, will sail on Friday for Panama, from which place he recently returned after spending a year there on Government work. He expects to be absent an indefinite time.

FOREMAN WINS HIS SUIT

Max Kahn Gets a Verdict Against Herzig & Kapp.

IN CIRCUIT COURT

Defendants Set Up That They Only Wanted to Dispense With His Services as Designer.

The suit of Max Kahn against Herzig & Kapp was tried before Judge Helsley in the Circuit Court, Elizabeth, yesterday, and the plaintiff was given a verdict for about $1,200. Charles A. Reed, Esq., of the firm of Reed & Coddington, representing the defendants, gave notice of an appeal today and the case will be taken up. Edward Nugent, Esq., represents the plaintiff.

Mr. Kahn was at one time engaged by Herzig & Kapp, skirt manufacturers, of Watchung avenue, as a designer. He was hired December 31, 1903, in the capacity of designer and foreman of the establishment, making a yearly contract. Three months later, he alleged, the firm told him that they no longer needed his services. He called attention to the contract, which he claims was ignored and he was discharged April 1, of the following year. He had been engaged at $50 a week, but received no pay after his discharge. On the strength of this he asked the court to reimburse him to the extent of $1,289.43.

In reply the defendants stated that they only wished to dispense with Mr. Kahn's services as designer, and not as foreman, as they had another designer who they thought had more ability. Mr. Kahn added that he had been been a designer for twenty years, and if he gave up his position only for a short time, he would be unable to resume if he left the Plainfield firm because of the fact that he had been foreman.

COURT HOUSE OPEN FOR INSPECTION

PUBLIC TO SEE $575,000 BUILDING THURSDAY AND FRIDAY.

Union County's handsome court house at Elizabeth, one of the best in the State, is to be thrown open for public inspection Thursday and Friday of this week. Attendants will be present to show visitors about from 9 in the morning until 10 at night. It is the first opportunity that has been arranged for the county residents and no doubt a large number will attend.

The court house cost complete $575,000, every dollar of which went into its construction. It stands complete without a suggestion of graft or crookedness in its erection and a tribute to the carefulness of the Board of Freeholders, entrusted with the details. Its appointments are in keeping with the exterior appearance and it will serve the county for years to come. The acoustic properties, at first said to be imperfect, have been found to be all right and there is nothing about it that is faulty.

NO CHANGE, PERHAPS.

Borough Board of Education Averse to Appointing New School Physician.

Though transacting no important business, the North Plainfield Board of Education, at a meeting last night, received two applications for the appointment as school physician to succeed Dr. J. H. Buchanan. Both were referred, though not until the matter had been thoroughly discussed.

It was stated by one member of the board that Dr. Buchanan has proven satisfactory in every way and that there is a feeling against any change, notwithstanding that the physician was on the opposite side of the political fence. His term expired with the reorganization of the board last month.

Mrs. Babcock's Talk on Travels.

The meeting of the Women's Christian Temperance Union, to be held at the W. C. T. U. rooms, Madison avenue on Thursday afternoon, will be addressed by Mrs. Babcock, who will talk of her travels through Norway and Sweden. A silver offering for the work will be received.

RECTOR WANTS TENNIS COURTS NEAR CHURCH

REV. MR. PECK WISHES TO PROVIDE ENJOYMENT FOR YOUNG PARISHONERS.

Appreciating the demand for healthful exercise and a diversion of some sort, Rev. Arthur S. Peck, rector of St. Stephen's church, is anxious to establish tennis courts at some point convenient to the church and its members for play during the summer. There are many young people in the church who are fond of the game and who would like to see the suggestion followed out.

In this same connection the rector says that it would be a fine thing for the church if there was some place where there could be provided a reading room, bowling alleys, and where general entertainments might be held. He further suggests that every parish needs its workroom.

Some time ago Mr. Peck suggested that it would be an excellent idea if a clubhouse could be established in the Netherwood district, there being an urgent demand for such a place. He believed that this would result in keeping many young men at home and away from evil influences. The idea seems to have met with considerable favor among the men of St. Stephen's parish.

COAL BIDS SUBMITTED TO THE SCHOOL BOARD

SIX FIRMS FILE FIGURES—REFERRED TO COMMITTEE.

Bids for the year's supply of coal for the schools were received by the Board of Education last night, at a meeting held for the purpose. Six bidders filed figures. Of the six, C. T. Rogers & Co., New Market, were the lowest. The matter was placed in the hands of the committee on fuel, which is composed of Eugene Cave, L. N. Lovell and Floyd T. Woodhull.

The bidders and the figures submitted, for various sizes, were as follows:

C. T. Rogers & Co.—Nut, $5.65; pea, $4.40; buckwheat, $3.15.

Beice, Runyon & Co.—Egg, stove and nut, $5.85; buckwheat, $3.25.

McDonough Bros. — Egg, $5.85; stove, $5.80; nut, $5.75; pea, $4.85; buckwheat, $3.35.

G. O. Stevens—Egg, stove and nut, $5.78; pea, $4.70; buckwheat, $3.30.

Consumers' Coal Co.—Pea, $4.65; egg, $5.12; buckwheat, $3.28; nut, $5.76.

C. H. Rugg & Co.—Egg, $5.70; chestnut, $5.78; pea, $4.78; buckwheat, $3.30.

Three bids for school supplies were submitted. James B. Wilson & Co., J. S. Hammett and Peckham, Little & Co., all of New York, were the bidders. The letting of the contract was referred to the committee on supplies, made up of F. T. Woodhull, Charles F. Abbott and Dr. J. B. Probasco.

MARRIED TWENTY YEARS.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Kenney Celebrate an Interesting Anniversary.

In celebration of their twentieth wedding anniversary, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Kenney, of Watchung avenue, entertained a number of friends at a dinner party last night. Fully forty guests were present.

The house was attractively decorated with flowers and potted plants, the effect in the dining room being especially striking. Mr. and Mrs. Kenney received a large number of handsome gifts.

CONSTITUTION, HIS TOPIC

David P. Hall Addressed the Equal Suffrage League.

TOLD OF ITS ORIGIN

Intellectual Discussion of the Greatest Instrument Made by Man—At Truell Inn.

David Prescott Hall gave a lecture on "The Origin and Nature of the Federal Constitution at Truell Inn, yesterday afternoon, before the Equal Suffrage League and their invited guests which showed deep study and a masterly grasp of the difficult questions involved. It was listened to with earnest attention and he was warmly congratulated at its close, on his clear and interesting presentation of the subject.

The lecturer began by describing the situation of affairs which confronted the delegates to the Constitutional Convention, in view of the opposing principles held by the descendants of the Round-Heads and the Cavaliers, laying stress upon the fact that the former were used to local self-government and to the settlement of constitutional questions by the courts, while among the latter, practically all authority emanated from State sources. Hence came their insistance upon a nation of a league between States, while the former derived a government which should act directly upon the individual citizen. He sketched briefly but graphically, the struggles in the convention between these opposing principles, and the greater struggle which ensued before the people, in the campaign for and against its satisfaction.

The Bill of Rights, by which our liberties were guaranteed, was briefly rehearsed, and the foundation shown in their sources, the Magna Carter, or the Great Charter, the Petition of Rights and the Bill of Rights. He called attention to the fact that the recent decisions of the Supreme Court of the United States in the Baivery case and in another case rested upon the provisions in the Constitution which had their origin in Magna Carter extorted by the Barons from King John more than 700 years ago.

In conclusion, he sketched briefly the famous system of so-called "checks and balances" by which the equilibrium between the departments of the government has been preserved, adverted to the simplicity of the Constitution, its elasticity and capability of expansion to meet the growing needs of the nation.

He ended by quoting from Bryce's American Commonwealth "The Institution of the United States" are believed to disclose and display "the type of institutions toward which, as by a law of fate, the rest of mankind are forced to move, some with swifter, others with slower, but all with unresting feet." Mr. Hall also reminded his hearers that Gladstone spoke of the Constitution as "The greatest work ever struck off by the hands of man."

The annual meeting of the Equal Suffrage League, which preceded the lecture, showed a membership of forty-four, as against twenty-eight a year ago. The prosperous year of the society will close with the meeting on May 22, when plans for next year's study will be adopted.

The officers of the League are: President, Mrs. Florence Howe Hall; vice president and auditor, Mrs. Isaac L. Miller; treasurer, Mrs. Samuel Huntington; corresponding secretary, Mrs. William L. Patton; recording secretary, Mrs. Harold Durar.

Admire Police System.

Mayor Brace, Chief of Police Burke and Alderman Toft, of Perth Amboy, who visited this city last Friday for the purpose of inspecting the police station, call system, and to learn something of the system here, have made public acknowledgement of the superiority of the Plainfield force and system over that of their own city. They express envious admiration for the excellent police methods and equipment of Plainfield.

Party for Little Ones.

Miss Martine Weeks, of West Seventh street, assisted by her cousin, Miss Elizabeth Martin, of Lincoln place, gave an "Easter party" to about thirty little folks this afternoon.

Popular Mayor There.

Former Mayor Patrick J. Ryan, of Elizabeth, was among the enthusiastic baseball fans, who witnessed Saturday's game between the Elizabeth Stars and Plainfield.

WALLACE ON CANAL

Chief Engineer Says Panama Waterway Is Progressing.

COMMISSION NOT "WABBLING" AT ALL

All Work Being Done In a Definite Manner and In Accordance With Plans—Possible Modifications Will Cause No Loss.

CHICAGO, April 25.—John F. Wallace, the chief engineer of the Panama canal commission, who has arrived in Chicago to visit his home for a week or ten days, said he was very much surprised to note from his reading of the daily papers that the American public seemed to have the idea that the canal commission was just "wabbling around" in a hazy sort of way without any definite plan as to the way it should build the Panama canal. Mr. Wallace said he would like to have this impression corrected.

The work of building the canal, he said, is going forward under definite plans and with satisfactory progress. All work is being done in accordance with the plan recommended by the first isthmian commission, which was headed by Admiral Walker and upon which the Spooner act was based—i. e. the ninety foot level canal, to cost approximately $194,000,000. The commission is constructing a canal in strict accordance with that project, with such necessary minor variations as will not conflict with the general plans, and if congress does not take any other action or adopt any other plans the commission will build and finish the canal in accordance with that plan, and it will be completed inside the time outlined and within the amount specified by the Spooner act. These are the facts.

Mr. Wallace said the only question before the American people and congress today is whether or not they desire to construct a better canal—at a lower level or even a sea level canal, for instance, and will provide the additional funds for it—than is contemplated by the present plans. Meanwhile the work is being so managed that whatever modifications may be decided upon by the secretary of war, the president and congress this work will fit in, and nothing in time or money will have been lost.

Mr. Wallace emphasized the statement that a Panama canal will be built by the present Panama canal commission upon this definite plan, now well under way, unless this plan is changed or modified by congress.

BEEF TRUST INQUIRY.

Jury Through With Aetna Trading Company Witnesses.

CHICAGO, April 25.—The federal grand jury which is investigating the business transactions of the meat packing industry has completed its examination for a time into the operations of the Aetna Trading company, and the remaining witnesses subpoenaed to tell what they knew of this concern were excused. The jurors will now take up the testimony of witnesses who are employed by the packers. One of the most important of these witnesses will be Mrs. Mary E. Marcey, author and stenographer, who was subpoenaed from Kansas City. She will, it is said, produce documentary evidence which she secured while gathering material to write stories concerning the packing industry. Mrs. Marcey was formerly employed as a stenographer by one of the packing concerns in Kansas City.

District Attorney Morrison states that the jury will continue its investigation of the beef industry until April 29, when the matter will be dropped until May 2 in order to investigate some other matters. After these cases are cleared up the beef inquiry will again be taken up and completed. No indictments on the main issue will be voted until after May 2, according to Mr. Morrison.

Stokes Names Judiciary Committee.

TRENTON, N. J., April 25.—Governor Stokes appointed the commission provided for in Senator Hutchinson's bill to recommend to the legislature any needed changes in the state's judiciary system. The commission named consists of ex-Governor John W. Griggs, ex-Governor Franklin Murphy, ex-Supreme Court Justice Bennet Van Sickle, Charles L. Corbin and John R. Hardin. All of these are lawyers except ex-Governor Murphy. The commission is not limited in its investigation, and the report may include recommendations that would require constitutional amendments to put them into effect or they may find that the needed changes can be accomplished by statute.

Nothing New From the Fleets.

ST. PETERSBURG, April 25.—The admiralty professes to have no information as to whether Vice Admiral Rojestvensky is waiting for Nebogatoff's re-enforcing detachment and say the matter is entirely in his hands and he has not communicated his determination. Naval men, however, are not inclined, as hitherto, to anticipate a junction of Nebogatoff with Rojestvensky. They suggest that the transport fleet may be left to the care of the slow but powerful ships of Nebogatoff's detachment while Rojestvensky tries conclusions with Togo.

India's Terrible Desolation.

LAHORE, April 25.—The lieutenant governor of the Punjab in the course of a public address on behalf of the earthquake fund stated that he hoped the deaths by the earthquake had not exceeded 15,000, but within the affected area, 700 square miles, with a population of 250,000, nearly every building had collapsed or been rendered uninhabitable.

A BIG EMBEZZLEMENT

Milwaukee Banker Owns to Defalcation of $1,450,000.

LOST IT IN WHEAT SPECULATION.

Frank G. Bigelow Is Arrested After Being Deposed as President—Directors Meet and Oversubscribe the Heavy Shortage.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., April 25.—Frank G. Bigelow, president of the First National bank of Milwaukee, was arrested charged with the embezzlement of over $100,000 of the bank's funds. The arrest of Mr. Bigelow followed his confession to the board of directors of the bank that he was a defaulter to the extent of $1,450,000. Following Mr. Bigelow's confession he was removed from the presidency of the bank, and the facts in the case were laid before the federal authorities.

The complaint was sworn to by United States District Attorney H. K. Butterfield. It charges that Bigelow as president of the First National bank embezzled a sum exceeding $100,000. A complaint and a warrant identical with those in Bigelow's case were made out to Henry G. Goll, assistant cashier of the bank, but Goll could not be found.

President Bigelow was taken before United States Commissioner Bloodgood, and bail was fixed at $25,000, and he was released to appear before the next federal grand jury.

President Bigelow's confession was made a special meeting of the board of directors Saturday evening. He met with the directors Sunday night. In addressing his fellow directors President Bigelow said he had a painful statement to make, a confession that he had misdirected the funds of the bank and that an examination of his books and a comparison of figures would show that he was indebted to the bank for more than $1,450,000. This money, he said, had been lost in speculation in wheat and stocks. Not a dollar of it could be recovered, and the only sum he could offer toward compensating the bank was personal securities valued at $300,000.

Mr. Bigelow had been recognized as among the foremost financiers of the northwest. He has been associated with the First National bank in various capacities for more than fifteen years, and his business connections with trust companies, manufacturing concerns, real estate deals and other similar ventures numbered scores. He was honored a year ago by election to the presidency of the American Bankers' association.

In making his statement to the directors of the bank Mr. Bigelow said he had become involved in speculation in Wall street several months ago. More recently he had been a persistent bull in the wheat market, and recent losses in grain had been added to heavy reverses in Wall street. From small manipulations of the bank's funds he had extended the defalcations until his shortage had passed the $1,000,000 mark. He saw no possibility of returning the money and therefore confessed his actions.

Funds were at once provided by the directors of the bank to protect depositors against loss and to save the bank from a stampede. More than $1,000,000 was guaranteed to the bank by various stockholders, and no serious run was made on the bank. It is not thought that any complications with creditors of the bank will follow.

During the meeting of directors, which was almost continuous for thirty-six hours, several plans were suggested for protecting the interests of the bank. One, it is said, was to accept the resignation of the president and to permit him to go to Europe while the directors make good the amount of his shortage. This would effectually protect the bank. This alleged proposal never came to a conclusion because several of the directors demanded that the defaulter be punished. A plan to make up the shortage for the protection of depositors was then approved.

Bigelow was removed from the presidency of the bank and the case was referred to federal officers.

When the federal marshal called at the Bigelow house to serve the warrant the former bank president was in the library with his wife. Mrs. Bigelow refused to withdraw, and the warrant was read in her presence.

"I'll be ready to go with you at once," said the bankrupt. Then he kissed his wife an affectionate farewell and left with the officers, the two walking to the Federal building, where a United States commissioner was in waiting. None of Mr. Bigelow's friends were in the courtroom during the brief proceedings.

When the resolution was adopted removing Mr. Bigelow from the presidency of the bank Henry Goll, assistant cashier, was also removed. The removal of the assistant cashier was due to the statement of President Bigelow that he was aided by Goll in concealing the shortage in the bank's accounts.

The method adopted was an old one. Collection accounts were manipulated 40 or even 50 per cent to make it appear that the reserve fund was intact, and the amount of the increased collection fund was diverted to special stock operations. The reserve maintained in eastern banks was tampered with, the books of the First National being fixed so that the reserve appeared to be larger by several hundred thousand dollars than it really was. These and other methods were pursued by Bigelow in securing money from the bank. In the falsifying of records and the manipulation of reserves Bigelow declares he was aided by Assistant Cashier Goll and two bookkeepers in the bank. These bookkeepers acted on the orders of Bigelow, and they have neither been discharged nor suspended, and they will be called as witnesses in the criminal proceedings against the former bank president. The manipulation of accounts has been going on for months, according to the statement of one of the directors, but so cleverly was the work done that neither the directors nor the national bank examiners discovered that anything was wrong with the funds of the bank. The first intimation that there were irregularities came to Charles F. Pfister, a director, Friday evening, when an employee of the bank gave Mr. Pfister information sufficient to start an investigation. Then followed a meeting of the directors and the confession.

As soon as the directors ascertained the full extent of the peculations steps were taken to protect the depositors and other creditors. Charles F. Pfister subscribed $600,000 to a fund to make good the surplus; John L. Beggs, president of the Milwaukee Electric Railway and Light company, gave $300,000, and William Bigelow, a brother of the president, added $100,000 to the amount. Other directors subscribed lesser sums until the amount raised reached $1,635,000.

Prior to this the directors had been in conference with bankers of Chicago and New York. As a result $1,000,000 was sent to Milwaukee by Chicago banks before the news of the defalcation was made public. Several hundred thousand dollars in gold was transferred to the First National bank by local banks, so that institution was prepared for a run.

When the bank closed for the afternoon some 2,000 depositors were waiting for their money. Nearly $1,000,000 was paid out in two hours, and many customers, demanding the closing of their accounts, had not been served.

While President Bigelow's defalcation amounts to about $1,450,000 he restored $300,000 and the directors subscribed $1,635,000, thus leaving the bank better off by about $400,000 than it was before the funds were depleted by the peculations of the president.

Bigelow once was personally rated as a millionaire, and this fortune has been lost as well as the sum taken from the bank. He has a magnificent home in Astor street, and his family is prominent socially in Milwaukee. Bigelow is a member of several clubs. He has been a generous donor to charity and has been a favorite with all classes.

WHEAT DECLINES AGAIN.

May Price Drops In Chicago to 93 With Heavy Selling.

CHICAGO, April 25.—Remnants of the famous "Gates" line of May wheat were thrown upon an unsupported market on the board of trade during the day, adding a further decline of 7½ cents to the sensational 11½ cents break of Saturday. This recession from the dollar mark, the last price of the previous session, was rapid and spectacular and was accompanied by demonstrations in the pit almost equal to those of Saturday. When the final bell closed the day's operations May wheat was being offered at 93 cents, a net loss of 7 cents on the day's trading.

First grades on the May option yesterday ranged from 96 to 98 cents. P. A. Valentine of Armour & Co. was seemingly giving the market heroic support. His best efforts, however, availed little in the way of a rally, the only effect being a temporary check to the downward plunge of prices. The trade appeared to suspect Armour of wishing to bolster up prices in order to make a market for the remainder of the Gates line of May wheat. From all sides wheat was offered in overwhelming volumes.

When it was found that support was useless "clique" houses unloaded on the sinking market holdings estimated at several million bushels. The price was hammered to 95 cents within the first hour. Before midday 92½ cents was reached. Meantime a new fear had taken possession of traders in general. Many operators had bought largely of July wheat because Armour was said to have taken 6,000,000 bushels of that delivery during the stirring days of last week.

These operators to all appearances suddenly detected a movement on the part of the bull leaders to get out of the July option. The result of this suspicion was a bear raid on the more distant option, followed by a 2 cents decline, the price of July dropping from 86¾ to 84¾.

This weakening in July was regarded with more concern by a large element in the trade than was the day's crash in May values.

During the last hour of trading the market held comparatively steady, demand being of good character.

Verestschagin's Celebrated Painting
"Come in Boys" or the
"Charge of San Juan Hill" on Free Exhibition until May 13,
Picture Dept., 3d Floor

PARTICULAR interest centres in this canvas, which is recognized as the masterpiece of the celebrated Russian artist, Vassili Verestschagin, who lost his life on the ill-fated battleship which "turned turtle" off Port Arthur recently. This painting portrays the principal incident in the battle of San Juan, July 3, 1898, and was executed with the approval of President Roosevelt in order that future generations might see exactly the garb, arms, etc., of the American soldiers in the Spanish-American war. To paint it, the artist made two trips to Cuba, and finished it at Fort Meyer, near Washington, where a studio was specially built for him, and the troops turned out for skirmish drill, firing blank smokeless powder cartridges, so that the exact haze which it causes could be faithfully painted. Equal attention was devoted to every detail to make it the truth. The particular incident which gives the painting its name is the charge of the 1st Cavalry and the Rough Riders up Kettle Hill, which adjoins San Juan, the principal assault being on the latter. A battery of Spanish artillery from the top of Kettle Hill was shelling the advance on the other. The 1st Cavalry was in regimental line at the bottom of Kettle Hill on the side of a road there. The Rough Riders going to the front came along. Roosevelt saw the effect of the battery, asked the officer in command of the Regulars why he did not charge and silence it. He replied that he had no orders. Roosevelt then turned to his command, saying: "Come In, Boys." The Regulars, as well as his own men, followed him, and the position was taken. The cross-fire on San Juan being stopped, the American charge was successful and the battle won. The painting is considered the best that Verestchagin ever painted, both graphically and artistically and will be on free exhibition in our picture department until May 13th.

CLOSING AT AQUEDUCT.

Oaklawn Took Canarsie Stakes—Success of Spring Meeting.

NEW YORK, April 25.—Oaklawn, at the prohibitive price of 1 to 10, easily won the Canarsie stakes at Aqueduct. He outclassed his field so much that out of ten entries only four went to the post, with High Brush an added starter. Oaklawn led all the way, winning by three-fourths of a length.

Grenade, the favorite, won the Flushing stakes in a drive by three-fourths of a length from Ocean Tide.

Getaway day at this track was signalized by a large crowd, a first class programme and a cloudy, chilly day that made overcoats and heavy wraps a necessity. Ten thousand or 12,000 race goers turned out to assist at the closing ceremonies of the best spring meeting Aqueduct has ever had.

Whorler won the first race in a gallop from King Pepper. The latter delayed the start for some minutes. The field got away with Whorler in front. From the far turn on Whorler was never bothered and in the stretch drew away to win by half a dozen lengths.

Only five horses started in the second race, and the talent made Monet the choice. Monet was much the best and won easily. Amberjack flattered his backers for half a mile.

Racing at Baltimore.

BALTIMORE, April 25. — Local horses were in the money in each event at Pimlico. The track was good and the weather perfect. In the steeplechase Woden fell at the second water jump, but Jockey Connelly was not injured. Jockey O'Brien was fined $10 for infraction of track rules after the fifth race. The last race, the best on the card, was won in a driving finish by Brush Up.

Four Favorites Won at Nashville.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., April 25.—Four favorites won at Cumberland park. Though without any special feature, the card was a good one, and the large crowd present had considerably the better of the betting. Myth, in the steeplechase, fell at the third jump, breaking his neck, but McClure, the rider, was unhurt.

Track Record Broken at St. Louis.

ST. LOUIS, April 25.—Rightful won the fourth race at the American Jockey club track and broke the track record for six and a half furlongs by going the distance in 1:21. The performance was not to Judge Murphy's liking, and it was announced that all future entries of Rightful will be refused.

Chadwick Sale In New York.

NEW YORK, April 25.—Several carloads of fine furnishings of Mrs. Cassie L. Chadwick's Euclid avenue home in Cleveland have been brought to this city and are being sold at auction at the Knickerbocker Art galleries, 7 West Twenty-ninth street. The oil paintings will be sold by themselves in the ballroom of the Hotel Astor tomorrow. A large part of the paintings, fine glass, china and furniture was found in the cellars of the Cleveland mansion and in the barn. It had never been even unpacked.

Vladivostok Ready For Long Siege.

GUNSHU PASS, Manchuria, April 25.—The wet weather is increasing the amount of infectious diseases, but the general health of the Russian army is good. The Japanese army is reported to have been recruited to its full strength, companies numbering 280 men, and each regiment has ten quick fire guns. Vladivostok, in expectation of a siege, is far better provisioned than Port Arthur was. Immense quantities of stores collected in Manchuria were accumulated there last fall and winter.

THE SMITHS IN COURT

Their Entrance Causes Sensation at Nan Patterson Trial.

NOT CALLED TO WITNESS STAND

Chorus Girl's Composure Somewhat Shaken at Third Trial as Compared With Former Ordeals. The Tragedy Re-enacted.

NEW YORK, April 25.—Just before the third trial of Nan Patterson for the murder of Caesar Young was adjourned for the day J. Morgan Smith and his wife were taken from the Tombs prison into the courtroom.

Their entry created somewhat of a sensation, and when the news of their appearance was whispered about the interest of the spectators left the central figure in the case and was centered upon her relatives, who are accused of being parties to a conspiracy which, Mr. Rand says, resulted in the death of the bookmaker.

The Smiths took a deep interest in the testimony as given by the witness on the stand, Edward J. Quinn, a detective attached to the Leonard street station, and it was expected that they would be called after he had finished to testify. At the conclusion of his testimony, however, Recorder Goff declared an adjournment, and the curious spectators were disappointed.

Whether or not it is her physical condition or fear inspired by the insinuation contained in Mr. Rand's opening address that he has obtained evidence against J. Morgan Smith which is unfavorable to her case, it is very evident that the chorus girl's composure in the present trial is not the same as that which was so marked in her previous appearances before the tribunals of justice.

When the revolver with which Caesar Young was shot and his clothing with the bullet hole and red stained shirt was exhibited as mute evidence of the tragedy she shuddered and hung her head, apparently unwilling to view the grewsome objects.

While an unusually large assemblage of women spectators craned their necks in their eagerness to see and hear all that passed, the most dramatic incident that has yet occurred took place when Policeman Junior, by the aid of a court officer, depicted the scene in the hansom cab on the morning of last June 4 when he opened the cab door and looked into the vehicle.

FROM WEALTH TO POVERTY.

Man Once Carnegie's Partner and a Millionaire Evicted a Pauper.

CORNWALL-ON-HUDSON, N. Y., April 25.—Shattered in mind and body, his last dollar gone, his wife in the poorhouse, Edwin Powell, once a partner of Andrew Carnegie and many times a millionaire, has been thrust from his large estate, Halcyon park, a beggar. The old man was led before a justice and given two hours to get out of town, the officials having steeled their hearts against him on account of the scandalous affairs in which he has been involved during the past few years.

The tragedy of Powell's life, pitiful as is its culmination, has moved few people here to sympathy. This is purely and simply because of the objectionable nature of his vagaries which have led him to proclaim himself the Messiah and later the putative father of a newborn Christ. Since his failure in 1890 Powell has been little more than a madman, his mania taking the form of religious fanaticism. In spite of his performances he was tolerated, however, until the final downfall.

Last Friday he was evicted from Halcyon park on proceedings brought by a millionaire of Pittsburg named Winters, who has long held a mortgage on it. Before the time for him to leave town came his son Luther, who is in business in New York, arrived and took him away. Otherwise he would have been committed for vagrancy.

Many years ago Powell was one of the suddenly made millionaires of Pittsburg. He was in partnership with Andrew Carnegie and soon rolled up an enormous fortune. In 1890 he married Mrs. Isabelle Sargent, a widow, one of the well known Negley family of Pittsburg. It is said he had been married previous to this and that there is a first wife still living in Brooklyn.

At any rate it wasn't long after his marriage that Powell failed in business. A great deal of money—the amount is placed at $1,500,000—was saved out of the wreck, and with part of this Powell bought Halcyon park here from F. B. Young. The place is thirty-five acres. It wasn't long after the Powells arrived here that Powell's mind began to fail.

Ambassador Meyer Well Received.

ST. PETERSBURG, April 25.—Ambassador Meyer has now completed his rounds of calls upon members of the imperial family. His reception everywhere was of the most flattering character. The American ambassador, with his experience at Rome behind him, is quickly mastering the difficult diplomatic ropes of the Russian capital and already has conceived plans for increasing the activity of the embassy and especially in the line of broadening its machinery for obtaining prompt and reliable reports from the interior of Russia for his government.

Old Dewey Homestead Sold.

MONTPELIER, Vt., April 25.—The mortgage on the house in this city in which Admiral George Dewey was born has been foreclosed to satisfy a debt of $2,700. T. J. Deavitt is the mortgagee. Shortly after the battle of Manila bay the owner valued the house at $10,000.

Yes, "High License," both Councilmen got their watches back.

By this time David Belasco can appreciate Metcalfe's solo: "Open that Door, and Let Me In."

Texas has made an anti-gambling law and it will be about as effective as a law against sleeping.

One who has reason to hold his head in shame has the temerity to remark that the local newspapers have hurt the town by publishing the exact account of a disgraceful exhibition. Doesn't it occur to you that the culpable ones are those who participate in such affairs. Publicity is a pretty good police officer.

An evangelist says that every bachelor should be taxed until he is 30 and if unmarried then he should be put in the penitentiary. We will wager something that the evangelist is a married man. It is a good thing for some of us that he doesn't make the laws.—Elizabeth Times.

Aye, aye Brother Sauer. But don't say anything to Mr. Hillery.

Many favorable comments have been made on the cartoon of the Plainfield-Elizabeth game published yesterday and it has been decided to make these funny pictures a feature during the local baseball and golf seasons. The genial and versatile William N. Runyon is responsible for the initial sketch and he has kindly consented to continue to draw for us. When the season of sports is ended the political battle will be on and we hope to have Mr. Runyon depict some of humor of the campaign, which will afford an even richer field to work in.

A wise editor says: "A man told us the other day that we did not publish all the things that happened. We should say not. In the first place, there is somebody else depending on us for a living. If we printed all that happens we would soon be with the angels. In order to please the people we must print only the nice things said of them and leave the rest to gossip. Yet it's a fact we don't publish all the news. If we did wouldn't it make spicy reading? But it would be for one week only; the next week you would read our obituary. All the news is all right when it's about the other fellow."—Westfield Standard.

Having the same object though varying materially in its general scheme to the Tyler excise ordinance now in the Plainfield Common Council, a bill has been introduced in the Assembly of New York State which will confine the sale of liquor to the business sections of cities, towns and villages. The bill will come up for action this week and it is scheduled for passage. Assemblyman Wainwright, of Westchester, who is the father of the measure, says that those who have studied the question thoroughly believe that any residence section would vote to keep out saloons and his proposed law will give them the opportunity to do so. The residence section is defined in the bill to be any clearly described, contiguous, compact section or territory in a city or incorporated village bounded by street, corporation or other well recognized lines or boundaries and containing not fewer than 300 nor more than 5,000 qualified electors. "In the first place," said Mr. Wainwright, in referring to his bill, "it was my idea to do away with the isolated saloons in purelly residence blocks, and not to prohibit saloons along well recognized business thoroughfares no matter whether these business thoroughfares cut through residence districts or not. For that reason my bill contains a provision excepting business streets, which are defined as 'a portion of any street, between two cross streets, or 500 feet long, 75 per cent. of the abutting property on which is used for business purposes.' There is in the Wainwright bill the further provision that in the case of such a block both sides of the street shall be included in the exception. In other words, if one side of a street was used for business purposes and the other side for residences the business side was to control, so that one side of such a street couldn't be 'dry' and the other side 'wet.' A street coming within the description anywhere in a district laid out by request of 40 per cent. of the electors, confirmed by a vote of the resident electors as a district in which liquor was to be prohibited, would be excepted on account of its character as a business street. As the bill passed the Assembly, it also provided for exceptions in the case of hotels having fifty or more rooms and in the case of clubs. The whole purpose of this bill is to put the saloons where they belong. The only ones that would be put out of business are those isolated ones which you find here and there in a street given over to residences. It is true that through the operation of the law one side of a street might be restricted and the other not. These boundary streets would occur probably in the purely residence districts. Should it result in saloons cropping up on the 'wet' side of such streets there are plenty of ways by which this could be stopped by the inhabitants of the contiguous districts."

The measure now on second reading in the local Common Council is more drastic than the Wainwright bill for it establishes a saloon district, its limits being practically those of the business section, and settles the matter absolutely. It is copied after an ordinance in force in Minneapolis and other cities where it is claimed to work effectively. The majority of the city fathers favor Mr. Tyler's scheme and it will no doubt be put to a test before very long.

IN THE SHOPS

Edward Conners has resigned his position at the Pond Tool Works.

Samuel Clouston, of the Manganese Steel Safe Works, has returned from a business trip to Portland, Me.

John Barrowman, who went to England a year ago, has returned to Plainfield and has taken his old position at the Potter Press Works.

George Muir, of the Pond shop, is kept at home by blood poisoning in the hand contracted by scratching his finger with a piece of rusty wire.

The death of George Schuck, who had been a foreman at Pond's, came as a distinct shock to his fellow employes. He had been sick at intervals of a month but late last week he sent word that he would be back at the shop yesterday. Word of his death came instead and it was a surprise to all.

SUBURBAN NEWS.

DUNELLEN AND VICINITY.

The music at the local churches Sunday was of unusual beauty and elaborateness. Large congregations enjoyed them. At Holy Innocents' church, at the full high celebration, Miss Nellie Miller sang a solo, and quartette parts were rendered by Miss Jessie Haynes, alto; Miss Miller, soprano; Mr. Hallett, tenor, and Wade Lapham, bass. The altar was prettily decorated, under the direction of Miss Hallett, chairman of the altar committee. The choir of St. John's R. C. church, under the direction of Miss Frances Hunt, rendered special music. In decorating the altar a handsome and elaborate set of candelabra, presented by Miss Carrie Heyl, was used for the first time. A handsome sanctuary lamp, presented by the Holy Name Society hung before the altar, depended from the ceiling. The chief musical service for the Methodist church was held in the evening, when the Sunday-school took part in an Easter exercise entitled "Words of Cheer." The church was handsomely decorated with plants and flowers, under the direction of Mrs. F. H. Gise. Rev. S. K. Doolittle, the pastor, preached from the text "I am the Resurrection and the Life." At the Presbyterian church the Sunday-school rendered an exercise, "Nature's Awakening," Sunday night. Those who took part in it included Eliza Taylor, Nellie Vail, May Ross, Ruth Snyder, Irma Baldwin, Lilian Fisher, Helen Swackhamer, Kenneth Dealaman, William Dunham, Jr., Adam Dealaman, Allen Frederick, Edith Hamilton, Geraldine Baldwin and May Day.

Plans for the coming celebration of the two hundredth anniversary of the Seventh-Day Baptist church are progressing rapidly. The dates for the big gathering have been fixed for May 25, 26, 27, 28. The three first days will be devoted to the annual meeting of the Eastern Association of the denomination, which is to be held in conjunction with the celebration, and the last day will be given over to an anniversary service. The arrangements for the service are being made by Rev. L. E. Livermore, former pastor, and Pastor H. N. Jordan. The other committees are made up as follows: Entertainment committee, J. R Dunham, chairman; J. G. Burdick, C. E. Rogers; finance committee, C. T. Rogers, chairman; E. J. Dunn, J. R. Dunham; reception committee, A. H. Burdick, chairman; T. F. Randolph, A. E. Curtis, W. G. Dunn, C. M. Ryno; committee from Ladies' Aid Society, Mrs. Lizzie Dunham, chairman; Mrs. Kina Curtis, Mrs. Ena Jordan.

Arrangements have been completed for the entertainment to be held by the Sunshine Band, of Holy Innocents' church, May 2. The committee in charge is composed of Mrs. Charles S. Day, chairman; Miss Jessie Haynes, Mrs. John Lance.

A New York man was in the borough last week looking for sites for small houses. He is interested in the Dewey Park section, on account of its central location in relation to the factories.

Three young women comprised a class admitted to the Presbyterian church Sunday night on confession. They were Miss Effie Batley, Miss Mary Baldwin and Miss Florence Jennings.

Miss Amy Sampson, who is studying at the State Normal School, Trenton, has begun a month of practice as teacher in Bound Brook.

Miss Ethel Rogers has returned to the Normal School after a week's stay at home.

After a short visit with his parents, John Peters has returned to Cranford.

George Whitley, it is reported, will pitch for New Market nine again.

The village school reopened yesterday after a week's vacation.

THE SMITHSONIAN

SOMETHING OF THE GREAT INSTITUTION AT WASHINGTON.

Its Founder an Englishman—Congress Hesitated to Accept the Gift —Of Inestimable Value to World of Science.

Recently in the Smithsonian Institution at Washington was performed the ceremony of sealing the tomb of the founder of the institution, the Englishman James Smithson.

This institution, which has such a high place in the scientific world, which our nation points to with greatest pride, was given us by a foreigner, James Smithson, son of the duke of Northumberland. Smithson was himself a scientist of note; early in life showed interest in this field of human effort, and all his life was "an associate of the leading men of science, and devoted himself to research." Though belonging to the great house of Northumberland and, through his mother, a Percy, related to kings, yet it is thought he was in full sympathy with our republican form of government; perhaps because of the greater needs of a new land for such a gift as he had in his mind's eye, he gave to America the great legacy.

In these words was the gift bestowed: "I bequeath the whole of my property to the United States of America to found at Washington an establishment for the increase and diffusion of knowledge among men."

And how did the United States accept the rich offering? It is almost incredible to believe that her attitude for some time was not only ungrateful but also ungracious. There was much hesitation about stooping to take a foreigner's gift, there was great opposition in congress to its acceptance. Statesmen declared it beneath the dignity of the United States to receive presents, said the donor was in this manner striving after immortality for his name. But the proud citizens were finally prevailed upon to look at the matter in the light of its value to the country, the name of John Quincy Adams prominent among those enthusiastically laboring to bring about this attitude.

At last public opinion granted we might accept, and a representative was sent over to England to obtain the money. He entered suit in the courts of chancery; received the money and brought it to this country in the form of 104,960 gold sovereigns.

But not yet was there the right feeling toward the projected institution. There ensued eight long years of wrangling as to the best disposal of the sum. "Schools of every grade, from a national university to an agricultural school, a normal school, and a school for the blind, were proposed. A library, a botanical garden, an observatory, a chemical laboratory, a popular publishing house, a lecture lyceum, an art museum, any and all of these and many more were proposed and advocated by this voluntary congress of many men of many minds."

It was in 1846 the Smithsonian Institution was formally established by act of congress, and the following year that building was begun. The ornate structure which bears the name of Smithsonian Institution stands in a conspicuous position in the "Mall," which extends from the capitol to the Washington monument. Additions have been made to the original building, and "visitors to the city of Washington carry away pleasant memories of the quiet group of buildings among the trees of the Mall, filled with wonders of nature and art, and the trophies of scientific discovery."

The plan of organization adopted was that proposed by Prof. Joseph Henry, the man who gave to the world the electro-magnetic telegraph. The chief features of Prof. Henry's plan were, to quote his own words, to assist men of science in making original researches, to publish them in a series of volumes, and to give a copy to every first-class library on the face of the earth.

The publications of the Smithsonian Institution by now are very numerous, and are authoritative. Its library, which is a portion of the congressional library —for half a century the government and the institution have been closely associated, to mutual advantage—is a wonderful collection of scientific works. The institution is custodian of the national museum. Space allows only mention of the bureau of exchanges, the astro-physical observatory, the national zoological park, and the bureau of American ethnology.

FIVE SWIM IN ICY BAY AS AN ELIXIR.

Father and His Four Stalwart Sons Plunge Into Zero Water Once a Week for Their Health.

Orient, L. I.—Remarkable as an instance of stalwartness and endurance is the customary practice of Fred L. Latham and his four sons, who live a couple of miles distant from this village. The Latham house is situated close to Hallock's bay. Once every week the father and his sons plunge into the bay for a swim.

For the last month the bay has been frozen over with a thick coating of ice. Undeterred, however, in the exploitation of what they believe is the real elixir of life, the five men have weekly crossed over on the ice to Long Beach and have taken their plunge in the zero waters of Gardiner's bay. The men were buffeted about by the cakes of ice and often struck against a whirling floe in their dives, but, nevertheless, were not frightened from their practice.

The hardiness of the family is exemplified in every way in their mode of living. There are 14 children. All are of rugged build and dress in the lightest weight apparel the year round. Food of the plainest sort, cultivated on their own farm, is the family's fare. The boys all work on the farm. Even the little lad of ten does his share in the fields and barns.

The Lathams are recluses. The villagers know little of them, although the boys are seen occasionally in Orient. The first news of the feats of cold water swimming by the Lathams was told one morning by Walter L. Tuthill, E. Cook Petty, William Latham and Lowry Latham, all of whom witnessed the icy swim. According to the report of these men Frank Latham took a hoe and basket and went on a clamming expedition to Long Beach. After he had procured sufficient clams for the family dinner he doffed his clothes and took the plunge. The Lathams never dry their bodies after the cold swim, as they believe only in that way are colds to be avoided.

The father is a man of tremendous proportions, and the sons, although the oldest is just 20, bid fair to equal his stature. The Lathams say their bay baths are nothing new.

"We have been doing it for years," says the elder Latham.

NOBLEMAN WOOS BARMAID.

Marquis Imagines He Has Found Wealthy Widow Only to Discover Her of Plebeian Origin.

London.—All society is laughing at the marquis of Townshend, who, while heiress hunting, imagined he had found a prize in the person of a fascinating widow of wealth, only to discover later that she had but recently graduated from the position of barmaid in a London public house.

The marquis, who is a nephew of the duke of Fife, who married the king's sister, in his quest for a rich bride met Mrs. Evelyn Dina Tournour. She represented herself as the daughter of Viscount Olardio, an Italian nobleman. She was pretty and captivating.

The marquis wooed the widow ardently, and soon asked her hand in marriage. He was accepted, whereupon, with his family solicitor, the marquis called upon the widow to arrange the settlements. His modest claims shed a curious light upon the manners and customs of the pennilless nobility. Not only did he demand a handsome settlement for himself, but he insisted that the widow settle $50,000 upon a clerical friend and $25,000 more on the clerical friend's son on the plea that he owed the clerical friend that amount.

The widow demurred at the settlement on the son of the clerical friend, whereat the marquis, shedding appropriate tears, exclaimed:

"This, then, will stop our marriage."

Thereafter the marquis grew cool. But it was not the intention of the widow to permit him thus easily to escape and she promptly brought suit for breach of promise. Detectives were placed on her trail and then the whole story came out. It was discovered that instead of being the daughter of an Italian nobleman her father runs a saloon in Southampton, in which his daughter had worked as barmaid, and that her mother was a servant.

Pressure was brought to bear on the woman and she withdrew her suit, returning all of the presents that she had received from the marquis, and remarking with delicious humor:

"I have not yet received back the presents that I gave my noble marquis."

An Ideal Location
Rosedale and Linden Park Cemeteries

LARGEST IN THE STATE
LINDEN, N. J.
Beautiful and Accessible
2 Miles from Elizabeth, 7 Miles from Newark,
14 MILES FROM NEW YORK
On Main Line Pennsylvania Railroad
Why Lots in These Cemeteries commend themselves to Heads of Families and Investors
BECAUSE of the $1,000,000 Trust Fund provided for by the Trustees in each Cemetery, the income from which will keep the properties perpetually beautiful at NO EXPENSE TO LOT OWNERS.
BECAUSE such a guarantee, not found in any other cemetery, assures lot owners that the grounds WILL BE MAINTAINED PERMANENTLY AS BEAUTIFUL PARKS AFTER THE INCOME FROM THE SALE OF LOTS HAS BEEN EXHAUSTED.
LOTS SHOULD BE PURCHASED NOW
BECAUSE MORE ADVANTAGES ARE OFFERED TO LOT BUYERS in a new Modern Park Cemetery than in those established many years and, in most cases, no provision made for perpetual care without extra expense to lot owners. THERE ARE A GREATER NUMBER OF IDEAL LOCATIONS TO SELECT FROM, PRICES OF LOTS ARE ALWAYS LOWER AND TERMS MORE ADVANTAGEOUS.
BECAUSE life is most uncertain and EVERY ONE SHOULD ANTICIPATE THE INEVITABLE BY MAKING A CHOICE NOW OF A FINAL RESTING PLACE.
LOTS WILL PROVE A GOOD INVESTMENT
BECAUSE they are sure to increase in value and can be purchased NOW at the INITIAL, or LOWEST PRICE and upon the most ADVANTAGEOUS TERMS.
BECAUSE the properties are ACCESSIBLE TO 4,000,000 PEOPLE, and considering the RAPID GROWTH OF GREATER NEW YORK and its TRIBUTARY CITIES and TOWNS, it is only a question of a SHORT TIME when LOTS in ROSEDALE and LINDEN PARK will EQUAL IN VALUE those of our MOST NOTED cemeteries.

AZIENZA
826 Second Place, Plainfield, N. J., October 26th, 1904.
Your AZIENZA certainly has wonderful healing properties. My cook had a deep and ugly looking fissure between two toes. It pained and annoyed her greatly. I did not know what it was nor do I now, but with some hesitancy I told her to try AZIENZA.
She did so and it gave her instant relief from the pain. I then gave her the box and in a few days she told me that it was entirely healed. I shall not hesitate again to recommend its use for any sore or inflamed part of the skin.
Sincerely yours,

MODES OF THE MOMENT.

Taffeta Jackets Are Worn With Checked Woolen Skirts.

The days are here when the spring suit is to be donned, and the new models are certainly smart and becoming. Very stunning are checked voile skirts worn with short, jaunty little jackets of taffeta tucked in the prettiest kind of fashion.

Pongee in natural color and the blue that comes in such a good shade in this material will be used for shirt waist suits and stunning loose coats to wear over fluffy summer dresses.

Burlingham is another material which lends itself beautifully to the needs of the tailor walking costume. It looks like silk hopsacking and is very serviceable and attractive.

Mohair is the most satisfactory fabric for hard wear and in its present supple weave adapts itself perfectly to the demands of fashion.

Panama cloth, the plain being considered smarter, makes an ideal coat and skirt gown, the skirt plaited and the coat a trim little bloused affair tucked into a high girdle of silk or velvet.

The spring costume illustrated is of mustard cloth. The skirt is trimmed with two rows of brown silk fiber braid two inches wide. Above the bands is a design done in narrow braid in geometrical figures and filled in with rows of bronze buttons. The blouse is draped in plaits about the figure and trimmed with braid. The smart little inner vest is of Irish lace fastened with two lines of tiny buttons. Braid also trims the shoulders and full sleeves.

JUDIC CHOLLET.

VANITY'S VISIONS.

The Saucer Hat One of the New Shapes—Blue and Mauve.

Fine crinoline straws in the most extraordinary colors are the first of the spring novelties to be launched. The shape is neither large nor small, and the crown is low, a mere apology for a crown, and the hat proper rises like a saucer around it.

The colors in the new hats are puce, amethyst and a kind of bluey mauve difficult to describe and all the tones of green, rose, pink, red and white.

The trimming on this saucer-like hat is of the simplest description—a fold of velvet around the crown tied in a knot with two pointed ends in front and a feather as a trimming over the back.

The art of the new millinery consists in the selection of shades, for straw, velvet and feather are not alike, but harmonize perfectly.

On lingerie blouses medallions of embroidery are trimmed around with narrow valenciennes lace. The material is cut from under the embroidery, and the effect is very lacy and pretty.

One charming organdie waist has a finely tucked yoke outlined with medallions of swiss embroidery trimmed around with narrow lace. The medallions are put so close together that the narrow lace ruffles fluff up against each other in a froufrouy fashion.

The collar and cuff sets pictured are some of the season's novelties. Very smart is the Dutch collar of eyelet embroidery. The linen turnover collar and cuffs are of the same work. Filet net appliqued with a fleur-de-lis forms the corners of the deep linen turnover, and herringbone is the dainty finish of the pointed collar. JUDIC CHOLLET.

The Romance of a Pirate's Daughter

By FRANK R. STOCKTON

Copyright, 1902, by D. Appleton & Co., New York.

It was not long, for the Restless had a fair wind, before the sail to the eastward came fully into sight. She was, in good truth, a merchantman, and got a large one. Dame Charter, very much excited, wondered what she would have on board.

CHAPTER XXVIII.

MR. DELAPLAINE LEADS A BOARDING PARTY.

STEADILY southward sailed the brig Black Swan which bore upon its decks the happy Mander family and our friend Dickory.

The sackcloth draperies of Lucilla, with the red cord tightly tied about them, had given place to a very ordinary gown fashioned by her mother and herself, which added so few charms to her young face and sparkling eyes that Dickory often thought that he wished there were some bushes on deck so that she might stand behind them and let him see only her face, as he had seen it when first he met her. But he saw the pretty face a great deal, for Lucilla was very anxious to know things, and asked many questions about Barbadoes, and also asked if there was any probability that the brig would go straight on to that lovely island without bothering to stop at Jamaica.

Our young friend still wore the naval uniform, although in coming on the brig he had changed it for some rough sailor's clothes. But Lucilla had besought him to be again a brave lieutenant.

Davids was at the wheel and Mander stood near him. These old friends had not yet finished talking about what had happened in the days since they had seen each other. Mrs. Mander sat, not far away, still making clothes, and little Lena was helping her in her childlike way. Lucilla and Dickory were still talking about Barbadoes. There never was a girl who wanted to know so much about an island as that girl wanted to know about Barbadoes.

Suddenly, there was a shout from above.

"What's that?" asked Mander.

"A sail," said Davids, peering out over the sea but able to see nothing. Lucilla and Dickory did not cease talking. At that moment Lucilla did not care greatly about sails, there was so much to be said about Barbadoes.

There was a good deal of talking forward, and after awhile the captain walked to the quarter-deck. He was a gruff man and his face was troubled.

"I am sorry to say," he growled, "that the ship we have sighted is a pirate; she flies the black flag."

Now there was no more talk about the Barbadoes, or what had happened

TO THE SURPRISE OF THE PEOPLE ON THE BLACK SWAN, THERE CAME NO SHOT FROM THE APPROACHING PIRATE.

to old friends, and the sewing dropped on the deck. Those poor Manders were chilled to the soul. Were they again to be taken by pirates?

"Captain," cried Mander, "what can we do, can we run away from them?"

"We could not run away from their guns," growled the captain, "and there is nothing to do. They intend to take this brig, and that's the reason they have run up their skull and bones. They are bearing directly down upon us with a fair wind; they will be firing a gun presently, and then I shall lay to and wait for them."

To the surprise of the people on the Black Swan there came no shot from the approaching pirate; but as she still bore down upon them, running before the wind, the captain of the brig lay to and lowered his flag. Submission now was all there was before them. No man on the brig took up arms, nor did the crew form themselves into any show of resistance; that would have but made matters worse.

As the pirate vessel came on, nearer and nearer, a great number of men could be seen stretched along her deck and some brass cannon were visible trained upon the unfortunate brig.

But, to the surprise of the captain of the Black Swan, and of nearly everybody on board of her, the pirate did not run down upon her to make fast and board. Instead of that, she put about into the wind and lay to less than a quarter of a mile away. Then two boats were lowered and filled with men, who rowed towards the brig.

"They have special reasons for our capture," said the captain to those who were crowded about him; "he may be well laden now with plunder, and comes to us for our gold and silver. Or it may be that he merely wants the brig. If that be so, he can quickly rid himself of us."

That was a cruel speech when women had to hear it, but the captain was a rough fellow.

The boats came on as quietly as if they were about to land at a neighboring pier. Dickory and Lucilla cautiously peeped over the rail, Dickory without his hat, and Lucilla, hiding herself, all but a part of her face, behind him; the Manders crouched together on the deck, the father with glaring eyes and a knife in his hand. The crew stood with their hats removed and their chins lowered, waiting for what might happen next.

The boats neared the ship and were soon made fast; every help was offered by the crew of the brig, and not a sign of resistance was shown. The leader of the pirates mounted to the deck, followed by the greater part of his men.

For a moment Capt. Ichabod glanced about him, and then, addressing the captain of the brig, he said: "This is all very well. I am glad to see that you have sense enough to take things as you find them, and not stir up a fracas and make trouble. I overhauled you that I might lay in a stock of provisions, and some wine and spirits beside, having no desire, if you treat us rightly, to despoil you further. So, if you will set your men to work to get on deck such stores as my quartermaster here may demand of you, we shall get through this business quickly. In the meantime, lower two or three boats, so that your men can row the goods over to my vessel."

The captain of the Black Swan simply bowed his head and turned away to obey orders, while Capt. Ichabod stepped aft and began to survey the captured vessel. As soon as his back was turned, the captain of the brig was approached by a very respectable elderly gentleman, apparently not engaged either in mercantile marine or in piratical pursuits, who stopped him and said: "Sir, my name is Felix Delaplaine, merchant, of Spanish Town, Jamaica. I am, against my will, engaged in this piratical attack upon your vessel, but I wish to assure you privately that I will not consent to have you robbed of your property, and that, although some of your provisions may be taken by these pirates, I here promise, as an honorable gentleman, to pay you the full value of all that they seize upon."

The captain of the Black Swan had no opportunity to make an answer to this most extraordinary statement, for at that moment a naval officer, shouting at the top of his voice, came rushing towards the respectable gentleman who had just been making such honorable proposals. Almost at the same moment there was a great shout from Capt. Ichabod, who, drawing his cutlass from its sheath, raised the glittering blade and dashed in pursuit of the naval gentleman.

"Hold there! Hold there!" cried the pirate. "Don't you touch him; don't lay your hand upon him!"

But Ichabod was not quick enough. Dickory, swift as a stag, stretched out both his arms and threw them around the neck of the amazed Mr. Delaplaine.

Now the pirate Ichabod reached the two; his great sword went high in air, and was about to descend upon the naval person, whoever he was, who had made such an unprovoked attack upon his honored passenger, when his arm was caught by some one from behind. Turning, with a great curse, his eyes fell upon the face of a young girl.

HONORS FOR SCHWAB.

American Steel Expert Receiving Much Attention In Russia.

ST. PETERSBURG, April 25.—Charles M. Schwab seems to be making a big impression here. His reputation as a steel expert preceded him, and he is being shown much attention. Grand Duke Alexis, high admiral, has discussed with him for several hours matters relating to Russia's ambitious naval programme, which as tentatively elaborated by the technical committee involves the expenditure of $350,000,000 during a period of ten years. Mr. Schwab has also conferred with Admiral Doubassoff, head of the technical committee; Admiral Avellan, chief of the admiralty; Admiral Wirenius, chief of staff, and other prominent naval officials.

The result of the present war has convinced Russia that sea power is vital, and everywhere Mr. Schwab has encountered nothing but a firm intention to build up the navy to a size commensurate with Russia's aspirations for the future.

In a general way it is believed that certain arrangements touching America's share in the construction which must go to foreign yards have been already agreed to in principle. The details, however, may require some time to work out.

Mr. Schwab appears to be entirely satisfied with the result of his visit, and negotiations have made such rapid progress that he expects to be able to leave within a few days. It is considered a great compliment to the genius of America that the Russian naval authorities desired to consult Mr. Schwab's opinion.

Barge Canal Contracts Let.

ALBANY, N. Y., April 25.—The last of the six pending barge canal construction contracts was awarded by Superintendent N. V. V. Franchot of the department of public works to F. A. Maselli & Co. of Pittsburg, the lowest bidders, at $1,005,982.50. The contract covers the section at North Greece, west of Rochester. The rest of the contracts have already been executed, and active work, it is expected, will very shortly be begun.

WINNING SOULS.

Encouraging Start of Special Meetings at Park Avenue Baptist Church.

Encouraging signs marked the opening of the week of special services at the Park Avenue Baptist church last night. The attendance was good, and a lively spirit of interest in the revivifying of religion in the home and daily life was manifested. Rev. Dr. W. J. Swaffield, of the Lexington Avenue Baptist church, New York, the preacher, delivered an eloquent talk.

While no attempt was made to draw out confessions or professions of conversion, it was evident that the preacher's talk had touched a responsive chord in a number of hearts. The talks will be continued every night through the week, excepting Saturday. At each service the full choir will sing Gospel hymns.

To a certain extent, the meetings are only preliminary. If a strong interest in them develops, they will be continued and an energetic campaign for souls will be waged.

Saengerbund's Easter Dance.

The annual dance of the Gesang and Turn Verein was held in Saengerbund Hall last night, with a large attendance of members and friends. The committee which had charge comprised Adolph Barre, Frank Neidig, Joseph Heurand, Lawrence Fahn, Charles F. Meyer, Jr., and Antone Soukup.

CHRISTIAN FIELD.

The Young People's Society, of Hope chapel, will hold an important business meeting tomorrow night.

"The Joy of the Risen Lord" will be the subject of the prayer meeting at the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church tomorrow night.

The Ladies' Aid Society of Grace M. E. church will tender a reception to Rev. Dr. Charles Wesley Parsons, the new pastor, tonight.

Under the auspices of the Sunday-school a special musical programme will be given at the Congregational church on Sunday night.

The intermediate and junior Endeavor Society prayer meeting will be held at the Park Avenue Baptist church Friday afternoon at 3:30.

The communion service at the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church will be held on Sunday morning, May 7. Several new members will be received.

The Christian Endeavor Society of the Seventh-Day Baptist church will give an entertainment called "The Message from the Flowers" tomorrow night.

The women of the Park Avenue Baptist church will hold a prayer meeting at the home of Mrs. C. K. Compton, 31 Duer street, this afternoon.

"The Power of His Resurrection" will be the subject of the Young People's Association meeting at the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church on Friday night.

The Junior Christian Endeavor Society meeting will be omitted at the Congregational church this week, owing to the absence of the pastor from the city.

The next communion service at the Congregational church will be Sunday morning, May 7. It is expected that a number of new members will be received on confession and by letter.

The mid-week prayer meeting at the Park Avenue Baptist church tomorrow night will be known as Sunday-school and young people's night. Teachers are requested to sit with their pupils in their accustomed places in the Bible school room.

There were two baptisms at the Easter service in Monroe Avenue church Sunday afternoon, Rev. George Mooney, the pastor, officiating. The first was Inez Wilhelmina Eichlin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Walter Eichlin, and the other was Helen Ruth Davenport, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Davenport.

An unusually large congregation attended the service at the Swedish Lutheran church, held in the German Lutheran church Sunday night. The newly-organized double quartette choir sang for the first time under the direction of the organist, Miss Esther Johnson. Next Sunday the church service will be in charge of Rev. E. J. Lawrence, who has been assigned as supply by the Swedish Lutheran Conference, now meeting in Newark. Rev. Mr. Lawrence may be appointed permanently to the pastorate here.

The O. R. C.'s Entertain.

The O. R. C. Club entertained a party of fifteen friends at the home of Edward Harding, on John street, last night. Games and music were enjoyed until a late hour after which refreshments were served.

CAMP BOWSER BOYS ROUT P. H. S. AGGREGATION

COLLEGIANS DEFEAT HIGH SCHOOL LADS 11 TO 5.

Adding another to their already complete string of victories, the Camp Bowser gave the Plainfield High School nine their second defeat of the season yesterday afternoon on Crescent Oval by the score of 11 to 5. The Bowser team which is composed of undergraduates from several colleges, is a heavy hitting organization and this together with the ragged fielding of the local boys in the opening innings gave the Bowsers a lead in the opening innings which the High School boys tried in vain to overcome.

Smith, of the Plainfield High School nine, pitched his best game of the season and had he been accorded a little better support early in the game, the story might have been different. As it was the collegians secured but seven hits off his delivery and thirteen Bowser's bit the dust, even "Horse" Pound fanning the breezes twice. The locals hit Scott, the Princeton sophomore pitcher, who failed to be the terror to his yesterday's opponents that he is to his fellow collegians, eight times safely, Craig being the star batsman and fielder of the day, securing four safe hits out of five times at bat.

The locals, considering the class of their opponents, need not be ashamed of their showing, as it was very creditable.

The lineup and score: P. H. S.—Conway, 3b; Craig, ss; S. Freeman, lf; Thompson, 2b; Smith, p; H. Freeman, rf; Brakeley, cf; Doane, 1b; Davis, c.

Camp Bowser—Tilney, c; Pond, 1f; A. Schoenmaker, ss; Kehrlein and Overton, 1b; W. Schoenmaker, 2b; Scott, p; Brown, 3b; Overton and Heward, cf; Abbot, rf.

Camp Bowser... 4 1 4 0 2 0 0 0 0—11
P. H. S..... 0 0 1 0 2 2 0 0 0— 5

Summary: Earned runs—P. H. S., 1; Camp Bowser, 3; two-base hits—Kehrlein and Brown; three-base hits, R. Schoenmaker; first base on balls—off Smith, 5; off Scott, 5; struck out—by Smith, 13; by Scott, 6. Double play—Brown to Overton; wild pitches—Conway and W. ADVS. COME TO LIFE

Step From the Pages of a Magazine at Trinity Reformed.

EASILY RECOGNIZED

Delighted Audience Had No Difficulty in Picking Out Representatives of Famous Advertisers.

Many of the well-known advertisements which one reads in nearly every magazine and sees scattered about in every prominent place throughout the country, came to life in an enjoyable entertainment given at Trinity Reformed church, last night, under the auspices of the Whatsoever Circle, of King's Daughters. The affair was cleverly arranged and afforded much amusement for the large gathering in attendance, in addition to adding to the treasury of the Circle between $40 and $50 which will go toward the support of the King's Daughters city nurse.

Miss Margaret V. Leggett opened the programme with a piano solo, which was particularly well executed. This was followed with the representations of various advertisements, the first of which was that of the automobile by Mrs. F. S. Cutter. In one corner of the platform was a huge representation of a magazine, the covers being adorned with advertisements. Those taking part in the entertainment were supposed to represent the advertising pages and being tired of travelling about they took this opportunity of resting and at the same time entertaining their friends. In turn each one stepped out of this magazine and performed his or her part. She entered complaining about that tired feeling due to travelling about the country in magazines. She was met by "Jap Rose Soap," Miss Grace Emmons, and "Violet Cologne," Mrs. F. E Woodruff, who also had a similar complaint and an interesting dialogue followed. The "Kodak," girl, Miss Bertha VanNuis Willis, sang a pleasing and appropriate song in which she told of the advantage of the Kodak. The "Piano Girl," (Steinway,) Miss Lillian A. Force, was also weary of going about the country in magazines and to relieve the monotony she rendered a delightful solo. The familiar advertisement of "Baker's Cocoa" was represented by Mrs. J. P. D. Kirch, and that of "Horlick's Malted Milk," by Miss Mabel Gano. Clarence Rittenhouse provoked much laughter by representing the "Cream of Wheat" advertisement, the ever present darkey carrying the dipper on his shoulder. He sang a song praising the virtues of this article.

Then appeared a quartette—"Sunny Jim," Robert A. Meeker, Jr.; "Omega Oil," Charles M. Dolliver; "Hans," and "Lena," (VanCamps,) Irving Martin and Miss Emma Line. Each sang a song typical of the article represented, which was very amusing. The "Dueber-Hampden Watch," was faithfully portrayed by William Trembath, and then followed a song by all the "advs."

A hit of the evening was the topical song by "Sunny Jim." The words were composed by Charles Marvin Dolliver, and the tune was that of "Tammany." Mr. Meeker sang the verses, and "Lena," and "Omega Oil," joined in singing the chorus. "Hans" accompanied on the piano. The popular words and song were so well received that a repetition was called for.

Advertising is a business which pays very well,
Listen to me and I'll tell you how your goods to sell,
How some good and worthy churchmen got me on their side,
Told me I must tell about them, and their goods describe:
Groceries, groceries,
Elder Smith has some to sell,
James K. Arnold and Newell.
Groceries, groceries,
Buy 'em, but be sure and get your trading stamps.

"Sunny Jim" eats "Force" for breakfast, and it helps him work,
Feeds his system, and from duty he will never shirk,
But there are some other Forces which are here tonight,
They have played upon your feelings in a manner quite Forcefully, Forcefully,
If you want to read the news, buy a "Press," and it peruse
Carefully, carefully,
And be sure and read the advertisements.

There are many others whom I cannot tell about,
But I know, they know, you know their business without doubt,
For the people are observing, and of you can tell,
More about your "inside" matters, than you know, so well.
Rubbernecks, rubbernecks,
If you wear an Easter bonnet, they can tell you just what's on it.
Rubbernecks, rubbernecks,
Stretch 'em, crane 'em, have a look, oh rubbernecks.

SCOTCH PLAINS COUPLE WED AT STONY HILL

MISS SARAH LOUISE WAHL BECOMES MRS. JOHN P. ALBERTS.

Miss Sarah Louise Wahl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Henry Wahl, of Stanbury avenue, and John Phillips Alberts, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Alberts, of Montague avenue, Scotch Plains, were married this morning at 10:30 o'clock at St. Mary's Roman Catholic church, Stony Hill. The church, which was prettily decorated with cut flowers, potted plants and palms, was crowded with the friends of the couple.

Father Chandler, former rector of the church, performed the ceremony, assisted by the present rector, Father Schwartz. The bride was gowned in white silk, trimmed with lace and she carried a bunch of white roses. She was attended by Miss Elizabeth Riley, of Fanwood, as bridesmaid, her gown being of cream color silk, trimmed with lace. She carried pink roses. The best man was Anthony Wahl, of New York, brother of the bride.

After the ceremony a reception and dinner was given at the home of the bride at Scotch Plains and later the couple left for a wedding trip to Washington. The bride and groom are well-known at Scotch Plains, the former being an active worker in St. Mary's church for some time. Mr. Wahl is engaged in the livery business. The bride received a number of useful presents. Upon their return from Washington Mr. and Mrs. Wahl will live in the Allen cottage on Westfield avenue, Scotch Plains.

VETERANS LISTEN TO WAR STORIES

CAPTAIN HAND TELLS OF VISIT TO OLD BATTLEFIELDS.

The members of Winfield Scott Post, No. 75, G. A. R., were entertained last night at their meeting with addresses and musical selections. Captain William Hand, who recently returned from a trip in the South, gave an interesting talk regarding his experiences and what he saw on a visit to some of the old battlefields.

Rev. Charles L Goodrich also gave an address, in which he related the incidents in the lives of his relatives who fought in the Rebellion. Another address was made by Charles M. Raybert, after which Evelyn Manley and Alfred Manley sang a Japanese son. Following the programme refreshments were served by the entertainment committee.

IN LEIPSIG ORCHESTRA.

Young Boroughite Joins Celebrated Philharmonic Society in Germany.

George C. M. Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smith, of Craig place, has completed his musical studies in Weimar, Germany, and has accepted a lucrative position as first bassoonist in the Philharmonic Orchestra in Leipsig. Mr. Smith also plays the violin. At present he has no idea when he will return to Plainfield.

Mr. Smith has had remarkable success in his musical training since going abroad a few years ago, and he has attained a proficiency for which she has been accorded the highest praise by musical critics. He is a graduate of the North Plainfield High School.

In the Coal Business.

Geo. O. Stevens, No. 747 West Front street, is now prepared to supply his old customers and the public in general with first-class coal from his own yard, having no further connection with any other coal dealers. Mr. Stevens is a reliable business man and the public can expect good treatment from him.

In Honor of His Birthday.

Members of the Criterion Club and friends to the number of forty in all tendered a surprise party to Bert Clark, of Jackson avenue, Monday night. The affair was in honor of his birthday and was enjoyable throughout. Music and games were features with a supper at the close.

To Graduate in May.

Miss Margaret Carson, Miss Florence Sybbald and Miss E. Maude Sybbald are the three nurses to be graduated from the Muhlenberg Hospital Training School at the exercises to be held the latter part of May in the chapel of the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church.

JURY FAILS TO AGREE

Couldn't Reach a Verdict in $10,000 Slander Suit.

OUT FOUR HOURS

Action Brought by Elizabeth Woman Against Plainfielder for Alleged False Accusation.

Before Judge Heisley in the Circuit Court at Elizabeth, Monday, action began in a slander suit for $10,000 damages brought by Mrs. Kate Brennan, of Elizabeth, against Samuel Rosenbaum, of this city. Many witnesses were produced on each side and the matter went to the jury at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon. They returned at 6 o'clock last night without reaching a verdict, ten standing for the defendant and two holding out for six cents damages, to save the plaintiff from the cost of action.

Mrs. Brennan boarded the 8:29 train from Plainfield, at the Spring street station, Elizabeth, on April 10th of last year. She occupied the seat next to Rosenbaum. After passing the station Rosenbaum missed his pocketbook and noticing alleged suspicious actions on the part of Mrs. Brennan, told the conductor of his loss, saying at the same time that he thought Mrs. Brennan must have had something to do with the matter. Nothing further was done until Jersey City was reached, and then the conductor called a policeman. Mrs. Brennan, according to Rosenbaum, hurried off the train and, according to the testimony of witnesses who saw her, she was very excitable, and sobbed when stopped by the policeman.

Rosenbaum was told by the officer that if he desired to have the Brennan woman apprehended, he would have to accompany them to the police station. This he was unwilling to do and the matter dropped. The pocketbook, however, was never found. At that time Mrs. Brennan remarked, "I'll make you suffer for this," hence the suit. William Newcorn, of this city, is defending Rosenbaum and Edward Nugent, of Elizabeth, represents the Brennans.

SMITH AUTO SOLD TO A MAN FROM NEWARK

BIDDING ON MORTGAGED MACHINE WAS LIVELY—BROUGHT $400.

"Mayor Bill" Smith's mortgaged auto was sold yesterday. The storied and harried machine finds a secluded nook in Newark, the purchaser being J. W. Gifford, of that city.

The sale was held in the backyard of Constable Pierce's house in New Market, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. There was a large attendance of curious people, attracted by the newspaper stories of the sale and recollections of some of the things that have happened to the machine since Smith got it. Several Plainfielders were among the onlookers. George Voehl, of West Front street, went in on the bidding.

The machine was sold ten minutes after Constable Pierce opened the proceedings. A half a dozen different men tried for the auto, and the bidding was lively. It started at $50, and shot up in quick time to $400. The contest for possession simmered down to a duel between Mr. Gifford and Mr. Voehl, and the latter dropped out at $390.

Neither Smith nor Andrew Wilson, of this city, who held the mortgage, were present, and no one offered bids in their interest. It is understood that "Mayor Bill" is glad to get rid of the machine, and intends to buy a bigger, finer one. Mr. Wilson has had enough of automobiles for a time, and only wanted the money he loaned Smith. R. P. F. VanMinden, lawyer for Smith, watched the proceedings for both sides.

The money realized will just about cover the mortgage and costs of the sale. The machine is a 1900 one, about a year old and in pretty good shape. It was on exhibition in the constable's yard during the sale.

Wife Wants Divorce.

Mrs. Fannie Perkins, of this city, has sued her husband, John Perkins, for divorce, on the ground of desertion. The latter is required to file answer to the petitioner's plea by June 21. Counsellor Newcorn is the latter's lawyer.

William H. Lunger, of West Front street, is detained at home by illness.

Fred Dunavan, of L. W. Randolph's drug store, who is detained at home by a severe illness, is convalescing.

VILLAGE POSTMASTER CONFRONTS BURGLARS

Pistol Battle With 4 Men Who Attempt to Rob Martinsville Postoffice.

BULLETS FLY WIDE

No One Hurt in Fusilade—Two Men Were Drilling Postoffice Safe—All of Them Made Their Escape.

Caught in the act of robbing the postoffice at Martinsville at an early hour yesterday morning, four men opened fire on Postmaster H. B. Zimmerman and made a determined attempt to shoot him. The plucky official met them at their own game and though bullets whistled about his head, he emptied his revolver in their direction, forcing them to take to their heels just in time to escape the crowd of awakened residents that hurried to the scene. The postmaster was unharmed and it is believed none of his shots took effect as all of the four got away.

Zimmerman's home adjoins the postoffice, only a narrow alley intervening. Mrs. Zimmerman was awakened about 2 o'clock by a slight noise in this alley and arousing her husband he cautiously looked out of a window. He discerned a man patrolling up and down and almost at the same time saw another one in the road. Zimmerman raised the window and challenged the men, at which both gave a signal and the remaining two of the gang ran out of the office where they had been drilling the safe. One of them took aim at the postmaster and fired point blank, the bullet just grazing his head. Zimmerman jumped back in the room and grabbing up a weapon blazed away at the gang. Each one was armed and the lead from their revolvers struck the window repeatedly. Zimmerman's bold stand evidently disconcerted them and they fled just as help was coming. Some of the residents took up the pursuit but stopped after going a short distance toward Round Brook.

The gang had entered the postoffice building by cutting a panel out of the door and would have had the safe opened in a short time, although it contained but a small amount of money. Before making the attempt they robbed the hotel in the place kept by John Taylor and secured a quantity of whisky and cigars.

GEORGE W. CABLE TO GIVE READINGS

UNDER AUSPICES OF MONDAY AFTERNOON CLUB TOMORROW NIGHT.

The members of the Monday Afternoon Club, will have their annual spring evening reception tomorrow night at the Casino, and they and their invited guests will have the pleasure of listening to a reading by George W. Cable, though a familiar figure in the literary world for years through his Creole stories and novels. The recent visit of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Carnegie to Northampton, Mass., to witness the dedication of a building given by them to the Home Culture Clubs, has served in larger measure than any previous agency to turn the limelight upon one of the country's most progressive institutions for popular education and betterment.

The founder and presiding genius of this institution, George W. Cable, a southerner of rare temperament; some twenty years ago, seeking a northern home, was attracted to Northampton because of its scenic setting, its culture, its historic past, and its educational atmosphere, and he settled with his family in the fair Meadow City. As a writer Mr. Cable had become an earnest student of social and industrial problems, and he turned from generalities and "foreign missions" to centre his attention and energy upon home needs and duties.

During his stay in Plainfield Mr. Cable will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. George P. Mellick.

Jerseymen Mustn't Carry Pistols.

Governor Stokes has signed the bill increasing the penalties for carrying concealed weapons, which was passed by the last session of the Legislature. Any person carrying a cutting weapon more than five inches long or a firearm concealed, unless he be a police officer or has a suitable permit, is made liable on conviction to a fine which may reach $200, or two years in prison or both.

SUMMER CONCERT FAIR

Authors of "Blue Bell" and Other Popular Songs There.

BIG CROWD PRESENT

Seven Nights Entertainment at Saengerbund for Benefit of Open Air Band Concerts.

With one of the largest initial attendances ever noted at a similar affair the second annual fair for the benefit of summer band concerts, opened in Saengerbund Hall, last night. Fully 400 people were present and enjoyed the various attractions until shortly after 12 o'clock.

From early until late, dancing was the main feature but there were others, one of the them the entertainment in which Theodore Morse and Jack Drislane, two of the best known song writers in the country, made their appearance. Both are members of the Morse Trio which completed a tour of the Keith circuit last week, giving a vocal and instrumental sketch. Drislane sang "Good Bye, Sis" and "Keep a Little Cosy Corner in Your Heart for Me," accompanied by Mr. Morse on the piano and slid illustrations. He has a strong voice of exceptional sweetness and made a decided hit, as did the accompanist also, the piano figuratively "talking" beneath his deft touch. Morse is the composer of "Blue Bell," "A Little Boy in Blue, "A Little Boy Called Taps" and many other songs that are whistled the world over, while Drislane has a score of successes to his credit, the latest being "That's What the Brass Band Played."

Throughout the hall there are numerous booths, attractively arranged, presided over as follows: Fancy goods, Mrs. Charles Steiner, Mrs. Edward P. T. Smith and Miss Shepherd; candy, Mrs. Frank Manchester and Mrs. Johnson; books, Mrs. Baglin. Below stairs in the supper room, refreshments are served by Edward P. T. Smith, F. Mortimer Slater, Miss Eldora Beekman, Miss Bertha Beekman, John and Will McCullough. In charge of the dancing floor is a committee composed of Walter Emmons, Joseph O. Martin and J. H. Hardcastle.

The committee which has general charge is composed of Ben LaVere, chairman; H. P. Greenwood, treasurer; Charles Steiner, tickets; Charles Greer and J. D. Smalley at the door.

The feature of tonight's entertainment will be vocal solos by Lew Leever, late of Dockstader's minstrels, who will give several new songs, all illustrated. Tomorrow night Theodore Morse will again appear to accompany George Offerman, who is well known in the city and borough as a singer of "coon" songs. For the remaining nights other vocalists have been provided, all of whom are well known on the vaudeville stage.

Frelinghuysen's Guest.

Governor Stokes will start Sunday afternoon for the Adirondacks, where he will be the guest of Colonel Joseph S. Frelinghuysen, chairman of the Somerset County Republican Committee, at a private club. Trout fishing is the particular form of recreation promised to the Governor for the next two days. He will return in time for the session of the Board of Pardons on Thursday morning. Should any contingency arise demanding immediate executive action, President Bradley, of the Senate, will have his first opportunity to try his hand as Acting Governor.

Gas Employes Overcome.

While repairing a leak in one of the pipes in the basement of the East Fourth street gas plant, yesterday afternoon, Martin Flatley, Peter Benford and Henry Kearns, three employes, were overcome by fumes. All three dropped to the floor and had to be dragged out by other men. The usual restoratives were applied and they soon recovered.

"Doc" Doyle Visits.

Dr. Lawrence Doyle, of Woodbridge, once captain of St. Mary's nine, and a star of the old City League, visited his old friends here yesterday. The Doctor dropped into Madden's poolroom, and a reunion with some of his old players and fans who backed and cheered for St. Mary's through the one red hot season of the league.

Birthday Party.

Little Dorothy McVoy, the four-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. McVoy, of Sandford avenue, had a birthday party this afternoon, and entertained many of her little friends. Games were played and refreshments served and the birthday cake with four candles on it was a feature of the occasion.

DR. PARSONS WELCOMED BY GRACE M. E. PEOPLE

CONGREGATION TENDERS NEW PASTOR A PLEAFANT RECEPTION.

In order to formally introduce him to the congregation of which he has assumed the pastorate, the members of Grace M. E. church tendered Rev. Dr. Charles Wesley Parsons a reception last night. It was largely attended, the members of other local Methodist churches being present. Dr. and Mrs. Parsons received with the assistance of Dr. H. K. Carroll, E. M. Winckler, Mrs. John Valiant and Mrs. Carroll.

The welcoming address to the new pastor was made by Dr. Carroll while Dr. Whitney, in behalf of the First M. E. and Monroe Avenue churches, extended greetings. Dr. Parsons responded with an address in which he expressed pleasure at coming to Plainfield. He felt especially honored, he said, from the fact that is was in this city that the First Epworth League chapter was formed and that it was known in many States as possessing active congregations. He declared the field to be large and hoped for advancement in no small sense.

During the evening vocal solos were rendered by Miss Winifred Carroll, accompanied by Miss Alice Carroll and in conclusion a social session was enjoyed. The affair was directly in charge of the Ladies' Aid Society with Mrs. John Valiant acting as chairman. The church was prettily decorated with Easter lilies and other flowers.

PLANS FURTHERED FOR COMING HORSE SHOW

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE DECIDES TO INCREASE NUMBER OF CLASSES.

The executive committee of the Plainfield Riding and Driving Association met last night at the home of the president, Lewis E. Waring, and furthered plans for the coming horse show. The prize list was discussed and it is expected it will be completed within a few days. It was decided to increase the classes this year to thirty-two, six more than last year. There will be two more jumping classes, two more local classes and two more open classes.

In the open classes it was decided to increase the first cash prize from $40 to $50 and second prizes from $10 to $15. The prizes, a silver cup, will remain the same for the local classes. These include entries from Union, Somerset and Middlesex counties. From present indications the show will be a large and successful one and the entry list promises to be one of the largest yet received in this part of the country for a similar show.

ON A NEW TACK.

Another Change in Drawnout Smith-Hand-Herring Case.

Another move was made by the plaintiffs in the bitterly contested suit brought by F. H. Smith and C. H. Hand against Dr. G. D. Herring, for rent of a house on Watchung avenue, yesterday.

Two weeks ago the case was brought to a pause by Counsellor Swackhamer, for the defendant, who secured an order bringing office furniture, levied under a judgment for $65, into court for trial of right of property. Almost as soon as the order was secured, the plaintiffs announced that attachment proceedings were dropped.

Yesterday the reason for the change of base was disclosed when Counsellor Newcorn, lawyer for the plaintiffs, secured an order bringing Dr. Herring before Supreme Court Commissioner John H. VanWinkle in supplementary proceedings. The hearing will begin tomorrow morning, at 10 o'clock. The plaintiffs now seek to discover just what Dr. Herring does own, and how they can get at it.

Elected Leals Captain.

At the annual meeting of the basketball team of Leal's School, Howard, '07, the snappy young forward on this year's team, was elected to head next year's team. Lyman, '06, one of this season's guards, is to be manager of next year's aggregation.

Union Men Barred.

The Prudential Life Insurance Company, of Newark, has informed all its union workmen, including painters and carpenters, that their services will be dispensed with after Saturday, April 29.

TRACED THE BRAWLERS

Woman Runs Down Men Who Attacked Her House.

NOCTURNAL ASSAULT

Roysterers Threw Stones, Smashed Windows and Scared Family—Mrs. Becker as a Sleuth.

Drunken roysterers made an attack with stones on the house of Martin Becker, of Rock avenue, late Monday night, frightening the family, and doing some damage to the house. At the time the attack was made none of the members of the family had any idea of the identity of the men in the party, but Mrs. Becker cleared away the mystery in that direction yesterday by a little sleuthing. The men will have to settle for the damage or suffer at the hands of the law.

The attack was made at 11 o'clock, when the family were in bed. The men came down the road shouting and hooting, and making general nuisances of themselves. They stopped in front of the house, but the Beckers had no idea that they saw anything in it to attract their attention. Suddenly a shower of stones flew against the house. Windows crashed, and clapboards rattled. Mr. and Mrs. Becker and their daughter were startled, and when another fusilade began, the woman and girl were on the verge of panic. Mr. Becker sprang out of bed to defend the house, but when he got to the window the men were disappearing down the road. They didn't return.

In the morning, Mrs. Becker's nerve came back, and a lively desire to know the names of the men who attacked the house replaced fear in her bosom. She started right in to sleuth.

Kerwin's hotel is a short distance below the house, on the same street, and she figured that the resort was just about the place to begin the detective work. She put the hotel people through a third degree session, and got the names of all the men who left the place the night before at about the time the attack was made. The trail led her to Donelien, and there, she says, in a store, she ran down the ringleader of the crowd. He is an employe of the storekeeper.

From him she learned the names of the men in the party. Steps have been taken to bring all the hoodlums to book.

DR. CLAWSON BUYS F. A. POPE RESIDENCE

NUMBER OF REALTY DEALS MADE BY ALBERT LEDERER.

The F. A. Pope residence at Park avenue and Fifth street has been sold through the Albert Lederer agency to Dr. Marcus L. Clawson, who will occupy it. The property directly back of it, occupied by W. W. Dunn, was included in the sale and it is said that the consideration was between $30,000 and $35,000. It has a frontage of 100 feet on Park avenue and 215 feet on West Fifth street and the sale includes the brick stable. Mr. Pope will build a residence on the opposite corner.

The T. A. Kurzhals property, in West Second street, including the brick stable in the rear and a right of way through the driveway on Park avenue, has been purchased through Mr. Lederer by Mrs. Lena Hoerster. The consideration was about $8,000. Mr. Kurzhals has purchased Mrs. Hoerster's property on Duer street, near Linden avenue. Mr. Lederer has also sold the property on Duer street, near Craig place, owned by Mrs. Amelia Adams, to W. W. Cerieli and James L. Love. The consideration is reported to be about $3,500.

POINTS FOR THE BUYERS

J. J. Leahy, the Richmond street plumber, will do your work right if you give him the contract.

O. M. Dunham, of Park avenue, carries exclusively men's furnishings and he can please you with his large stock and low prices.

Putnam & DeGraw, the West Front street dry goods merchants, have just what you want in the dry goods line and at prices to suit you.

When you want to buy a horse, be it for carriage driving or heavy trucking, go to Stonewall Jackson's stables in the borough, and you will get it.

If you dislike moving, why not buy a lot and erect your own home. William H. Kirch, the builder, will discuss the matter with you if you drop him a postal.

Good meat at low prices has always been the policy of Frank Neidig, the Somerset street butcher. Orders sent him will be carefully filled and delivered promptly.

Spring lethargy, brought on by the first warm days, is easily overcome by the spring tonic that Druggist E. J. Schreiner sells. It has proven a boon to hundreds of Plainfieders and it may to you.

The choicest viands the market affords will be found every day at Timbo's restaurant on North avenue. There is no better place to get your meals. A full line of cigars and tobaccos always in stock.

VanCamp & Franklin's carpet, matting and shade store at Front and Somerset streets, has been a Mecca for housewives this week. They have been attracted by the bargains in those goods that the firm is offering.

When you are ill you want the best medicine and your prescriptions compounded accurately and quickly. L. W. Randolph, the West Front street druggist, has the reputation for selling reliable medicine and his prescription work is entirely satisfactory.

There are few grocery firms in town that make the special feature of strictly fresh vegetables and fancy fruits that Neuman Brothers do. At all times of the year, winter or summer, they have a display that rivals those seen in New York's big markets. The best part of this policy is the fact that the firm makes an attempt to rival the metropolitan dealers in their low prices and they generally succeed. At the present time they have a nice lot of Norfolk strawberries, the kind that deserve the adjective "luscious."

The Show is Excepted.

"Cardinal Richard, Archbishop of Paris, has again laid the hand of discipline upon his clergy. His reproof took the form of a circular letter, telling the clergy that a priest on a bicycle was not fitting spectacle for the streets of Paris. Now the Catholic clergy are shut out from the theatre. The Archbishop forbade any priest in the diocese of Paris to leave his house without wearing his cassock. Then he says that any cleric appearing in a cassock at the theatre, even at a matinee, shall be liable to suspension. The circus is allowed. It is the theatre of childhood, and the priest goes there as the guide of children. Even the opera and the Comedie Francaise are forbidden things." The foregoing extract from the London correspondent of the New York Sun would seem to place the circus at the top of all reputable places of amusement, a place, by the way, that the Barnum & Bailey Greatest Show on Earth has exclusively occupied for many years past. It is a fact beyond dispute that the proprietor of this show has been inflexible in his rule of providing special delights for children and which are nowhere else to be seen. What pleases and instructs the little folks is sure to command the interest of parents and guardians. The show is superb. There are nearly 100 acts of all kinds, among them six stupendous sensational surprises, each a death-defying feat, three herds of elephants are in three rings at one time, while as many as a dozen acts are going on simultaneously. There are three rings, three stages, a race track, an aerial enclave and a vaudeville entertainment in the menagerie pavilion where there are also scores of special performers in characteristic exhibitions. There are also two menageries, all the champion riders of the world, the best acrobats, aerialists, tumblers, leapers, etc. Jersey City, Monday, May 1; Newark, Tuesday, May 2; Elizabeth, Wednesday, May 3.

AWAITING THE FACTS

Attorney General Discusses Senator Brackett's Petition.

SUIT AGAINST EQUITABLE IN ORDER

Mr. Mayer Sees No Reason Why Action of Mary S. Young May Not Be Brought at Once, but Desires Report of Investigation.

ALBANY, N. Y., April 26.—Attorney General Julius N. Mayer sent a letter to Senator Edgar T. Brackett referring to the petition filed recently by the latter in behalf of Mary S. Young of Saratoga asking the attorney general's consent under section 56 of the insurance law to the bringing of an action against certain directors of the Equitable Life Assurance Society of America "to recover funds wasted by them, to remove such directors, to adjudge them disqualified to hold office in any insurance company and for general relief."

The attorney general points out to Senator Brackett that his client as a stockholder in the Equitable society can without the consent or participation of the attorney general bring an action in equity as a stockholder to compel the officials of the company to account for any funds unlawfully diverted by them if, as the senator claims, the corporation is powerless to bring such an action by reason of the control of the directors whom he accuses. The attorney general points out further the powers of the superintendent of insurance and that the law provides that the sworn report of examination by the superintendent is presumptive evidence in court of the facts found by him.

The attorney general declares that he himself must be prepared to prove the facts in court before he can sustain the kind of action which Senator Brackett asks him to bring. He does not decline to bring the action nor to act on Senator Brackett's petition, but states that he will finally determine the course to be pursued when all the facts are properly before him.

"In an action brought by your client the judgment of a court that any director was guilty of misconduct, whether in violation of section 56 of the insurance law or of any duty, would necessarily be followed by an action brought by the attorney general to remove the delinquent officials from office and to declare them forever disqualified from thereafter holding any such office in any insurance corporation.

"As you know, it is provided in section 1808 of the code of civil procedure that 'where the attorney general has good reason to believe that an action can be maintained in behalf of the people of the state' in such a case he must bring the action accordingly or apply to a competent court for leave to bring an action, as the case requires.'

"All the facts are now being ascertained by the superintendent of insurance, the officer charged by law with that duty. The power of the superintendent of insurance in such respect is full and comprehensive. He can examine or cause to be examined under oath every officer and agent of an insurance corporation as well as the books or papers relating to its business affairs. The examiners appointed by the superintendent of insurance are required by law to make a full and true report of their examination, verified by their oath. Such report is of unusual importance because the law makes it presumptive evidence in any action or proceeding in the name of the people against the corporation, its officers or agents of the facts stated therein.

"I think I have called your attention sufficiently to the situation so that you will realize that I cannot dispose of your petition at this time.

"The responsibility for beginning an action in the name of the people of the state is upon me, and if you are unwilling to wait until I finally determine the course to be pursued, when all the facts are before me, then I know of no reason to prevent you, in the name of your client, from bringing proceedings for almost every purpose which you seek to accomplish by your petition."

Miles Urged For Equitable Head.

NEW YORK, April 26.—A letter has been received by a director of the Equitable society from the New England Policy Holders' association urging that General Nelson A. Miles be chosen as the head of the society when President Alexander retires. The letter states that there is an almost unanimous feeling among the policy holders of the New England states that General Miles would make a strong, honest leader for the society.

Low Rates For National Educators.

CHICAGO, April 26.—All railway associations in the United States and Canada except one have granted the National Education association a rate of one fare plus $2 membership for the round trip to Asbury Park, N. J., and Ocean Grove, N. J., for the forty-fourth convention of the National Educational association July 5 to 7. The teachers of the city of New York, Columbia university and New York university will unite in entertaining the members of the convention for four days following the convention.

Another Independent Oil Plant.

TOPEKA, Kan., April 26.—Plans were completed here for the erection in Kansas of another independent oil refinery. Among the members of the company are T. A. BANK ON FIRM BASIS

Milwaukee Institution Not Ruined by Defalcation.

MILLIONS IN DAY'S NEW DEPOSITS

Mayor Rose Marches Along the Street With $500,000 to Deposit—State and National Funds Not Withdrawn.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., April 26.—Confidence has again been restored in the banking institutions of Milwaukee, and the run on the First National bank and the Milwaukee Trust company, which was caused by the confession of a defalcation by Frank G. Bigelow, until Monday president of the First National bank and a director of the trust company, of over $1,000,000 is a thing of the past, and banking affairs in Milwaukee have resumed their normal condition.

Before the hour for opening the banks had arrived a meeting of the Milwaukee Clearing House association was held, and a committee of that institution, after examining the assets and collateral of the First National bank, issued a reassuring report that the bank was perfectly solvent.

On top of this came word from the board of directors of the Milwaukee chamber of commerce announcing its decision not to withdraw its current expense fund from the First National bank. All of these statements had a reassuring effect on depositors as to the stability of the bank.

Early in the day crowds of men and women in all walks of life gathered in line two and four abreast and took up positions in front of the two big banking institutions and awaited the opening of the doors at 10 o'clock. The line extended about half a square on East Water and Wisconsin streets from the main entrance of each institution.

One of the most spectacular happenings of the day was the action of Mayor Rose in walking down Wisconsin street in full view of the crowd with $500,000 in currency and gold in canvas bags. He was surrounded by policemen and detectives and walked into the bank with the treasure. This money was part of the shipment from Chicago banks and some from other Milwaukee banks.

Cashier Frank J. Kipp is authority for the statement that much more than $2,000,000 was received during the day by the bank. At noon the street assumed its normal appearance and the run was completely over.

The First National bank is depository for government departments in Milwaukee, the funds there including those of the internal revenue office and the offices in the department of justice. None will be withdrawn.

Frank G. Bigelow, the deposed president of the First National bank, walked down town during the day, but did not enter the bank building. He soon returned to his home, where he spent most of the day in seclusion. According to the federal procedure, a prisoner cannot plead guilty or not guilty until he has been indicted by the grand jury. The grand jury is called by the United States district judge. While the date has not been set, it is understood that it will be about the middle of May.

No trace has been found of Henry G. Goll, the deposed assistant cashier of the First National bank.

Funeral of Senator Platt.

WASHINGTON, Conn., April 26.—The funeral of United States Senator Orville H. Platt was held from the Congregational church in the afternoon, and fully a thousand persons attended it. The Episcopal service was used and was in keeping with the life and ideals of Senator Platt. As the church was not large enough to accommodate all who had come here the windows and doors were flung open so that the voices of the clergymen who officiated were easily heard a little distance away. Official life was represented by congressional and legislative delegations headed by Vice President Charles W. Fairbanks and Governor Henry Roberts, and the members after following the body from Senator Platt's home to the church were seated with the immediate family. After the service, which lasted but a few minutes, the entire funeral party walked to the open grave, where, with a prayer, the casket was lowered and the sod thrown upon it.

Rangers Guard Texas Town.

HEMPSTEAD, Tex., April 26.—As a result of the bloody battle here, when four men were killed and others were wounded, Hempstead is under the control of the Texas rangers. Martial law has not been declared, but Adjutant General Hulen has arrived with a number of rangers and assumed charge of affairs. No one is permitted to bear arms, and the excitement manifested throughout the day has quieted down. Rollan Brown, the son of one of the men killed at the Prohibition mass meeting Monday night, was placed under arrest on a charge of firing the shot which killed Representative John M. Pinckney.

New Attorney General For Porto Rico

WASHINGTON, April 26.—Frank Fenille has been appointed attorney general of Porto Rico vice A. G. Stewart, resigned. He is from Texas and has been in Porto Rico ever since the American occupation and at one time was assistant attorney general there. He speaks Spanish fluently and has a wide knowledge of Spanish law. He is recommended by Governor Winthrop and the entire executive council.

A NEW HARRIMAN LINE.

Clark's Salt Lake Road a Prearranged Part of That System.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., April 26.—The Express says that when the new San Pedro, Los Angeles and Salt Lake rail road is formally opened for business Monday it will be done under signed contracts and agreements that will make it as essentially and primarily a part of the Harriman system of railroads as any of the various lines that now compose that system.

It is stated that while the control of the road is formally vested in two individuals—J. Ross Clark, vice president of the new road and personal representative of his brother, Senator W. A. Clark, and W. H. Bancroft, general manager of the Union Pacific and personal representative of E. H. Harriman—there is in existence a formal signed agreement between the Harriman and Clark principals to the effect that Judge W. D. Cornish of Salt Lake City, first vice president of the Union Pacific, shall be the third member of this board and to him all matters of disagreement between other members of the board shall be referred.

The article further states that on June 18, 1903, there was signed in New York city by E. H. Harriman as party of the first part and W. A. Clark as party of the second part a formal agreement by which it was agreed for a term of ninety-nine years practically to combine the interests of the Salt Lake railroad and the Harriman system in all matters of policy affecting both lines.

Among other alleged mutual agreements of this contract it is stipulated and promised on the part of the Harriman system that neither the Union Pacific nor the Oregon Short Line shall during the life of the contract build any road in opposition to the San Pedro, Los Angeles and Salt Lake line, and there shall be a complete interchange of passenger and freight traffic to and from the Salt Lake road and the Salt Lake terminus, the latter agreeing in turn to divert all business from its line to the Harriman system as against all competitors.

The Clark road agrees in this contract, according to this publication, to establish the same freight and passenger rates on its line as are in force throughout the Harriman system in Utah and southern California.

A NEW YORK BLAZE.

East Side Tenement Dwellers In a Panic, but No Lives Lost.

NEW YORK, April 26.—A fire which threw the east side into a panic and for a time threatened the heart of the tenement house section raged for several hours in the old Ridley block at Grand and Orchard streets late in the afternoon.

Five alarms were turned in, and hundreds of police reserves had to indulge in hand to hand conflicts with frenzied residents to preserve order.

There were four violent explosions in the Ridley building, and many walls fell. Hundreds of tenement dwellers in threatened buildings were safely piloted to the street by the police and firemen.

It was believed the explosions came from paints and oils in the shop of Frank E. Rosen & Co. in Grand street.

Four hundred girls working in the Lion Ladies' Underwear company, adjoining the Ridley block, were panic stricken and fought wildly to gain the street. Many were badly bruised, but none seriously.

Flying sparks fell on all the houses within hundreds of feet of the fire, and some alighted on the Ludlow street jail at Ludlow, Essex and Grand streets. The prisoners were frightened, but the keepers reassured them.

Roundsman Blunt of the Eldridge street station and fifty policemen got every one out of the tenements in Grand, Orchard and Allen streets. The tenants grabbed up their belongings and fled in a panic. The loss is estimated at $200,000.

New Home For Telegraph Company.

CHICAGO, April 26.—The Postal Telegraph Cable company has moved its main offices and the headquarters of the western division into the renovated and enlarged Rialto building at the northwest corner of Van Buren street and Pacific avenue. The new structure will be known hereafter as the Postal Telegraph building, and the office will be one of the largest and finest equipped telegraph offices in the world. The main operating room occupies the tenth and eleventh stories and is lighted by ten windows. It is 170 feet long by 67 feet wide, with a 24 foot ceiling, furnishing seating capacity for 472 operators and contains many devices new to the telegraph world.

Nancy Carnegie to Live on Farm.

GREENWICH, Conn., April 26.—Andrew Carnegie's niece, Miss Nancy, as she was known to her friends in Pittsburg, is to live on a farm. With her husband, James Hever, former coachman for Mrs. Thomas M. Carnegie, the young woman has selected a place near this town and will move here May 15.

Sheng Kungpao Turns a Sod.

SHANGHAI, April 26.—Sheng Kungpao officially turned the first sod of the Shanghai-Nankin railroad, though the work has been proceeding since July last. The ceremony was delayed owing to Sheng's illness. It was announced that trains would be running to some extent next year.

Four Millions For Locomotives.

BALTIMORE, April 26.—Official announcement is made by the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad company of contracts being closed for 250 new locomotives that will cost in the aggregate $4,000,000. The American Locomotive company has received the contract for all but five.

OPENING AT JAMAICA.

Sport at Popular Long Island Track Marred by Accident.

JAMAICA, N. Y., April 26.—In the presence of 25,000 persons Santa Catalina won the Excelsior handicap. There were ten horses in the race, Preen being an added starter. The talent considered it an open betting race, made more so by the presence of Preen, which it was conceded might injure the chances of the favorite, Crown Prince. The latter carried the most money of any one horse, though every entry had a following.

The finish was the most sensational seen in years, marred by an accident right under the wire, in which two horses, Witful and Sir Brillar, were thrown. The accident was caused by Kent on Preen, which cut across the leaders twenty yards from the finish, interfering with Ormonde's Right, Santa Catalina, Rapid Water, Witful and Sinister. Both Fuller and Kelly were thrown.

The others had to pull up for self preservation. Sir Brillar was in the wake of Witful and fell over the Smathers mare. Preen was disqualified in short order and the race given to Santa Catalina, which was first to recover from the mixup. Rapid Water was given second and Sinister third.

J. Kelly, who fell from Sir Brillar, was injured, and Fuller, who fell from Witful, was cut very badly on his left leg above the knee.

Other winners of the day were:

First Race.—New York, first; Toscan, second; Trapper, third.

Second Race.—The Gaddy, first; Head Dance, second; Carbuncle, third.

Third Race.—Just, first; Anodyne, second; Green Room, third.

Britt and White to Fight.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 26.—James Britt and Jabez White, the English lightweight champion, will fight in Woodward's pavilion, in this city, on May 5. The supervisors have granted the Hayes Valley club a permit for May 5 with the understanding that the club will promote the Britt-White engagement. Charley Mitchell, representing White, has been met by Britt's manager and reached an agreement. The articles call for the boxers to receive 50 per cent of the gross receipts, the winner to receive 60 per cent of this and loser 40 per cent.

Judge Himes Took Handicap.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., April 26.—Judge Himes, the favorite, won the feature event for the day, the handicap at a mile and a sixteenth, at Elmridge. While the horses were going to the post in the first race Verdant bolted through the fence at the head of the stretch, and Eddie Foy, who had the mount, was severely injured. Bertha E., Judge Himes, Lady Ellison and Albemarle were the winning favorites.

Chamblee, 50 to 1, Won.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., April 26.—Chamblee, whose price was as good as 50 to 1, made a runaway race of the last event at Cumberland park. Well backed ones captured the remainder of the card, although Nannie Hodge, favorite in the Gerst stakes, disappointed a large following. Garnish, at 2 to 1, landing the prize.

Indian Flower Won.

BALTIMORE, April 26.—A 20 to 1 shot claimed the third race at Pimlico, when Indian Flower, ridden by W. McDermott, won in a driving finish from Mamie March, the favorite.

Georgia Editor Dead.

A WAITING GAME?

Russian Officials Not Looking For Immediate Action.

ENGLISH WAR REPORTS NOT CREDITED

Admiralty Believe Japanese Admiral Will Try to Demoralize the Enemy and Avoid a Decisive Battle at Sea.

ST. PETERSBURG, April 26.—Admiralty circles are coming to accept the view that there will be no great or general action between the fleets of Russia and Japan for some time, basing their belief on strategic and tactical reasons, which incline Admiral Togo to avoid a decisive action until he has made every effort to demoralize the Russian fleet by torpedo attacks and interference with transports by his cruiser division.

The admiralty last evening scouted the reports that engagements have already occurred, pointing out the great distance separating the places where the dispatches originated, and a naval staff captain declared that reports from English sources should not only be doubted, but even mistrusted.

The probability of a sortie by the Vladivostok squadron in an attempt to join Admiral Rojestvensky is discussed by the Razvedchik, a military weekly paper, which confirms the report that the three cruisers Gromoboi, Rossia and Bogatyr have been repaired and that Vladivostok harbor is free from ice and comments on this accession of strength to Rojestvensky. The paper also intimates that there is a possibility that Vice Admiral Nebogatoff may await a second re-enforcing squadron and expresses the opinion that Rojestvensky will now proceed as rapidly as possible to Vladivostok.

The government has reiterated its notice to the zemstvoists that the proposed conference will not be allowed either in St. Petersburg or Moscow.

The peasants of Saratov province have petitioned Emperor Nicholas for legislation in their favor and especially for educational measures and the establishment of a representative assembly.

Russian Cruisers Off Saigon.

SAIGON, Cochin China, April 26.—It is reported that four Russian cruisers are lying off the coast. The statements that the crew of the Russian protected cruiser Diana joined Admiral Rojestvensky's squadron are again pronounced to be absolutely unfounded. Advices just received from Kamranh bay say that twenty Japanese warships passed the bay between 8 and 9 o'clock in the evening of April 23. Two ships loaded with rice from Saigon and bound for Japan have been captured by ships belonging to the Russian squadron.

German Money For Russia.

BERLIN, April 26.—The Frankfurter Zeitung says that the Berlin banking house of Mendelssohn & Co. has arranged to advance Russia $50,000,000 for nine months upon treasury notes bearing interest at 5 per cent per annum, the issue to be distributed among the syndicate of bankers who bought the Russian loan placed in Germany last January.

Plates For Philippine Stamps.

WASHINGTON, April 26.—The bureau of insular affairs of the war department is having prepared for the Philippine government plates for a series of postage stamps, equivalent in denominations to those of the United States. These stamps are to bear the vignettes of Rizal, a Filipino patriot; McKinley, Magellan, the discoverer of the Philippine Islands; Legaspi, discoverer and explorer who followed in the footsteps of Magellan, implanting government in the various localities and establishing friendly relations with the natives; Lawton, Lincoln, Sampson, Washington, Carriedo, a Spanish philanthropist who on his death devised certain large estates to establish a water supply for Manila, and Franklin. Those stamps of the denomination of one peso and over are to bear the coat of arms of the Philippine Islands.

Pennsylvania Republicans Meet.

HARRISBURG, Pa., April 26.—The Republican state convention, which meets in this city today, will nominate Representative J. Lee Plummer of Hollidaysburg for state treasurer and renominate President Judge Charles E. Rice of Wilkesbarre and Judge George B. Orlady of Huntingdon and Judge James A. Beaver of Bellefonte for superior court judges. There is no opposition to any of these candidates, and it is conceded that all will be nominated by acclamation.

Fraternal Mystic Circle Meets.

SARATOGA, April 26.—The grand ruling of the Fraternal Mystic Circle of the state of New York, with Grand Ruler Frank C. Hofman of Geneva presiding, convened here in biennial session. Supreme Ruler F. R. Duckwitz of Philadelphia was among those present.

New Building For University.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., April 26.—It has been decided at a mass meeting that citizens of Nashville will aid in erecting the new building to replace the structure recently destroyed by fire at Vanderbilt university. Over $33,000 has been subscribed to this end.

Woman Burned to Death.

WESTPORT, Conn., April 26.—Miss Bertha Kingsbury, aged twenty-five, was burned to death last night by her clothing catching fire from the stove over which she was preparing supper. A short time ago her grandmother met death in a similar way.

Plainfield, N. J., April 26, 1905.

Mention is made in the April number of the newsy Railway Employe of the fact that it is fifteen years old. Ben E. Chapin deserves the success that he has made of the publication by indefatigable and intelligent efforts.

The wisest thing that Charles C. Black has said in a good many moons to a newspaper man, he said the other day when a reporter approached him and asked him what he had to say about State Treasurer Briggs' assertion that his attitude towards the Hilliery maximum tax rate law was inconsistent with his utterance during the past on the subject of taxation. "I will not discuss it," was Mr. Black's reply. The less Mr. Black talks the better off he is.—Trenton State Gazette.

Pretty good advice for some others in the public eye.

Tom Lawson's expose of the Standard Oil system running in Everybody's Magazine is tame reading in comparison to the sensational charges made by that gifted writer Lincoln Steffens in his story on New Jersey now being published in McClure's. He describes Jersey as "the tenderloin of the States" and says its government is a syndicate. Senators Kean and Dryden, the McCarters and James B. Dill are unmercifully scored and it is declared that the big trust companies are "financial Baines' law hotels." From Mr. Steffens we learned some time ago that Rhode Island was "the rottenest State in the Union" but if half he says is true in regard to New Jersey some worse adjective will have to be coined to accurately describe this State.

The State press generally has favorably commented upon the radical increase in liquor license fees in Somerset County and particularly in North Plainfield. The action taken is a wise one and Judge Schenck is to be complimented upon the sensible way out of the dilemma which confronted him when North Plainfield wanted its rate raised to an extraordinary high figure as compared to what the fee was in other sections of the county. It was generally conceded that because of its position geographically to this city it was for the best interests of the borough that the license fee be made as nearly uniform as possible and the court hit upon a sensible figure when it was placed at $700, the rate here being $1,000 In commenting on the action taken by Judge Schenck, the Newark Evening News says:

"After a long, bitter and zealously prosecuted contest, the citizens of North Plainfield have gained their point, and are to be congratulated. Their license fees are now higher than in any other borough in the State, and they would probably have triumphed before, had they not been torn into factions over the questions of annexation and consolidation. As it is they are nearly on a par with Plainfield in the matter of saloon license fees, considering the relative business of the two places, and will no longer be at such a disadvantage as that under which they have labored for many years. Plainfield criminals unintentionally helped them to get what, through lack of concerted action, they failed to secure for themselves, but now that they have entered upon an era of higher license they are entitled to all the benefits that may accrue therefrom."

ADVS. COME TO LIFE

Part two continued to carry out the advertising scheme, and each representation was well received. "Mrs. Motherly" was portrayed by Miss Mabel Wilson; "Nabisco," by Miss Marion Blair and Miss Marguerite Barkalow; "Ceylon Tea," by Miss Evelyn Manley and Alfred Manley, who sang a pretty Japanese song. "Uneeda Biscuit" was represented by Bertram Leggett; "Franco-American," by Miss Madeline Blair, who sang a song. F. S. Cutter, representing the "Ralston Food" and carrying a child, Dorothy McVey, sang the praises of this product. Another amusing incident was enacted by Clarence Rittenhouse who rolled a barrel of what was supposed to be "Gold Medal Best" flour on the platform. When the barrel was righted, out jumped Arthur Martin, with blackened face and wearing a flour bag bearing the name "Gold Medal." He sang a song telling of this product. The last representation was that of "Pearline," by Mrs. William Trembath, assisted by the others who were taught that this washing powder was the best and only kind to use. The entertainment was concluded with a chorus of all the ads to the tune of "Should Auld Acquaintance Be Forgot."

Miss Lillian A. Force was the accompanist of the evening, and she was assisted by Miss Leggett. The entertainment was a great success and too much praise cannot be given Mrs. Charles P. Leggett, president of the Circle, under whose auspices it was given, and all the members, for their earnest work. The Circle is one of the smallest in the city, yet one of the most active. In nearly every case the costumes worn were made by members of the Circle and faithfully carried out the various advertisements.

SUBURBAN NEWS.

DUNELLEN AND VICINITY.

Col. Downey, of the village, no longer has the 8¾ ounce hen's egg which he proudly exhibited to his friends and customers last week. He showed it once too often Monday afternoon. While holding the egg in his hand he became involved in a political discussion, and forgot everything but the iniquity of the trusts and the party on the other side of the political fence. In emphasizing a fervid and patriotic period, Col. Downey brought the hand in which the prize egg was clenched down upon the back of a chair with a thump. Col. Downey no longer had the egg, but he had egg stains and sticky mess enough and to spare.

The household and farm effects of Mrs. Lena Ryno, of Piscataway, are being sold this afternoon. P. H. Latourette, of Plainfield, is the auctioneer.

Bids for the macadamizing of Dunellen avenue, between Jackson and Jefferson avenues, will be received by the Council Monday night.

The Whittier School nine will play the Somerville High School Saturday morning in Somerville. The battery will be Logan and Giles.

Frank Krug, of Hoboken, has returned home after a visit to Mrs. Catherine Miller.

Proposals
For Grading.

Sealed proposals will be received by the Board of Education of the Borough of Roselle, N. J., at the office of H. C. VanEmburgh, C. E., 149 North avenue, Plainfield, N. J., on May 2, 1905, at 10 a. m., for grading the School House property on the easterly side of Chestnut street, between Sixth and Seventh avenues, in the Borough of Roselle, N. J.

There will be about 6,000 cubic yards of material to be moved.

Each bid must be accompanied by a certified check for $50.00 drawn to the order of the Board of Education as an evidence of good faith, and the successful bidder will be required to furnish a bond for $1,000.00 to guarantee the faithful performance of the contract.

Specifications may be examined and blank forms of proposals may be obtained at the office of F. Provost, District Clerk, Roselle, N. J., or H. C. VanEmburgh, Engineer in Charge, 149 North avenue, Plainfield, N. J.

The Board of Education reserves the right to reject any or all bids.

FATE IS SEALED BY "RED WOOL"

STRANGE EXPERIENCE OF A SECRET SERVICE MAN.

IS WARNED TO LEAVE PARIS

His Companion Found Next Day Stabbed to Heart with Knife Tied with Fatal Bow of Crimson.

London.—The thrilling experiences of Mr. Francis Lake, who for the last five years has been in the employ of the Austrian government as a secret service agent, read more like a volume of Sherlock Holmes' adventures than chapters from the life history of a living detective.

"I always had a liking for police work," he said to a newspaper representative, "and have worked at it since I was quite a youngster. I had a friend in high office at Scotland Yard who knew my liking for detective work, and he introduced me to a secret service agent of the Austrian government working in London. The latter at once offered to pay me a salary to assist him, and for 12 months I worked as a secret service spy. At the end of that period he offered to retain me in the secret service.

"My first duty was to sign a bond in London that I would never divulge my business or my whereabouts even to my relatives or friends.

"After signing the bond of secrecy, I was sent to Vienna, and spent the first two months in familiarizing myself with Austrian criminals.

"By far the most extraordinary and thrilling case with which I have been connected with was that of the murder in the Rue Arcole, in Paris, on January 21, 1902. The murdered man was an Austrian by birth, but for a minor political offense was sentenced to serve seven years' banishment from his native country. He went first to France and took up his residence in Paris.

STABBED TO THE HEART.

"I first met him in December, 1901, in Paterson, N. J., and having obtained certain information from him, I persuaded him to accompany me to Europe. After making a short stay in London, where I was endeavoring to pick up more threads of the inquiry upon which I was engaged, we crossed to Paris.

"On the second night after our arrival in the French capital I invited him to dine with me at the well-known Cafe Viennois, in the Rue Montmartre.

"While sitting at the table I noticed he got rather fidgety, and at last suggested that he had better leave me to finish dinner alone. On inquiring the reason he called my attention to a group of five well-dressed men at an adjacent table, and informed me that he knew them, and it would be better for me not to be seen in his company.

"On looking across at the group I recognized one of the men as a relative of the murderer of the empress of Austria. I persuaded my companion not to leave hurriedly. A few moments later one of the occupants of the other table noticed us, and, after scrutinizing us for a time, rose, came over to our table and addressed my companion in his native tongue.

"At the finish of the conversation the two men raised their hats to each other, and my companion, turning to me, begged me to come outside immediately. Once in the street he turned to walk toward the opera house, and I asked him to tell me the meaning of his strange behavior. He would not answer a word until we got to the corner by the opera house, when he stopped abruptly and said:

"'You are only a young man, and you don't want to die yet, do you?'

"'Not if I can help it,' I replied, and clutched my revolver in my overcoat pocket, thinking he meant to attack me.

"'Well, he continued, 'take my advice. I have done you a little service, and you have done me several little kindnesses. Go to the commissary of police, ask him for a protective escort, and don't stop traveling until you are out of the country. If you don't follow my advice "Red Wool" will end your career. Au revoir and bon voyage, monsier,' and he immediately turned and walked away toward Cook's tourist offices.

"From that day to this I have never succeeded in solving the mystery, for the following morning my companion was found dead in the Rue Arcole—stabbed to the heart with a knife, round the handle of which was tied a bow of 'red wool.'"

THOUGHT HE HAD NERVE.

But Pat Couldn't Hang Himself Without Shutting Off His Breath.

"Did you ever hear of an Irishman committing suicide?" Coroners' Physician O'Hanlon asked the other day, relates the New York Times. "In all my experience I have only come across one or two cases. The Irish temperament is too sanguine for suicide, and even if an Irishman starts out to make away with himself, he usually changes his mind before he completes the job. I was talking this matter over with a friend some years ago who employed an Irish man of all work in the country. The man heard us and in order to have a little fun with him my friend called him over and said:

"'Pat, the doctor here says Irishmen don't commit suicide because they haven't the nerve.'

"'Nerve, is it?' replied Pat. 'I'll show you whether they have or not.'

"An hour or two later my friend sent for Pat, but he was nowhere to be found. We went in search of him and finally found him in the barn suspended from a rafter by a rope tied about his waist.

"'What in the name of all that's sensible are you doing?' asked my friend, after we had got him down.

"'Hanging myself, sor. You said I didn't have the nerve.'

"'But, you idiot, you ought to have put the rope about your neck.'

"'Faith and I did that, sor, but I couldn't breathe.'"

THE MAFIA FACE SLASH.

Cut in the Cheek That Is Given to People Who Refuse to Pay Blackmail.

The "Mafia cut" has been explained to County Detective Phillips, of Lackawanna, by Joseph Collandro, who has made a general confession of the workings of the Carbondale Mafia, says a Wilkesbarre (Pa.) report. This cut is a means taken by the society to mark a man who has aroused its ire by refusing to submit to blackmail.

It has been called the Mafia mark, the face slash, the chop, and the sign, and Collandro says that every new member of the Mafia is instructed how to inflict it. The instructor was, he declares, Pasquale Cherreti, who is now in jail awaiting trial with several of the members of the society.

The cut is made with a razor down the cheek of a man from a point above the ear, over the cheek bone and down almost to the corner of the mouth or nose. It is too high on the face to be covered by whiskers, and while it does not make a dangerous wound it leaves a lurid scar which can easily be distinguished.

It is made by one slash of a razor inflicted by a man walking at the side of the victim, and can be done just as he overtakes and passes him. One quick, clean slash with a sharp razor and the man is marked for life.

WISE WIFE'S SURPRISES.

Little Attentions Which She Renders Make Married Life a Complete Success.

The successful wife keeps on hand a little bomb in case of need. She keeps a surprise tucked up her sleeve, where it can be fired on a moment's notice, says the Philadelphia Inquirer. Maybe it is a carnation for his coat lapel; maybe it is his favorite pudding served extra; perhaps it is the baby's picture framed for his desk. Something she has ready, and when his affection needs jogging she does not hesitate to do the jogging.

Why, a bunch of violets or a knot of bright ribbon where it adds the most to the wife's charms almost makes a man forget that he is hungry. A saucy pinch with the usual kiss or a merry chase away from the accustomed greeting will almost make a man forget that he is married to the adorable creature. A stage whisper now and then and a twinkle of mischief are worth hours of cooing. The woman who buries her roguishness on her wedding day robs her home of much of its happiness.

BOXES OF SPANISH CEDAR.

Those in Which Imported Cigars Are Packed Impart a Delicate Flavor.

"The best cigar box is made of Spanish cedar," said a tobacconist. "All our imported cigars come in Spanish cedar boxes. Look here."

He opened a box of beautiful, costly cigars, says the Philadelphia Bulletin, and the odor diffused through the shop was indescribably pleasant, an odor half of tobacco, half, as it seemed, of spices.

"That spicy smell—do you notice it?" said the dealer. "Well, that is the smell of the Spanish cedar. It communicates itself to the cigars, and, so delicate and subtle is it, it actually improves their flavor.

"If we put up our goods in chestnut or walnut or pine boxes, the flavor of the wood, impregnating the tobacco, would ruin the cigars entirely. Hence, moderately good cigars are put in a box that is quite odorless and the best cigars are put up in this aromatic and costly box.

Rare Wild Animals.

Very rich in remarkable wild animals are the mountainous and remote corners of Alaska and British Columbia. They have produced the huge Kadiak bear, the largest in the world; the largest moose known, the sea otter and the Alaskan mountain sheep. What is thought to be a new species of bear has also been discovered there. It is an inland white bear, not an albino of the common black or brown bear, but apparently a true species.

An Ideal Location

Rosedale and Linden Park Cemeteries

LARGEST IN THE STATE

LINDEN, N. J.

Beautiful and Accessible

2 Miles from Elizabeth, 7 Miles from Newark,

14 MILES FROM NEW YORK

On Main Line Pennsylvania Railroad

Why Lots in These Cemeteries commend themselves to Heads of Families and Investors

BECAUSE of the $1,000,000 Trust Fund provided for by the Trustees in each Cemetery, the income from which will keep the properties perpetually beautiful at NO EXPENSE TO LOT OWNERS.

BECAUSE such a guarantee, not found in any other cemetery, assures lot owners that the grounds WILL BE MAINTAINED PERMANENTLY AS BEAUTIFUL PARKS AFTER THE INCOME FROM THE SALE OF LOTS HAS BEEN EXHAUSTED.

LOTS SHOULD BE PURCHASED NOW

BECAUSE MORE ADVANTAGES ARE OFFERED TO LOT BUYERS in a new Modern Park Cemetery than in those established many years and, in most cases, no provision made for perpetual care without extra expense to lot owners. THERE ARE A GREATER NUMBER OF IDEAL LOCATIONS TO SELECT FROM, PRICES OF LOTS ARE ALWAYS LOWER AND TERMS MORE ADVANTAGEOUS.

BECAUSE life is most uncertain and EVERY ONE SHOULD ANTICIPATE THE INEVITABLE BY MAKING A CHOICE NOW OF A FINAL RESTING PLACE.

LOTS WILL PROVE A GOOD INVESTMENT

BECAUSE they are sure to increase in value and can be purchased NOW at the INITIAL, or LOWEST PRICE and upon the most ADVANTAGEOUS TERMS.

BECAUSE the properties are ACCESSIBLE TO 4,000,000 PEOPLE, and considering the RAPID GROWTH OF GREATER NEW YORK and its TRIBUTARY CITIES and TOWNS, it is only a question of a SHORT TIME when LOTS in ROSEDALE and LINDEN PARK will EQUAL IN VALUE those of our MOST NOTED cemeteries.

AZIENZA

836 Second Place, Plainfield, N. J., October 29th, 1904.

Your AZIENZA certainly has wonderful healing properties. My cook had a deep and ugly looking fissure between two toes. It pained and annoyed her greatly. I did not know what it was nor do I now, but with some hesitancy I told her to try AZIENZA.

She did so and it gave her instant relief from the pain. I then gave her the box and in a few days she told me that it was entirely healed. I shall not hesitate again to recommend its use for any sore or inflamed part of the skin.

Sincerely yours,

THE SPRING HATS.

Attractive Millinery In Bronze Shades—Burnt Lilacs a Fad.

A most attractive spring hat is of bronze horsehair braid. The brim, which is turned up in front, gives the appearance of a tricorne hat at the sides and back. The crown is softly indented on the top. It is very simply trimmed with folded bands of bronze velvet, which tie directly in front into a five looped bow laid on the upturned brim and rest almost on the hair. The hat is encircled with one long rose colored ostrich plume. It starts at the back and continues around the crown. At the left side the plume curls over the brim and hangs down toward the back.

POLO TOQUE IN ROSE CRIN.

Burnt lilacs adorn one smart hat, and roses crushed and faded are to be seen on all the millinery of the moment.

Picture hats in smaller shapes will reign side by side with the tiny models Paris has whimsically insisted upon all the world wearing.

Linen hats are exquisite and are stunning when made of eyelet or anglaise embroidery. They launder well and may be always kept fresh and attractive.

The spring hats are simply trimmed and depend for their style entirely upon shape and coloring.

The smart little toque illustrated is called the "polo." It is carried out in rose crin, the braid forming in rows the deep upturned brim. Directly in front of the toque are an aigret and a panache of shaded ostrich feathers.

JUDIC CHOLLET.

FRILLS AND FANCIES.

Double Beading a Novelty—The Tucker Much Worn—Crystal Buttons.

Double beading is one of the lingerie novelties of the hour. This double beading, combined with narrow German valenciennes, is made up into the daintiest and prettiest of collar and cuff sets and the dearest little yokes.

Duplicates of the old fashioned tucker are to be seen everywhere in the dress world. All over embroidery is used for this purpose, and sheer tucked material with entre deux of lace is quite as smart. The tucker is used as a small yoke to give the fashionable touch of white about the face or fills in the V front formed by the surpliced waist effect.

Another quaint conceit of the summer will be the matching of a prominent color in a flowered dress design to be carried out in girdle, shoes and stockings. This touch gives an individuality to a gown.

Some of the charming spring models Paris has sent over are trimmed with flat crystal buttons.

French ribbon embroidery is occasionally to be found on the elaborate spring frock, but braid, lace and oriental embroidery are the trimmings most used.

The dress in the cut is suitable for a girl of ten. It is developed in fancy dotted beige voile. The full gathered skirt has two puffings of beige chiffon taffeta. A puffing of this silk outlines the shirred yoke, which extends surplice fashion down the front of the bloused waist. The girdle and pompadour bows forming the bodice trimming are of almond green velvet. The sleeves are formed of two puffs above deep cuffs. JUDIC CHOLLET.

Kate Bonnet

The Romance of a Pirate's Daughter

By FRANK R. STOCKTON

Copyright, 1902, by D. Appleton & Co., New York.

"Oh, don't kill him! Don't kill him!" she cried, "he will hurt nobody; he is only hugging the old gentleman."

Capt. Ichabod looked from the girl to the two men, who were actually embracing each other. Dickory's back was towards him, but the face of Mr. Delaplaine fairly glowed with delight.

"Oho!" said Ichabod, turning to Lucilla, "and what does this mean, bedad?"

"I don't know," she answered, "but the gentleman in the uniform is a good man. Perhaps the other one is his father."

"To my eyes," said Capt. Ichabod, "this is a most fearsome mix."

The Mander family, and nearly everybody else on board, crowded about the little group, gazing with all their eyes, but asking no questions.

"Capt. Ichabod," exclaimed Mr. Delaplaine, holding Dickory by the hand, "this is one of the two persons you were taking us to find. This is Dickory Charter, the son of good Dame Charter, now on your vessel. He went away with Blackbeard, and we were in search of him."

"Oho!" cried Capt. Ichabod, "by my life I believe it. That's the young fellow that Blackbeard dressed up in a cocked hat and took away with him."

"I am the same person, sir," said Dickory.

"So far so good," said Capt. Ichabod. "I am very glad that I did not bring down my cutlass on you, which I should have done, bedad, had it not been for this young woman."

Now up spoke Mr. Delaplaine. "We have found you, Dickory," he cried, "but what can you tell us of Maj. Bonnet?"

"Aye, aye!" added Capt. Ichabod, "there's another one we're after; where's the runaway Sir Nightcap?"

"Alas!" said Dickory, "I do not know. I escaped from Blackbeard, and since that day have heard nothing. I had supposed that Capt. Bonnet was in your company, Mr. Delaplaine."

Now the captain of the Black Swan pushed himself forward. "Is it Capt. Bonnet, lately of the pirate ship Revenge, that you're talking about?" he asked. "If so, I may tell you something about him. I am lately from Charles Town, and the talk there was that Blackbeard was lying outside the harbor in Stede Bonnet's old vessel, and that Bonnet had lately joined him. I did not venture out of port until I had had certain news that these pirates had sailed northward. They had two or three ships, and the talk was that they were bound for the Virginias, and perhaps still farther north. They were fitted for a long cruise."

"Gone again!" exclaimed Mr. Delaplaine in a hoarse voice. "Gone again!"

Capt. Ichabod's face grew clouded.

"Gone north of Charles Town," he exclaimed, "that's bad, bedad, that's very bad. You are sure he did not sail southward?" he asked of the captain of the brig.

That gruff mariner was in a strange state of mind. He had just been captured by a pirate, and in the next moment had made, what might be a very profitable sale, to a respectable merchant, of the goods the pirate was about to take from him. Moreover the said pirate seemed to be in the employ of said merchant, and altogether things seemed to him to be in as fearsome a mix as they had seemed to Capt. Ichabod, but he brought his mind down to the question he had been asked.

"No doubt about that," said he; "there were some of his men in the town—for they were afraid of nobody—and they were not backward in talking."

"That upsets things badly," said Capt. Ichabod, without unclouding his brow. "With my slow vessel and my empty purse, bedad, I don't see how I am ever goin' to catch Blackbeard if he has gone north. Finding Blackbeard would have been a handful of trumps to me, but the game seems to be up, bedad."

The captain of the brig and Ichabod's quartermaster went away to attend to the transfer of the needed goods to the Restless. Mander, with his wife and little daughter, were standing together gazing with amazement at the strange pirates who had come aboard, while Lucilla stepped up to Dickory, who stood silent, with his eyes on the deck.

"Can you tell me what this means?" said she.

For a moment he did not answer, and then he said: "I don't know everything myself, but I must presently go on board that vessel."

"What!" exclaimed Lucilla, stepping back, "Is she there?"

"Yes," said Dickory.

CHAPTER XXIX.

DICKORY FINDS HIS MOTHER.

The sea was smooth and the wind light, and the transfer of provisions from the Black Swan to the pirate sloop, which two ships now lay as near each other as safety would permit, was accomplished quietly.

During the progress of the transfer Capt. Ichabod's boat was rowed back to his ship, and its arrival was watched with great interest by everybody on board that pirate sloop. Kate and Dame Charter, as well as all the men who stood looking over the rail, were amazed to see a naval officer accompanying the captain and Mr. Delaplaine on their return. But that amazement was greatly increased when that officer, as soon as he set foot upon the deck, removed his hat and made directly for Dame Charter, who, with a scream loud enough to frighten the fishes, enfolded him in her arms and straightway fainted. It was like a son coming up out of the sea, sure enough, as she afterward stated. Kate, recognizing Dickory, hurried to him with a scream of her own and both hands outstretched.

"Is my father dead?" she gasped.

"Not that I know of," said Dickory.

"Where is he?" she cried.

"I do not know," was the answer.

She stood, while Dickory returned to his mother. Mr. Delaplaine saw her standing thus, pale and shocked, but he did not hasten to her. He had sad things to say to her, for his practical mind told him that it would not be possible to continue the search for her father, he having put himself out of the reach of Capt. Ichabod and his inefficient sloop. If Dickory had said anything about her father which had so cast her down, how much harder would it be for him when he had to tell her the whole truth.

Over and over again Dickory told his tale to his mother. She interrupted him so much with her embraces that he could not explain things clearly to her, but she did not care, she had him with her. He was with her, and she had fast hold of him, and she would never let go again. What mattered it what sort of clothes he wore, or where he had escaped from—a family on a desert island or from a pirate crew? She had him, and her happiness knew no bounds.

The boats plied steadily between the two vessels, and on one of the trips Mr. Delaplaine went over to the brig on business, and also glad to escape for a little the dreaded interview which must soon come between himself and his niece.

"Now, sir," said the merchant to the captain of the brig, "you will make a bill against me for the provisions which are being taken to that pirate, but I hope you have reserved a sufficient store of food for your own maintenance until you reach a port, and that of myself and two women whe wish to sail with you, craving most earnestly that you will land us in Jamaica or in some place convenient of access to that island."

"Which I can do," said the captain, "for I am bound for Kingston; and as to subsistence, shall have plenty."

On the brig Mr. Delaplaine found Capt. Ichabod, who had come over to superintend operations, and who was now talking to the pretty girl who had seized him by the arm when he was about to slay the naval officer.

"I would talk with you, captain," said the merchant, "on a matter of immediate import." And he led the pirate away from the pretty girl.

The matter to be discussed was, indeed, of deep import.

SAID YOUNG WAS MURDERED.

Witness Made Dramatic Assertion at Patterson Trial.

NEW YORK, April 26.—"Caesar Young was murdered" was the dramatic declaration of Coroner's Physician Dr. Philip O'Hanlon a few minutes before the trial of Nan Patterson was adjourned for the day. Recorder Goff, the jury, the spectators, attorneys for the defense and prosecution and especially the girlish prisoner hung upon the words of the witness with intense interest. It was perhaps the most sensational utterance which had come from the witness chair since the beginning of the trial.

Dr. O'Hanlon expressed this opinion after a gruelling cross examination by Abraham Levy, counsel for the defense. Vainly the lawyers had tried to make the physician who performed the autopsy upon Young's body admit that the case might have been one of suicide.

Two other very important statements were made by witnesses during the day.

One was made by Frederick Michaels, the cabman who drove Young and Miss Patterson in his hansom on the morning of the tragedy. He said that fifteen seconds elapsed from the time he heard the shot and when the accused young woman pushed up the trap and directed him to drive to a drug store. Pressed by a juror to explain why he had not looked into the cab, Michaels said he was afraid he would be shot if he did so.

William Stemm, Jr., the young man who was the first witness to the tragedy and who conducted the cab and its occupants to the hospital, made another statement, which is regarded as important for the defense.

On cross examination Mr. Levy tried to learn from the witness how Miss Patterson conducted herself. Stemm said that to him it appeared she wanted to cry, but seemed afraid or ashamed to do so.

"You were present when she was left with the body of Caesar Young, were you not?" asked Mr. Levy.

"I was."

"What did she do while you were there?"

"She flung herself on her knees and cried: 'Oh, Frank, what made you? How could you do it?'"

"You did not testify to that at the last trial?"

"No."

When the trial was resumed there was the usual crush at the courtroom door and a horde of the curious assembled on Center and Elm streets to see the young woman cross the Bridge of Sighs.

Police Captain Sweeney was one of the important witnesses called early in the proceedings.

Impure Food Dealers Fined.

BOSTON, April 26.—Six provision merchants were arraigned in the municipal court before Judge A. S. Bolster on charges of selling adulterated and impure food. Five of them pleaded guilty and received fines aggregating $100. The foods in question include sausages, oysters, ginger, spoiled grapes and milk below the standard. The complaints were made by the state board of health. Six men who had sold impure butter, vinegar and other articles were found guilty and fined last week.

MR. LIE'S PICTURES ON PUBLIC VIEW

SOCIETY FOLK SEE PAINTINGS OF PLAINFIELDER.

Local society people in large numbers thronged the studio of Jonas Lie, the young artist, in the Babcock building, yesterday, where for the first time since he has been in Plainfield he gave an exhibition of his recent paintings. The affair was in the nature of a reception, Mrs. Edwin Perkins and Mrs. Edward Conklin receiving.

Wherever they have been exhibited, Mr. Lie's paintings have caused favorable comment and their showing yesterday was the result of numerous requests from local people. Those who attended, and there were many connoisseurs, were loud in their praise as Mr. Lie displays a keen sense of design in his compositions and has an originality in his cloud work and color effect. He was awarded a silver medal at the St. Louis exhibition and has frequently taken first honors elsewhere.

Mr. Lie's success is all the more remarkable from the fact that he is but twenty-four years old and his high aim has been held against great odds.

Clothing for Labrador.

All who are interested in the Labrador Medical Mission conducted by Dr. Wilfred T. Grenfell, will be glad to learn that a large box of warm and useful clothing was sent to him last week, for distribution among the destitute people to whom he ministers. The donors of the articles contained in this box represent several of the churches of this city, and they were received and packed at the house of Samuel Huntington on Franklin place. Six overcoats for men were sent, and two for boys, also five complete suits for men and eleven suits for women. The list included sweaters, wool caps, mufflers, underclothing, stockings, shoes, toys, scrap book and golf caps and heavy blanket. A check for $37.50—contributed by various friends of Dr. Grenfell, was also sent to him, to be used in carrying on his work.

—Justice Moffett is confined to his house by a sore toe.

—The Sesame Club will meet tomorrow morning at the home of Mrs. H. F. Johnson, 1220 Watchung avenue.

SPORTING NEWS

DIAMOND DUST.

The Y. M. C. A. ball team will practice on Friday night, instead of tomorrow night as previously stated.

The Plainfield High School team will meet the strong Morris H. S., of New York city, on Saturday, April 29.

As Somerville does not propose to have a ball team this year, her fans can be counted upon to attend the Plainfield contests.

In the Plainfield High School-Camp Bowser game, Monday, Smith, of the Plainfield boys, held up his reputation as a crack pitcher by striking out thirteen of the collegians and allowing but seven hits.

Three more links to their chain of victory were added by the Plainfield Athletics on Sunday, when they defeated the South End A. A., and the original Waverleys at Brooklyn, and yesterday they easily walloped the Bloomsdale Academy nine at Bloomsdale. The Athletics are playing together and their team work counts against the semi professionals.

Special Commissioners Meetings.

Nelson Runyon, Corra N. Williams and W. H. Howard, who were recently appointed commissioners by Judge Fort in the matter of the mill owners against the Mountain Water Company, of Summit, will probably not meet until May to decide upon the benefits and damages to be awarded. Charles A. Reed, Esq., of the firm of Reed & Coddington, represents the mill owners, including French, Harper, Hollingsworth & Co., and the Seeley Paper Company, who claim that the water company has been using the water from Greenbrook to such an extent, that their interests are considerably damaged.

S. P. Craig Buried.

Funeral services of Serin P. Craig, of East Orange, were held last night at the late home and this morning at Hillside cemetery, where the interment took place. Rev. A. C. McCrea, pastor of the First M. E. church, conducted services at the grave. The pall bearers were Thaddeus C. Doane, Charles E. Doane, Thaddeus J. F. R. Doane, J. Hervey Doane and E. D. Barrett.

Say: He Stole Shoes.

The police are looking for Edward Marcellus, colored, who is accused of having stolen two pairs of shoes from the store of Max Weinstein, Park avenue, two weeks ago. Officer McKeon spotted Marcellus on a Somerset street car yesterday morning, and tried to nab him, but the youth sprinted to freedom.

MISS ANNA MOORE WED IN ST. JOSEPH'S

TERENCE QUINN THE GROOM AT AFTERNOON MARRIAGE.

In St. Joseph's church yesterday afternoon, Miss Anna Moore, of Summit avenue, was made the wife of Terence Quinn, of New Market, formerly of Bound Brook. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Father Miller and was witnessed by a large gathering of relatives and friends from this city, New York, Newark and Jersey City.

Miss B. Moore, sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaid, and Frank Smith, of Newark, was best man. John Mc Donough and James Moore were ushers and Mrs. A. E. LaPorte rendered the wedding march on the organ.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Patrick McDonough, of Summit avenue. Mr. and Mrs. Quinn will make their home at New Market, the former being stationed at that point as a foreman for the Lehigh Valley Railroad.

LONG LOST SMITH.

Relative of Mrs. C. L. Fair Will Get Share of Mother's Estate.

Charles J. Smith, of Boulder, Co., brother of the late Mrs. Charles L. Fair, who was killed in an automobile accident in France, and son of the late Mrs. Hannah Nelson, of New Market, says that Frank Smith, of Topeka, Kan., is his long-lost brother, and that he will receive a share of the estate of his mother and sister. Charles J. Smith has received a photograph of Frank Smith, and is convinced beyond a doubt that it is that of his brother.

Twenty-five years have elapsed since any of the Smiths heard from Frank, and although advertised for by the executors of the estate he never made his whereabouts known until he heard of the death of his mother recently.

SOCIETY NOTES.

Mrs. Alfred T. Slauson, of East Ninth street, is detained at home by illness.

Isaac L. Miller and family will return to their Watchung avenue home next week.

Miss Tifft, of New York is visiting Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Burke, of Woodland avenue.

George Yerkes, of West Seventh, has returned to Lawrenceville School to resume his studies.

J. H. Jewett, of New York, who has purchased the Moore property, 1000 Central avenue, has taken possession.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Abbott, of Central avenue, left today for California, where they will visit for some time.

Miss Elsie Brokaw, of 38 Sycamore avenue, gave a heart party last night in honor of her cousin, Miss Isabel Milne, whose marriage to Allen B. Laing, occurs tomorrow night. There were eighty guests. After the play refreshments were served.

Hon. George H. Barker and son, of Pasadena, Cal., are expected in Plainfield within a few days to visit Mrs. E. W. Lawrence, of 60 Washington avenue. Mr. Barker was formerly State Senator from Gloucester county and is very well known in New Jersey. He has been a resident of California for seven years and he comes east partly on business and partly for pleasure.

In honor of her daughter, Miss Isabel Milne, who will be married to Allen B. Laing, tomorrow night, Mrs. Isabel Milne will give a large dinner party at her home, 33 Willow avenue, tonight. Covers will be laid for twenty-eight, which includes the entire bridal party and other invited guests. The decorations will be quite elaborate and there will be other delightful features. Following the dinner the bridal party will have a dress rehearsal at the First Baptist church.

In the City Court.

William Peel, messenger boy, was fined $1 for riding his bicycle on the sidewalk. Morris Balowitz, arraigned on complaint of George Fisher, a neighbor, for allowing his dog to run at large, was released under suspended sentence. William Mayse and Robert Tucker, colored, were fined $5 apiece for fighting in Thompson's poolroom, Park avenue, Monday night.

Burial of George Schuck.

Funeral services over the body of George Schuck were held form St. Mary's church this morning, Father Began having charge. Interment was made in St. Mary's cemetery, six employes from the Pond machine department acting as pall bearers.

ATHLETICS BUNCH HITS AND WIN GAME

ST. MARY'S COLLEGE TEAM BEATEN 5 TO 2.

Bunched hits won the game for the Athletics in their contest with the St. Mary's College nine, of Yonkers, on Hope Common yesterday afternoon. The score was 5 to 2.

The visitors led off by scoring a run in the opening session, and held that much of a lead until the fifth inning. In that inning the Athletics sent two runs over the plate. In the next inning the visitors landed the tieing mark, and plucked up hope.

The hope blew up in the next round. The Athletics banged the sphere in bunches, and yanked the lead and the game away from the Yonkers men.

Donohue and Catersen were the battery for St. Mary's, and O'Brien and Murray were in the points for the Athletics. The twirlers divided honors pretty evenly as far as the hits tallied, the Athletics cracking out eight and the St. Mary's seven. The difference was that O'Brien kept his biffs spread pretty thinly along the way.

TWO HURT WHEN ENGINES CRASH

Jersey Central Passengers Shaken Up in Collision at Elizabethport Last Night.

PANIC IN THE SMOKER

Careless Engineer Sends Freight Locomotive on Main Track in Front of the Somerville Local.

Two Plainfielders were slightly hurt and one hundred other passengers were severely shaken up in a head-on collision on the New Jersey Central at Elizabethport, last night. Train No. 137, which is the Somerville local and reaches this city at 11:28, crashed into a heavy freight engine which a thoughtless engineer ran onto the main track while drilling. Stonewall Jackson, of Somerset street, and Ignatz Boehm, the West Front street dry goods man, were severely cut by flying glass. Homer Smith, another Plainfielder, who had a miraculous escape from death in the Westfield wreck, was thrown over several seats and sustained contusions about the head.

The passenger train left Jersey City at 10:40 and as it is a regular, was supposed to have a clear track. The engineer was proceeding along at almost full speed opposite the Singer sewing machine works when the lights of another engine loomed in front of him. He applied the emergency brakes with a suddenness that jerked every passenger from the seats, but not soon enough to avoid the shock. The collision battered in the fronts of both engines and knocked the pony trucks from in under the one hauling the train.

Nearly every window in the smoking car was demolished and for a moment or so the men were in a panic. They were making a scramble for the doors when the crew reassured them and prevented trouble. Another engine was secured to take the train to its destination but many of the passengers who had been wrought into a nervous state, left it at Elizabethport and came to this city by trolley.

Those most severely cut by the glass received medical attention at Elizabeth and were then sent home.

FRANKLIN, 10; N. A. C., 9.

Mayor's Son Umpired the Close Contest.

The Franklin School team defeated the Norwood A. C. nine yesterday afternoon by a score of 10 to 9. The winning run was made by Jones, who was brought in by Denlinger's long drive to deep centre. The lineup:

Franklin School—Rogers, c; Jones, p; Denlinger, 1b; Southward, 2b; Jackson, 3b; Coyle, ss; Hand, lf; Lee, cf; Berkowitz, rf.

Norwood A. C.—Karz, c; Apgar, p; Paolia, 1b; Francisco, 2b; Deser, 3b; Marry, ss; Shearind, lf; Conneskie, rf; C. Clarkson, cf.

Umpire, James F. Buckie, Jr.

The Concert Coffers Filling Up.

Another large attendance was noted at the band concert fair in Saengerbund Hall, last night, and its success is now an assured fact. The soloist at the entertainment was Lew Leever, formerly in Lew Dockstader's company Tonight, George Offerman, the favorite "coon shouter," will be on hand and his accompanist will be Theodore Morse, who wrote "Blue Bell."

Mrs. Anna M. Crane Dead.

Mrs. Anne M. Crane, widow of Rufus K. Crane, and eldest daughter of the late John and Maria Ridley, of New York city, died yesterday afternoon at the home of her daughter, Mrs. E. L. Finch, of Park avenue. She had been an invalid for a number of years and was unable to leave the home. Mrs. Crane was a member of Grace church and was a devout Christian.

Another Golf Trophy.

In addition to the regular golf events at the Plainfield Country Club, Walter Gaston has given a cup to be played for on the point system from May 11, 1905 up to and including November 9, 1905. This cup is to be played for at 18 holes, medal play handicap, every Thursday morning and will be open to all women members of the club.

FIFTEEN INNINGS, SCORE TWO TO TWO

FINE EXHIBITION BETWEEN ATHLETICS AND ST. JOHN'S INSTITUTE.

For fifteen innings yesterday afternoon, on Hope Common, the Athletics fought a gruelling contest with the St. John's Institute nine, of Greenville. When the athletes broke away, at dusk, the score was 2 to 2.

Snappy playing and clean hitting marked the game. At times the plays were of the sensational kind. Each team pulled off a double-up at a crucial period, and choked off tallies.

The visitors earned their two runs in the opening session, on three sharp hits. After that Mack held the opposing batsmen in submission, scattering their nine other swats well over the uphill journey. He was faultlessly supported.

In the fourth the Athletics wrenched off their first run, and caught up with their opponents in the ninth by a lively batting rally, Owens and Barry landing on the leather for two socks apiece. After that each nine hung on the other's flank at every breakaway, until dusk ended the battle.

Falling Pole Upsets Wires.

The blowing of the fire-alarm whistle between 11:30 and 12 o'clock, last night, was caused by the falling of an electric light and fire alarm pole at Watchung and North avenues. The pole was in poor condition, being rotted at the base. Inspector Applegate, of the New York and New Jersey Telephone Company, quickly located the trouble and in a short time a new pole was erected and the wires adjusted. The blowing of the whistle did not call out the fire department.

Miss Barnes, of Somerset street, opposite Lincoln place, is quite ill at her home with typhoid fever.

MISS TALMADGE A BRIDE

Society Witnesses Her Wedding to Daniel Runkle.

BEAUTIFUL CEREMONY

Rev. Drs. Richards and Zelie Officiate at Nuptial Service at Crescent Avenue Church.

In the social calendar of Eastertide there will be no record of a prettier wedding than that held at the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church yesterday afternoon, when Miss Helen Dunbar Talmadge was married to Daniel Runkle. Ceremonies and decorations more elaborate may come into the social history, but none could be more tasteful or attractive in ensemble.

Many guests witnessed it. Plainfield society was largely represented, and guests from New York, Boston and Brooklyn swelled the attendance. The church was filled. The guests from out of town came to this city on a special car attached to the Royal Blue Line flyer leaving New York at 2 o'clock.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry P. Talmadge, of Belvidere avenue. The groom is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Runkle, of West Eighth street. Both families belong to the most exclusive social set of Plainfield.

The wedding took place at 3 o'clock. Rev. Dr. W. K. Richards, of the Brick Presbyterian church, New York, former pastor of the Crescent Avenue church, performed the ceremony, assisted by Rev. Dr. John Sheridan Zelie, the present pastor. The bride entered the church from the left side, on the arm of her father, preceded by the ushers and the bridesmaids; the groom and his best man came down the center aisle, from the rear, the parties meeting at the altar. Dr. Richards spoke the words that united the couple. The bride was given away by her father.

Miss Talmadge was attended by Miss Lucie Talmadge, her sister, and Miss Mary Gray Runkle, sister of the groom. The best man was Willard Wadsworth, of this city. The ushers were Frank FitzRandolph Deichman, of Easton, Pa.; John Wright-Clark, of Newark; Arthur Talmadge, of this city; Edgar FitzRandolph and Theodore FitzRandolph, of Morristown, and Charles Runyon, of New York.

The bride was gowned in white satin, trimmed with point applique lace; she carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley. The bridesmaids were white chiffon creations, embroidered with silver, and white hats with white plumes; they carri white lilies.

James Helfenstein, organist of Grace P. E. church, New York, played the wedding march. The bridal parties came into the church to the Lohengrin march. During the ceremony the organ sounded softly the strains of the Mendelssohn march, swelling as the ceremony ended.

Mr. Helfenstein's programme included, besides the usual marches, the following: March, Athalen, Mendelssohn; Priests' Chant, Tanhauser; Madrigale, Simonetti; Sonate No. 12, Rheinberger; Largo, Handel; Spring Song, Hollius; La Cinquantaine, Gabriel-Marie.

Palms and Easter lilies exclusively were used in the decorations. They were designed and placed by Thorley, the New York florist. The decorative effect was striking.

After the ceremony a quiet reception was held at the home of the bride. Only relatives and intimate friends were present. The house was decorated, like the church, with palms and lilies, by Thorley. A wedding breakfast, catered by Sherry, was served.

Mr. and Mrs. Runkle will enjoy an extended honeymoon trip. Where the honeymoon will be spent was not announced.

The bride received many handsome gifts. The groom presented his ushers with the conventional scarf pins.

Wiltse on His Mettle.

Louis Wiltse pitched the first championship game yesterday for Baltimore against Jersey City, and won by a score of 8 to 2. He held the Skeeters down to five scattering hits. It was the opening of the Eastern League championship series and Newark, Baltimore, Buffalo and Toronto were the winners.

Warning to 1902 Delinquents.

From Collector Lee's office today comes the statement that all delinquent real estate taxes for 1902 to be sold under the Martin act, will be advertised on May 8 and the sale will take place four weeks later. All that are paid up to May 8 will not be included in the list.

CORN MAY COST A FOOT

Justice Moffett's Serious Plight From Using Patent Plaster.

CAUSED DRY GANGRENE

Two Toes Affected and Physicians Fearful That Amputation May Have to Follow.

Through the use of a patent corn-plaster, Justice E. D. Moffett, one of the prominent Democratic leaders of the Fourth ward, is threatened with the loss of two toes, and possibly his whole right foot. Two physicians are working hard to save him from the necessity of amputation, which, on account of his age, would tax his vitality to a dangerous extent.

Justice Moffett applied the plaster to a bothersome corn on the little toe of his right foot last week. A day or two later, following the directions that came with the plaster, he pried it off. As the plaster people promise in their circulars, the corn came out when the plaster was removed, but in addition to the corn some of the flesh beneath the roots came up. The cavity bled a little, but the Justice thought nothing of that until Monday, when a peculiar feeling of deadness became noticeable in the toe.

Dr. Lufburrow was called in, and he discovered that the toe was badly affected by dry gangrene. Efforts to check the spread of the rot were in vain, and the gangrene affected the whole toe. Dr. Endicott was called in to help in saving the Justice's foot, but the gangrene has spread to the next toe, and it is believed that both of them will have to be cut off without much more delay, in order to save the foot.

Not even that step may check the disease, but the physicians believe there is a good chance to save the member.

PRESENTATION OF VAN SYCKEL'S PICTURE

CEREMONY WILL BE TUESDAY AND R. V. LINDABURY WILL MAKE THE SPEECH.

A feature at the opening of the May term of court at Elizabeth on Tuesday morning next will be the formal presentation by the Union County Bar Association of the handsome life-size oil portrait of former Justice Bennet J. Van Syckel.

Justice Van Syckel will honor the occasion with his presence, and Judges Heisley and Vail will probably occupy the bench with Supreme Court Justice Franklin Fort, Judge Van Syckel's successor. The presentation of the portrait in behalf of the bar association will be made by Lawyer R. V. Lindabury, of Newark.

The committee which procured the picture, consisting of Chancellor Magie, Judge P. H. Gilbooly, Surrogate T. Parrot and Lawyer Craig A. Marsh, of this city, will deliver the painting into the hands of Mr. Lindabury for presentation. It is also expected that the entire bar association, as well as the Board of Freeholders will be present. The picture is an excellent portrait of the aged jurist, who for so many years presided in this county. It is in a plain though handsome gold frame, and the painting is from the brush of Artist John W. Alexander.

Wanted the Doors.

In an effort to take away four doors from the dry goods store of Thomas Kanter, at 228 West Front street, this morning, William H. Kirch, the carpenter, started a lively war of words that attracted a big crowd and Officer Herbert Overbaugh to the scene. The building was recently remodelled inside by Kirch, and he regarded the old doors as his perquisites. When he went to get them this morning, Mrs. Kanter and her husband vigorously opposed his action. The noise of the fuss was audible in the street, and the sidewalk was speedily blocked by the curious. Overbaugh's arrival brought the dispute to an end. Kirch went away without the doors.

After That School Building.

There will be an important school meeting at New Market, this afternoon, when the taxpayers of the township will decide about the erection of new school buildings. New Market wants a $30,000 new high school, while the sentiment seems to be in favor of a $14,000 building. Taxpayers in the vicinity of Rock avenue and West Fourth street want a building and S. S. Swackhamer will be present to represent their interests.

WILL POSTOFFICE MOVE?

Approaching Expiration of Present Lease Starts Rumor.

POSTMASTER'S VIEW

Says Front Street is the Place for It, Though Park Avenue Site Has Been Mentioned.

In connection with the many property changes being made in the city business property there is still considerable talk to the effect that if Plainfield is fortunate enough to get a Government postoffice building through the bill introduced by United States Senator John Kean, that the site most likely to be chosen is on Park avenue, adjoining the property of The Plainfield Trust Company. The property is owned by Charles W. McCutchen, who has not yet decided upon his plans for improving the same.

The Government's five-year lease for the present postoffice quarters will expire this year, and in any event it will be necessary to make another lease for another five years, even though Plainfield's postoffice bill should become a law and the Government decides to build here. It would require that length of time to erect a new building.

Postmaster Bird, when questioned this morning as to whether he would favor the Park avenue site for the building, replied that he might, although he believed that Front street is the proper place for it. Under present conditions the postoffice department is obliged to carry the mail between the railroad station and office, while if the office was nearer the station the railroad would have to do this work. However, Mr. Bird says that he is perfectly satisfied with his messenger and says that the work could not be performed better.

Sometime between now and December a Government postoffice inspector will visit here for the purpose of making further arrangements for the office. He will inspect various sites and existing conditions and no doubt his recommendations will be carried out. The present quarters are very well adapted for a postoffice, in fact much better than in some cities much larger than Plainfield and Mr. Bird is not particularly anxious to move again unless a Government building is secured.

When the inspector visited this city a few months ago his attention was drawn to the Powlison & Jones building on East Front street as being especially well adapted for an office, but the firm was not willing to lease its building.

If Charles W. McCutchen should erect a suitable structure on Park avenue, the Government might be induced to lease it, although the object is to erect a building of its own.

PYTHIANS ON PARADE.

Members of Unity and Perseverance Lodges to Have Demonstration Tonight.

The local Knights of Pythians lodges, Unity and Perseverance, together with Crescent Company, No. 13, U. R. K. of P., will unite in a demonstration tonight. A street parade will begin the programme, starting from Unity's rooms at 7:15, in which all members of the order are invited to participate. Afterward a minstrel show and musical entertainment will be given in Unity's rooms in Knights of Columbus Hall, beginning at 8:30. Mayor Buckie will preside as chairman.

In addition to Colonel P. Frank Shanley, of Jersey City, several prominent State Pythians will be present and make brief addresses.

Ten Pin Tournament.

In the ten pin tournament continued on the Park Club alleys last night the highest averages were made by Morgan Townsend, 187; F. O. Bell, 172, and Walter Long, 164, which gives them there, two and one point respectively. The standing by points is as follows: Morgan Townsend, 9; Walter Long, 9; F. O. Bell, 8; F. H. Bell, 3; L. R. Thurlow, 2; George Worth, 2; C. W. McGee, 1; Herbert Rogers, 1; L. Howard, 1.

Templars' Visit.

A large delegation of members from Trinity Commandery, No. 17, K. T., paid a fraternal visit to Clinton Commandery, of Brooklyn, last night. The Plainfielders were accorded a royal welcome and were entertained with a musical programme and a supper.

—The fresh vegetable specials at Neuman Brothers include green and wax beans and green peas, all strictly good quality. The big display has many other dinner suggestions.

ODD FELLOWS BIRTHDAY

Local Lodges Observe Orders Eighty-Fifth Anniversary.

JOINT CELEBRATION

Members and Their Friends Enjoy a Programme of Addresses, Vocal and Instrumental Music.

In celebration of the eighty-fifth anniversary of the founding of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, the local lodges, Plainfield, No. 44, and Queen City, No. 226, held a joint reception in Odd Fellows hall, last night. The attendance was very large and comprised the members of both lodges and their friends.

Opening remarks were made by Albert G. Barber, in which he welcomed the gathering as introducer for B. W. Hand, who gave what was styled an "anniversary address." He told of how five men had met in Baltimore in 1819 and had laid down the principles of the order as they exist at present. Lodges were soon being established all over the world and at the present time they have a combined membership of 1,500,000, the largest of any secret organization in existence. The amount of sick and death benefits paid out aggregates many millions while the personal property owned rivals any other order in the country.

Continuing the programme, violin and piano selections were given by Mr. and Mrs. Brokaw, Dr. J. H. Buchanan and David Dreier; vocal solos by Jack Todd, Leonce Texier and Alcock Muir; recitations by Mrs. David Dreier and piano duetts by Dr. Buchanan and Vincent Sekol. Dr. Buchanan acted as accompanist during the evening and also entertained with musical numbers during the social period which brought the affair to a close.

The committees which arranged and had charge of the programme comprised John A. Krimey, W. S. Day and J. F. Kettenring, from Plainfield lodge, and A. G. Barber, Guillermo Thorn and Alcock Muir, from Queen City.

In Plainfield, the Odd Fellows are exceptionally strong, the two lodges having a large membership nearly all of whom are active. The meetings are largely attended at all times and both make the social side a strong feature.

WED IN ST. JOSEPH'S.

Miss Abbie E. Knight, of Summit Avenue, Now Mrs. Joseph P. Gavin.

Miss Abbie E. Knight, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Knight, of Summit avenue, and Joseph P. Gavin, of Columbia avenue, were married at the rectory of St. Joseph's church in Manning avenue, at 6:30 o'clock, last night, by Rev. William H. Miller. The couple was attended by the groom's brother and sister, Dan. Gavin and Miss Elizabeth Gavin.

The bride was gowned in white pearl cloth, wore a white hat and carried white carnations and roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Gavin left the city immediately after their marriage for New York. They will be away several days and upon their return will reside at 37 Summit avenue. Mr. Gavin is engaged in the dairy business, and he and his wife are well known in a large circle of friends.

A Gullible Editor.

The hubbub raised over the celebrated North Plainfield prize fight turned out to be somewhat of a tempest in a teapot. It is stated that the evidence before the Grand Jury showed that the only ones who had a legitimate kick coming were those who paid their good coin for admission, expecting they would witness at least a creditable example of the strenuous life and a fair display of the manly art instead of the milk-and-water affair it turned out to be.—Somerville Messenger.

Important Notice.

I desire to inform my friends and the public in general, that I have re-entered the retail coal business as an independent dealer and that I am not associated with, or interested in any other coal business, save that conducted by me at 747 West Front street. While making extensive alterations to my plant, I have secured temporary storage accommodations in a centrally located yard and am ready to meet the demand for best Lehigh coal.

TRINITY IS PROSPEROUS

There Are Now 592 Communicants in the Congregation.

THE PASTOR'S REPORT

Statistics of Contributions Made in Church and Sunday-School During the Past Year.

More money was given by Trinity Reformed church to mission work and general church funds during the past year than in the twelve month preceding. The figures on the grand total of contributions made public last night in the annual report by the pastor, Rev. Dr. Cornelius Schenck, show that there has been an increase of over $100. Other interesting figures were read.

The report, an annual feature of the church meetings, was read at the mid-week prayer service.

There are 270 families in the church, and 592 communicants. Eighteen members were received on confession during the year, and twenty-two by certificate, a total of forty. Twelve were dismissed, ten died, and one was suspended.

In the entire Sunday-school there are 759 members; the main school has a membership of 596 and the Home Department 190. Marconnier chapel's Sunday-school has fifty members. The average attendance at the home school has 395.

Offerings to the different church boards and funds amounted to $396. Other benevolent offerings from the church amounted to $390.

The offering from the Ladies' Christian Work Society, missionary funds, was divided as follows: Domestic missions, $144; foreign missions, $75.

The Sunday-school contributed $307 to missions, $186 to domestic funds and $121 to foreign.

The Y. P. S. C. E. gave $33 to home missions and $38 to foreign. The Junior Endeaverers gave $36 to foreign missions, and $15 to home. They gave $3 to Miss Curry's Netherwood baby camp.

The Young Women's Mission Band gave $99 to the foreign work, and $79 to the home fund. The Band had an undisbursed fund on April 1 amounting to $33.

Marconnier chapel gave $30 to the foreign work.

Last year the total received from all sources for boards and funds was $1,216; the total the year before was $1,113. Benevolent objects aside from the missions received a total of $390, making a grand total of contribution during the twelve month of $1,615. The sums contributed to the boards and funds during the two years were as follows: The past year's figure is followed by that of the year before, in parenthesis: Foreign missions, $586 ($525); domestic missions, $571 ($461); church building fund, $35 ($30); Board of Education, $38 ($33); disabled ministers' and widows' fund, $33 ($10); Theological Seminary, $19 ($20).

The contributions for congregational purposes amounted to $6,864, received from the following sources: Church, $5,156; L. C. W. S., $378; Sunday-school, $373; Marconnier chapel, $370; Y. P. S. C. E., $90; Men's Association, estimated $50.

Another Express for Plainfielders.

Commencing about May 1, the New Jersey Central will put into service a new fast train for Philadelphia, leaving New York at 9 o'clock in the evening. It will stop at Elizabeth, Westfield, Plainfield, Bound Brook, Trenton Junction and Philadelphia. This train will no doubt be greatly appreciated as at present there is no fast train out of New York between 7:30 and 10:30, the other trains stopping at nearly every station.

Mr. Calkins in Contest.

Leighton Calkins left this morning for Lakewood where he will take part in the golf tournament. He will also finish up the work with the committee regarding the handicaps for the Metropolitan Golf Association. Thus far this work has taken two hundred hours, one half of which was required by the committee and the balance by clerks in tabulating and making copies.

Putting on the Finishing Touches.

Another rehearsal for the "Mikado" was held at the Casino, last night, and the work was in every way satisfactory. There will be three more rehearsals before the first performance on Thursday night, May 4.

Entertainment Postponed.

The entertainment announced for this evening at the Grove Street Rescue Mission, has been postponed until Thursday evening, May 11. There will be a regular meeting of the mission this evening.

POINTS FOR THE BUYERS

And his prices are right; they are the same old prices, with no frills or a sliding-scale attachment.

TenEyck & Harris are still selling the best grade of anthracite coal at the lowest market prices.

If you have carriage work of any kind give it to W. J. Conroy, Somerset street. Then rest content that it will be done right.

Dudley Miller, the Park avenue druggist, is making a specialty of his famous malt extract. None better. Try it and be convinced.

The quality of John Johnston's coal never varies. It is always clear-burning, and clean-picked. It gives full value. Yard, South avenue.

Herman Hansen, the builder, has taken many contracts for the erection of many houses this spring. How about those plans of yours? Better let him look them over.

Now is the time for grate and kindling wood. John Mebus, the well known Watchung dealer, will deliver either at your door in any quality. A postal card will reach him.

Open a bank account at the Dime Savings Institution and learn to save your money. Liberal interest is paid on all accounts, and the institution is conducted along conservative lines.

Soda is all right, but while P. B. Hodge, East Front street, has delicious soda, that isn't his chief business. He compounds prescriptions accurately, of absolutely pure drugs.

If you wish to "wear the smile that won't come off," ask John Powers, the Somerset street druggist, for his spring nerve medicine. It invigorates and rejuvenates, as hundreds will testify.

Many of the floral decorations in churches at Easter were the work of Charles L. Stanley, of North avenue. He makes a specialty of decorating for parties and receptions and church affairs.

H. G. Adams, representing the Penn Mutual Life Insurance Company, of Philadelphia, is ready to offer you an attractive policy at the lowest rates consistent with first-class insurance.

H. A. Weber's grocery is located at Liberty and Second streets but his prices are a low as those charged by the up-town stores. If you give him a trial order he will guarantee to fill it satisfactorily.

The proof of the meat, like that of the pudding, is in the eating. Those who have eaten Fred Endress' meat know that it is the tenderest, juiciest and most palatable to be gotten anywhere. West Front street.

Notice how many tastefully dressed young men go into M. C. VanArsdale's shoe store, East Front street—and how many natty young women. Do you see the point? Vanrsdale's is the headquarters for newest styles in footgear.

D. Demelli & Co., West Front street, couldn't make enough hot cross buns fast enough to supply the demand. There was a reason—the buns were vastly superior to those of others. That applies to their other cakes and confections.

The best eye glass is the rimless and you can get them at Charles E. Vail's jewelry store in Park avenue. They always give satisfaction. Mr. Vail's stock of silverware and jewelry cannot be excelled as to quality and the price is very reasonable.

The careful shopper has learned long ago that at S. Scheuer & Co.'s grocery on West Front street, are to be found the best groceries at the lowest prices. The goods are always fresh and can be relied upon. The firm gives a liberal supply of trading stamps which are good for useful articles.

Lodge Secretaries Wanted.

There is no time like the present to arrange for the summer outing of your lodge, society or Sunday-school, and whether it be for sea shore, lake or mountain resort, the New Jersey Central can arrange details for you. Take the matter up with Walter C. Walsh, Jr., D. P. A., Broad Street Station, Newark. He will meet your committee and handle every detail to your entire satisfaction. Avoid all drying inhalants and use that which cleanses and heals the membrane. Ely's Cream Balm is such a remedy and cures catarrh easily and pleasantly. Cold in the head vanishes quickly. Price 50 cents at druggists or by mail.

Catarrh caused difficulty in speaking and to a great extent loss of hearing. By the use of Ely's Cream Balm dropping of mucus has ceased, voice and hearing have greatly improved.—J. W. Davidson, Att'y at Law, Monmouth, Ill.

SPORTING NEWS.

DIAMOND DUST.

It is the opinion of the cranks that "Mike" Leonard as a third baseman, has no superiors in the Metropolitan district.

Badgeley, who pitched for the Alts Club last season, has been doing good work this season for Trinity College. Monday he shut out University of Pennsylvania by a score of 2 to 0 and allowed but three hits.

The More-Porks defeated the Cedar Brooks Tuesday morning by a score of 25 to 15. W. Doane and Bogart were the battery for the winners, while M. Rubenstein and C. Doane were in the points for the losers.

The North Plainfield High School team has proved itself to be a strong nine this year. Its showing against the strong Cranford H. S. team was all that could be expected. It remains for the borough and local High School teams to meet for the city championship.

Kehrein, who played a star game for Camp Bowser against Plainfield High School Monday, made one of the prettiest one-handed jumping catches of a wild throw seen here this season, thereby putting Doane out, who made the hit to short-stop.

Leals III team defeated the Netherwood Terrors Tuesday morning for the second time this year at Netherwood by the score of 16 to 6 Ludlow and Joe Vandeventer were the battery for the Terrors, and Kenneth Browne and Otis Averill for the Leals III.

The attendance at Saturday's game was not as large as in the opening game, but this is attributed to the cool weather. With red hot ball weather the attendance will increase materially and by the time Westfield comes here for the first game, the grounds will be fully tested.

It is possible that the local team will arrange to play the Trenton Y. M. C. A. aggregation this season. It is also understood that Manager Burnham, of the Newark Eastern League Club, wants a try with the locals. If the management receives sufficient assurances of its success, it may play a few mid-week games on Crescent Oval during the summer.

All the candidates for the C. F. C. team must be on Hope Common Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Any teams wishing to arrange games should address Dan. F. Randolph, 114 Plainfield avenue. The club promises to have an exceptionally strong team this season, the list of candidates including some of the best amateur players in this city and vicinity.

A Hint to Those Who Move in May.

About this time of year many hundreds of families in all parts of the country change their place of residence; others who have burrowed during the winter in steam-heated flats seek the freedom and light of the detached house or the suburban cottage. At such a time the furnishings of the home call sharply for attention, and additions and improvements are the order of the day. If a piano is lacking, now is surely the time to put one in; if, on the other hand, you have an old piano, now is the best time to replace it with a new one. In this connection let us suggest a "Fischer." Of this make there are over one hundred and twenty thousand now in the homes of satisfied Americans, to say nothing of the great number that has been shipped to foreign lands during the past sixty-five years. This is a record that is not surpassed by any other piano made, and one that must command the respect and consideration of every prospective buyer In the case of old pianos we make liberal allowance, and accept them as payment on the new; besides, we assume all the trouble and expense of moving. If you cannot call, address a postal card to J. & C. Fischer, 164 Fifth avenue, or 68 West One Hundred and Twenty-fifth street.

BIGELOW OUT ON BAIL

Defaulting Bank President Interviewed at Milwaukee.

"AN ABSOLUTELY SAFE PROPOSITION"

Discovery of Big Defalcation Made by Chance When Official Picked Up Slip at Bank Door—H. C. Goll Missing.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., April 27.—Frank G. Bigelow, defaulting president of the First National bank of Milwaukee, interviewed last night, made the following statement:

"I owe John C. Brodhead, an heir of the estate of E. H. Brodhead, $100,000. I expect to make satisfactory arrangements with Mr. Brodhead with regard to the amount of my indebtedness to him.

"I have resigned as executor of the estate of Henry M. Payne and will probably resign as executor of the Brodhead estate. These are the only estates with which I have had any connection.

"I have resigned as director of the Wisconsin Telephone company and have severed my connection with the Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance company and the Milwaukee Electric Railway and Light company."

How Bigelow, who has confessed to a defalcation of $1,450,000, engineered his enormous peculations within the last three months has just become known to the public.

"It looked like an absolutely safe proposition," said Mr. Bigelow in referring to his speculations in May wheat. "There did not appear to be a chance connected with the operation as late as Friday."

The discovery of the defalcation was made by James Bird, a bookkeeper working on the set containing the reserve accounts, who picked up a slip of paper on Tuesday at the door as he entered the bank. It was a statement of account from an important New York bank. He feared it had been overlooked in the slips entered the day before and decided to make sure before saying anything. He looked up the account and found there was a discrepancy of about $60,000.

The discrepancy dazed him, and he carried it a day in his possession before informing Frank J. Kipp, the cashier. Mr. Kipp was thunderstruck and called in Charles F. Pfister, a director. Telegrams were sent immediately to the banks carrying every reserve account, and soon the true condition of affairs was apparent.

No successor has yet been chosen to fill the presidency of the First National bank.

Mr. Bigelow will be prosecuted to the full extent of the law, according to a statement made by one of the directors last night.

Mr. Bigelow, having waived examination, has been held for a federal grand jury. In the meantime he is out on bail.

Mr. Bigelow called at the bank during the forenoon. He walked directly into the bank in full view of clerks, attaches and business men. Instantly an intense interest pervaded the room. Every eye was turned on him as he advanced quickly into the lobby. He proceeded at once to his former desk, apparently looking for mail. Mr. Bigelow remained but a short time, then returned to his home in Astor street.

Henry C. Goll, the missing assistant cashier of the bank, has not been found.

Consents to Equitable Suit.

ALBANY, N. Y., April 27.—Attorney General Mayer last night gave to Senator Edgar T. Brackett his consent to the bringing of an action by the latter against certain officers and directors of the Equitable Life Assurance society in the name of Mary S. Young of Saratoga to recover for the society moneys alleged to have been wrongfully converted by them. In a letter addressed to the attorney general Senator Brackett substantially admits the former's contention that the senator's client could bring such a suit without the attorney general's consent.

Secret Meeting at Boston.

BOSTON, April 27.—Dr. Washington Gladden of Columbus, O., moderator of the general council of Congregational churches of the United States, was the principal speaker at a secret meeting of Congregational ministers invited to assemble by the clergymen's committee, which is protesting against the acceptance for religious purposes by the denomination and its affiliated societies of gifts from John D. Rockefeller. Mr. Gladden's remarks were embodied in a statement which will be given to the public later.

San Francisco Taxes Missing.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 27.—Edward F. Smith, tax collector of the city of San Francisco, has been suspended from office by Mayor Schmitz, and Chief Bookkeeper James McKay has been placed in temporary charge. Taxes to the amount of $39,112 paid into the tax collector's office are missing. Tax Collector Smith left this city ostensibly for Los Angeles last Thursday, and since that time he has not been reported.

J. Doremus Mills Dead at Orange.

ORANGE, N. J., April 27.—J. Doremus Mills, for thirty-five years a member of the New York Stock Exchange, is dead at his home here. He was eighty-one years old and had been in ill health for two years. A widow and two sons—William D. Mills of Orange county, N. Y., and Robert D. Mills of Orange, N. J.—survive him.

Texan Secretary of State Dead.

AUSTIN, Tex., April 27.—James R. Curt, secretary of state, is dead here.

HAINAN CABLE CUT

Russian Squadron Takes Action to Thwart Togo.

FORMOSA NOW UNDER MARTIAL LAW

Japan's Move Said to Foreshadow Big Naval Fight Off the Island. The Path to Vladivostok Is Blocked.

LONDON, April 27.—A Hongkong dispatch says that the cable to Hainan has been cut, presumably by the Russian squadron to conceal the movements of the vessels off that island.

A Tokyo report says that the privy council has decided that martial law shall be proclaimed throughout the island of Formosa, which belongs to Japan and is a hundred miles east of the China coast and about 800 miles south of Japan. On the north of the island is the strait of Formosa and on the south the Bashee channel, both leading into the Pacific and the routes which Rojestvensky must take to reach Vladivostok unless he makes an extremely long detour. The Japanese control both these passages, their battleship squadron being at the south end of the island and the torpedo flotilla at Keiung, at the northern end of the island, where the Japanese naval base is situated. Placing Formosa under martial law is taken to mean that there the Japanese will fight the crucial battle of the war.

Dispatches from the island of Penang, Straits Settlements, say that the fourth division of the Russian second Pacific squadron, commanded by Vice Admiral Nebogatoff, is off Penang and will soon enter the strait of Malacca.

The British authorities are on the alert. Guard boats are patrolling the approaches to Penang.

From Tsingtau, China, Russian officers here have received news that Vice Admiral Rojestvensky's fleet on leaving Kamranh bay steamed in a southerly direction to join Nebogatoff's detachment.

The Japanese armies, according to dispatches from Manchuria, are pouring through the eastern mountain passes into the valley of the Sungari river toward Kirin and Ninguta, heading for Vladivostok for the purpose of cutting that stronghold off from the rest of the world on the land side. A light force has been left in front of General Linevitch merely to serve as a screen and conceal from the Russians the movements of the main forces of the Japanese.

Countess Tolstoi Condemns War.

LONDON, April 27.—"But if czars and generals feel the disgrace of peace, then let us mothers of all the masses revolt against those slaughters which have so rent our hearts." Thus concludes a powerful appeal for peace written by Countess Sophie Tolstoi to a friend published in this morning's Times. The letter eloquently describes the terrible suffering Russia is enduring through the war and maintains that practically the whole people condemn the war.

CARNEGIE'S REPLY.

Duke of Manchester Scored Remarks About Worthless Nobles.

NEW YORK, April 27.—The Duke of Manchester before returning to England was asked whether he noticed Mr. Carnegie's comparison of dukes and coachmen in connection with the marriage of his niece, Miss Nancy Carnegie, to James Hever, formerly a groom in the family. "I was much edified by Mr. Carnegie's announcement that he preferred a coachman to a duke as a son-in-law," said the duke. "Perhaps it is more appropriate. For once I am able to compliment Mr. Carnegie on his sense of fitness."

When Mr. Carnegie was shown the item just quoted as he was standing on the deck of the White Star liner Baltic just before he sailed for Europe he said:

"What I remarked about dukes I specifically said referred to worthless dukes. I don't think the cap fits Manchester. That is the reply courteous.

"I never have offered money where I did not think it would be accepted. I have never dealt in tainted money, so called. I made my money in a good, clean way. Not that I have any doubt as to how Mr. Rockefeller made his money, but I really didn't get mine in any but a legitimate way.

"I think that a great deal of unnecessary talk has been made about Mr. Rockefeller's money. He has earned it. And why should a man not get the good things of life when he has the means?"

Ephramson Was Tired of Life.

PHILADELPHIA, April 27. — Johannes Ephramson, aged thirty years, third assistant engineer of the fruit steamer Ethelwold, Captain J. C. Haines, Philadelphia for Port Antonio, shot himself in the head while the vessel was proceeding down the Delaware river and died later in a hospital. With the remark, "I am tired of this kind of life," Ephramson killed himself.

To Get Pointers on Gunnery.

WASHINGTON, April 27.—Lieutenant Commander William S. Sims, U. S. N., inspector of target practice, has left Washington for New York, whence he will sail this week for England to obtain information about gunnery, target practice and other matters coming within his field. He may go to France and Germany before his return.

Quick Justice In Georgia.

ALBANY, Ga., April 27. — Peter Thomas, the negro who on the night of the 15th inst. killed Marshal John Maniere of Pretoria, Ga., in the western part of this county, yesterday was indicted, tried, found guilty and sentenced to hang on June 2.

LEONARD JOE HAYMAN.

Elmhurst Selling Stakes Chief Prize at Jamaica.

NEW YORK, April 27.—Leonard Joe Hayman, the 9 to 20 favorite, easily won the Elmhurst selling stakes, five furlongs, at Jamaica. Rapid Transit, a 40 to 1 shot, was second and Delmore third. Sunfire made the pace to the stretch, where Leonard Joe Hayman took command and won by two and a half lengths. The five furlongs was run in 1:01, within two-fifths of a second of the track record. One favorite won. Summaries:

First Race.—Miss Modesty, first; Water Mirror, second; Port Arthur, third.

Second Race.—Jessamine, first; Andria, second; Lady Valentine, third.

Third Race.—Amberjack, first; Red Knight, second; Kiamesha, third.

Mint Boy Got the Feature.

KANSAS CITY, April 27.—Mint Boy won the Kansas City Journal stakes at four and a half furlongs, the feature event it Elmridge. The winner was overlooked in the betting, 7 to 1 being offered against him. Buchanan, who had the mount on Mint Boy, started out to make a runaway race of it, and when they came into the stretch Mint Boy was about five lengths ahead of the field and running easily. James Reddick, a prohibitive favorite, finished gamely and got the place.

No Race Track Betting at Chicago.

CHICAGO, April 27.—State's Attorney John J. Healy has announced that he will permit no betting on race tracks in Cook county, in which Chicago is situated, during his term of office. He has issued a signed statement, in which he declares that any attempt to operate books with the opening of the Worth track, which is set for Saturday, or any other track in this county will be met with prosecution.

Molo B. at St. Louis.

ST. LOUIS, April 27.—By his second consecutive victory Molo B. has come to be regarded as the most consistent performer at the American Jockey club's meeting. Molo B. finished last in his first time out, improved in each successive race, and in the third race, at a mile, demonstrated his ability in the mud. Dr. McCluer and Flying Charcoal were the only winning favorites.

Matador Defeated Forehand.

ST. LOUIS, April 27.—Forehand, an odds on favorite in the fair grounds feature, went down to defeat before Matador, second choice. Dominick allowed Matador to steal a long lead in the early part of the race and in an effort to overhaul him raced Forehand into the ground.

Ivan the Terrible Won.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., April 27.—Ivan the Terrible scored his second victory of the meeting at Cumberland park in the Utopia handicap at one mile. He was by far the best and won, full of running, from Besterling, who was all out.

Side View and Fairbury.

BALTIMORE, April 27.—Side View, a 30 to 1 shot, opened the seventh day of the Pimlico meeting, finishing the four and a half furlongs easily in 57 seconds. Fairbury, at 20 to 1, carried off the honors in the second race.

Two Odds On Favorites.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 27.—Two odds on favorites won at Oakland. Father Catch, at 3 to 5, won the first event and Dr. Leggo, at 7 to 10, the last race.

Forest and Home Destroyed.

YORK, Me., April 27.—Fire has destroyed the home of Rufus A. Moody and, spreading to a nearby forest, burned over 500 acres of valuable timber land before it was controlled. The loss will reach $15,000.

AZIENZA
826 Second Place, Plainfield, N. J., October 29th, 1904.
Your AZIENZA certainly has wonderful healing properties. My cook had a deep and ugly looking fissure between two toes. It pained and annoyed her greatly. I did not know wha it was nor do I now, but with some hesitancy I told her to try AZIENZA. She did so and it gave her instant relief from the pain. I then gave her the box and in a few days she told me that it was entirely healed. I shall not hesitate again to recommend its use for any sore or inflamed part of the skin.

Verestchagin's Celebrated Painting
"The Charge of San Juan Hill."
The much-talked of canvas is now on free exhibition in our picture department, third floor, and is attracting a great deal of attention. It is conceded to be the best piece of work ever turned out by Verestchagin, and depicts most graphically Col. Roosevelt's memorable charge up the slope of Kettle Hill. So clearly executed is it that the figures of the gallant troops seem to fairly move in the face of the galling fire of the Spanish Mausers. The figure of Roosevelt may be seen, and, although far in advance of the charging line, and almost beyond the scope of vision, his characteristic poise and utter disregard for death easily distinguish him as the hero of the bloody fray. This picture is on constant exhibition, third floor.

AFTER EASTER SUIT CLEARANCE
The Easter onslaught has left us with a considerable array of broken sizes in cloth suits. The fact of them being broken sizes does not detract a particle from their desirability, yet we deem it expedient to dispose of them at once, and to this end have made prices that will actually amaze you. The opportunities unfolded are positively beyond conception and a suit-buying chance of never equaled proportions is ready. We have divided the group (embracing probably 500 suits) into three immense lots.

TRIUMPH OF SCHWAB.

American Shipbuilder's Complete Success at St. Petersburg.

ST. PETERSBURG, April 27.—American superiority over foreign rivals again triumphs in the complete success which has crowned the visit of Charles M. Schwab to St. Petersburg. Mr. Schwab's negotiations with the Russian admiralty have resulted in the practical conclusion of an arrangement for the construction of a number of formidable line of battleships of a type which probably will startle the world. Mr. Schwab leaves St. Petersburg today.

The details of the construction of the vessels remain to be worked out, but in addition to those which will be built in the United States it is quite likely that a yard will be constructed at a Baltic port to be manned by Russian workmen, but under American engineering and mechanical supervision, the Russian admiralty being extremely anxious to utilize the rehabilitation of the navy for the encouragement of the shipbuilding industry at home in order to eventually render the country independent of foreign yards.

The admiralty has accepted Mr. Schwab's propositions strictly on their merits, he having convinced the authorities that he can produce for Russia warships vastly superior to anything now afloat or at present projected by any other government. They will be monster 16,000 ton vessels of enormous horsepower and of a peculiar type, combining the projectile resisting power of the battleship with the speed and wide radius of action of cruisers. They will be delivered fully equipped as to armor and ordnance.

The Russian aim is not only to take advantage of American genius in building up the Russian navy, but distinctly to cultivate a closer commercial relation between the two countries.

MUTINY ON GALVESTON.

Federal Cruiser Tars Out of Control. Men Make Complaints.

GALVESTON, Tex., April 27.—A state of friction almost bordering on mutiny is said to exist on the new United States cruiser Galveston. The vessel arrived here last Wednesday on her maiden trip to receive a silver service from the citizens of Galveston. The cruiser has been visited by thousands of people from all sections of the state. Commander Cutler ordered his ship away from the wharfs where she has been since her arrival to an anchorage in the roads so that the officers might be better able to control the men, numbers of whom were leaving the ship and overstaying their shore leave.

Federal and municipal officers have returned nearly two score of men found ashore, many of whom were said to have been intoxicated. These men vigorously protested against the treatment which they allege is accorded them on board ship by Commander Cutler.

Men of long service who came from the vessel on shore duty and local people who were on board state that a condition verging on mutiny is existing there. The men, among them several petty officers, of long service pronounce the voyage of the Galveston the most unbearable they ever have experienced. Many of the men denounce the commander and state that they are overworked and underfed. They claim that for the most trivial offenses they are given the extreme penalty and that sixty of the men are in irons.

The marines are said to be almost worn out preserving order on board. The cruiser has sailed for Norfolk.

Jefferson's Funeral Train.

NEW YORK, April 27.—A special train bearing the remains of Joseph Jefferson, which is on its way north, stopped long enough at Baltimore to permit a committee of local Masons representing Concordia lodge to place a large wreath of white roses on the funeral car. Arrangements are being made by the officers of the Players' club of New York to hold memorial services in the Church of the Transfiguration, known to stage folk as the Little Church Around the Corner, in honor of the veteran actor, who died in Florida last Sunday. He expressed a wish that his burial might be simple and held quietly at Buzzards Bay.

Rangers Still Hold Hempstead, Tex.

HEMPSTEAD, Tex., April 27.—The funeral of Congressman John M. Pinckney took place last night. An immense crowd was here from all parts of the congressional district. The funeral of Thomas D. Pinckney took place at the same time, but the interment was beside his wife in another part of the cemetery. The body of John E. Mills, another victim of the tragedy, was also laid to rest. The rangers will be retained for some days, possibly until the district court meets and adjourns.

Salvation Emigrants For America.

LIVERPOOL, April 27.—English emigrants to the number of 1,045 sailed for Canada last night on board the Dominion line steamer Vancouver, with the Salvation Army flag at the masthead. The emigrants were gathered by Salvation Army agencies, and the majority are workmen. All are paying their own passage, and many are supplied with sufficient capital to make a start in the new world.

Automobile Ran Over Him.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., April 27.—George Estell, aged fifty years, is dead at a police station here of bruises which the police believe were inflicted by an automobile. Estell, who was found in a dying condition in a street, told the police that an automobile had run over him. It is said that Estell has a wife and other relatives in Pennsylvania.

President of National Bank at Columbus Explains Assistant Secretary of State's Actions—No Contract With Castro.

COLUMBUS, O., April 27.—Charles F. Mayers, president of the new First National bank of Columbus and head of an American syndicate which has been negotiating with President Castro of Venezuela for the underwriting of a $35,000,000 loan, has made the following statement regarding his relations in the affair with Francis R. Loomis, assistant secretary of state and formerly American minister to Venezuela:

"I first met Mr. Loomis at Caracas in 1901, when I called upon him and presented my letters, including one from Secretary Hay, in which it was stated that I was to be treated with the courtesy due the important mission that I was on. After a contract had been practically agreed upon with the Venezuelan government I talked the matter over with Mr. Loomis.

"The magnitude of the loan was discussed, and as it was stipulated in the contract that the Americans making the loan were to have the privilege of collecting duties at the various ports of entry sufficient to pay the interest and the principal when it became due I made a proposition to Mr. Loomis that if we landed the loan he should represent us in Venezuela.

"He said he would consider the matter, but he also insisted that before entering into any contract he was to resign his position as United States minister.

"I took a similar position, and that was the nature of our agreement.

"In the contract with Castro there was one clause that we could not agree upon, and it is this clause which still holds up the deal.

"In the meantime Mr. Loomis had been sent to France and was afterward appointed assistant secretary of state, and as he could be of no benefit to us I called on Minister Bowen to talk the situation over with him.

"One of the first things he mentioned was the so called contract with Mr. Loomis, and I informed him then that Mr. Loomis was in no manner interested in the Venezuelan loan."

Mr. Mayers said that if necessary he could produce the contract with President Castro and his minister of finance and would prove conclusively that Mr. Loomis was in no way a party to it, either directly or indirectly.

Mr. Mayers said that in the whole transaction Mr. Loomis acted honorably.

NAN PATTERSON SCORES.

Pawnbroker Stern Failed to Identify J. Morgan Smith.

NEW YORK, April 27.—Nan Patterson scored heavily at her trial here when Pawnbroker Stern, whose testimony has been so anxiously awaited, failed to identify J. Morgan Smith, her brother-in-law, as the man to whom he had sold the revolver used in the killing of Caesar Young.

This and the calling by the prosecution of Julia Smith, Nan's sister, were the features of the day's session of the murder trial. The Smith woman, however, was only asked to identify a letter as in her sister's handwriting, thus establishing a standard of comparison.

When Hyman Stern, the pawnbroker, took the stand Mr. Rand quickly developed the fact that the pawnbroker had sold the revolver to a man answering the description of Smith, who was accompanied by a woman.

"Can you say," asked Mr. Rand, "that Miss Patterson, this defendant, accompanied the man who bought the revolver?"

"I cannot," replied Stern.

"Can you say that Mrs. Smith was the woman?"

"I cannot."

"Can you say that J. Morgan Smith, now standing at the bar, was the man who purchased the revolver?"

"I cannot."

This testimony produced a sensation. Counsel for the former chorus girl could not conceal their elation, and the defendant showed plainly that she felt that she had passed the crucial point in her trial.

After all the months of fuss and trouble over the tracing and bringing back of the brother-in-law and sister of the defendant the prosecution had failed to identify Smith as the purchaser of the revolver.

Gates a Cheerful Loser.

NEW YORK, April 27. — John W. Gates is back in New York after his Waterloo in wheat in Chicago. He is reported to be from $2,000,000 to $3,000,000 poorer than he was before he started out to corner wheat. Mr. Gates showed himself to be a cheerful loser. He denied himself to reporters, but one of the Waldorf clerks said Mr. Gates after dining went to the theater.

Castro Anniversary Arbor Day.

WASHINGTON, April 27. — President Castro has issued a decree setting aside May 23 to be observed annually as Arbor day of the Venezuelan republic. This is the anniversary of the day on which President Castro took up arms against the government of which he subsequently made himself the head.

Plainfield, N. J., April 27, 1905.

The Chicago Tribune explains the system of municipal collection and disposal of garbage in force in Oakland, Cal., which will be of interest to the members of the Common Council entrusted to solving the matter here. It is claimed that the Oakland system works satisfactorily and is being strongly considered by other municipalities desiring to dispose of garbage in a sanitary manner. Individual ten gallon garbage cans, each holding fifty pounds, are collected in wagons of a special design having a framework with separate compartments. Rubber is used for the buffers separating the cans and for the clamps by which they are locked in position. The wagon wheels are rubber tired. At the disposal plants these cans are emptied, washed and sterilized. On the return trips the cans are left in the place of the full ones taken away. "This system," says the Tribune, "is in a marked contrast with the passage through the streets of the filthy wooden carts so often seen or even of the metal covered wagons of some cities, which must be opened when being filled, thus releasing offensive odors, and which in passing over cobblestones raise a din sure to break the repose of early morning slumbers."

ELIZABETH ICE COMBINE.

Noticeable Reticence on Part of Some Interested—Names of Companies Said to be In It.

An ice combine has been formed in Elizabeth, with John W. Whelan, president of the Board of Health, a brother of William Whalen, of this city, and closely identified with United States Senator John Kean, at its head. The combination was effected at a meeting of large dealers held Friday night at the office of the Elizabethtown Water Company.

One of the representatives of the ice companies said Monday that it had been decided among the promoters of the new ice combination that nothing would be given out.

The companies interested are the Elizabeth Ice Company, at whose head is John W. Whelan and also United States Senator John Kean, who owns the two large reservoirs and other water privileges of Elizabeth, as well as some in Plainfield; the Quartz Ice Company and the F. F. Glasby Ice Company.

Notwithstanding the fact that the recent winter yielded a large crop of ice, there is every indication, in Union County, at least, that the price of ice may be increased this summer.

AMUSEMENTS.

Edgar L. Davenport, of "The College Widow" company, which is showing at the Garden Theatre, tells the following story on an Irishman: "Michael had only been on American soil but a short time and had been walking around for several days in a ceaseless search for work. He finally stopped in front of a book store, in the window of which was a sign reading:

" 'Dickens' Works Here All Week, $3.00!'

" 'The Celt pondered over the sign for several minutes, spelling out each character. After scratching his head, he said: 'Be gob, that Dickens feller is pretty hard opp for wurrk if he stays here all week for t'ree dollars.' "

New Amsterdam theatre—"She Stoops to Conquer. All star cast. 8:15. Matinee Saturday.

Liberty theatre—"The Education of Mr. Pipp." 8:15. Matinee Saturday.

New York theatre—"The Prince of Pilsen." Matinee Wednesday and Saturday.

The attraction at the New Amsterdam is playing to crowded houses as might be expected by glancing over the list of names of stars appearing in the stage work of Goldsmith's great story. "The Education of Mr. Pipp" is also proving a good drawing card. Popular prices are still in vogue at the New York although the show is one of the finest on the boards.

A Baby for Easter.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Harder, of Poughkeepsie, N. Y., are the happy parents of a boy, born on Easter Sunday morning. Mrs Harder was Miss Louise Snediker, of Grove street.

FLOWER MESSAGES AS ENTERTAINMENT

NOVEL AFFAIR AT SEVENTH-DAY BAPTIST CHURCH.

"The Message of the Flowers," an entertainment given under the auspices of the Christian Endeavor Society, of the Seventh-Day Baptist church, last night, proved to be a very enjoyable affair and was largely attended by the members of the church and congregation. The entertainment was held in the Sabbath-school room, which was decorated with Easter lilies and potted plants.

The programme opened with a soprano solo, "Mary, Quite Contrary," by Miss Cornelia Miller, which was well received. Then followed two recitations, "A Secret," by Miss Nellie Williams, and "April Fools," by Miss Hannah Shaw, which were heartily applauded. "My Pansies," was the name of a pretty song by Miss Jessie Jones. A recitation entitled "Forget-me-Nots," was well given by Miss Helen Shaw, as was also a song, "Daffy down Dillys," by Roy Titsworth and Miss Eva St. John.

Philip Mosher displayed ability in a recitation entitled "The Dandelion," while a vocal solo by Charles Titsworth was received with much appreciation. Miss Dorothy Hubbard recited "The Violets," in clever fashion, and Miss Helen Rogers sang "Sleep Poppies," in a manner that pleased all. "Sweet Brier," was the title of a recitation by Miss Helen Ford and Roy Titsworth and Miss Era Rogers, again favored the audience with a song, "Easter Lilies Fair." The concluding numbers comprised violin and piano selections by Mrs. Violet Johnson, the Misses Burnet and a vocal solo, "The Four-Leaf Clover," by Mrs. George L. Homan, all being greatly appreciated. Miss Burnet was the accompanist of the evening and the work was thoroughly appreciated.

After the entertainment there was a social time and refreshments were served. The committee in charge of the entertainment and refreshments comprised Miss Mildred Green, chairman; Miss Ernestine C. Smith, Miss Etta Fitz Randolph and George Clark.

REAL ESTATE ITEMS.

Wilbur F. Randolph, of Duer street, has broken ground for a new house on that thoroughfare near Linden avenue.

Marcus Silbert, of Park avenue, has leased the store property on Park avenue, owned by Mrs. Josephine Johnston, and formerly occupied by David Ramazotti, and will soon vacate his present building which has been leased to William Jeffery.

SUBURBAN NEWS.

DUNELLEN AND VICINITY.

Some action on the question of securing $12 a year from the borough in lieu of the tax exemption will probably be taken by the borough firemen at their meeting tonight. The session is expected to be a highly important one.

Mrs. Edward Pennock and Miss Janie Churchill are jointly conducting the primary department of the Presbyterian church, succeeding Mrs. T. C. Bodine as superintendents.

Sunday's congregation at St. John's R. C. church was the largest in its history. Extra seats had to be provided for an overflow of worshippers.

Four carloads of pipe for the gas mains arrived in the borough yesterday. Work on the mains will be started next week.

Mrs. James Wotton and Mrs. Frank Reynolds spent yesterday at the home of Dr. and Mrs. A. E. Giddis, of Plainfield.

The May devotions will begin next Tuesday. The services will be held Tuesday and Friday nights.

The old flag house at the Washington avenue crossing has been converted into a signal tower.

Valentine McLaughlin entertained a number of friends at a euchre party Tuesday night.

Somerville High School nine will play the Dunellen Field Club Saturday afternoon.

W. L. Larrabee has rigged a new and heavier hoisting apparatus on his store house.

The G. E. Club will meet tonight at the home of Miss Rita Meeker.

William Dealaman spent yesterday in New York.

'PLAINS AND FANWOOD.

The Saengerbunds will be the local bowling team's opponents in the match game rolled tonight on Lee's alleys. The 'Bunds are coming to town determined to take the deciding game of the series.

Of course you like the music "in the good old summer time," so do your share towards swelling the receipts of the band concert fair being held this week in Saengerbund Hall.

The postponed game between the Suburbans and Hartford Insurance bowling teams will be rolled on the Suburban alleys Saturday night.

Work at the stone crusher will not be started yet for another week, as the work of installing the new machinery is not completed yet.

Oh! for a ball team of our own. The local cranks are beginning to miss the home game although the season is only just started.

Miss Tillie Schroeder, of Jersey City, has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. Frank Hosinger, of Park avenue, over Easter.

A good thing. The mudholes about the Park avenue crossing of the trolley have been filled in with crushed stone.

Mrs. Ira Richards, of Terrell road, who has been seriously ill for some time, is reported as improving now.

Mrs. George L. Dunn and sister, Miss Cora Miller, spent Wednesday with relatives at Springfield.

Mr. and Mrs. John Y. Hetfield, of Stout avenue, have been entertaining relatives from out of town.

Mrs. Ella Rogers, of Brooklyn, has been visiting her father, Alvah Ryno, of Front street.

Twilight Council, Jr. O. U. A. M., meets tonight in the Library rooms.

SOUTH PLAINFIELD.

The executors' sale of the goods of G. A. Ryno took place yesterday. Peter LaTourette was auctioneer. The sale was considered good, although there was a small number of buyers present.

Mrs. Angel and daughter, of Brooklyn, after a visit of several days with Miss Libbie Smith, returned to their home yesterday.

Philip Smith and Karl Darlington visited the Hippodrome in New York yesterday.

Thomas Linaberry has rented the G. A. Ryno place and will occupy it soon.

Albert Springer has been entertaining his brother from Perth Amboy.

OBITUARY.

John Rebman.

John Rebman, an old and highly respected citizen of Warren township, died at his residence in South Sterling on Saturday last, aged eighty-six years. He had resided in this vicinity for fifty-three years and is survived by three sons and three daughters: John and Henry, of Los Angeles, Cal., and William, of South Sterling; Mrs. Otto Guenther, of Plainfield; Mrs. William Boss, of Millington, and Miss Mary Rebman, who resided with her father. The funeral, which was largely attended, was held in the Ocontown church yesterday. Rev. George Bowers, assisted by his brother, Rev. Nicholas Bowers, conducted the service. The following hymns: "The Homeland," "The Christian's Good Night," and "Will There be Any Stars in My Crown," were very beautifully rendered by Miss Maude Bowers. The floral offerings consisted of a handsome pillow of flowers from the children, also palms and wheat emblematic of a completed life. Interment was made in Ocontown cemetery, the following acting as bearers: Jacob E. Heinmann, John C. Cooper, Fred Stangle, Hugo Duderstadt, John Wendeland S. Speckhardt.

Mrs. Louise H. Campbell.

Mrs. Louise H. Campbell, aged sixty-nine years, widow of Ellis Campbell, died this morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Samuel P. T. Wilbur, of Westervelt avenue, following an illness from pneumonia. Mrs. Campbell was a resident of Plainfield for many years. Her husband was proprietor of what was known as Campbell's Clubhouse on Park avenue, and after his death she made her home with her daughter, Mrs. Wilbur. She is also survived by two sons, Harry and Edward Campbell. The funeral services will be held from the home of Mrs. Wilbur, Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock and the interment will be at Hillside cemetery.

POLITICAL CHAT.

The New Jersey political correspondent to the New York Tribune says in that paper: "The next Senator from Somerset County should be a Republican. Upon that point there is no disagreement among Republicans. It was said that Colonel Frelinghuysen is willing to accept a renomination, but it was admitted that, in such an event, his election would not be by any means a foregone conclusion. It was admitted with regret that there are some complications in the Republican party in Somerset which are no more favorable to the election of Mr. Frelinghuysen than they were three years ago. Still he has many warm supporters who hope that he will be renominated, and who believe that he would be elected. It is probable that Major Nelson Y. Dungan will be the Democratic nominee.

Monkeying With the Telephone.

At a certain telephone central the other day, the operator made the usual quick response to a somewhat strenuous call, in reply to her query "What number,"—there came over the wire a series of squeals and murmuring that struck terror to the soul of the gentle "hello" maid. She was about to ring up the police and tell somebody was being murdered at 1104 Blank street, when an articulate voice came through the 'phone, "Central, let me explain, my pet monkey broke his chain and has been getting busy with the telephone, sorry to trouble you." "All right," answered central, "no trouble,"—but to herself she said, "Good gracious!"

FROM SHARK'S JAWS

AN ACT OF HEROISM IN THE EASTERN WATERS.

How One Man Saved the Life of Another at the Imminent Peril of Losing His Own.

With sails outspread and steaming slowly, the Investigator, a small boat belonging to the Indian marine survey, moved southward across the Bay of Bengal. Behind her dragged a rope, for she was engaged in trawling at a depth of 1,800 fathoms.

Two long, dark fins approached. Stealthily they moved right up to the boat, then, turning, sped swiftly round and round her. Sometimes they sank, then rose, but always kept together. For a time this passed unnoticed, until a sudden shout of "Sharks!" announced that the intruders had been seen.

One of the sailors, baiting a hook with a piece of fat, cast it overboard. Instantly the water was lashed into foam, and a violent jerk rushed the line through the sailor's hands.

In vain he tried to check the mad rush of the enraged shark. Diving some feet below the surface, the great fish rushed toward the stern of the boat. A moment later, it fouled the trawl rope.

Fearing that the net might be damaged, the captain ordered the gunner, by name Peterson, to shoot the monster. Rifle in hand, the man repaired to the stern of the boat, thinking from there to gain a better view of the shark. Cautiously peering over the side, he raised the rifle. As he did so, his foot slipped, and, with a wild shriek, he vanished over the side.

"Man overboard!" a terrible cry at all times, but now a thousand times more so, with the savage, hungry fish waiting below.

Lower a boat! Was there time? The face of the gunner rose to the surface and gazed appealingly for succor.

Suddenly Lieut. Huddeson, on duty at the forecastle, threw off his jacket, and, rushing to the side, plunged headlong to the rescue.

With strained eyes, the crew peered down, endeavoring to catch a sight of the sharks. Ten yards away floated the mate of the one that was struggling on the line. The head of the lieutenant appeared above the surface. Clearing the salt water from his eyes, he swam swiftly, apparently unconscious of the terrible risk he was running, towards the drowning man.

Would the dark, long, torpedo-shaped fish attack? This thought racked the minds of all.

Now the lieutenant had seized the drowning gunner in his arms. A cheer broke from the crew. Then, in answer to a quick word of command, a lifebuoy, attached to a long rope, was thrown to the struggling men.

Ages seemed to pass to those on board, before the lieutenant, bearing the half-conscious gunner, reached the buoy. But when at length he did, the crew vied with each other to share the honor of drawing him aboard.

Some months later, this daring deed of heroism met with the distinction it deserved. Not only did the hero, Lieut. W. B. Huddleston, receive the silver medal of the Royal Humane society, but he was also awarded the Stanhope medal, as a tribute to the bravest deed of the year.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR.

Prayer Meeting Topic For the Week Beginning April 30.

By REV. S. H. DOYLE.

Topic.—Prayer for missions at home and abroad.—I Tim. ii, 1-8.

Prayer should have the supreme place in our religious lives. "Pray without ceasing" is the Scriptural injunction concerning prayer in our private lives, and when Paul was instructing Timothy how to conduct the public worship in the church at Ephesus he gave prayer the first place: "I exhort, therefore, that, first of all, supplications, prayers, intercessions and giving thanks be made for all men." In the church, therefore, we are to pray for all men, and what can we more suitably pray for those who are without Christ than that they should have the opportunity of knowing and accepting Him? The supreme business of the church of Christ in this world is to evangelize it, and in this work we must have the power of God, and prayer is the means by which we have access to God. God has promised to answer our prayers.

Prayer as the supreme source of missionary power and success has always been recognized. The psalmist prayed, "God be merciful unto us and bless and cause His face to shine upon us, that Thy way may be known upon earth, Thy saving health among all nations." Paul and Barnabas were set apart to the work of missionaries by prayer. "And when they had fasted and prayed and laid their hands on them they sent them away," and when the great apostle was engaged in his arduous toils and labors he was ever bearing those for whom he labored to God in prayer. "Without ceasing I make mention of you always in my prayers," he wrote to the Romans, and in his epistles we have the record of prayers offered in behalf of the churches.

The motto of John Eliot, the apostle to the Indians, written at the end of his Indian grammar was, "Prayer and pains through faith in Jesus Christ will do anything."

Prayer was put first, and his converted Indians became known as "praying bands" and "Indian praying towns." All successful missionaries and missionary workers have given prayer the first place in their labors, and we should follow their example. We may not have wealth to give, we may not be able to go to a foreign land to preach the gospel, but we can all pray, and the "effectual, fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much." Prayer for all men "is good and acceptable in the sight of God our Saviour, who will have all men to be saved and to come unto the knowledge of the truth."

The reasonableness of prayer in connection with all missionary efforts is evident from the fact that there is but "one God and one mediator between God and man, the man Christ Jesus." The world has but one God and one Saviour; therefore we should earnestly and constantly pray to our God that He will bless us in our efforts to send the knowledge of this one mediator and Saviour to the world. Without Him we can do nothing. The world will never be won for Christ by human endeavor. "Not by might nor by power, but by My Spirit, saith the Lord of Hosts." How truly these words may be applied to missions! All the human power in the world cannot convert one single soul to Christ, much less win the world for Him. But our God can do it, and He is more than willing to crown our missionary efforts with success. Do we want God to use us in this work? If so, let us ask Him to use us, for if we ask we shall receive. "Ask of Me, and I shall give thee the heathen for thine inheritance and the uttermost parts of the earth for thy possession."

BIBLE READINGS.

Ps. ii, 8; xxii, 27-31; lxxii, 8-19; Dan. vii, 13, 14; Matt. vii, 7, 8; xxi, 22; Luke xviii, 1; John xvii, 20; Rom. x, 14, 15; Rev. xxii, 17.

Rural Family Endeavor.

Rural Family Endeavor is the "forward movement" in some of the districts of some of the states. The plan has largest value in the sparsely settled regions and is particularly workable during the winter months when snow blocked roads make regular church attendance almost impossible by large numbers of the country Endeavorers. The plan given in a word is this: The society in the little village church shall count the Rural Family Endeavor society as an affiliated one. The village society will appoint a rural committee, and this committee shall seek to form societies in the families outside the village who through any large portion of the year are unable to become attending members of the church society. Dr. Clark's pledge for the Christian Endeavor home circle is used, and some member of the family is designated as the secretary of the family society. A monthly report is sent by each family secretary to the village society in time for the regular business meeting. These little reports serve as the "tie that binds." The family offering is also made to accompany the report. The organization is made as simple as possible, and yet there is enough of it to make it mean something more than ordinary. The pledge idea is emphasized strongly, and at least once a week the members of the family gather for a half hour in a service of prayer and testimony, where each keeps in spirit at least the regular Christian Endeavor pledge as it relates to the prayer meeting.—J. R. C. in Empire State Notes.

Christian Endeavor Gains.

The increase in Christian Endeavor societies during the past three months has been: United States, 424; Canada, 1; foreign, 140; total present enrollment is 65,144.

EPWORTH LEAGUE.

April 30: "Prayer For Missions and Missionaries"—John xvii, 18-21; Acts xiii, 1-3.

By REV. WALTER J. YATES, Ph. D.

"As thou didst send Me into the world, even so sent I them into the world."

If it be true that God so loved the world that He sent His only begotten Son into the world, that whosoever believeth on Him might not perish, but have everlasting life, then there is no way in which the love of Christ can be more clearly shown than to send his followers to tell their fellow men of His salvation.

It took some time for His most intimate friends to understand that this was His purpose, yet He had been giving them lessons in evangelization from their first association with Him. But it was one thing to go by twos through the villages of Galilee, where they were at home and known, and tell the people that the Great Prophet was coming soon to their town and an altogether different proposition after that same Great Prophet had been put to death by their rulers as one of the worst of criminals to go out into the world in the face of all opposition and persecution and proclaim Him as the Lord of life.

It took time for their dullness to comprehend the fact that salvation was really for all men. It took a vision to get Peter, the most progressive of the apostles, to even go to see the gentile Cornelius and a miraculous outpouring of the Holy Spirit before he would hesitatingly ask if any one could forbid baptism to these, who had as truly been accepted of God as any one of the apostles.

It was a hard task to get the gospel into the feet of men. About the last piece of the gospel armor which was put on was the sandals. It took long to get feet shod with the preparation of the gospel of peace. But be patient; it will get feet in due time, winged feet, and every mountain shall know how beautiful are the feet of him that bringeth good things, that publisheth peace!

Stephen saw this missionary purpose of Jesus as no other one in the early church did. It was his bold declaration of this purpose of God that led to his death for blasphemy. He who undertakes to run the world into new channels will do so at the risk of his life. But into new channels it must be turned, for there has come the power of a new life which the old river beds cannot carry, and the men for the work will be found and will go. Who so well fitted to lead this movement as the man who was responsible for the death of Stephen? He prevented another doing it. He shall do it himself. And he did it after he had seen face to face the Master whom Stephen served.

This is the meaning of those meetings of the church in Antioch. Here were men from the islands of the Mediterranean, from the coasts of Africa and many regions. They were not bound by the narrow prejudices of those constantly under the influence of the temple worship in Jerusalem. They were men who had extensive knowledge of the world at large and of men of that world. They knew from the moral corruption of their own city and that of every great city of the empire that there was no hope for the world but in the religion of Jesus Christ. The whole world lay in wickedness. They held the truth able to make men wise unto salvation. The Spirit stirred within them and said, "Separate, Barnabas and Saul, for this work." They felt the impulse to world evangelism. They obeyed the impulse.

Long ages, with many changes, have intervened between that time and this, but in some respects there is considerable similarity in conditions then and now. Wealth and luxury had increased beyond all precedent. The arts and literature were at the highest point of development. All the ends of the earth were in close communication and intercourse. With the advance in material things there had been retrograde in all that pertains to moral and spiritual well being. Vice was rampant. Corruption and moral putridity infected society until virtue was well nigh nonexistent. In the Christian church alone lay the hope of renovation.

We are face to face with the needs of the great world of heathenism and have opportunity such as no other age since the time of the apostles has had to evangelize the nations. On our fidelity depends the character of the coming centuries.

This is the time to pray for our missions and missionaries indeed. We need to pray in the inner depths of the soul with all eager longing for the gospel to have effect in reaching all classes in all lands. This heart yearning must be backed up by prayer in the pocketbook and bank book. Money must talk. It must be made to shout and pray. Money can do this sort of thing and must be made to do it if the other kind of prayers are to get higher than our heads. Then there must be the great whole souled praying that says: "Lord, there is my boy, my girl. Please call them to this work and fit them for it." There must be Abrahams hearing God's call and taking their Isaacs by the hand and leading them to altars of sacrifice in lands of Moriah. There must be Sauls and Barnabases selected by the church and sent and, when they are in the work, returning to their Antioch homes from time to time to report and fire with zeal the hearts of the saints at home.

Know the great world parish. Know every land and keep in touch with the progress and needs of each land. Know the men and women at work. Pray in private and in the church services for them. Expect great things, plan for them and help make them possible. This is our opportunity.

Make every power of being pray and work!

"Thy kingdom come!"

FORECAST OF FASHION.

Rose Colored Boas For Evening Wear—Covert Jackets.

Very lovely for evening wear are the delicate shades of rose colored ostrich boas. The curl of the feather gives a wonderfully foamy effect that is eminently becoming. These sumptuous boas are quite the leading novelties of the season.

White panama cloth is to be very smart this season both for suits and separate skirts worn with silk waists.

Panama cloth will also make the nicest kind of walking costumes both in plain color and in a figured design which is almost invisible except in certain lights.

The covert cloth jacket will be in evidence this spring in all the varying lengths. The only difference between the new jackets and those of last year is that in the recent models the bust is higher and the sleeves, which are of the tailored order, are set in the arm's eye with a square effect. The cuffs are stitched in tailor fashion.

MOURNING GOWN OF HENRIETTA.

The gown illustrated is a costume for the first months of deep mourning. It is made of lightweight henrietta cloth and crape. The underskirt is entirely of crape, and the pointed overskirt effect has a band of the same handsome material. Mousseline de sole is tucked into a tiny chemisette, and the fronts of the waist simulate a vest. Over this vest are bretelle-like pieces of henrietta trimmed with crape, which are drawn into the waist with crape rosettes to form a girdle. The sleeves finish at the elbow with double ruffles of mousseline de sole.

CHIC STYLES.

Sleeves Govern the New Styles—Mohair Very Fashionable.

It is the sleeves and shoulders that govern the new styles. Miracles can be accomplished with the new sleeve trimmings and the right shoulder arrangements. Epaulets that form the top of the sleeve are a favorite adornment of the up to date sleeve.

With these plaited skirts will be worn short jackets with rather long fronts.

Mohair of the new silky weave is to be very much worn. It is particularly good style when in a checked design. Pale green and white, rose and white, and coral and white are new blendings.

Dozens of new girdles have come out. The linen craze has brought out interesting developments in this line. They are embroidered in cotton matching the girdle linen in color.

BURLINGHAM SILK WAIST.

In the trimming line very stunning is an edging of tiny balls which is used in conjunction with net or lace.

Petticoats are made with adjustable flounces both in silk and muslin.

The waist pictured is of a tan and brown mixture carried out in burlingham silk. The fronts are cut in four pieces, with a seam running from shoulder to waist line. The seam nearest the side is slightly gathered at the bust. Over a vest of tucked taffeta is a shawl collar of the silk edged with a braided design which crosses surplice fashion at one side. The chemisette is of tucked white mull, and the sleeves are leg of mutton trimmed with rounded turnover cuffs.

Kate Bonnet

The Romance of a Pirate's Daughter

By FRANK R. STOCKTON

Copyright, 1902, by D. Appleton & Co., New York.

"I am loath to say it, sir," said Mr. Delaplaine, "when I think of the hospitality and most exceptional kindness with which you have treated me and my niece, and for which we shall feel grateful all our lives, but I think you will agree with me that it would be useless for us to pursue the search after that most reprehensible person, my brother-in-law, Bonnet. There can be no doubt, I believe, that he and Blackbeard have left the vicinity of Charles Town, and have gone, we know not where."

"No doubt of that, bedad," said Ichabod, knitting his brows as he spoke; "if Blackbeard had been outside the harbor, this brig would not have been here."

"And, therefore, sir," continued Mr. Delaplaine, "I have judged it to be wise, and indeed necessary, for us to part company with you, sir, and take passage on this brig, which, by a most fortunate chance, is bound for Kingston."

"I don't like to agree with you," said the captain, "but, bedad, I am bound to do it. I am disappointed myself, sir, but I have been disappointed so often that I suppose I ought to be used to it. If I had caught up with Blackbeard I should have been all right, and after I had settled your affairs—and I know I could have done that—I think I would have joined him. But all I can do now is to hammer along at the business, take prizes in the usual way, and wait for Blackbeard to come south again, and then I'll either sell out or join him."

"It's a great pity, sir," said Mr. Delaplaine, "a great pity—"

"Yes, it is," interrupted Ichabod, "it's a very great pity, sir, a very great pity. If I had known more about ships when I bought the Restless I would have had a faster craft, and by this time might have been a man of comfortable means. But that sloop over there, bedad, is so slow, that many a time, sir, I have seen a fat merchantman sail away from her and leave us, in spite of our guns, cursing and swearing, miles behind. I am sorry to have you leave, sir, and with your ladies; but, as you say, here's your chance to get home, and I don't know when I could give you another."

Mr. Delaplaine replied courteously and gratefully, and by the next boat he went back to the Restless. Capt. Ichabod, his brow still clouded by the approaching separation, walked over to Lucilla and continued his conversation with her about the island of Barbadoes, a subject of which he knew very little and she nothing.

It was not long after this conversation that the largest boat belonging to the Restless was rowed over to the brig, and in it sat not only Kate, Dame Charter and Dickory, but Capt. Ichabod, who would accompany his guests to take proper leave of them. The crew of the pirate sloop crowded themselves along her sides, and even mounted into her shrouds, waving their hats and shouting as the boat moved away.

Lucilla watched carefully the newcomers as they ascended to the deck of the Black Swan. "That is the girl," she said to herself, "and I am not surprised."

A little later she remarked to Capt. Ichabod, who sat by her: "Are they mother and daughter, those two?"

"Oh, no," said he. "Mistress Bonnet is too fine a lady and too beautiful to be daughter to that old woman, who is her attendant and the mother of the young fellow in the cocked hat."

"Too fine and beautiful!" repeated Lucille.

"I greatly grieve to leave you all," continued the young pirate captain, "although some of you I have known so short a time. It will be very lonely when I sail away with none to speak to save the bloody dogs I command, who may yet throttle me. And it is to Barbadoes you go to settle with your family?"

"That is our destination," said Lucilla, "but I know not if we shall find the money to settle there; we were taken by pirates and lost everything."

All the good-bys had been said and good wishes had been wished, when, just as he was about to descend to his boat, Capt. Ichabod turned to Lucilla. "And it is truly to Barbadoes you go?" he asked.

"Yes," said she, "I think we shall certainly do that."

Now his face flushed. "And do you care for that fellow in the cocked hat?"

Here was a cruel situation for poor Lucilla. She must lie or lose two men. She might lose them anyway, but she would not do it of her own free will, and so she lied.

"Not a whit!" said Lucilla.

The eyes of Ichabod brightened as he went down the side of the brig.

CHAPTER XXX.

BLACKBEARD GIVES GREENWAY SOME DIFFICULT WORK.

THE great pirate Blackbeard, inactive and taking his ease, was seated on the quarterdeck of his fine vessel, on which he had lately done some sharp work off the harbor of Charles Town. He was now commanding a small fleet. Besides the ship on which he sailed, he had two other vessels, well manned and well laden with supplies from his recent captures. Satisfied with conquest, he was sailing northward to one of his favorite resorts on the North Carolina coast.

To this conquering hero now came Ben Greenway, the Scotchman, touching his hat.

"And what do you want?" cried the burly pirate. "Haven't they given you your prize money yet, or isn't it enough?"

"Prize money!" exclaimed Greenway. "I hae none o' it, nor will I hae any. What money I hae—an' it is but little—came to me fairly."

"Oho!" cried Blackbeard, "and you have money then, have you? Is it enough to make it worth my while to take it?"

"Ye can count it an' see, whenever ye like," said Ben. "But it isna money that I came to talk to ye about. I came to ask ye, at the first convenient season, to put me aboard that ship out there, that I may be in my rightful place by the side o' Master Bonnet."

"And what good are you to him, or he to you," asked the pirate with a fine long oath, "that I should put myself to that much trouble?"

"I have the responsibeelity o' his soul on my hands," said Ben, "an' since we left Charles Town I hae not seen him, he bein' on ane ship an' I on anither."

"And very well that is too," said Blackbeard, "for I like each of you better separate. And now look ye, me kirk bird, you have not done very well with your 'responsibeelities' so far and you might as well make up your mind to stop trying to convert that sneak of a Nightcap and take up the business of converting me. I'm in great need of it, I can tell you."

"You!" cried Ben.

"I tell you, yes," shouted Blackbeard, "it is I, myself, that I am talking about. I want to be converted from the evil of my ways, and I have made up my mind that you shall do it. You are a good and a pious man, and it is not often that I get hold of one of that kind; or, if I do, I slice off his head before I discover his quality."

"I fear me," said the truthful Scotchman, "that the job is beyond my abeelity."

"Not a bit of it, not a bit of it," shouted the pirate. "I am 50 times easier to work upon than that Nightcap of yours, and a hundred times better worth the trouble. I put no trust in that downfaced farmer. When he shouts loudest for the black flag he is most likely to go into priestly orders, and the better he is reformed the quicker he is to rob and murder. He is of the kind the devil wants, but it is of no use for any one to show him the way there, he is well able to find it for himself. But it is different with me, you canny Scotchman, it is different with me. I am an open-handed and an open-mouthed scoundrel, and I never pretended to be anything else. When you begin reforming me you will find your work half done."

The Scotchman shook his head. "I fear me—" he said.

SHOT NEGRO IN CELL.

Lynch Mob at Shreveport Kill Murder Suspect.

SHREVEPORT, La., April 27.—After working three hours with sledge hammers and picks twenty-five men broke into the parish jail at Homer, La., and shot Dick Craighead, inflicting wounds which probably will prove fatal. Craighead was charged with the murder of Mrs. Isaac McKee, wife of Craighead's half brother, and her little son.

The authorities were unaware of the design on the prisoner until it was too late to protect him. Every telephone and telegraph wire out of Homer was cut, and the rifles of the Clairborne guards were seized before the attack was made on the jail. So quietly did the men work that scarcely any one in the village was aware of what was taking place at the jail.

Having dug a hole through the brick wall, the lynchers crawled through the opening, but on reaching the steel cell in which the prisoner was confined found it impossible to break the lock. They then began shooting at the cowering prisoner through the bars of his cell, more than twenty shots being fired and nearly every one taking effect. The man's legs, arms and portions of his body were torn to shreds with bullets. Believing that Craighead was dead, the lynchers left the prison and dispersed.

When Sheriff Kirkpatrick reached the jail he found Craighead still alive. It is said that he told the sheriff the names of three of the lynchers.

DISASTER AT WILKESBARRE.

Ten Miners Instantly Killed by Fall of Cage.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., April 27.—Ten miners have been crushed to death at the Conyngham mine of the Delaware and Hudson company, in the northern part of the city. They were being lowered into the mine and when 350 feet from the surface the rope broke, and the cage fell to the bottom of the shaft, a distance of 400 feet.

A rescuing party found the bodies of the men in the sump at the bottom of the shaft beneath a mass of debris. They were terribly mangled.

Superintendent Foote says he is at a loss to account for the accident. An examination of the rope was made Tuesday at noon before the cage was lowered into the mine, and it was found to be apparently all right.

William Cunningham, who is said to be one of the most reliable men in the employ of the company, was the engineer in charge of the hoisting carriage. He says everything went well until the fatal trip. He got the signal to lower and to stop at the Hillman vein.

When the Hillman vein was reached he slowed up. Without any warning the rope snapped, and the carriage dropped like a shot to the bottom.

The carriage had all the safety appliances and its speed should have been checked before it reached the bottom, but as far as can be learned the cogs did not work. Eight of the dead men were Poles and the other two English speaking.

SPORTING NEWS

DIAMOND DUST.

Manager Daub was in town yesterday looking after some details regarding Saturday's game.

Page, who formerly caught for the Plainfield team, is a fixture on the Morristown-Chatham combination, and he is considered a fast fielder and heavy batsman.

The fans were much pleased with Beisel's showing in Saturday's game, and they belive that with more experience he will be able to hold his own with the best twirlers.

After Saturday's games here and at Westfield comparisons seem to be odious to the sporting editor of the Westfield Standard. Already the fans are beginning to think that Farmer is a little slow.

The services of Banks as a fielder and batter were sadly missed in the Plainfield High School game Monday. Banks, who looked to be a strong fixture on the team, has left school to accept a position in New York.

The local rooters want to be on to their job Saturday, for the Morris county fans will come prepared to cheer their team to victory. It is said that three stages will be engaged to bring the followers of the team here to witness the game.

Claude Edwards, who pitched three innings for the Seventh Reggiment team at Westfield on Saturday, is a graduate of the Plainfield High School. Prior to Saturday he had not pitched a game since last fall, yet he shut Westfield out for the rest of the game.

Foxen, who has been pitching on Sundays for the Hoboken team, expects to go to Hartford next week, where he will pitch for the Connecticut State League team. The Jersey City Club is also laying claim to Foxen and may make seem trouble for the Hartford Club over his playing.

A baseball team called the Scorchers will meet a team of newspapermen on Crescent Oval, this afternoon. The batting order for the Scorchers will be as follows: Burk, p; Davis, catcher; Woolston, 1b; Hoyt, 2b; Craig, ss; Conway, 3 b; Cooley, lf; Geo. Veehl, cf, Bulkley, rf. Philip Smith will pitch for the opposing team and J. A. Staats has been engaged to umpire.

Leal's team has been receiving a great deal of valuable coaching from the alumnae who have been home on their vacations. If the coaching is heeded there is no reason why the team should not stand a good show in the inter-private school league, of which Montclair Military Academy, Pingry School, Carteret Academy, Newark Academy and the Leal's team are members.

The Morristown-Chatham A. C. will oppose the local team on Crescent Oval Saturday afternoon and a great contest is expected. Last season this team defeated Plainfield 7 to 0 and an effort will be made to return the compliment. It is expected that Speer will do the pitching for the Morris county boys, with Westlake behind the rubber. The other points will be strengthened to the limit.

The sporting scribe for the Westfield Standard says that Peter Lamar has nothing on Al. Farmer; that while Lamar is good, he is in a class below Farmer, both in hitting and throwing. Farmer never saw the day that he could catch with Lamar and as for hitting he is in comparison as a major leaguer to an amateur. There is no comparison between Plainfield's outfield and that of Westfield, Cregan, Cosgrove and Connolly far outclassing McGeoy, Rogers and Mallen, and as for the infield, Westfield's quartette is like a dog trot to a race horse. Plainfield fans hope to get lots of satisfaction this season in seeing Westfield trimmed good and proper.

GOLF.

The formal opening took place at the Cranford Golf Club Saturday afternoon. G. H. Warner, L. M. Lyon and H. P. Wood made net scores of 85 in play for the tournament committee's cup. C. A. Aboy made the fourth best net score, 87. Over thirty players started in the tournament. The semi-finals will be played next Saturday and the finals on May 6. The handicap cup tournament begins at the links next Saturday.

Miss Jane Howe, of Brooklyn, is the guest of friends in this city for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Milne, of New York, are visiting Mr. Milne's mother, Mrs. Isabel Milne, of Willow avenue.

An event of much interest to society folk will be the marriage this evening of Miss Ethel R. Hassell, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Hassell, of West Seventh street, to Charles H. Detwiller, of Jersey City. The ceremony is to be at 8 o'clock and 150 relatives and guests are expected. Rev. Dr. Alexander Young, who married the bride's parents, is to perform the ceremony which is to be followed by a large reception from 8:30 to 10:30 o'clock. Miss Helen R. Hassell, a sister of the bride, is to be maid-of-honor and Miss Laura Detwiller, the groom's sister, Miss Ella Jordine and Miss Alice Mitchell, of Jersey City, are to be the bridesmaids. The groom is an architect by profession and comes from one of the old and prominent families of Jersey City. His brother, Clarence J. Detwiller, is to be best man and the ushers are to be Frederick R. Lockwood and Alexander G. Armstrong, of Jersey City; George E. Melendy, of Orange, N. J., and Albert K. Detwiller, of Easton, Pa.

CHRISTIAN FIELD.

The Easter music will be repeated by the choir of the First Baptist church on Sunday night.

The Brotherhood of the First M. E. church, has arranged to give the new pastor, Rev. Dr. A. McCrea, a reception on Friday night, May 5.

The first quarterly conference was held at the Monroe Avenue church last night, Rev. Dr. Halleron, presiding elder, was in charge.

Mrs. R. W. Barns, of Grove street, will entertain the Young Women's Missionary Society of the First Baptist church, tomorrow afternoon.

Chaplain Monro of the Tombs Prison will address the meeting of the Y. M. C. A., Sunday afternoon April 30, at 4 o'clock. Subject, "Leaves from the Diary of a Prison Chaplain." The choir of the First M. E. church will furnish special selections.

A Mother's Jewel Band has been formed by the Women's Home Missionary Society of the Monroe Avenue church, with twenty members. The Band will give its support to the three homes maintained by the Methodist church for homeless children at Tivoli, N. Y., Urbana, Ill., and York, Neb. Miss Louis Praed has been elected treasurer of the local band.

A well-known Episcopal bishop of High Church tendencies was given a dinner to a number of his clergy not long ago. In arranging for it with his English butler he was surprised to have the man ask, "Is they 'Igh Church or Low Church, sir?"

"Why, what possible difference does that make?" the Bishop inquired.

"A great deal of difference, sir," the man replied. "The Low Church they eats the most, and the 'Igh Church they drinks the most, sir!"—April Lippincott's.

Rev. Dr. J. A. Chambliss, pastor of the First Baptist church, will soon move to 927 Central avenue, the house formerly occupied by L. H. Bigelow. The property is now being thoroughly overhauled and put in first-class condition. Mrs. Chambliss, who has been in the south for some time, is convalescing and hopes to return to Plainfield during the next two or three weeks. Dr. Chambliss is obliged to move owing to the sale of the Thomas E. MacDonald property on East Front street. Mrs. MacDonald has not yet decided where she will live.

Shot for Johnson Trophy.

The members of the Plainfield Gun Club held one of the series of shoots for the Johnson trophy yesterday. High scores were made by Scribner, Dreier and Maltby.

—The regular meeting of the McAll Auxiliary will be held at the Public Library on Wednesday morning, May 3, at 11 o'clock.

TORTURE AGED MAN WITH FIRE

ROBBERS HOLD UP WAR VETERAN AT CHICAGO.

BURN FLESH WITH MATCHES

Awful Method of Two Fiends to Learn Hiding Place of Reputed Wealth —Turn Deaf Ear to His Pleadings.

Chicago.—Two men tortured John Colin, 80 years old, the other night, in order to compel him to reveal the hiding place of his wealth, which they supposed was hidden somewhere about the house.

Writhing in the pain of burning matches, with which the fiends seared his flesh, the old man maintained that he had no money, and that $15 in pennies that the men had already taken from him was all he possessed.

The groans and cries of the aged man, which his tormentors were unable to still entirely, though they gagged him, finally frightened them away, and their victim hurried to the police as soon as possible, and notified the authorities of his experience. The old man is reputed to be wealthy. He is a civil war veteran.

The police arrested Nicholas Wagner and Fred Anderson, neither more than 23 years old, and when brought to the police station Colin positively identified them as the men who had tormented him.

His money spread out on the table in front of him, and arranging the pennies more than 1,500, in little heaps before him, Colin counted and recounted the coins. While in the midst of the pleasure this gave him he raised his eyes and looked into the muzzles of two revolvers.

"This is all I have," he expostulated, as two men leaped to the table and seized the sack. I cannot live unless I have the money, and I am old, past 80."

The appeal had no effect. A search of the place was then made, and pictures were taken from the walls, rugs were moved, and the men even went so far as to raise the flooring in several places. The search was barren of results, and one of the men struck Colin in the face and tore his clothes off.

APPLIED MATCHES TO THE AGED MAN'S BODY.

Matches were then applied to the exposed parts of the aged man's body, but Colin refused to reveal the hiding place of the wealth he said he did not have. Then fearing that the neighbors were becoming suspicious of the loud talking, the men left and ran down an alley. The sack of pennies was taken, and it is believed by the police that other valuables were stolen. Colin complained at the police station and the arrests followed.

WHOLE FAMILY OF THIEVES

Household at Trenton, N. J., Confesses to Many Crimes—Long Known to Police.

Trenton, N. J.—Confessing to 38 charges of burglary and larceny, the Roberts family is under arrest. The prisoners are Harry Roberts, brakeman, aged 35; Edward Roberts, oiler, aged 22; Thomas Roberts, 55 years old; Bella Roberts, 57 years old, wife of Thomas, and mother of Harry and Edward Roberts; William Roberts, 16 years old; Thomas Roberts, Jr., 23 years old; William Daniels, aged 21, and his wife, Annie, aged 19. Harry and Edward have confessed to charges that have been made against the family.

The family has been known to the police for many years. Mrs. Roberts used to be a professional beggar until the police drove her from the streets. Once when arrested she paid a fine of $10 out of a big roll of bills.

They had become so fearless that the police were compelled to apprehend the whole family in order to stop the wholesale thefts.

Some of the family occasionally attended church. Two overcoats were recently stolen at a service they attended. Annie Roberts worked in a telephone office and was discovered getting three pocketbooks from the coats of other employes. It is believed the thefts of the family will aggregate $20,000.

Prize Dogs Battle to Death.

Newark, N. J.—Had it not been for a desire to dispose of a possible rival, either Rex or Regal, two of Newark's prize bulldogs, might have taken the blue ribbon at the Madison Square Garden in New York. But their jealousy led to a fight and both of them will be quietly resting under ground while their other rivals are occupying benches before the admiring public.

LOCOMOTIVE NO. 581 IS TRULY A HUMMER

NEW ENGINE ON THE P. AND P. MAKES FIVE MILES IN 3 MINS., AND 32 SECS.

All the big railroad companies in the East are studying the make-up of engine 581 of the Central Railroad Company which is now running between Jersey City and Philadelphia, and which is reported to be the fastest engine in this section of the country. The engine was built by the Baldwin Locomotive Company, of Philadelphia. She is fitted up with the new safety patent valve and holds the record thus far for five miles, making the distance, Friday, April 7, in three minutes and thirty-eight seconds.

When the 531 made the record for five miles on the seventh of April, she was drawing four cars. Two parlor cars, one smoker and on coach, and was speeding against strong adverse wind. The engine made the first mile on this occasion in 48 seconds, the second in 47, the third in 45 and the fourth in 50, and the fifth in 59. This is about her average time every day. She has not been out for record speed yet, and it is believed that she can easily smash the records thus far made. Wednesday, April 5, she ran 182 miles and burned but three tons and sixteen hundred weight of coal.

The engine is equipped with all up-to-date appliances. She is fitted up with Westinghouse air brakes and the new safety valve made by the Alfree Locomotive Appliance Company of St. Louis, Mo., to which is attributed her capacity for running at such a high rate of speed. Her driving wheels are eighty-four and one-half inches in diameter. The patent safety valve is one which allows the steam to accumulate to a certain point and then automatically opens. The locomotive is what is termed in "railroad lingo" a simple locomotive.

For quite some time the engine was in the Elizabethport shops, where under the direction of Charles H. Weeks she was equipped with the Alfee Safety valve. One of the interesting features about the engine is the little cab, which is built directly over the pilot. The cab is large enough for one person to enter. There is an indicator within which registers to the fraction of a second the speed of the train. It is also possible for a person within the cab to stop the engine, through the operation of the Alfee valve, without the knowledge of the engineer.

The Central Railroad Company has just turned out another engine, Baldwin is making, and somewhat similar to the 581. The number of the new engine is the 583. It is claimed that 583 can eclipse in speed the 581. The company will put the engines to a test, and if this is found to be true, it will build two engines like the 583 and another similar to the 581.

LITERARY.

The pig iron produced in the United States in one year would make a column twice the height and size of the Eiffel Tower. The iron and steel rails, if made into one rail, would be eighty-one feet wide at the base, just as high, and a mile and a fifth long. The coke used in blast furnaces would form a column four hundred feet square and six thousand five hundred feet high, and the limestone used would make a column two hundred feet square and five thousand five hundred feet high.—From Success Magazine."

JOURNALISTIC OPINION.

Too Great a Rush.

Doubtless Mayor Randolph Perkins, of Westfield, would make a worthy successor to Senator Cross, but why not let him have at least one full term in the Assembly before thrusting this greatness upon him? Perkins is too good a Republican to trifle with.—New York Press.

NO JERSEY 'CHANGE FOR THE PRESENT

President Randolph, of Consolidated, Says Movement is Now in Abeyance.

PLAINFIELDER'S VIEWS

Says That Action is a Little Premature, and in No Sense Represents Big New York Exchange.

No less authority than former Mayor L. V. F. Randolph, of this city, president of the New York Consolidated Stock and Petroleum Exchange, can be cited to show that New Jersey's much advertised stock exchange will not come into existence for some time if at all. President Randolph yesterday had a conference with the promoters of the proposed exchange and impressed upon them the desirability of moving cautiously in the matter and it is reliably reported that they took his advice. The men interested in James B. Dill's incorporated exchange are all members of the New York Consolidated, but according to Mr. Randolph they in no sense represent it. Their acts, he declares, are those of individual brokers who have convictions that an exchange, which would not be burdened with a stock transfer tax law, is not only beneficial but very feasible.

In discussing the subject with a representative of The Daily Press, Mr. Randolph said last night: "I have not thought it necessary to establish an exchange in New Jersey immediately and I said so to the members interested in it in a talk today. In my opinion the movement is a little premature and the matter should be held in abeyance for some time at least. I told the gentlemen who consulted me that we had better be sure we're right before we go ahead too far or too fast. I said that we should all be patient and I think my advice will be taken. It is highly desirable that so important an institution as the exchange should be right in the centre of the financial district. I do not believe that there will be any idependent or branch exchange immediately, though later on it may be necessary to establish one. Various things must first be considered and I took pains to impress that upon the gentlemen today. Patience and deliberation are essential at this time. The Jersey scheme in no sense represents the New York exchange and I really believe that it will not go any further just now."

MISS MARY HURLBUT WEDS HER COUSIN

MINISTER'S DAUGHTER MARRIES H. B. HURLBUT, OF NEW YORK.

Miss Mary Evelyn Hurlbut, daughter of Rev. Dr. Jesse Lyman Hurlbut, of South Orange, but formerly of this city, was married in the Orange First M. E. church, last night, to her eighth cousin, Hinman Barrett Hurlbut, of New Yrok. The bride had but one attendant, her sister, Miss Bertha Hurlbut, as maid-of-honor. Lawrence Frank, of New York, was the best man, and the ushers were George P. Dougherty, of Trenton, and Clarence Fitspatrick, of New York.

The bride was a former resident of this city, her father being pastor of the First M. E. church several years ago. He performed the ceremony last night.

THIRD BIG NIGHT.

Band Concert Fair Continues to be a Great Drawing Card.

The third night of the fair in Saengerbund Hall, last night, was again largely attended and the indications are that last year's record for crowds will be exceeded by many hundreds. The dancing floor was occupied constantly and all the attractions were well patronized. The entertainment for the evening was George Offerman, the well known concert singer, who gave "That's What the Brass Bad Played" and other song successes. Downstairs the refreshment department was kept busy and the prize bowling matches had a large number of participants.

There will be several special features tonight in addition to well known soloists and for tomorrow night, Chairman LaVere holds out big promises. The fair will continue over until Monday night.

GEO. W. CABLE'S TALK

Author Entertains Monday Afternoon Club at Casino.

ITS ANNIVERSARY

Seventeenth Year of Women's Organization Observed Appropriately Yesterday.

The Casino last night in most artistic and effective decorations was a beautiful setting for the entertainment marking the seventeenth anniversary of the Monday Afternoon Club. The red and green side walls formed a suitable back-ground for the cherry blossoms that stood out like delicate tracery, while the stage with its harmonious colors, a vista of trees and sky, more cherry blossoms, pale yellow flowers and dark green masses made an exquisite picture for the eye to rest upon. Small tables with flowers were scattered about the room, which was covered with rugs and a tasteful arrangement of seats gave the comfort of the lecture room with the beauty of a salon.

Nearly 300 guests were welcomed by the president, Mrs. Robert Lowry and the vice presidents, Mrs. B. J. Shreve, Mrs. Henry M. Maxson and Mrs. Eugene H. Hatch.

After the reception, the president, in a few graceful words, introduced George W. Cable, the distinguished writer, who in a humorous way said in substance he would be willing to change places with his audience that they might stand in his shoes and see how well they looked. He announced his selection for the evening his story of "Parson Jones," a love story without a woman. It was the love of two antipodal men. With keen flashes of humor, Mr. Cable drew the pictures of Parson Jones, his negro servant Coliossus of Rhodes, Jules, the French Catholic and his man servant, Baptist. The moral of the story hinges on the warning of Colossus, as he leaves his master, not to drink.

The parson's temptation to gambling, and lend the money belonging to the Smyrna church to pay the gambling debts of his friend, the discovery that the trust funds were not in his pocket and his fall were graphically told by Mr. Cable, and the scene in the arena of the circus, when Parson Jones, wild with intoxication, fought and preached were given with great dramatic force.

The awakening of the parson, his sense of guilt and humble confession showed Mr. Cable's power as he contrasted him with his French friend who had won $600 at cards by a "specious providence" and wished the parson to take it, who steadfastly refused. In the climax of the story Mr. Cable gave proof of his great skill as a dramatist when on board the schooner Isabella, the repentant parson is joined by his servant Colossus of Rhodes who urges the praying parson to pray for the money and in answer to the prayer, brings forth the missing roll of bills, showing that the servant had been wiser than his master.

Enthusiastic applause followed the recital and for an encore Mr. Cable gave a child's story, "Salandadon," in which the repetition of the crooning call showed Mr. Cabe's great elocutionary power.

A social hour with refreshments followed the recital.

The entertainment committee, Mrs. Millett T. Barrows, chairman, Miss Emily B. Tracy, Mrs. DeWitt C. Ivins, Mrs. Craig A. Marsh and Miss Florence Marsh, deserve great praise for the taste displayed in the decoration and arrangement of the Casino and their assiduous care for the comfort and pleasure of their guests.

Mr. Cable was entertained at the home of George P. Mellick, of East Seventh street.

Mrs. Babcock's Talk.

Mrs. George H. Babcock, who recently made an extended tour abroad, gave a most interesting talk of her travels at a parlor meeting held yesterday afternoon under the auspices of the W. C. T. U., at the rooms on Madison avenue. She told of the various countries through which she travelled, telling of the customs and habits of the people.

NUPTIALS OF EASTERTIDE

Miss Hassell Now Mrs. Detweller; Miss Milne, Mrs. Laing.

THRONG OF GUESTS

Detweller-Hassell Nuptials at Home of Bride—Laing-Milne at First Baptist Church.

Miss Ethel R. Hassell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Hassell, of West Seventh street, and Charles H Detweller, of Jersey City, were married at the home of the bride's parents, last night, by Rev. Dr. Alexander Young, who also married the bride's parents. The ceremony was performed at 8 o'clock. There were 150 guests, relatives and friends from this and other cities.

The house was profusely decorated with Easter lilies, palms and greens, and in the dining room the decorations were especially attractive.

The bride's gown was of white messaline net, trimmed with duchesse lace. She also wore a diamond crown brooch, the gift of the groom, and carried a shower bouquet of lilies-of-the-valley and orchids. The attendants were Miss Helen R. Hassell, the bride's sister, as maid-of honor, and Miss Laura Detweller, the groom's sister, Miss Ella Jerdine and Miss Alice Mitchell, of Jersey City, as bridesmaids. They were gowned in French silver-queen liberty chiffon and carried bunches of Easter lilies and duchesse lace fans with inlaid mother-of-pearl handles, the bride's gifts.

The best man was Clarence J. Detweller, brother of the groom, and the ushers were Frederick R. Lockwood and Alexander G. Armstrong, of Jersey City; George E. Melendy, of Orange, and Albert K. Detweller, of Easton, Pa. They received gifts of scarf pins, a gold knot encircling a diamond.

Following the ceremony a reception was held from 8:30 to 10:30, the guests including many society folk from New York, Jersey City and this city.

The groom is a graduate of Columbia College, an architect by profession, having offices in New York. He belongs to one of the old and prominent families of Jersey City. The bride was the recipient of a large collection of costly gifts. After spending the summer in Europe Mr. and Mrs. Detweller will make their home at East Seventh street and Crescent avenue, the J. B. Dumont house, which was recently purchased by the groom.

Laing-Milne.

Miss Isabel Milne, daughter of Mrs. Isabel Milne, of 33 Willow avenue, and Allen Blackwell Laing, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene M. Laing, of Truell Court, were married at the First Baptist church at 6:30 o'clock, last night, in the presence of a large number of guests from New York, Brooklyn, Philadelphia and this city. Rev. Dr. J. A. Chambliss, pastor of the church, performed the ceremony.

The church was beautifully decorated with Easter lilies, southern smilax, palms and ferns, all banked about the pulpit platform. Directly in front was an improvised altar.

Howard Case was at the organ and as the bridal party entered the church he rendered the Mendelssohn Wedding March, and the wedding march from Lohengrin as it left the edifice.

The bride, in a Princess gown of white messalinenet, trimmed with duchesse lace, and carrying a shower bouquet of lilies-of-the-valley, was attended by Miss Mary E. Valiant, as maid-of-honor, gowned in pale pink chiffon cloth and carrying a bouquet of sweet peas, and these bridesmaids: Miss Elsie Brokaw, Miss Sarah Mae Howell, Miss Helen Phillips, Miss Sophie Barlow, Miss Marion McCutchen, of this city, and Miss Jane Howe, of Brooklyn. They were Princess gowns of cream white chiffon with jackets of Princess Louise lace. They carried pink roses. The best man was Percy Carr Long and the ushers Charles P. Dupee, Ralph T. Willis, Harry L. McGee, Judge William N. Runyon, A. L. C. Marsh, of this city, and Thomas Beuk, of New York. The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Alexander Milne, of Brooklyn.

Following the wedding a reception was held at the home of the bride's mother at 33 Willow avenue, there being five hundred guests. The bride received many handsome gifts. During the evening Mr. and Mrs. Laing left the city to enjoy a honeymoon of ten days. Upon their return they will reside at 87 Orchard avenue, North Plainfield.

The groom's gift to the bride was a pearl and diamond crown and to the ushers he gave topaz and pearl scarf pins. The bride's gifts to her maid-of-honor and bridesmaids were gold bangles.

K. OF P. HAVE GALA TIME

Local Lodges Unite in Public Demonstration.

NOTABLES PRESENT

Mayor James F. Buckle Presides at Entertainment That Follows Street Parade.

Local members of the order of Knights of Pythias had one of the largest demonstrations in recent years, last night, when Perseverance and Unity Lodges conducted a joint affair in Knights of Columbus Hall. It was an open meeting and beside being attended by Pythians from nearby places, was enjoyed by many men not affiliated with the organizations.

The early part of the evening was devoted to a parade in which Crescent Company, No. 18, Uniformed Rank, took part. It passed through the principal streets and ended at the hall where a large gathering was in waiting. This part of the programme was opened with an address of welcome by Mayor James F. Buckle, who is a member of Unity Lodge. In conclusion he introduced Colonel P. Frank Shanley, of Jersey City, one of the best known Pythians in the State and a past grand chancellor. He gave a typical address in which he told of the aims of the Knights of Pythians and the good that comes from the banding together of the class of men that upholds its principles. Other addresses were given by Past Grand Chancellor John W. Laws, District Deputy David Bowden and Rev. Lawrence Riggs Howard, who had the degrees conferred upon him by Perseverance Lodge.

Musical numbers on the programme were furnished by Chester and William E. Briggs, with mandolin and banjo, accompanied by Irving W. Martin on the piano and Miss Mamie Seals, who gave violin selections with Miss May Ardern as accompanist, the latter afterward giving an individual piano selection.

As an additional feature, the Perseverance minstrels repeated the successful "black-face" entertainment they presented last week, the following young men taking part: Elmer D. Cutting, Bertram C. Firstbrook, Aleck Muir, Thomas M. Muir, Harry Blimm, George Pope, William Tunison, Harry Holmes, Joseph Baker, George B. Cose, Jack Todd, Tony Lusardi, Ira C. Bowers and Edward Clark, the latter acting as accompanist. The songs and jokes were all new and the artists were encored repeatedly.

The affair was in charge of the following committee: From Perseverance, David Bowden, Thomas Osment, Asa D. Pope and Joseph C. Blimm; from Unity, Harry Werner, Jerry VanWinkle and Horace J. Martin. It is the first of a series of entertainments and demonstrations to be given in order to allow those not connected with the lodges to enjoy their social features.

SLOT GAS METERS FOR LOCAL HOUSES

P. S. C. SHIPS CONSIGNMENT OF THEM TO PLAINFIELD.

Employes of the Public Service Corporation has received a consignment of "quarter-in-the-slot" gas meters which have been used in the larger cities for several years. At the present time ten have been placed in local residences and a new consignment of the machines arrived today, all of which are to be put in in a short time.

The meters are of the make that requires a twenty-five cent piece to be dropped in the slot before the gas can flow. A certain quantity is given for the quarter and when the lights begin to get dim it is a warning that more money is wanted. It is cheaper to those who have been using them from the fact that the supply runs out just as the young men visitors come around and the family discovers there is nothing but ten cent pieces or bills in the house.

The meters will not be placed in residences that have been using gas before, being reserved for new connections.

Wood Jury Drawn.

Sheriff Cooper empanelled the jury today noon at Somerville which will decide whether George H. Wood is guilty of the murder of George Williams, the Watchung grocer who was found dead in a sleigh near Warrenville. The case will be called for trial on Monday, May 15.

SWACKHAMER ON LIFE

Acknowledges Its a Big Subject, But Tackles It.

WANTS HIGH IDEALS

Tells How to Win True Success—Scores Saloons and Speaks Up for Mother-in-Laws.

The Men's Club, of Trinity Reformed church, threw its doors open to the women for the first time last night, and to mark the occasion they had Hon. S. S. Swackhamer give an address on "Life." There was a musical programme to fill out the period allotted for entertainment, but the great feature was "Life." Mr. Swackhamer's talk did not follow any one thought or outline, but touched on various every day phases of the subject. He said he hadn't had time to prepare an address befitting the subject, which he acknowledged was pretty big. The attendance at the affair was large.

In the course of his lecture Mr. Swackhamer spoke for the Higher Ideal, condemned the saloon as the greatest evil of society, and said a good word for mothers-in-law.

"Life," said Mr. Swackhamer, "is something real. I agree with the poet Longfellow in 'Life is real, life is earnest,' and 'Dust thou art, to dust returneth was not spoken of the soul.' Life has something important in it, and we can make something of our lives if we will. I myself am the law that governs Life—as it is as I live and act that decides my life.

"How we manage things and think things is the important point. And it is the small things that have the greatest effect on us. Life may be made unhappy and unwholesome by a perverted attitude, a super-sensitiveness, to small things. A thousand and one things may interrupt our festivities and the current of our joys.

"Young men should remember that they never can further their own interests without serving their fellowmen. Success is not to be measured by money, by fame, or by talents. Fortune, fame, and accomplishments all pass. Build for eternity; nothing can be taken beyond the grave but the soul. Unless your life is so spent that it works for your brother's good, you fail, no matter what the world may say of you.

"In my experience there have been two classes of people: those who are willing to give me what is my due, and those who are always striving to hold back and skimp in the payment of every obligation. It is well remembered that as you treat others you will be treated. Treat others right, and you will be treated rightly. Even the mother-in-law, if treated properly, will act in accordance with that law.

"I am not here as a temperance reformer, and I do not want, and do not intend, to make a temperance speech, but I cannot dismiss this subject without touching on the greatest evil in life. The saloon is the most evil curse that has fallen on the home, and we ought to strive with all our might, at all times, to stem its tide. Could I have my way I would place above each saloon this sign: 'Abandon hope all ye who enter here.'

"But when all is said and done, this is a great age, and one that thrills with opportunity. We are living in a great country. You can put your ear to the heart of the Twentieth Century and hear it beat onward. With energies properly conserved and applied, I believe we can live more in one year than past generations did in twenty."

The address was punctuated with the humor and stories characteristic of Mr. Swackhamer's speeches and lectures. He held the interest of his auditors very closely, and delighted applause marked the end of the lecture.

The musical programme included trios by E. P. Wheeler, flute; Vincent Sokol, piano, and George Speir, violin; duets by Dr. J. H. Buchanan and Mr. Sokol, on the piano, and vocal solos by Mrs. Thomas MacDonald.

The committee in charge was made up of W. F. Oliver, F. E. Smith, John Hoffman, P. V. Vroom and C. E. Ball. President F. P. Storr was chairman of the meeting.

Adam Heim Married.

Adam Heim, who is employed at the meat market of Fred Endress, and Miss Kate Maurer, of Raritan, were married last night in the German church, Raritan. There were a number of guests from this city, Somerville and the home of the bride. The couple will spend their honeymoon in Somerset County and upon their return will live at 217 West Fourth street.

TRUST CO.'S STRUCTURE

Copy of Roman Architecture to Grace Park Avenue.

PLANS IN DETAIL

Indiana Limestone — Bronze Doors —Very Little Wood — Imposing Design.

The Plainfield Trust Company has approved the entire set of plans for its new structure to be erected at Park avenue and West Second street, excepting minor details, and it is proposed to begin the work of excavating for the cellar about the middle of May and it is hoped to have the building ready for occupancy by December 1. There are a few details regarding the interior arrangement not yet decided upon, but this will be done within a few days.

The building, which will undoubtedly be one of the handsomest of its kind in the State, will have a frontage of forty-three feet and a depth of eighty-five feet. It will be one story high and strictly modern and fireproof. The architect, G. Kramer Thompson, who supervised the construction of the Manhattan Life Insurance Company and Empire buildings in New York, will have entire charge of this work. He says that there will not be $500 worth of wood in the whole structure.

The materials to be used will include concrete, iron, steel and stone. The building will have the Roman style of architecture with four stone columns, four feet in diameter, in front. The main entrance will be directly in front, a heavy bronze door being used. At the top will appear in a prominent place the name of the company. The exterior of the building will be of Indiana limestone, and this will make an imposing structure. Great attention has been given to making it as near fire-proof as possible, and the idea will be carried out in the roof as well, where an approved composition will be used.

As previously stated the building will be for the exclusive use of the company. There will be a driveway to the building from West Second street, and this will be intended more for the women.

The space allowed inside for the public will have a flooring of interlocking rubber tiling, and the bank fixtures will have trimmings of marble and copper. The vault, the contract for which has not yet been given out, will be a modern one in every respect, having safe deposit accommodations and separate compartments for the women's use. It will be constructed of steel between five and six inches in thickness. As to the interior furnishings no expense will be spared. Every convenience will be provided for, including a handsome banking department for women, a large number of whom are counted among the patrons of the company.

The contracts for the construction work were awarded on the competition basis, there being four local bidders and two from out of town. The general contract was awarded to Thomas H. Prior & Sons, of Trenton, they being the lowest bidders. The contract for the iron work goes to the John A. Roebling Sons' Construction Company, of Trenton, of which State Treasurer F. O. Briggs, of Trenton, is the president. The contract for the heating and plumbing was awarded to George J. Tobin, of this city. It is understood that so far as possible local labor will be employed on the building.

The building committee from The Plainfield Trust Company is composed of Henry A. McGee, chairman; Charles W. McCutchen, Samuel Townsend, Edward H. Ladd, Jr., J. Herbert Case and C. T. Waring, who is a member ex-officio, on account of his position as president of the company.

INSPECTING COURT HOUSE.

Crowds Throng Handsome Structure at Elizabeth.

Beautifully decorated throughout with palms and ferns, the new Union County court house at Elizabeth was thrown open for public inspection yesterday morning, and immense sized crowds continued to look the building over until the doors were closed at night at 10 o'clock.

Rooms have been provided for all the county offices and have been fitted up in first class style. On Saturday afternoon all the officers will vacate the county jail building, which they have occupied during the past two years, and take possession of their new quarters. The building is a model of fine architecture and is made for the most part of granite.

NEW MARKET WINS SCHOOLHOUSE FIGHT

Opposition to $20,000 Scheme May Carry the Matter Into Court.

THE WOMEN VOTED

South Plainfield Leads Futile Battle Against Big Schoolhouse —Hot Old Time at Meeting.

By an overwhelming vote, the proposition to erect a $20,000 school house at New Market, to take the place of the one burned down a year ago, which was bitterly opposed by residents of the South Plainfield section of the township, was carried at the Piscataway school election in New Market yesterday afternoon. The South Plainfielders are bitter over the result of the election.

A proposition to erect a schoolhuse at Kerwin's corner was snowed under. William Jeffery, a real estate promoter of this city, who offered a site for a school there, is also very much displeased over the result. His chief grievance is over the ruling of Chairman William Dayton, who refused to allow discussion, and so prevented a speech in favor of the Kerwin's corner site from Counsellor S. S. Swackhamer, who accompanied Mr. Jeffery to the meeting for to make the argument.

Three propositions on the New Market school question were presented. Besides the $20,000 appropriation, $12,000 and $14,000 ones were offered. The $20,000 school received 108 votes; the $12,000 structure got 40; and the other received 15.

Under the leadership of Peter McDonough, the South Plainfielders came down to vote against the $20,000 structure. They declare the expenditure of such a sum for a school in New Market is gross extravagance. Both the South Plainfield voters and Mr. Jeffery talk of bringing the matter into court. Mr. McDonough's followers contend that the extravagance is so plain and unjustified that the courts will be likely to throw the vote out. Mr. Jeffery holds that Chairman Dayton's refusal to allow discussion is good grounds to bring the election into the Supreme Court on a writ of certiorari.

In addition to the New Market structure, a school at Dewey Park, to cost $2,500 was voted. Little opposition to that project developed.

The election will be notable in the annals of Piscataway as the first one at which women voted. Women to the number of twenty-six took advantage of the law, and cast their ballots on the propositions. They were brought out through the heat of the "campaign of education" waged by the friends and opponents of the $20,000 building.

Bids on the school will be advertised by the Piscataway Board of Education at a special meeting next week. Unless legal action halts proceedings, work on the new structure will be rushed with all possible speed.

EASTER DANCE.

Society Folk at the Prak Club Attraction Last Night.

The Easter dance held at the Park Club, last night, attracted a large number of society folk from the city and borough, including many from out-of-town. The clubhouse was unusually attractive in its decorations of Easter lilies, palms and potted plants, which completely covered the stage.

The entertainment committee of the club, under whose direction the affair was held, left nothing undone in making it a great success and the popular programme of dances was not the least of the many enjoyable features.

SHE WASN'T SUBPOENAED.

Witness in Police Court Who Wanted All Formalities.

For calling Mrs. Mary Oehler, a neighbor, some unprintable and ungentlemanly names, Michael McCartney, of West Third street, was sentenced to jail for sixty days by Judge Runyon in the city court this morning. Mrs. Oehler brought Mrs. Webley, another neighbor, into court with her as a witness, but Mrs. Webley refused to stand up and tell what she knew.

"I haven't been properly subpoenaed," she announced, "and I wont testify."

"Well then shut up and get 'out,'" promptly replied the magistrate.

She shut and got.

POINTS FOR THE BUYERS

I. N. Wyckoff, the painter and paper-hanger, is now making contracts for work. Let him estimate for you.

Thorp's foot relief is a standard remedy which should be found in every household. It affords instant relief.

For first-class manicuring consult Miss G. Norman and Mrs. E. B. Hannigan, at their parlors, 149 East Fifth street.

Have no fear of the quality of the coal you order from L. A. Rheaume. It will be the best to be obtained at any yard in the country.

He knows how to truck, does Henry J. Wierenga, North avenue. That is why the most important jobs in the city are entrusted to him.

There is no difficulty whatever in telling a Woolston & Buckle job from other painting. It is done so well as to be noticeable. North avenue.

Harper, the Park avenue stationer, makes a specialty of all the leading magazines and periodicals. Leave your order at the store and they will be delivered.

No one that you have ever heard of in the baker business serves better bread or cake or pies, or dainty bits of confection, than W. W. Warnock, West Front street.

S. Hirsch's tailoring establishment on Watchung avenue, is visited daily by scores of Plainfield women making selections for their spring gowns. Hirsch has all the up-to-date styles.

Whether you want your goods moved in the city or to the farthest corner of the country, William Hand & Sons, of East Second street, can do the work to your entire satisfaction.

Don't fret if company comes to lunch unexpectedly. Telephone R. W. Barnes and he will deliver some of those prepared meats, cheeses and ham and tongues for which his store is famous.

Fine china sets off a table more than silver or flowers or linen. Put one of the dainty sets to be found at J. W. Gavett's store, West Front street, on your board, and the poorest sort of a meal will look princely through sheer force of surroundings.

A. M. Griffen, the East Front street hardware dealer, carries a full line of housefurnishing goods and cooking utensils. A feature of the stock is an imported mould appropriate for luncheons. The general stock of hardware is very large and desirable. You will find the plumbing and tinning department one of the best in the city.

Don't wait too long for your new spring suit, young man. The man who does things in good time gets the pick of the styles when he goes after a new suit; that is, by choosing early in the season. Go to Harry Werner's store, West Front street, now, and pick one of the right-priced, newest cut suits. Then go out into the world and make your mark; you will have an appearance that will help you.

A big store filled with things that you need is that of Woodhull & Martin and once you trade there you will always do so. A glance through the firm's advertisements gives you a little idea of the numerous bargains offered daily. While there are many things for the women, the men have not been forgotten and furnishings in a wide variety are always in stock. The special sale of go-carts and pillows is still on today.

As the sun drives off the clouds so does a phonograph bid dull care depart. As an entertainer it has no equal, especially since the new modes have come into use. Harry K. Lister, of North avenue, has them at all prices. By consulting Elston M. French & Co., before buying your home, you may save money. They have a large list of desirable properties to suit the pocketbooks of mechanics, merchants or millionaires. They also handle the best lines of fire insurance.

—Charles P Sebring, owner of the vacant property on West Front street, adjoining the Babcock building, has had the board fence set back to the building line, thus giving pedestrians considerable more room on the sidewalk at that point.

—Chaplain Monro, of the Tombs Prison, who will address the Y. M. C. A. meeting on Sunday afternoon, spoke for four consecutive Sundays in March for the Y. M. C. A. at New Brunswick. "Leaves From the Diary of a Prison Chaplain" will be the subject.

—The Somerset County Board of Agriculture will meet at the Court House, Somerville, on Saturday afternoon.

—The New Jersey Central is preparing to locate a switch tower at Westfield. It will be located west of the station.

—The North Plainfield Alumni Association will meet at the borough High School Monday night for the purpose of electing officers and making arrangements for the reception to be given this year's graduating class.

—Practice for "The Rivals," which is to be the production given by the Senior class of the Plainfield High School this year, began yesterday in the Casino, where the play will be given, and will continue there from now on.

—Among the important things to be considered at the May meeting of the Common Council Monday night will be the final adoption of the tax ordinance and the additional issue of $65,000 worth of school bonds to meet the expense of erecting Plainfield's new high school at Arlington avenue and West Eighth street. The original issue of bonds was for $60,000, which provided for the expense of purchasing the property upon which to erect the school and to start the work of construction. The next issue of bonds will provide for the completion of the work and it is the intention of the finance committee to take the steps at this time to take up the money.

ABSOLUTELY FALSE

Acting Secretary of State Loomis Denies Fraud.

EXPLAINS THE ASPHALT PAYMENT

States That He Never Received, Directly or Indirectly, Money or Property From New York-Bermudez Company.

WASHINGTON, April 28.—Absolute denial of certain charges affecting his official integrity while minister at Caracas were made by Mr. Loomis, the acting secretary of state, in a statement given out by him at his residence last night. The statement briefly but emphatically denies in detail and in totality each and every charge.

The issuance of this statement was not unexpected, as the acting secretary has had several conferences in the past few days with Secretary Taft, and, although until now he has refused to comment in any way on the charges and has appeared not to be at all annoyed by their publication, it was intimated that a statement would be made soon on the subject. The issuance of the statement is due entirely to the wide publicity which the charges have received, and it is the opinion of government officials that it was due the public as well as Mr. Loomis that he publicly and officially take note of them. This he has done in the following statement:

"In view of certain charges affecting my official character published in the New York Herald and otherwise widely circulated I think it proper to make the following statement:

"Those charges were in substance, first, that while acting in my official capacity as United States minister to Venezuela I obtained considerable pecuniary benefits from the New York and Bermudez Asphalt company and that a check showing the payment of $10,000 to me by that company is now in the possession of President Castro.

"This charge is an absolute falsehood. I never asked nor received, directly or indirectly, in any manner or form, any money or property or other thing of value or any promise or suggestion thereof from the New York Bermudez company or from any one acting in its interest or behalf.

"Americans who have lived in Caracas know that rates of exchange between the United States and Venezuela are high there owing to unsettled conditions in Venezuela and that at times it is impossible to purchase New York exchange at Caracas. On my final departure from Venezuela as minister I had money in a bank in Caracas. I wished to convert my Venezuelan money into United States money, and I exchanged checks at the posted United States government rates with the manager of the New York and Bermudez company at Caracas.

"The second charge made is that while minister to Venezuela I purchased a claim of 20,000 bolivars ($4,000) against the Venezuelan government and then used my influence as minister to collect the full amount from the government. I never purchased or owned or had any interest in any claim against the Venezuelan government, and I never prosecuted in any manner or form any claim against that government except in obedience to instructions from the secretary of state after submitting a full report of the case to him.

"The third charge is that I agreed with Mr. Meyers to use my influence to adjust an obligation to the amount of $10,000,000 for a consideration of one-seventh of that sum, or nominally $1,400,000.

"I never agreed or promised or suggested, directly or indirectly, in any manner whatever that I would use my influence to adjust any obligation against the Venezuelan government. The charge is absolutely false."

Parents Killed Their Child.

RICHMOND, Va., April 28.—The coroner's jury in the case of the six-year-old child, Ralph Smith, who was found dead in his mother's room in their home in Manchester, have brought in a verdict to the effect that the boy died of beating and charging the mother with the killing of the child and the father with being accessory to the murder. The mother is imprisoned in the city jail at Manchester. The father's whereabouts are unknown.

Philadelphia Sailor Found Dead.

NEW YORK, April 28.—James H. Darbey, thought to be from Philadelphia, was found dead in the lavatory of a hotel in Brooklyn near the Brooklyn bridge. The body was removed to the morgue, where in a coat pocket was found a discharge from the navy, dated April 9, bearing the name James H. Darbey, 161 West Twenty-first street, Philadelphia. On the body was also found a naval medal of honor.

Raymond's Estate $1,500,000.

STAMFORD, Conn., April 28.—More than a million and a half dollars is the value of the estate of the late James Irving Raymond, president of the A. A. Vantine company of New York, who died a few days ago, according to the petition for probating his will.

A PRINCELY GIFT.

Andrew Carnegie Gives Ten Millions For Pensions.

FOR BENEFIT OF AGED TEACHERS.

Generous Gift of Ironmaster Will Be Great Help to Those Who Have Been Unable to Save From Small Salaries.

NEW YORK, April 28.—After Andrew Carnegie had sailed for Europe on the steamship Baltic an announcement was made of his latest philanthropic action. The amount of the gift is $10,000,000 in first mortgage 5 per cent bonds of the United States Steel corporation, which will be used to establish a pension fund for college professors.

Mr. Carnegie's letter to Frank A. Vanderlip, vice president of the National City bank, says:

"I propose handing over $10,000,000 in 5 per cent bonds to a commission, as I did to the research commission in Washington and to the commission for Scotch universities, the revenue to provide retiring pensions for the teaching staffs of universities, colleges and technical schools under such conditions as the trustees may from time to time adopt. I am able now to say expert calculation proves that the revenue will be sufficient for the purpose.

"I hope you will do me the favor to act as one of the first trustees, who will be, with few exceptions, the presidents of educational institutions. A prompt reply by wire or mail will greatly oblige."

The income from the fund will be disbursed by trustees, all of whom will be college executive officers, with the exception of Frank A. Vanderlip, vice president of the National City bank of this city: T. Morris Carnegie, a nephew of the donor of the fund, and R. A. Franks, the donor's financial secretary, who is the president of the Hudson Trust company of Hoboken.

A Chicago dispatch says:

"President W. R. Harper of the University of Chicago said of the gift:

"'This is one of the most significant steps in the interests of higher education in the last twenty-five years. It will give the college professors a position of dignity greater than ever before. No class of men more richly deserve appreciation of this kind than the professors.'"

An Appleton (Wis.) dispatch says: "Dr. Samuel Plantz, president of Lawrence university, interviewed here, said:

"'The gift of Mr. Carnegie will be a great help to those temporarily disabled who have not been able to save money to meet emergencies and will relieve many men in old age whose lives have been a financial sacrifice to the cause of learning. Many professors in western and southern colleges receive from $1,000 to $1,200 a year and cannot possibly save against a day of adversity.'"

Speaking of the Carnegie donation, Principal Peterson of McGill university, at Montreal, who is the only Canadian college president among the trustees, said:

"Mr. Carnegie deserves praise for the step he has taken. It is a most unselfish one. I remember in the old days in Edinburgh the municipal authorities were on the verge of handing back the funds for a library owing to the manner in which Mr. Carnegie had spoken of the queen. But any feeling on that score has now disappeared."

Grant's Natal Day Celebrated.

BOSTON, April 28.—The Middlesex club celebrated the anniversary of the birth of General Ulysses S. Grant with a dinner at the Hotel Brunswick last night. Special guests and speakers were Justice John Franklin Fort of the supreme court of New Jersey, George C. Gorham, who was secretary of the United States senate from 1868 to 1879; Congressman Samuel L. Powers of Massachusetts and Dr. P. S. Henson, pastor of Tremont temple.

Mrs. Harrison at the Vatican.

ROME, April 28.—Pope Pius X. has received in private audience seventy-five Americans, each of whom was presented to his holiness by Mgr. W. G. Murphy, vice rector of the American college at Rome. Among the Americans were Mrs. Benjamin Harrison of Indianapolis, Henry Clay Evans, former American consul general at London, and Miss Evans and Mrs. A. R. Mitchell and family of Cincinnati.

Ambassador Leaves For London.

WASHINGTON, April 28.—Sir Mortimer Durand, the British ambassador, left Washington today for New York, whence he sails on the Etruria tomorrow for England. He expects to be in London only about ten days, returning thence to Washington. The ambassador will be received by the king and will have several conferences with Lord Lansdowne, the minister for foreign affairs.

Funeral of Ten Miners.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., April 28.—Funeral services were held in the various churches of this city today over the remains of the ten miners who were killed in the Conyngham shaft. All the mines operated by the Delaware and Hudson Coal company in this vicinity were closed in order that the miners could attend.

Secretary Hay Recovering.

BERLIN, April 28.—A private dispatch from Bad Nauheim says that the condition of Secretary of State Hay is very good. Mr. Hay during the day took his second thermal bath and drove out after lunch.

Weather Probabilities.

MISS JOHNSTONE'S SUPURB PERFORMANCE

SHE AND MISS COMMONS ATTRACTIONS AT THE Y. M. C. A.

The second entertainment for the benefit of the Y. M. C. A. baseball nine was held last night at the association hall. The entertainers were Miss Clara Commons, dramatic reader, and Miss Dorothy Johnstone, harpist. The attendance was large.

Miss Commons delighted her audience with readings from "Merely Mary Ann." Miss Johnstone's selections were admirably rendered, and her hearers testified to their pleasure by frequent applause.

Fred Armstrong, the Y. M. C. A. baseball magnate, watched the sinews of war at the box office. Arthur Humble, sub-magnate, umpired. Bert Leggett, Clarence Hand and Harry Woodland, self-sacrificing fans, ushered the beauty and chivalry to their seats.

May 9 is the date of the next entertainment. The programme will include W. Paulding De Nike, 'cellcist; Walter Davids, impersonator; and Miss Etta Raybert, singer. Mr. Davids is the entertainer who scored such a hit at the recent rally of men's clubs at the Congregational church.

STREET SPRINKLING.

Believe That More Carts Are Needed.

Thus far the street committee has only three sprinkling carts in operation in the city and these are kept most of the time in the business section. The Public Service Corporation, contrary to the provisions of the ordinance, began to sprinkle along its tracks early in the week and this act has been highly commended.

In the opinion of many the street sprinkling is needed as much now as at any time during the season, and they know that three carts cannot give satisfactory service. It is possible that something may be said regarding the matter at the May meeting of the Common Council on Monday night.

Mrs. Thornton Gets Divorce.

In the suit for divorce brought by Mrs. Julia H. Thornton, of this city, against her husband, Edward W. Thornton, final decree has been entered in favor of Mrs. Thornton, granting her an absolute divorce and directing her husband to pay the costs of suit and permanent alimony. Mrs. Thornton was formerly Miss Julia Allen.

James Fields, formerly of this city, but now of Somerville, has been visiting friends here.

DAABSTERS READY TO WALLOP CHATHAM

PLAINFIELD TO STRIVE FOR THIRD VICTORY TOMORROW.

A great game of baseball is promised the fans tomorrow on Crescent Oval when the Plainfield team will meet the Morristown-Chatham A. C., combination, one of the strongest nines in the state. This club is a member of the new-organized Lackawanna League and is looked upon as a winner of the pennant this year. The fans have cause to remember them for their performance last year when they defeated the locals by a score of 7 to 0. The team was a complete surprise, for no one had an idea that it would win here. Manager Konkle promises his strongest line-up for tomorrow's contest and says that he expects to win.

Manager Daab knowing the strength of his opponents, will take no chances and he has given his team instructions that the best ball must be played. He will present his same line-up as last week, but has not decided as yet who will pitch. The chances are that Linderman will do the twirling.

The team is playing now in midsummer form, and a glance at its record so far shows that it would be almost impossible for the players to put up a much better article. In the two games they have scored seventeen runs and made but three errors, showing that at the bat as well as in the field they are very fast. With a warm day the oval will be crowded with fandom for every one is assured of a first-class exhibition of ball. The game will be called at 3:30 o'clock sharp.

This will be the lineup of the teams:

Plainfield—Cosgrove, cf; Oldring, 2b; Kiernan, ss; Leonard, 3b; Driscoll, 1b; Cregan, lf; Connolly, rf; Lamar, c; Linderman or Beisel, p.

Morristown-Chatham A. C.—Harrison, cf; Curley, 2b; Monahan, ss; Lippencott, 3b; Adams, 1b; Pollard, lf; Paige, rf; Westlake, c; Speer or Connett, p; Armstrong, extra.

PERSONAL.

Miss Edna Thompson, of East Second street, has been entertaining Miss Ruth Yawger, of Somerville.

Mrs. J. V. D. TenEyck and Miss Ruth Hart, of North Branch, have returned after a visit with Mrs. L. D. Holmes, of North Plainfield.

Miss Ethel Barnes, daughter, of Mrs. Nellie A. Barnes, of Somerset, was taken to Muhlenberg hospital, this morning, to undergo treatmens for typhoid fever.

Jackson A. C. Defeated.

The Chatham A. C. beat the Jackson A. C. this morning by the score of 21 to 0 on the latter's grounds. The winner's lineup: Blatz, p; Rutledge, c; Snell, 1b; Mobus, 2b, Haberley, ss; Cooney, 3b; Acker, lf; Mayer and Hartfelder, cf; VanBurek, rf.

SUBURBAN NEWS.

DUNELLEN AND VICINITY.

Alleging that she has been guilty of improper conduct with two men, Thomas E. Jones, a Lehigh Valley railroad engineer, who formerly lived near the village and is well known there, has sued his wife, Sophie M. Jones, of Perth Amboy, for absolute divorce. Mrs. Jones has filed her answer to the suit in the Court of Chancery, and in it she not only denies every charge of wrongdoing but files a cross bill charging that Jones has deserted her after inflicting great ill treatment. Mrs. Jones denies any wrongdoing whatever with Thomas F. Lehman and Bernard Chia, of Perth Amboy, as charged by her husband, and asserts that always since her marriage she has been faithful to her obligations as a wife. In her cross bill she claims that while living at No. 91 Fayette street, Perth Amboy, May 5, 1904, her hubsand deserted her, taking his clothes and other belongings and going to the Hotel Central to live. Mrs. Jones says he refused to take her with him or provide any other place for her to reside; also that he informed the boarding mistress there, that he would not longer be responsible for her board and lodging. Mrs. Jones says that for a long time previous to May 5 she was the victim of the most cruel treatment at the hands of her husband; that he spent his time and money in the society of other women and barely provided her with the necessities of life. She alleges that as the result of his cruel and inhuman treatments she is now a physical and almost a mental wreck. Mrs. Jones claims her husband makes upwards of $100 per month. She asked the court to decree that she be paid enough to reasonably support her and also a sum for counsel fee.

It is expected that the Baptist church, renovated and remodelled, will be ready for a resumption of services within two weeks. The work in the interior has been completed with the exception of the papering. This will be completed by next Monday or Tuesday, according to the programme. The edifice has been wired for electric lighting.

A petition is being circulated widely among the property owners for the changing of the grade at Washington and Dunellen avenues, in order to obviate the pools and standing water that now result there from every heavy rainfall. The petition will be submitted to the Council at its meeting Monday night.

William McMahon, who was painfully hurt by being crushed between a turntable handle and his engine in the Jersey City railroad yards on Tuesday, is recovering in St. Francis' Hospital, Jersey City. He is not so badly injured as was first reported, and will not come from the institution crippled.

Mrs. Charles Wynuskey and her daughter visited Mr. Wynuskey in the Newark Hospital yesterday. They were assured that there was no further danger that amputation of either his arm or his leg would be necessary. He is resting as comfortably as can be expected.

The piping for the proposed gas mains have been distributed along the gutters. The promptness with which the distribusion was done indicates that the corporation intends to push the work through without loss of time.

Shorty Alberts and Arthur Vail will spend tonight fishing in Greenbrook. They have stored a big can of worms away for the occasion. Eels are running well and they expect to land a big mess of them.

There are a surprisingly large number of houses in the borough that were built with gas piping connections year ago, in anticipation of the improvement that is now within reach.

The young society people of the borough enjoyed a dance at Apgar's hall last night. The affair was select, and passed off delightfully. Refreshments were served at midnight.

J. W. Gifford, who purchased the mortgaged Smith automobile, is the receiver for the town of Lincoln. He will use the machine in going to and from Newark to Lincoln.

Mr. and Mrs. Terence Quinn, who were married in St. Joseph's church, North Plainfield, Tuesday afternoon, will live in one of the Rogers houses in the village.

S. B. Opdyke, Jr., formerly manager of the L. & G. plant, has again taken up his residence in the borough after a winter's stay in New York.

The dance arranged by Frank Broshart and David Kuldoshes will be held next Wednesday night. Invitations to the affair have been issued.

William Brokaw spent part of yesterday fishing.

'PLAINS AND FANWOOD.

The game at Crescent Oval tomorrow afternoon will be a hard fought contest, as the 'Chathams defeated last year's P. A. C. team by the score of 7 to 0. Manager Daab's team will endeavor to reverse this score in tomorrow's game.

Twilight Council, Jr. O. U. A. M., held a well attended meeting last night. During the good of the order cigars and phonographic selections were enjoyed.

The regular weekly study meeting of the Bible study class will be held tonight in the class rooms of the Methodist church.

Now that the baseball season is in full swing the weekly shoot of the Brookside Gun Club has been discontinued until fall.

The adjourned case of Snyder against Moffett in Justice Clark's court, will be called at 10 o'clock tomorrow.

The weekly prayer and praise service at the Baptist church tonight will be in charge of Rev. Moore-Smith.

Mrs. Clinton Spencer and child, of Brooklyn, have been spending several days with Mr. and Mrs. Lynus Walpole.

Miss Carroll, of Jersey City, has been spending a few days with Miss Minnie Hosinger.

Miss Marion Clark, who has been dangerously ill with pneumonia, is improving now.

The 'Plains and Suburban bowling teams roll a match game tonight on Lee's alleys.

The Town Committee meets tonight in the Library rooms.

SOUTH PLAINFIELD.

At the township school meeting yesterday afternoon at New Market, voters from this district were quite surprised to find women voters being brought in without previous announcement that this element would be accepted. While such an act was legal, it was not expected, because it has not been customary and had not been announced.

At last the old sign on the corner of Plainfield avenue, pointing the traveller to New Brooklyn so many years, has fallen.

Samuel Pyatt, whose foot was injured about two weeks ago by a sprain, is able to be out on crutches.

The Patriotic Order of America will hold their regular meeting tonight in Washington Hall.

Notwithstanding the late cold weather the cherry blossoms indicate a large crop.

REAL ESTATE ITEMS.

B. J. Shreve is improving the appearance of the property, No. 87 Duer street, occupied by J. O Martin and family, by the erection of a veranda across the entire front of the house.

OUTING CURTAILED.

President Roosevelt to Break Camp May 8.

VENEZUELAN SITUATION THE CAUSE

State Department Will Make Demand on Castro, and Note Will Receive Personal Attention From the President.

WASHINGTON, April 28.—A special dispatch from Glenwood Springs says that President Roosevelt will break camp on May 8, a week earlier than he had intended, and will start for Washington on that day. The only stops they will make will be at Denver and Chicago, where the dates for his reception have been advanced to meet the new arrangement.

The party will leave Glenwood Springs at about 4 o'clock on May 8, reaching Denver the same evening. After the banquet there the party will spend the night on the train, which will leave Denver over the Union Pacific at about 7 a. m. on May 9. There are few important places to be passed through on that road until Omaha is reached.

There is much speculation as to the president's reasons for advancing the time of his departure from Colorado. Secretary Loeb announces that there is no pressing business that requires the president's attention, but there are a number of things coming up about the middle of the month in which he is greatly interested.

The president has taken a keen delight in his outing and has been successful. He will have Secretary Loeb with him a few days next week and perhaps for a day in the present camp before the West Divide creek country is left behind.

The guides have taken a great fancy to the secretary and have promised him a bear if he will come out and stay a few days. The first time he rode to the camp he had a horse with a bobbed tail, and the guide told him confidentially after they had covered several miles at a rapid clip that the horse was the one they always gave to dudes, and he added admiringly, "But no dude could ride like you."

Of the six bears killed by the hunters thus far the president has brought down three and Dr. Alexander Lambert the other three. All the hides will be mounted as rugs.

It has been determined that the president and his hunting party will attend church services next Sunday in the Little Blue Schoolhouse, three miles from camp.

Secretary Loeb has returned from camp, where he conferred with the president. He announced upon reaching Glenwood Springs that affairs in Washington made it necessary that the president curtail his visit.

That there is nothing alarming in the situation is manifested from the fact that the hunt will be continued ten days more in spite of conditions of governmental affairs which resulted in the altered plans. The Venezuelan situation, it is believed here, resulted in the order to return home on May 8.

Secretary Taft, when made aware of the president's plans to leave Colorado and return home at an earlier date than had been planned, showed no surprise, for it was known to him before the president left Washington that he was very doubtful of his ability to carry out his wish to remain in the hunting country until the middle of May. The president told Secretary Taft that he feared he could not remain longer than May 8 and he consequently had formed an alternative programme based on that belief.

There is no pressing emergency here requiring the immediate presence of the president. All of the facts relative to the Venezuelan situation have been disclosed to the public, and in the opinion of the officials here they do not justify any apprehension of a rupture in the immediate future. President Castro is making a tour of the interior of Venezuela in places inaccessible to the telegraph, and no instructions have been sent to Minister Bowen to make a further presentment to the Venezuelan foreign office which would cause a crisis.

It is admitted that as far as Venezuela is concerned the issue merely has been postponed. The state department by no means has abandoned its demand for a reference of the asphalt case to arbitration, and the form in which the next note must be couched is regarded as of sufficient importance to warrant the personal attention of the president.

Noted Deputy Sheriff Dead.

UXBRIDGE, Mass., April 28.—Deputy Sheriff E. O. Bacon, the oldest deputy in point of service, died suddenly at his home at 3:30 o'clock yesterday of heart failure, aged seventy-two years, five months and twenty-three days. He had been a deputy thirty-six years and was called the most fearless man in the county. He arrested and convicted several noted criminals in his day, and his life was several times attempted.

A Gift With a Condition.

ITHACA, N. Y., April 28.—The Central University library has received a large chest of letters and correspondence of the late Bayard Taylor as a gift from his widow, Mrs. Bayard Taylor of Wilmington, Del. The only condition of the gift is that nothing be published during Mrs. Taylor's lifetime.

Gone to Meet the Shah.

TIFLIS, April 28.—M. Kochanovski, the Russian commissioner for frontier relations with Persia, has gone to Russian Astara, on the Persian frontier, to meet the shah of Persia and accompany him to Russia.

Beautiful Women

realize that luxuriant hair of rich, youthful color always adds to their charms. The hair may be golden, black or brown, but when it becomes gray or faded there is an appearance of age, though she may feel as young as ever. Under these circumstances gray hair is a drawback to men and women.

Hay's HAIRHEALTH Keeps You Looking Young.

Always brings back the color and beauty of youth to gray or faded hair. Positively removes dandruff, kills the germ and stops hair falling. Does not soil skin or linen. Aided by HARFINA SOAP it soothes and heals the scalp, stops itching and promotes fine hair growth. Large 50c. bottles. Take nothing without Philo Hay Co. signature.

Free Soap Offer Good for 25c. Cake HARFINA SOAP.

PAGET HORSES WON.

Mud Runners In Great Demand at Jamaica.

NEW YORK, April 28.—Mud horses were in demand at Jamaica, as the rain made the track very heavy. Horses from the stable of Sidney Paget won three races—Deuxtempts in the first, Czaraphine in the fourth and Phidias in the last. Jockey Hildebrand rode three winners. Czaraphine, the 13 to 20 favorite, scored an easy victory in the Columbus Selling stakes. She went to the front in the first quarter and won by four lengths. Deuxtemps, winner of the first race, was bid up to $2,000, at which figure W. S. Price secured him. Summaries:

First Race.—Deuxtemps, first; Bantam, second; Tarlac, third.

Second Race.—Burleigh, first; Toscan, second; New York, third.

Third Race. — Bohemia, first; Teacress, second; Belle Strome, third.

Fourth Race.—Czaraphine, first; Escutcheon, second; Gold Fleur, third.

Fifth Race.—Lord Badge, first; King Pepper, second; Arsenal, third.

Sixth Race.—Phidias, first; Veronese, second; Sidney F., third.

Dead Heat at Nashville.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., April 28.—Sport of high order was furnished at Cumberland park. Close and exciting finishes were the rule, and in the fifth race Yo San and Icewater made it a dead heat after a fine struggle. In the Avondale stakes for two-year-olds at five furlongs Charley Eastman stood a fierce drive long enough to win from Romola, which had had a rough journey and was coming fast.

Two Long Shots at Elmridge.

KANSAS CITY, April 28.—Two long shots won at Elmridge, Harpoon, at 20 to 1, winning the fourth race from Leader, a heavily backed favorite, and Kahoka, at 15 to 1, winning the last race from an ordinary field. The second race, carded as a steeplechase, was a hurdle, which Creolin won by a margin of fifty lengths.

Not a Favorite Won.

ST. LOUIS, April 28.—The card at the American Jockey club's track held six events, all selling races. Bassanic was cut down in the back stretch in the first race, but was not seriously injured. Not a favorite won.

Rainland at St. Louis.

ST. LOUIS, April 28.—Rainland, at 7 to 5, easily won the feature of the fair grounds card from Matador, favorite. W. H. Snyder did the starting in place of A. B. Dade, who is ill.

Joseph Jefferson's Funeral.

BUZZARDS BAY, Mass., April 28.—The funeral of Joseph Jefferson will be held at 11 o'clock Sunday morning at "Crow's Nest." The body will be brought here from Boston tomorrow night. Following the services at the summer home the body will be taken to Bay View cemetery in Sandwich for interment. Mrs. Joseph Jefferson and party have reached here from Boston.

Monument to Filipino Patriot.

WASHINGTON, April 28.—The bureau of insular affairs of the war department has announced that the Rizal monument committee of the Philippine Islands, by authority of an act of the Philippine commission, invites competitive designs for a monument to the Filipino patriot, writer and poet, Jose Rizal, to be erected in the city of Manila.

Ask New Trial For Mrs. Rogers.

MONTPELIER, Vt., April 28.—The first step in the move to obtain a new trial for Mrs. Mary M. Rogers of Bennington, whose reprieve from a sentence of death for the murder of her husband, Marcus M. Rogers, will expire on June 2, will be taken today before Judge R. W. Rowell and Loveland Munson of the supreme court.

Fatal Trolley Smash at Newark.

NEWARK, N. J., April 28.—John Conklin, seventeen years old, was killed and Albert Hunkels and Joseph Sullivan were badly injured last night in a collision of a wagon they were driving and an electric car. The motorman and conductor of the car were arrested and held on the charge of manslaughter.

NAN PATTERSON'S TRIAL.

Session Was Rather In Favor of Accused Girl.

NEW YORK, April 28.—While there were no features as sensational as when Hyman Stern, the pawnbroker, failed to identify J. Morgan Smith as the man to whom he sold the revolver which killed Caesar Young, the trial of Nan Patterson, charged with the shooting, was fully as interesting in the many points brought out.

Mrs. Margaret Young, widow of Caesar Young, was on the stand, and as she testified her eyes would fill with tears. Nan Patterson dropped her eyes when she saw the widow and did not raise them again until recess. Josiah D. Millin, Young's partner, was another witness and told of the relations between Young and Nan Patterson.

The prosecution endeavored to introduce in evidence a letter purporting to show that Miss Patterson had other admirers at the time she professed to be devoted to Young. This letter, however, was not admitted as evidence. The letter that Mrs. J. Morgan Smith, sister of the defendant, wrote to Caesar Young, in which she said Miss Patterson was "frantic" and which was admitted at the previous trial, was also ruled out. As Recorder Goff gave his decision on this point the accused girl smiled. This ruling was considered a strong point for the defense, as the conspiracy charge against the Smiths was based on the letter.

WANTS EQUITABLE RECEIVER.

Hyde and Other Directors Accused of Fraud.

BALTIMORE, April 28.—M. J. Fitzsimmons states in a bill of complaint against the Equitable that he holds three policies in the society, aggregating $50,000.

He charges that J. W. Alexander, president of the company, and James H. Hyde are engaged in a controversy over the management of the company which is growing in intensity and which is proving detrimental to it and will ultimately be destructive to its business unless stopped.

The wrangle over the company's affairs, it is alleged, places its assets in danger of being dissipated and squandered, and a receiver is stated to be absolutely necessary in order to protect the interests of the policy holders.

Mr. Hyde and other directors of the company are declared to have fraudulently used and converted to their own use and benefit money and other assets, the property of the company, and by their manipulations have made large profits, which they have put in their own pockets. The bill concludes with the formal application for the appointment of the receiver. No charge that the company is insolvent is made.

Lesson For American Farmers.

WASHINGTON, April 28.—Secretary Wilson of the department of agriculture sees a valuable lesson for American farmers in the methods employed in Africa to make crops. "I have just received a report from T. H. Kearney of the bureau of plant industry," he said, "which shows that abundant crops of olives are produced on the coast of southern Tunisia, Africa, without irrigation and where the annual rainfall is only six inches by planting the trees eighty feet apart, cultivating all of the soil and allowing no other crop to absorb the moisture."

CHICAGO STRIKE.

Record Labor Upheaval Foreshadowed In the Windy City.

CHICAGO, April 28. — With 1,330 teamsters on strike last night, with constant accessions to their number and with the express determination of the Employers' association to take a firm stand for the open shop and to fight the Teamsters' union to the bitter end, Chicago to all appearances stands on the eve of one of the greatest industrial upheavals in her history.

There was rioting in various parts of the city despite the strong guards of policemen and the number of private detectives hired by the Employers' association to protect their wagons. During the clashes three persons were seriously injured, two of whom will probably die. The injured are:

Richard Cumming, police sergeant, run over by an omnibus driven by John Ceresa, a union driver. Cummings will probably die.

Samuel Jackson, colored teamster, employed by the J. V. Farwell company, attacked by a mob of 200. He was beaten and his head cut with a shovel.

Mark Moran, district messenger boy, struck on the head with a board thrown at a nonunion teamster. His condition is critical.

The declaration made by members of the Employers' association that they would promptly discharge any teamster who refused to haul goods to or from Montgomery Ward & Co. brought out many teamsters in downtown mercantile houses, and the number, it is expected, will be increased largely today.

The spread of the strike began at the wholesale and the retail establishments of Marshall Field & Co. and of Carson, Pirie, Scott & Co., when drivers who refused to deliver goods to Montgomery Ward & Co. were discharged. All of the union men quit, and both firms were crippled during the day. The strike order calling out express drivers went into effect shortly before noon. The first place visited by the business agents was the barn of the American Express company, at Segor and Clinton streets, where 300 men quit at once. In rapid succession visits were made to the barns of the Pacific, the National, the Adams and the Wells-Fargo Express companies, and all of their union men quit at once. The drivers of the United States Express company walked out of their own accord.

Girls Found Man Hanging to Tree.

NYACK, N. Y., April 28. — Several schoolgirls of Pearl River, Rockland county, while hunting in the woods for wild flowers came across the body of a man hanging to a tree. They ran back to the village and told of their find. The dead man proved to be John Hendrickson, a machinist, who had been missing from home since Sunday. No cause is known for the suicide.

SPORTING NEWS

DIAMOND DUST.

Chatham is a good drawing card here and if the weather is favorable the oval should be crowded with fans to see Saturday's contest. With red hot baseball weather the attendance will take a big jump.

Manager Konkle, of the Morristown-Chatham A. C., assures Manager Daab that he will present his strongest line-up in Saturday's game on Crescent Oval, and he hopes to repeat the performance of last season when the locals were defeated by a score of 7 to 0. The Morris County boys will be accompanied by a large crowd of rooters. The locals will present the same lineup and they believe that their third victory will be recorded.

A large delegation of members of Martha Washington Council, No. 28, Daughters of America, will visit Golden Rod Council, of New Brunswick, next Thursday evening, leaving the North avenue terminus at 7 o'clock.

—Neuman Brothers will have tomorrow the largest fresh vegetable display in weeks. It will include fancy Jersey asparagus, green peas, green and wax beans, squashes, beets, spinach, egg plant, tomatoes, cucumbers, Boston lettuce, celery, beet greens and rhubarb.

James R. Blair, of Duer street, has returned from a week's stay at Belmar.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Knight, of Summit avenue, will leave this week for Oak Tree, where they will occupy the Norris farm for the summer.

Justice's Condition Serius.

Justice Moffett, who is suffering from blood-poisoning as the result of the use of a patent corn plaster, as told exclusively in yesterday's Daily Press, is in a more serious condition today. The gangrene is spreading to a third toe and amputation of the limb seems to be the only recourse if his life is to be saved. One of the Justice's friends said this morning that the doctors were strengthening Mr. Moffett to stand the ordeal under the knife.

Y. M. C. A. Boys Back.

The seventeen boys who joined the Y. M. C. A. excursion to Washington, under the guidance of Boys' Secretary Kenneth Robbie, on Monday, returned home last night. In Washington they met Secretary of War Taft and other notabilities.

ON WAY FROM WEDDING WOMAN IS BADLY HURT

COLLIDING WITH TROLLEY, OCCUPANTS OF CARRIAGE ARE INJURED.

On her way to a wedding reception, Mrs. William Douglas, of East Third street, was hurt in a smashup between a main line trolley car and the carriage in which she rode, at Richmond and East Third streets, shortly before 9 o'clock last night. The carriage belonged to Max Newman, a hackman. It was badly damaged.

Mrs. Douglas, with her husband and daughter, Miss Lulu, were at the wedding of Charles Williams and Miss Arabella Campbell, which took place at the mission of Grace P. E. church. They took the carriage to go to the reception at the home of Williams, 624 East Third street. Mrs. Douglas and her daughter rode inside and Douglas sat with Newman on the driver's seat. Just as the carriage was clearing the tracks at Richmond street, going east, the car, in charge of Conductor Britton Sheppard, of Somerset street, and driven by William Walters, also of this city, struck it.

The carriage was thrown around parallel with the car, and Douglas and the driver pitched into the roadway between it and the conveyance. Mrs. Douglas was sitting on the side from which the car approached and was the only one hurt. She was knocked into unconsciousness, and a deep gash was cut in her head.

Dr. J. C. Anderson, in his buggy, was following the Douglas carriage closely from the wedding to the reception, and arrived on the scene a minute or two after the accident. He restored Mrs. Douglas to consciousness and attended to her injuries. The ambulance and the police patrol were sent for, but when the latter, which came first, arrived Mrs. Douglas felt strong enough to go home and refused to go to the hospital.

Chief Kiely drove the patrol to the scene himself, and he made a searching examination into the cause of the accident. He said this morning that a number of witnesses declare that Walters approached the carriage without ringing his bell. Walters told him that he did.

SOCIETY NOTES.

Miss Mary Tweedy, of Crescent avenue, is quite ill with typhoid pneumonia.

Brockholst R. Miller has returned to William's College after the Easter vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Weightman, and daughter, of Philadelphia who have been visiting Mrs. Weightman's mother, Mrs. Rowland Cox, have returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. William M. Sandford and daughter, Miss May Pauline Sandford, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sandford and Mrs. H. F. Ege, of Truell Court, will leave June 20, for Plymouth, England, on one of the Honeyman tours. The party will be away seventy days.

Mrs. Helen Weil gave the second of her series of lecture readings at the the home of Mrs. J. Kirtland Myers, of East Seventh street, yesterday, her subject being "Pompilia." The third reading will be at the home of Mrs. George P. Mellick, of East Seventh street, Monday morning, the subject being "A Blot in the Scutcheon."

$100,000 to Improve Asbury.

Asbury Park has voted favorably on a proposition to issue $100,000 of bonds for beach improvements. As a result of the election the boardwalk will be extended north to Asbury's boundary line, and a large number of bathhouses will be erected and extensive repairs made in the present building and jetties. There was also voted an issue of bonds to the amount of $50,000 for the purpose of installing a new sewer system.

Headed Him Off.

The Cranford police telephoned to Chief Kiely this morning and asked him to head off Sherman Jenkins, colored, who, after a fight with his brother in that place, had started for here to get a gun with which to finish the quarrel properly. Sherman was spotted on his way to the trolley car. He didn't have a gun, and said he had no designs on his brother's life. He was released.

EXODUS OF BOROUGH TEACHERS

Twelve Certain to Leave and Ten More Probably to Resign.

A GENERAL REVOLT

Alleged Introduction of Politics in School Board and a Summary Dismissal Said to be the Cause.

With the resignations of twelve teachers already accepted and ten others of the remaining twenty-five undecided as to what course to pursue, the North Plainfield Board of Education will have a serious problem confronting it at the close of the present school year. The exodus has been greater than ever before and with the introduction of H. C. Krebs as superintendent to succeed Homer J. Wightman it will mean practically a new teaching corps.

An assertion has been made by boroughites not friendly to the present administration that "the introduction of politics into the school board is responsible" for what they term "the revolt." A member of the board asserts that it is but the natural result of better positions being offered and accordingly, at the present time the matter is one for contention

To a Daily Press reporter today, Superintendent Wightman declared that a feeling of dissatisfaction exists among the teachers through several reasons.

"In the first place," said Mr. Wightman, "since the new board has taken hold, it has been almost impossible to get the necessary supplies. There have been times recently when the manual training classes have had to be dismissed because there were no materials to work with and the teachers became greatly discouraged. I reported this matter and it has been remedied somewhat but not altogether. Again, the summary dismissal of Robert Sander of the manual training department after four years in the position, without any explanation, has been the direct cause of other teachers leaving. Mr. Sander is looked upon by State educators as one of the best manual training workers in New Jersey and in the school he was extremely popular. Of course, some of the resignations were due to better offers but in several cases the new positions were sought because of a feeling of uneasiness that pervaded the school when the teachers learned that changes might be made as a result of the recent election contest. The teachers who are to go are among the best we have and they have been selected by superintendents at Montclair, East Orange, Yonkers and other places where higher salaries are offered."

The teachers who will accept reappointment must announce their decision to the teachers' committee today and it will then be known how many vacancies will have to be filled.

ORGANIZED CLUB.

All Souls' Men Completed Formation at Meeting Last Night.

Organization of the Men's Club, of All Souls' Unitarian church, was completed last night, at a meeting marked by much enthusiasm. Champlain Riley, Philip V. R. VanWyck and Louis P. Starkweather have been named as the governing committee for the year.

The organization is to be called The Men's Unitarian Club. Its object, as put in a statement issued this morning, is "to promote the welfare of All Souls' church by providing ways and means for its members and friends to meet socially and discuss in an informal manner any subject of interest that may be brought before it."

C. B. Morse, Vice President.

The first annual meeting and dinner of the Technical Publicity Association was held at the Hardware Club, New York, last evening. At the election of officers Charles B. Morse, of Franklin place, who is manager of the publication department of the Ingersoll-Sergeant Drill Co., was chosen second vice president and a member of the board of trustees. Lucius J. Wightman, of Carlton avenue, engineer of the publication department of the Ingersoll-Sergeant Drill Co., is also a member of the association.

MRS NELSON'S WILL FILED

Divides $500,000 Among Her Children and Grandchildren.

OTHER BEQUESTS

Specifies That a Daughter Shall Have Feather Bed That Has Long Been in the Family.

By the will of the late Mrs. Hannah Nelson, of New Market, admitted for probate in the Middlesex County surrogate's office at New Brunswick, yesterday afternoon, her estate of $500,000, received by her in the settlement of the Fair estate, is to be divided between her six children and the five children of a deceased daughter, Mrs. Sarah E. Lefler.

This will give each of the children practically $71,428 each. The other one seventh will go to Mrs. George Whitley, of West Fifth street, this city, Elmer Lefler, of Cedartown, Ga., Edward Lefler, of Boston; Theodore Lefler, of Union and Wesley Lefler, of Cadwell, the grandchildren mentioned. The children who will benefit are Elizabeth Bonnell, of Union; Charles J. Smith, of Boulder, Col.; Frank L. Smith, who has just been located, living in obscurity at Topeka, Kansas; Laura Leonard, of Caldwell, and Abraham G. Nelson and William B. Smith, of New Market.

The will also made many minor requests, among them a feather bed, which belonged to Mrs. Nelson's father, to her daughter, Mrs. Leonard; furniture in the house in which she lived at New Market and her horse and wagon to Abraham G. Nelson; clothing to a granddaughter; watch and chain to granddaughter, Hannah Nelson, of New Market; silver watch, pitcher and furs to Mrs. Bonnell.

The testatrix in the will says:

It is my desire to have included in the residuary estate all of my property whatsoever, whether in action, possession, reversion or remainder and especially all of the estate, property and rights I was or ever may be entitled to receive from the estate of my deceased daughter, Caroline D. Fair, and her husband, Charles Fair, deceased.

The executors named in the will and who offered the will for probate are Abraham G. Nelson, and William B. Smith, of New Market and a nephew, John Bonnell, son of Elizabeth Bonnell, a daughter of the testatrix.

The executors are given the right to sell, lease, improve, mortgage, transfer or convey any of the real or personal estate as they see fit and are required to give no bonds.

The will is dated March 21, 1903, and witnessed by James E. Chandler, of 78 West 85th street, New York, and Edwin E. Bond, of Rowland avenue, Caldwell.

Miss Herford at the Park Club.

Miss Beatrice Herford needs no introduction as her name as a monologist is well known and her original monologues are all famous. The people of Plainfield will have the opportunity to hear her on Thursday night, May 4, at the Park Club and tickets may be obtained at Armstrong's drug store, through the courtesy of Mr. Armstrong. The proceeds of the entertainment, which is given under the auspices of the Cup Bearers' Circle, King's Daughters, will be devoted to such charities as the city nurse, Children's Home, Baby Camp on the mountain, and the beginning of a fund for an elevator at Muhlenberg Hospital. Such deserving local charities should receive the generous response of the public, particularly with such a card of interest as Miss Herford. The following are the patronesses: Mrs. Averill, Mrs. Faber, Mrs. Hooley, Mrs. Hall, Mrs. Hill, Mrs. Howard, Mrs. Ivins, Mrs. McCutchen, Mrs. Most, Mrs. Peck, Mrs. Reed, Mrs. Stewart, Mrs. Sullivant, Mrs. Timpson, Mrs. Titus, Mrs. Perkins, Mrs. Wilcox, Mrs. Wharton, Mrs. Saunders, Mrs. Stevenson, Mrs. Mead and Mrs. LaTourette.

M. A. Korff Entertains.

Martin A. Korff, of Watchung avenue, entertained a number of friends at his home Thursday night. Mr. Korff favored the guests with several violin elections during the evening.

Rev. A. C. Nickerson to Preach.

Rev. A. C. Nickerson is to preach to the boys, at Hazeley School, Tarrytown-on-the-Hudson, tomorrow afternoon.

BENEFIT SUIT GOES ON

Anderson Heirs Will Appeal Vice Chancellor's Decision.

ONE POINT INVOLVED

Husband, It is Still Contended, Was the Heir at Law of the Wife.

Vice Chancellor Pitney's decision in the case of John C. Anderson, administrator, against the Catholic Benevolent Legion, over the possession of the benefit on the life of James Anderson, which was announced early in the week after a year of litigation, will not end the battle for the money between Anderson's heirs and those of his wife. Counsellor William Newcorn, lawyer for Anderson, who lost the suit on the Vice Chancellor's decision, announced yesterday that he would appeal to the Supreme Court.

The dispute over the money involves an unusual point. When James Anderson died, it was found that his benefit policy named his dead wife, who had been the daughter of Mrs. Bridget Burke, of West Third street, as beneficiary. The name of the wife had been crossed out by one line, but the erasure was not in accordance with law, and had no force. A by-law of the legion rules that in the event of a beneficiary the benefit shall go to the "heirs at law" of that beneficiary.

Both the Burkes and the Andersons immediately laid claim to the money, under that by-law. Lawyer John Owens, for the Burkes, argued that the wife was clearly the beneficiary, and her heirs were entitled to the benefit. Mr. Newcorn argued that when Mrs. Anderson died her husband became her heir-at-law, and, consequently, the money went to his heirs.

Counsellor Newcorn is not satisfied that the Vice Chancellor's decision in favor of the Burkes will stand on review. The lawyer holds that, as the whole question revolves around the construction of the by-law, it is palpably absurd to hold that the husband's status as his dead wife's heir lasted only until he died. It is contented that he was either never her heir-at-law or his standing as such never ceased.

In his decision, Vice Chancellor Emery, after quoting the by-law that provides for the payment of the money to the heirs of the beneficiary in case of the latter's death, goes on to point out that in the contingency arising in the Anderson case the money could not be made payable to the member himself, or to his legal representative for the benefit of his estate, since such a provision, either by contract or charter, would be void, as creating an ordinary life insurance policy. He adds:

"The general object of these appointments or designations of beneficiaries, and the feature which distinguishes them from ordinary life insurance policies, is that they are intended to be made, not for the increase of the estates of either the deceased member or the deceased beneficiary, but for the benefit of some of the dependents or members of the family of either, and in order that the certificates may be valid, the persons to receive the benefits, must, I think, be living at the death of the member.

"And while there may perhaps have been in his case misapprehension of his rights, which may have led the member to refrain from changing the beneficiary, yet the result, which must depend solely on the contract for payment, is, it seems to me, the only construction of the contract and by-law which is reasonable or will make the contract valid.

"If a member under this form of by-law could add to the estate either of himself or his wife, by the mere failure to designate another beneficiary than the wife, then a method would seem to have been devised by which a purely life insurance policy to a member can be issued by benevolent associations, organized solely for the purpose of benefitting persons (families or dependents) who survive them. This would radically change their whole character."

Hearing Postponed.

The examination into Dr. G. D. Herring's effects in supplementary proceedings, instituted by F. H. Smith and O. H. Haud, has been put off for a week by Supreme Court Commissioner J. H. VanWinkle.

Mrs. Ballington Booth to Speak.

Mrs. Maud Ballington Booth, of the Volunteers of America, will speak on her prison work in the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church Thursday evening at 8 o'clock.

JUSTICES OF PEACE OUT AFTER TODAY

Anti-Spring Election Law Does Not Extend Their Terms.

TWO OF THEM ARE HIT

Justice Huff and Mattison Lose Their Commission May 1—No Remedy Provided.

Owing to the fact that the Legislative act which abolished spring elections in New Jersey municipalities, contains no saving clause regarding the office of Justice of the Peace, those now holding the office and whose terms expire May 1, will not be able to hold over until the next election as in the case of other officeholders. The office is a constitutional one and the act abolishing spring elections makes no provision for it.

By reason of this W. E. Mattison, Justice of the Peace in North Plainfield, will cease to be such an office on May 1, and Justice Fred Huff, of this city, is similiarly affected. All justices whose terms expire this month must wait until May 1, 1906, to receive their commissions, and as a result nearly five hundreds justice in the State will be debarred for over a year.

BARELY ESCAPED DEATH FROM ASPHYXIATION

HAND WORK OF PHYSICIANS SAVES SERVANT GIRL'S LIFE.

After working for several hours early this morning, two physicians saved the life of Hilda Hilson, a servant in the employ of Francis L. Montgomery, of East Ninth street, discovered at 6 o'clock in the last stages of asphyxiation. For nearly an hour it was the belief that the girl would die when a faint sign of life spurred the doctors to renewed energies and final success. At noon Miss Hilson had so far recovered that she could recognize her friends but was unable to give any explanation as to the cause of her plight.

She turned off the gas as usual before retiring last night, but evidently turned it on again by accident. She failed to appear for her early morning duties and a member of the family going to investigation found the girl unconscious and the room filled with gas. It was cleared as soon as possible and the prompt arrival of the physicians prevented a fatality.

Made Twenty-One Hits.

Leal's Thirds defeated the Netherwood Terrors Seconds yesterday, on the Terrors' grounds, by the score of 15 to 6. Brown and Tillotson, Leals, opposed Vanderveer and Vanderveer, of the Terrors, in the points. Leal's collected hits without regard to the feelings of Twirler Vanderveer; they made twenty-one. Leal's made four errors and Netherwood seven. Netherwood landed a scant six swats.

Sunday-school Concert.

Under the auspices of the Sunday-school a concert will be held at the Congregational church tomorrow night at 7:30 o'clock. The programme will include selections by the Symphony Orchestra, led by Kenneth Shupp, a soprano solo by Miss Bertha VanNuis Willis, carols by the school, and anthem by the choir, a vocal duett and an address by F. H. Andrews.

To Sell Household Goods.

Hezekiah Hand, auctioneer, acting for Mrs. Albert Runyon, of Mountain avenue, will sell on Tuesday afternoon, May 2, at 1 o'clock, at public sale, her household goods, including furniture, carpets, rugs, toilet sets, pictures, silver, glass, china and granite ware, garden tools, etc. The sale will take place at 41 Mountain avenue. Terms cash.

Optimistic.

The optimist, God bless him! is regnant over fate,
In vineyard of good cheer he works six days in every week,
And as he joyous wends his way, he shouts, in tones elate,
"The best is what I hope for, and the best is what I seek.
And this is what the man will find who resolutely shows
A confidence in better things, no matter what his goal."
Then, quite as if to emphasize his sentiment, he goes
To Geo. O. Stevens, Front street, near Grant avenue, for his coal.

Mr. and Mrs. George H. Dalley, of Whiteheouse, are entertaining Leslie Backer, of this city.

WELCOME NEW PASTOR

Cordial Greeting to Rev. A. C. McCrea by First M.E.People.

MINISTERS SPEAK

Rev. Dr. Zelie and Rev. E. M. Rodman Take Active Part in Reception Extended New Comeer.

The members of the First M. E. church, together with the congregations from Grace M. E., Monroe Avenue and other local churches, extended a hearty welcome to Rev. Abel C. McCrea and his wife at a reception held in Vincent chapel, last night. It was a delightful occasion and the large crowd that thronged the rooms gave evidence of the cordiality of the greeting to the new pastor and his wife. The chapel was tastefully decorated with flowers, palms and draperies. Rev. Dr. J. S. Zelie was selected to represent the Plainfield Ministers' Association, but being called away, Rev. Erskine M. Rodman, rector-emeritus of Grace church, attended in his stead. Other divines present were Rev. Dr. Parsons, the new pastor at Grace M. E. church; Rev. Dr. Cornelius Schenck, of Trinity Reformed church; Rev. George Mooney, of Monroe Avenue church, and Rev. Dr. J. R. Bryant, retired.

The first part of the evening was devoted to sociability during which all accepted the opportunity to meet Pastor McCrea and wife. They were assisted in receiving by officers of the church and their wives. A little later, James W. Jackson took charge of the programme and he made a short address of welcome, after Miss Bertha VanNuis Willis rendered two delightful soprano solos, accompanied on the piano by J. Edmund Skiff.

Mr. Jackson spoke of the custom of the Methodist church regarding its pastors and concluded with an interesting story of how Mr. McCrea happened to be assigned to the Plainfield church. This was because he was found to be a preacher, a worker, of a social nature which would attract young and old and a spiritual man. Possessing all of these qualities, which he said were needed in the church, it was believed that he would make a worthy successor to Dr. Snodgrass.

Dean Rodman was then called upon and in his happy manner spoke on behalf of the ministers' association. He declared that he was part Methodist for when a boy he sat on the steps of a church of that denomination in Brooklyn, waiting for his mother to come out. He afterward learned that she had gone to an Episcopal church, and he had not known the difference. Mr. Rodman referred to the harmony existing among the ministers of Plainfield, and these delightful relations he believed had pervaded the whole community. In conclusion he said that he hoped the blessings and smiles of God would rest on both pastor and people.

In responding to the happy words spoke, Dr. McCrea said that they were highly complimentary. He wanted it understood that he and Mrs. McCrea were one and that she had much to do with his coming to Plainfield. He referred to the presence at his former church in Ridgewood one Sunday of two august persons, (J. W. Jackson and G. M. Rittenhouse), who comprised a committee from the First M. E. church, and how they disturbed that little hamlet, the church and all the people in it. "They found me happily situated in a beautiful church and home and why they wanted to disturb me I do not know," continued Mr. McCrea. "There is just one reason why I bit the bait and that was because a great opportunity was offered for Christian work. No better work, for that could not be. I want to thank Dr. Rodman for his kind words and I shall do all that I can to advance the interests of the ministers' association and those of the city.

In referring to the way that Pastor McCrea's people follow him, J. W. Jackson said that the first Sunday he preached here, he entertained Mr. McCrea at his home and while there a couple that formerly attended his church in Staten Island appeared and wanted to be married. In this connection Mr. McCrea replied: "You will always find the parsonage available for such purposes."

This ended the speech-making and sociability was resumed during which refreshments were served by various members of the church, selected to act as a committee.

TOOK POISON; WIFE SAVED HIM

HE WAS TOO RETICENT

Prisoner Who Wouldn't Tell "the Pedigree of His Life."

JAILED INDEFINITELY

Couldn't Furnish a Bond for the Payment of $5 a Week for His Wife's Support.

John E. T. Taylor was arraigned before Judge Runyon in the city court this morning, charged with abandonment and non-support by his wife, Carrie Taylor.

"He hasn't been home for two weeks," said Mrs. Taylor, "and hasn't given me a cent in that time for the support of myself and our three-months' old baby."

"I don't see why I should," broke in Taylor.

"Why not?" asked Judge Runyon.

"I didn't come down here to give the whole pedigree of my life," was Taylor's reply, "but what happened that Saturday is this: I came home at 2 o'clock in the afternoon and found the house wide open. I left ten dollars on the table in an envelope and went out. When I came back she told me she did't need me or my money. If you listened less to your mother and more to me," went on Taylor, turning to his wife, "this wouldn't have happened."

"Now, Taylor," said the magistrate, "tell me just what the trouble is."

"I ain't going to give my whole life's pedigree—I told you that," answered Taylor with a snap.

"Well, then," said the magistrate promptly, "you find $200 bond to cover the payment of $5 a week for the support of your wife."

Taylor looked blank.

"I haven't got anybody to go on my bond. I'll pay the five."

"That isn't enough," said the judge curtly. "Get the bond or go to jail."

"How long will I have to stay in jail?"

"Indefinitely."

Taylor started for the door. "Well, I'll try and get a bond," he said.

"You'll stay right here," said the magistrate quietly, and the reticent prisoner wilted.

Doorman O'Gorman put him in a cell. The "pedigree of his life" was still locked in his bosom at noon.

It is said by the authorities that Taylor is a heavy drinker, and that he systematically neglected his wife.

MEEKER HEAD OF SEWER COMMISSION

ORGANIZATION AFFECTED, J. W. MURRAY, JR., BEING ELECTED SECRETARY.

Robert A. Meeker, John W. Murray, Jr., and DeWitt C. Ivins, appointed as sewer commissioners by Mayor James F. Buckle, met last night and organized by electing Mr. Meeker chairman and Mr Murray secretary. Nothing else of importance was done.

The commissioners will meet within a short time and plan to take up its work which will consist of assessing benefits and damages in the case of sewage extension. Announcement of a public meeting will be made soon.

Important Notice.

Mrs. Dennis O'Laughlin Plies Suicidal Husband With Antidote.

CONDITION SERIOUS

Doctor and Priest Summoned When Poison Was Checked—A Heavy Drinker.

Dennis W. O'Laughlin, fifty years old, a mason, living at 544 West Second street, is hovering between life and death through the effects of a heavy dose of paris green. He took the stuff at his home yesterday afternoon, and would have died but for the quick action of his wife and daughter.

O'Laughlin left his wife and daughter at about 4 o'clock in the sitting room of their home, and went upstairs to his own room. About a half-hour later they heard groans from O'Laughlin's room and went up to investigate. He was found on the bed, in a semi-conscious state, with an empty packet marked "Paris Green" beside him. Flecks of the death draught he had take were on his lips.

Mrs. O'Laughlin seized the situation in one quick glance. She made an emetic of salt and water and poured it down her husband's throat. The antidote worked, and she plied him with it until consciousness returned. The she summoned Dr. Boone and Rev. Father Frederici.

The physician found the would-be suicide in as good shape as he could possibly be after taking the dose he had swallowed.

O'Laughlin's condition was still serious at 1 o'clock this afternoon, and Dr. Boone stated that death might ensue at any time. There was some hope, however, the physician said, and every effort was being made to save the man.

No statement as the cause of O'Laughlin's attempt was made by the family, and Dr. Boone said he had no idea of what it might be. O'Laughlin has four grown children, and as far as is known his home life was unruffled. It was said by neighbors that he has been drinking heavily lately.

DOING BIG BUSINESS MAKING AUTO DEVICE

NEW PLANT IN WEST END WORKING DAY AND NIGHT.

While not generally known to local residents, there is in the West End an infant machine industry that promises to become one of the most important in the city before another year. It is the plant located in the former Campbell department at the Potter shop, established by O. W. Spicer for the manufacture of his patent universal joint. Starting with only a few men, the product had hardly been placed on the market when the demand for it became so heavy that the force of machinists has been inadequate, although at the present time the original number has been tripled. Two gangs are kept going, one day and the other night, with John Thompson, formerly in charge of the night shift at the International Pump Works, Harrison, as foreman.

The joint made at the shop is used in the manufacture of automobiles of all kinds and the new auto boats. It is Mr. Spicer's own invention and has so many superior points to others that it is being used by the big concerns almost exclusively. At the rate the demand for them is increased it will not be a great while before larger quarters will be needed for the workmen and in that event it will mean another local factory as the proprietor is fully satisfied with Plainfield and its advantages. Mr. Spicer, who is a cousin to D. E. Titsworth, of the Potter shop, is a westerner but has lived in this city for the past year.

W. C. T. U. at Reform Hall.

The members of the W. C. T. U. have been invited by the Reform Club to attend its Gospel temperance meeting at Reform Hall tomorrow afternoon, at 4 o'clock. There will be no meeting at the Union's rooms.

CENSUS TAKING JUNE 1

Thomas Hanna Will Visit All Plainfield Homes for Statistics.

STATE DOING WORK

Twenty Questions to be Answered and Penalty for Refusal—More Thorough Than Ever.

Beginning June 1, next, 1,100 enumerators throughout the State will begin the task of making the third State census with the idea of having it the most complete that has ever been taken in New Jersey. The Plainfield district will be canvassed by Thomas Hanna while W. R. Littell will look after Elizabeth and Herman Koerner at Garwood. The previous enumerations were made in 1885 and 1895 but neither was as extensive as what the present one will be.

The changes made in the census law as enacted this year were brought about as the result of the dissatisfaction expressed on the completion of the census ten years ago. The old law, which was passed in 1885, provided for the ascertaining of the name, age and place of birth of the inhabitants of the municipalities of the State and the recapitulation was seldom used except to find the total number of inhabitants of any locality. This year the schedules to be used by the enumerators comprise twenty questions to be answered for every inhabitant of the State, and are exactly like those used in taking the national census. Each schedule will include the name of the person, color and race, sex; year and month of birth, age at last birthday; whether single, married, widowed or divorced; number of years married; place of birth; place of birth of parents; year of emigration to the United States; number of years residence in United States; whether naturalized; occupation; able to read, write and speak English; if home is owned or rented; if owned, whether free or mortgaged.

Each person questioned by the enumerators will be expected to give truthful answers to the questions propounded, and the new law provides a penalty in case of refusal to answer. From the answers thus received it is expected that there may be prepared a report showing the total number of inhabitants of the State; the number of males and females; the number of white males and females; the number of black males and females; the number of single, married and divorced persons; the number of persons engaged in every branch of business and in the various professions; and other valuable statistical matter. In addition to this, information will be obtained as to the total number of school children between the ages of five and eighteen years, the number of minors and the number of males subject to military duty.

The method of taking the census has been materially changed, and greater accuracy will be had by the new method. Heretofore the enumerations were made by the tax assessors at the time they made their assessments, and there was no supervision of the work except such as was given by the department of State. This year, however, the census will be taken by specially appointed enumerators, whose work will be supervised in each municipality. The supervisors, in addition to keeping tabs on the enumerators during the progress of the work, will make tabulations of the results in each municipality according to the subjects mentioned above.

The United States Census Bureau has been trying for many years to have the States make their census enumerations on the same basis as those made by the national government, and New Jersey is one of the first to adopt the national method. Each of the enumerators will be designated by an official badge, and no information need be given to any one except a person who can display such authority.

UNIVERSAL

There is but one opinion about the Gas Range. Every woman who uses one agrees it is the perfected means of cooking and every woman who cooks with coal wishes she had one. Summer is the season to enjoy life. It is the playtime of the year. But there isn't much fun in spending the hot days in an over-heated kitchen. Summer is just beginning. Get a Gas Range and leave drudgery behind. With one, meals are prepared in short order, while the entire house remains cool and pleasant. Our ranges sell from $9.50 to $15.00 on monthly payments. Connections are free.

Titus H. Laury, the builder, not only gives low estimates on construction work, but executes it properly.

Stafford, the printer, says: He wishes everybody to read his adv., which is changed every day. Page 5.

The Union Market at 81 Somerset street, has the reputation for selling the best meats, fresh and salt, at the lowest market prices.

Henry Eggerding's cigars have stood the test of years because of thier high grade but low prices. They are sold only at his store on Park avenue.

William H. Pope, the North avenue electrician, is now taking contracts for the installation of electric fans. Better get your orders in before the rush begins.

Edwin A. Craig is an expert electrician in every sense of the word and guarantees to give satisfaction in all contracts. His office is at Front street and Watchung avenue.

The "Sorosis" shoe retains its neat appearance just as long as it is worn. It has superior qualities not possessed by any other make as thousands of wearers will testify. It is sold in Plainfield only by A. E. & A. L. Giddes, Madison avenue and Front street.

Levy Brothers, the West Front street dry goods merchants, carry only such goods as can be guaranteed to give entire satisfaction. The firm is handling a certain grade of silk that will not tear or crack and for dresses it cannot be excelled. A superior line of millinery is now being shown.

Always noted as a place where everything in up-to-date millinery is to be had at New York prices, I. H. Boehm's West Front street store is better equipped than ever this season. The line of trimmed and untrimmed hats is not to be equalled anywhere in the city. The department is in charge of competent milliners who will assist all patrons in making becoming selections.

THE FORUM.

Editor, The Daily Press:

I desire to inform my friends and the public in general regarding the "Lively Fracas About Old Doors," as was headed in the Courier-News of last evening, would respectfully state I have a contract with T. Canter for tearing out old store fronts and placing new front which has been completed, said contract provides for, at the completion of work, all surplus material to be removed and to become the property of the contractor. There also being considerable extra work done at the request of Mr. Canter about the other part of the building, amounting to considerable over $100, which he refuses to pay after a bargain being made, which has caused our difference. On entering the premises yesterday morning, I addressed Mrs. Canter, as a gentleman, telling her what my errand was and wished to see Mr. Canter, and intended to remove the surplus material belonging to me. I found, during my absence, the past few days, that some of my goods had been taken and used about the place, in a partition. I called her attention to the fact, and proceeded to remove the balance of my goods which were standing in the building, Mrs. Canter being present all the while this was being done, and there was no tearing down of any material, as stated in the paper. After a few doors had been removed, then Mrs. Canter turned on my man and myself without warning, using a club with such force that one of her missing blows struck the large glass in the rear entrance of the store, breaking it. One of the blows dealt heavily on the arm of my employe. I also received a few pelts. Then Mr. Canter soon appeared. At first he could not be found. At their refusing me my goods, I made no further attempt to take the goods, then advised them to get counsel in the matter and demanded settlement, where I will now establish my claim, as neither the contract money or the extra work has been paid. William H. Kirch.

ROJESTVENSKY SAILS

Nebogatoff s Squadron to Join Him In Pacific.

GENERAL LINEVITCH INTERVIEWED

Russia's Third Pacific Squadron Reported Close to Penang, Heading For Singapore to Re-enforce the Main Fleet.

LONDON, April 29.—The Russian second Pacific squadron has been sighted off Cape Varela, seventy miles north of Kamranh bay.

The Russian squadron, with its transports, left Kamranh bay on Wednesday evening for an unknown destination.

The warships were provisioned for six months, and it is thought here that they were bound for Vladivostok by way of the Pacific.

It is thought Admiral Rojestvensky will await Nebogatoff at one of the islands of the Pacific.

Vice Admiral Nebogatoff's division was expected to arrive on Thursday in Indo-Chinese waters, where, it is believed, the admiral will receive instructions regarding the place where he is to effect a junction with Admiral Rojestvensky, whose squadron, besides twenty-five warships, includes a repairing ship and a water tank ship.

The British steamer Catherine Apear, which has arrived at the island of Penang from Calcutta, reports having passed two detachments of eight and seven warships respectively Thursday night sixty miles south of Penang.

They were heading for Singapore and are supposed to be Nebogatoff's squadron.

General Linevitch, interviewed at Gunshu pass, expressed himself as highly satisfied with the present condition of the Russian army and its readiness to assume the offensive. He manifested emphatic regret for the retreat from Mukden. The new commander in chief believes that the peril to the army at that juncture was overestimated and that the day was far from being lost when the retreat was ordered.

With his eyes gleaming with an indomitable energy and emphasizing his words with a blow upon the camp table before him General Linevitch exclaimed:

"I would certainly not have retreated. I realize that it is easy now to pass judgment upon accomplished facts, but nevertheless I repeat I would not have retreated. I persuaded Kuropatkin to stand at Tie pass, and we halted there for a time. We could have remained, but on account of certain administrative factors he considered it inconvenient, and the retirement was continued. The Japanese did not press us and could not do so, as their condition was quite as bad as ours."

LUMBER PLANT BURNED.

Milford, Me., Threatened by a Disastrous Fire.

MILFORD, Me., April 29. — Sparks from a pile of burning waste boards on the bank of the Penobscot river, carried by the wind into the lumber yard of Barker & Sons, started a fire that before it had been controlled destroyed twenty-one buildings and 1,000,000 feet of box lumber, entailing a total loss roughly estimated at $50,000.

A strong wind spread the flames rapidly, and for a time it was thought that the village, with its large lumber interests, would be wiped out. At dusk the wind died down, and, fire apparatus arriving from Bangor and Oldtown, the progress of the flames was checked.

The buildings destroyed included the Episcopal church, the Maine Central railroad station, the town hall, three stores and fifteen dwellings. The buildings were small, of wooden frames, and did not average over $2,000 in value. The lumber loss falls chiefly on Barker & Sons and is estimated at $10,000. The Jordan Lumber company of Oldtown was a small loser.

England to Have Record Warship.

LONDON, April 29.—Arthur Hamilton Lee, civil lord of the admiralty, speaking at Gosport last night, said that the lessons of the Russo-Japanese war had necessitated changing the designs of projected British warships and that new designs are nearly completed. The admiralty, he said, is preparing to begin the construction at Portsmouth of the most powerful battleship the world has ever seen and to build it in the shortest time on record.

Meningitis Death Roll Decreasing.

NEW YORK, April 29.—There has been a considerable decrease in the number of deaths from cerebro spinal meningitis throughout Greater New York during the past week, and Health Officer Darlington states that with the approach of warm weather, when windows are thrown open and people begin to live in the open air, the epidemic will probably receive a decided check if the disease is not almost wiped out.

Kaiser Wilhelm at Bari.

BARI, Italy, April 29.—Emperor William of Germany, the empress and Princes Eitel, Frederick and Oscar have been the objects of a great deal of friendly curiosity here, attracting a great number of people from the surrounding provinces. Today the emperor visited the environs of Bari, which contain unique monuments of Suabian dominion in southern Italy.

PRESIDENT'S RETURN

Minister Bowen at Caracas May Be Forced Out.

MUST PROVE VENEZUELAN CHARGES

Secretary Taft and the Administration Said to Be Backing Assistant Secretary of State Loomis In the Controversy.

WASHINGTON, April 29.—Minister Bowen will be forced to leave his Venezuelan post and sooner or later the diplomatic service, according to statements in high official quarters.

It is said now that the only thing that will save him from retirement will be a substantiation of the charges against Assistant Secretary Loomis. Secretary Taft has, it is said, resolved to call him here to present his proofs if he has any. If the president assents the order will be issued at once.

Months ago Mr. Bowen reported to Secretary Hay that rumors affecting the integrity of his predecessor were in free circulation in Caracas and that to his own knowledge these rumors had been transmitted promptly by the foreign diplomatic representatives to the various European capitals.

Secretary Hay promptly communicated this message to the president and then admonished Mr. Bowen that it scarcely was becoming an American minister to allow his predecessor to be traduced when the honor of the mission was involved. Meanwhile an investigation was conducted here which satisfied the authorities of the innocence of Mr. Loomis.

Mr. Loomis has added nothing to the statement he issued specifically denying the three principal charges made against him. The fact that he gave out this statement after consulting Secretary Taft is taken to prove that he has the backing of the administration and that both the president and Taft will support Loomis rather than Bowen.

An early result of the controversy will be a general shifting around of ministers in South America. Bowen will leave Venezuela, but it cannot yet be learned whether he will be dropped or shifted. Minister Dudley, in Peru, or Minister Russell, in Colombia, will go to Caracas. John Barrett will be displaced at Panama by Judge Charles E. Magoon, but will be given a berth.

There is a vacancy now in Chile, which he may get, or he may replace Dudley or Russell. If Bowen is dropped at once a new man will have to be named for one of the posts.

President Roosevelt's return, in spite of official denials, has undoubtedly been hastened by the charges against Loomis and the need of shifting of ministers in South America.

A Glenwood (Colo.) report says that as a rumor had reached there that the president was slightly indisposed and did not participate in the hunt an inquiry by telephone to the Smith ranch, two miles from Camp Roosevelt, was made. In reply it was stated that the president never was in better health.

Urge Sanitary Reforms In Cuba.

HAVANA, April 29.—A communication from President Palma, which was read in the senate here, disclosed the fact that the United States had sent a note to the Cuban government insisting that it carry out the contracts made during intervention with American citizens for sewering and paving Havana and Santiago and constructing waterworks at Santiago. President Palma, in view of the American note, urges congress to appropriate without further delay a sum sufficient to begin the works.

Edward En Route to Paris.

MARSEILLES, April 29. — When King Edward and Queen Alexandra, on board the British royal yacht Victoria and Albert, which is escorted by the cruisers Suffolk and Aboukir, arrived here the British vessels and the shore batteries exchanged a salute of twenty-one guns. Their majesties left for Paris on a special railway train at 9:45 o'clock this morning.

Negro Hanged at Donaldson, La.

DONALDSON, La., April 29.—Jules Valentine, a negro, was hanged here. In attempting to rob the home of W. C. Hazlip, Valentine aroused Mrs. Hazlip and knocked her left eyeball from its socket, forcing its subsequent removal. Lynching was threatened, but a special term of court was held and the negro convicted.

Bust of Stonewall Jackson.

BOSTON, April 29.—A bust of General Stonewall Jackson which has been in the possession of Colonel John A. Bruce of Brookline for the past forty years has been sent south to be placed in the Confederate museum at Richmond, Va. The bust formerly was the property of President Jefferson Davis of the Confederacy.

MRS. ANNA CRANE BURIED THIS MORNING

FUNERAL SERVICES CONDUCTED BY TWO MINISTERS.

The funeral services of Mrs. Anne Crane were held this morning at 11 o'clock from the home of her daughter, Mrs. E. L. Finch, of Park avenue. Rev. E. Vicars Stevenson, rector of Grace church, assisted by Rev. Erskine M. Redman, conducted the services. There were many floral tributes and the attendance of friends was large. The interment was in Hillside Cemetery.

Mrs. Crane belonged to one of the oldest families of New York. She was for many years a member of St. James church, New York, and retained her membership there up to the time of her death, although when able she attended Grace church, this city.

REINHART DEFEATED.

Beaten in Second Round in Lakewood Tournament by F. O. Jennings Yesterday.

In the first round for the Country Club cup at the Lakewood Golf Club tournament yesterday, F. O. Reinhart defeated L. A. Hamilton, Englewood, by 1 up, but in the second round he was beaten by F. O. Jennings, Garden City, by 3 up and 2 to play.

Both the Massachusetts scratch men, Chick and Egan, won their matches yesterday morning, but Travis, the scratch man of the Metropolitan Golf Association, met with defeat. His conqueror was Chick, but he afterward lost out to F. M. Olyphant, Jr., the Princeton lad who holds the New Jersey State championship. There will be two handicaps today, besides the match play.

WOMEN PLAN TO AID CARNIVAL SCHEME

HOSPITAL AUXILIARY APPOINTS COMMITTEES FOR THE AFFAIR.

Plans for the part to be taken by the Women's Auxiliary to the Board of Governors of Muhlenberg Hospital in the carnival to be held for the benefit of the hospital were discussed at a meeting held yesterday at the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church, and the heads of the various committees to be in charge of the booths in the auxiliary tent, to be located on the grounds at West Fourth street and Darrow avenue, were appointed as follows:

Miss Elizabeth R. Cock, fancy table; Mrs. Edward Love, ice cream; Mrs Walter Gasten, stationery; Mrs. Herman Schwed, cigars and tobacco; Mrs. George H. Babcock, Mrs. Rufus Lincoln, Mrs. I. N. VanSickle, cake; Miss Susan Rafferty, tea room; Mrs. William M. Stillman; rest room; Miss Emily B. Tracy, candy; Mrs. Henry Clay Irons, flowers; Mrs. Charles E. Ryder, lemonade; Mrs. Henry L Hall, Red Cross.

These women will select those who are to assist them at the various booths and tables and their names will be announced within a short time. Other details regarding the carnival were talked about all for the purpose of lending as much support toward the affair as possible.

It was reported that the total amount received through the "cycle" scheme, for the furnishing of the new Nurses' Home has now reached $760.

Mrs. Edward F. Feickert was appointed purchaser for May and she with Mrs. Daniel F. Ginna and Mrs. Burton Hall will comprise the visitors.

is a fairly large amount of money. How to get it is a question, and how to take care of it after you do get it is another. The way to get it is to save, and deposit a certain sum each month. By allowing the interest to compound semi-annually, the principle is surprisingly increased. We take care of the large and small deposits and pay 3½ per cent. interest.

PADEREWSKI IS ILL

Famous Virtuoso Stricken at Niagara Falls.

HIS PHYSICIANS FEAR MENINGITIS.

Greatest Living Exponent of Piano Music Known the World Over. All Engagements Canceled For the Present.

NIAGARA FALLS, N. Y., April 29.—Ignace Paderewski, the great pianist, is seriously ill in this city from a strange cause. His engagement here last night had to be canceled.

On Thursday night Paderewski gave a concert at London, Ont. While he was playing one of his most difficult pieces he suddenly felt something snap in the back of his neck. Immediately severe pains set in at the back of his head and down his spinal column.

He was able to continue the concert, but his condition grew worse through the night, and he was unable to sleep.

In his private car he made the journey to this city, arriving here at 11:09 o'clock. His condition is much worse, his arms are stiff, and he has severe pains in the back and at the top of his head.

A telegram was sent to Buffalo summoning Dr. Francis E. Fronczac of Fillmore avenue, a French specialist, and he is now here. Paderewski's special car, the Haslemer, was attached to the train leaving here for Boston at 2:16 o'clock in the afternoon, and he will make the trip through to that city for medical attention.

Paderewski has canceled all the remaining engagements of his tour in this country. Dr. Fronczac's diagnosis of Paderewski's ailment was to the effect that he is suffering from a severe attack of neuritis. It has also been suggested that his ailment may be something in the nature of meningitis.

Ignace Paderewski's musical genius, as given expression on the piano, is known the world over. He has made many tours of the United States, always carrying his audiences before him. His fortune resulting from his art is said to be next to Adelina Patti's.

He was born Nov. 6, 1860, in Dodolia, a province of Russian Poland. At the age of three he showed wonderful talents on a pianoforte, and at seven his instruction for a musical career began.

At the age of twelve he toured many of the principal countries of continental Europe.

He was a professor of music in the Warsaw conservatory at the age of eighteen. Thereafter he branched out as a piano virtuoso and won great success.

FITZ-HUGH LEE DEAD.

Death Came While En Route to Washington From Boston.

WASHINGTON, April 29.—Major General Fitz-Hugh Lee, U. S. A., retired, was stricken with apoplexy, the entire left side being affected, at 3 a. m. yesterday and died at 11:26 o'clock last night at Providence hospital here. The stroke came while he was on a train en route from Boston to Washington.

The train had just reached the Harlem river when the stroke came. The train bearing the general arrived in Washington shortly after 10 o'clock. Under the direction of Major Kean, U. S. A., of the surgeon general's office, the patient was removed to Providence hospital.

When the train arrived the general was conscious and received Dr. Tucker in the car. He said smilingly, "I am in charge of this man Kean, and he says I must go to the hospital, and I guess I will have to acquiesce."

Mrs. Lee, who is at Fort Oglethorps, Ga., with her daughter, has been notified, as also has the son George, who is in San Francisco preparing to sail for the Philippines. The other son, who is in the Philippines, has been cabled of his father's death.

General Lee had been spending a few days in Boston and was returning to Washington on his way to join Mrs. Lee.

General Lee long had been a prominent figure in Washington, and he always was given a hearty reception wherever he went.

Prior to the civil war, at the beginning of which he resigned his commission in the United States army, General Lee saw considerable frontier duty in movements against the Indians. He was an expert cavalry officer, and on one occasion, June 16, 1860, he was engaged in a hand-to-hand encounter with Comanche Indians near Camp Colorado, Tex. His services in the Confederate army as a major general are well known, and during the interval between this war and his active work in the Spanish-American war General Lee filled a number of important positions, including the governorship of Virginia, the presidency of the Pittsburg and Virginia railroad, the collectorship of internal revenue for the Lynchburg district and the consul generalship at Havana.

Following his honorable discharge from the volunteer army on March 2, 1901, General Lee was appointed to the regular army on Feb. 11, 1901, with the rank of brigadier general, and with this rank he was retired in the March following.

The Revolt In Crete.

KHANIA, Crete, April 29.—An encounter between insurgents and gendarmes occurred at the village of Voukolies, province of Kissamos. Three insurgents were killed and six wounded, and one gendarme was killed, and three were wounded. There is great popular excitement.

Weather Probabilities.

Showers; south winds.

NAN PATTERSON'S TRIAL.

State Rests Its Case With Sensational Evidence.

NEW YORK, April 29.—Assistant District Attorney Rand closed the case for the prosecution at the trial of Nan Patterson for the murder of Caesar Young after Mrs. J. Morgan Smith had been subjected to a grueling examination, and Henry W. Unger of Levy & Unger, counsel for the prisoner, made a motion for the dismissal of the complaint against the actress.

He spoke for more than one hour and addressed the majority of his remarks to the jury. He contended that no case had been made out against the defendant; that it had not been shown that a crime was committed, and if there was no proof had been adduced that the defendant had committed it.

Mr. Rand in opposing the motion to dismiss criticised Mr. Unger's address, saying it was in the nature of a summing up. Leaving all other considerations out of the case, he said, the direction of the bullet alone made it incumbent on the recorder to let the case go to the jury.

Referring to the identity of the person who purchased the revolver, Mr. Rand said:

"I do not believe there is a person within the sound of my voice who doubts that it was J. Morgan Smith who bought the pistol. It is not a pawnbroker's business to identify his customers."

Recorder Goff denied the motion to dismiss the case, and then recess was taken for an hour to give Mr. Levy an opportunity to decide whether or not he would put in any defense.

Mr. Levy asked for an adjournment until Monday morning, and Recorder Goff consented.

That J. Morgan Smith was in Hyman Stern's pawnshop on June 3, the day before Caesar Young was killed, was the line of argument Mr. Rand placed before the jury in his examination of Julia Madison Smith, his wife and Nan's sister.

Previously Stern had testified that the revolver with which Young was killed had been purchased in his pawnshop on June 3, but had not been able to identify Smith as the purchaser.

Nan Patterson was stunned when this most damaging testimony against her cause was wrung from her sister after hours of the most torturing and grueling examination by Assistant District Attorney Rand.

After Mrs. Smith had taken the witness stand Mr. Rand showed her three gold bracelets, a diamond ring and four pawn tickets. The jewelry had been pawned in Stern's Sixth avenue shop.

Mr. Rand forced Mrs. Smith to identify the articles and admit that they were hers and that the tickets had belonged to her.

She was forced to admit that J. Morgan Smith, her husband, had pawned the articles for her. Caesar Young was killed early on the forenoon of Saturday, June 4.

Murderer Drowned Himself.

MANTERVILLE, Minn., April 29.—Mrs. Henry Boge has been murdered here and the body of her husband found in the river. Boge had been drinking before he came home. After quarreling with his wife he beat her on the head with a stick, inflicting injuries, from which she died soon afterward. The murder was witnessed by neighbors who were attracted to the house by the woman's screams. Before any one could prevent Boge escaped. He was traced to the river, where his remains were found.

Electric Sleep Natural.

ROME, April 29.—At the meeting of the International psychological congress here Miss Louise Robinovitch, an American, delivered a lecture on electric sleep making experiments on a rabbit to prove that sleep obtained by that means is natural and not epileptic. On the reading of a report by Dr. Consiglio about the psychology of Russian vagabonds, Maxim Gorky being mentioned, the assembly made a great demonstration in the Russian author's favor, crying, "Long live Gorky!" "Let us save Gorky!"

American Honored by France.

PHILADELPHIA, April 29.—In recognition of his important scientific work in general and of his numerous researches in the domain of physical geography in particular the French government has conferred a distinguished honor upon Professor Angelo Heilprin of this city. A decree has been issued by the French minister of public instruction and fine arts bestowing upon Professor Heilprin the rank of an "officier d'academie," together with the decorations accompanying the title.

Carnegie Gift Not a Charity.

ANN ARBOR, Mich., April 29.—"This gift of Andrew Carnegie as an endowment fund for professors who have grown old in the service of colleges and universities strikes me as a very proper philanthropy provided it be wisely administered," said President Angell of the University of Michigan. "It does not seem to me that it would need to lower any man's feeling of independence to accept such aid. I should scarcely care to call it a charity, in fact."

Tablet Marks Where Monroe Died.

NEW YORK, April 29.—With appropriate ceremonies a tablet marking the house, 63 Prince street, in this city, in which President James Monroe died in 1831, was unveiled here by Gouverneur Hoes of Washington, a descendant of the dead president. General Fred Dent Grant made an address on "Monroe, the Soldier," and J. Van Vechten Olcott on "Monroe, the Statesman." Miss Mary Van Buren Vanderpool presided.

TRADE CONDITIONS.

R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Report of Business Outlook.

NEW YORK, April 29.—Business broadens in a wholesome manner, and the most encouraging indication regarding the future is the scarcity of labor disputes. These controversies are usually most numerous on May 1, but this year no serious trouble is threatened, and one beneficent result is the expanding activity in the building trades. Jobbers have experienced a good spring trade, and manufacturers are now receiving large contracts for fall shipment, while retail sales are of satisfactory volume except at a few points where inclement weather has temporarily retarded distribution.

Activity at the interior is evidenced by the increased transfers thither of silver dollars and subsidiary silver by the treasury, crop prospects being well maintained despite excessive cold in a few sections. Railway traffic continues very heavy, earnings for April thus far exceeding the same period last year by 10.7 per cent, while foreign commerce at this port for the last week shows a gain of $3,834,447 in value of merchandise imported and an increase of $1,947,550 in exports as compared with 1904.

Mercantile collections show further improvement, and money remains abundant and easy. Nothing occurred to alter the intrinsic value of securities, but the sixty most active railway shares averaged $3.50 below the recent high record. Bank exchanges at New York for the week were 84.1 per cent larger than a year ago, partly because of the notable contrast in Stock Exchange activity, and the commercial improvement is more faithfully represented by the gain of 16.2 per cent in clearings at other leading cities.

Liabilities of commercial failures thus far reported for April amounted to $5,758,808, of which $2,314,410 were in manufacturing, $3,163,627 in trading and $280,771 in other commercial lines. Failures for the week numbered 204 in the United States against 202 last year and 15 in Canada compared with 16 a year ago.

MINE DIASTER AT DUBOIS, PA.

Twelve Miners Were Killed—One Will Probably Die.

DUBOIS, Pa., April 29.—A mine disaster at the Eleanora shaft is the worst that has taken place in this region since 1896, when thirteen men were killed in the Berwind-White shaft, near this city. Twelve miners were killed and one had both legs and both arms broken. He will probably die. The explosion occurred at 9:35 o'clock at night.

Although it was known at the time that the accident was an appalling one and that the death list would be great, the news did not become generally known in the little village until morning. Superintendent Fleming was notified and organized a small rescuing party. It was slow work, because the brattice work had been blown down and had to be replaced as they proceeded. At 12 o'clock the rescuers found Harry Mohney, motorman. He was unconscious and did not revive until he was taken to the Adrian hospital. He could not talk, however. It was not until 9 o'clock that the victims were found.

White Spotted Tulle the Rage For Young Girls' Dancing Frocks.

White spotted tulle is the rage for young girls' evening frocks, and nothing is more suitable to the freshness of youth than this material. But it must be made over a vaporous skirt to give it a snowy effect. The most successful of these spotted tulle dresses have first an underskirt of taffeta covered with a second skirt of mousseline and then the tulle. On the bottom of the skirt is a wide Louis XVI. plaiting with a narrow ruching on each side and here and there a chou of white satin ribbon. The bodice is cut lower in front than in the back. The sleeves have a circle of pink roses above flouncings of tulle, leaving the arm bare beneath the roses. On one side of the decollete waist is a circlet of roses and on the other a ribbon bow.

Invisible checked taffeta is very mu used both for the elaborate afterno toilet and tailor made gowns.

An attractive checked taffeta framboise color is made with a stitched down in panels marke bands of white soutache braid fits closely to the figure in the portion. Toward the base the s is slightly draped in Louis fash caught up at intervals by embroidered linen over a full of the silk, creating a uniq The corsage is a semibolero broad straps, each bordere white braid passing beneath forming a tabbed bask.

The dainty ball dress pictur is of white mousseline chiffon mou over a transparent rose underskirt, the skirt are three flounces trimm at the edge with a tiny string of pompadour rose velvet. The simple little waist is trimmed with rose edged ruffles, and the girdle is of rose liberty satin.

Kate Bonnet

The Romance of a Pirate's Daughter

By FRANK R. STOCKTON

Copyright, 1902, by D. Appleton & Co., New York.

"No, you don't fear yourself," cried Blackbeard, "and I won't have it; I don't want any of that lazy piety on board my vessel. If you don't reform me, and do it rightly, I'll slice off both your ears."

At this moment a man came aft, carrying a great tankard of mixed drink. Blackbeard took it and held it in his hand.

"Now then, you balking chaplain," he cried, "here's a chance for you to begin. What would you have me do? Drain off this great mug and go slashing among my crew, or hurl it, mug and all—"

"Naw, nay," cried Greenway, "but rather give half o' it to me; then will it no' disturb your brain, an' mine will be comforted."

"Heigho!" cried Blackbeard. "Truly you are a better chaplain than I thought you. Drain half this mug and then, by all the powers of heaven and hell, you shall convert me. Now, look ye," said the pirate, when the mug was empty, "and hear what a brave repentance I have already begun. I am tired, my gay gardener, of all these piracies; I have had enough of them. Even now my spoils and prizes are greater than I can manage, and why should I strive to make them more? I told you of my young lieutenant, who ran away and who gave his carcass to the birds of prey rather than sail with me and marry my strapping daughter. I liked that fellow, Greenway, and if he had known what was in store for him there might be some reason for me to keep on piling up goods and money, but there's cursed little reason for it now. I have merchandise of value at Belize and much more of it in these ships, besides money from Charles Town which ought to last an honorable gentleman for the rest of his days."

"Aye," said Ben, "but an honest gentleman is sparing of his expenditures."

"And you think I am not that kind of a man, do you?" shouted the pirate. "But let me tell you this. I am sailing now for Topsail Inlet, on the North Carolina coast, and I am going to run in there, disperse this fleet, sell my goods, and—"

"Be hanged?" interpolated Greenway in surprise.

"Not a bit of it, you croaking crow," roared the pirate. "Not a bit of it. Don't you know, you dullhead, that our good King George has issued a proclamation to the Brethren of the Coast to come in and behave themselves like honest citizens and receive their pardon? I have done that once, and so I know all about it; but I backslid, showing that my conversion was badly done."

"An' Master Bonnet?" he asked. "If ye go out o' piracy he may go too, and take the oath."

"Of course he may," cried the pirate, "and of course he shall; I will see to that myself. Then I will give him back his ship, for I don't want it, and let him become an honest merchant."

"Give him back his ship!" exclaimed Greenway, his countenance downcast. "That will be puttin' into his hands the means o' beginnin' again a life o' sin. I pray ye, don't do that."

Blackbeard leaned back and laughed. "I swear that I thought it would be one of the very first steps in conversion for me to give back to the fellow the ship which is his own and which I have taken away from him. But fear not, my noble pirate's clerk; he is not the man that I am; he is a vile coward and when he has taken the oath he will be afraid to break it. Moreover—"

"And if, with that ship," said Greenway, his eyes beginning to sparkle, "he become an honest merchant—"

"I don't trust him," said Blackbeard; "he is a knave and a sharper, and there is no truth in him. But when you have settled up my business, my clerk, and have gotten me well converted, I will send you away with him, and you shall take up again the responsibility of his soul."

The Scotchman clapped his horny hands together. "And once I get him back to Bridgetown, I will burn his cursed ship!"

"Heigho!" cried Blackbeard, "and that will be your way of converting him? You know your business, my royal chaplain, you know it well." And with that he gave Greenway a tremendous slap on the back which would have dashed to the deck an ordinary man, but Ben Greenway was a Scotchman, tough as a yew tree.

CHAPTER XXXI.

CAPTAIN THOMAS OF THE ROYAL JAMES.

WHEN Blackbeard's little fleet anchored in Topsail Inlet, Stede Bonnet, who had not been informed of the intentions of the pirate, was a good deal puzzled. Since joining Blackbeard's fleet in the vessel which came up from Belize, Bonnet had considered himself very shabbily treated, and his reasons for that opinion were not bad. During the engagements off Charles Town his services had not been required and his opinion had not been consulted, Blackbeard having no use for the one and no respect for the owner. The pirate captain had taken a fancy to Ben Greenway, while his contempt for the Scotchman's master increased day by day; and it was for this reason that Greenway had been taken on board the flag-ship, while Bonnet remained on one of the smaller vessels.

Bonnet was in a discontented and somewhat sulky mood, but when Blackbeard's full plans were made known to him and he found that he might again resume command of his own vessel, the Revenge, if he chose to do so, his eyes began to sparkle once more.

Ben Greenway soon resumed his former position with Bonnet, for it did not take Blackbeard very long to settle up his affairs, and in a very short time he became tired of the work of conversion; or, to speak more correctly, of the bore of talking about it. Bonnet was glad to have the Scotchman back again, although he never ceased to declare his desire to get rid of this faithful friend and helper; for, when the Revenge again came into his hands, there were many things to be done, and few people to help him do it.

"It will be merchandise an' fair trade this time," said Ben, "an' ye'll find it no' so easy as your piracies, though safer. An' when ye're off to see the governor an' hae got your pardon, it'll be a happy day, Master Bonnet, for ye an' for your daughter, an' for your brother-in-law an' everybody in Bridgetown wha either knew ye or respected ye."

"No more of that," cried Bonnet. "I did not say I was going to Bridgetown, or that I wanted anybody there to respect me. It is my purpose to fit out the Revenge as a privateer and get a commission to sail in her in the war between Spain and the Allies. This will be much more to my taste, Ben Greenway, than trading in sugar and hides."

Greenway was very grave.

"There is so little difference," said he, "between a privateer an' a pirate that it is a great strain on a common mind to keep them separate; but a commission from the king is better than a commission from the de'il, an' we'll hope there won't be much o' a war after all is said an' done."

There was not much intercourse between Blackbeard and Bonnet at Topsail Inlet. The pirate was on very good terms with the authorities at that place, who for their own sakes cared not much to interfere with him, and Bonnet had his own work in hand and industriously engaged in it. He went to Bath and got his pardon; he procured a clearance for St. Thomas, where he freely announced his intention to take out a commission as privateer, and he fitted out his vessel as best he could. Of men he had not many, but when he left the inlet he sailed down to an island on the coast, where Blackbeard, having had too many men on his return from Charles Town, had marooned a large number of the sailors belonging to his different crews, finding this the easiest way of getting rid of them. Bonnet took these men on board with the avowed intention of taking them to St. Thomas, and then he set sail upon the high seas as free and untrammelled as a fish-hawk sweeping over the surface of a harbor with clearance papers tied to his leg.

"It'll be a glad day at Spanish Town when Mistress Kate shall get my letter."

"And what have you been writing to her?" cried Bonnet.

"I told her," said Ben Greenway, "how at last ye hae come to your right mind, an' how ye are a true servant o' the king, wi' your pardon in your pocket an' your commission waitin' for ye at St. Thomas, an' that, whatever else ye may do at sea, there'll be no more black flag floatin' over your head, nor a see-saw plank wobblin' under the feet o' onybody else. The days o' your piracies are over, an' ye're an honest mon once more."

"You wrote her that?" said Bonnet, with a frown.

"Ay," said Greenway, "an' I left it in the care o' a good mon, whose ship is weel on its way to Kingston by this day."

That afternoon Capt. Bonnet called all his men together and addressed them.

AMUSEMENTS.

Alice Fischer has made a distinct hit in "The School for Husbands," which is playing to crowded houses at Wallack's. Miss Fischer is an actress of pronounced ability and never has she appeared at better advantage than in the successful show in which she takes the leading role. New York's dramatic critics all loudly praise her preformance and in fact speak good words for the entire cast. The production is one of the best offerings on the Metropolitan boards. Evenings at 8:25, matinees Wednesday and Saturday at 2:15.

Thompson & Dundy, the world's greatest showmen, who transformed Coney Island into the marvellous resort for the masses ever dreamed of, have established the great Hippodrome as the National theatre, filling it with attractions which will draw the rich and poor, mighty and lowly in hordes both winter and summer, rain or shine. The memory of a visit to the gigantic show is like a vision of world wonders and yet the popular prices of admission prevail there as at all Thompson & Dundy undertakings. "A Yankee Circus on Mars" and "The Raiders" are the chief attractions but there are countless others. Block of Sixth avenue, between 43d and 44th streets.

LORD BADGE WON.

Corona Stakes the Feature at Jamaica Track.

NEW YORK, April 29.—Lord Badge, at 10 to 1, won the Corona selling stakes, the feature of the card at Jamaica, scoring his second victory in two days. The field ran well bunched to the stretch, where Lord Badge moved out and won driving by half a length from the favorite, Grenade.

The finish in the fifth race was very close and exciting, Gold Badge and Gallavant coming to the wire in a terrific head-and-head drive. The former gained the decision by a nose. Summaries:

First Race.—Pasadena, first; Tearess, second; Sparkling Star, third.

Second Race.—First Water, first; Ballot Box, second; Sunfire, third.

Third Race.—Dekaber, first; Dolly Spanker, second; Ocean Tide, third.

Fourth Race.—Lord Badge, first; Grenade, second; Dr. Coffey, third.

Fifth Race.—Gold Badge, first; Gallavant, second; Dr. Coffey, third.

Sixth Race.—Supreme Court, first; Phoebus, second; Billy Roche, third.

Entered For Kaiser's Cup Race.

NEW YORK, April 29.—The auxiliary British steam yacht Valhalla has arrived in port from Cowes, Isle of Wight, and anchored off Liberty Island. The Valhalla has on board her owner, the Earl of Crawford, and three guests—Messrs. North, Walbraham and Dr. Corfield. The Valhalla is entered in the ocean yacht race May 16 for the German emperor's cup.

Lewis and Hermann Fought a Draw.

BALTIMORE, April 29.—Harry Lewis of Philadelphia and Kid Hermann of Chicago fought fifteen of the liveliest sort of rounds here last night to a draw. Hermann, who was substituted for Kid Sullivan because of an injury to the latter's leg, gave the admirers of Lewis a very considerable surprise. It was the best fight seen here lately.

Norwood Ohio Won.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., April 29.—Norwood Ohio was the only pronounced favorite to win at Cumberland park, the steeplechase and the last event proving especially disastrous to the public.

Croix d'Or Won in a Gallop.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., April 29.—Croix d'Or at Elm Ridge won the fourth race, the feature event, in a gallop.

Sneer Proved Best.

ST. LOUIS, April 29.—Sneer proved the best in the handicap event at Union park track, winning easily.

Honiton at Oakland.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 29.—Honiton won the six and a half furlong handicap at Oakland.

What Will Mr. Morgan Say?

ROME, April 29.—The government has not yet decided whether the famous Ascoli cope, returned to Italy by J. P. Morgan of New York, which has arrived here from London, shall be returned to the cathedral at Ascoli or kept here. It is alleged to have been ascertained that the cope was not stolen from the cathedral, but that it was sold by its custodians.

Annual Tiger Banquet.

PRINCETON, N. J., April 29.—Kenneth S. Goodman, 1906, of Chicago has been elected managing editor of the Princeton Tiger, the college comic monthly, and William S. Hoyt, 1906, of New York city was chosen chief art editor for next year. The annual tiger banquet was held last night. President Woodrow Wilson was the chief speaker.

Warning Off Bait Seekers.

ST. JOHN'S, N. F., April 29.—The colonial cruiser Fiona is patrolling the waters of Connaigre bay to prevent American vessels from seeking bait.

SPORTING NEWS.

DIAMOND DUST.

The Olympia A. C. defeated the Grove Streeters yesterday morning on the Summit avenue grounds by the score of 26 to 23. The feature of the game was Perrin's home run which cleared the bases of runners. The teams lined up: Olympias—Stephany and Perrin, p and 1b; Stine, c; Scherb, 2b; Taylor, 3b; Egel, ss; Edgar, lf; VanZandt, rf; Smith, cf. Grove Streeters—C. Bimbie, p; E. Bimbie, c; Lubsck, 1b; H. Schillinger, 2b; J. Neil, 3b; Diehl, ss; Prentice, rf; E. Bremmer, cf; Kenney, lf. The umpires were Stine and Hamilton.

The Plainfield High School nine defeated the crack Morris High School team in a fast game this morning by the score of 4 to 0. Both teams played well together but the visitors failed to find Smith for more than one hit. Smith accomplished what seldom has been seen here before. But twenty-seven men faced him, and only two reached first base. O'Day pitched good ball, striking out six of the locals and made the only hit on his team. In the last inning in a collision with Doane, he was knocked out for a short time. On the whole, both teams played with more snap than has been seen here among scholastic teams this year. Lineup:

Plainfield High School—Smith, p; Davis, c; Doane, 1b; Thompson, 2b; Conway, 3b; Craig, ss; S. Freeman, lf; Brakeley, cf; H. Freeman, rf.

Morris High School—O'Day, p; Reid, c; Clougha, 1b; Blackwell, 2b; Fleck, 3b; Jube, ss; Frehe, lf; Walters, cf; Schwind, rf.

W. C. T. U. INSTITUTE

Union County Organization to Meet at Scotch Plains.

TUUESDAY MAY 9.

Programme for Morning, Afternoon and Night Sessions—The Features.

The Union County Women's Christian Temperance Union institute will be held in the Scotch Plains Baptist church on Tuesday, May 9, with morning, afternoon and evening sessions. Owing to the convenience of the location of the place of meeting a large attendance is expected. Mrs. Mary D. Tomlinson, of this city, as president, will preside at the sessions.

The morning session will open at 10 o'clock with devotions, conducted by Mrs. M. Winter, of this city. Greetings will be offered by Rev. T. Moore-Smith, pastor of the church and Mrs. J. Z. Hatfield, with the response by Mrs. M. F. Francis, of Elizabeth. The appointment of committees will be followed by a report of the executive committee.

"Why Should we Have the Curfew Law?" will be the subject of an interesting address by Mrs. Elizabeth Parse, president of the Plainfield Union, followed with addresses on "Anti-Narcotics," by Mrs. C. W. Scott, of Elizabeth, and "Christian Citizenship," by Mrs. M. V. Fuller, of Rahway.

At 11:30 there will be a Bible reading by Mrs. Emma Bourne, State President of the Union, and at 12 o'clock there will be the noon-tide prayer. Between the morning and afternoon sessions there will be a box lunch and a meeting of the executive committee.

Mrs. W. W. Casselberry, of Dunellen, will open the afternoon session at 2 o'clock with devotions, followed by the report of the executive committee. "Music in the Women's Christian Temperance Union," will be the subject of an address by Mrs. L. H. Noe, of Elizabeth. Other addresses will be "Cider and Home-Made Root Beer," Mrs. T. C. Bedine, of this city; "A Model Local Union," Mrs. M. D. Tomlinson, this city; "Work at Large," Mrs. Lee Cook Smith, of Montclair.

Mrs. Emma Bourne will conduct a question box, followed by miscellaneous business and adjournment. Supper will be provided by the Women's Society of the church.

The evening session will be devoted to a gold medal contest, Mrs. George T. Schenck, county superintendent of medal contests, presiding. The subjects for the contests are as follows: "How Mrs. Hennesy Saved Her Boy?" "The Crimson Ballot," "Score Off," "No Saloons Up There," "Poorhouse Nan," "The Terrible Charge," "An Edinburgh." These will be the contestants: Miss Marva E. Voorhees, Miss Madeline Edgar, Miss Anna Marie Healig, Miss Laura Palmer Wilcox, Miss Orrel L. Wrench, Miss Lydia Edgar, Mrs. J. J. Lowden.

After the decision of the judges there will be the presentation of the medal by Mrs. Emma Bourne. In addition there will be vocal and instrumental music.
